ORDER

WHEREAS, the Colorado Supreme Court Model Criminal Jury Instructions Committee has formulated instructions concerning criminal cases necessitated by numerous amendments to the statutes of the State of Colorado since the previous edition of these instructions was published; and

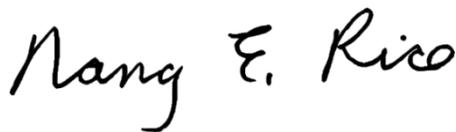

WHEREAS, the Chair of the Committee has regularly informed the Court of the Committee's work;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that these jury instructions and comments are approved by this Court for use in jury trials in criminal cases in the State of Colorado, subject to the following qualifications:

These instructions are intended as guidelines and should be used in cases in which they are applicable. The Court does not specifically approve any of these instructions not yet tested in an adversary proceeding. They are not intended to be a complete set of instructions for each case and additional or different instructions may be required depending on the issues of fact and law presented at the trial. Until these instructions are tested in adversary proceedings, they are approved in principle.

DONE and signed this 1st day of September, 2014.

PREFACE

In 2011, then-Chief Justice Michael L. Bender established the Colorado Supreme Court's Model Criminal Jury Instructions Committee (the Committee) and charged it with publishing an updated edition of COLJI-Crim. The Committee thanks the former Chief Justice for providing the Committee with the staff and other resources necessary to accomplish this sizeable undertaking. The Committee is equally grateful to former Chief Justice Nancy E. Rice, former Chief Justice Nathan B. Coats, and current Chief Justice Brian D. Boatright, who all continued this support during their respective tenures.

The Committee has endeavored to draft model instructions that accurately state the law in neutral language. However, the precise format and wording for instructions and verdict forms have never been mandated as a matter of positive law in Colorado, and this publication is neither a restatement nor a comprehensive summary of the law.

The comments that follow the instructions include references to relevant legal authorities, cross-references to other instructions, and directions for addressing alternative scenarios. These comments include citations to relevant decisions of the United States Supreme Court and the Colorado Supreme Court that were announced prior to publication of this volume, as well as relevant decisions of the Colorado Court of Appeals that became final prior to publication (i.e., cases for which a mandate issued).

The Committee's drafting protocols are explained in greater detail in Chapter A (General Directions For Use of COLJI-Crim.), which includes a section with several search tips.

The Committee intends to keep these jury instructions current by periodically publishing new editions or supplements. During the periods between these formal publications, the Committee Reporter will post online summaries of developments in the law related to criminal jury instructions based on legislative changes and decisions of the United States Supreme Court, the Colorado Supreme Court, and the Colorado Court of Appeals. This list, which will be captioned as the “Reporter’s Online Update,” will be available on the Committee’s web page.

Although the Committee expects that the Reporter’s Online Update will be a valuable research tool, the Committee emphasizes that it will be an informal publication that is not subject to review by the Committee. Thus, users should not assume that the Committee will make modifications based on information that appears in the Reporter’s Online Update.

In addition to these interim summaries of developments in the law related to criminal jury instructions, the Reporter’s Online Update will include notations documenting any errors that the Reporter learns of subsequent to publication. Accordingly, the Committee encourages users to alert the Reporter of errors at mcjic@judicial.state.co.us. However, here again, users should not assume that the Committee will make modifications based on recommended corrections that may appear in the Reporter’s Online Update.

The Committee invites users to submit recommendations for substantive improvements to the Reporter at the above e-mail address. Although such submissions will not be posted online as part of the Reporter’s Online Update, the Reporter will present all suggestions to the Committee for consideration.

Finally, the Committee wishes to express its appreciation for the suggestions of the Plain Language Jury Instructions Committee, a subcommittee of the Colorado Supreme Court’s Jury System Standing Committee: Judge James B. Breese (Chair), former Chief Justice Michael L. Bender, Justice Brian D. Boatright, Judge Catherine A. Lemon, Judge Tamara S. Russell, Ruth Falkenberg, Jay S. Grant, Esq., Robert S. Grant, Esq., Thomas J. Hammond, Esq., Professor Timothy Hurley, Professor Anthony Lozano, Miles Madorin, Esq., Penny McPherson, Blake Renner, Esq., Marjorie Seawell, and Penny Wagner.

In addition, the Committee thanks: Weld County Court Judge Dana Nichols and Diane Balkin, Esq. (who collaborated to review a preliminary draft of Chapter 9-2 (Cruelty to Animals)); Christopher T. Ryan, Clerk of the Colorado Supreme Court, and staff (who provided the Committee with administrative and logistical support); Daniel Cordova, Supreme Court Law Librarian, and staff (who assisted the Committee with research); Bryan Lopez (who provided the cover photograph); Andrea Cole, Joan Cordutsky, Joseph DeStafney, Kristin Marburg, Melissa McClure, Catherine McDaugale, Sandy Mills, David Steiner, and J.J. Wallace, Associate Staff Attorneys for the Colorado Court of Appeals (who helped proofread the manuscript); Jenny Moore, Rules Research Attorney for the Colorado Supreme Court (who also helped proofread the manuscript); and Christine Kreger, of the Colorado State Library (who provided technical assistance).

SCOPE OF COVERAGE

This publication includes several sections of model instructions that are generally applicable, model instructions for all offenses from Title 18, selected affirmative defense instructions from Title 18, and selected offenses and defenses from Title 42. In cases where the Committee has not drafted an affirmative defense instruction for a particular offense, the Committee has noted this in a Comment.

The instructions reflect all relevant statutory revisions that were made during the 2020 legislative session.

Although the Committee has not drafted model instructions for every offense and defense in the Colorado Criminal Code, the instructions in this volume encompass a sufficiently wide array of offenses and defenses that users should find them to be helpful templates when drafting instructions for other offenses and defenses.

CORRELATION WITH EARLIER EDITIONS

The numbering and lettering of the chapters in this edition of COLJI-Crim. is similar to the format that was used in COLJI-Crim. (2008). The instructions in Chapter B through Chapter I cover general matters, evidentiary issues, defenses, and definitions of terms. The elemental instructions for the Title 18 offenses are located in Chapter 3-1 through Chapter 23, with numbering before the colon that is derived from the number of the relevant Article and Part (this method of numbering is also utilized in Chapter 1.3 (crime of violence sentence enhancement interrogatories)). The numbers that appear after the colons are not derived from statute; they denote the order of the instruction within the chapter. For example, Chapter 3-4 (Unlawful Sexual Behavior) includes the instructions for all offenses in Title 18, Article 3, Part 4, and Instruction 3-4:39.INT (sexual assault on a child – interrogatory (at-risk victim)) is numbered in a manner that identifies it as the thirty-ninth instruction in Chapter 3-4.

The numbering for Chapter 42 (vehicle and traffic offenses) is an exception (as it was in COLJI-Crim. (2008)). It is numbered based on the Title that contains statutes defining vehicle and traffic offenses. Further, because the chapter includes only selected offenses from Title 42, the numbering of the individual instructions, after the colons, is based solely on their sequence within the chapter (and not according to the Article or Part number of the underlying statutes).

Due to the extensive revisions in this edition, it was not feasible to maintain the 2008 numbering and lettering for individual instructions. Although a handful of instructions in this edition happen to have the same numbers or letters as the corresponding instructions that appeared in COLJI-Crim. (2008), most do not. Accordingly, when conducting historical research to compare an instruction from this volume with an earlier version, take care to use the statute number or other source of authority as a search term (a method of research that should be familiar to most users, since COLJI-Crim. (2008) was a complete departure from the organizational framework of COLJI-Crim. (1983)).

ORGANIZATION WITHIN CHAPTERS

Interrogatories and special instructions are sequentially numbered like the other instructions, but they are also identified with suffixes (e.g., “3-1:08.INT” and “3-1:15.SP”).

The Committee has positioned the interrogatories and special instructions in each chapter immediately after the elemental instruction(s) to which they apply. Therefore, the comments to the elemental instructions do not include citations directing users to the relevant special instructions and interrogatories (except where a comment for an elemental instruction includes a discussion of a particular interrogatory or special instruction).

CULPABLE MENTAL STATES

Where a culpable mental state for an offense is specified by statute, the Committee has segregated it as a separate element to make clear that it modifies all elements that follow. See § 18-1-503(4), C.R.S. 2020 (“When a statute defining an offense prescribes as an element thereof a specified culpable mental state, that mental state is deemed to apply to every element of the offense unless an intent to limit its application clearly appears.”); People v. Rodriguez, 914 P.2d 230, 272 (Colo. 1996) (“‘knowingly,’ when offset from other elements, modifies all succeeding conduct elements”); People v. Bossert, 722 P.2d 998 (Colo. 1986) (no error if “knowingly” element set out in instruction as first element and all others described under number two); People v. Stephens, 837 P.2d 231 (Colo. App. 1992) (no error if “knowingly” element listed as number 3 and each later element assigned separate number). Further, out of an abundance of caution, the Committee adopted the following drafting protocol to guide its application of section 18-1-503(4): “a clear intent to limit the application of a mens rea should not be inferred merely because an offense is defined in such a way that the mens rea does not appear at the beginning of a statutory provision.”

Where the statutory definition of an offense does not include a culpable mental state, the issue of whether to impute a mental state is frequently the subject of litigation. See, e.g., People v. Manzo, 144 P.3d 551, 552 (Colo. 2006) (leaving the scene of an accident with serious bodily injury constitutes a strict liability offense because the plain language of the statute does not require or imply a culpable mental state); Gorman v. People, 19 P.3d 662, 665 (Colo. 2000) (“We have held that legislative silence on the element of intent in a criminal statute is not to be construed as an indication that no culpable mental state is required. See People v. Moore, 674 P.2d 354, 358 (Colo. 1984). Rather, the requisite mental state may be implied from the statute.”); People v. Bridges, 620 P.2d 1, 3 (Colo. 1980) (“We conclude that the mental state ‘knowingly’ is implied by the statute and is required for the offense of engaging in a riot.”). Therefore, unlike in previous editions of COLJI-Crim., the Committee has refrained from adding the culpable mental state of “knowingly” to any elemental instruction that does not include a mens rea as part of the statutory definition of the offense (unless the imputation has been recognized by case law, in which case the relevant authority is discussed in a comment). Nevertheless, where the Committee has concluded that it is debatable whether a mental state should be imputed to an offense, it has noted that possibility by including the following citation in a comment:

see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

TERM DEFINITIONS

Definitional instructions for terms that have statutory definitions are located in Chapter F.

Citations to definitional instructions located in Chapter F are included in the comments for the instructions in other chapters. However, citations for instructions defining subsidiary terms (i.e., statutorily-defined terms that are used in the statutory definitions of other terms) are included only in comments for instructions which use the subsidiary terms. For example, Instruction 3-2:01 defines the offense of assault in the first degree with a deadly weapon, in violation of section 18-3-202(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020. Accordingly, the comment to Instruction 3-2:01 includes a citation referring users to Instruction F:88 (defining “deadly weapon”), and, because Instruction F:88 uses the term “firearm” as part of the definition of a “deadly weapon,” the comment for Instruction F:88 includes a citation referring users to Instruction F:154 (defining “firearm”).

When utilizing the definitional instructions, note that some terms have more than one statutory definition. For example, there are four definitions of the term “masturbation.” See § 18-6-403(2)(f), C.R.S. 2020 (defining “masturbation” for purposes of sexual exploitation of children); § 18-7-201(2)(c), C.R.S. 2020 (defining “masturbation” for purposes of prostitution); § 18-7-302(5), C.R.S. 2020 (defining “masturbation” for purposes of indecent exposure); § 18-7-401(5), C.R.S. 2020 (defining “masturbation” for purposes of child prostitution). Accordingly, the citations to definitional instructions direct users to the correct instruction. See Instruction F:216 (defining “masturbation” (sexual exploitation of children)); Instruction F:217 (defining “masturbation” (prostitution));

Instruction F:218 (defining “masturbation” (indecent exposure));
Instruction F:219 (defining “masturbation” (child prostitution)).

Where the Committee has concluded that a term that is not defined by statute may be unfamiliar to jurors, it has included a comment noting the absence of a statutory definition. Many of these comments are followed by citations to other relevant sources of authority, primarily dictionaries, that trial judges may wish to consider when deciding whether to exercise their discretion to draft supplemental definitional instructions. However, the Committee emphasizes that it has not adopted these dictionary definitions as model instructions, and courts should be cautious when drafting definitional instructions based on extra-statutory sources. See, e.g., People v. Mascarenas, 972 P.2d 717, 724 (Colo. App. 1998) (“choosing one of the varying and not entirely consistent dictionary definitions of ‘dominion’ could have amounted to an expression of opinion by the court on a matter that was properly determinable by the jury”).

DEFENSES

Model instructions defining defenses are located in Chapter H, which is divided into two sections: \(I\) defenses that are generally applicable; and \(II\) defenses to inchoate offenses and specific crimes. In addition, there are several “Chapter Comments” at the beginning of the chapter that discuss organizational matters, relevant legal principles, and the reasoning underlying certain drafting decisions of the Committee.

As in previous editions of COLJI-Crim., this publication does not include a model “theory of defense” instruction. For guidance in drafting such an instruction, the Committee recommends that users refer to Colorado Practice Series, Vol. 15, Robert J. Dieter, Colorado Criminal Practice and Procedure, § 18.119 (2004) (“Instructions – Theory of Defense”). See also People v. Joosten, 2018 COA 115, ¶¶ 4, 33, 441 P.3d 14, 16, 19 (holding that, where the defendant tendered a theory of the case instruction which argued that he did not commit burglary “because he was invited in or had the privilege to enter the apartment,” the trial court erred “when it refused Joosten’s tendered instruction, or alternatively, when it failed to work with Joosten’s counsel to craft a permissible instruction”).

BRACKETED MATERIAL

The Committee has used brackets sparingly to identify alternative language within instructions, interrogatories, and verdict forms. For example, where a single statutory subsection defines more than one way to commit an offense, the Committee has not enclosed the alternatives within brackets unless the Committee perceived a clear disjunctive separation point that warranted distinct numbering of the alternative element(s). See, e.g., Instruction 3-2:25.INT (assault in the third degree – interrogatory (at-risk adult or juvenile)); Instruction 9-1:36 (harassment (communication)). But the fact that the Committee has enclosed two or more alternatives within brackets does not necessarily mean that there may not be situations where the court should instruct the jury regarding more than one of the bracketed alternatives.

Similarly, where the Committee has not bracketed alternative ways of committing an offense, it may be appropriate to delete one or more unbracketed alternative for which there is no evidentiary support. For example, in a case where the defendant is charged with possession of burglary tools in violation of section 18-4-205(1), C.R.S. 2020, it would be appropriate to excise the word “explosive” from the third element of Instruction 4-2:08 if it is undisputed that the only tool in the defendant’s possession was a screwdriver.

In summary, the Committee’s bracketing decisions are, like all other aspects of these model instructions, purely advisory.

SENTENCING PROVISIONS

The use of interrogatories in this edition is in accord with Colorado Supreme Court precedent explaining how to distinguish an element from a sentencing factor.

For example, the supreme court has held that a statutory circumstance which reduces a defendant's sentence for an offense reflects a binding legislative choice to create a mitigating factor, and not to add an element to the offense. See Rowe v. People, 856 P.2d 486, 492-93 (Colo. 1993) (endorsing COLJI-Crim. 10:20 (1983), a separate heat of passion interrogatory for first and second degree assault that informed the jury that it was to consider the interrogatory only if it first found the defendant guilty of the assault).

Similarly, the supreme court has made clear that "a sentence enhancement provision is not an element of the offense charged. A defendant still may be convicted of the underlying offense without any proof of the sentence enhancer, and this would not be possible if we were dealing with an essential element of the offense." Armintrout v. People, 864 P.2d 576, 580 (Colo. 1993). Consequently, a sentence enhancer that turns on a factual determination distinct from the elements of offense should be determined by means of an interrogatory, as indicated throughout this publication.

However, some sentence enhancement provisions that are based on determinations concerning prior convictions need not be submitted to the jury. See Misenhelter v. People, 234 P.3d 657, 660 (Colo. 2010) (explaining the prior conviction exception to the rule of Apprendi v. New Jersey, 530 U.S. 466 (2000), and Blakely v. Washington, 542 U.S. 296 (2004)).

The model special verdict form, Instruction E:28, is designed to ensure that the jury's response to each "verdict question" corresponds to a guilty verdict for a charged offense. Cf. Sanchez v. People, 2014 CO 29, ¶¶ 2, 17, 325 P.3d 553, 554-59 (jury's findings with respect to a sentence enhancer were not a constitutionally proper basis for inferring that it had found the defendant guilty of a substantive offense). Thus, where a defendant is charged with multiple counts of the same offense, the model special verdict form will prevent the jury from answering a verdict question for a sentence enhancement factor without clearly identifying the specific guilty verdict to which it applies (conversely, this same protection exists with regard to a verdict question that asks about a mitigation factor, such as heat of passion). Nevertheless, in a case involving evidence of an uncharged act that is similar to a charged offense, the Committee recommends modifying the verdict question to include language that explicitly links the jury's response to the verdict question to its guilty verdict for a charged offense. For example, in a case where the defendant is charged with first degree arson and evidence of a second, uncharged act of arson is admitted pursuant to CRE 404(b), the court could modify Instruction 4-1:02.INT by inserting the following italicized language: "Did the defendant commit the offense of first degree arson, for which you have found him [her] guilty in Instruction ___, by the use of an explosive?".

Finally, although some of the comments include references to the sentencing classification levels for particular offenses, the Committee has included such information solely for the purpose of providing guidance with respect to instructional issues. See, e.g., Instruction 3-1:16.INT, Comment 1. The Committee strongly discourages users from relying on this publication at sentencing.

CROSS-REFERENCING

The Committee recognizes that cross-references to other numbered instructions can serve as useful guideposts for jurors (e.g., a first degree burglary instruction that identifies the crime that the defendant allegedly intended to commit with the following language: "robbery, as defined in Instruction 23"). However, because an incorrect cross-reference may inject error into otherwise accurate instructions, the Committee has not included entries for such cross-references except where the Committee has determined that such cross-referencing is necessary to help the jury understand the interrelationship of instructions. See, e.g., Instruction H:29.SP (explaining that this special instruction is provided for purposes of one or more particular affirmative defense instructions, which are to be identified by specifying the relevant instruction number(s)).

SEARCH TIPS

This publication is navigable using the main hyperlinked Table of Contents, the individual hyperlinked tables of contents (located at the beginning of each chapter), and the Summary of Contents.

To use a hyperlink, maneuver the mouse pointer over a hyperlinked entry. In Microsoft Word®, a small pop-up box will prompt you to press the Ctrl key while clicking on the link. Doing so will take you directly to the corresponding bookmarked location. Clicking the link directly works the same way in Adobe Reader®, though that program does not include a prompting pop-up box.

To search within the document in Microsoft Word®, use the “Find” function (Ctrl + F). To search within the document in Adobe Reader®, use the “Find” box in the navigation bar (or use Ctrl + F). In both programs, craft your search terms as narrowly as possible (e.g., by using statutory citations, case names, or key words).

Use the “Find” function to return to the Summary of Contents from anywhere in the document by entering three hash tags (#) as your search term. Alternatively, in Microsoft Word®, use the Ctrl + Home keystroke combination to return to the beginning of the document, place the mouse over the photograph (which is hyperlinked to the Summary of Contents), and use the Ctrl + mouse click keystroke combination.

Use the “Find” function to return to the main Table of Contents from anywhere in the document by entering three asterisks (*) as your search term.

To go directly to a particular page in Microsoft Word®, press F5 and enter the page number (once this function is open, it can also be used to move forward or backward through the sections). In Adobe Acrobat®, enter the page number in the box that is part of the tool bar.

MISCELLANEOUS

1. The captions and comments are designed to assist users. They should be omitted from the set of instructions that the court provides to the jury.

2. Avoid using indefinite pronouns, formal titles, or words which can be construed as connoting prejudgment of the evidence (e.g., the term “victim,” which presupposes the commission of a crime).
3. Although the term “bailiff” is used in several of the model instructions, it may be appropriate (depending on the court’s staffing) to substitute the term “court clerk” or “law clerk.”
4. These instructions were drafted using Microsoft Word 2010®. The PDF version of this volume was created using Adobe Acrobat 8 Professional®.
5. In 2016, the Committee deleted the following sentence from comment 2 above: “When possible, draft instructions using the proper names of all parties and witnesses.”

CITATION

The publication should be cited as:

Individual instructions should be cited as:

COLJI-Crim. ____:____ (2020).

Individual comments should be cited as:

COLJI-Crim. ____:____, Comment ____ (2020).

The Committee has utilized the following abbreviated form of citation when citing to materials located within this publication:

See Instruction ____:____.

However, this shortened form of citation should not be used in briefs, orders, opinions, or other documents where it is important to identify the title and edition of the publication.

NOTATION OF REVISIONS AND NEW MATERIAL

COLJI-Crim. (2020) contains expanded Comments, revisions based on 2020 legislation, corrections to substantive errors that appeared in COLJI-Crim. (2019), and corrections to non-substantive formatting irregularities. The Committee has highlighted each substantive revision by means of the “+” symbol (which can be used as a search term by those who wish to survey the 2020 revisions). However, the Committee has not highlighted formatting revisions that are inconsequential. Furthermore, the Committee has removed the “+” symbol that appeared in the prior year’s notations, but it has retained the comment explaining prior changes for clarity.

Where the text of a model instruction has been altered, the “+” symbol appears at the point of the revision, and again in the new separate Comment which explains the change. See, e.g., Instruction F:45.5, Comment 4. (“+ In 2020, the Committee modified this instruction – including changing its title from ‘caseworker’ to ‘human services worker’ – pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 77, sec. 1, § 18-9-313(1)(a), 2020 Colo. Sess. Laws 315, 315-16.”).

Where a Comment has been added, corrected, or significantly expanded, the “+” symbol appears at the point of the revision, and again in the new separate Comment which explains the reason for the change. See, e.g., Instruction F:226, Comment 2 (“+ In 2020, the Committee updated the statutory citation in Comment 1 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 279, sec. 2, § 16-8-101.5(2)(c), 2020 Colo. Sess. Laws 1364, 1365.”).

B:01 INTRODUCTORY REMARKS, JUROR QUALIFICATIONS, AND JURY SELECTION

Good Morning, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Welcome to [Courtroom] [Division] No. [ ] of the [ ] Court. I am Judge [ ].

I want to thank all of you for your service. Jury service is both a right and a responsibility of citizenship in this country. We deeply appreciate your participation in this important aspect of our democratic society.

Before we begin the trial, I want to tell you what will be happening. Let me start by introducing the people involved.

This is a criminal case. It was filed on behalf of the People of the State of Colorado by the District Attorney's office. We will sometimes refer to the District Attorney as the "Prosecution" or the "People." The District Attorney's Office is represented by [ ] in this case. The "Defendant" is [ ].

[He [she] has decided to represent himself [herself] instead of being represented by a lawyer. It is his [her] right to do this. His [her] decision to represent himself [herself] has nothing to do with whether he [she] is guilty or not. His [her] choice to represent himself [herself] cannot be considered by the jury for any purpose and should not influence the jury's decision in any way. It must not result in either prejudice against the defendant or sympathy for the defendant.]

[The person seated beside the defendant is [insert name of counsel], who is an advisory attorney. An advisory attorney serves as a resource to help the defendant with legal matters during trial, but will not address the Court or the jury during the trial.]

The charge[s] against the Defendant [is] [are] contained in what is called an [information] [indictment] [complaint].

[Note to court: Crim. P. 24(a)(2)(v) states that “the judge shall explain . . . in plain and clear language . . . [the] elements of charged offenses.”]

The charge itself is not evidence of anything. It is not proof the defendant committed any crime. No juror should assume the defendant committed a crime just because he [she] was charged with doing so.

The Defendant has pleaded “not guilty” to the charge[s]. By pleading “not guilty,” the defendant says that he [she] did not commit the crime[s] charged. The defendant is presumed to be innocent. Therefore, the prosecution has the burden of proving the charge[s] beyond a reasonable doubt. At the end of the trial, the jury will decide whether the prosecution has proven, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant is guilty of the crime[s] charged.

We will select [ ] jurors [and [ ] alternate[s]] to be the jury. These jurors will consider all of the evidence presented during the trial. The jurors will then decide what has been proved, based on all of the evidence.

Then, based upon the law which I will explain to you, the jury will decide whether the prosecution has proved any charges beyond a reasonable doubt.

Before we begin with the jury selection process, I want to explain a few other matters.

[If you are selected to be on the jury, you will be able to go home each evening, but you will have to follow certain rules. I will explain those rules later.]

[If you are selected to be on the jury, you will be sequestered and have to follow certain rules. I will explain those rules later.]

If you are excused from being a juror in this case, you may have to return to the main jury room, if we still need jurors in other courtrooms.

In a few minutes I will be asking all of you some questions. These questions are not intended to embarrass you, but to find out if you are qualified to be a juror.

If any of you need to answer a question about a sensitive matter that you prefer to discuss privately, please let me know and we will have a more private discussion.

Since there will be questions asked of each of you, it is necessary that I place you under oath to tell the truth. Please stand and raise your right hand. Answer "I do" if you agree with the oath or affirmation.

Do you solemnly swear or affirm under penalty of law to answer truthfully the questions asked by the Court or counsel concerning your service as a juror in this case?

Thank you. Please be seated.

I first need to determine if you are legally qualified to serve on a criminal jury in this district.

Please raise your hand if you think any of these apply to you.

Are any of you not a citizen of the United States?

Are any of you not a resident of [ ]?

Are any of you not at least eighteen years old?

Are any of you not able to read, speak and understand the English Language?

Are any of you not able to serve on a jury because of a physical or mental disability?

Are any of you solely responsible for the daily care of an individual with a permanent disability who lives with you?

Have any of you served on a jury within the last twelve months, or are any of you scheduled for jury service within the next twelve months?

[Note to court: Rule on any challenges for cause.]

There are certain other situations that may require me to excuse you as jurors.

Before asking about these situations, I will give you more information about this case.

This case involves allegations of: [     ].

[Note to court: Describe the allegations using a method that complies with Crim. P. 24(a)(2)(iv) (“When prospective jurors have reported to the courtroom, the judge shall explain to them in plain and clear language . . . [t]he nature of the case using applicable instructions if available or, alternatively a joint statement of factual information intended to provide a relevant context for the prospective jurors to respond to questions asked of them. Alternatively, at the request of counsel and in the discretion of the judge, counsel may present such information through brief non-argumentative statements.”).]

The witnesses who may testify are: [     ].

Please raise your hand if you think that any of these apply to you:

Do any of you believe you may be related to the defendant or the attorneys?

Do any of you know anyone involved in this case, including the defendant, the alleged victim, the attorneys, the witnesses, me, or my court staff?

Do any of you know each other?

Have any of you ever had any business or financial dealings with the defendant, the alleged victim, or the attorneys, including any employment relationship?

Have any of you ever been involved in legal proceedings of any kind with anyone involved in this case?

Did any of you personally see, hear, or read anything about this case in the media or on the internet, including computers, other electronic devices or through other tools of technology?

Were any of you involved in the prosecution of this case?

Do any of you work for a public law enforcement agency or for a public defender's office?

[Note to court: Rule on any challenges for cause.]

I will now go over a few basic rules of law that apply in all criminal cases. These rules are important because they come from our state and federal constitutions and are the backbone of our American system of justice. They assure that both sides receive a fair trial. All jurors must be able to follow these rules.

[Note to court: The next series of paragraphs is designed to comply with Crim. P. 24(a)(2)(v), which requires that the court explain – in addition to the elements of the charges – “[g]eneral legal principles applicable to the case including the presumption of innocence, burden of proof, [and the] definition of reasonable doubt.” Because this provision also states that the court is to explain “other matters that jurors will be required to consider and apply in deciding the issues,” consider including definitions of culpable mental states, affirmative defenses (including insanity, if pled), key terms, etc.]

Every person charged with a crime is presumed innocent. This presumption of innocence remains with the defendant throughout the trial and should be given effect by you unless, after considering all of the evidence, you are then convinced that the defendant is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

The burden of proof is upon the prosecution to prove to the satisfaction of the jury beyond a reasonable doubt the existence of all of the elements necessary to constitute the crime charged.

Reasonable doubt means a doubt based upon reason and common sense which arises from a fair and rational consideration of all of the evidence, or the lack of evidence, in the case. It is a doubt which is not a vague, speculative or imaginary doubt, but such a doubt as would cause reasonable people to hesitate to act in matters of importance to themselves.

Every defendant has a constitutional right not to testify. The decision not to testify cannot be used as an inference of guilt and cannot prejudice the defendant. It is not evidence, does not prove anything, and you must not consider it for any purpose.

Sympathy and prejudice have no place in a criminal trial. The guilt or innocence of the defendant must not be decided as a result of either sympathy or prejudice for or against the prosecution or the defendant.

This case must be decided only on the evidence presented at trial and the law as I instruct you.

You may have to decide what testimony to believe. You should carefully consider all of the testimony given and the circumstances under which each witness has testified.

Consider each witness's knowledge, motive, state of mind, demeanor, and manner while on the stand. Consider the witness's means of knowledge, ability to observe, and strength of memory. Consider also any relationship each witness may have to either side of the case; the manner in which each witness might be affected by the verdict; and the extent to which, if at all, each witness is either supported or contradicted by other evidence in the case. You should consider all facts and circumstances shown by the evidence which affects the credibility of the witness's testimony. You may believe all of the testimony of a witness, or part of it, or none of it.

Do all of you understand these principles?

Are there any of you who could not follow these principles if you become a juror?

If you cannot follow these principles, you must say so now.

[Note to court: Rule on any challenges for cause.]

I want to ask one more very important question. Jurors are valuable because of their life experiences. However, sometimes those life experiences leave a juror feeling they could not be fair in a particular case. Do any of you believe that you could not be a fair juror in this case, for any reason?

[Note to court: Rule on any challenges for cause.]

I expect that this case will probably last until [     ].

The trial may last longer than that. I always have to qualify my time estimate because there are so many things that might affect our schedule. This includes jury deliberations. Once the trial is finished and I turn the case over to the jury to decide, there is no stopwatch on your deliberations. You will have as much or as little time as you need to reach a unanimous decision.

During trial, we will start each day promptly at [     ], we will take one [     ] minute break in the morning and one in the afternoon, and we will usually break for lunch between [     ] and [     ].

Recognizing that all of you will be significantly inconvenienced by jury service, would any of you experience an extreme hardship?

[Note to court: Address claims of hardship based on the statutes summarized in Comment 1.]

In a moment, some of you will be called to the jury box. At that time, the attorneys and I will ask additional questions.

I want to impress on you that there are no “right” or “wrong” answers to the questions you will be asked. What is important is that you be completely honest in all your answers.

Please remember to answer all questions honestly and completely.

Each of you must listen carefully to all questions and answers, even when we are talking to someone else.

By listening to what we ask others, you will be better prepared to answer when you will be questioned. This will help shorten the jury selection process.

Do any of you feel that you may not be able to be fair and impartial toward the prosecution, the defendant, the attorneys, or any of the witnesses?

Do any of you feel you may not be able to follow the law for any reason?

Do any of you feel you might be disqualified from being a juror for any other reason?

[Note to court: Rule on any challenges for cause.]

Now, each side may now excuse up to [ ] jurors, without stating a reason. Therefore, do not be embarrassed or consider it any reflection upon you if you are one of those excused.

[Note to court: After the parties exercise their peremptory challenges, read a list of the jurors who have been selected to serve.]

Ladies and gentlemen, you have been selected as the jurors to try the case of “The People of the State of Colorado versus [ ].” You now have duties in addition to your obligation to answer our questions truthfully, so I must now administer an additional oath to you. Please stand and raise your right hands:

Do you solemnly swear or affirm under penalty of law that you will well and truly try the matter before the court, and render a true verdict, according to the evidence and the law as I instruct you? If so, please say, “I do.”

COMMENT

1. See Crim. P. 24 (trial jurors); § 16-10-103(1), C.R.S. 2020 (challenge of jurors for cause); § 13-71-105, C.R.S. 2020 (qualifications for juror service); § 13-71-119(2), C.R.S. 2020 (excusing prospective jurors for “extreme hardship”); § 13-71-121, C.R.S. 2020 (excusing jurors for “hardship or inconvenience” in trials that are expected to take more than three days); see also § 13-71-119.5(2)(a)(II), C.R.S. 2020 (a prospective juror may seek to be “excused temporarily from service as a juror if his or her jury service would cause undue or extreme physical hardship to him or her or to another person under his or her direct care or supervision,” but he or she “shall take all actions necessary to obtain a determination on the request before the date on which the person is scheduled to appear for jury duty”).

2. This model instruction is not a rigid script. Like many of the other generally applicable instructions that explain trial procedures, it should be regarded as a template that trial judges can use as a starting point when drafting instructions that reflect their own preferred practices.

3. For example, the model instruction does not include language explaining the role of alternate jurors, how or why they are selected, or why they may not be identified until the end of the trial. The Committee recognizes that trial judges (1) utilize a variety of methods to select and discharge alternate jurors; and (2) have differing views concerning what information, if any, prospective jurors should be provided during jury selection about alternate jurors.

4. In cases where the defendant enters a plea of “not guilty by reason of insanity,” modify the paragraph that explains the defendant’s plea as follows:

The Defendant has pleaded “not guilty by reason of insanity” to the charge[s]. By pleading “not guilty by reason of insanity,” the defendant says that he [she] is not legally responsible for the offense[s] charged because he [she] was insane at the time of the commission of the act[s]. The defendant is presumed to be innocent. Therefore, it is the prosecution’s burden to prove beyond a reasonable doubt: (1) each element of [the] [each] crime charged; and (2) that the defendant was sane at the time of the commission of the act[s]. At the end of the trial, the jury will decide whether the prosecution has proven, beyond a reasonable doubt, the defendant’s guilt and sanity.

5. See People v. Smith, 848 P.2d 365, 371 (Colo. 1993) (“Although this court has held that the procedure of administering an oath to a jury charged with trying a case has been judicially recognized and is implicitly required, we have not articulated any guidelines as to when such an oath must be administered.”); Hollis v. People, 630 P.2d 68, 69 (Colo. 1981) (“While there is no explicit statute or rule requiring the administration of an oath to a jury in this state, the need for such an oath had been judicially recognized. See Minich v. People, 9 P. 4 (Colo. 1885). See also, e.g., People v. Freeman, 583 P.2d 921 (Colo. 1978). As well, our rules of criminal procedure implicitly require that a jury will be sworn to try a case.” (internal citations omitted)); see also C.R.C.P. 47(i) (“As soon as the jury is completed, an oath or affirmation shall be administered to the jurors in substance: That you and each of you will well and truly try the matter at issue between _____, the plaintiff, and _____, the defendant, and a true verdict render, according to the evidence.”).

6. See People v. Kinney, 148 P.3d 318, 320 (Colo. App. 2006) (trial court did not abuse its discretion in excusing a prospective juror based on a finding of hardship, pursuant to section 13-71-121, where the prospective juror “told the court she was a teacher, could not get a substitute for more than three days, and was scheduled to do a type of assessment testing that a substitute could not handle”), rev’d on other grounds, 187 P.3d 548 (Colo. 2008); People v. Isom, 140 P.3d 100, 103 (Colo. App. 2005) (because the trial was expected to last more than three days, the court had discretionary authority to excuse a prospective juror for “hardship or inconvenience” under section 13-71-121, and the court did not abuse that discretion by excusing a prospective juror who stated that he had purchased a nonrefundable airfare for a business trip and was scheduled to leave before the end of trial); see also People v. Reese, 670 P.2d 11, 14 (Colo. App. 1983) (holding, under the “undue hardship” standard of the since-repealed section 13-71-112(1), that the trial court did not abuse its discretion by excusing a prospective juror for whom jury service would have caused an undue financial burden).

B:02 ADMONITION PRIOR TO RECESS DURING JURY SELECTION

Before we take our break, let me remind you that you must not discuss anything about this case with each other or with anyone else, and you must not try to find out any information about this case from any source other than what you see and hear in this courtroom. Do not look up anything about the case on the internet or engage in any electronic communications about it with anyone.

B:03 INSTRUCTION PRIOR TO OPENING STATEMENTS (GENERAL)

Before we begin the trial, I would like to tell you about what will be happening here.

The first step in the trial will be the opening statements. The attorneys may make opening statements if they choose to do so. [Defendant[’s attorney] may reserve opening statement until later in the trial, or he [she] may decide not to make an opening statement at all.]

An opening statement is not evidence. Its purpose is to give you a framework to help you understand the evidence as it is presented.

Next, the prosecution will offer evidence. Evidence is what the witnesses say under oath, and items allowed as exhibits.

After the prosecution’s evidence, the defense may present evidence, but is not required to do so. I want to remind you that the defendant is presumed to be innocent. The prosecution must prove the defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. The defendant does not have to prove his [her] innocence or call any witnesses or introduce any evidence.

After all the evidence has been presented, I will tell you the rules of law which you must use in reaching your verdict. These rules of law are called jury instructions. I will read them to you and you will be allowed to take them with you to the jury room during your deliberations.

It is my job to decide what rules of law apply to the case. You must follow all of the rules as I explain them to you. You cannot follow some and ignore others. Even if you disagree or do not understand the reasons for some of the rules, you must follow them. You will then apply these rules to the facts you have determined from the evidence. In this way you will decide whether the prosecution has proven the guilt of the defendant beyond a reasonable doubt.

After you have heard all the evidence and the jury instructions, the prosecution and the defense may make their closing arguments. Because the prosecution has the burden of proof, it will have the opportunity to reply to any closing argument made by the defense. Like opening statements, closing arguments are not evidence. Their purpose is to remind you of the evidence that was presented during the trial and to argue why you should return a verdict of either not guilty or guilty.

After the closing arguments, you will then go to the jury room to deliberate on a verdict. Your role as jurors is to decide what the facts are, and your decision must be based only upon the evidence that was presented during the trial.

At times during the trial, the attorneys may make objections. This means that the attorney is asking me to decide a particular legal issue.

It is proper for an attorney to object to things which he or she believes should not be presented as evidence. When an objection is made, I have two choices. I can disagree and overrule the objection, or I can agree and sustain the objection.

Do not concern yourselves with the reasons for my decisions about any objections. You must not let yourself be influenced in any way by the objections or my rulings on the objections.

If I overrule an objection to a question, the witness may answer. If I sustain an objection to a question, the witness may not answer. You must not consider the question for any purpose or guess how the witness might have answered.

If I overrule an objection to an exhibit, it will be allowed into evidence. If I sustain an objection to an exhibit, it will not be allowed into evidence and you must not consider it for any purpose.

At times I may instruct you to disregard statements you have already heard or things you have already seen. You must treat them as if you had never heard or seen them. You must not consider them for any purpose.

During the trial I may need to talk with the attorneys out of your hearing about questions of law. Sometimes you may be asked to leave the courtroom or wait in the jury room while we discuss these things. We will try to limit these interruptions as much as possible. As a judge, I do not have any opinions either for or against anyone involved in this case. You must not think that I do, based on any rulings that I make or anything that I say or do during this trial.

