Colorado Appellate Rule 32(f) provides:

(f) References to Sexual Assault Victims and Minors. Except as otherwise provided by this rule or by leave of court, the following individuals must not be named in briefs or other appellate documents and must be identified by initials or appropriate general descriptive terms such as “victim” or “child”:

- (1) sexual assault victims; and
- (2) minors in criminal cases and cases brought under Title 19.

Any relative whose name could be used to determine the name of a person protected under this subsection must also be identified by initials or appropriate general descriptive terms. When the defendant in a criminal case is a family member of the person protected under this subsection, the defendant may be named.

NOTE: The Court of Appeals will strike any document that does not comply with this rule
