Please take note:

1. Children and non-parties are NOT allowed to participate in the Initial Status Conference.
2. To get the most out of your Initial Status Conference, you are encouraged to be in a quiet location where you can focus your attention on the conference. You may not operate a motor vehicle while participating in the Initial Status Conference, doing so will result in your conference being rescheduled.
3. Parties must appear on time for the scheduled meeting. Please test your equipment and/or find the correct phone numbers and codes PRIOR to your appointment. Failure to appear on time may result in the rescheduling or dismissal of your case.
4. Parties must be prepared by having read the Case Management Order – Pre Decree (Form FCF 400) which is available at: www.coloradojudicial.gov – Find a Court - Choose your County: El Paso

Immediately upon receipt of this order, it is the responsibility of the parties to notify the Family Court Facilitator Office if interpreter services are needed (family and friends are not allowed to interpret for you). The Family Court Facilitator office phone number is (719) 452-5104.