COMMENT

1. See Crim. P. 24(a)(5) (“Once the jury is impaneled, the judge shall again explain in more detail the general principles of law applicable to criminal cases, the procedural guidelines regarding conduct by jurors during the trial, case specific legal principles and definitions of technical or special terms expected to be used during the presentation of the case.”).

B:04 INSTRUCTION PRIOR TO OPENING STATEMENTS (NOTEBOOKS)

You have received [writing materials] [notebooks]. You may use these [writing materials] [notebooks] to take notes during the trial. However, you are not required to do so.

If you take notes, you should not allow the note taking to detract from your close attention to the testimony and conduct of each witness and all other evidence received during the trial.

Whether or not you take notes, you should rely on your memory as much as possible. The notes you take are to refresh your own memory. You should not give additional weight to the comments of any juror based upon the quantity or quality of his or her note taking.

These [writing materials] [notebooks] may only be used in the courtroom or jury room, and may not be taken anywhere else.

To identify your [writing materials] [notebook], please write your name[s] on [it] [them]. No one else will read your notes. At the end of the case, these notes will be returned to the Court and destroyed.

COMMENT

1. See Crim. P. 16(IV)(f) (“Juror notebooks shall be available during all felony trials and deliberations to aid jurors in the performance of their duties. The parties shall confer about the items to be included in juror notebooks and, by the pre-trial conference or other date set by the court, shall make a joint submission to the court of items to be included in a juror notebook. In non-felony trials, juror notebooks shall be optional.”); see also “Implementation Plan: Jury Reform in Colorado,” p. 12, Appendix D (Proposed Criminal Jury Instruction 1:05) (Mar. 12, 1998).
2. See Frasco v. People, 165 P.3d 701, 703-05 (Colo. 2007) (although Crim. P. 57(b) directs criminal courts to look to the Rules of Civil Procedure when no Rule of Criminal Procedure exists, and C.R.C.P. 47(m) states that “[u]pon retiring, the jurors shall take the jury instructions, their juror notebooks and notes they personally made, if any, and to the extent feasible, those exhibits that have been admitted as evidence,” trial courts retain discretionary control over jury access to trial exhibits during their deliberations “[d]espite . . . evolving views in this jurisdiction about the nature of jury deliberations and the expanded allowance of questioning and note-taking by jurors”).

3. See People v. Willcoxon, 80 P.3d 817, 820 (Colo. App. 2002) (although the trial court erred by allowing the jurors to take the juror notebooks home because this procedure is not expressly authorized by Crim. P. 16(IV)(f), the error was not structural, and reversal was not required, because any harm to defendant could be measured by determining: (1) whether the jurors were admonished not to show the juror notebooks to anyone, or discuss the case or the contents of the juror notebooks with anyone; (2) whether there is evidence that jurors did anything improper as a result of taking juror notebooks home, such as using extrinsic information to assist in deliberations; and (3) whether taking the juror notebooks home prompted jurors to discuss the case prior to jury deliberations), overruled on other grounds by People v. Adams, 2016 CO 74, 384 P.3d 345.

B:05 INSTRUCTION PRIOR TO OPENING STATEMENTS (JUROR QUESTIONS)

Rules governing jury trials do not allow jurors to ask questions directly of a witness. However, if you have a question you would like to ask a witness during the trial, write your question down, but do not sign it. Before the witness is permitted to leave, I will ask if anyone has a question for the witness. [Occasionally, I forget to ask. If that should happen and any of you have a question, please signal the bailiff or me before the witness leaves the stand.]

I may discuss the question with the attorneys. If I decide the question is proper, it will be asked when appropriate. Keep in mind, however, that the rules of evidence or other rules of law may prevent some questions from being asked. I will apply the same legal standards to your questions as I do to the questions asked by the attorneys.

If a particular question is not asked, do not guess why or what the answer might have been. If I don't ask a proposed question it is not a reflection on the person proposing it, and you should not attach any significance to it.

COMMENT

1. See Crim. P. 24(g) (“Jurors shall be allowed to submit written questions to the court for the court to ask of witnesses during trial, in compliance with procedures established by the trial court. The trial court shall have the discretion to prohibit or limit questioning in a particular trial for reasons related to the severity of the charges, the presence of significant suppressed evidence or for other good cause.”); see also CJI-Civ. 1:16 (2014).
2. See Medina v. People, 114 P.3d 845, 853-55 (Colo. 2005) (permitting the jury to ask questions through the judge did not violate defendant’s due process rights); People v. Stevenson, 228 P.3d 161, 170 (Colo. App. 2009) (trial court did not abuse its discretion in allowing juror’s question, and concluding that it was not precluded by the parties’ evidentiary stipulation); People v. Zamarripa-Diaz, 187 P.3d 1120, 1124 (Colo. App. 2008)

(although a trial court is not obligated to do so under Crim. P. 24(g), “it would be better practice that a trial court consult with counsel prior to asking the jurors’ questions”).

B:06 ADMONITION ABOUT CONDUCT DURING TRIAL

Now that you have been selected to be jurors, there are rules you must follow. These are the same rules jurors have always had to follow. During the trial, this courtroom is a place partially isolated from the outside world. Your decision must be made inside this place and you must follow its rules. You must decide this case based only on the evidence and law presented in the courtroom. You must avoid any other information about the case from any other source. These rules are designed to make sure there is a fair trial.

There are two basic rules:

1. You must not communicate with others or among yourselves about the trial as it is going on.
2. You must not do any independent investigation or research about the case.

I will go over these rules in great detail because they are very important. I will also explain the reasons for these rules. If you learn anyone has violated these rules you must report that to me or my staff at once.

You must not discuss the case among yourselves in any way during the course of the trial. You may not discuss the case among yourselves until after you have heard all the evidence and you begin to deliberate on a verdict. In fairness, you must keep an open mind throughout the trial, and you should reach your decision only during your deliberations at the end of the trial.

Do not permit anyone else to discuss the case with you, or near you. If anyone, including one of your fellow jurors, attempts to do so, report that fact immediately.

Do not talk with any witness, or with the defendant, or with any of the attorneys in the case. You cannot talk to them and they cannot talk to you, even casually.

Do not communicate about the case with anyone else in any way, including in person, by telephone, cell phone, smart phone, iPhone®, Blackberry®, computer, the internet, or any internet service. This means you must not e-mail, text, instant message, Tweet®, blog, or post information about this case, or about your experience as a juror on this case, on any website, list serve, chat room, blog, or website such as Facebook®, My Space®, LinkedIn®, YouTube®, or Twitter®.

[Note to court: If necessary, modify this list to reflect any developments in communication technology.]

You must not read, review, or accept any communications in any form from anyone regarding this case or cases like this.

You are permitted, however, to explain to family, friends, and employers that you are on a jury and to inform them of how long the trial will last. You cannot say anything else about any aspect of your experience until you are released from jury service.

While each of you want as much information as possible before deciding the case, you cannot be investigators outside the courtroom. Attempting to get further information outside the courtroom would be unfair to the parties and would be a direct and serious violation of your oath.

Do not attempt to gather any information on your own. Do not read or research about this case or this kind of case from any other source, including the internet. Many of us routinely use the internet to research topics of interest. But you may not do that in this case. You may not use Google®, Bing®, Yahoo®, or any other type of internet search engine to learn about any person, place or thing that is involved in this case. This includes the defendant, the attorneys, the witnesses, your fellow jurors, and the court personnel. This applies whether you are here, at home, or anywhere else. Do not read about this case in the newspapers or on the internet, or listen to any radio or television broadcasts about the trial. The law even prohibits you from consulting a dictionary.

Do not attempt to visit any places mentioned in this case. Finally, do not in any other way try to learn about this case or this kind of case outside the courtroom.

Why aren't you allowed to do these things? Evidence presented to a jury in court must meet at least three legal standards:

First, it must be allowable under the Rules of Evidence. The Rules of Evidence are designed to eliminate information that is not reasonably reliable.

Second, in a courtroom, witnesses are placed under oath to tell the truth, under penalty of perjury. A witness who lies can be prosecuted and sentenced to jail.

Third, all witnesses' testimony is subject to cross examination, which means questioning by the other side. Cross examination can help you determine whether testimony is credible or evidence is reliable. By contrast, information you might obtain on your own would not have been subject to the Rules of Evidence, would not be under oath, and would not have been cross-examined. Therefore, it may not be credible or reliable. Furthermore, if you secretly obtain information on your own, the prosecution and defense would not know you had done this, and would not have a fair opportunity to show that such information may be false, inaccurate, or incomplete. Trials must not be decided based upon secret information.

Breaking any of these rules would violate your oath as a juror and would subject you to punishment for contempt of court. If you violate any of these rules, you and your fellow jurors might have to come back to court after this trial to testify about your conduct. Furthermore, violating your oath could require a new trial before a new jury. Your misconduct will have wasted all the time you, your fellow jurors, the Court, the attorneys, and parties have spent in this trial.

After the trial is over and you have been discharged as jurors, you will be free to discuss any aspect of this case with anyone and you may do any research that you like. But no such communication with others or research about this case may occur until then.

We are all depending upon you to uphold the oath that you have taken to follow the rules as jurors and we are confident you will do so.

COMMENT

1. See People v. Flockhart, 2013 CO 42, ¶¶ 12-15, 304 P.3d 227, 231-32 (in a criminal case, it is error to instruct the jurors that they may discuss the case prior to deliberations; such an instruction is not authorized by rule or existing law).

During the course of the trial I may ask a question of a witness. If I do, that does not indicate in any way that I have an opinion about the facts in the case. ## C:08 OATH FOR BAILIFF PRIOR TO JURY VIEWING

Do you solemnly swear or affirm under penalty of law that you will: take this jury in your charge and take them to the location involved in this case for their inspection; not permit any person to speak to them or speak to them yourself in relation to the matters in issue; and, after they have completed their inspection, return with them into court?

C:09 DIRECTIONS PRIOR TO JURY VIEWING

The Court has concluded that you should now view [insert appropriate description of the subject or scene] as a group, and you are to go with the bailiff(s). While you are there or in transit do not discuss this case among yourselves and do not ask any questions of the attorneys or of the people who may be there. The purpose of the viewing is to assist you in understanding and applying the testimony you hear and the exhibits introduced at this trial.

C:10 ADMONITION ABOUT CONDUCT DURING TRIAL

I want to remind you that there are rules you must follow. These are the same rules jurors have always had to follow. During the trial, this courtroom is a place partially isolated from the outside world. Your decision must be made inside this place and you must follow its rules. [Note to court: Modify this list to reflect changes in communication technology.]

You must not read, review, or accept any communications in any form from anyone regarding this case or cases like this. Therefore, you may not mention that this is a criminal case or the charges that have been filed.

You are permitted, however, to explain to family, friends, and employers that you are on a jury and to inform them of how long the trial will last. You cannot say anything else though, about any aspect of your experience until you are released from jury service.

COMMENT

1. This instruction is nearly identical to Instruction B:06. The introductory language is slightly different to reflect the fact that, if the court elects to give this instruction again after jury selection, the jury will have already heard the admonition once before.

C:11 OATH FOR BAILIFF PRIOR TO FIRST RECESS

Do you solemnly swear or affirm under penalty of law that at this and all other recesses, you will keep this jury together; you will not permit any person to speak to them; you will not speak to them yourself in relation to this trial; and you will return with them as ordered?

C:12 ADMONITION AT RECESS

We will now take a break.

I want to remind you that until the trial is completed you must not discuss this case with anyone either in person, using the internet, or by any other means.

This includes members of your family, people involved in the trial, other jurors, or anyone else.

If someone approaches you and tries to discuss the trial with you, or if you see or hear anything about it, even accidentally, let me know about it immediately.

You must not conduct any research, undertake any investigation, or otherwise obtain information about the case from an outside source. You must not read or listen to any news reports or internet information or other electronic sources about the trial. Your verdict must be based solely on the evidence presented in the courtroom and the law as I instruct you.

Finally, it is especially important that you do not form or express any opinion on the case until your deliberations at the end of the trial.

C:13 JURORS' CONDUCT DURING TRIAL – DISCUSSIONS OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF ENTIRE JURY

Members of the jury, you may discuss this case only when you are all present and you may only deliberate in the jury room. No juror should attempt to discuss this case with other jurors or anyone else at any other time except when all jurors are in the jury room.

C:14 PRE-TRIAL PUBLICITY AND PUBLICITY DURING TRIAL

If there has been or is any news coverage of this case you must completely disregard it. Your decision in this case must be made solely on the evidence presented at the trial.

C:15 OATH FOR BAILIFF PRIOR TO DELIBERATIONS

Do you solemnly swear or affirm under penalty of law that you will keep this jury together as ordered, that you will not permit any person to speak to them, that you will not speak to them yourself unless by order of the Court or to ask them if they have agreed upon a verdict, and that when they have agreed upon a verdict you will return with them into Court?

D:01 DIRECT AND CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE – NO DISTINCTION

A fact may be proven by either direct or circumstantial evidence. Under the law, both are acceptable ways to prove something. Neither is necessarily more reliable than the other.

Direct evidence is based on first-hand observation of the fact in question. [For example, a witness's testimony that he [she] looked out a window and saw snow falling might be offered as direct evidence that it had snowed.]

Circumstantial evidence is indirect. It is based on observations of related facts that may lead you to reach a conclusion about the fact in question. [For example, a witness's testimony that he [she] looked out a window and saw snow covering the ground might be offered as circumstantial evidence that it had snowed.]

COMMENT

1. See People v. Bennett, 515 P.2d 466, 469 (Colo. 1973) (“we now cast aside as outmoded and as confusing the requirement that the prosecution's evidence, when wholly circumstantial, must exclude every reasonable hypotheses other than that of guilt and no longer require such an instruction or such a test to be applied”).

D:02 EVIDENCE LIMITED AS TO PURPOSE (CONTEMPORANEOUS)

The evidence you are about to [hear] [see] [insert a description of the evidence] is being presented for [insert description of purpose(s) for which the evidence is being admitted] only. You may not consider it for any other reason.

COMMENT

1. See People v. Garner, 806 P.2d 366, 374 (Colo. 1991) (“If the other-crime evidence is admitted [pursuant to CRE 404(b)], the court should instruct the jury, pursuant to CRE 105, on the limited purpose for which such evidence is admitted at the time of admission. Although the Colorado Rules of Evidence do not address whether, as we previously held in [Stull v. People, 344 P.2d 455, 458 (Colo. 1959)], the limited-purpose instruction should be repeated in the court’s written instructions to the jury, we conclude that, in order to safeguard against the potential for the jury’s misuse of the other-crime evidence, the trial court should repeat the limited-purpose instruction in its general charge to the jury at the conclusion of the evidence. For reasons stated in Stull, the court should refer to the other-crime evidence as a ‘transaction,’ ‘act,’ or ‘conduct’ and should avoid such terms as ‘offense’ or ‘crime.’”); Perez v. People, 2015 CO 45, ¶ 31, 351 P.3d 97, 405–06 (holding that the trial court’s improper admission of prejudicial 404(b) evidence as to one count necessarily tainted the jury’s determination of the remaining two counts because “(1) all three counts for which [the defendant] was convicted include a similar element regarding sexual conduct, and (2) the prosecutor’s statements and arguments repeatedly urged the jury to consider the 404(b) evidence beyond its limited scope and implied that it was relevant to all counts”).

2. See § 16-10-301(3), C.R.S. 2020 (when evidence of similar acts or transactions is admitted in a prosecution for one of the statutorily-enumerated sexual offenses: “The trial court shall, at the time of the reception into evidence of similar acts or transactions and again in the general charge to the jury, direct the jury as to the limited purpose for which the evidence is admitted and for which the jury may consider it. The court in instructing the jury, and the parties when making statements in the presence of the jury, shall use the words ‘similar act or transaction’ and shall at no time refer to ‘similar offenses’, ‘similar crimes’, or other terms which have the same connotations.”).

3. See § 18-6-801.5(5), C.R.S. 2020 (“Upon admitting evidence of other acts or transactions [involving domestic violence] into evidence pursuant to this section and again in the general charge to the jury, the trial court shall direct the jury as to the limited purpose for which the evidence is admitted and for which the jury may consider it.”).

4. This instruction should be given contemporaneously with admission of the evidence; Instruction E:07.2 should be given at the close of the case.

5. + This instruction is unnecessary if the evidence admitted is res gestae. See Griffiths, 251 P.3d 462, 467 (Colo. App. 2010) (“[R]es gestae evidence is not subject to CRE 404(b), which excludes evidence of prior criminality or bad acts, and can be admitted without a limiting instruction.”); cf. People v. Yachik, 2020 COA 100, ¶¶ 11, 17, 43, 469 P.3d 582, 585–86, 590 (considering a sexual assault case where the trial court erroneously admitted evidence as res gestae – specifically, that the defendant had previously abused the victim – and issued a limiting instruction explaining that the evidence “has been admitted for the limited purpose of providing the jury with a full and complete understanding of the events surrounding the charged crimes and the context in which the charged crimes occurred”; holding that the limiting instruction was deficient because it “did not instruct the jury that defendant could not be convicted because he was physically abusive, and it did not limit the use of the evidence to explain why [the victim] did not report the sexual assaults”).

6. In 2015, the Committee revised Comment 1 by adding a citation to Perez v. People.

7. This instruction previously appeared as Instruction C:05; in 2018, the Committee moved it here.

8. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 5.

D:03 EVIDENCE NOT ADMISSIBLE AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS (CONTEMPORANEOUS)

The prosecution will now present evidence against defendant[s] [ ] [and [ ].]

You are instructed that you must not consider such evidence against the other defendant[s], [ ] [and [ ].]

COMMENT

1. See People v. Vigil, 678 P.2d 554, 558 (Colo. App. 1983) (court erred by not instructing the jury, either at the time the co-defendant's statements were admitted or in its charge to the jury, that statements were not to be considered as proof of defendant's guilt).
2. See Qwest Services Corp. v. Blood, 252 P.3d 1071, 1090 (Colo. 2011) (explaining that, although in Bruton v. United States, 391 U.S. 123 (1968), the United States Supreme Court created a very narrow exception to the almost invariable assumption of the law that jurors follow instructions when it held that a defendant is deprived of his Sixth Amendment right of confrontation when the facially incriminating confessions of a nontestifying codefendant is introduced at their joint trial, even if the jury is instructed to consider the confession only against the codefendant, the Court thereafter limited Bruton to its facts when it held, in Richardson v. Marsh, 481 U.S. 200, 206 (1987), that the Confrontation Clause is not violated by the admission of a non-testifying codefendant's confession with a proper limiting instruction, when the confession is redacted to eliminate not only the defendant's name, but any reference to the defendant's existence).
3. This instruction should be given contemporaneously with admission of the evidence; Instruction E:07.5 should be given at the close of the case.
4. This instruction previously appeared as Instruction C:06; in 2018, the Committee moved it here.

D:04 LIMITING INSTRUCTION FOR EVIDENCE OF THE DEFENDANT'S MENTAL PROCESSES ACQUIRED DURING A COURT-ORDERED EXAMINATION

You are about to hear evidence that you may consider as to the question of the defendant's mental condition with respect to [a charged crime] [the crime(s) of (insert name of offense(s))]. You shall not consider it for any other purpose.

COMMENT

1. See §§ 16-8-107(1)(a), 16-8-107(1.5)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. The above model limiting instruction is suitable both for: (1) evidence that is offered "to rebut evidence of [the defendant's] mental condition introduced by the defendant to show incapacity to form a culpable mental state," pursuant to section 16-8-107(1)(a); and (2) with respect to offenses committed on or after July 1, 1999, evidence that is admissible "as to the defendant's mental condition," pursuant to section 16-8-107(1.5)(a). See People v. Herdman, 2012 COA 89, ¶ 25, 310 P.3d 170, 177 (the term "mental condition," as used in section 16-8-107(1.5)(a), does not refer exclusively to insanity); People v. Herrera, 87 P.3d 240, 245 (Colo. App. 2003) ("The reference in § 16-8-107(1.5)(a) to . . . the defendant's 'mental condition,' . . . is, in our view, equivalent to the reference in § 16-8-107(1)(a) to a defendant's 'capacity to form a culpable mental state.'").

D:04.5 ORDER TO DISREGARD EVIDENCE

You are ordered to disregard [the witness's last answer] [the exhibit].

You must not consider [testimony] [evidence] which you are ordered to disregard.

You must treat it as if you had never heard it or seen it.

COMMENT

1. This instruction previously appeared as Instruction C:07; in 2018, the Committee moved it here.

D:05 ACCOMPLICE TESTIMONY – UNCORROBORATED

The prosecution has presented a witness who claims to have been a participant with the defendant in the crime charged. There is no evidence other than the testimony of this witness which tends to establish the participation of the defendant in the crime.

While you may convict upon this testimony alone, you should act upon it with great caution. Give it careful examination in the light of other evidence in the case. You are not to convict upon this testimony alone, unless you are convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that it is true.

COMMENT

1. See People v. Montoya, 942 P.2d 1287, 1293 (Colo. App. 1996) (“COLJI-Crim. 4:06 (1983) – warning the jury to act with care and caution when considering accomplice testimony – is to be given only when the prosecution’s case is based on uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice. The propriety of a trial court’s refusal to give this instruction thus turns on whether corroborating evidence of the accomplice’s testimony exists in the record. . . . Evidence to corroborate an accomplice may be direct or circumstantial. It should identify the defendant and show his connection with the offense, rather than merely tending to prove that an offense has been committed. Accomplice testimony, however, need not be corroborated in every part; corroboration of one element of the testimony is sufficient.”).
2. See People v. Martinez, 531 P.2d 964, 965 (Colo. 1975) (“In Colorado, an accomplice is not per se an unworthy witness. His status as an accomplice goes to credibility, but not to competency. This is true even though the accomplice has been promised immunity from prosecution by appearing as a witness against the defendant. Barr v. People, 30 Colo. 522, 71 P. 392 (1903). If the jury is instructed to review the testimony with great caution, it may convict upon the uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice which is clear and convincing and shows guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.”).

D:06 CONVICTION OF FELONY – WITNESS OR DEFENDANT

The credibility of a witness may be challenged by showing that the witness has been convicted of a felony. A previous felony conviction is one factor you may consider in determining the credibility of a witness. It is up to you to determine what weight, if any, is to be given to such a conviction.

[The credibility of statements made by a person who did not testify in court may be challenged by showing that the person has been convicted of a felony. A previous conviction is one factor that you may consider in determining the credibility of that person. You must determine the weight to be given to any prior conviction when considering the credibility of that person's statement.]

[The defendant is to be tried for the crime charged in this case, and no other. You may consider testimony of a previous conviction only in determining the credibility of the defendant as a witness, and for no other purpose. When the defendant testifies, his [her] credibility is to be determined in the same manner as any other witness.]

COMMENT

1. See § 13-90-101, C.R.S. 2020 (“In every case the credibility of the witness may be drawn in question, as now provided by law, but the conviction of any person for any felony may be shown for the purpose of affecting the credibility of such witness. The fact of such conviction may be proved like any other fact, not of record, either by the witness himself, who shall be compelled to testify thereto, or by any other person cognizant of such conviction as impeaching testimony or by any other competent testimony.”); cf. Lee v. People, 460 P.2d 796, 798-99 (Colo. 1969) (final sentence of statute, which prohibits the impeachment of witnesses in a civil case by evidence of a previous conviction of a felony more than five years before the time the witness testified, does not violate equal protection because it was reasonable “for the Legislature to permit a more searching inquiry into the credibility of witnesses in a criminal trial where the burden is on the People to prove the guilt of the defendant beyond a reasonable doubt”).

2. See CRE 806 (“When a hearsay statement, or a statement defined in Rule 801(d)(2)(C), (D), or (E), has been admitted in evidence, the credibility of the declarant may be attacked, and if attacked may be supported, by any evidence which would be admissible for those purposes if declarant had testified as a witness.”).

3. See People v. Wright, 678 P.2d 1072, 1074 (Colo. App. 1984) (entry and subsequent expungement of a conviction pursuant to Missouri’s deferred judgment and sentence statute, which was analogous to Colorado’s deferred judgment statute, was not an existing conviction for purposes of testimonial impeachment under section 13-90-101).

4. People v. Hamilton, 2019 COA 101, ¶¶ 89, 93, 101-07, 452 P.3d 184, 200-02 (holding that, where the court instructed the jury that it may only consider a prior conviction as it relates to the defendant’s credibility but also instructed the jury that it “should not necessarily presume that because [the defendant] was found guilty by a previous jury that [he] was factually guilty but rather that a previous jury determined that the state proved his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt,” the court erred in giving the additional conviction language because that language (1) “made no reference to credibility,” (2) “unnecessarily highlighted [the defendant’s] prior conviction,” (3) failed to ensure that the jury “did not give improper weight to the other acts evidence presented at trial and did not speculate whether [the defendant] had been convicted on a charge for which he had been acquitted,” and (4) “was confusing and illogical”).

5. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 4.

D:07 REPUTATION FOR TRUTH AND VERACITY

The credibility of a witness may be discredited or supported by testimony about his [her] reputation for truthfulness or by the opinion of another witness. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given such testimony.

COMMENT

1. See CRE 608(a) (“The credibility of a witness may be attacked or supported by evidence in the form of opinion or reputation, but subject to these limitations: (1) the evidence may refer only to character for truthfulness or untruthfulness, and (2) evidence of truthful character is admissible only after the character of the witness for truthfulness has been attacked by opinion or reputation evidence or otherwise.”).
2. See People v. Wittrein, 221 P.3d 1076, 1081 (Colo. 2009) (“In Colorado, neither lay nor expert witnesses may give opinion testimony that another witness was telling the truth on a specific occasion.”).

D:08 JUDICIAL NOTICE (CONTEMPORANEOUS)

A party may ask the Court to take judicial notice of certain facts. When the Court takes judicial notice of a fact, it means that the Court has allowed the fact into evidence without requiring proof of it. You may, but are not required to, accept any fact judicially noticed by the Court. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight, if any, shall be given to the evidence.

In this case, the Court has taken judicial notice of the following fact[s]:

[list the judicially noticed fact(s)].

COMMENT

1. See CRE 201(g) (“In a criminal case, the court shall instruct the jury that it may, but is not required to, accept as conclusive any fact judicially noticed.”).
2. This instruction should be given contemporaneously with the judicially noticed fact. In addition, the court should provide a follow-up instruction on judicial notice at the close of evidence. See Instruction E:07.8.
3. In 2018, the Committee revised this instruction consistent with the Colorado Supreme Court’s opinion in Doyle v. People, 2015 CO 10, 343 P.3d 961.

D:09 STIPULATION AS TO TESTIMONY

The parties have agreed that if [insert name] were called as a witness he [she] would testify as set forth in the stipulation. You should consider that stipulated testimony in the same way you consider testimony given here in court, and you should judge it in the same manner in which you judge the testimony of any witness who appeared and testified before you.

COMMENT

1. See Martin v. People, 738 P.2d 789, 798 (Colo. 1987) (“If the defendant offers to stipulate to a fact and the prosecution’s case is not thereby weakened, the trial court may, after employing the appropriate balancing test, require the prosecution to accept the stipulation.”).

D:10 STIPULATION AS TO FACTS

The parties have agreed as to the existence of [a] certain fact[s]. You may regard [that] [those] fact[s] as proven.

[Specifically, the parties have stipulated to the following facts:]

D:11 INFERENCES – GENERAL

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (provision of statute proscribing driving while license revoked authorized only a permissible inference that defendant had knowledge of fact of revocation from proof of registered mailing of notice, rather than creating a conclusive presumption or mandatory burden-shifting presumption with respect to that element of the offense; the statutory term “prima facie proof” is functionally equivalent to a permissible inference); Barnes v. People, 735 P.2d 869, 872–74 (Colo. 1987) (“a mandatory presumption may not be constitutionally used against a criminal defendant if a reasonable jury could construe it as conclusive or shifting the burden of persuasion on an essential element of a crime”; driving under the influence statute, which provided that it shall be presumed that defendant was under influence of alcohol if there was 0.10 or more grams of alcohol per 100 milliliters of blood, as shown by chemical analysis of defendant’s blood, authorized only permissible inference that defendant was under the influence of alcohol); People v. Felgar, 58 P.3d 1122, 1124–25 (Colo. App. 2002) (instruction establishing mandatory presumption concerning the defendant’s knowledge violated due process, even though the instruction tracked the statutory language).

2. In some circumstances, an instruction describing an evidentiary inference may be based on precedent. For example, in cases where evidence of the defendant’s unexplained, exclusive possession of recently stolen goods is relevant (e.g., theft, robbery, burglary), refer to the instruction in the appendix to Wells v. People, 592 P.2d 1321 (Colo. 1979). See also People v. Hampton, 758 P.2d 1344, 1355 (Colo. 1988) (“In Wells, we . . . appended to our opinion a recommended instruction for use in future jury trials.”).

3. Both the United States Supreme Court and the Colorado Supreme Court have used the terms “permissive inference” and “permissible inference” interchangeably. See, e.g., County Court of Ulster County, N. Y. v. Allen, 442 U.S. 140, 157 (1979) (using both terms within the same paragraph); People in Matter of R.M.D., 829 P.2d 852, 854 (Colo. 1992) (same). Further, it does not appear that any appellate court has ever analyzed whether there is a meaningful distinction between the two terms. Accordingly, the Committee has elected, for the sake of clarity and consistency, to use the term “permissible inference” throughout the model instructions.

D:12 OUT OF COURT STATEMENTS – CHILD DECLARANT

In this case, you heard evidence of [an] out of court statement[s] [allegedly] made by [insert name of child].

You are instructed that it is for you to determine the weight and credit to be given any such statement[s]. In making this determination you shall consider the age and maturity of the child, the nature of the [alleged] statement[s], the circumstances under which the statement[s] [was] [were] [allegedly] made, and any other evidence that has been admitted that you choose to consider for this purpose.

COMMENT

1. See § 13-25-129(6), C.R.S. 2020 (“If a statement is admitted pursuant to this section, the court shall instruct the jury in the final written instructions that during the proceeding the jury heard evidence repeating a child’s out-of-court statement and that it is for the jury to determine the weight and credit to be given the statement and that, in making the determination, the jury shall consider the age and maturity of the child, the nature of the statement, the circumstances under which the statement was made, and any other relevant factor.”).
2. See People v. Burgess, 946 P.2d 565, 567–68 (Colo. App. 1997) (“The supreme court had construed the pre-amendment version of [section 13-25-129] to require that a cautionary instruction be given contemporaneously with the hearsay testimony and also in the final written instructions to the jury. . . . We conclude that, by amending the statute, the General Assembly intended to eliminate the contemporaneous instruction requirement that previously had been established in decisional law.”).
3. The admissibility of statements pursuant to section 13-25-129 may be limited due to constitutional confrontation clause issues, at least where such statements are “testimonial” and the child does not testify. See Crawford v. Washington, 541 U.S. 46 (2007) (admitting testimonial hearsay at trial, absent the unavailability of the declarant and a prior opportunity for cross-examination by the defendant, violates the accused’s confrontation right under the Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution); People v. Moreno, 160 P.3d 242 (Colo. 2007) (“To the extent that the statute allows for the admission of out-of-court testimonial statements without the defendant being afforded an opportunity to cross-examine the declarant, it is now clear that the statute violates the confrontation guaranty of the Sixth Amendment.”); People v. Vigil, 127 P.3d 916, 929–30 (Colo. 2006) (explaining what type of statements are “testimonial” for purposes of the Sixth Amendment); People v. Argoramirez, 102 P.3d 1015, 1017–18 (Colo. 2004) (prior videotaped statements made by children to law enforcement official could be introduced into evidence when children testified at trial without violating confrontation clause; Crawford does not affect the analysis for admission of out-of-court statements where the declarant testifies at trial).

4. The words “allegedly” and “alleged” are enclosed within brackets because they should not be used when statements are admitted by means of a video-recording.

5. In 2019, the Committee updated the statutory citation in Comment 1 to reflect a legislative amendment. See Ch. 42, sec. 1, § 13-25-129, 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 144, 145.

+ D:13 GENDER IDENTITY, GENDER EXPRESSION, OR SEXUAL ORIENTATION – BIAS PROHIBITED

You are about to hear evidence relating to [a victim's] [the defendant's] [a witness's] actual or perceived gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation. You are instructed that you must not allow bias or any kind of prejudice based upon gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation to influence your decision.

[Additionally, this evidence is being presented for [insert description of purpose(s) for which the evidence is being admitted] only. You may not consider it for any other reason.]

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-714(4), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:161.3 (defining “gender identity” and “gender expression”); Instruction F:342 (defining “sexual orientation”).
3. Section 18-1-714(5) provides as follows: “This section does not apply when evidence of a victim’s actual or perceived gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation is offered in a criminal prosecution for a bias-motivated crime as described in section 18-9-121. In such prosecutions, the rules of evidence shall govern the admissibility of evidence of a victim’s actual or perceived gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation.”
4. The court should only give the second paragraph of the instruction where the evidence is being admitted for a limited purpose. See § 18-1-714(4) (“If admitted for a limited purpose, the court shall further instruct the jury as to the limited purpose or purposes for which the evidence is admitted and for which the jury may consider it.”
5. + In 2020, the Committee added this instruction pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 279, sec. 4, § 18-1-714(4), 2020 Colo. Sess. Laws 1364, 1367–68.

E:01 DUTIES OF JUDGE AND JURY

Members of the jury, the evidence in this case has been completed. In a moment, I will read to you jury instructions that contain the rules of law you must apply to reach your verdict. You will have copies of what I read to take with you to the jury room. But first, I want to mention a few things you need to keep in mind when you are discussing this case in the jury room.

Until you have returned a verdict, you must not do any research about this case or this kind of case using any source, including dictionaries, reference materials, the internet or any other electronic means. You must not communicate in any way with anyone else about this case or this kind of case until you have returned a verdict in court. This includes your family and friends. If you have a cell phone or other electronic device, you must keep it turned off during jury deliberations.

[Note to court: Consider giving a more detailed admonishment like that in Instruction B:06 (admonition about conduct during trial). Also, consider having the jurors surrender their electronic devices during deliberations.]

It is my job to decide what rules of law apply to the case. While the attorneys may comment on some of these rules, you must follow the instructions I give you. Even if you disagree with or do not understand the reasons for some of the rules of law, you must follow them. No single instruction describes all the law which must be applied; the instructions must be considered together as a whole.

During the trial, you received all of the evidence that you may properly consider in deciding the case. Your decision must be made by applying the rules of law that I give you to the evidence presented at trial. Remember, you must not be influenced by sympathy, bias or prejudice in reaching your decision.

[You should not allow bias or any kind of prejudice based upon gender to influence your decision.]

If you decide that the prosecution has proved beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty, it will be my job to decide what the punishment will be. In making your decision, you must not consider punishment at all. At times during the trial, attorneys made objections. Do not draw any conclusions from the objections or from my rulings on the objections. These only related to legal questions I had to decide and should not influence your thinking. If I told you not to consider a particular statement that was made during the trial, you must not consider it in your deliberations.

[I have asked questions of witnesses during the trial. That did not mean I had any opinion about the facts in the case.]

Finally, you should consider all the evidence in light of your experience in life.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-408, C.R.S. 2020 (“In any criminal prosecution under sections 18-3-402 to 18-3-405, [sexual assault, unlawful sexual contact, and sexual assault on a child,] or for attempt or conspiracy to commit any crime under sections 18-3-402 to 18-3-405, the jury shall . . . be instructed not to allow gender bias or any kind of prejudice based upon gender to influence the decision of the jury.”).

E:02 THE CHARGE AGAINST THE DEFENDANT

The charge against the defendant is not evidence. The charge against the defendant is just an accusation. The fact that the defendant has been accused is not evidence that the defendant committed any crime.

The defendant is charged with committing the crime[s] of [ ], in [ ] County, Colorado, on or about [ ]. The defendant has pleaded not guilty [by reason of insanity].

E:03 PRESUMPTION OF INNOCENCE, BURDEN OF PROOF, AND REASONABLE DOUBT

Every person charged with a crime is presumed innocent. This presumption of innocence remains with the defendant throughout the trial and should be given effect by you unless, after considering all of the evidence, you are then convinced that the defendant is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

The burden of proof is upon the prosecution to prove to the satisfaction of the jury beyond a reasonable doubt the existence of all of the elements necessary to constitute the crime charged.

Reasonable doubt means a doubt based upon reason and common sense which arises from a fair and rational consideration of all of the evidence, or the lack of evidence, in the case. It is a doubt which is not a vague, speculative or imaginary doubt, but such a doubt as would cause reasonable people to hesitate to act in matters of importance to themselves.

If you find from the evidence that each and every element of a crime has been proven beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of that crime. If you find from the evidence that the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements of a crime beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of that crime.

1. See Johnson v. People, 2019 CO 17, ¶¶ 4, 13, 18, 436 P.3d 529, 530, 532, 534 (noting that “[t]he U.S. Supreme Court has cautioned that further attempts by courts or parties to define ‘reasonable doubt’ do not provide clarity”; holding that, when the trial court defined the phrase “hesitate to act” in the reasonable doubt instruction as “what it means is that after you evaluate all the evidence and you evaluate whether or not any doubts are reasonable or not . . . you would find Ms. Johnson guilty only if, after hearing all of that evidence, you just can’t bring yourself to do it,” the instruction was extraneous and nonsensical); + see also People v. Flynn, 2019

COA 105, ¶¶ 36–38, 42, 49, 456 P.3d 75, 83–85 (holding that, where the court used several hypotheticals to explain the concept of reasonable doubt to the jury, the court’s comments did not lower the burden of proof because they were made only once and the court “repeatedly referred back to the appropriate standard definition of reasonable doubt”; nevertheless noting that “such instructions run the risk of confusing the jurors and may even lower the burden of proof or diminish the presumption of innocence”).

E:04 NUMBER OF WITNESSES

The number of witnesses testifying for or against a certain fact does not, by itself, prove or disprove that fact.

E:05 CREDIBILITY OF WITNESSES

You are the sole judges of the credibility of each witness and the weight to be given to the witness's testimony. You should carefully consider all of the testimony given and the circumstances under which each witness has testified.

For each witness, consider that person's knowledge, motive, state of mind, demeanor, and manner while testifying. Consider the witness's ability to observe, the strength of that person's memory, and how that person obtained his or her knowledge. Consider any relationship the witness may have to either side of the case, and how each witness might be affected by the verdict. Consider how the testimony of the witness is supported or contradicted by other evidence in the case. You should consider all facts and circumstances shown by the evidence when you evaluate each witness's testimony.

You may believe all of the testimony of a witness, part of it, or none of it.

E:06 EXPERT WITNESSES

You are not bound by the testimony of [a] witness[es] who [has] [have] testified as [an] expert[s]; the credibility of an expert's testimony is to be considered as that of any other witness. You may believe all of an expert witness's testimony, part of it, or none of it.

The weight you give the testimony is entirely your decision.

COMMENT

1. See Hampton v. People, 465 P.2d 394, 400 (Colo. 1970) ("The weight to be accorded expert testimony is a question solely for the jury. Such testimony is subject to the test of cross-examination as any other testimony and the jurors are not bound by it and may accept or reject it as they see fit.").

E:07 TESTIMONY OF DEFENDANT – NOT COMPELLED

Every defendant has a constitutional right not to testify. The decision not to testify cannot be used as an inference of guilt and cannot prejudice the defendant. It is not evidence, does not prove anything, and must not be considered for any purpose.

COMMENT

1. An instruction concerning the defendant's right not to testify must be given if the defendant requests it. See Carter v. Commonwealth of Kentucky, 450 U.S. 288, 305 (1981) (“[T]he failure to limit the jurors’ speculation on the meaning of [the defendant’s decision to remain silent and not testify], when the defendant makes a timely request that a prophylactic instruction be given, exacts an impermissible toll on the full and free exercise of the privilege. Accordingly, we hold that a state trial judge has the constitutional obligation, upon proper request, to minimize the danger that the jury will give evidentiary weight to a defendant’s failure to testify.”); People v. Crawford, 632 P.2d 626, 627–28 (Colo. App. 1981) (trial court’s refusal to give, at close of trial, defendant’s tendered instruction that a defendant never has the burden of testifying or offering any evidence constituted reversible error, even though the jury panel was told by the court that defendant was not “obliged” to offer evidence, that the burden is always on the prosecution to prove every element of the offense charged beyond a reasonable doubt, and that the law never imposes on the defendant in any criminal case the burden of calling any witnesses or introducing any evidence).

E:07.2 EVIDENCE LIMITED AS TO PURPOSE (CLOSING)

The court admitted certain evidence for a limited purpose.

You are again instructed that you cannot consider that evidence except for the limited purpose I told you about when it was admitted.

COMMENT

1. In most cases, the court should avoid unduly highlighting the evidence and provide this general reminder without summarizing the evidence or restating the limited purpose for which it was admitted. However, it may be appropriate to provide greater specificity in cases where the court admits multiple items of evidence for different purposes.

2. + This instruction is unnecessary if the evidence admitted is res gestae. See Griffiths, 251 P.3d 462, 467 (Colo. App. 2010) (“[R]es gestae evidence is not subject to CRE 404(b), which excludes evidence of prior criminality or bad acts, and can be admitted without a limiting instruction.”); cf. People v. Yachik, 2020 COA 100, ¶¶ 11, 17, 43, 469 P.3d 582, 585–86, 590 (considering a sexual assault case where the trial court erroneously admitted evidence as res gestae – specifically, that the defendant had previously abused the victim – and issued a limiting instruction explaining that the evidence “has been admitted for the limited purpose of providing the jury with a full and complete understanding of the events surrounding the charged crimes and the context in which the charged crimes occurred”; holding that the limiting instruction was deficient because it “did not instruct the jury that defendant could not be convicted because he was physically abusive, and it did not limit the use of the evidence to explain why [the victim] did not report the sexual assaults”).

3. This instruction previously appeared as Instruction D:02; in 2018, the Committee moved it here.

4. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 2.

E:07.5 EVIDENCE NOT ADMISSIBLE AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS (CLOSING)

The court admitted certain evidence concerning defendant[s] [insert name(s) of defendant(s)] but not concerning defendant[s] [insert name(s) of defendant(s)]. You are again instructed that you cannot consider it against defendant[s] [insert name of defendant(s)].

You must reach your verdict[s] as to each defendant as if he [she] were being tried separately.

COMMENT

1. This instruction previously appeared as Instruction D:03; in 2018, the Committee moved it here.

E:07.8 JUDICIAL NOTICE (CLOSING)

The Court has taken judicial notice of [a] certain fact[s]. You may or may not accept [that] [those] fact[s] as true. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight, if any, shall be given to the evidence.

COMMENT

1. See Instruction D:08, Comment 2. The Committee recommends that, in addition to giving Instruction D:08 at the time the fact is judicially noticed, the court give this follow-up instruction at the close of evidence.
2. The Committee added this instruction in 2018.

E:08 JURORS' CONDUCT DURING TRIAL – DISCUSSIONS OUTSIDE PRESENCE OF ENTIRE JURY

Members of the jury, you may discuss this case only when you are all present and you may only deliberate in the jury room. No juror should attempt to discuss this case with other jurors or anyone else at any other time except when all jurors are in the jury room.

E:09 QUESTIONS DURING DELIBERATIONS

Once you begin your deliberations, if you have a question, your foreperson should write it on a piece of paper, sign it and give it to the bailiff, who will bring it to me.

The Court will then determine the appropriate way to answer the question.

However, there may be some questions that, under the law, the Court is not permitted to answer. Please do not speculate about what the answer to your question might have been or why the Court is not able to answer a particular question.

Finally, please be sure to keep the original question and response. Do not destroy them as they are part of the official record in this case, and must be returned to me when you return the instructions and verdict forms at the end of the case.

COMMENT

1. See "Implementation Plan: Jury Reform in Colorado," Appendix D (Mar. 12, 1998); "With Respect to the Jury: A Proposal For Jury Reform, Report of the Colorado Supreme Court Committee on the Effective and Efficient Use of Juries" (adopted "in principle" by the Colorado Supreme Court, February 1997).

E:10 JUROR QUESTIONS OF WITNESSES

During this trial you were permitted to submit written questions to witnesses. If a particular question was not asked, do not guess why the question was not asked or what the answer might have been. My decision not to ask a question submitted by a juror is not a reflection on the person asking it, and you should not attach any significance to the failure to ask a question. By making legal rulings on the admissibility of questions, I did not intend to suggest or express any opinion about the question. My decision whether or not to allow a question is based on the applicable rules of evidence and other rules of law, and not on the facts of this particular case. It is my responsibility to assure that all parties receive a fair trial according to the law and the rules of evidence.

The fact that certain questions were not asked must not affect your consideration of the evidence in any way. Do not give greater weight to questions, or answers to questions, that are submitted by yourself or your fellow jurors. In making your decision, you must consider all of the evidence that has been presented.

COMMENT

1. See Crim. P. 24(g) (“Jurors shall be allowed to submit written questions to the court for the court to ask of witnesses during trial, in compliance with procedures established by the trial court. The trial court shall have the discretion to prohibit or limit questioning in a particular trial for reasons related to the severity of the charges, the presence of significant suppressed evidence or for other good cause.”).
2. See Medina v. People, 114 P.3d 845, 853-55 (Colo. 2005) (permitting the jury to ask questions through the judge did not violate defendant’s due process rights); People v. Stevenson, 228 P.3d 161, 170 (Colo. App. 2009) (trial court did not abuse its discretion in allowing juror’s question, and concluding that it was not precluded by the parties’ evidentiary stipulation); People v. Zamarripa-Diaz, 187 P.3d 1120, 1123 (Colo. App. 2008) (a trial court’s alleged error in not consulting with defense counsel before asking juror-posed questions does not constitute structural error; such claims are subject to review under the harmless error standard).

E:11 SERIES OF ACTS IN A SINGLE COUNT

In order to convict the defendant of [insert name of crime], you must either unanimously agree that the defendant committed the same act or acts, or that he [she] committed all of the acts alleged.

COMMENT

1. This instruction is for ensuring jury unanimity with respect to the charged act(s) forming the basis for a finding of guilt. See Thomas v. People, 803 P.2d 144, 153-54 (Colo. 1990) (“We . . . hold that when the evidence does not present a reasonable likelihood that jurors may disagree on which acts the defendant committed, the prosecution need not designate a particular instance. If the prosecutor decides not to designate a particular instance, the jurors should be instructed that in order to convict the defendant they must either unanimously agree that the defendant committed the same act or acts or that the defendant committed all of the acts described by the victim and included within the time period charged. Necessarily, the determination whether there is a reasonable likelihood that jurors may disagree on which acts the defendant committed requires the exercise of discretion by the trial court. In some instances, special verdicts may be advisable to provide assurance that a verdict is supported by unanimous jury agreement.”). Typically, this issue arises because of the “difficulty of applying the specification requirement to certain cases involving evidence of a continuing pattern of sexual abuse of very young children.” Id. at 152.

Do not use this instruction to impose a requirement for jury unanimity with respect to alternative factual theories. See Schad v. Arizona, 501 U.S. 624, 632 (1991) (plurality opinion) (“We see no reason . . . why the rule that the jury need not agree as to mere means of satisfying the actus reus element of an offense should not apply equally to alternative means of satisfying the element of mens rea.”); People v. Dunaway, 88 P.3d 619, 622 (Colo. 2004) (“[W]hen a jury instruction includes two alternative factual theories of the same charged offense and the jury returns a general verdict of guilt, due process does not require reversal of that conviction merely because the evidence only supports one of the theories beyond a reasonable doubt.”); People v. Hall, 60 P.3d 728, 731 (Colo. App. 2002) (holding, based on the plurality opinion in Schad v. Arizona, supra, that the defendant’s due process rights were not violated where “the trial court did not instruct the jury it had to determine unanimously whether [the defendant] had committed the murder as the principal or as a complicitor”); People v. Vigil, 2015 COA 88M, ¶ 44, 459 P.3d 553, 564 (“Because the prosecution presented a single theory of burglary, the jury was not required to unanimously agree on which building was burglarized. Instead, the jury only needed to agree that [the defendant] burglarized a building on the charged date at the charged place.”).

2. See People v. Davis, 2017 COA 40M, ¶¶ 15, 21, ___ P.3d ___ (“[C]ommitting a number of crimes, or engaging in a number of noncriminal overt acts, does not necessarily mean there is more than one conspiracy. . . . Though the prosecution alleged numerous overt acts in furtherance of the single conspiracy, that did not require unanimous agreement by the jurors as to the precise overt act [the] defendant committed.”).

3. + See People v. Archuleta, 2020 CO 63M, ¶¶ 28, 33, 467 P.3d 307, 312–13 (holding that, although the prosecution “noted for the jury that the crime of child abuse can be committed in three ways and that Archuleta’s conduct here ‘could be one of these, two of these, all three,’” she was nevertheless not entitled to a modified unanimity instruction because “the record reflects that the prosecution tried this case as involving one pattern or transaction of abuse resulting in [the child’s] death”); People v. Dyer, 2019 COA 161, ¶ 56, 457 P.3d 783, 794 (holding that, where the prosecution charged the defendant with committing child abuse by engaging in a continuing course of conduct, the court did not need to give a modified unanimity instruction because “the jurors did not need to agree on the acts or omissions constituting the course of conduct”).

E:12 MULTIPLE COUNTS (STANDARD CASE)

In this case a separate offense is charged against [one or more of] [each of] the defendant[s] in each count of the [information] [indictment]. Each count charges a separate and distinct offense and the evidence and the law applicable to each count should be considered separately, uninfluenced by your decision as to any other count. The fact that you may find [all or some of] the defendant[s] guilty or not guilty of one of the offenses charged, should not control your verdict as to any other offense charged against [any of] the [other] defendant(s).

The defendant[s] may be found guilty or not guilty of any one or all of the offenses charged.

COMMENT

1. In the scenario where charges feature inconsistent elements, see People v. Delgado, 2019 CO 82, ¶¶ 27–30, 450 P.3d 703, the court should use Instruction E:12.5 (multiple counts – inconsistent elements) in place of this instruction.
2. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 1.

E:12.5 MULTIPLE COUNTS (INCONSISTENT ELEMENTS)

In this case a separate offense is charged against [one or more of] [each of] the defendant[s] in each count of the [information] [indictment]. Each count charges a separate and distinct offense and the evidence and the law applicable to each count should be considered separately, uninfluenced by your decision as to any other count. However, a defendant may not be found guilty of multiple crimes when one or more elements of those crimes are mutually exclusive. In this case, one or more elements of [Crime 1] and [Crime 2] are mutually exclusive. Therefore, while you may find the defendant guilty of either [Crime 1] or [Crime 2], you may not find [him] [her] guilty of both [Crime 1] and [Crime 2].

COMMENT

1. In People v. Delgado, 2019 CO 82, ¶¶ 27–30, 450 P.3d 703, 707–08, the court held that because robbery requires a taking “by the use of force, threats, or intimidation” whereas theft requires a taking “by means other than the use of force, threat, or intimidation,” the elements of the two crimes “are mutually exclusive when they are predicated on a single taking,” meaning the defendant could not have been guilty of both robbery and theft. The court then directed trial courts to avoid the potential for inconsistent verdicts in such a case by “instruct[ing] the jury that a defendant may not be convicted of multiple crimes when the elements of those crimes are mutually exclusive,” meaning that “the court should have instructed the jury that Delgado could be convicted of robbery or theft, but not both.” Id. at ¶ 30, 450 P.3d at 708. Accordingly, the court should give this instruction instead of Instruction E:12 whenever it determines, as a matter of law, that the prosecution is pursuing guilty verdicts on crimes that feature one or more mutually exclusive elements.

2. + See People v. Rigsby, 2020 CO 74, ¶¶ 22–23, 25, 32–34, 471 P.3d 1068, 1075, 1077 (noting that section 18-1-501(3), C.R.S., establishes that (1) “acting recklessly necessarily includes acting with criminal negligence,” (2) “[a]cting knowingly necessarily includes acting recklessly and acting with criminal negligence,” and (3) “[a]nd acting with intent necessarily includes acting knowingly, acting recklessly, and acting with criminal negligence”; further stating that “even if there is a logical inconsistency between acting with intent and acting with criminal negligence, and between acting recklessly and acting with criminal negligence, no legal inconsistency exists in either scenario based on section 18-1-503(3)”; accordingly holding that, where the jury found Rigsby guilty of three different assault counts – second-degree assault with a mental state of intent, second-degree assault with a mental state of recklessness, and third-degree assault with a mental state of criminal negligence – the verdicts were “legally consistent” and thus not mutually exclusive; noting that it was “inconsequential” that the jury was not instructed on section 18-1-503(3)); see also People v. Struckmeyer, 2020 CO 76, ¶ 7, 474 P.3d 57, 59 (applying Rigsby, and holding that guilty verdicts for child abuse (knowingly or recklessly) and child abuse (criminal negligence), even if logically inconsistent, are not legally inconsistent because, “[b]y proving that Struckmeyer acted knowingly or recklessly, the People necessarily established that he acted with criminal negligence”).

3. The Committee added this instruction in 2019.
4. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 2.

E:13 MULTIPLE DEFENDANTS

In this case, you must decide separately whether each of the [two] [several] defendants is guilty or not guilty. If you cannot agree upon a verdict as to [both] [all] the defendants, but do agree as to one [or more] of them, you must render a verdict as to the one [or more] upon which you do agree.

It is your duty to give separate personal consideration to the case of each individual defendant. When you do so, you should analyze what the evidence in the case shows with respect to that individual, leaving out entirely any evidence admitted solely against some other defendant or defendants. Each defendant is entitled to have his [her] case determined from evidence as to his [her] own acts and culpable state of mind, and any other evidence in this case which may be applicable to him [her]. You must state your finding as to each defendant uninfluenced by your verdict as to [the other] [any other] defendant.

COMMENT

1. See Instruction F:80 (defining “culpable state of mind”).

E:14 LESSER-INCLUDED OFFENSES

If you are not satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty of the offense charged, he [she] may, however, be found guilty of any lesser offense, the commission of which is necessarily included in the offense charged if the evidence is sufficient to establish his [her] guilt of the lesser offense beyond a reasonable doubt.

The offense of [insert name of offense(s) here], as charged in the information in this case necessarily includes the lesser offense[s] of [insert name(s) of lesser-included offense(s) here].

[Using the appropriate elemental instruction for each lesser-included offense as a guide, insert a definition of each such offense here, leaving out the last two paragraphs of the inserted instruction (i.e., the paragraphs that begin with the words: “After considering all the evidence”). List the lesser-included offenses from highest to lowest degree if submitting more than one lesser-included offense.]

You should bear in mind that the burden is always upon the prosecution to prove beyond a reasonable doubt each and every element of any lesser-included offense which is necessarily included in any offense charged in the information; the law never imposes upon a defendant in a criminal case the burden of calling any witnesses or producing any evidence.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide that the prosecution has proven each of the elements of the crime charged or of a lesser-included offense, you should find the defendant guilty of the offense proven, and you should so state in your verdict.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide that the prosecution has failed to prove one or more elements of the crime charged and one or more elements of the lesser-included offenses, you should find the defendant not guilty of these offenses, and you should so state in your verdict.

While you may find the defendant not guilty of the crimes charged and the lesser-included offense[s], you may not find the defendant guilty of more than one of the following offenses:

[Insert the charged offense and all lesser-included offenses.]

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-408(5)(a)–(c), C.R.S. 2020 (establishing several methods for identifying a lesser-included offense); Reyna-Abarca v. People, 2017 CO 15, ¶¶ 54–67, 390 P.3d 816, 824–27 (rejecting the court’s prior reasoning in Boulies v. People, 770 P.2d 1274 (Colo. 1989), and Meads v. People, 78 P.3d 290 (Colo. 2003), and instead adopting the strict elements test from Schmuck v. United States, 489 U.S. 705 (1989), and holding that “an offense is a lesser included offense of another offense if the elements of the lesser offense are a subset of the elements of the greater offense, such that the lesser offense contains only elements that are also included in the elements of the greater offense”); People v. Rock, 2017 CO 84, ¶¶ 15–20, 402 P.3d 472, 477–79 (explaining application of Reyna-Abarca test where a lesser offense may be committed in alternative ways, and holding that (1) if a lesser offense “is necessarily established by establishing the elements of a greater offense,” the lesser offense is included in the greater offense, and (2) “any set of elements sufficient for commission of that lesser offense that is necessarily established by establishing the statutory elements of a greater offense constitutes an included offense”); Page v. People, 2017 CO 88, ¶¶ 13, 19, 402 P.3d 468, 471–72 (applying Reyna-Abarca and Rock to find that unlawful sexual contact is a lesser-included offense of sexual assault).

2. Use a separate copy of this instruction for each pairing of a charged offense with one or more lesser-included offenses.

COMMENT

1. Instructions E:14 and E:15 enable the jury to find the defendant not guilty of the greater and lesser offenses as a collective matter. However, a trial court has discretion to modify the instruction and the special verdict form (or to use separate verdict forms) to give the jury “the option of considering the charge and its lesser-included offenses on an individual basis, and acquitting the defendant on some or all of them.” People v. Richardson, 184 P.3d 755, 762 (Colo. 2008); see also Blueford v. Arkansas, 132 S. Ct. 2044 (2012) (where jurors became deadlocked using instructions that limited their options to convicting on one of the offenses or acquitting on all offenses, the foreperson’s earlier disclosure that they were unanimous against guilt on two of the charges lacked the finality necessary to amount to an acquittal on those offenses for purposes of the Double Jeopardy Clause).

Although there are numerous ways to draft such an instruction and verdict form(s), the Committee has prepared an example of how a court could explain the available options in a case where a charged offense, such as first degree murder, has multiple lesser-included offenses.

First, the court would include the following language in the instruction:

A. If you have unanimously agreed that the defendant is NOT GUILTY of the charged offense and ALL of the lesser-included offenses, you will select ONLY Special Verdict Form A and the Foreperson will sign that form as the Court has stated.

B. If you have unanimously agreed that the Defendant is GUILTY of the crime charged or of a lesser-included offense, the Foreperson will complete ONLY Special Verdict Form B by placing, in ink, an "X" in the appropriate square and sign the form as the Court has stated.

C. If you complete either Special Verdict Form A or Special Verdict Form B, you should ignore Special Verdict Form C. However, if, based on your deliberations, you cannot complete either Special Verdict Form A or Special Verdict Form B, then please read Special Verdict Form C and, if you unanimously agree that the Defendant is NOT GUILTY of any offense(s), have the Foreperson place, in ink, an "X" in the appropriate square(s) and sign the form as the Court has stated.

Consistent with the foregoing directions, the court would then include the following language in the special verdict forms (with signature lines for the foreperson, and captions, both of which have been omitted here for the sake of brevity):

Verdict Form A

We, the jury, find the Defendant, [insert name], NOT GUILTY of First Degree Murder, and the lesser-included offenses of Second Degree Murder, Reckless Manslaughter, and Criminally Negligent Homicide.

Verdict Form B

We, the jury, find the Defendant, [insert name], GUILTY* of:

- First Degree Murder
- Second Degree Murder
- Manslaughter
- Criminally Negligent Homicide

*ONLY ONE SQUARE may be filled in, with the remainder to remain unmarked.

Verdict Form C

We, the jury, find the Defendant, [insert name], NOT GUILTY* of:

- First Degree Murder
- Second Degree Murder
- Manslaughter
- Criminally Negligent Homicide

*ONE OR MORE SQUARES may be filled in, as applicable (but do not fill in all of the squares, because if you find the defendant not guilty of all of the offenses you should leave this special verdict form blank and, instead, complete Special Verdict Form A).

Pursuant to Rule 31(a)(2), Crim. P. and section 16-10-108 C.R.S. 2020, it is stipulated and agreed that in the above-entitled case the Court may instruct the jury that if they reach a verdict during the recess or adjournment of the Court they may seal their verdict which shall be retained by their foreperson to be delivered to the Court at the opening of Court, and that after so sealing their verdict they may separate, to meet in the jury box at the opening of Court. It is further stipulated that such a verdict may be received by the Court as the lawful verdict of the jury.

COMMENT

1. See § 16-10-108, C.R.S. 2020 (“The jury shall return its verdict in open court, but a sealed verdict may be received as provided by rule of the supreme court of Colorado.”); Crim. P. 31(a)(2) (“When they have agreed upon a verdict, the bailiff shall return the jury into court. However, in any case except where the punishment may be death or life imprisonment, the court, upon stipulation of counsel for all parties, may order that if the jury should agree upon a verdict during the recess or adjournment of court for the day, it shall seal its verdict, to be retained by the [foreperson] and delivered by the jury to the judge at the opening of the court, and that thereupon the jury may separate, to meet in the jury box at the opening of court. Such a sealed verdict may be received by the court as the lawful verdict of the jury.”).

2. In People v. Herrera, 512 P.2d 1160, 1161 (Colo. 1973), the Colorado Supreme Court held that it was not error to use the sealed verdict procedure in a case where the defendant was charged with aggravated robbery (an offense then carrying a “penalty . . . [of imprisonment for] not less than four years, or for life”) because “the term ‘death or life imprisonment’ does not embrace offenses which have a sentence of less than life imprisonment as a minimum and a maximum of either life imprisonment or death.” Although Herrera was decided under an earlier version of the statute (then codified as § 39-7-20), the provision that was subject to interpretation (which has since been deleted by amendment) mirrored the language of Crim P. 31(a)(2).

ORDER FOR SEALED VERDICT

People of the State of Colorado

You are instructed that should you agree upon a verdict during the recess or adjournment of court for the day, your verdict shall be reduced to writing, and your foreperson shall sign it, enclose it in an envelope, seal the envelope and retain it, so sealed, to be delivered by the jury to the Court at the opening of court. After so sealing your verdict you may separate, to meet in the jury box at the opening of court. You will not disclose the result of your deliberations until your verdict is read in open court.

E:18 SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION – WHEN JURORS FAIL TO AGREE

Since it appears to the Court that your deliberations have been somewhat lengthy without a verdict being reached, the Court wishes to suggest a few thoughts that you should consider in your deliberations, along with the evidence in the case and all of the instructions previously given.

It is your duty, as jurors, to consult with one another and to deliberate with a view to reaching a verdict, if you can do so without violence to individual judgment. Each of you must decide the case for yourself, but do so only after an impartial consideration of the evidence with your fellow jurors. In the course of your deliberations, do not hesitate to reexamine your own views and change your opinion if convinced it is erroneous. But do not surrender your honest conviction as to the weight or effect of evidence solely because of the opinion of your fellow jurors, or for the mere purpose of returning a verdict.

You are not advocates. You are judges of the facts. Your sole interest is to ascertain the truth from the evidence in the case.

COMMENT

1. This is known as a “modified-Allen” instruction, a label that is somewhat ambiguous in Colorado because there are two relevant cases involving criminal defendants with the last name of “Allen.”

The first decision is Allen v. United States, 164 U.S. 492 (1896), in which the United States Supreme Court held that it was not error to charge the jury, on their return for further instructions, that it is their duty to decide the case, if they can conscientiously do so; that they should listen to each other’s arguments with a disposition to be convinced; that, if the much larger number are for conviction, a dissenting juror should consider whether his doubt is a reasonable one; and that, if a majority is for acquittal, the minority should consider whether they may not reasonably doubt their judgment.

The original Allen instruction had a “stormy career” in appellate jurisprudence, United States v. Silvern, 484 F.2d 879, 880 (7th Cir. 1973), and, on September 22, 1971, the Chief Justice of the Colorado Supreme Court issued the following directive for trial judges to utilize a four-part “modified-Allen” instruction adopted by other jurisdictions, in accordance with the recommendation of the A.B.A. Standards Relating to Trial by Jury, § 15.4 (1968) (now Standard 15-4.4), and the model instruction set forth in Jury Instructions and Forms for Federal Criminal Cases, 27 F.R.D. 39, 97-98 (1961):

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the “Allen” Instruction, otherwise known as the Third Degree Instruction, be no longer given to juries in trials conducted in this state. If it appears that a jury has been unable to agree, the trial court may in its discretion require the jury to continue its deliberations and may give an instruction which informs the jury that:

- 1) Jurors have a duty to consult with one another and to deliberate with a view to reaching an agreement if it can be done without violence to individual judgment;
- 2) Each juror must decide the case for himself, but only after impartial consideration with his fellow jurors;
- 3) In the course of deliberation, a juror should not hesitate to re-examine his own views and change his opinion if convinced it is erroneous; and
- 4) No juror should surrender his honest conviction as to the weight and effect of the acts solely because of the opinion of his fellow jurors or for the mere purpose of returning a verdict.

A jury shall be discharged by the trial judge without having agreed upon a verdict if it appears to the trial judge that there is no reasonable probability of agreement.

Although the foregoing directive sets forth all components of the “modified-Allen” instruction, the potential for confusion concerning the genesis of this term exists because, twelve years later, in Allen v. People, 660 P.2d 896, 898-99 n.2 (Colo. 1983), the Colorado Supreme Court disapproved of “time-fuse” instructions (in which the court informs the jury that it will declare a mistrial if a verdict is not returned by a specific time), explaining that such instructions “may have a coercive effect, like that of the [original] Allen charge.”

More recently, in Gibbons v. People, 2014 CO 67, ¶ 20, 328 P.3d 95, 99-100, the supreme court held that “the interrelationship of the two Allen cases can be summarized as follows: the four-part modified-Allen instruction does not include a time-fuse admonition, and Colorado’s Allen decision discourages a trial court from adding one.”

The court in Gibbons further held that, when giving a modified-Allen instruction, the trial court has discretion, but is not required, to advise the jury that, if it appears to the court that a unanimous decision cannot be reached, the court will discharge the jurors and declare a mistrial. Gibbons, ¶ 33, 328 P.3d at 101-02 (“The trial court has discretion to instruct a deadlocked jury about the possibility of a mistrial when, considering the content of the instruction and the context in which it is given, the instruction will not have a coercive effect on the jury. The court should consider exercising its discretion in rare circumstances, for example when a jury has actually indicated a mistaken belief in indefinite deliberations.”).

2. As set forth in the Chief Justice Directive, the decision whether to give a modified-Allen instruction is a matter of trial court discretion. See People v. Schwartz, 678 P.2d 1000, 1012 (Colo. 1984). In order to properly exercise that discretion, “[t]he trial court must first determine whether there is a likelihood of progress towards a unanimous verdict upon further deliberations.” Id.

But when inquiring as to the progress of a jury’s deliberations:

It is better practice to not ask a jury numerically how they are divided but rather to make inquiry as to whether any progress has been made toward reaching an agreement and what the likelihood is for such future progress. Also, the judge should . . . try to carefully avoid any disclosure as to whether the divided jury is for conviction or acquittal.

Lowe v. People, 488 P.2d 559, 561 (Colo. 1971) (reversal required because “[t]he probable result [of the court’s inquiry] was to bring all the eleven jurors’ efforts to bear on the one juror to act against his true beliefs and to abandon a sincere conscientious position”).

3. Due to a 2000 statutory amendment, the procedure for dealing with a jury impasse in a case involving one or more lesser-included offenses has changed. See § 18-1-408(8), C.R.S. 2020 (“Without the consent of the prosecution, no jury shall be instructed to return a guilty verdict on a lesser offense if any juror remains convinced by the facts and law that the defendant is guilty of a greater offense submitted for the jury’s consideration, the retrial of which would be barred by conviction of the lesser offense.”).

Prior to the enactment of section 18-1-408(8), the supreme court had outlined the following procedure for trial courts to use with seemingly deadlocked juries in cases involving lesser-included offenses:

The court should first ask the jury whether there is a likelihood of progress towards a unanimous verdict upon further deliberation. An affirmative response should require further deliberation without any additional instruction. If the jury indicates that the deadlock is such that progress towards a unanimous verdict is unlikely, the court should then inquire whether the jury is divided over guilt as to any one of the offenses and nonguilt as to all offenses, or instead, whether the division centers only on the particular degree of guilt. In the event the jury impasse relates solely to the issue of guilt as to any one of the offenses and nonguilt as to all offenses, the court in its discretion may give Colo. J.I. (Crim.) 38:14 (1983), which is patterned after ABA Standards for Criminal Justice 15-4.4 (2d ed. 1980) and the 1971 directive of the Chief Justice. If, however, the jury deadlock centers solely on a particular degree of guilt, rather than on the issue of guilt or nonguilt, then the court should consider an additional instruction charging the jury to return a guilty verdict on the lesser offense as long as every essential element of the lesser offense is necessarily included in the greater offense and all jurors unanimously agree on the defendant's guilt as to either the lesser or greater offenses submitted to them for their consideration.

However, in People v. Richardson, 184 P.3d 755, 761-62 (Colo. 2008), the Court acknowledged that:

Contrary to Lewis's guidelines, section 18-1-408(8) expressly prohibits the trial court from alleviating jury deadlock over the degree of guilt by instructing the jury, without the prosecution's consent, to return a guilty verdict on a lesser-included offense. Rather, if any juror remains convinced by the facts and the law that the defendant is guilty of a greater offense, the jury cannot be instructed, without the prosecution's consent, to return a verdict on a lesser-included offense. Because Lewis instructions are not constitutionally required, the General Assembly may prohibit or alter them. Therefore, we hold that section 18-1-408(8) abrogates the part of Lewis that allows the trial court to instruct the jury, without the prosecution's consent, to return a guilty verdict on a lesser-included offense if the jury has reached consensus as to the defendant's guilt but is deadlocked as to the degree of guilt.

4. Significantly, although Richardson states that the General Assembly abrogated the portion of Lewis having to do with the trial court's ability to instruct the jury to return a verdict as to a lesser-included offense, nothing in Richardson suggests that section 18-1-408(8) abrogated the first portion of Lewis, in which the Court advised trial courts that:

If the jury indicates that the deadlock is such that progress towards a unanimous verdict is unlikely, the court should then inquire whether the jury is divided over guilt as to any one of the offenses and nonguilt as to all offenses, or instead, whether the division centers only on the particular degree of guilt.

Lewis, 676 P.2d at 689. Accordingly, depending on the circumstances, such an inquiry may still be appropriate if: (1) the trial court has provided the jurors with a verdict form that enables them to return a verdict of acquittal as to one or more charges, even if they are deadlocked as to a lesser-included offense, see Instruction E:15, Comment 1; or (2) the facts of the case are such that the court concludes that the inquiry will help it decide whether there is manifest necessity to declare a mistrial.

E:19 RETURN OF JURY AFTER POLLING

In the polling of the jury one of your members provided an answer which indicates that you may not have reached a unanimous verdict. For this reason, the Court asks you to return to the jury room for further consideration of your verdict. Whenever you have reached a unanimous verdict, you may return it into Court. If you are not unanimous, then you should continue your deliberations.

After you return to the jury room any member is free to change his vote on any issue submitted to you. Each juror is free to change his vote until the jury is discharged.

COMMENT

1. See Crim. P. 31(d) (“When a verdict is returned and before it is recorded, the jury shall be polled at the request of any party or upon the court’s own motion. If upon the poll there is not unanimous concurrence, the jury may be directed to retire for further deliberations or may be discharged.”).
2. “[M]atters relating to the manner of conducting a jury poll are generally committed to the discretion of the trial court.” People v. Phillips, 91 P.3d 476, 479 (Colo. App. 2004); see People v. Barnard, 12 P.3d 290, 295 (Colo. App. 2000) (trial court did not abuse its discretion in determining that the verdict was not unanimous when one juror, in answering the court’s question whether this was her verdict, stated, “Yes, under duress.”). However, the court “may not engage in extensive questioning as to why a juror rejects the verdict.” People v. Juarez, 271 P.3d 537, 544 (Colo. App. 2011).
3. See Rail v. People, 2019 CO 99, ¶¶ 11–12, 30, 454 P.3d 1033, 1035, 1038 (holding that, where the jury reached inconsistent verdicts – finding the defendant guilty of sexual assault on a child and stating that the prosecution had proved specific instances of such assault as a pattern of abuse, but further finding on a separate interrogatory that the prosecution had not proved those same instances – the inconsistency did not require reversal because “ambiguity was resolved during polling when the jury confirmed both its guilty verdict and its unanimous finding that the State had proved all the alleged incidents of sexual contact beyond a reasonable doubt”).

At this time, I have to announce who the alternate[s] is [are] in this case. The alternate[s] in this case is [are] the juror[s] sitting in seat number[s] [ ], and that is [identify juror(s) by name]. I want to remind you that I chose the seat number[s] for the alternate juror[s] randomly before I even knew who was summoned for jury service in this case. ## E:22 INSTRUCTION TO EXTRA JUROR RELEASED SUBJECT TO RECALL

At this time, I have to announce who the alternate[s] is [are] in this case. The alternate[s] in this case is [are] the juror[s] sitting in seat number[s] [ ], and that is [identify juror(s) by name]. I want to remind you that I chose the seat number[s] for the alternate juror[s] randomly before I even knew who was summoned for jury service in this case. This is by no means a reflection on your performance as a juror. You just happened to land in the [a] seat number I randomly designated before trial for the alternate juror[s]. In a moment, I will give you an opportunity to retrieve any personal belongings you may have in the jury room and you will be excused temporarily with the thanks of the Court.

I am not discharging you from your jury service yet. I'm simply excusing you temporarily. Please continue to follow all of the instructions I have been giving you throughout the trial because there is a chance that if one of the jurors deliberating unexpectedly becomes unavailable, I may be in a position to call on you to replace that juror. You may go about your life as you were doing before you first reported for jury service, but you must continue to follow all of my instructions until my staff notifies you that you are discharged. All of my instructions will continue to apply to you until my staff notifies you otherwise.

Do you understand?

Do you agree to follow my instructions?

Please make sure we have good contact information for you so that we can get in touch with you. Thank you again.

2. See Carrillo v. People, 974 P.2d 478, 488-90 (Colo. 1999) (noting that “whether the legislature has granted trial courts the authority to substitute alternate jurors once deliberations have begun is unclear”; declining to resolve two conflicting Court of Appeals’ opinions concerning whether the trial court possesses such statutory authority; and reaffirming precedent indicating that a mid-deliberation substitution raises a presumption of prejudice to the defendant’s right to a fair trial, which may be overcome by an adequate showing that procedural precautions taken by the trial court obviated the danger of prejudice to the defendant); see also Garcia v. People 997 P.2d 1, 6 (Colo. 2000) (“We did not determine in Carrillo whether or not dismissing a juror and substituting an alternate juror during the course of deliberations violates our current statute and rule, as that issue was not relevant to the outcome of the case. See Carrillo, 974 P.2d at 488, 490. Whether or not a trial court has the power to order such a substitution, the substitution raises a presumption of prejudice to the defendant. See id. at 490. Since we simply follow the principles announced in Burnette and Carrillo, we need not and do not decide the issue left open in Carrillo.”); People v. Burnette, 775 P.2d 583, 590–91 (Colo. 1989) (presumption of prejudice arising from mid-deliberation substitution of an alternate juror for a regular juror was not rebutted because the court did not: (1) initially instruct the conditionally released alternate that he was not to discuss the case with others or form an opinion based on information that he acquired while he was conditionally released; (2) question the recalled alternate about his activities while conditionally released, and about his ability to serve on the jury; (3) inquire of the regular jurors whether they would be capable of disregarding their previous deliberations and any opinions they may have formed, and whether they could be receptive if the alternate juror asserted a non-conforming view; and (4) obtain assurances, from both the alternate and regular jurors, that the substitution would not impair the ability of the reconstituted jury to render a fair verdict).

3. When unconditionally discharging an alternate juror who was initially discharged subject to recall, administer the final discharge instruction. See Instruction E:25.

E:23 FINAL CONCLUDING INSTRUCTION

The bailiff will now escort you to the jury room, where you will select one of your members to be your foreperson. Your foreperson will preside over your deliberations and shall sign any verdict form [and verdict question form] that you may agree on, according to the rules that I am about to explain.

The verdict [for each charge] must represent the considered judgment of each juror, and it must be unanimous. In other words, all of you must agree to all parts of it. [This requirement also applies to any determination[s] that you make in response to [a] verdict question[s] which you conclude should be answered.]

Only one verdict shall be returned signed [for each count][for each defendant] [for each count, for each defendant]. The verdict form[s] [, verdict question form[s],] and these instructions shall remain in the possession of your foreperson until I ask for them in open court. Upon reaching a verdict [and, if required by your verdict[s], answering any verdict question[s],] you will inform the bailiff, who in turn will notify me, and you will remain in the jury room until I call you into the courtroom.

You will be provided with [insert number] verdict forms. [You also will be provided with [insert number] verdict question form[s] with directions that explain under what circumstances you should complete [that] [those] form[s].]

When you have unanimously agreed upon your verdict[s] you will select the option on [the] [each] form which reflects your verdict, and the foreperson will sign the verdict form[s] as I have stated. [Similarly, if you conclude that [the] [any] verdict question[s] should be answered, you will select the option on [the] [each] verdict question form which reflects your unanimous decision, and the foreperson will sign [the] [each] verdict question form as I have stated.]

I will now read to you the verdict [and verdict question[s]] form[s]. You must not draw any inferences based on the order in which I read them.

The verdict [and verdict question [s] form[s] you will receive read[s] as follows:

You have now completed your duties as jurors in this case and are discharged with the thanks of the court. #### COMMENT

1. Because the above format provides separate “Yes” and “No” options for answering each interrogatory, it is not necessary to include a footnote explaining that only one of these items may be selected from each pairing. However, it may be necessary to include additional directional footnoting when asking the jury to answer: (1) separate interrogatories for a sentence mitigator and a sentence enhancer (e.g., first degree assault, committed under a heat of passion, against an at-risk person, see §§ 18-3-202(2)(a), 18-6.5-103(3)(a), C.R.S. 2020); or (2) interrogatories that address mutually exclusive sentence enhancement factors (e.g., the valuation parameters for stolen property, see § 18-4-401(2), C.R.S. 2020 (valuation provisions for theft)).
2. In 2016, the Committee replaced the phrase “at-risk adult” with “at-risk person” in Comment 1 pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 172, sec. 3, § 18-6.5-103(3)(a), 2016 Colo. Sess. Laws 545, 548.

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. All definitional instructions in this chapter are derived from statute or the state constitution.
2. The instructions that are based on definitions from section 18-1-901(3), C.R.S. 2020, “apply wherever the same term is used in the same sense in another section [of the Criminal Code] unless the definition is specifically limited or the context indicates that it is inapplicable.” § 18-1-901(1), C.R.S. 2020; see also § 18-1-901(2), C.R.S. 2020 (the definitions of terms relating to principles of criminal culpability in section 18-1-501, C.R.S. 2020 are generally applicable). Each of these instructions uses the prefatory word that appears in the corresponding subsection of the statute (i.e., that a certain term either “means” or “includes” that which follows). Compare Instruction F:165 (“‘Governmental function’ includes. . .”), with Instruction F:30 (“‘Benefit’ means. . .”). This distinction may have significance, depending on the facts of a particular case. See Colorado Common Cause v. Meyer, 758 P.2d 153, 164 (Colo. 1988) (“The word ‘includes’ has been found by the overwhelming majority of jurisdictions to be a term of extension or enlargement when used in a statutory definition.”).
3. In a few instructions, the Committee has made minor alterations to statutory language which, in the Committee’s judgment, do not alter the meaning of the defined terms (e.g., changing “shall not” to “does not” in Instruction F:68 (defining “consent”)). Nevertheless, the Committee recommends that, as with all model jury instructions, users conduct their own research to determine whether a definition is accurate.
4. Where the Committee has concluded that a definition should not be used in a certain context because the term has a different meaning, this determination is noted. For example, Instruction F:70 defines “contraband” for purposes of introducing contraband in the second degree, and Comment 4 to that instruction states: “Do not use the definition of ‘obscene’ in Instruction F:246 (defining the term for purposes of the harassment statute).” Additionally, for a number of statutory definitions, the General Assembly has provided that they should be used “unless the context otherwise requires.” See, e.g., § 18-10-102, C.R.S. 2020 (providing definitions of several terms “[a]s used in this article 10, unless the context otherwise requires”).

5. Several instructions include bracketed directions to insert descriptive statements from statutory provisions that are referenced in the term definitions. The Committee has used this mechanism where the referenced material is lengthy. See, e.g., F:45 (“the term ‘medical directive or order,’ as used in the definition of ‘caretaker neglect,’ includes, but is not limited to, a medical durable power of attorney, a declaration as to medical treatment executed [insert description from section 15-18-104], a medical order for scope of treatment form executed [insert description from article 18.7 of title 15], and a CPR directive executed [insert description from article 18.6 of title 15].”).

6. In 2016, the Committee added the two sentences to Comment 4 beginning with “Additionally.”

7. In 2018, the Committee modified the parenthetical quotation in Comment 4 pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 14, sec. 13, § 18-10-102, 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 167, 239.

F:01 INTRODUCTION FOR LIST OF TERM DEFINITIONS

In this case, certain words and phrases have particular meanings.

Accordingly, you are to use the following definitions where these words and phrases appear in instructions that define crimes, defenses, special rules, and verdict questions.

[Insert all definitions, arranged alphabetically.]

F:02 ABANDON (MOTOR VEHICLE)

“Abandon” means to leave a thing with the intention not to retain possession of or assert ownership over it. The intent need not coincide with the act of leaving.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-512(2), C.R.S. 2020.

The term “after deliberation” means not only intentionally but also that the decision to commit the act has been made after the exercise of reflection and judgment concerning the act. An act committed after deliberation is never one which has been committed in a hasty or impulsive manner.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-101(3), C.R.S. 2020 (homicide and related offenses).
2. Under this definition, some “‘appreciable length of time must have elapsed to allow deliberation, reflection and judgment.’” Key v. People, 715 P.2d 319, 322 (Colo. 1986) (quoting People v. Sneed, 183 Colo. 96, 100, 514 P.2d 776, 778 (1973)). See Martinez v. People, 2015 CO 16, ¶ 11, 344 P.3d 862 (“The trial court in this case erroneously instructed the jury that ‘after deliberation’ means an interval of time ‘sufficient for one thought to follow another.’ The prosecution culled this language from an 1895 case, Van Houten v. People, that considered how quickly premeditation can occur in the first-degree murder context. 22 Colo. 53, 43 P. 137, 142 (1895). More recently, however, this court has rejected the Van Houten language as inconsistent with the element of deliberation that the current first-degree murder statute requires. People v. Sneed, 183 Colo. 96, 514 P.2d 776, 778 (1973). . . . [However,] because the record in this case reveals overwhelming evidence of deliberation, and the instructions as a whole adequately informed the jury of the law, the instructional error did not seriously impair the reliability of the jury’s guilty verdict. We therefore affirm the court of appeals’ holding that there was no plain error in the trial court’s jury instructions.”).
3. Evidence of voluntary intoxication is admissible to counter the specific intent element of first-degree murder, which includes “after deliberation” as an element. See People v. Miller, 113 P.3d 743, 750 (Colo. 2005); People v. Harlan, 8 P.3d 448, 471–75 (Colo. 2000).

2. See Instruction F:154 (defining “firearm”); Instruction F:194 (defining “knife”).
3. This definition does not apply to the term “dangerous instrument,” as used to define a “knife” in section 18-12-101(1)(f), C.R.S. 2020. See People v. Gross, 830 P.2d 933, 941 (Colo. 1992) (rejecting a constitutional overbreadth challenge to the statute criminalizing possession of a weapon by a previous offender by construing the “other dangerous instrument” language within the definition of a “knife” as requiring that the defendant have intended to use the instrument as a weapon).

2. See People v. Opana, 2017 CO 56, ¶¶ 9-17, 395 P.3d 757, 759-62 (overruling People v. Vasquez, 148 P.3d 326 (Colo. App. 2006)), and holding that—in the context of the phrase “the intended, natural, and probable consequence of which is to produce death”—the word “intended” does not refer to the defendant’s subjective intent, but rather to what would normally or typically be intended); People v. Ferguson, 43 P.3d 705 (Colo. App. 2001) (trial court, in giving jury instruction concerning self-defense in attempted murder and assault prosecution where the victim did not die, erred in defining deadly physical force as “force, the intended, natural, and probable consequence of which is to produce death”; the error was not harmless because the jury was permitted to hold defendant to a higher standard in establishing self-defense than what was required by law).

2. See Instruction F:154 (defining "firearm"); Instruction F:194 (defining "knife"); Instruction F:332 (defining "serious bodily injury").
3. See People v. Saleh, 45 P.3d 1272, 1275 (Colo. 2002) (any object can be a deadly weapon if it is used in a manner capable of producing death or serious bodily injury; body parts can be deadly weapons depending upon the manner in which they are used; whether an object is a deadly weapon does not depend upon the ultimate result of an object's use; the statute does not require that the object actually cause serious bodily injury; rather, it must be "capable of producing" such injury).
4. The definition of a "deadly weapon" was amended in 2013, following the supreme court's decision in Montez v. People, 2012 CO 6, ¶¶ 3-22, 269 P.3d 1228, 1229-32 (the General Assembly has not classified firearms as per se deadly weapons for purposes of the first degree burglary statute; the legislature did not intend theft of a firearm from a building to constitute first degree burglary regardless of the manner the burglar used or intended to use the firearm).

[Any other medical condition, or treatment for such condition, approved by the state health agency.]

COMMENT

1. See Colo. Const. art. XVIII, § 14(1)(a) (medical marijuana).
2. The final provision, allowing for inclusion of “other” medical conditions, requires that the state health agency act “pursuant to its rule making authority or its approval of any petition submitted by a patient or physician as provided in this section.” In the unlikely event that a case arises in which there is a dispute concerning the propriety of the approval process, the court should determine this issue as a matter of law.

2. See Instruction F:56 (defining “cocaine”).
3. Section 18-18-427(1), C.R.S. 2020, enumerates several factors that a court may consider in determining whether an object is drug paraphernalia. Section 18-18-427(2), C.R.S. 2020, states that: “In the event a case brought pursuant to sections 18-18-425 to 18-18-430 is tried before a jury, the court shall hold an evidentiary hearing on issues raised pursuant to this section. Such hearing shall be conducted in camera.” Although the Committee has not drafted a special instruction identifying these factors, it may be appropriate for the court to do so.
4. See § 18-18-426(2)(a), C.R.S. 2020 (“‘Drug paraphernalia’ does not include any marijuana accessories as defined in section 16(2)(g) of article XVIII of the state constitution . . .”).

F:114 DWELLING

“Dwelling” means a building which is used, intended to be used, or usually used by a person for habitation.

[“Dwelling” does not include any place of habitation in a detention facility.]

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-901(3)(g), C.R.S. 2020; § 18-1-704.5(5), C.R.S. 2020 (use of deadly physical force against an intruder).
2. See People v. Jiminez, 651 P.2d 395 (Colo. 1982) (the definition of dwelling encompasses the entire residential structure including an attached garage); People v. Morales, 2012 COA 2, ¶¶ 58–76, 298 P.3d 1000, 1011–14 (“the phrase ‘intended to be used’ includes future use in addition to present use, and, therefore, existing homes undergoing renovation are ‘dwellings,’ provided they are intended to be used for habitation”); People v. Cushinberry, 855 P.2d 18, 19 (Colo. App. 1992) (the common areas of an apartment building, such as a stairwell, do not constitute a dwelling); People v. Germany, 586 P.2d 1006, 1009 (Colo. App. 1978) (a hospital room falls within the definition of a dwelling), rev’d on other grounds, 599 P.2d 904 (Colo. 1979).
3. The court should only include the bracketed paragraph where the defendant has raised the affirmative defense of use of physical force, including deadly physical force (intruder into a dwelling), and only then if the context does not require otherwise. See Instruction H:15; see also Instruction F:97 (defining “detention facility” (second degree assault involving a bodily fluid or a hazardous material; riots in detention facilities; use of marijuana in detention facilities)).
4. The bracketed paragraph derives from a 2016 legislative amendment. See Ch. 87, sec. 1, § 18-1-704.5, 2016 Colo. Sess. Laws 245, 245. In People v. Alaniz, 2016 COA 101, ¶ 36, 409 P.3d 508, 515, the court of appeals analyzed the statute as it existed prior to the amendment, but it also suggested that the General Assembly intended the amendment to prevent prisoners from claiming immunity when using force against someone within their cell. See id. (“The People argue that public policy reasons should prevent incarcerated felons from claiming ‘make-my-day’ immunity. . . . The General Assembly is free to amend the statute . . . and indeed has already done so, but we must apply the statute in effect at the time of the charged offense.” (emphasis added)).

5. In 2016, pursuant to new legislation, the Committee added the bracketed paragraph to the instruction, modified the citation in Comment 1, and added Comments 3 and 4. See Ch. 87, sec. 1, § 18-1-704.5, 2016 Colo. Sess. Laws 245, 245.

A person “enters unlawfully” or “remains unlawfully” in or upon premises when the person is not licensed, invited, or otherwise privileged to do so. Henley*, 2017 COA 76, ¶¶ 21-22, __ P.3d __ (concluding that the statutory definition of “erotic nudity” “focuses on the purpose for which the image is displayed, not the subjective purpose of a particular viewer,” meaning that “the particular viewer’s purpose in looking at the image is irrelevant for purposes of determining whether the image is ‘erotic nudity’”).

F:160.4 GAMBLING INFORMATION

“Gambling information” means a communication with respect to any wager made in the course of, and any information intended to be used for, professional gambling.

Evidence of information as to wagers, betting odds, or changes in betting odds gives rise to a permissible inference that the information was intended for use in professional gambling. However, legitimate news reporting of an event for public dissemination is not gambling information.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

2. See Instruction F:287.2 (defining “professional gambling”).

People*, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (holding that, unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

F:160.5 GAMBLING PREMISES

“Gambling premises” means any building, room, enclosure, vehicle, vessel, or other place, whether open or enclosed, used or intended to be used for professional gambling.

Evidence that a gambling device was found in a place gives rise to a permissible inference that the place was intended to be used for professional gambling.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

Sess. Laws 1758, 1759. Because that separate definition is identical to the existing definition of “in connection with” as applied to internet luring of a child, rather than creating an entirely new instruction, the Committee has simply added the new statutory citation to Comment 1.

2. Although this definition is identical to the definition of “bodily injury” in section § 18-1-901(3)(c), see Instruction F:36, a separate entry is included here because section 42-4-1601(1) does not include the adjective “bodily” (except in reference to “serious bodily injury”).

But, under both tests, care should be taken not to confuse mental disease or defect with moral obliquity, mental depravity, or passion growing out of anger, revenge, hatred, or other motives and kindred evil conditions because, when an act is induced by any of these causes, the person is accountable to the law.

COMMENT

1. See § 16-8-101.5(1)(a), (b), C.R.S. 2020.

See Grant’s Atlas of Anatomy 185 (9th ed. 1991.”); Nickerson v. State, 69 S.W.3d 661, 666 n.3 (Tex. Ct. App. 2002) (“The perineum is ‘the area between the anus and the posterior part of the external genitalia.’ Merriam Webster’s Collegiate Dictionary 864 (10th ed. 1993.”); Webster’s Third New International Dictionary 1836 (2002) (defining “pubes” as “the hair that appears upon the lower part of the hypogastric region at the age of puberty,” “the lower part of the hypogastric region,” or “the pubic region”).
3. See People v. Ramirez, 2018 COA 129, ¶ 23, __ P.3d __ (holding that semen is not part of a person’s “external genitalia,” meaning it is not an “intimate part” under the statutory definition).

[In a variation of poker in which there can be more than one winning hand and the dealer’s participation is necessary or desirable to improve the game for players other than the dealer, the dealer may play, but under no circumstances may the dealer place a wager in any game in which he or she is dealing. A game in which the player holding the highest-scoring hand splits his or her winnings with the player holding the lowest-scoring hand does not qualify as a “variation of poker in which there can be more than one winning hand.”]

F:280 POSITION OF TRUST

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-101(2.5), C.R.S. 2020 (homicide and related offenses); § 18-3-401(3.5), C.R.S. 2020 (sexual offenses, Article 3, Part 4); § 18-6-401(7)(e)(I), C.R.S. 2020 (child abuse).
2. In People v. Roggow, 2013 CO 70, ¶ 15, 318 P.3d 446, 450, the supreme court analyzed the definition of “position of trust” and held as follows:

We conclude that the statutory definition of “position of trust” in section 18-3-401(3.5) expressly includes two general categories of persons: (1) persons who are parents or acting in the place of parents, and (2) persons who are charged with a duty or responsibility for the health, education, welfare, or supervision [of] the child. However, these categories are only illustrative, and the broad definition of position of trust adopted by the legislature “is not limited to” these categories. Rather, these general categories reflect the General Assembly’s overarching intent to target those offenders who are entrusted with special access to a child victim and who exploit that access to commit an offense against the child. Thus, we hold that for purposes of section 18-3-405.3, a defendant need not be expressly charged with a particular duty or responsibility over the child at the time of the unlawful act in order to occupy a position of trust. Rather, a defendant may occupy a position of trust with respect to the victim where an existing relationship or other conduct or circumstances establish that the defendant is entrusted with special access to the child victim.

+ See also People v. Manjarrez, 2020 CO 53, ¶ 27, 465 P.3d 547, 552 (clarifying the holding in Roggow, and stating that “a defendant’s special access to the victim by virtue of an existing relationship or other conduct or circumstances is evidence of an implied duty or responsibility for the welfare or supervision of the victim during those periods of special access”).

3. See Pellman v. People, 252 P.3d 1122, 1125 (Colo. 2011) (“[A] defendant need not be performing a specific supervisory task at the time of the unlawful act in order to occupy a position of trust. Instead, a defendant may assume a position of trust through an ongoing and continuous supervisory relationship with the victim.”).

4. + In 2020, the Committee added the citation to Manjarrez in Comment 2.

F:281 POSSESSION

Possession constitutes a “voluntary act” if the actor was aware of his [her] physical possession or control thereof for a sufficient period to have been able to have terminated it.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-501(9), C.R.S. 2020 (defining “possession” in the context of a “voluntary act”).
2. See Instruction F:391 (defining “voluntary act”).
3. See People v. Martinez, 780 P.2d 560, 561 (Colo. 1989) (explaining, in the context of reviewing judgment of acquittal for the offense of possession of a weapon by a previous offender, that: “In [People v. Garcia, 595 P.2d 228, 231 n.4 (Colo. 1979)], we did not include the requirement of exclusive control in our definition of ‘possession.’ We believe that imposing the requirement of exclusive control alters the generally accepted meaning of the term, making it both unduly restrictive and a potential source of confusion for jurors.”).
4. An earlier version of this instruction stated that “‘possession’ means actual or physical control” over an item. See COLJI-Crim. F:199 (2008). Presumably, that instruction relied on People v. Garcia, 595 P.2d 228, 231 (Colo. 1979), which held that “[t]he commonsense definition of “possession” as it is used in [the statute prohibiting the use of weapons], is the actual or physical control of a firearm.” But following the publication of the 2008 instructions, the court of appeals recognized that the supreme court’s opinion in Garcia was narrow. People v. Warner, 251 P.3d 556, 565 (Colo. App. 2010) (“Defendant relies on People v. Garcia for the proposition that possession of a weapon requires ‘actual or physical control of a firearm.’ However, Garcia is distinguishable because there the supreme court limited its holding to possession of a weapon by an intoxicated person.” (citation omitted)). In any event, because Chapter F is reserved for terms that are defined by statute, the Committee has not included the “actual or physical control” language in its model instruction.

5. In 2015, the Committee removed a citation to People v. Warner, supra, from Comment 3, and it added Comment 4.

Sullivan*, 53 P.3d 1181, 1183 (Colo. App. 2002) (evidence of wife’s ownership of clothing was sufficient to support defendant’s conviction for second degree arson committed against “property of another”; for purposes of this determination, it was immaterial that the wife’s clothes may have been acquired by her during the course of the marriage and, therefore, constituted a part of the parties’ “marital property” under the dissolution statute); People v. Espinoza, 989 P.2d 178, 180 (Colo. App. 1999) (building was the property of “another,” within the meaning of the first degree arson statute, where the parties stipulated that the prior owner had a proprietary interest in the building and was still owed money by the defendant).

Such a commercial transaction must occur between the patron – i.e., the person having the sexual contact with the child – or between the patron and the one inducing the child to participate in the sexual act, the pimp. It is precisely this exchange of something of value between the patron and either the pimp or the child that distinguishes this crime from that of sexual assault.”).

Espinosa*, 2020 COA 63, ¶¶ 7, 15, 20–21, 26, 465 P.3d 114, 116–19 (holding that, where the trial court defined “sexual abuse” in part as “behavior done with an intent to cause pain, injury, or discomfort . . . [which] can be either of a physical or an emotional nature,” that part of the instruction correctly stated the law; but further holding that when the court instructed the jury that “[i]t is the nature of the act that renders the abuse ‘sexual’ and not the motivation of the perpetrator,” this was reversible error because, although “the sexual nature of the act may be viewed from the victim’s perspective rather than the perpetrator’s” (per Lovato), the requirement of sexual abuse nevertheless requires that the perpetrator act “for the purpose of causing sexual humiliation, sexual degradation, or other physical or emotional discomfort of a sexual nature”; declining to suggest language for an appropriate instruction, and instead leaving that task to the Committee).

F:343 SEXUAL PENETRATION

“Sexual penetration” means sexual intercourse, cunnilingus, fellatio, analingus, or anal intercourse. Emission need not be proved as an element of any sexual penetration. ## F:345.2 SIMULATED “Simulated” means the explicit depiction or description of any of the following types of conduct, which creates the appearance of such conduct: patently offensive representations or descriptions of ultimate sex acts, normal or perverted, including sexual intercourse, sodomy, and sexual bestiality; or patently offensive representations or descriptions of masturbation, excretory functions, sadism, masochism, lewd exhibition of the genitals, the male or female genitals in a state of sexual stimulation or arousal, or covered male genitals in a discernibly turgid state.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-101(7), C.R.S. 2020 (obscenity).
2. See Instruction F:258.7 (defining “patently offensive”).
3. The statute provides that “simulated” means “the explicit depiction or description of any of the types of conduct set forth in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section, which creates the appearance of such conduct.” § 18-7-101(7). In turn, section 18-7-101(2)(b) describes two different examples of “patently offensive representations or descriptions.” As a result, this definition arguably includes a redundancy, as it refers to “the explicit depiction or description of . . . patently offensive representations or descriptions.” However, the Committee has elected to track the language of the statute, as much of the case law surrounding obscenity discusses the term “patently offensive.” See People v. Ford, 773 P.2d 1059, 1067 (Colo. 1989) (“We hold that defining ‘patently offensive’ in terms of community standards of tolerance does not impermissibly reach speech protected by either the United States or Colorado Constitutions, and therefore is not overbroad.”).

However, section 18-7-101(2)(b)(I) also refers to acts that are “actual or simulated.” The Committee has removed this language from this instruction, as including the term “simulated” in an instruction that defines the term “simulated” would likely confuse jurors.

4. The Committee added this instruction in 2016.

F:345.3 SIMULATED GAMBLING DEVICE

“Simulated gambling device” does not include: bona fide amusement devices that pay nothing of value, cannot be adjusted to pay anything of value, and are not used for gambling; or any pari-mutuel totalisator equipment that is used for pari-mutuel wagering on live or simulcast racing events and that has been approved by the director of the division of racing events for entities authorized and licensed under Colorado’s racing laws.

“Written instrument” means any paper, document, or other instrument containing written or printed matter or the equivalent thereof, used for purposes of reciting, embodying, conveying, or recording information, and any money, credit card, token, stamp, seal, badge, or trademark or any evidence or symbol of value, right, privilege, or identification, which is capable of being used to the advantage or disadvantage of some person.

+ [For purposes of the crime of [second-degree forgery] [criminal possession of a second-degree forged instrument], “written instrument” cannot be a written instrument of a kind listed below:

part of an issue of money, stamps, securities, or other valuable instruments issued by a government or government agency; part of an issue of stock, bonds, or other instruments representing interests in or claims against a corporate or other organization or its property;

a deed, will, codicil, contract, assignment, commercial instrument, promissory note, check, or other instrument which does or may evidence, create, transfer, terminate, or otherwise affect a legal right, interest, obligation, or status;

a public record or an instrument filed or required by law to be filed or legally fileable in or with a public office or public servant;

a written instrument officially issued or created by a public office, public servant, or government agency; part of an issue of tokens, transfers, certificates, or other articles manufactured and designed for use in transportation fees upon public conveyances, or as symbols of value usable in place of money for the purchase of property or services available to the public for compensation; part of an issue of lottery tickets or shares designed for use in the state lottery;

a document-making implement that may be used or is used in the production of a false identification document or in the production of another document-making implement to produce false identification documents; or a bona fide academic record of an institution of secondary or higher education.]

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. In 2018, the Committee moved several instructions previously in this Chapter to the new Chapter J, and it renumbered the remaining instructions accordingly.

G1:01 REQUIREMENTS FOR CRIMINAL LIABILITY

A crime is committed when the defendant has committed a voluntary act prohibited by law, together with a culpable state of mind.

“Voluntary act” means an act performed consciously as a result of effort or determination [, and includes the possession of property if the actor was aware of his [her] physical possession or control thereof for a sufficient period to have been able to terminate it].

Proof of the voluntary act alone is insufficient to prove that the defendant had the required state of mind.

The culpable state of mind is as much an element of the crime as the act itself and must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt, either by direct or circumstantial evidence.

In this case, the applicable state[s] of mind is [are] explained below:

[The term “after deliberation” means not only intentionally, but also that the decision to commit the act has been made after the exercise of reflection and judgment concerning the act. An act committed after deliberation is never one which has been committed in a hasty or impulsive manner.]

[A person acts “intentionally” or “with intent” when his [her] conscious objective is to cause the specific result proscribed by the statute defining the offense. It is immaterial whether or not the result actually occurred.]

[A person acts “knowingly” or “willfully” with respect to conduct or to a circumstance described by a statute defining an offense when he [she] is aware that his [her] conduct is of such nature or that such a circumstance exists. A person acts “knowingly” or “willfully”, with respect to a result of his [her] conduct, when he [she] is aware that his [her] conduct is practically certain to cause the result.]

[A person acts “recklessly” when he [she] consciously disregards a substantial and unjustifiable risk that a result will occur or that a circumstance exists.]

[A person acts “with criminal negligence” when, through a gross deviation from the standard of care that a reasonable person would exercise, he [she] fails to perceive a substantial and unjustifiable risk that a result will occur or that a circumstance exists.]

G1:02 STRICT LIABILITY CRIMES

The crime[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s) here] [is a] [are] “strict liability” offense[s] that [is] [are] established by proof beyond a reasonable doubt of conduct which includes a voluntary act or the omission to perform an act which the person is physically capable of performing.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-502, C.R.S. 2020 (defining the principle of strict liability); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”); § 18-1-704(4), C.R.S. 2020 (provision allowing for evidence of self-defense, where self-defense is not available as an affirmative defense, “shall not apply to strict liability crimes”).
2. See Instruction F:66 (defining “conduct”); Instruction F:251 (defining “omission”); Instruction F:391 (defining “voluntary act”).
3. See, e.g., § 18-3-106(1)(b)(I), C.R.S. 2020 (vehicular homicide “is a strict liability crime”); § 18-3-205(1)(b)(I), C.R.S. 2020 (vehicular assault “is a strict liability crime”); § 18-13-122(2)(a), C.R.S. 2020 (“Illegal possession or consumption of ethyl alcohol by an underage person is a strict liability offense.”); People v. Manzo, 144 P.3d 551, 552 (Colo. 2006) (leaving the scene of an accident with serious bodily injury, in violation of section 42-4-1601, C.R.S. 2020, constitutes a strict liability offense because the plain language of the statute does not require or imply a culpable mental state); People v. Hoskay, 87 P.3d 194, 198 (Colo. App. 2003) (concluding that “the plain language of the public indecency statute reflects the General Assembly’s intent to make the offense a strict liability crime without a culpable mental state”); People v. Wilson, 972 P.2d 701, 703 (Colo. App. 1998) (prohibited use of a weapon – possession while under the influence, in violation of section 18-12-106(1)(d) – is a strict liability offense).

4. This instruction should not be used for offenses with a partially applicable mental state. See, e.g., Copeland v. People, 2 P.3d 1283, 1287 (Colo. 2000) (“[O]ur legislature has . . . determined to focus its fourth degree arson mens rea requirement on the actor’s conduct in starting or maintaining the fire, while continuing to hold the arsonist responsible for the fire’s result, whether or not he or she was aware of or intended the consequences.”). For this type of offense, the elemental instruction should be drafted in a manner that clearly indicates which element(s) the mens rea modifies (as the Committee has endeavored to do throughout this volume).

5. In cases where the defendant is charged with one or more strict liability offenses and one or more offenses having a mens rea, it may be appropriate to add the following language: “Strict liability crimes are different from other crimes because the prosecution does not have to prove that the person acted, or failed to act, with a culpable mental state.”

G1:03 CRIMINAL LIABILITY OF BUSINESS ENTITIES

A business entity is guilty of an offense if the conduct constituting the offense consists of an omission to discharge a specific duty of affirmative performance imposed on the business entity by law; or the conduct constituting the offense is engaged in, authorized, solicited, requested, commanded, or knowingly tolerated by the governing body, individual authorized to manage the affairs of the business entity, or by a high managerial agent acting within the scope of his employment or in behalf of the business entity.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-606(1)(a), (b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:11 (defining “agent”); Instruction F:42 (defining “business entity”); Instruction F:170 (defining “high managerial agent”); Instruction F:251 (defining “omission”).
3. See S. Union Co. v. United States, 132 S. Ct. 2344, 2352 (2012) (“substantial” fines against organizational defendants implicate the Sixth Amendment right to a jury trial and are thus subject to the rule of Apprendi v. New Jersey, 530 U.S. 466 (2000)).
4. In 2018, the Committee renumbered this instruction from G1:04 to G1:03.

G1:04 CRIMINAL LIABILITY OF AN INDIVIDUAL FOR CORPORATE CONDUCT

A person is criminally liable for conduct constituting an offense which he [she] performs or causes to occur in the name of or in behalf of a corporation to the same extent as if that conduct were performed or caused by him [her] in his [her] own name or behalf.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-607, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:66 (defining “conduct”).
3. In 2018, the Committee renumbered this instruction from G1:05 to G1:04.

G2:01 CRIMINAL ATTEMPT

The elements of the crime of attempt to commit [insert name(s) of crime(s) here] are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. [insert the culpable mental state for the offense attempted],
4. engaged in conduct constituting a substantial step toward the commission of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. [and,]
- [5. that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

A "substantial step" is any conduct, whether act, omission, or possession, which is strongly corroborative of the firmness of the actor's purpose to complete the commission of the offense.

After considering the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of criminal attempt to commit [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

After considering the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of criminal attempt to commit [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-2-101(1), C.R.S. 2020 (defining criminal attempt).
2. See Instruction F:10 (defining "after deliberation"); Instruction F:185 (defining "intentionally"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly or willfully”); Instruction F:251 (defining “omission”); Instruction F:308 (defining “recklessly”); Instruction F:356 (defining “substantial step”).

3. Always give instructions explaining the elements and culpable mental state(s) of the attempted crime. Where the defendant is charged with both the completed crime and an attempt of that same offense, arrange the instructions so that the instructions for the completed crime precede the attempt instruction.

In cases where the defendant is charged only with an attempt to commit an offense, an elemental instruction defining the attempted crime should immediately follow the instruction defining an attempt (omit the last two paragraphs of the instruction defining the attempted offense, which describe the burden of proof and begin with the words: “After considering the evidence”). The instructions defining the mental state and relevant terms for the attempted offense should follow the elemental instruction.

4. Always include a complete description of the mens rea for the attempted offense as part of the attempt instruction. For example, where the defendant is charged with attempted first degree murder after deliberation, the mens rea should be described, in the third element, as “after deliberation and with the intent to kill.” See Gann v. People, 736 P.2d 37, 39 (Colo. 1987) (“[The instruction defining attempt] was erroneous because the jury was instructed on only one of the elements of culpability. The instruction omitted any reference to the requirement that the defendant must have acted after deliberation and with the intent to kill.”).

5. Compare People v. Castro, 657 P.2d 932, 937 (Colo. 1983) (attempted extreme indifference murder is a cognizable crime), and People v. Thomas, 729 P.2d 972, 975-77 (Colo. 1986) (attempted reckless crimes are cognizable), with People v. Eggert, 923 P.2d 230, 236 (Colo. App. 1995) (attempted negligent crimes are not cognizable).

6. See Instruction H:37 (criminal attempt—affirmative defense of abandonment and renunciation).

7. In 2015, the Committee modified Comment 4 to correct a potentially misleading quotation.

8. In 2019, in the final sentence of the first paragraph of Comment 3, the Committee corrected the phrase “attempted crime” to “completed crime.”

G2:02 CRIMINAL ATTEMPT (NON-GUILT OF OTHER PERSON NOT A DEFENSE)

A person who engages in conduct intending to aid another to commit an offense commits criminal attempt if his [her] conduct would establish his [her] complicity were the offense committed by the other person, even if the other person is not guilty of committing or attempting the offense.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-2-101(2), C.R.S. 2020.

G2:03 CRIMINAL ATTEMPT (FACTUAL OR LEGAL IMPOSSIBILITY NOT A DEFENSE)

Factual or legal impossibility is not a defense to criminal attempt if the underlying offense could have been committed if the facts were as the defendant believed them to be.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-2-101(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See People v. Hrapski, 658 P.2d 1367, 1369 (Colo. 1983) (probable cause existed to bind inmate over on charge of attempt to possess contraband, even though confiscated bullet failed to discharge when tested; because factual impossibility is not a defense under the attempt statute, it was immaterial that the bullet in the defendant's possession was defective).

G2:04 CRIMINAL ATTEMPT (COMPLETION NOT A DEFENSE)

It is no defense to the charge of criminal attempt that the crime attempted was actually completed by the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-2-101(1), C.R.S. 2020.

G2:05 CONSPIRACY

The elements of the crime of conspiracy are:

1. That the defendant.
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with the intent to promote or facilitate the commission of the crime of [insert name of offense here],
- [4. agreed with another person or persons that they, or one or more of them, would engage in conduct which constituted the crime of [insert name of offense] or an attempt to commit the crime of [insert name of offense], and]
- [4. agreed to aid another person or persons in the planning or commission of the crime of [insert name of offense] or an attempt to commit the crime of [insert name of offense], and]
5. the defendant, or a co-conspirator, performed an overt act to pursue the conspiracy.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

“Overt act” means any act knowingly committed by one of the conspirators, in an effort to accomplish some object or purpose of the conspiracy. The overt act need not be criminal in nature. It must, however, be an act that tends toward accomplishment of a plan or scheme, knowingly done in furtherance of some object or purpose of the charged conspiracy.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of conspiracy.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of conspiracy.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-2-201(1), (2) C.R.S. 2020.
2. Always give instructions that define the object crime(s), the crime of attempt (when applicable), and all terms that are relevant to the object crime(s).
3. Section 18-2-201(4), C.R.S. 2020, provides as follows: “If a person conspires to commit a number of crimes, he is guilty of only one conspiracy so long as such multiple crimes are part of a single criminal episode.” This rule governs issues relating to merger, see, e.g., People v. Rodriguez, 914 P.2d 230, 283 (Colo. 1996), and joinder. See, e.g., Pinelli v. District Court, 595 P.2d 225, 228 (Colo. 1979). However, it is not necessary to instruct the jury concerning this rule, as it is the prosecution’s prerogative to file a separate conspiracy count for each offense alleged to be an object of the conspiracy. See, e.g., People v. Montoya, 141 P.3d 916, 918 (Colo. App. 2006) (defendant charged with seven conspiracy counts).
4. Section 18-2-206(2), C.R.S. 2020, provides as follows: “A person may not be convicted of conspiracy to commit an offense if he is acquitted of the offense which is the object of the conspiracy where the sole evidence of conspiracy is the evidence establishing the commission of the offense which is the object of the conspiracy.” This section codifies the rule announced in Robles v. People, 417 P.2d 232, 234 (Colo. 1966). See People v. Frye, 898 P.2d 559, 567 n. 12 (Colo. 1995).

In Frye, the supreme court explained that the inconsistent verdict doctrine is in accord with this statute:

We believe that the rule announced in Robles, prohibiting verdicts where a defendant is convicted of conspiring to commit a substantive offense and acquitted of that substantive offense, where the same evidence relied on to establish the conspiracy is the evidence that was found insufficient to establish the substantive offense, should be strictly limited to the terms of section 18-2-206(2).

Id. at 570. Thus, when this doctrine is litigated at the appellate level, the result turns on the question of whether there is “independent evidence in the record [that] implicates the defendant in the conspiracy [for which he was convicted], separate and distinct from that supporting the substantive crime [for which he was acquitted].” People v. Scarce, 87 P.3d 228, 232 (Colo. App. 2003).

5. Colorado follows the “Wharton Rule” relating to conspiracies, under which “[a]n agreement by two persons to commit a particular crime cannot be prosecuted as a conspiracy when the crime is of such a nature as to necessarily require the participation of two persons for its commission.” People v. Bloom, 577 P.2d 288, 290–91 (Colo. 1978) (quoting 1 Anderson, Wharton’s Criminal Law and Procedure 89). In cases with factual scenarios implicating this rule, it may be necessary to have the jury make a factual finding regarding the number of participants to the illicit agreement. Although that can be accomplished by means of a special verdict form, a simpler method is to incorporate the determination into the elemental instruction by modifying the language concerning the number of participants. See, e.g., People v. Weathersby, 514 N.W.2d 493, 500 (Mich. Ct. App. 1994) (stating that Wharton’s rule, though inapplicable to the statute at issue, was nevertheless adequately embodied in an elemental instruction that required the jury to find that “defendant and two or more people” knowingly agreed to violate the gambling law (emphasis added)).

6. See Instruction H:38 (renunciation as an affirmative defense to conspiracy).

7. The Colorado Criminal Code does not define the term “overt act.” The above definition first appeared in the 2003 draft revisions of the model criminal jury instructions. It is substantially similar to an earlier version that appeared in COLJI-Crim. 8(1), (1983). The “Notes on Use” section for the 1983 instruction states that it was “taken from the Federal Jury Practice and Instructions.” See also People v. Schruder, 735 P.2d 905, 907 (Colo. App. 1986) (the absence of an instruction defining “overt act” was not plain error because “[t]he plain meaning of ‘overt act’ is not so abstruse as to be incomprehensible to the average juror”).

8. See People v. Davis, 2017 COA 40M, ¶¶ 15, 21, __ P.3d __ (“[C]ommitting a number of crimes, or engaging in a number of noncriminal overt acts, does not necessarily mean there is more than one conspiracy. . . . Though the prosecution alleged numerous overt acts in furtherance of the single conspiracy, that did not require unanimous agreement by the jurors as to the precise overt act [the] defendant committed.”).

9. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 8.

G2:06 CONSPIRACY (IDENTITY OF A CO-CONSPIRATOR UNKNOWN)

If the defendant knows that one with whom he [she] conspires to commit a crime has conspired with another person or persons to commit the same crime, he [she] is guilty with such other person or persons, whether or not he [she] knows their identity.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-2-201(3), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See People v. Serrano, 804 P.2d 253, 254 (Colo. App. 1990) (“In proving that a ‘wheel and hub’ conspiracy is a single conspiracy, rather than multiple conspiracies, there must be evidence of an agreement among all of the actors. However, there need not be evidence of a formal agreement; rather, it is sufficient to show that each conspirator knew or had reason to know of the existence and scope of the conspiracy and that each had reason to believe that his benefit depended upon the success of the entire venture. Further, it is not necessary to prove that each conspirator knew every other conspirator so long as an overall plan with a common object is shown.” (citations omitted)).

G2:07 CONSPIRACY (LACK OF POSITION OR CHARACTERISTIC NOT A DEFENSE)

It is no defense to a charge of conspiracy that the defendant or the person with whom he [she] conspires did not occupy a particular position or have a particular characteristic which is an element of the crime, if the defendant believes that one of them did.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-2-205, C.R.S. 2020.

G2:08 CONSPIRACY (CO-CONSPIRATOR'S IMMUNITY OR LACK OF RESPONSIBILITY NOT A DEFENSE)

It is no defense to a charge of conspiracy that the person with whom the defendant conspires [is not legally responsible] [has immunity to prosecution or conviction] for the commission of the crime.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-2-205, C.R.S. 2020.

G2:09 CRIMINAL SOLICITATION

The elements of the crime of criminal solicitation are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent to promote or facilitate the commission of [insert name of offense here, which must be a felony],
4. under circumstances that strongly corroborate that intent,
- [5. commanded, induced, entreated, or otherwise attempted to persuade another person,]
- [5. offered his [her] services or another's services to a third party,]
6. to commit [insert name of the offense here, which must be a felony].
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of criminal solicitation.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of criminal solicitation.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-2-301(1), (5), C.R.S. 2020.

2. Always give instructions defining the object crime, and all relevant terms. See also Webster's Third New International Dictionary 759 (2002) (defining "entreat" as meaning "beg" or "prevail upon by pleading").
3. The supreme court has explained that "[a]lthough encouragement of a criminal offense is prohibited under both [the solicitation and complicity] statutes, the solicitation statute concerns incomplete acts, and the complicity statute covers consummated criminal offenses." Alonzi v. People, 597 P.2d 560, 564 n.3 (Colo. 1979).
4. In Melina v. People, 161 P.3d 633, 641 (Colo. 2007), the court held that the defendant's numerous statements to several individuals regarding his desire to have the victim killed constituted a single transaction of solicitation. Therefore, the court rejected the defendant's claim of instructional error (which was premised on the fact that the elemental instruction used the singular term, "another person"), as well as his claim that the court had erred by not giving the jury a unanimity instruction. However, users should note that the holding of Melina will not apply in a case where more than one act of solicitation is charged. In such circumstances, use separate elemental instructions that identify each alleged act in some distinguishing manner (e.g., date, name of person solicited, etc.).
5. See Instruction H:39 (affirmative defense to criminal solicitation – sole victim, inevitably incident, or otherwise not liable); Instruction H:40 (affirmative defense to criminal solicitation – prevention and renunciation).
6. See People v. Jacobs, 91 P.3d 438, 441-42 (Colo. App. 2003) (because the general offense of solicitation does not apply to the separate substantive offense of soliciting for child prostitution, the affirmative defenses of prevention and renunciation under the general solicitation statute are also inapplicable).

G2:10 CRIMINAL SOLICITATION (NON-GUILT OF PERSON SOLICITED NOT A DEFENSE)

It is no defense to the charge of criminal solicitation that the person solicited could not be guilty of the offense because of lack of culpability or legal responsibility, or other incapacity.

COMMENT

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. As reflected in the table of contents above, the chapter is divided into two sections. Within each section, the instructions are arranged sequentially according to the numbering of the underlying statutes.
2. The instructions for the affirmative defense of insanity are located in Chapter I.
3. In previous editions of COLJI-Crim., this chapter was captioned “Affirmative Defenses.” The Committee has retitled the chapter “Defenses” because it also contains instructions for element-negating traverses.

The supreme court has explained the distinction between these two types of defenses as follows:

There are, generally speaking, two types of defenses to criminal charges: (1) “affirmative” defenses that admit the defendant’s commission of the elements of the charged act, but seek to justify, excuse, or mitigate the commission of the act; and (2) “traverses” that effectively refute the possibility that the defendant committed the charged act by negating an element of the act. See People v. Huckleberry, 768 P.2d 1235, 1238 (Colo. 1989) (citations omitted) [(defense of alibi is not an affirmative defense requiring an instruction stating that the People bear the burden of refuting an alibi beyond a reasonable doubt)]; see also People v. Miller, 113 P.3d 743, 750 (Colo. 2005) (further explaining the distinction between affirmative defenses and traverses). In Colorado, if presented evidence raises the issue of an affirmative defense, the affirmative defense effectively becomes an additional element, and the trial court must instruct the jury that the prosecution bears the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt that the affirmative defense is inapplicable. See § 18-1-407, C.R.S. (2010); Huckleberry, 768 P.2d at 1238 (citations omitted). If, on the other hand, the presented evidence raises the issue of an elemental traverse, the jury may consider the evidence in determining whether the prosecution has proven the element implicated by the traverse beyond a reasonable doubt, but the defendant is not entitled to an affirmative defense instruction. See Huckleberry, 768 P.2d at 1238.

4. A defendant is entitled to an instruction concerning an affirmative defense if the trial court determines, as a matter of law, that there is some credible evidence in the record to support it. See O’Shaughnessy v. People, 2012 CO 9, ¶ 11, 269 P.3d 1233, 1236; People v. Speer, 255 P.3d 1115, 1119 (Colo. 2011).

5. The Committee has designed model affirmative defense instructions that are to be referenced by inclusion of the following language in an elemental instruction: “and that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.”

However, when the jury is instructed concerning the affirmative defense of insanity, the following language should be included as the final element of the offense (and it should be numbered as a separate element, as shown in the example below, whether insanity is the only affirmative defense or an alternative to one of the other affirmative defenses which are to be referenced using the “was not legally authorized” language that appears within the final bracketed element of each model elemental instruction):

6. Although the Committee has drafted an affirmative defense instruction for each generally applicable defense that is identified as an “affirmative defense” by statute, in a few instances the Committee has, consistent with past practice, included comments that question the correctness of the characterization. See, e.g., Instruction H:02, Comment 2 (mistaken belief of law).

7. In COLJI-Crim. (2008), the third “Note on Chapter Use” stated that “[t]here may be other, non-statutory affirmative defenses.” However, in

Oram v. People, 255 P.3d 1032 (Colo. 2011), the supreme court explicitly rejected this proposition and held that “all affirmative defenses to crimes must be defined by the General Assembly in the Colorado Revised Statutes.” Id. at 1036 (the common-law bonding agent’s privilege does not exist in Colorado as an affirmative defense to burglary).

8. This chapter does not include an instruction defining an affirmative defense based on the concept of an “intervening cause.” There is no statute establishing such an affirmative defense, and when the supreme court has likened the concept of an “intervening cause” to an affirmative defense it has done so only for a narrow purpose:

The quantum of evidence that must be offered by the defendant in order to be entitled to an instruction on a theory of defense is “a scintilla of evidence”. See People v. Lundy, 188 Colo. 194, 197, 533 P.2d 920, 921 (1975). “Some credible evidence”, an alternative statement of the “scintilla of evidence” standard, is necessary to present an affirmative defense. See People v. Dover, 790 P.2d 834, 836 (Colo. 1990). It merely requires some evidence to support the defense. See People v. Dillon, 655 P.2d 841, 845 (Colo. 1982). We hold that the intervening cause defense is treated like an affirmative defense or a theory of defense for the purpose of determining the quantum of evidence necessary to submit the issue to the jury. Therefore, a defendant must present a scintilla of evidence, or some evidence, [of an intervening cause] in order to be entitled to submit the issue to the jury. The court, not the jury, must make threshold determinations of whether an affirmative defense can be supported by the evidence.

Significantly, although the court has, in dicta, referred to an “intervening cause” as an “affirmative defense,” see People v. Stewart, 55 P.3d 107, 119 (Colo. 2002) (“[w]hile it is possible that Stewart . . . wished to deemphasize intervening cause as an affirmative defense to first and second degree assault”); People v. Fite, 627 P.2d 761, 765 n.6 (Colo. 1981) (acknowledging that “[t]he issue of supervening cause was submitted to the jury as an affirmative defense,” but holding, as a matter of law, that there was no evidence of an intervening cause), it has never found error based on the absence of an instruction defining the concept of an intervening cause as an affirmative defense. Nor has it ever directed a trial court to instruct a jury in such a manner, even when it has concluded that an instruction was warranted. See People v. Bowman, 669 P.2d 1369, 1379 (Colo. 1983) (“We direct that, if the evidence presented on retrial warrants it, the jury should be fully instructed about the law concerning supervening causes as set forth in People v. Calvaresi, [534 P.2d 316 (Colo. 1975)].”). Moreover, no earlier edition of COLJI-Crim. has included an instruction defining an “intervening cause” as an affirmative defense.

Accordingly, the Committee has concluded that, when a defendant makes the threshold showing necessary to obtain an intervening cause instruction, see People v. Stewart, 55 P.3d 107, 119; People v. Saavedra-Rodriguez, 971 P.2d at 228, the element-negating traverse should be explained in a separate instruction, or by adding language to an instruction that defines the term “cause.” The latter approach is consistent with CJI-Civ. 9:20 (2014) (defining “cause” with optional language discussing the concept of an intervening cause), and there is support for it in People v. Deadmond, 683 P.2d 763, 768 (Colo. 1984) (trial court did not err by rejecting the defendant’s proffered instruction defining “intervening cause” because the concept was explained in the instruction defining “proximate cause,” which “fully apprised the jury of the nature of the causal connection between conduct and result which the prosecution was required to establish beyond a reasonable doubt”). See also People v. Gentry, 738 P.2d 1188, 1189-90 (Colo. 1987) (both the defendant’s theory of defense instruction, which the supreme court disapproved because it did not state that only negligence rising to the level of “gross negligence” can constitute an “intervening cause,” and the prosecution’s tendered instruction, which the trial court rejected, described an “intervening cause” merely as a “defense,” and not as an affirmative defense); People v. Grassi, 192 P.3d 496, 499 (Colo. App. 2008) (instruction defining “proximate cause” was “an amalgam of both the civil and criminal jury instructions on proximate cause [that] was done to accommodate defendant’s defense that his conduct was not the proximate cause of the accident or the victim’s resulting death, but that the victim’s actions had been the intervening cause of both”); People v. Marquez, 107 P.3d 993, 997 (Colo. App. 2004) (“The instructions given by the court required the jurors to find that the prosecution had proved the causation element of vehicular homicide beyond a reasonable doubt, and they gave the jurors a correct definition of ‘proximate cause.’ The additional references to intervening cause and related concepts were superfluous. However, any error inured to defendant’s benefit, in that it suggested the existence of a defense to the causation element that was unwarranted in light of the evidence presented.”).

9. Citations to definitional instructions located in Chapter F are included in the comments that follow the defense instructions. However, citations to definitional instructions are not included for those terms that also appear in the corresponding elemental instructions (because citations to those definitional instructions are included as part of the comments for the elemental instructions). For example, the second comment for Instruction H:69 (affirmative defense of “recreational marijuana”) includes numerous citations to definitional instructions in Chapter F, but it does not include a citation to Instruction F:208 (defining “marijuana”), because a citation to that definitional instruction is included in a comment for each elemental instruction that defines a marijuana offense.

10. In COLJI-Crim. (2008), the first instruction in Chapter H, Instruction H:01, was captioned as: “Affirmative Defenses – Generally.” The instruction contained just two paragraphs which stated the prosecution’s burden of proof with respect to affirmative defenses, and a comment advised users that “[t]his language should now be included in the concluding paragraphs of affirmative defense instructions and not set forth in a separate instruction.”

In this edition of COLJI-Crim., the Committee has substantially revised the burden-of-proof language and, as in COLJI-Crim. 2008, included the burden-of-proof language in each of the model affirmative defense instructions in Chapter H. Because the Committee did not see a need to have a freestanding instruction that merely states the prosecution’s burden of proof (or, more accurately, its burden of disproof), Instruction H:01 now defines the first affirmative defense in the chapter (i.e., mistaken belief of fact).

When drafting an instruction to define a statutory affirmative defense for which there is no model instruction, use as a template one of the model instructions that includes the burden-of-proof language.

CHAPTER H: SECTION I (DEFENSES THAT ARE GENERALLY APPLICABLE)

H:01 EFFECT OF IGNORANCE OR MISTAKE UPON CULPABILITY (MISTAKEN BELIEF OF FACT)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “mistaken belief of fact,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. the defendant engaged in the prohibited conduct under a mistaken belief, and
2. due to this mistaken belief he [she] did not form the particular mental state required in order to commit the offense.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-504(1)(a), (3), C.R.S. 2020.
2. A division of the Court of Appeals has held that a mistake of fact instruction need not be given if proof of the mens rea necessarily requires proof that the defendant was not operating under the asserted mistaken belief of fact. See People v. Walden, 224 P.3d 369, 378-79 (Colo. App. 2009) (defendant's proposed mistake of fact instruction, relating to his alleged belief that he had permission to enter and stay at victim's apartment, duplicated elements of instruction defining first-degree criminal trespass; the effect of defendant's instruction, if the jury were to believe his contention, would merely have been to negate requisite "knowing" element of trespass; therefore, the trial court did not err by refusing defendant's proposed instruction); see also People v. Andrews, 632 P.2d 1012, 1016 (Colo. 1981) ("the culpability element of 'knowingly' belies the notion that the [aggravated motor vehicle theft] statute somehow authorizes a conviction based on a mistaken belief in one's authorization to obtain or exercise control over another's vehicle").

H:02 EFFECT OF IGNORANCE OR MISTAKE UPON CULPABILITY (MISTAKEN BELIEF OF LAW)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “mistaken belief of law,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. the defendant engaged in the prohibited conduct under a mistaken belief that his [her] conduct did not, as a matter of law, constitute an offense, and
2. the conduct was permitted by: [a statute or ordinance binding in this state] [an administrative regulation, order, or grant of permission by a body or official authorized and empowered to make such order or grant the permission under the laws of the state of Colorado] [an official written interpretation of the statute or law relating to the offense, made or issued by a public servant, agency, or body legally charged or empowered with the responsibility of administering, enforcing, or interpreting a statute, ordinance, regulation, order, or law [, which, if by judicial decision, was binding in the state of Colorado]].

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-504(2), C.R.S. 2020.

2. The Committee included this instruction because the General Assembly has labeled this type of “mistake” as an “an affirmative defense.” § 18-1-504(3), C.R.S. 2020. However, no published decision has analyzed a jury instruction embodying this affirmative defense, and it is difficult to conceive of a scenario that would implicate this defense without giving rise to grounds for a judgment of acquittal under Crim. P. 29(a). Moreover, “it is a well-known maxim that ‘ignorance of the law constitutes no excuse for its violation,’” Kent v. People, 9 P. 852, 854 (Colo. 1886), and a “mistake of law” defense cannot be based on a misunderstanding of the law. See People v. Lesslie, 24 P.3d 22 (Colo. App. 2000) (deputy sheriff convicted of conspiracy to commit criminal eavesdropping for installing an electronic listening device in the restroom of a bar was not entitled to mistake of law instruction where (1) the sheriff, whom the deputy alleged had ordered him to place the electronic listening device, was not an official authorized or empowered to permit the interception and recording of communications by such a device; and (2) the appellate decision on which the deputy allegedly relied was inapposite, as it involved police interception of conversations without the aid of an electronic listening device).

H:03 CONSENT OF VICTIM

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “consent,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. the alleged victim consented to the conduct charged to constitute the offense, [or to the result thereof,] and
2. [the consent negates an element of the offense.]

[the consent precluded the infliction of [insert a short statement identifying the harm or evil sought to be prevented by the law defining the offense].]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-505(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Section 18-1-505(4), C.R.S. 2020, states that “[a]ny defense authorized by this section is an affirmative defense,” and section 18-1-505(1), C.R.S. 2020, states that consent is a defense if it “negates an element of the offense.”

The Committee notes that divisions of the Court of Appeals have held that an affirmative defense instruction is not required in cases where proof of the elements of the offense necessarily requires the prosecution to prove the absence of consent. See People v. Bush, 948 P.2d 16, 18 (Colo. App. 1997) (the trial court did not err in rejecting defendant’s instructions defining consent as an affirmative defense to the charges of theft and unauthorized use of a financial transaction device because “a trial court is not required to give the jury an instruction defining an affirmative defense if proof of the elements of the charged offense necessarily requires disproof of the issue raised by the affirmative defense”); People v. Cruz, 923 P.2d 311, 312 (Colo. App. 1996) (“§ 18-1-505(1) does not impose a requirement that the jury be instructed on an affirmative defense of consent in a case under . . . [a] statute which itself requires, in effect, that the prosecution prove a lack of consent”). Nevertheless, because the General Assembly has specified that consent which negates an element of an offense is an “affirmative defense,” the Committee has included bracketed language reflecting that legislative directive.

However, in 2002 the General Assembly enacted a provision directing that, in cases where the defendant is charged with a sexual offense or an invasion of privacy (or an attempt or a conspiracy with one of these enumerated offenses as the object): “[n]otwithstanding the provisions of section 18-1-505(4), an instruction on the definition of consent given pursuant to [the special definition of consent set forth in section 18-3-401(1.5)] shall not constitute an affirmative defense, but shall only act as a defense to the elements of the offense.” § 18-3-408.5(1), C.R.S. 2020 (emphasis added); see also § 18-3-408.5(2), C.R.S. 2020 (listing the offenses to which this provision applies); Instruction F:68 (defining “consent” pursuant to section 18-3-401(1.5)).

H:04 CONSENT OF VICTIM (OFFENSES INVOLVING BODILY INJURY, OR THREATENED BODILY INJURY)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “consent,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. the alleged victim consented to the conduct that caused or threatened bodily injury, or to the infliction of that injury, and
2. [the bodily injury consented to, or threatened by the conduct consented to, was not serious.]

[the conduct and the injury were reasonably foreseeable hazards of joint participation in a lawful athletic contest or competitive sport.]

In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. 1. See § 18-1-505(2), (4), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:36 (defining “bodily injury”); Instruction F:332 (defining “serious bodily injury”).
3. The final clause of section 18-1-505(2) states that consent to bodily injury is a defense where “the consent establishes a justification under sections 18-1-701 to 18-1-707.” See, e.g., § 18-1-703(1)(e)(I), C.R.S. 2020 (establishing an affirmative defense where a patient consents to reasonable and appropriate physical force that is administered for a recognized physical or mental health treatment).
4. If there is evidence of consent based on “joint participation in a lawful athletic contest or competitive sport,” draft a supplemental instruction in accordance with the statutes or regulations that govern the relevant activity. See, e.g., § 12-10-106(1), C.R.S. 2020 (authorizing the Colorado state boxing commission to promulgate necessary rules and regulations).
5. See Instruction H:03, Comment 2 (explaining that, pursuant to section 18-3-408.5(1), consent is not an affirmative defense to certain sexual offenses).

H:05.SP SPECIAL INSTRUCTION: WHEN ASSENT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE CONSENT

Assent does not constitute consent if:

[it is given by a person who is legally incompetent to authorize the conduct charged to constitute the offense.]

[it is given by a person who, by reason of immaturity, behavioral or mental health disorder, or intoxication, is manifestly unable and is known or reasonably should be known by the defendant to be unable to make a reasonable judgment as to the nature or harmfulness of conduct charged to constitute the offense.]

[it is given by a person whose conduct is sought to be prevented by the law defining the offense.]

[it is induced by force, duress, or deception].

H:06 DEFENDANT AS VICTIM OR INCIDENTAL ACTOR

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “defendant as [victim] [incidental actor]” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. [he [she] was a victim of the offense] [his [her] conduct was inevitably incidental to the commission of the offense], and
2. the offense was committed by another person.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-604(1), C.R.S. 2020 (stating that these provisions apply “[u]nless otherwise provided by the statute defining the offense”).

2. Although the Committee has drafted a model instruction based on section 18-1-604(1), it is debatable whether this section establishes: (1) a defense that is subject to determination by the jury; or (2) a principle of statutory construction that the court is to determine as a matter of law. Compare People v. Grace, 55 P.3d 165, 171 (Colo. App. 2001) (concluding, as part of a determination that the evidence was sufficient to support the defendant's conviction for distribution and attempted possession of cocaine, that his actions as a middleman to a drug transaction were not inevitably incidental to the commission of that offense), with People v. Hart, 787 P.2d 186, 189 (Colo. App. 1989) (reversing defendant's conviction for distribution of a controlled substance which entered under a theory of complicity; "as framed by the definition of the crime of distribution, the conduct of one who takes delivery of the controlled substance is 'inevitably incidental' to the criminal conduct of one who delivers the controlled substance"; therefore, "a person who takes delivery of a controlled substance by purchase is exempt from liability as a complicitor for the crime of distribution committed by a person delivering the controlled substance to him").

3. Because section 18-1-604(1) speaks in terms of criminal liability "for behavior of another," it appears this provision applies only where the defendant is charged as a complicitor, or pursuant to one of the provisions of section 18-1-602, C.R.S. 2020 ("behavior of another").

H:07 COMPLICITY – TIMELY WARNING

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “timely warning,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. prior to the commission of the offense, he [she] terminated his [her] effort, as a complicitor, to promote or facilitate its commission, and
2. he [she] gave timely warning to law enforcement authorities or the intended victim.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

H:08 EXECUTION OF PUBLIC DUTY

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “execution of public duty,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] was [insert disputed predicate fact(s) that will determine whether the defendant was acting pursuant to a provision of law or judicial decree].] [, and]
- [2. insert disputed predicate fact(s) that will determine whether the provision of law or judicial decree was binding in Colorado.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, [at least one of] the above numbered condition[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. ### COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-701, C.R.S. 2020.

2. Both COLJI-Crim. 7:07 (1983) and COLJI-Crim. H:08 (2008) indicated that “execution of public duty” was an “affirmative defense,” though neither instruction specified how the jury was to determine the issue.

Because the applicability of section 18-1-701 will, in every case, turn on an interpretation of a judicial decree or provision of law as defined by section 18-1-701(2), the Committee has concluded that the inquiry is, at least in part, a question of law. See People v. Lesslie, 24 P.3d 22, 25 (Colo. App. 2000) (concluding, as a matter of law, that deputy sheriff convicted of conspiracy to commit eavesdropping for placing an electronic listening device in a restroom was not entitled to raise the defense of execution of a public duty because the sheriff who allegedly directed the action did not have the authority to do so without a court order); People v. Roberts, 601 P.2d 654, 656 (Colo. App. 1979) (trial court did not err in refusing an instruction on execution of a public duty; “[t]he propriety of this refusal depends upon the legal question of whether defendant, as a penitentiary guard, had a public duty to apprehend an escaped convict by using undercover techniques”).

Significantly, the statute does not contain any requirement that the defendant actually have had knowledge of the statutory provision or judicial decree (unlike the affirmative defense of mistake of law, which is discussed in Comment 2 to Instruction H:02). Therefore, the only possibility for a factual dispute is with respect to the predicate facts that establish whether a defendant’s conduct was within the scope of a binding provision of law or judicial decree that makes the conduct non-criminal.

For example, in a case where a defendant asserts the defense based on a judicial decree from another state there could be factual disputes concerning (1) whether the defendant was acting pursuant to the judicial decree; and (2) if so, whether the out-of-state judgment was binding in Colorado.

3. Section 18-1-701(1) states that the exemption from criminal liability applies: “[u]nless inconsistent with other provisions of sections 18-1-702 to 18-1-710, defining justifiable use of physical force.”

4. See People v. Neckel, 2019 COA 69, ¶ 21-23, __ P.3d __ (holding that a “No Trespassing” sign alone did not revoke the public’s implicit license to approach the defendant’s property, meaning that a process server who so approached was effecting legal process and was thus protected from trespass laws under section 18-1-701).

5. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 4.

H:09 CHOICE OF EVILS

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “choice of evils,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. it was necessary as an emergency measure to avoid an imminent public or private injury, which was about to occur because of a situation occasioned or developed through no conduct of the defendant, and
2. the injury was of sufficient gravity that, according to ordinary standards of intelligence and morality, the desirability and urgency of avoiding the injury clearly outweighed the desirability of avoiding the injury sought to be prevented by the statute defining [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-702, C.R.S. 2020 (stating that this affirmative defense is available unless inconsistent with other provisions of sections 18-1-703 to 707, defining the justifiable use of physical force, or with some other provision of law).
2. “When evidence relating to the defense of justification under this section is offered by the defendant, before it is submitted for the consideration of the jury, the court shall first rule as a matter of law whether the claimed facts and circumstances would, if established, constitute a justification.” § 18-1-702(2), C.R.S. 2020.
3. The statute defining the defense of duress, section 18-1-708, C.R.S. 2020, states: “The choice of evils defense, provided in section 18-1-702, shall not be available to a defendant in addition to the defense of duress provided under this section unless separate facts exist which warrant its application.”
4. In People v. Brandyberry, 812 P.2d 674 (Colo. App. 1990), a division of the Court of Appeals relied on dictionary definitions of three terms that appear in the statutory definition of the choice of evils defense: “emergency,” “imminent,” and “urgency.” However, the division cited these definitions for the limited purpose of disapproving a trial court’s decision to instruct the jury concerning the choice of evils defense (specifically, the division held that a kidnapping victim’s mere affiliation with the Unification Church was insufficient to warrant an instruction in a case where the defendant asserted a need to “deprogram” the victim). Accordingly, because the Committee has concluded that all three terms are commonly understood, the dictionary definitions referenced in Brandyberry are not included in Chapter F.
5. A defendant is not entitled to a choice of evils instruction based on mere speculation. See People v. Brante, 232 P.3d 204, 210 (Colo. App. 2009) (defendant’s speculative fears did not rise to the level of an impending injury demanding immediate action).

6. A division of the Court of Appeals has questioned whether the choice of evils defense applies to nonintentional conduct, and has suggested that an instruction may not be necessary where the concept is sufficiently embodied in a self-defense instruction. See People v. Roberts, 983 P.2d 11, 15 (Colo. App. 1998).

7. The choice of evils defense is not available as a justification for behavior that attempts to bring about social and political change outside the democratic governmental process. See Andrews v. People, 800 P.2d 607, 609 (Colo. 1990) (choice of evils defense unavailable to protesters charged with public order offenses committed during a protest at nuclear weapons plant).

8. See also People v. Dover, 790 P.2d 834, 834-35 (Colo. 1990) (attorney charged with driving eighty miles per hour in a fifty-five mile per hour zone who claimed he was late for a court hearing was not entitled to assert an emergency defense under a provision of the traffic code, now codified as section 42-4-1101(9), C.R.S. 2020, that is a corollary to the choice of evils defense); People v. McKnight, 626 P.2d 678, 681 (Colo. 1981) (defendant charged with escape from prison not entitled to assert choice of evils defense based on normal conditions of confinement).

H:10 USE OF PHYSICAL FORCE (SPECIAL RELATIONSHIPS)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “physical force pursuant to a special relationship,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant was legally authorized to use physical force upon another person if:

1. he [she] was [a parent, guardian, or other person entrusted with the care and supervision of a minor or an incompetent person] [a teacher or other person entrusted with the care and supervision of a minor], and
  2. he [she] used reasonable and appropriate physical force upon the [minor] [incompetent person], when and to the extent it was reasonably necessary and appropriate, to maintain discipline or promote the welfare of the minor [incompetent person].]
1. he [she] was a superintendent [or other authorized official] of a [jail] [prison] [correctional institution], and
  2. he [she] used + objectively reasonable and appropriate physical force, when and to the extent that he [she] reasonably believed it was necessary to maintain order and discipline. [, and]
  3. + he [she] used deadly physical force when he [she] objectively reasonably believed that the inmate posed an immediate threat to himself [herself] or another person.]]
1. he [she] was a person responsible for the maintenance of order in a common carrier of passengers, [or was acting under the direction of a person with that responsibility,] and
  2. he [she] used reasonable and appropriate physical force, when and to the extent that it was necessary, to maintain order and discipline. [, and]
  3. the use of deadly physical force was reasonably necessary to prevent death or serious bodily injury.]]

1. he [she] was a person acting under a reasonable belief that another person was about to [commit suicide] [inflict serious bodily injury upon himself [herself]], and
  2. he [she] used reasonable and appropriate physical force upon that person to the extent that it was reasonably necessary to thwart the result.]]
1. he [she] was a duly licensed [physician] [advanced practice nurse] [person acting under the direction of a duly licensed [physician] [advanced practice nurse]], and
  2. he [she] used reasonable and appropriate physical force for the purpose of administering a recognized form of treatment that he [she] reasonably believed to be adapted to promoting the physical or mental health of the patient, and
  3. [the treatment was administered with the consent of the patient.] [the patient was a minor or an incompetent person, and the treatment was administered with the consent of his [her] parent, guardian, or other person entrusted with his [her] care and supervision.] [the treatment was administered in an emergency when the physician or advanced practice nurse reasonably believed that no one competent to consent could be consulted and that a reasonable person, wishing to safeguard the welfare of the patient, would consent.]]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

3. Previously, the statute defining child abuse included “without justifiable excuse” as an element. ## H:11 USE OF NON-DEADLY PHYSICAL FORCE (DEFENSE OF PERSON)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “defense of person,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant was legally authorized to use physical force upon another person without first retreating if:

1. he [she] used that physical force in order to defend himself [herself] or a third person from what he [she] reasonably believed to be the use or imminent use of unlawful physical force by that other person, and
2. he [she] used a degree of force which he [she] reasonably believed to be necessary for that purpose. [, and]
- [3. he [she] did not, with intent to cause bodily injury or death to another person, provoke the use of unlawful physical force by that other person.]
- [4. he [she] was not the initial aggressor, or, if he [she] was the initial aggressor, he [she] had withdrawn from the encounter and effectively communicated to the other person his [her] intent to do so, and the other person nevertheless continued or threatened the use of unlawful physical force.]
- [5. the physical force involved was not the product of an unauthorized combat by agreement.]
- + [6. the use of physical force against another was not based on the discovery of, knowledge about, or potential disclosure of the victim’s actual or perceived gender, gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation, including but not limited to under circumstances in which the victim made an unwanted nonforcible romantic or sexual advance toward the defendant.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-704(1)–(3), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:36 (defining “bodily injury”); + Instruction F:161.3 (defining “gender identity” and “gender expression”); Instruction F:342 (defining “sexual orientation”).
3. See People v. Garcia, 28 P.3d 340, 347 (Colo. 2001) (“the no-duty to retreat rule does not apply when a non-aggressor pursues an initial aggressor who has withdrawn because in that situation, the non-aggressor in fact becomes the aggressor”; however, the trial court erred in refusing to give a no-duty to retreat instruction in this case because the victim had not withdrawn, the defendant was not out of danger at the time that she killed him, and the jury could have mistakenly concluded that the defendant had a duty to retreat before using deadly force); Idrogo v. People, 818 P.2d 752, 757 (Colo. 1991) (because the question of whether the defendant did in fact retreat was vigorously disputed, the defendant was entitled to have the jury properly instructed on applicable law of nonretreat; trial court erred by not instructing the jury that an innocent victim of assault need not retreat before using deadly force if the victim believes the use of such force is necessary for self-protection and the belief is based on reasonable grounds); + see also People v. Monroe, 2020 CO 67, ¶¶ 5, 30, 468 P.3d 1273, 1274, 1278 (“[T]he prosecution may not argue that a defendant acted unreasonably in self-defense because she failed to retreat from an encounter. . . . To allow the prosecution to argue that a defendant’s failure to retreat undermines the reasonableness of that defendant’s self-defense claim would cripple the no-duty-to-retreat rule. . . . The line between argument that imposes a duty to retreat (a threatened person should retreat instead of using force) and argument that undermines the reasonableness of a defendant’s use of force (a threatened person would retreat instead of using force) is too thin to allow the latter.”).

4. If the jury is given an instruction that utilizes the language of section 18-1-704, it is unnecessary to give a separate instruction concerning the concept of “apparent necessity.” See Beckett v. People, 800 P.2d 74, 78 (Colo. 1990) (a separate “apparent necessity” instruction is not necessary where jury instructions adequately informed the jury that it was required to consider the defendant’s reasonable belief in the necessity of defensive action).

5. The above instruction does not include multiple assailant language from People v. Jones, 675 P.2d 9, 14 (Colo. 1984). More recently, the supreme court has explained “that Jones does not require a trial court to give a specific multiple assailants instruction in every case involving both multiple assailants and self-defense.” Riley v. People, 266 P.3d 1089, 1094 (Colo. 2011).

Instead, Jones stands for the principle that a jury must consider the totality of the circumstances, including the number of persons reasonably appearing to be threatening the defendant, (1) when evaluating the reasonableness of the defendant’s belief that he needed to use self-defense in the given situation, and (2) when evaluating the reasonableness of the actual force used by the defendant to repel the apparent danger. See Jones, 675 P.2d at 14. The purpose of this rule is to ensure that the jury understands that it may consider all relevant evidence when assessing the reasonableness of the defendant's actions. Thus, so long as the given instructions properly direct the jury to consider the totality of the circumstances during its deliberations on reasonableness, those instructions will satisfy Jones.

Riley, 266 P.3d at 1094 (the instructions given, when read together, accurately described the law of self-defense in the multiple assailants situation, in that they described the law of self-defense and broadly provided that the jury should consider the totality of the circumstances when evaluating the reasonableness of the defendant's actions); cf. id. at 1097 (Coats, J., concurring in the judgment) (arguing that the defendant's tendered instruction was improper because it simply "amplif[ied] the statutory definition of self-defense itself" rather than "explain[ing] the defendant's theory of the case by relating the circumstances as he perceived them to be to the law of self-defense").

6. Participation in an unauthorized "combat by agreement" is a disqualifying condition that, like initial aggression and provocation, establishes an exception to the affirmative defense of self-defense. Although section 18-1-704(3)(c) requires proof that the agreement was "not specifically authorized by law," this language does not establish a separate defense. See also Instruction H:04 (defining the affirmative defense of consent, under section 18-1-505(2), where "the conduct and the injury were reasonably foreseeable hazards of joint participation in a lawful athletic contest or competitive sport").

"Colorado case law makes clear that there must be a definite agreement before a court can instruct a jury on the mutual combat limitation on self-defense." Kaufman v. People, 202 P.3d 542, 561-62 (Colo. 2009) ("Nowhere in the [self-defense] statute does the General Assembly define 'combat by agreement.' Rather, the elements of this self-defense exception have been developed through case law."). Accordingly, in a case where there is an evidentiary basis for including language defining the combat by agreement exception, draft a supplemental instruction specifying the relevant principles of law that the jury should apply to decide whether the combat by agreement was "unauthorized." See, e.g., §

12-10-103(15), C.R.S. 2020 (defining “toughperson fighting” as including nearly all types of combat by agreement, other than sanctioned boxing and martial arts training that is conducted in specified circumstances); § 12-10-107.5, C.R.S. 2020 (“toughperson fighting” is a class one misdemeanor); § 18-9-106(1)(d), C.R.S. 2020 (making it a class three misdemeanor to engage in public fighting, other than in an amateur or professional contest of athletic skill); § 18-13-104, C.R.S. 2020 (dueling statute, prohibiting (1) agreements to fight in a public place, except in sporting events authorized by law; and (2) agreements to engage in a fight with deadly weapons, whether in a public or private place).

7. When submitting an offense that is defined with the alternative mens reas of “knowingly” and “recklessly,” see, e.g., § 18-3-204(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020 (third degree assault), use separate instructions to define self-defense (1) as an affirmative defense to an elemental instruction that defines the offense with only the mens rea of “knowingly”; and (2) pursuant to section 18-1-704(4), with respect to a separate elemental instruction that defines the offense with only the mens rea of “recklessly.” See Instruction H:13 (affirmative defense of “use of non-deadly physical force (defense of person – offense with a mens rea of recklessness, extreme indifference, or criminal negligence)).

8. In a case where more than one exception is submitted (e.g., initial aggression and provocation), include a conjunction.

9. In determining what exception(s) to instruct the jury on, the Committee notes that, to warrant an instruction, the exception must be supported by the evidence. See Castillo v. People, 2018 CO 62, ¶ 4, 421 P.3d 1141, 1142 (concluding that the trial court reversibly erred in instructing the jury on the initial aggressor exception because it was unsupported by the evidence); + see also People v. Galvan, 2020 CO 82, ¶¶ 1-2, 4, 476 P.3d 746, 750 (holding that a trial court should instruct the jury on an exception to self-defense “if there is some evidence to support the exception”; further holding that, where the trial court’s instruction on provocation tracked the model instruction, it made clear that for the defendant to forfeit his defense of self-defense, “he had to have provoked the same person as to whom he was asserting self-defense”; declining to consider whether the First Amendment bars a provocation instruction in a case of “mere words”).

10. See People v. Tardif, 2017 COA 136, ¶¶ 38, 433 P.3d 60, 68 (holding that, because “none of the elements of conspiracy require the use of physical force,” self-defense is not an affirmative defense to conspiracy).

11. See People v. Koper, 2018 COA 137, ¶ 18, ___ P.3d ___ (holding that, where the evidence showed that the defendant acted in self-defense against a third party, he was entitled to a “transferred intent” self-defense instruction as to the victim because the victim “was a bystander incidentally affected by [the] defendant’s asserted attempt to defend himself against what he perceived as a threat posed by” the third party).

12. See People v. Coahran, 2019 COA 6, ¶ 27, 436 P.3d 617, 623 (holding that the defendant was entitled to a self-defense instruction “[b]ecause the charged criminal mischief arose out of her use of force upon the [victim] (albeit indirectly)”).

H:12 USE OF DEADLY PHYSICAL FORCE (DEFENSE OF PERSON)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “deadly physical force in defense of person,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant was legally authorized to use deadly physical force upon another person without first retreating if:

1. he [she] used that deadly physical force in order to defend himself [herself] [or a third person] from what he [she] reasonably believed to be the use or imminent use of unlawful physical force by that other person, and
2. he [she] reasonably believed a lesser degree of force was inadequate, and
3. [he [she] had a reasonable ground to believe, and did believe, that he [she] or another person was in imminent danger of being killed or of receiving great bodily injury.]

[the other person was using or reasonably appeared about to use physical force against an occupant of a dwelling or business establishment while committing or attempting to commit burglary.]

[the other person was committing or reasonably appeared about to commit kidnapping, robbery, sexual assault, or assault in the first or second degree.]

[, and]

4. he [she] did not, with intent to cause bodily injury or death to another person, provoke the use of unlawful physical force by that other person.]
5. he [she] was not the initial aggressor, or, if he [she] was the initial aggressor, he [she] had withdrawn from the encounter and effectively communicated to the other person his [her] intent to do so, and the other person nevertheless continued or threatened the use of unlawful physical force.]

- [6. the physical force involved was not the product of an unauthorized combat by agreement.]
- + [7. the use of physical force against another was not based on the discovery of, knowledge about, or potential disclosure of the victim's actual or perceived gender, gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation, including but not limited to under circumstances in which the victim made an unwanted nonforcible romantic or sexual advance toward the defendant.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-704(1)-(3), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:36 (defining “bodily injury”); Instruction F:87 (defining “deadly physical force”); Instruction F:114 (defining “dwelling”); + Instruction F:161.3 (defining “gender identity” and “gender expression”); Instruction F:342 (defining “sexual orientation”); see also People v. Ferguson, 43 P.3d 705, 707 (Colo. App. 2001) (in light of the way that “deadly physical force” is defined by statute, it is error to instruct the jury concerning the concept in a case in which the victim did not die); People v. Silva, 987 P.2d 909, 917 (Colo. App. 1999) (same).

3. Although the term “great bodily injury” appears in section 18-1-704(2)(a), it is not defined by statute. In People v. Reed, 695 P.2d 806, 808 (Colo. App. 1984), a division of the Court of Appeals held that the term “great bodily injury,” as used in section 18-1-704(2)(a), is synonymous with the term “serious bodily injury,” as defined in section 18-1-901(3)(p). See Instruction F:332 (defining “serious bodily injury”).

4. In a case where the victim dies and there is a factual dispute concerning whether the defendant used ordinary physical force or deadly physical force (which includes an intent to cause death as a necessary ingredient), the jury should also be allowed to consider the applicability of self-defense principles relating to the use of ordinary physical force. See People v. Vasquez, 148 P.3d 326, 328 (Colo. App. 2006) (trial court erroneously limited the jury’s consideration of self-defense principles to only those involving the use of deadly physical force).

5. See Instruction H:11, Comments 3–6, 9–12 (no-duty to retreat; apparent necessity; multiple assailants; combat by agreement; exceptions must be supported by evidence; self-defense not a defense to conspiracy; transferred intent; criminal mischief).

6. In a case where more than one exception is submitted (e.g., initial aggression and provocation), include a conjunction.

7. In 2019, the Committee updated Comment 5 to cross-reference additional Comments in Instruction H:11.

8. + In 2020, pursuant to new legislation, the Committee added the bracketed exception regarding gender identity/expression or sexual orientation. See Ch. 279, sec. 3, § 18-1-704(3)(d), 2020 Colo. Sess. Laws 1364, 1365. The Committee also added the relevant cross-references in Comment 2.

H:13 USE OF NON-DEADLY PHYSICAL FORCE (DEFENSE OF PERSON – OFFENSE WITH A MENS REA OF RECKLESSNESS, EXTREME INDIFFERENCE, OR CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the question of self-defense with respect to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

A person is justified in using physical force upon another person without first retreating in order to defend himself [herself] [a third person] from what he [she] reasonably believes to be the use or imminent use of unlawful physical force by that other person, and he [she] may use a degree of force which he [she] reasonably believes to be necessary for that purpose.

However, a person is not justified in using physical force if:

[with intent to cause bodily injury or death to another person, he [she] provokes the use of unlawful physical force by that other person.]

[he [she] is the initial aggressor; except that his [her] use of physical force upon another person under the circumstances is justifiable if he [she] withdraws from the encounter and effectively communicates to the other person his [her] intent to do so, but the other person nevertheless continues or threatens the use of unlawful physical force.]

[the physical force involved is the product of an unauthorized combat by agreement.]

+ [the use of physical force against another is based on the discovery of, knowledge about, or potential disclosure of the victim's actual or perceived gender, gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation, including but not limited to under circumstances in which the victim makes an unwanted nonforcible romantic or sexual advance toward the person.]

You have been instructed that the prosecution has the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt all of the elements of [insert name(s) of offense(s)], including that the defendant acted [recklessly] [with extreme indifference] [in a criminally negligent manner].

You are further instructed that, with respect to [insert name(s) of offense(s)], the prosecution does not have an additional burden to disprove self-defense. You are instructed, though, that a person does not act [recklessly] [with extreme indifference] [in a criminally negligent manner] if his [her] conduct is legally justified as set forth above.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-704(4), C.R.S. 2020 (“In a case in which the defendant is not entitled to a jury instruction regarding self-defense as an affirmative defense, the court shall allow the defendant to present evidence, when relevant, that he or she was acting in self-defense. If the defendant presents evidence of self-defense, the court shall instruct the jury with a self-defense law instruction.”; section inapplicable to strict liability crimes); see also People v. Duran, 272 P.3d 1084, 1099 (Colo. App. 2011) (“the statute mandates provocation and initial aggressor instructions in cases where self-defense is asserted as an element-negating [de]fense under subsection (4), if such instructions are otherwise warranted by the evidence in the case”).

3. It is permissible to inform the jury when self-defense is not an affirmative defense. See People v. Pickering, 276 P.3d 553, 557 (Colo. 2011) (“[I]nstructing the jury, pursuant to the fourth clause of section 18-1-704(4), that the prosecution bears no burden of disproving self-defense with respect to crimes to which self-defense is not an affirmative defense is an accurate statement of Colorado law and does not improperly shift the prosecution’s burden to prove recklessness, extreme indifference, or criminal negligence. So long as the trial court properly instructs the jury regarding the elements of the charged crime, a carrying instruction using the language of section 18-1-704(4) is not constitutionally erroneous.”); see also Montoya v. People, 2017 CO 40, ¶¶ 22–27, 394 P.3d 676, 685–87 (explaining that Pickering was not overruled by Smith v. United States, 568 U.S. 106 (2013)).

4. The first sentence of the model instruction refers only to “self-defense” because that is the language that appears in section 18-1-704(4), C.R.S. 2020. Although the Committee is not aware of any authority addressing the question of whether the General Assembly intended for the term “self-defense” to encompass the defense of “a third person,” as used in section 18-1-704(1), it is the Committee’s best judgment that this was the legislative objective. Accordingly, this understanding of the statute is reflected in the second paragraph of the above instruction.

5. See Instruction H:11, Comment 7 (separate instructions are required when explaining self-defense with respect to an offense, such as third degree assault in violation of § 18-3-204(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020, that has alternative mens reas of “knowingly” and “recklessly”).

6. See Instruction H:14 (affirmative defense of “use of deadly physical force (defense of person – offense with a mens rea of recklessness, extreme indifference, or criminal negligence), Comment 5 (section 18-1-704(4) applies to “extreme indifference” offenses).

7. + See People v. Luna, 2020 COA 123, ¶¶ 14–16, 474 P.3d 230, 233–34 (considering a case where the defendant was charged with both attempted first-degree murder and lesser crimes with a mens rea of recklessness, and where the court instructed the jury that (1) the affirmative defense of self-defense did “not apply” to the reckless crimes, and (2) “[i]f the defendant acted in self-defense, then he cannot be found guilty of ‘Reckless’ conduct”; holding that the instruction was contradictory – and thus plainly erroneous – because, although it correctly explained that the defendant could not be guilty of “reckless” conduct if he acted in self-defense, it also “told jurors that the affirmative defense of self-defense does not apply to” reckless crimes without explaining “the fine, but significant, distinction between an ‘affirmative defense’ and a traverse”; clarifying that, “by instructing the jury that the affirmative defense of self-defense ‘did not apply' to crimes of recklessness, the instruction conflicted with section 18-1-704(4)'s requirement that the trial court give the jury a self-defense instruction that outlines the elements of self-defense law" (citing People v. McClelland, 2015 COA 1, ¶ 24, 350 P.3d 976, 981-82)).

8. In 2017, the Committee modified the final paragraph of this instruction for clarity, and it added the citation to Montoya v. People in Comment 3.

9. + In 2020, pursuant to new legislation, the Committee added the bracketed exception regarding gender identity/expression or sexual orientation. See Ch. 279, sec. 3, § 18-1-704(3)(d), 2020 Colo. Sess. Laws 1364, 1365. The Committee also added the relevant cross-references in Comment 2. Finally, the Committee added Comment 7.

H:14 USE OF DEADLY PHYSICAL FORCE (DEFENSE OF PERSON – OFFENSE WITH A MENS REA OF RECKLESSNESS, EXTREME INDIFFERENCE, OR CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the question of self-defense with respect to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

A person is justified in using deadly physical force upon another person without first retreating in order to defend himself [herself] or a third person from what he [she] reasonably believes to be the use or imminent use of unlawful physical force by that other person if he [she] reasonably believes a lesser degree of force is inadequate, and:

[he [she] has a reasonable ground to believe, and does believe, that he [she] or another person is in imminent danger of being killed or of receiving great bodily injury.]

[the other person is using or reasonably appears about to use physical force against an occupant of a dwelling or business establishment while committing or attempting to commit burglary.]

[the other person is committing or reasonably appears about to commit kidnapping, robbery, sexual assault, or assault in the first or second degree.]

However, a person is not justified in using deadly physical force if:

[with intent to cause bodily injury or death to another person, he [she] provokes the use of unlawful physical force by that other person.]

[he [she] is the initial aggressor; except that his [her] use of deadly physical force upon another person under the circumstances is justifiable if he [she] withdraws from the encounter and effectively communicates to the other person his [her] intent to do so, but the other person nevertheless continues or threatens the use of unlawful physical force.]

[the physical force involved is the product of an unauthorized combat by agreement.]

+ [the use of physical force against another is based on the discovery of, knowledge about, or potential disclosure of the victim's actual or perceived gender, gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation, including but not limited to under circumstances in which the victim makes an unwanted nonforcible romantic or sexual advance toward the person.]

You have been instructed that the prosecution has the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt all of the elements of [insert name(s) of offense(s)], including that the defendant acted [recklessly] [with extreme indifference] [in a criminally negligent manner].

You are further instructed that, with respect to [insert name(s) of offense(s)], the prosecution does not have an additional burden to disprove self-defense. You are instructed, though, that a person does not act [recklessly] [with extreme indifference] [in a criminally negligent manner] if his [her] conduct is legally justified as set forth above.

3. A division of the court of appeals has held that in a case where the victim dies and there is a factual dispute concerning whether the defendant used ordinary physical force or deadly physical force (which is defined as including an intent to cause death), the jury should also be allowed to consider the applicability of self-defense principles relating to the use of ordinary physical force. See People v. Vasquez, 148 P.3d 326, 328 (Colo. App. 2006) (trial court erroneously limited the jury’s consideration of self-defense principles to only those involving the use of deadly physical force). Although Vasquez was decided in the context of affirmative defense instructions, this same method should be used when a similar dispute arises and the court instructs the jury about principles of self-defense pursuant to section 18-1-704(4).

4. See Instruction H:11, Comments 3–6, 9–12 (no-duty to retreat; apparent necessity; multiple assailants; combat by agreement; exceptions must be supported by evidence; self-defense not a defense to conspiracy; transferred intent; criminal mischief); Instruction H:13 (affirmative defense of “use of non-deadly physical force (defense of person – offense with a mens rea of recklessness, extreme indifference, or criminal negligence)), Comment 3 (explaining that, pursuant to *People v. 5. The plain language of section 18-1-704(4) states that: “The court shall instruct the jury that it may consider the evidence of self-defense in determining whether the defendant acted . . . with extreme indifference.” And the supreme court has indicated that, in this context, self-defense operates as an “element-negating traverse” in the same manner that it does with respect to criminal recklessness and criminal negligence. See People v.

Pickering, 276 P.3d 553, 556 (Colo. 2011); Riley v. People, 266 P.3d 1089, 1093 (Colo. 2011). Accordingly, notwithstanding the fact that there is a “knowingly” requirement within the statutory definition of the actus reus for first degree extreme indifference murder, see § 18-3-102(1)(d), C.R.S. 2020; *Candelaria v. ## H:15 USE OF PHYSICAL FORCE, INCLUDING DEADLY PHYSICAL FORCE (INTRUDER INTO A DWELLING)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “[deadly] physical force against an intruder,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant was legally authorized to use any degree of physical force [, including deadly physical force,] against another person without first retreating if:

1. he [she] was an occupant of a dwelling, and
2. the other person had made a knowingly unlawful entry into that dwelling, and
3. he [she] had a reasonable belief that, in addition to the uninvited entry, the other person had committed, was committing, or intended to commit a crime in the dwelling, and
4. he [she] reasonably believed the other person might use any physical force, no matter how slight, against any occupant of the dwelling.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

2. See Instruction F:87 (defining “deadly physical force”); Instruction F:114 (defining “dwelling”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); see also People v. Ferguson, 43 P.3d 705, 707 (Colo. App. 2001) (in light of the way that “deadly physical force” is defined by statute, it is error to instruct the jury concerning the concept in a case in which the victim did not die); People v. Silva, 987 P.2d 909, 917 (Colo. App. 1999) (same).
3. See People v. Guenther, 740 P.2d 971, 981 (Colo. 1987) (“[I]f the pretrial motion to dismiss on grounds of statutory immunity is denied, the defendant may nonetheless raise at trial, as an affirmative defense to criminal charges arising out of the defendant’s use of physical force against an intruder into his home, the statutory conditions set forth in section 18-1-704.5(2). In such an instance, the burden of proof generally applicable to affirmative defenses would apply to the defense created by section 18-1-704.5(2). The defendant would be required to present some credible evidence supporting the applicability of section 18-1-704.5(2); and, if such evidence is presented, the prosecution would then bear the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt the guilt of the defendant as to the issue raised by the affirmative defense as well as all other elements of the offense charged.”).
4. For purposes of section 18-1-704.5, the common areas of an apartment building, such as a stairwell, do not constitute a “dwelling.” See People v. Cushinberry, 855 P.2d 18, 19 (Colo. App. 1992).
5. Section 18-1-704.5 requires an “unlawful entry”; it does not apply when an invitee remains unlawfully. See People v. Drennon, 860 P.2d 589, 591 (Colo. App. 1993).

6. In People v. McNeese, 892 P.2d 304, 310–11 (Colo. 1995), the supreme court held that the “unlawful entry” component of section 18-1-704.5 requires a culpable mental state of “knowingly” on the part of the intruder. See People v. Janes, 982 P.2d 300, 303 (Colo. 1999) (observing that a jury instruction with a requirement that the victim have made a “knowingly unlawful entry” “accurately tracks the language of People v. McNeese in an attempt to define the term ‘unlawful entry,’” but reversing because the instruction failed to make clear that it was the prosecution’s burden to disprove the affirmative defense beyond a reasonable doubt); see also People v. Jones, 2018 COA 112, ¶¶ 34, 39, 434 P.3d 760, 766 (holding that, when the court instructed the jury that the make-my-day defense applies when a person has “made an unlawful entry into the dwelling,” it erred in refusing to modify the phrase “unlawful entry” with the word “knowingly” because “the purpose of the ‘knowing’ element is to protect the accidental trespasser”); People v. Phillips, 91 P.3d 476, 482 (Colo. App. 2004) (while every unlawful entry is necessarily uninvited, an uninvited entry is not necessarily unlawful; for example, a police officer’s entry into a house can be lawful though uninvited); People v. Zukowski, 260 P.3d 339, 344 (Colo. App. 2010) (“Although the McNeese court used the phrase ‘in knowing violation of the criminal law,’ [McNeese, 892 P.2d at 310], it appears that the phrase was intended to express a requirement that an intruder must knowingly engage in criminal conduct, not that an intruder knows he or she is violating a criminal statute.”).

7. This instruction does not include bracketed language describing the concepts of “provocation,” acting as an “initial aggressor,” or “combat by agreement.” Where a defendant who raises the affirmative defense of section 18-1-704.5 also raises the affirmative defense of person on grounds unrelated to the victim’s status as an intruding criminal, the court should explain one or more of these concepts (if applicable under the facts of the case) within the context of Instruction H:11 or H:12. See, e.g., People v. Zukowski, 260 P.3d 339, 344 (Colo. App. 2010) (jury instructed pursuant to section 18-1-704.5, and also as to self-defense with an explanation of the initial aggressor exception).

8. See Instruction H:11, Comments 3–6, 9–12 (no-duty to retreat; apparent necessity; multiple assailants; combat by agreement; exceptions must be supported by evidence; self-defense not a defense to conspiracy; transferred intent; criminal mischief).

9. See People v. Lane, 2014 COA 48 ¶ 19, 343 P.3d 1019, 1024 (“[W]e conclude that [Smith v. United States, 133 S. Ct. 714 (2013) (when a defense excuses conduct that would otherwise be punishable but does not controvert any of the elements of the offense itself, the prosecution has no constitutional duty to overcome the defense by proof beyond a reasonable doubt)] did not overrule [People v. Pickering, 276 P.3d 553 (Colo. 2011) (When a defendant presents evidence that raises the issue of an affirmative defense, the affirmative defense effectively becomes an additional element, and the trial court must instruct the jury that the prosecution bears the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt that the affirmative defense is inapplicable; when a defendant presents evidence that raises the issue of an elemental traverse, however, no such instruction is required; self-defense is an affirmative defense to second degree murder, but it is a traverse to crimes requiring recklessness, criminal negligence, or extreme indifference, such as reckless manslaughter)], and, thus, the trial court did not err in relying on Pickering to instruct the jury that self-defense was not an affirmative defense to the lesser-included charges of manslaughter and criminally negligent homicide.”).

H:16 USE OF NON-DEADLY PHYSICAL FORCE (DEFENSE OF PREMISES)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “physical force in defense of premises,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant was legally authorized to use physical force upon another person if:

1. he [she] was in possession or control of any building, realty, or other premises, [or was a person licensed or privileged to be there,] and
2. he [she] used reasonable and appropriate physical force, when and to the extent it was reasonably necessary to prevent or terminate what he [she] reasonably believed was the commission or attempted commission of an unlawful trespass by the other person in or upon the building, realty, or premises.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

H:17 USE OF DEADLY PHYSICAL FORCE (DEFENSE OF PREMISES)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “deadly physical force in defense of premises,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant was legally authorized to use deadly physical force upon another person if:

1. he [she] she was in possession or control of any building, realty, or other premises, [or was a person licensed or privileged to be there,] and
2. he [she] reasonably believed the use of deadly physical force was necessary to prevent what he [she] reasonably believed to be an attempt by the trespasser to commit first degree arson.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

H:18 USE OF NON-DEADLY PHYSICAL FORCE (DEFENSE OF PROPERTY)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “physical force in defense of property,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant was legally authorized to use physical force upon another person if:

1. he [she] used reasonable and appropriate physical force when and to the extent that he [she] reasonably believed it was necessary to prevent what he [she] reasonably believed to be an attempt by the other person to commit the offense of [theft] [criminal mischief] [criminal tampering involving property].

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, the above numbered condition.

4. Because prevention of a crime is an essential condition of the defense, an instruction should not be given where a defendant uses force after the crime has been completed. See People v. Oslund, 2012 COA 62, ¶¶ 23–26, 292 P.3d 1025, 1029 (defense of property instruction not warranted where defendant used force while trying to apprehend the thief and recover the property; because theft was completed, use of force could not prevent it from occurring); People v. Goedecke, 730 P.2d 900, 901 (Colo. App. 1986) (defense of property instruction not warranted where defendant used physical force on the victim some time after the victim had completed the alleged theft).
5. If the defendant used deadly physical force, this affirmative defense is not applicable. See § 18-1-706, C.R.S. 2020 (a defendant may “use deadly physical force under these circumstances only in defense of himself or another as described in section 18-1-704”).

H:18.5 RENDERING EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE TO AN AT-RISK PERSON OR AN ANIMAL IN A LOCKED VEHICLE

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “rendering emergency assistance to an at-risk person or an animal in a locked vehicle,” as a defense to [criminal mischief] [criminal trespass] [criminal tampering involving property].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] forcibly entered a locked vehicle, and
2. the vehicle was not a law enforcement vehicle, and
3. an at-risk person or an animal was present in the vehicle and the defendant had a reasonable belief that the at-risk person or the animal was in imminent danger of death or suffering serious bodily injury, and
4. the defendant determined that the vehicle was locked and that forcible entry was necessary, and
5. the defendant made a reasonable effort to locate the owner or operator of the vehicle and documented the color, make, model, license plate number, and location of the vehicle, and
6. the defendant contacted a local law enforcement agency, the fire department, animal control, or a 911 operator prior to forcibly entering the vehicle, and did not interfere with, hinder, or fail to obey a lawful order of any person duly empowered with police authority or other first responder duties who was discharging or apparently discharging his or her duties, and
7. the defendant used no more force than he [she] believed was reasonably necessary, and
- [8. the defendant remained with the at-risk person or the animal, reasonably close to the vehicle, until a law enforcement officer, emergency medical service provider, animal control officer, or other first responder arrived at the scene.]

- [8. the defendant left the scene before a law enforcement officer, emergency medical service provider, animal control officer, or other first responder arrived at the scene, and
9. it was necessary for the defendant to leave, and
10. before leaving, the defendant placed a notice on the windshield of the vehicle that included his [her] name and contact information and the name and contact information of the location, if any, to which the defendant took the at-risk person or the animal when he [she] left the scene, and
11. contacted law enforcement, animal control, or other first responder to advise them of his [her] name and contact information, that he [she] was leaving the scene, and the name and contact information of the location, if any, to which the defendant was taking the at-risk person or the animal.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [criminal mischief] [criminal trespass] [criminal tampering involving property]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [criminal mischief] [criminal trespass] [criminal tampering involving property] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

H:19 USE OF PHYSICAL FORCE IN MAKING AN ARREST OR IN PREVENTING AN ESCAPE (PEACE OFFICER)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “peace officer’s use of physical force,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant was legally authorized to use physical force upon another person if:

1. he [she] was a peace officer, and
- + 2. nonviolent means would have been ineffective in effecting an arrest, preventing an escape, or preventing an imminent threat of serious bodily injury or death to himself [herself] or another person, and
3. he [she] used only a degree of force consistent with the minimization of injury to others.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

[e]nsure that any identified relatives or next of kin of persons who have sustained serious bodily injury or death are notified as soon as practicable.” § 18-1-707(2)(c)–(d). ## H:20 USE OF DEADLY PHYSICAL FORCE IN MAKING AN ARREST OR IN PREVENTING AN ESCAPE (PEACE OFFICER)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “peace officer’s use of deadly physical force,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

4. he [she] used only a degree of force consistent with the minimization of injury to others, and
- [5. he [she] used deadly physical force to make an arrest only when all other means of apprehension were unreasonable given the circumstances, and
6. the arrest was for a felony involving conduct including the use or threatened use of deadly physical force, and
7. the suspect posed an immediate threat to the peace officer or another person, and
8. the force employed did not create a substantial risk of injury to other persons, and]
9. he [she] identified himself [herself] as a peace officer and gave a clear verbal warning of his [her] intent to use firearms or other deadly physical force, with sufficient time for the warning to be observed, unless to do so would have unduly placed peace officers at risk of injury or would have created a risk of death or injury to other persons.]

- [2. he [she] had an objectively reasonable belief that a lesser degree of force was inadequate, and
3. he [she] had objectively reasonable grounds to believe, and did believe, that he [she] or another person was in imminent danger of being killed or of receiving serious bodily injury.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. 1. See + § 18-1-707(1), (2)(a)-(b), (3), (4), (4.5), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:87 (defining “deadly physical force”); Instruction F:263 (defining “peace officer”); Instruction F:332 (defining “serious bodily injury”); see also People v. Ferguson, 43 P.3d 705, 707 (Colo. App. 2001) (in light of the way that “deadly physical force” is defined by statute, it is error to instruct the jury concerning the concept in a case in which the victim did not die); People v. Silva, 987 P.2d 909, 917 (Colo. App. 1999) (same).

3. + This instruction creates two main sets of brackets. The first, with conditions numbered 2 through 9, stems from subsections (1) through (4) of section 18-1-707. Within that bracketing is an additional set of brackets for conditions 5 through 8, which apply only where a peace officer used deadly physical force to make an arrest. See § 18-1-707(3). (The Committee notes that paragraphs (3)(a) through (3)(c) – resulting in numbered conditions 6 through 8 – are not connected by a conjunction (neither “and” nor “or”), but it has interpreted the statute to require all three paragraphs to be satisfied for purposes of this defense.) If an arrest is not in issue, the court should omit conditions 5 through 8.

The second main alternative, with conditions numbered 2 and 3, derives from subsection (4.5), which discusses a peace officer’s “objectively reasonably belief” and which applies “[n]otwithstanding any other provision in this section.”

If the evidence supports instructions as to both main sets of bracketed conditions, the court should prepare separate instructions.

4. See Instruction H:20.5.SP (use of chokehold prohibited); Instruction H:29.SP (special instruction: unauthorized arrest).

5. + Regarding the ninth condition, section 18-1-707(4) concludes with the phrase, “unless to do so would unduly place peace officers at risk of injury, would create a risk of death or injury to other persons.” Because the comma after “injury” without a follow-up conjunction appears to create a sentence fragment, the Committee has inserted the conjunction “or” into its phrasing of the condition.

6. + The statute further provides that, “when physical force is used, a peace officer shall . . . [e]nsure that assistance and medical aid are rendered to any injured or affected persons as soon as practicable; and . . . [e]nsure that any identified relatives or next of kin of persons who have sustained serious bodily injury or death are notified as soon as practicable.” § 18-1-707(2)(c)–(d). Because this language instructs peace officers to act after the use of force, rather than circumscribing justifications for the use of force, the Committee has not included these subsections as conditions of the affirmative defense.

7. See also § 18-8-803(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“As used in this section, ‘excessive force’ means physical force which exceeds the degree of physical force permitted pursuant to section 18-1-707. The use of excessive force shall be presumed when a peace officer continues to apply physical force in excess of the force permitted by section 18-1-707 to a person who has been rendered incapable of resisting arrest.”).

8. + In 2020, after the legislature repealed and reenacted section 18-1-707, the Committee heavily modified this instruction and its comments. See Ch. 110, sec. 5, § 18-1-707(1), (2)(a)–(b), (3), (4), (4.5), 2020 Colo. Therefore, if the charges involve conduct allegedly committed before that date, the court should use the 2019 version of this instruction. Finally, note that the legislation regarding deadly physical force while making an arrest (i.e., numbered conditions 5 through 8) became effective on June 19, 2020. See id.

2. See Instruction F:52.5 (defining “chokehold”); Instruction F:263 (defining “peace officer”).
3. + In 2016, pursuant to new legislation, the Committee added this instruction as an affirmative defense instruction titled, “Use of chokehold in making an arrest or in preventing an escape (peace officer).” See Ch. 341, sec. 1, § 18-1-707(2.5), 2016 Colo. Sess. Laws 1390, 1390–91. But in 2020, the legislature repealed and reenacted this subsection, which now simply reads, “A peace officer is prohibited from using a chokehold upon another person.” See Ch. 110, sec. 5, § 18-1-707(2.5)(a), 2020 Colo. Sess. Laws 445, 454. Accordingly, in 2020, the Committee changed this instruction from an affirmative defense instruction to a special instruction.

Furthermore, the Committee notes that this legislation became effective upon passage on June 19, 2020. See Ch. 110, sec. 18(3), 2020 Colo. Sess. Laws 445, 461. Therefore, if the charges involve conduct allegedly committed before that date, the 2019 version of this instruction applies.

H:21 USE OF PHYSICAL FORCE IN MAKING AN ARREST OR IN PREVENTING AN ESCAPE (PRIVATE PERSON DIRECTED BY A PEACE OFFICER)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “physical force at the direction of a peace officer,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant was legally authorized to use physical force upon another person if:

1. he [she] was directed by a peace officer to assist him [her] in making an arrest, [in preventing an escape from custody,] and
2. he [she] used reasonable and appropriate physical force when and to the extent that he [she] reasonably believed the force was necessary to carry out the peace officer’s direction. [, and]
- [3. he [she] did not know that the [arrest] [prospective arrest] was unauthorized.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

H:22 USE OF DEADLY PHYSICAL FORCE IN MAKING AN ARREST OR IN PREVENTING AN ESCAPE (PRIVATE PERSON DIRECTED BY A PEACE OFFICER)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “deadly physical force at the direction of a peace officer,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

3. [he [she] reasonably believed that deadly physical force was necessary to defend himself [herself] [or a third person] from what he [she] reasonably believed to be the use or imminent use of deadly physical force.]

[he [she] was directed or authorized by the peace officer to use deadly physical force.] [, and he [she] did not know, if that was in fact the case, that the peace officer was not authorized to use deadly physical force under the circumstances.]

Section 18-1-707(6)(b) authorizes a citizen, in circumstances specified by section 18-1-707(5), to follow an officer's direction to use deadly physical force provided that the citizen "does not know, if that happens to be the case, that the peace officer himself is not authorized to use deadly physical force under the circumstances." Clearly, whether the defendant actually knew that the officer was not authorized to use deadly physical force is a factual matter. And it appears that the subsidiary question of whether the directing peace officer was authorized to use deadly physical force may also give rise to a factual issue. Should this occur, draft an instruction that explains the principles of Instruction H:20 (use of deadly physical force in making an arrest or in preventing an escape (peace officer)).

H:23 USE OF PHYSICAL FORCE IN MAKING AN ARREST OR IN PREVENTING AN ESCAPE (PRIVATE PERSON, ACTING ON HIS OR HER OWN)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “physical force in [making an arrest] [preventing an escape],” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant was legally authorized to use physical force upon another person if:

1. he [she] used reasonable and appropriate physical force upon another person when and to the extent that he [she] reasonably believed it was necessary:

[to make an arrest, for an offense that [had been] [was being] committed by the other person in the defendant’s presence.]

[to prevent the escape from custody of an arrested person whom the defendant had arrested for committing an offense in his [her] presence.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, the above numbered condition.

[A]n arrest must first be authorized under § 16-3-201, before a private person can use physical force to effect it under § 18-1-707(7).

Furthermore, when a person already under arrest has attempted an escape, the second clause of § 18-1-707(7) similarly permits a private person to use physical force but, again, only when the attempted escape is committed in his or her presence.

H:24 USE OF DEADLY PHYSICAL FORCE IN MAKING AN ARREST OR IN PREVENTING AN ESCAPE (PRIVATE PERSON, ACTING ON HIS OR HER OWN)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “deadly physical force in [making an arrest] [preventing an escape],” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant was legally authorized to use deadly physical force upon another person if:

1. he [she] reasonably believed it was necessary [to make an arrest, for an offense that the other person [had committed][was committing] in his [her] presence,] [to prevent the escape from custody of an arrested person whom he [she] had arrested for committing an offense in his [her] presence,] and
2. he [she] reasonably believed that it was necessary to defend himself [herself] [or a third person] from what he [she] reasonably believed to be the use or imminent use of deadly physical force.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. ## H:25 USE OF DEADLY PHYSICAL FORCE TO PREVENT AN ESCAPE (DETENTION FACILITY)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “deadly physical force to prevent an escape from a detention facility,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant was legally authorized to use deadly physical force upon another person if:

1. he [she] was a [peace officer] [guard] employed in a detention facility, and
2. he [she] reasonably believed the use of deadly physical force was necessary to prevent the escape of a prisoner [[convicted of] [charged with] [held for] a felony.] [confined under the maximum security rules of any detention facility.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. ## H:26 USE OF PHYSICAL FORCE TO PREVENT AN ESCAPE (DETENTION FACILITY)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “physical force to prevent an escape from a detention facility,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant was legally authorized to use physical force upon another person if:

1. he [she] was a [peace officer] [guard] employed in a detention facility, and
2. he [she] used reasonable and appropriate physical force, when and to the extent that he [she] reasonably believed it was necessary to prevent what he [she] reasonably believed to be the escape of a prisoner from a detention facility.

H:30 DURESS

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “duress,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] engaged in the prohibited conduct at the direction of another person, because of the use or threatened use of unlawful force upon him [her] [, or upon another person], and
2. a reasonable person in his [her] situation would have been unable to resist the use or threatened use of unlawful force, and
3. he [she] did not intentionally or recklessly place himself [herself] in a situation where it was foreseeable that he [she] would be subjected to the use or threatened use of unlawful force.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-708, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:308 (defining “recklessly”).
3. The affirmative defense of duress is not available in a prosecution for a class one felony. § 18-1-708, C.R.S. 2020. Although felony murder is a class one felony, in certain cases it may be appropriate to give a duress instruction with respect to the predicate felony. See, e.g., People v. Al-Yousif, 206 P.3d 824, 831 (Colo. App. 2006).
4. The statute defining the defense of duress states: “The choice of evils defense, provided in section 18-1-702, shall not be available to a defendant in addition to the defense of duress provided under this section unless separate facts exist which warrant its application.” § 18-1-708, C.R.S. 2020.
5. In People v. Speer, 255 P.3d 1115, 1119 (Colo. 2011), the supreme court analyzed the statutory provision that is embodied in the second element above and explained:

We have consistently construed our own statute, with its requirement that the threatened force exceed any objectively reasonable ability to resist, as making the defense of duress, like the closely related defense of necessity or choice of evils, unavailable in the absence of a specific and imminent threat of injury under circumstances leaving the defendant no reasonable alternative other than to violate the law for which he stands charged.

Id. (defendant charged with robbery and other offenses was not entitled to duress instruction because he had opportunities to seek police protection and foil the robbery plot, and the allegedly coercive threats to harm his brother did not put the brother at risk of imminent injury).

6. See People v. Nunn, 148 P.3d 222 (Colo. App. 2006) (the term “prohibited conduct” in the model instruction for duress is not prejudicial because it refers to charged conduct that would be “prohibited” absent the existence of the affirmative defense); People v. Yaklich, 833 P.2d 758 (Colo. App. 1991) (trial court erred by submitting a duress instruction because defendant who hired another person to kill her husband did not act “at the direction of another person”).

H:31 ENTRAPMENT

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “entrapment,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] is a person who, but for the inducement offered, would not have conceived of or engaged in conduct of the sort induced, and
2. he [she] engaged in the proscribed conduct because he [she] was induced to do so by a law enforcement official [or other person acting under the official’s direction,] seeking to obtain evidence for the purpose of prosecution, and not as a result of his [her] own predisposition, and
3. the methods used to obtain such evidence were such as to create a substantial risk that this particular defendant would engage in the sort of conduct induced, and
4. the methods used were more persuasive than merely affording him [her] an opportunity to commit an offense, even if such an opportunity was coupled with representations or inducements calculated to overcome his [her] fear of detection.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

1. See § 18-1-709, C.R.S. 2020; Evans v. People, 706 P.2d 795, 801 n.6 (Colo. 1985).
2. Do not augment an entrapment instruction with language from appellate opinions analyzing the legality of police conduct. The supreme court has explained that:

It is important to distinguish between the statutory defense of entrapment and the constitutional defense of outrageous governmental conduct. The latter provides a mechanism by which this court may curtail overzealous police activity that we find shocking to the conscience. See People v. Vandiver, 191 Colo. 263, 268, 552 P.2d 6, 9 (1976) (recognizing that a defense of outrageous governmental conduct exists when conduct by officers violates fundamental standards of due process). In contrast, judicial pronouncements of law regarding the propriety of police conduct are not appropriate in the context of the entrapment defense, as this defense rests upon a determination of the defendant's state of mind, which is a factual issue for the jury. See, e.g., Bailey [v. People], 630 P.2d [1062, 1066 (Colo. 1981)](noting that Colorado's subjective approach to entrapment sanctions police conduct without question so long as the police actions are directed at persons predisposed to commit the offense charged).

People*, 706 P.2d 795, 800 (Colo. 1985) ("a trial court's use of an excerpt from an opinion in an instruction is generally an unwise practice"; "statements taken from opinions do not necessarily translate with clarity into jury instructions because opinions and instructions have very different purposes”).

Rather, we agree with those divisions holding the affirmative defense of entrapment is not available to a defendant who denies commission of the crime.”).

H:32 REPORTING AN EMERGENCY DRUG OR ALCOHOL OVERDOSE EVENT

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “reporting an emergency drug or alcohol overdose event,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s) enumerated in section 18-1-711(3)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. + [the defendant] [a person] reported in good faith an emergency drug or alcohol overdose event to a law enforcement officer, to the 911 system, or to a medical provider, and
2. + [the defendant] [the person] remained at the scene of the event until a law enforcement officer or an emergency medical responder arrived or he [she] remained at the facilities of the medical provider until a law enforcement officer arrived, and
3. + [the defendant] [the person] identified himself [herself] to, and cooperated with, the law enforcement officer, emergency medical responder, or medical provider, and
4. the offense for which the defendant is charged arose from the same course of events from which the emergency drug or alcohol overdose event arose.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name of offense(s) enumerated in section 18-1-711(3)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name of offense(s) enumerated in section 18-1-711(3)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

1. See § 18-1-711(1)–(3), C.R.S. 2020 (immunity applicable to: unlawful possession of a controlled substance, as described in section 18-18-403.5(2); unlawful use of a controlled substance, as described in section 18-18-404; if committed on or after March 1, 2020, unlawful possession of two ounces or less of marijuana, as described in section 18-18-406(5)(a)(I), or more than two ounces of marijuana but not more than six ounces of marijuana or not more than three ounces of marijuana concentrate, as described in section 18-18-406(4)(c), or more than six ounces of marijuana or more than three ounces of marijuana concentrate as described in section 18-18-406(4)(b); open and public display, consumption, or use of less than two ounces of marijuana as described in section 18-18-406(5)(b)(I); transferring or dispensing two ounces or less of marijuana from one person to another for no consideration, as described in section 18-18-406(5)(c); use or possession of synthetic cannabinoids or salvia divinorum, as described in section 18-18-406.1; possession of drug paraphernalia, as described in section 18-18-428; and illegal possession or consumption of ethyl alcohol by an underage person, as described in section 18-13-122).

2. See Instruction F:117 (defining “emergency drug or alcohol overdose event”).

3. + Section 18-1-711 speaks in terms of immunity rather than an affirmative defense. The Committee expresses no opinion on whether, where a court denies a defendant's pretrial immunity motion, the defendant may nevertheless raise the conditions of the statute as an affirmative defense. Cf. People v. Guenther, 740 P.2d 971, 975, 981 (Colo.

1987) (“We conclude that section 18-1-704.5(3) was intended to and indeed does authorize a court to dismiss a criminal prosecution at the pretrial stage of the case when the conditions of the statute have been satisfied. . . . [T]he phrase ‘shall be immune from criminal prosecution’ can only be construed to mean that the statute was intended to bar criminal proceedings against a person for the use of force under the circumstances set forth in subsection (2) of section 18-1-704.5. . . . [I]f the pretrial motion to dismiss on grounds of statutory immunity is denied, the defendant may nonetheless raise at trial, as an affirmative defense to criminal charges arising out of the defendant’s use of physical force against an intruder into his home, the statutory conditions set forth in section 18-1-704.5(2).”); People v. Harrison, 2020 CO 57, ¶¶ 11, 19, 465 P.3d 16, 23 (considering a case where the trial court denied the defendant’s pretrial immunity motion under section 18-1-711 but subsequently allowed the defendant to raise the statute as an affirmative defense; assuming without deciding that the defendant “was entitled to invoke the statute as an affirmative defense”).

4. + Section 18-1-711(2) provides that “[t]he immunity described in subsection (1) of this section also extends to the person who suffered the emergency drug or alcohol overdose event if all of the conditions of subsection (1) of this section are satisfied.” That is, the statute applies where either (1) the defendant reported his or her own overdose, or (2) another person reported the defendant’s overdose (provided that the other person’s conduct satisfied all of the provisions of the statute). For this reason, the Committee has created bracketed alternatives of “the defendant” and “a/the person” for each of the first three conditions; depending on the facts of the case, the court should select the appropriate option. See, e.g., Harrison, ¶¶ 4–6 (discussing whether there was sufficient evidence that the prosecution disproved the affirmative defense where a restaurant manager called 911 after being unable to rouse the defendant).

5. + In Harrison, the court held that the statute’s first condition “requires both that a person report in good faith what she subjectively perceives is an acute condition caused by the consumption or use of drugs or alcohol and that a layperson would reasonably believe that the reported condition is a drug or alcohol overdose needing medical assistance.” ¶ 29 (emphasis added). This language essentially derives from combining subsection

(1)(a) – which provides that a person must “report[] in good faith an emergency drug or alcohol overdose event” – with subsection (5) – which defines “emergency drug or alcohol overdose event” in part as “an acute condition . . . resulting from the consumption or use of a controlled substance, or of alcohol . . . that a layperson would reasonably believe to be a drug or alcohol overdose that requires medical assistance.” Because the jury will already receive a separate definition of “emergency drug or alcohol overdose event,” see Instruction F:117, the Committee has not included the “layperson” language within this instruction. Furthermore, while Harrison recognizes that “the good-faith requirement renders the subjective perception of the person making the report relevant,” ¶ 24, the Committee has not added any “subjective perception” language to the instruction itself; instead it has simply retained the statutory language of “good faith.”

6. In 2015, the Committee added Comment 3.

7. In 2017, the Committee modified a statutory citation in Comment 1 pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 264, sec. 37, § 18-1-711(3)(a), 2017 Colo. Sess. Laws 1382, 1393.

8. In 2019, the Committee modified the first parenthetical in Comment 1 pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 291, sec. 5, § 18-1-711(3)(c), 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 2676, 2679. The Committee also added Comment 4.

9. + In 2020, in light of Harrison, the Committee modified the first three conditions of the instruction, as described in Comment 4; it also updated Comment 3 and added Comment 5.

H:32.3 ADMINISTERING OPIATE ANTAGONIST DURING OVERDOSE

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “administering opiate antagonist during overdose,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] acted in good faith to furnish or administer an opiate antagonist, + including an expired opiate antagonist,
2. to an individual the defendant believed to be suffering an opiate-related drug overdose event, or to an individual who was in a position to assist the individual at risk of experiencing an opiate-related overdose event.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-712(2)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. The court should separately define “opiate antagonist” and “opiate-related drug overdose event” for the jury. See § 22-1-119.1(3)(a), C.R.S. 2020 (“‘Opiate antagonist’ means naloxone hydrochloride or any similarly acting drug that is not a controlled substance and that is approved by the federal food and drug administration for the treatment of a drug overdose.”); § 22-1-119.1(3)(b) (“‘Opiate-related drug overdose event’ means an acute condition, including a decreased level of consciousness or respiratory depression, that: (i) results from the consumption or use of a controlled substance or another substance with which a controlled substance was combined; (ii) a layperson would reasonably believe to be caused by an opiate-related drug overdose event; and (iii) requires medical assistance.” (formatting altered)).
3. The statute does not speak in terms of an affirmative defense but instead provides that a person who furnishes such aid “is immune from criminal prosecution.” § 18-1-712(2)(a). The Committee expresses no opinion concerning whether this provision allows for the determination of immunity prior to trial. See, e.g., People v. Guenther, 740 P.2d 971, 975 (Colo. 1987) (“We conclude that section 18-1-704.5(3) was intended to and indeed does authorize a court to dismiss a criminal prosecution at the pretrial stage of the case when the conditions of the statute have been satisfied. . . . [T]he phrase ‘shall be immune from criminal prosecution’ can only be construed to mean that the statute was intended to bar criminal proceedings against a person for the use of force under the circumstances set forth in subsection (2) of section 18-1-704.5.”).
4. Subsection (2)(b) of the statute provides that the immunity also applies to employees or volunteers of various entities, including law enforcement agencies, harm reduction organizations, school districts, + and mental health professionals. Because the statute does not limit its application to any class of defendant, the Committee has not incorporated this subsection into its instruction.

5. The statute provides that it applies “for any act or omission made if the opiate antagonist is stolen.”

6. The Committee added this instruction in 2019. See Ch. 273, sec. 7, § 18-1-712, 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 2575, 2579.

7. + In 2020, pursuant to a legislative amendment, the Committee added the language about expired opiate antagonists to the first numbered condition. See Ch. 287, sec. 5, § 18-1-712(2)(a), 2020 Colo. Sess. Laws 1419, 1420. The Committee also updated Comment 4 pursuant to a separate amendment. See Ch. 304, sec. 7, § 18-1-712(2)(b)(I), 2020 Colo. Sess. Laws 1524, 1527.

H:32.7 VICTIM OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING OF A MINOR

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “victim of human trafficking of a minor,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. at the time of the offense[s], he [she] was a victim of human trafficking of a minor for involuntary servitude or human trafficking of a minor for sexual servitude, and
2. he [she] was forced or coerced into engaging in the criminal act charged.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-713, C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:56.5 (defining “coercing”).
3. Assuming that the defendant is not charged with human trafficking of a minor for involuntary or sexual servitude, the court should provide modified instructions defining those crimes. See Instruction 3-5:01 (human trafficking for involuntary servitude); Instruction 3-5:04 (human trafficking of a minor for sexual servitude); Instruction 3-5:05 (human trafficking of a minor for sexual servitude (travel services)). Specifically, the court should make the following modifications: (1) the first sentence should read, “A person commits the crime of [human trafficking of a minor for involuntary servitude] [human trafficking of a minor for sexual servitude]”; (2) element number 1, “That the defendant,” should be replaced with “The person”; and (3) the two concluding paragraphs explaining the burden of proof should be omitted.

Additionally, because the elemental instruction for human trafficking for involuntary servitude is not specific to minors but instead typically requires an interrogatory, the court should change the phrase “another person” in the fifth element to “a person less than eighteen years of age.”

4. The statute provides that the minor being charged must prove the elements of this defense by a preponderance of the evidence. § 18-1-713(1). However, in Colorado, the prosecution must disprove an affirmative defense beyond a reasonable doubt. Therefore, assuming the defendant puts forth sufficient evidence warranting an instruction on this affirmative defense, this instruction requires the prosecution to disprove the affirmative defense beyond a reasonable doubt. See People v. Garcia, 113 P.3d 775, 783–84 (Colo. 2005) (“[T]o present an affirmative defense for jury consideration, the defendant must present ‘some credible evidence’ on the issue involving the claimed defense. . . . [O]nce that burden has been met, the prosecution has the burden of disproving the claimed affirmative defense beyond a reasonable doubt.” (quoting § 18-1-407, C.R.S. 2004)).
5. This affirmative defense does not apply to class 1 felonies. See § 18-1-713(1).

6. The Committee added this instruction in 2019 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 147, sec. 5, § 18-1-713, 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 1764, 1766-67.

H:33 INSUFFICIENT AGE

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “insufficient age,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] was under ten years of age when he [she] committed the crime.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, the above numbered condition.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-801, C.R.S. 2020; see also § 18-1-805, C.R.S. 2020 (stating that “[t]he issue of responsibility under section[] 18-1-801 . . . is an affirmative defense”).
2. As a practical matter, this affirmative defense will rarely be raised in adult prosecutions due to the significant differences between the age of legal responsibility and the various age thresholds under the transfer and direct filing statutes. See generally §§ 19-2-517 to -518, C.R.S. 2020.

Moreover, in delinquency cases where there is a factual dispute concerning whether the juvenile had attained the age of responsibility when he or she allegedly committed the offense, the court may resolve the issue at a preliminary hearing. See also § 19-2-804(1), C.R.S. 2020 (in delinquency proceedings, “[j]urisdictional matters of the age and residence of the juvenile shall be deemed admitted by or on behalf of the juvenile unless specifically denied within a reasonable time prior to the trial”).

3. Do not give this instruction in a case where an adult defendant is charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. See People v. Miller, 830 P.2d 1092, 1094 (Colo. App. 1991) (“Although a child under the age of ten cannot be charged with an offense, it does not necessarily follow that the child cannot violate the law.”).

H:34 SELF-INDUCED (VOLUNTARY) INTOXICATION

The evidence presented in this case has raised the question of self-induced intoxication with respect to the offense of [insert name of specific intent offense(s)].

For that [those] offense[s], you may consider whether or not evidence of self-induced intoxication negates the existence of the element[s] of [“with intent”] [“after deliberation and with intent”] [“intentionally”].

The prosecution has the burden of proving all the elements of the crimes charged beyond a reasonable doubt. If you find the defendant was intoxicated to such a degree that he [she] did not act with the required mental state, you should find him [her] not guilty of that offense.

[However, you may not consider evidence of self-induced intoxication for purposes of deciding whether the prosecution has proved the elements of [insert name(s) of general intent offense(s)].]

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-804(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:10 (defining “after deliberation”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally,” and “with intent”); Instruction F:188 (defining “intoxication”); Instruction F:330 (defining “self-induced intoxication”).
3. Self-induced intoxication is not an affirmative defense. People v. Harlan, 8 P.3d 448, 470 (Colo. 2000). Rather, “the statute sets forth a rule concerning the admissibility of evidence of intoxication by the defendant to counter the prosecution’s evidence that the defendant had the requisite specific intent of the charged offense.” Id. at 470–71. Thus, the statute “absolves a defendant of liability only for a specific intent offense when the evidence of intoxication negates the existence of the specific intent.” Id. at 471.

4. An instruction informing a jury that it “may” consider evidence of self-induced intoxication in determining whether the defendant acted with specific intent is not erroneous. See People v. Lucas, 232 P.3d 155, 163 (Colo. App. 2009) (there is no requirement to instruct the jury that it “must” consider such evidence).
5. “[A] criminal defendant who maintains his innocence may receive an inconsistent jury instruction on voluntary intoxication provided there is a rational basis for the instruction in the evidentiary record.” Brown v. People, 239 P.3d 764, 770 (Colo. 2010).
6. Evidence of self-induced intoxication is admissible to counter the specific intent element of first-degree murder, which includes “after deliberation” as an element. See People v. Miller, 113 P.3d 743, 750 (Colo. 2005).
7. If the defendant requests instructions on both involuntary intoxication (see Instruction H:35) and self-induced intoxication and the court determines that both instructions are appropriate, both instructions should be given, with the involuntary intoxication instruction appearing first. The court should also be sure to give Instruction H:35.5.SP (intoxication – multiple types), which explains to the jury how to consider these two instructions in tandem.
8. Although it is settled law that evidence of self-induced intoxication does not negate the mens rea of general intent crimes, it can be difficult to determine whether a particular offense is a general intent crime. See, e.g., People v. Vigil, 127 P.3d 916 (Colo. 2006) (holding, based on a review of legislative history, that sexual assault on a child is a general intent crime with a mens rea that cannot be negated by evidence of self-induced intoxication).

The final sentence, which is enclosed within brackets, curtails a jury’s consideration of evidence of the defendant’s intoxication where the defendant is also charged with general intent crimes. See People v. Vanrees, 125 P.3d 403, 410 (Colo. 2005) (trial court did not err by instructing jury, in supplemental instruction, that: “In determining whether or not the element of ‘knowingly’ has been proved beyond a reasonable doubt, you may consider any evidence, other than intoxication, presented in this case, or lack of evidence, that you believe to bear on that element.").

9. In 2019, the Committee added the cross-reference to Instruction F:330 in Comment 2, and it revised Comment 7. The Committee also replaced the phrase “voluntary intoxication” with “self-induced intoxication” throughout the instruction.

H:35 INTOXICATION (INVOLUNTARY)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “involuntary intoxication,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] lacked the capacity to conform his [her] conduct to the requirements of the law, because of intoxication, and
2. the intoxication was not self-induced.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-804(3), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:188 (defining “intoxication”); Instruction F:330 (defining “self-induced intoxication”); see also People v. Walden, 224 P.3d

369, 379-80 (Colo. App. 2009) (recognizing that, for purposes of the affirmative defense of involuntary intoxication, the “legal meaning of the terms ‘intoxication,’ ‘voluntary,’ and ‘involuntary’ may depart, at least to some degree, from the meaning of these terms in common usage”).

3. In cases where there is a factual dispute concerning whether the defendant’s intoxication was self-induced, refer to Comment 7 of Instruction H:34 (intoxication (voluntary)).

4. A defendant’s addiction to an intoxicant is insufficient to establish involuntariness. See Tacorante v. People, 624 P.2d 1324, 1327 (Colo. 1981); People v. Grenier, 200 P.3d 1062, 1075 (Colo. App. 2008) (same). However, a division of the Court of Appeals has held that a defendant’s ignorance of the intoxicating effects of a voluntarily ingested substance may suffice to create an issue of fact. See People v. Turner, 680 P.2d 1290, 1293 (Colo. App. 1983) (instruction concerning involuntary intoxication warranted where defendant testified that he had not been warned of the intoxicating effects of ingesting excessive doses of Fiorinal, and that his past experience in taking excessive doses caused him to believe that he would simply fall asleep).

5. “[T]he medical condition of insulin-induced hypoglycemia may, depending upon the particular facts and circumstances involved, constitute the affirmative defense of involuntary intoxication as that defense is defined by section 18-1-804(3).” People v. Garcia, 113 P.3d 775, 782 (Colo. 2005).

6. See People v. Voth, 2013 CO 61 ¶ 22, 312 P.3d 144, 149 (“We hold that the meaning of the word ‘substance’ as used in section 18-1-804 is unambiguous and can be determined with reasonable certainty. After reviewing common dictionary definitions of ‘substance,’ relevant case law, and the statutory context in which the term appears, we conclude that the plain and ordinary meaning of the word ‘substance’ excludes viruses as a matter of law.”).

H:35.5.SP INTOXICATION – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (MULTIPLE TYPES)

You have been instructed on the affirmative defense of involuntary intoxication with respect to the offense of [insert name of specific intent offense(s)]. You have also received an instruction on whether or not evidence of the defendant's self-induced intoxication negates the existence of the element[s] of ["with intent"] ["after deliberation and with intent"] ["intentionally"] with respect to [that offense] [those offenses].

You should consider the affirmative defense of involuntary intoxication before considering the question of self-induced intoxication. If you find that the prosecution has failed to meet its burden of proof regarding the defense of involuntary intoxication, as described in that instruction, then you should disregard the instruction on self-induced intoxication.

If, however, you find that the prosecution has met its burden of proof regarding the defense of involuntary intoxication, then you should proceed to the instruction on self-induced intoxication. Your finding that the defendant's conduct was not authorized by the defense of involuntary intoxication should not influence your decision on whether evidence of the defendant's self-induced intoxication negates the existence of the element[s] of ["with intent"] ["after deliberation and with intent"] ["intentionally"]; rather, you should consider the question of self-induced intoxication separately.

COMMENT

1. The court should give this instruction where (1) the defendant requests instructions on both involuntary intoxication (see Instruction H:35) and self-induced intoxication (see Instruction H:34), and (2) the court determines that both instructions are appropriate. This instruction is designed to guide the jury through the complex scenario where it is presented with both instructions.

The Committee has concluded that the jury should consider the involuntary intoxication affirmative defense first because a finding that the defendant's conduct was legally authorized by that defense will require a not guilty verdict, rendering self-induced intoxication moot. But if the jury finds that the defendant's conduct was not authorized by the affirmative defense of involuntary intoxication, it should proceed to the self-induced intoxication instruction because such a finding will not necessarily resolve the jury's determination of whether evidence of the defendant's self-induced intoxication negated the existence of a relevant mental state.

2. The Committee added this instruction in 2019.

CHAPTER H: SECTION II (DEFENSES TO INCHOATE OFFENSES AND SPECIFIC CRIMES)

H:36 CRIMINALITY OF CONDUCT – MISTAKE AS TO AGE

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “mistake as to age,” as a defense to [insert name(s) of offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. the defendant reasonably believed [insert name of the alleged victim] was eighteen years of age or older, and
2. [insert name of the alleged victim] was in fact at least fifteen years of age.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-503.5(1), C.R.S. 2020 (affirmative defense applies if “the criminality of conduct depends on a child being younger than eighteen years of age”); § 18-1-503.5(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“If the criminality of conduct depends on a child’s being younger than eighteen years of age and the child was in fact younger than fifteen years of age, there shall be no defense that the defendant reasonably believed the child was eighteen years of age or older.”).
2. This affirmative defense is unavailable if “the criminality of conduct depends on the defendant being in a position of trust,” § 18-1-503.5(1), or where “the criminality of conduct depends on a child being younger than fifteen years of age.” § 18-1-503.5(3), C.R.S. 2020.
3. Section 18-1-503.5(1) establishes an affirmative defense that must be raised; it does not alter the mens rea that applies to an offense. See Gorman v. People, 19 P.3d 662, 668 (Colo. 2000) (rejecting the analysis in People v. Bath, 890 P.2d 269, 271 (Colo. App. 1994), and explaining that “[w]hile we agree with the court of appeals that the affirmative defense [then codified as section 18-3-406(1)] is applicable to the offense of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, we disapprove of its reasoning that” an affirmative defense statute can alter the mens rea for an offense).

H:37 CRIMINAL ATTEMPT – ABANDONMENT AND RENUNCIATION

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “abandonment and renunciation,” as a defense to attempted [insert name(s) of object offense(s)].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] abandoned his [her] effort to commit the crime or otherwise prevented its commission, under circumstances manifesting the complete and voluntary renunciation of his [her] criminal intent, and
2. neither the abandonment nor the renunciation was motivated in whole or in part by: a belief that a circumstance existed which increased the probability of detection or apprehension of the defendant or another, or which made more difficult the consummation of the crime; or a decision to postpone the crime until another time or to substitute another victim or another but similar objective.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [that] [those] offense[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-2-101(3), C.R.S. 2020 (establishing the affirmative defense of abandonment and renunciation); § 18-2-401(1), C.R.S. 2020 (limiting the defense where abandonment or renunciation is not voluntary and complete).

2. In O'Shaughnessy v. People, 2012 CO 9, ¶ 20 n.4, 269 P.3d 1233, 1237 n.4, the supreme court rejected a “bright-line rule . . . that the affirmative defense of abandonment is not available [in a prosecution for an attempt] once the defendant injures the victim.” Although the court held that the defendant in that case was not entitled to an instruction concerning the affirmative defense of abandonment because there was no credible evidence to support it, the court explained that even “though the crime of attempt is complete once the actor takes a substantial step toward the commission of the crime, the affirmative defense of abandonment applies if the actor completely and voluntarily renounces his criminal intent thereafter.” Id. at ¶ 9, 269 P.3d at 1235.

3. It is well-established that “[a]bandonment and renunciation of criminal purpose are not affirmative defenses to completed crimes.” People v. Marmon, 903 P.2d 651, 654 n.2 (Colo. 1995) (forgery); People v. Scialabba, 55 P.3d 207, 210 (Colo. App. 2002) (same; witness tampering). Thus, O'Shaughnessy is best understood as recognizing the exception that exists for the oxymoronic concept of completed attempts. See also People v. Johnson, 585 P.2d 306, 308 (Colo. App. 1978) (“even though, in a strict analytical sense, the crime of attempt is complete once the actor intentionally takes a substantial step towards the commission of the crime, nevertheless, the defense of abandonment is present if he thereafter voluntarily renounces his criminal intent”).

H:38 CONSPIRACY – RENUNCIATION

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “renunciation,” as a defense to conspiracy.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. after conspiring to commit a crime, he [she] thwarted the success of the conspiracy, under circumstances manifesting a complete and voluntary renunciation of his [her] criminal intent, and
2. the renunciation was not motivated in whole or in part by: a belief that a circumstance existed which increased the probability of detection or apprehension of the defendant or another or which made more difficult the consummation of the crime; or a decision to postpone the crime until another time or to substitute another victim or another but similar objective.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of conspiracy to commit [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of that offense.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of conspiracy to commit [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-2-203, C.R.S. 2020 (establishing the affirmative defense of renunciation); § 18-2-401(1), C.R.S. 2020 (limiting the defense where the renunciation is not voluntary and complete).
2. The Committee has not included an instruction similar to COLJI-Crim. H:34 (2008), which established an affirmative defense of abandonment for the offense of conspiracy based on language in section 18-2-204, C.R.S. 2020 (“duration of conspiracy”).

Unlike the attempt statute, the conspiracy statute does not state that abandonment is an affirmative defense. Compare § 18-2-201, C.R.S. 2020 (conspiracy), with § 18-2-101(3), C.R.S. 2020 (establishing the affirmative defense of abandonment and renunciation for attempt offenses). Indeed, the conspiracy statute does not mention abandonment, and there is no separate statute explicitly identifying abandonment as an affirmative defense to a charge of conspiracy (as there is for renunciation of a conspiracy, which requires proof that the defendant actually have “thwarted the success of the conspiracy,” see § 18-2-203, C.R.S. 2020). Rather, the concept of abandonment appears in a statute that defines the “duration” of a conspiracy. See § 18-2-204, C.R.S. 2020.

Nevertheless, based on section 18-2-204, abandonment of a conspiracy has been characterized as an affirmative defense in case law, see, e.g., People v. Romero, 543 P.2d 56, 58-59 (Colo. 1975) (trial court did not err by refusing to instruct the jury concerning “the affirmative defense of abandonment”), and in previous model jury instructions. See COLJI-Crim. H:34 (2008); COLJI-Crim. 7:32 (1983).

However, the Committee has now concluded that the supreme court’s statement in Romero was dicta and that the earlier model instructions were erroneous. This view is consistent with the understanding of one commentator, who has explained the distinction as follows:

Renunciation should be distinguished from abandonment, discussed . . . under the subheading DURATION OF CONSPIRACY. Abandonment does not defend against a conspiracy conviction, but merely limits the abandoning conspirator's exposure by starting the limitations period running and ending the attribution of statements of other conspirators to him under the co-conspirator exception to the hearsay rule. Abandonment is easier to prove than renunciation, since actual prevention of the conspiracy's success is not required.

H:39 CRIMINAL SOLICITATION – SOLE VICTIM, INEVITABLY INCIDENT, OR OTHERWISE NOT LIABLE

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of [“object achieved”] [“sole victim”] [“inevitably incident”] as a defense to criminal solicitation.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

- [1. had the criminal object been achieved he [she] would have been the sole victim of the offense; or his [her] conduct would have been inevitably incident to its commission; or he [she] otherwise would not have been guilty under Instruction ____, defining [insert name of felony offense(s) solicited], or under Instruction ____, defining complicity liability.]
- [1. he [she] was the sole victim of the offense; or his [her] conduct was inevitably incident to commission of the offense.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, the above numbered condition.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of criminal solicitation. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of that offense.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of criminal solicitation must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-2-301(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. The first example is designed for cases where the object of the solicitation was not achieved. If the solicited crime was completed, use the second example.
3. The second example does not include language reflecting the third alternative of section 18-2-301(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“or he otherwise would not be guilty under the statute defining the offense or under section 18-1-603 dealing with complicity”). It is unclear whether this instructional language would ever be necessary in a case where the solicited crime was completed because, presumably, in such circumstances the defendant would also be charged with the completed offense (and that charge would be separately submitted to the jury under a theory of complicity).
4. The first clause of section 18-2-301(1), C.R.S. 2020, establishes an exemption from criminal liability for “bona fide acts of persons authorized by law to investigate the commission of offenses by others.” It is unclear whether the General Assembly intended for this provision to create an affirmative defense that is distinct from the affirmative defense of “execution of public duty.” See § 18-1-701(1), C.R.S. 2020; Instruction H:08.

H:40 CRIMINAL SOLICITATION – PREVENTION AND RENUNCIATION

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “prevention and renunciation,” as a defense to criminal solicitation.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she], after soliciting another person to commit [insert name of felony offense(s) here], persuaded him [her] not to do so, or otherwise prevented the commission of the crime,
2. under circumstances manifesting a complete and voluntary renunciation of his [her] criminal intent, and
3. the renunciation was not motivated in whole or in part by: a belief that a circumstance existed which increased the probability of detection or apprehension of the defendant or another, or which made more difficult the consummation of the crime; or a decision to postpone the crime until another time, or to substitute another victim or another but similar objective.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of criminal solicitation. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of that offense.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of criminal solicitation must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

COMMENT

1. See §§ 18-2-301(4), 18-2-401, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See People v. Jacobs, 91 P.3d 438, 441-42 (Colo. App. 2003) (because the general offense of solicitation does not apply to the separate substantive offense of soliciting for child prostitution, the affirmative defenses of prevention and renunciation under the general solicitation statute are also inapplicable).

H:41 FELONY MURDER – DISENGAGEMENT

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “disengagement,” as a defense to the offense of first degree murder (felony murder).

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] was not the only participant in the [insert name of offense(s) here], and
2. he [she] did not commit the homicidal act or in any way solicit, request, command, importune, cause, or aid the commission thereof, and
3. he [she] was not armed with a deadly weapon, and
4. he [she] had no reasonable ground to believe that any other participant was armed with such a weapon, instrument, article, or substance, and
5. he [she] did not engage himself [herself] in, or intend to engage in, or have a reasonable ground to believe that any other participant intended to engage in, conduct likely to result in death or serious bodily injury, and
6. he [she] endeavored to disengage himself [herself] from the commission of [insert name of offense(s) here] or flight therefrom immediately upon having reasonable grounds to believe that another participant was armed with a deadly weapon, instrument, article, or substance, or intended to engage in conduct likely to result in death or serious bodily injury.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of first degree murder (felony murder).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of first degree murder (felony murder) must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

People*, 109 P.3d 647, 657 (Colo. 2005) ("Like the plain language of the statutory offense, the affirmative defense provides no support for the theory that arrest, by itself, terminates a co-participant's liability for felony murder as a matter of law."); People v. Lucas, 992 P.2d 619, 625 (Colo. App. 1999) (defendant charged with felony murder was not entitled to affirmative defense instruction because he engaged in conduct likely to cause serious bodily injury by participating in the attack on the victim and personally hitting the victim multiple times).

H:42 MANSLAUGHTER – MEDICAL CAREGIVER

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “medical caregiver,” as a defense to manslaughter (intentionally aiding or causing another person to commit suicide).

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] was a medical caregiver, with prescriptive authority or authority to administer medication,
2. who prescribed or administered medication for palliative care,
3. to a terminally ill patient,
4. with the consent of the terminally ill patient, or his [her] agent.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of manslaughter (intentionally aiding or causing another person to commit suicide). ## H:43 FALSE IMPRISONMENT – PEACE OFFICER ACTING IN GOOD FAITH

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “peace officer acting in good faith,” as a defense to false imprisonment.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] was a peace officer,
2. acting in good faith within the scope of his [her] duties.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of false imprisonment. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of false imprisonment.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict concerning the charge of false imprisonment must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

No. 11:08 (1983), the pattern criminal jury instruction for false imprisonment pursuant to § 18-3-303, . . . provides that an element of the prosecution’s case is proof that the defendant is not a peace officer acting in good faith.” Although the division in Reed endorsed that statutory interpretation, the Committee has concluded the provision establishes an affirmative defense.

H:44 VIOLATION OF CUSTODY – CHILD IN DANGER OR NOT ENTICED

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of [“child in danger”] [“child not enticed”], as a defense to violation of custody.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

- [1. he [she] reasonably believed that his [her] conduct was necessary to preserve the child from danger to his [her] welfare.]
- [1. the child was at the time more than fourteen years old, and
2. he [she] was taken away at his [her] own instigation,
3. without enticement, and
4. the defendant had no purpose to commit a crime with or against the child.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, [at least one of] the above numbered condition[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of violation of custody. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of violation of a custody order.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict concerning the charge of violation of custody must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

H:45 FAILURE TO REGISTER OR VERIFY LOCATION AS A SEX OFFENDER – UNCONTROLLABLE CIRCUMSTANCES

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “uncontrollable circumstances,” as a defense to failure to [register] [verify location] as a sex offender.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] was prevented from complying by uncontrollable circumstances, and
2. he [she] did not contribute to the creation of the circumstances in reckless disregard of the requirement to comply, and
3. he [she] complied as soon as the circumstances ceased to exist.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of failure to [register] [verify location] as a sex offender. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of failure to [register] [verify location] as a sex offender.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict concerning the charge of failure to [register] [verify location] as a sex offender must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

H:45.3 UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF A PREGNANCY (MEDICAL CARE OR SERVICE)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “medical care or service,” as a defense to unlawful termination of a pregnancy.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] was providing medical, osteopathic, surgical, mental health, dental, nursing, optometric, healing, wellness, or pharmaceutical care; furnishing inpatient or outpatient hospital or clinic services; furnishing telemedicine services; or furnishing any service related to assisted reproduction or genetic testing.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, the above numbered condition.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of unlawful termination of a pregnancy. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of unlawful termination of a pregnancy.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. ## H:45.5 UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF A PREGNANCY (DEFENDANT'S OWN PREGNANCY)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “defendant’s own pregnancy,” as a defense to unlawful termination of a pregnancy.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. she committed the elements of the offense of unlawful termination of a pregnancy with regard to her own pregnancy.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, the above numbered condition.

2. no person suffered bodily injury, serious bodily injury, or death.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of fourth degree arson.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. ## H:47 FALSE IMPRISONMENT – THEFT INVESTIGATION

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “theft investigation,” as a defense to false imprisonment.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] was the owner or an employee of a store or mercantile establishment, [or a peace officer,] and
2. the alleged victim[s] triggered an alarm or a theft detection device or concealed upon his [her] [their] person or otherwise carried away any unpurchased goods, wares, or merchandise held or owned by the store or mercantile establishment, and
3. the defendant, acting in good faith and upon probable cause based upon reasonable grounds therefor, detained and questioned [insert name of alleged victim(s) here], in a reasonable manner, for the purpose of ascertaining whether he [she] [they] was [were] guilty of theft.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

2. See Instruction F:368 (defining “theft detection device”); Instructions 4-4:01 to 4-4:03 (theft).
3. Because the statute requires that the defendant’s “probable cause” be based on “reasonable grounds,” it appears that the use of this language in the instruction sufficiently explains the concept of “probable cause” such that it is not necessary to give a separate instruction defining the term pursuant to case law. See People v. Tottenhoff, 691 P.2d 340, 343 (Colo. 1984) (“Probable cause . . . exists when the facts and circumstances . . . are sufficient to warrant a person of reasonable caution to believe that an offense has been or is being committed by the person.”).

H:47.5 EQUITY SKIMMING OF REAL PROPERTY (FULL PAYMENT)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “full payment,” as a defense to equity skimming of real property.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

- [1. all deficiencies in all underlying encumbrances at the time of acquisition had been fully satisfied and brought current, and
  2. any regular payments on the underlying encumbrances during the succeeding nine months after the date of acquisition have been timely paid in full.]
- [1. any fees due to an association of real property owners for the upkeep of the housing facility, or common area including buildings and grounds thereof, of which the real property is a part have been paid in full.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, [at least one of] the above numbered condition[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of equity skimming of real property. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of equity skimming of real property.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict concerning the charge of equity skimming of real property must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

H:47.7 BIGAMY – REASONABLE BELIEF OR EXTENDED ABSENCE

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “reasonable belief or extended absence,” as a defense to bigamy.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. at the time of the cohabitation, subsequent marriage, or subsequent civil union,
- [2. the defendant reasonably believed the prior [spouse] [civil union partner] to be dead.]
- [2. the prior [spouse] [civil union partner] had been continually absent for a period of five years during which time the defendant did not know the prior [spouse] [civil union partner] to be alive.]
- [2. the defendant reasonably believed that he [she] was [legally eligible to remarry or legally eligible to enter into a civil union] [legally eligible to marry or legally eligible to enter into a civil union].]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of bigamy. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of bigamy.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your

H:48 CHILD ABUSE – SAFE SURRENDER OF A NEWBORN

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “safe surrender of a newborn,” as a defense to child abuse.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] was the child’s parent, and
2. the child was seventy-two hours old or younger at the time of the alleged offense, and
3. he [she] safely, reasonably, and knowingly handed the child over to a [firefighter, when the firefighter was at a fire station.] [staff member engaged in the admission, care, or treatment of patients at a hospital or community clinic emergency center, when the staff member was at a hospital or community clinic emergency center.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of child abuse. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of child abuse.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict concerning the charge of child abuse must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

H:49 LOCATING A PROTECTED PERSON – LAWFUL PURPOSE

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “lawful purpose,” as a defense to violation of a protection order.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. the person who was [hired] [employed] [, or otherwise contracted with to locate or assist in the location of the protected person, was working pursuant to an agreement with [counsel for defendant] [defendant, who was representing himself [herself]], and
- [2. the defendant sought discovery of the location of the protected person for a lawful purpose as specified in a written agreement between the person doing the locating and [defendant] [defendant’s counsel], and
3. the written agreement stated that the location of the protected person would not be disclosed to defendant by the person doing the locating [or by defendant’s counsel] unless the protected person agreed to the disclosure in writing or the defendant obtained court permission to obtain disclosure of the location for the stated lawful purpose.]
- [2. the defendant was a defendant in a criminal case or a party to a [civil case] [an action for dissolution of marriage] [, or other legal proceeding], and
3. the written agreement stated that the lawful purpose for locating the protected person was to interview or issue a lawful subpoena or summons to the protected person [or for any other lawful purpose relating to the proper investigation of the case.]]

a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of violation of a protection order. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of violation of a protection order.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict concerning the charge of violation of a protection order must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

Nevertheless, the Committee has included the word "written" in the second alternative because it is implied by the context (specifically, the reference to what the agreement "states").

H:49.3 FALSE IMPRISONMENT OF AN AT-RISK PERSON (PHYSICALLY RESTRAINING) – PROMOTED WELFARE

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “promoted welfare,” as a defense to false imprisonment of an at-risk person (physically restraining).

- [2. at the time of the attack by the dangerous dog which caused [injury to] [the death of] a person, the victim of the attack was committing or attempting to commit [insert name of criminal offense, other than a petty offense], against a person on the owner’s property or the property itself and the attack began, but did not necessarily end, upon such property.]
- [2. the person who was the victim of the attack by the dangerous dog tormented, provoked, abused, or inflicted injury upon the dog in such an extreme manner which resulted in the attack.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of unlawful ownership of a dangerous dog. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of unlawful ownership of a dangerous dog.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict concerning the charge of unlawful ownership of a dangerous dog must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

1. See § 18-9-204.5(3)(h)(I)(A)-(E), (II), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:84 (defining "dangerous dog"); Instruction F:107 (defining "domestic animal"); Instruction F:256 (defining "owner"); Instruction F:332 (defining "serious bodily injury"); Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt).
3. Because all of the provisions of 18-9-204.5(3)(h)(I)(A)-(E) speak in terms of an "attack," it appears that the affirmative defenses in this instruction apply only when the allegation of dangerousness is based on section 18-9-204.5(2)(b)(I), C.R.S. 2020 ("'Dangerous dog' means any dog that . . . [i]nflicts bodily or serious bodily injury upon or causes the death of a person or domestic animal"). Accordingly, it appears that these affirmative defenses would not be available where the allegations of dangerousness are based on section 18-9-204.5(2)(b)(II), C.R.S. 2020 (demonstrated dangerous tendencies). However, where the evidence of demonstrated dangerous tendencies involves evidence of a prior attack, it may be appropriate to draft a special instruction apprising the jury of the principles embodied in these affirmative defense instructions.

4. Depending on the evidence, it may be necessary to define “animal fighting.” See Instruction 9-2:06 (animal fighting); Instruction 9-2:07.SP (animal fighting – special instruction). If the defendant is not charged with animal fighting, give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. Place the elemental instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense.

5. Where the evidence supports instructing the jury concerning more than one subsection of section 18-9-204.5(3)(h)(I)(A)-(E), use a separate instruction (with two numbered conditions) for each relevant subsection.

6. The dangerous dog statute includes additional exemptions from criminal liability. See § 18-9-204.5(6), C.R.S. 2020 (exempting, among other things, herding dogs and those dogs that are used by peace officers). However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction encompassing these exemptions.

2. In People v. Carbajal, 2014 CO 60, ¶ 1, 328 P.3d 104, 105, the supreme court held that the trial court had not erred when it “modified the stock jury instruction regarding this affirmative defense and instructed the jury that Carbajal must have possessed the weapons to defend against what he ‘reasonably believed to be a threat of imminent harm.’” Reviewing its prior decisions, the court explained that the trial court’s imposition of this imminence requirement was proper because imminence is a statutory component of the choice of evils defense and, “under [People v. Blue, 544 P.2d 385 (Colo. 1975)] and [People v. Ford, 568 P.2d 26 (Colo. 1977)], the POWPO affirmative defense is the statutory defense of choice of evils.” Carbajal, ¶ 21, 328 P.3d at 109. Further, in a footnote, the court observed:

The choice of evils defense also requires that the conduct in which the defendant was engaged be necessary to avoid a harm “which is about to occur by reason of a situation occasioned or developed through no conduct of the [defendant].” § 18-1-702(1). The instruction in this case did not explain this requirement to the jury. To the extent that omitting this element of the defense was error, however, it inured to Carbajal’s benefit.

Carbajal, ¶ 21 n.5, 328 P.3d at 109 n.5. Accordingly, the model instruction includes the above language that was omitted from the instruction in Carbajal.

However, in Carbajal the court was not called upon to address the applicability of the following provision of the choice of evils defense: “and which is of sufficient gravity that, according to ordinary standards of intelligence and morality, the desirability and urgency of avoiding the injury clearly outweigh the desirability of avoiding the injury sought to be prevented by the statute defining the offense in issue.” § 18-1-702(1), C.R.S. 2020. And the Committee has elected to refrain from expressing an opinion concerning this issue. See also § 18-1-702(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“When evidence relating to the defense of justification under this section is offered by the defendant, before it is submitted for the consideration of the jury, the court shall first rule as a matter of law whether the claimed facts and circumstances would, if established, constitute a justification.”).

H:65 POSSESSION OF A HANDGUN BY A JUVENILE – PERMISSIBLE PURPOSE

- [1. he [she] was in attendance at a hunter’s safety course or a firearms safety course.]
- [1. he [she] was engaging in practice in the use of a firearm or target shooting,
  2. at an established range authorized by the governing body of the jurisdiction in which such range was located or any other area where the discharge of a firearm was not prohibited.]
- [1. he [she] was engaging in an organized competition involving the use of a firearm or participating in or practicing for a performance by [insert name of a group organized under 501(c)(3) as determined by the federal internal revenue service] which uses firearms as a part of such performance.]
- [1. hunting or trapping pursuant to a valid [insert description a license pursuant to article 4 of title 33, C.R.S.] issued to him [her].]
- [1. traveling with any handgun in his [her] possession,
  2. being unloaded,
  3. to or from any [insert description of activity described in subparagraph (I), (II), (III), or (IV) of section 18-12-108.5(2)(a)].]
- [1. he [she] was on real property under the control of his [her] parent, legal guardian, grandparent, and

2. he [she] had the permission of his [her] parent, legal guardian, to possess a handgun.]
- [1. he [she] was at his [her] residence, and
2. with the permission of his [her] [parent] [legal guardian,
3. possessed a handgun for the purpose of exercising the right [insert a description of the right of self-defense, as defined by section 18-1-704, or of the right to use deadly force against an intruder, as defined by section 18-1-704.5].]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, [at least one of] the above numbered condition[s].

H:66 UNLAWFULLY PROVIDING A HANDGUN OR FIREARM TO A JUVENILE OR PERMITTING A JUVENILE TO POSSESS A HANDGUN OR FIREARM – PHYSICAL HARM FROM ATTEMPT TO DISARM

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “physical harm from attempt to disarm,” as a defense to [unlawfully providing a [handgun] [firearm] to a juvenile] [permitting a juvenile to possess a [handgun] [firearm]].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] believed that the juvenile would physically harm him [her] if he [she] attempted to disarm the juvenile or prevent the juvenile from unlawfully possessing a handgun.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, the above numbered condition.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

- [1. the transfer was of [an antique firearm] [a curio or relic].]
- [1. the transfer was a bona fide gift or loan between immediate family members (which are limited to spouses, parents, children, siblings, grandparents, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, first cousins, aunts, and uncles).]

  2. it occurred while in the home of the unlicensed transferee, and
  3. the unlicensed transferee was not prohibited from possessing firearms, and
  4. the unlicensed transferee reasonably believed that possession of the firearm was necessary to prevent imminent death or serious bodily injury to the unlicensed transferee.]
- [1. the transfer was a temporary transfer of possession,
  2. without transfer of ownership or a title to ownership,

[1. the transfer was made to facilitate the repair or maintenance of the firearm, and

2. all parties who possessed the firearm as a result of the transfer could legally possess a firearm.]

[1. the transfer was a temporary transfer that occurred while in the continuous presence of the owner of the firearm.]

[1. the transfer was a temporary transfer for not more than seventy-two hours.]

3. When instructing the jury concerning the "repair or maintenance" exception of section 18-12-112(6)(f), draft a special instruction explaining the relevant portion(s) of the following provisions:

An owner, manager, or employee of a business that repairs or maintains firearms may rely upon a transferor's statement that he or she may legally possess a firearm unless the owner, manager, or employee has actual knowledge to the contrary and may return possession of the firearm to the transferor upon completion of the repairs or maintenance without a background check.

Unless a transferor of a firearm has actual knowledge to the contrary, the transferor may rely upon the statement of an owner, manager, or employee of a business that repairs or maintains firearms that no owner, manager, or employee of the business is prohibited from possessing a firearm.

4. Although section 18-12-112(6) states that the enumerated exceptions apply to the “provisions of this section,” it appears that all of the exceptions are intended to address conduct by a transferor in violation of section 18-12-112(1)(a), (9)(a).

H:67.2 UNLAWFUL SALE, TRANSFER, OR POSSESSION OF A LARGE-CAPACITY MAGAZINE – LAWFUL OWNERSHIP

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “lawful ownership,” as a defense to unlawful sale, transfer, or possession of a large-capacity magazine.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] owned the large-capacity magazine on July 1, 2013, and
2. he [she] maintained continuous possession of the large-capacity magazine.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of unlawful sale, transfer, or possession of a large-capacity magazine. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of unlawful sale, transfer, or possession of a large-capacity magazine.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict concerning the charge of unlawful sale, transfer, or possession of a large-capacity magazine must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

H:67.4 ILLEGAL POSSESSION OR CONSUMPTION OF ETHYL ALCOHOL OR MARIJUANA BY AN UNDERAGE PERSON; ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF MARIJUANA PARAPHERNALIA BY AN UNDERAGE PERSON – REPORTING AN EMERGENCY

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “reporting an emergency” as a defense to [illegal possession or consumption of ethyl alcohol by an underage person] [illegal possession or consumption of marijuana by an underage person] [illegal possession of marijuana paraphernalia by an underage person].

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] called 911 and reported in good faith that another underage person was in need of medical assistance due to alcohol or marijuana consumption, and
2. he [she] called 911 and provided his [her] name to the 911 operator, and
3. he [she] was the first person to make the 911 report, and
4. he [she] remained on the scene with the underage person in need of medical assistance until assistance arrived and cooperated with medical assistance or law enforcement personnel on the scene.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

H:67.6 CRIMINAL USURY – RATE NOT EXCESSIVE

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “rate not excessive,” as a defense to criminal usury.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. at the time of making the loan finance charge it could not have been determined by a mathematical computation that the annual percentage rate would exceed an annual percentage rate of forty-five percent; or the loan finance charge was not in excess of an annual percentage rate of forty-five percent when the rate of the finance charge was calculated on the unpaid balance of the debt on the assumption that the debt was to be paid according to its terms and was not paid before the end of the agreed term, and
2. the provisions relating to the loan finance charge were set forth in a written agreement signed by all the parties and such written agreement was submitted to the court and the district attorney at least ten days prior to trial.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

H:67.8 COLLECTION OF PROHIBITED FEES BY A LOAN FINDER – EXEMPT PERSON OR ORGANIZATION

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “exempt person or organization,” as a defense to collection of prohibited fees by a loan finder.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. the defendant was [a supervised financial organization or one of its employees, acting within the scope of his [her] employment] [a person duly licensed to make supervised loans] [a business development corporation] [a licensed pawnbroker, acting as such] [a governmental entity or employee thereof, acting in his [her] official capacity] [a mortgage broker, acting as such].

H:68 MEDICAL MARIJUANA

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “medical marijuana,” as a defense to [possession] [cultivation] [distribution] [use] [transfer] [sale] [of] [dispensing] [manufacturing] [processing] marijuana.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. [the defendant was] [the defendant was a primary care-giver for] a patient who had been previously diagnosed by a physician as having a debilitating medical condition, and
2. the [defendant] [patient] had been advised by his [her] physician, in the context of a bona fide physician-patient relationship, that he [she] might benefit from the medical use of marijuana in connection with a debilitating medical condition, and
3. the [defendant] [patient] and [his [her] primary care-giver] [defendant] were collectively in possession of no more than two ounces of a usable form of marijuana, and no more than six marijuana plants (with three or fewer being mature flowering plants that were producing a usable form of marijuana) [, or a larger quantity of marijuana that was medically necessary to address the [defendant’s] [patient’s] debilitating medical condition][.]

[, and]

- [_. the [defendant] [patient] did not engage in the medical use of marijuana in a way that endangered the health or well-being of any person, or in plain view of, or in a place open to, the general public[.]]

[, and]

- [_. the [defendant] [patient] was not under the age of eighteen, or, if he [she] was under the age of eighteen, all of the following conditions had been satisfied: two physicians had diagnosed the [defendant] [patient] as having a debilitating medical condition; one of the diagnosing physicians had explained the possible risks and benefits of medical use of marijuana to the [defendant] [patient] and each of the [defendant's] [patient's] parents residing in Colorado; the diagnosing physicians had provided the [defendant] [patient] with the original or a copy of written documentation stating that the [defendant] [patient] had been diagnosed with a debilitating medical condition and the diagnosing physician's conclusion that the [defendant] [patient] might benefit from the medical use of marijuana; each of the [defendant's] [patient's] parents residing in Colorado had consented in writing to the state health agency to permit the [defendant] [patient] to engage in the medical use of marijuana; a parent residing in Colorado had consented in writing to serve as a [defendant's] [patient's] primary care-giver; a parent serving as a primary care-giver had submitted a complete application for a registry identification card to the state health agency (which must have included (a) the original or a copy of written documentation stating that the [defendant] [patient] had been diagnosed with a debilitating medical condition and the physician's conclusion that the patient might benefit from the medical use of marijuana; (b) the name, address, date of birth, and social security number of the [defendant] [patient]; (c) the name, address, and telephone number of the [defendant's] [patient's] physician; (d) the name and address of the [defendant's] [patient's] primary care-giver, if one was designated at the time of application; and (e) the written parental consent(s) described above)); and the state health agency had approved the [defendant's] [patient's] application and had transmitted the [defendant's] [patient's] registry identification card to the parent designated as a primary care-giver; and the primary care-giver was controlling the acquisition of marijuana and the dosage and frequency of its use by the [defendant] [patient][.]

[, and]

- [_. the [defendant] [patient] did not fraudulently represent a medical condition to a physician, state health agency, or state or local law enforcement official for the purpose of falsely obtaining a registry identification card or for the purpose of avoiding arrest and prosecution; fraudulently use or commit theft of any person's registry identification card to acquire, possess, produce, use, sell, distribute, or transport marijuana (including, but not limited to, a card that was required to be returned where the patient was no longer diagnosed as having a debilitating medical condition); fraudulently produce, counterfeit, or tamper with one or more registry identification cards; or, without the written authorization of the marijuana registry patient, release or make public any confidential record or any confidential information contained in any such record that was provided to or by the marijuana registry of the state health agency[.]]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [possession] [cultivation] [distribution] [use] [transfer] [sale] [of] [dispensing] [manufacturing] [processing] marijuana. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [possession] [cultivation] [distribution] [use] [transfer] [sale] [of] [dispensing] [manufacturing] [processing] marijuana.

In that event, your verdict concerning the charge of [possession] [cultivation] [distribution] [use] [transfer] [sale] [of] [dispensing] [manufacturing] [processing] marijuana must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

Const. Art. XVIII, § 14(1)(h) (defining “state health agency” in a manner that is consistent with the use of the term “the department” in section 18-18-406.3, C.R.S. 2020).

3. When a defendant raises this affirmative defense as a primary care-giver, use the bracketed language referring to the “patient.”

4. In a case where the defendant was a registry patient and the prosecution alleges that the defendant engaged in a fraudulent activity prohibited by section 18-18-406.3(2)–(5), C.R.S. 2020, evidence proving the fraudulent activity will necessarily establish that the defendant acted knowingly. However, in a case where the defendant asserting the affirmative defense was a primary care-giver for a patient who allegedly engaged in a fraudulent activity prohibited by section 18-18-406.3(2)–(5), C.R.S. 2020, it is unclear whether the court should instruct the jury that, in order to disprove the affirmative defense, the prosecution must establish that the defendant had knowledge of the fraud. See also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

5. See People v. Fioco, 2014 COA 22, ¶¶ 13–24, 342 P.3d 530, 533 (holding, as a matter of first impression, that the medical marijuana affirmative defense did not apply to a defendant who obtained a physician’s assessment and certification of medical necessity after he committed the offense).

6. In 2016, the General Assembly amended section 18-18-406(3)(b)(I), C.R.S. 2020, to read, “It is not a violation of this subsection (3) if . . . [t]he person is lawfully cultivating medical marijuana pursuant to the authority granted in section 14 of article XVIII of the state constitution in an enclosed and locked space” (emphasis added). See Ch. 247, sec. 1, § 18-18-406(3)(b)(I), 2016 Colo. Sess. Laws 1017, 1017. Because this instruction already encompasses the affirmative defense authorized by the Colorado Constitution, the Committee has not drafted an affirmative defense instruction specific to the statute. Furthermore, because the constitutional defense applies regardless of whether the space is enclosed or locked – and because the statute cannot constitutionally narrow the breadth of this defense – the Committee has not included the “enclosed or locked space” language in its instruction.

7. Section 18-18-406(3.5) provides: “A person is not in compliance with the authority to assist another individual granted in section 14(2)(b) . . . of article XVIII of the state constitution . . . if the person possesses any marijuana plant he or she is growing on behalf of another individual, unless he or she is the primary caregiver for the individual and is in compliance with the requirements of section 25-1.5-106.” The Committee expresses no opinion regarding whether section 18-18-406(3.5) validly limits the affirmative defense set forth in section 14(2)(b) of article XVIII of the state constitution.

8. In 2015, the committee added Comment 5, citing to People v. Fioco.

9. In 2016, the Committee added Comment 6.

10. In 2017, the Committee added Comment 7 pursuant to new legislation, and it renumbered the subsequent elements. See Ch. 401, sec. 2, § 18-18-406(3.5), 2017 Colo. Sess. Laws 2090, 2091.

H:69 RECREATIONAL MARIJUANA

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “recreational marijuana” as a defense to [possession] [cultivation] [distribution] [use] [transfer] [sale] [of] [dispensing] [manufacturing] [processing] marijuana.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] was twenty-one years of age or older, and
- [2. possessed, used, displayed, purchased, or transported marijuana accessories or one ounce or less of marijuana.]
- [2. possessed, grew, processed, or transported no more than six marijuana plants, with three or fewer being mature, flowering plants, and possessed the marijuana produced by the plants on the premises where the plants were grown, provided that the growing took place in an enclosed, locked space, was not conducted openly or publicly, and was not made available for sale, and
3. if the cultivation area was located in a residence where a person under twenty-one years of age lived, the cultivation area itself was enclosed and locked; or, if the cultivation area was located in a residence where no person under twenty-one years of age lived, the residence had external locks and, if a person under twenty-one years of age entered the residence, defendant ensured that access to the cultivation site was reasonably restricted for the duration of that person’s presence in the residence.]
- [2. transferred one ounce or less of marijuana without remuneration to a person who was twenty-one years of age or older.]
- [2. consumed marijuana, provided that the consumption was not conducted openly and publicly or in a manner that endangered others.]

- [2. assisted another person who was twenty-one years of age or older in [insert act(s) described in Colo. Const. Art. XVIII, § 16(3)(a)-(d)].]
- [2. manufactured, possessed, or purchased marijuana accessories, or sold marijuana accessories to a person who was twenty-one years of age or older.]
- [2. possessed, displayed, or transported marijuana or marijuana products; purchased marijuana from a marijuana cultivation facility; purchased marijuana or marijuana products from a marijuana product manufacturing facility; or sold marijuana or marijuana products to consumers, and
3. had obtained a current, valid license to operate a retail marijuana store or was acting in his [her] capacity as an owner, employee or agent of a licensed retail marijuana store.]
- [2. cultivated, harvested, processed, packaged, transported, displayed, or possessed marijuana; delivered or transferred marijuana to a marijuana testing facility; sold marijuana to a marijuana cultivation facility, a marijuana product manufacturing facility, or a retail marijuana store; or purchased marijuana from a marijuana cultivation facility, and
3. had obtained a current, valid license to operate a marijuana cultivation facility or was acting in his [her] capacity as an owner, employee, or agent of a licensed marijuana cultivation facility.]
- [2. packaged, processed, transported, manufactured, displayed, or possessed marijuana or marijuana products; delivered or transferred marijuana or marijuana products to a marijuana testing facility; sold marijuana or marijuana products to a retail marijuana store or a marijuana product manufacturing facility; purchased marijuana from a marijuana cultivation facility; or purchased marijuana or marijuana products from a marijuana product manufacturing facility, and

3. had obtained a current, valid license to operate a marijuana product manufacturing facility or was acting in his [her] capacity as an owner, employee, or agent of a licensed marijuana product manufacturing facility.]
- [2. possessed, cultivated, processed, repackaged, stored, transported, displayed, transferred or delivered marijuana or marijuana products, and
3. had obtained a current, valid license to operate a marijuana testing facility or was acting in his [her] capacity as an owner, employee, or agent of a licensed marijuana testing facility.]
- [2. leased or otherwise allowed the use of property owned, occupied or controlled by any person, corporation or other entity for [insert activity or activities described in Colo. Const. Art. XVIII, § 16(4)(a)-(e)].]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of [possession] [cultivation] [distribution] [use] [transfer] [sale] [of] [dispensing] [manufacturing] [processing] marijuana. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of [possession] [cultivation] [distribution] [use] [transfer] [sale] [dispensing] [manufacturing] [processing] [of] marijuana.

verdict concerning the charge of [possession] [cultivation] [distribution] [use] [transfer] [sale] [of] [dispensing] [manufacturing] [processing] marijuana must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

H:71 RETAIL DELIVERY OF METHAMPHETAMINE PRECURSOR DRUGS TO A MINOR (REASONABLE RELIANCE ON IDENTIFICATION)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “reasonable reliance on identification,” as a defense to retail delivery of methamphetamine precursor drugs to a minor.

H:73 DRIVING WITHOUT A VALID LICENSE (EMERGENCY OR EXEMPTION)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “emergency or exemption” as a defense to driving without a valid license.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. the defendant’s driving was necessary as an emergency measure to avoid an imminent public or private injury, and
  2. the injury was about to occur by reason of a situation occasioned or developed through no conduct of the defendant, and
  3. the injury was of sufficient gravity that, according to ordinary standards of intelligence and morality, the desirability and urgency of avoiding the injury clearly outweighed the desirability of avoiding the injury sought to be prevented by the statute prohibiting driving without a valid license.]
- [1. he [she] was [insert applicable exemption from section 42-2-102, C.R.S. 2020].]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, [at least one of] the above numbered condition[s].

H:74 SPEEDING (EMERGENCY)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “emergency” as a defense to speeding.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. the defendant’s speeding was necessary as an emergency measure to avoid an imminent public or private injury, and
2. the injury was about to occur by reason of a situation occasioned or developed through no conduct of the defendant, and
3. the injury was of sufficient gravity that, according to ordinary standards of intelligence and morality, the desirability and urgency of avoiding the injury clearly outweighed the desirability of avoiding the injury sought to be prevented by the statute prohibiting speeding.

H:75 DRIVING UNDER A RESTRAINT FROM ANOTHER STATE (VALID LICENSE ISSUED SUBSEQUENT TO RESTRAINT)

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “valid license issued subsequent to restraint,” as a defense to driving under a restraint from another state.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] possessed a valid driver’s license issued subsequent to the restraint that is the basis of the alleged violation.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, the above numbered condition.

The evidence presented in this case has raised the affirmative defense of “subsequent consumption of alcohol,” as a defense to driving with excessive alcohol content.

The defendant’s conduct was legally authorized if:

1. he [she] consumed alcohol between the time that he [she] stopped driving and the time that the testing occurred, and
2. the defendant’s B.A.C. of 0.08 or more was reached as a result of alcohol consumed by the defendant after he [she] stopped driving.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense, which is an essential element of driving a motor vehicle or vehicle with a B.A.C. of 0.08 or more at the time of driving, or within two hours thereafter. In that event, you must return a verdict of not guilty of driving a motor vehicle or vehicle with a B.A.C. of 0.08 or more at the time of driving, or within two hours thereafter.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by this defense. In that event, your verdict concerning the charge of driving a motor vehicle or vehicle with a B.A.C. of 0.08 or more at the time of driving, or within two hours thereafter must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of that offense.

COMMENT

1. See § 42-4-1301(2)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. In 2015, the Committee modified the first paragraph of the instruction and replaced a lengthy description of the offense (which previously read: “a motor vehicle or vehicle with a B.A.C. of 0.08 or more at the time of driving, or within two hours thereafter”) with the more concise description that appears in Instruction 42:13 (“driving with excessive alcohol content”).

In 2015, the Committee corrected the instruction by deleting the word “all” and substituting the words: “at least one of the above.”

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The instructions in this chapter apply to offenses committed on or after July 1, 1995. For offenses committed prior to that date, refer to earlier editions of COLJI-Crim.
2. When the jury is instructed concerning the affirmative defense of insanity, the following language should be included as the final element of the offense (and it should be numbered as a separate element, as shown in the example below, whether insanity is the only affirmative defense or an alternative to one of the other affirmative defenses, which are to be referenced using the “was not legally authorized” language that appears within the final bracketed element of each model elemental instruction):

_ . and that the defendant was not insane, as defined in Instruction ____.

3. This chapter is limited to the affirmative defense of insanity. In cases where the defendant enters a general plea of not guilty and mental condition evidence is admitted pursuant to section 16-8-107(1)(a) or section 16-8-107(1.5)(a), refer to Instruction D:04 (limiting instruction for evidence of the defendant's mental processes acquired during a court-ordered examination).

I:01 AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE OF INSANITY

The evidence in this case has raised the defense of insanity, as a defense to the crime[s] of [insert name of offense(s) here].

The defendant was insane at the time of the commission of the act[s] if:

1. he [she] was so diseased or defective in mind at the time of the commission of the act as to be incapable of distinguishing right from wrong with respect to that act; or
2. he [she] suffered from a condition of mind caused by a mental disease or defect that prevented him [her] from forming a culpable mental state that is an essential element of a crime charged.

But care should be taken not to confuse mental disease or defect with moral obliquity, mental depravity, or passion growing out of anger, revenge, hatred, or other motives and kindred evil conditions because, when an act is induced by any of these causes, the person is accountable to the law.

In addition, “diseased or defective in mind” does not refer to an abnormality manifested only by repeated criminal or otherwise antisocial conduct.

Similarly, “mental disease or defect” means only those severely abnormal mental conditions that grossly and demonstrably impair a person’s perception or understanding of reality and that are not attributable to the voluntary ingestion of alcohol or any other psychoactive substance. “Mental disease or defect” does not include an abnormality manifested only by repeated criminal or otherwise antisocial conduct.

The prosecution has the burden to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant was not insane at the time of the commission of the act[s]. In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, both of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden of proof, then the prosecution has failed to prove that the defendant was sane at the time of the commission of the act[s], which is an essential element of [insert name(s) of offense(s)]. In that event, you must find the defendant not guilty and have the foreperson sign the designated section of Part A of the verdict form[s] to indicate your verdict[s].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden of proof, then the prosecution has proved that the defendant was not insane at the time of the commission of the act[s]. In that event, your verdict[s] concerning the charge[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] must depend upon your determination whether the prosecution has met its burden of proof with respect to the remaining elements of [that] [those] offense[s].

COMMENT

1. See §§ 16-8-101.5(1)(a), (b), (2)(a), (b); 16-8-102(4.7), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instructions F:99 (defining “diseased or defective in mind,” which is incorporated into the elemental instruction above); Instruction F:183 (defining “insanity,” which is incorporated into the elemental instruction above); Instruction F:226 (defining “mental disease or defect,” which is incorporated into the elemental instruction above).
3. The phrase “incapable of distinguishing right from wrong” is not defined by statute. In People v. Serravo, 823 P.2d 128, 138-39 (Colo. 1992), the court provided the following guidance:

A clarifying instruction on the definition of legal insanity, therefore, should clearly state that, as related to the conduct charged as a crime, the phrase ‘incapable of distinguishing right from wrong’ refers to a person’s cognitive inability, due to a mental disease or defect, to distinguish right from wrong as measured by a societal standard of morality, even though the person may be aware that the conduct in question is criminal. Any such instruction should also expressly inform the jury that the phrase ‘incapable of distinguishing right from wrong’ does not refer to a purely personal and subjective standard of morality.

However, in People v. Galimanis, 944 P.2d 626, 631-32 (Colo. App. 1997), a division of the Court of Appeals rejected, as erroneous, the suggestion in the “Notes on Use” following COLJI-Crim. No. 3:10-A (1993 Supp.), that a “[Serravo clarifying instruction] must be given in all insanity cases.” The court reasoned as follows: “In context, it is apparent in Serravo that when the supreme court noted that a clarifying instruction on the definition of legal insanity ‘should clearly state’ that right from wrong is measured by a societal standard of morality, it was referring only to instances when a clarifying instruction was necessary.” Galimanis, 944 P.2d at 632. Further, applying this reading of Serravo to the facts of the case at hand, the division in Galimanis concluded that a clarifying instruction was not warranted because: (1) “defendant did not contend that his actions were justified under his own moral beliefs or moral code, nor did he assert that he was conscious that what he was doing was right or wrong, either legally or morally”; and (2) “he provided no evidence that he was commanded by God to kill the victim.” Id. at 631.

4. The term “moral obliquity” is not defined by statute. Although COLJI-Crim. 3:11-A (1993) and COLJI-Crim. F(164) (2008) defined the term based on language from People v. Serravo, 823 P.2d at 137, the court in Serravo did not hold that the term must be defined for the jury in every case. Accordingly, the division in People v. Galimanis, 944 P.2d at 632, held that the decision whether to submit a definitional instruction is a matter of trial court discretion: “The supreme court has determined that the words ‘depravity’ and ‘moral obliquity,’ while not used in everyday conversation, are well within the comprehension of a jury. Simms v. People, 482 P.2d 974 (Colo. 1971). Thus, the failure of a trial court to define these terms further does not constitute error.”

5. Section 16-8-105.5(3), C.R.S. 2020, appears to contemplate that any defendant asserting the defense will be charged with at least one felony. It is unclear whether the same procedure is to be used in the exceedingly rare case where a defendant who is charged only with misdemeanors raises the defense:

When the affirmative defense of not guilty by reason of insanity has been raised, the jury shall be given special verdict forms containing interrogatories. The trier of fact shall decide first the question of guilt as to felony charges that are before the court. If the trier of fact concludes that guilt has been proven beyond a reasonable doubt as to one or more of the felony charges submitted for consideration, the special interrogatories shall not be answered. Upon completion of its deliberations on the felony charges as previously set forth in this subsection (3), the trier of fact shall consider any other charges before the court in a similar manner; except that it shall not answer the special interrogatories regarding such charges if it has previously found guilt beyond a reasonable doubt with respect to one or more felony charges. The interrogatories shall provide for specific findings of the jury with respect to the affirmative defense of not guilty by reason of insanity.

Cf. People v. Collins, 752 P.2d 93, 97 (Colo. 1988) (declining to address, in a case construing a structurally similar provision of the predecessor statute, “the procedure to be followed pursuant to the statute when charges other than or in addition to felony charges are involved and the defendant is acquitted of all the felony charges”).

6. A division of the Court of Appeals has observed that “there would appear to be little if any reason to inform the jury of the presumption of sanity where . . . the defendant has effectively overcome the presumption by presenting evidence of insanity sufficient to allow the issue to go to the jury.” People v. Welsh, 176 P.3d 781, 786 (Colo. App. 2007) (trial court’s decision to give the jury an instruction explaining the presumption of sanity did not rise to the level of plain error); see also People v. Hill, 934 P.2d 821 (Colo. 1997) (rejecting the defendant’s contention that a jury instruction stating that the law presumes everyone to be sane effectively directed a verdict against him); People v. Bielecki, 964 P.2d 598, 606 (Colo. App. 1998)

(rejecting the defendant's contention that a jury instruction stating the presumption of sanity impermissibly shifted the burden of proof to him).

7. In People v. Bielecki, 964 P.2d at 605, the division held that "it was error to instruct the jury that if defendant was found guilty on any offense he could not be found not guilty by reason of insanity on any other offense." Significantly, the error recognized in Bielecki (which the division ultimately concluded was invited) was purely instructional. The division explicitly rejected the defendant's claim that the special interrogatory procedure mandated by section 16-8-105.5 imposed a similar restriction:

Construing a substantially identical statute on the affirmative defense of impaired mental condition, the supreme court held in Collins that the statute did not violate defendant's due process rights, or impermissibly preclude the jury from considering the impaired mental condition defense as to each offense charged, merely by providing that the jury need not answer the special interrogatories on impaired mental condition if it found the defendant guilty on any charge.

The Collins court explained that the purpose of the special interrogatories was to enable the trial court to determine whether an acquitted defendant should be (1) released outright or (2) committed for treatment because impaired mental condition was the sole reason for the acquittal. A finding of guilt on one or more felony counts rendered the interrogatories irrelevant since, once the jury had found the defendant guilty of a felony, he was subject to incarceration in the Department of Corrections at the trial court's discretion, and the reasons for finding him not guilty of other charges were no longer important.

8. See Instruction B:01, Comment 4 (in cases where the defendant enters a plea of "not guilty by reason of insanity," modify the paragraph of the introductory instruction that explains the defendant's plea).

9. See People v. Voth, 2013 CO 61 ¶ 37, 312 P.3d 144, 152-53 (“The language in subsection (1)(a) [of section 16-8-101.5] is unequivocal: A defendant need only be insane ‘at the time of the commission of the act.’ Similarly, the language in subsection (1)(b) implicitly limits the relevant period of insanity to the time of the offense by allowing defendants to assert insanity to negate the existence of criminal mens rea, which is necessarily tethered to the time of the alleged criminal conduct. Thus, although Colorado’s Criminal Code does not specifically recognize temporary insanity, the mental disease or defect underlying an insanity plea can be temporary in nature because the general insanity statute only requires that a defendant prove insanity at the time he or she committed the alleged crime.”).

10. The above model instruction is designed for cases where the jury is instructed concerning the definitions of insanity under both section 16-8-101.5(1)(a) and section 16-8-101.5(1)(b). In a case where only one of these definitions is submitted for the jury’s consideration, modify the second sentence of the burden-of-proof paragraph as follows: “In order to meet this burden of proof, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, the above numbered condition.”

I:02.INT AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE OF INSANITY – INTERROGATORY (ONE FELONY CHARGE)

If you found the defendant guilty of [insert the name of the felony charge], you should disregard the remainder of this instruction and sign Section A of the verdict form for that charge to indicate your verdict of guilty.

If, however, you found the defendant not guilty of [insert the name of the felony charge], you should sign Section A of the verdict form to indicate your verdict of not guilty, and you should also answer the following verdict question in Section B of the verdict form:

Did you find the defendant not guilty solely based on the defense of insanity? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The Court reminds you that the prosecution has the burden to prove beyond a reasonable doubt each element of the crime charged, including that the defendant was not insane at the time of the commission of the act.

If you decided that the only element of the crime charged that the prosecution failed to prove beyond a reasonable doubt is that the defendant was sane at the time of the commission of the act, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place in Section B of the verdict form, and have the foreperson sign the designated line in that section of the verdict form. If you decided that the prosecution failed to prove any other element beyond a reasonable doubt, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place in Section B of the verdict form, and have the foreperson sign the designated line in that section of the verdict form.

I:03.INT AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE OF INSANITY –

If you found the defendant guilty of one or more of the following charges [list, in the disjunctive, all felony charges], you should disregard the remainder of this instruction and sign Section A of the verdict form for each charge to indicate your verdict of guilty or not guilty on each charge.

If, however, you found the defendant not guilty of all of the following charges [list, in the conjunctive, all felony charges], you should sign Section A of the verdict form for each charge to indicate your verdict of not guilty, and you should also answer the following verdict question in Section B of the verdict form for each charge:

Did you find the defendant not guilty solely based on the defense of insanity? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The Court reminds you that the prosecution has the burden to prove beyond a reasonable doubt each element of the crime charged, including that the defendant was not insane at the time of the commission of the act.

COMMENT

I:04 INFORMATIONAL INSTRUCTION ON COMMITMENT PROCEDURE

This is an informational instruction and must have no persuasive bearing on the verdict[s] you arrive at under the evidence.

If a defendant is found not guilty by reason of insanity, it is the court's duty to commit the defendant to the Department of Human Services until such time as the court determines that the defendant no longer requires hospitalization because he [she] no longer suffers from a mental disease or defect which is likely to cause him [her] to be dangerous to himself [herself], to others, or to the community in the reasonably foreseeable future.

If a defendant is found not guilty by reason of insanity, he or she will never again be tried on the merits of the criminal charges filed against him or her.

COMMENT

1. In People v. Thomson, 591 P.2d 1031, 1032 (Colo. 1979), the supreme court reasoned that, because "[r]ecent studies and cases have recognized that today's juries are distracted from their fact finding function by their concern that a defendant will be returned to the community at large if found not guilty by reason of insanity," "a defendant who is relying on an insanity defense is entitled, upon request, to an instruction on commitment procedures." However, the court also directed trial courts to include the prefatory admonition that is set forth in the first paragraph of the above model instruction. Id. at 1032 n.1.

In Cordova v. People, 817 P.2d 66 (Colo. 1991), the court held, under the mental status statutes then in effect, that:

The fact that the defense of impaired mental condition is resolved in the trial on the defendant's not guilty plea, rather than in a separate trial as in the case of the insanity plea, provides no justification for refusing a defendant's request for an informational instruction on the consequences of a verdict of not guilty by reason of impaired mental condition.

Id. at 73. And the unitary trial procedure that is now in effect (which is based on a definition of insanity that includes the definition of “impaired mental condition” applicable to offenses committed before July 1, 1995) is the same as the unitary trial procedure that previously applied only to the then-distinct defense of impaired mental condition. See People v. Bielecki, 964 P.2d 598, 604–05 (Colo. App. 1998). Thus, under Cordova and Thompson, an instruction describing the commitment procedure remains mandatory (if requested by the defense). See People v. Tally, 7 P.3d 172, 184 (Colo. App. 1999).

2. The model instruction states that the court will make any future determination as to whether a defendant who is found not guilty by reason of insanity should be released. However, this disclosure is not mandated by Thomson. See People v. Tally, 7 P.3d at 184 (no error where the trial court refused to amend the Thomson instruction to include information concerning what entity would determine whether sanity had been restored, though “the giving of such an instruction would not have been improper”).

3. Although COLJI-Crim. I:06 (2008) advised the jury that commitment would occur if the defendant was found not guilty by reason of insanity “of all felony charges” (emphasis added), the Committee has concluded that the adjective in this phrase does not convey any meaningful information because courts do not advise juries which charges are felonies. Moreover, as discussed in Comment 5 to Instruction I:01, it is unclear how the procedure is to be modified if a defendant charged only with misdemeanors asserts an insanity defense. Accordingly, the model instruction no longer includes the phrase “all felony charges.”

4. The final paragraph of the instruction is derived from People v. Roark, 643 P.2d 756, 764-65 (Colo. 1982) (holding that this language would “merely serve to answer the question that would naturally arise from reading the preceding paragraph, i.e., whether the defendant could be tried on the issue of guilt after release from the state hospital following a verdict of not guilty by reason of insanity”).

I:05 LIMITING INSTRUCTION AS TO EVIDENCE OBTAINED DURING A COURT-ORDERED EXAMINATION (PLEA OF NOT GUILTY BY REASON OF INSANITY)

COMMENT

1. See § 16-8-105.5(3), C.R.S. 2020 (“When the affirmative defense of not guilty by reason of insanity has been raised, the jury shall be given special verdict forms containing interrogatories.”).
2. In a case where the defendant is charged with more than one felony, use a separate copy of this form for each charge.

3. If a jury deadlocks as to all felony charges, it appears that the statutory precondition to consideration of the insanity defense is not satisfied. Section 16-8-105.5(3), C.R.S. 2020, states that “[t]he trier of fact shall decide first the question of guilt as to felony charges that are before the court” (emphasis added).

4. Assuming that a defendant charged only with misdemeanors can raise the affirmative defense of not guilty by reason of insanity, a court in such circumstances should use a separate form for each charge and modify the directional language. However, the Committee expresses no opinion concerning how the directional language should be modified because it is unclear whether, in such a scenario, section 16-8-105.5(3) requires the court to instruct the jury that it is not to answer the insanity interrogatory if it finds the defendant guilty of any misdemeanor charge.

CULPABILITY BASED ON BEHAVIOR OF ANOTHER

J:01	LIABILITY FOR BEHAVIOR OF ANOTHER BY LAW
J:02	LIABILITY FOR BEHAVIOR OF AN INNOCENT PERSON
J:03	COMPLICITY
J:03.5.SP	COMPLICITY – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (MULTIPLE THEORIES OF LIABILITY)
J:04	DEFENSES THAT ARE NOT AVAILABLE WHEN CRIMINAL LIABILITY IS BASED ON THE BEHAVIOR OF ANOTHER

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The Committee added this chapter in 2018. Instructions J:02 and J:04 previously appeared in Chapter G1. Instructions J:01 and J:03.5.SP are newly created, while Instruction J:03 has been heavily modified.

J:01 LIABILITY FOR BEHAVIOR OF ANOTHER BY LAW

A person is legally accountable for the behavior of another person if he [she] is made accountable for the conduct of that person by a specific law.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-602(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction H:06 (affirmative defense of “defendant as victim or incidental actor”).
3. This instruction is distinct from complicity liability. Under a complicity theory of liability, the defendant may be found guilty of any crime (provided that it is charged) if the prosecution proves beyond a reasonable doubt all the conditions outlined in Instruction J:03, including that the defendant aided, abetted, advised, or encouraged another person in planning or committing that crime. See Instruction J:03. In contrast, this instruction only applies where a particular statute provides that a person can be legally culpable for another person’s criminal conduct.
4. The Committee added this instruction in 2018.

J:02 LIABILITY FOR BEHAVIOR OF AN INNOCENT PERSON

A person is legally accountable for the behavior of another person if he [she] acts with the mental state required for the commission of the offense and causes an “innocent person” to engage in such behavior.

For purposes of this instruction, an “innocent person” includes any person who is not guilty of the offense in question, despite his [her] behavior, because of [duress] [legal incapacity or exemption] [unawareness of the criminal nature of the conduct in question or of the defendant’s criminal purpose], or any other factor precluding the mental state required for the offense in question.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-602(1)(b), (2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction H:30 (affirmative defense of “duress”); see also People v. Moore, 877 P.2d 840, 841–42 n.5 (Colo. 1994) (observing, in dicta, that because the defendant “forced [his wife] to sexually assault their twelve-year-old daughter,” he “could have been convicted of sexual assault on a child under § 18-1-602”).
3. Although section 18-1-602(2) does not specify what type of “exemption” from criminal liability would qualify an actor as an “innocent person,” it appears this is a reference to exemptions such as self-defense, execution of a public duty under authority of law, etc.
4. In 2018, the Committee moved this instruction from Chapter G1, where it had been numbered G1:03.

J:03 COMPLICITY

Complicity is not a separate crime. Rather, it is a legal theory by which the defendant may be found guilty of a crime that was committed by another person.

For the defendant to be guilty as a complicitor of the crime of [insert offense], as defined at the end of this Instruction, the prosecution must prove each of the following conditions beyond a reasonable doubt:

1. Another person committed the crime of [insert offense], as defined at the end of this Instruction, and
2. the defendant, with the desire or the purpose or design to aid, abet, advise, or encourage the other person in planning or committing that crime,
3. aided, abetted, advised, or encouraged the other person in planning or committing that crime, and
- [4. the defendant was aware of all of the elements of that crime, as defined at the end of this Instruction.]
- [4. the defendant was aware of element numbers [identify the appropriate elements, e.g., “1, 2, and 4” – see Comment 2] of that crime, as defined at the end of this Instruction.]
- [5. and the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

For purposes of this Instruction, another person committed the crime of [insert offense] if the prosecution proves each of the following elements beyond a reasonable doubt:

1. That the other person,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place at issue,
3. [insert remaining elements of the offense].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the conditions of complicity liability beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of [insert offense].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the conditions of complicity liability beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of [insert offense].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-603, C.R.S. 2020.

2. Regarding the bracketing of the fourth element: Under Colorado law, complicity liability demands that the defendant must have been aware of either some or all of the elements of the principal's underlying crime, depending on the crime. More specifically, the defendant must have been aware of "those elements of the offense describing the prohibited act itself and the circumstances surrounding its commission, including a required mental state, if any." See People v. Childress, 2015 CO 65M, ¶ 29, 363 P.3d 155, 164. But the defendant need not have been aware of "any element requiring that such act have a particular effect, or cause a particular result." See id. Therefore, if one of the elements of the underlying crime involves an act having a particular effect or causing a particular result, the court should use the second bracketed alternative, and it should omit that element number from its numbering of the relevant elements. Otherwise, the court should use the first bracketed alternative.

For example, suppose the defendant is tried as a complicitor of extreme-indifference murder, a crime which requires proof that the prohibited act had a particular effect or caused a particular result – element number 6 of extreme-indifference murder is: "thereby caused the death of another." See Instruction 3-1:04. In drafting the instruction for complicity liability, the court should use the second bracketed alternative in the fourth element, and it should specify that the defendant must have been aware of element numbers "1, 2, 3, 4, and 5" (i.e., not element number 6). On the other hand, if the defendant is tried as a complicitor of third-degree burglary, a crime which does not require proof that the prohibited act had a particular effect or caused a particular result, see Instruction 4-2:06, the court should use the first bracketed alternative in the fourth element.

3. Childress provides that the complicitor must act with “the intent, in the commonly understood sense of desiring or having a purpose or design, to aid, abet, advise, or encourage the principal in his criminal act or conduct.” Id. (emphasis added). Because jurors may find themselves separately instructed on the definition of the culpable state of mind of intent, see Instruction F:185, the Committee has opted to use the phrase “the desire or the purpose or design,” instead of “intent,” in the second element to avoid potential confusion.

4. Because complicity is a theory of liability rather than a separate crime itself, the Committee notes that in certain circumstances, the court may need to instruct the jury on both complicity liability and principal liability with respect to the same crime. This situation would arise if: (1) the prosecution asks the court to give a complicity instruction – whereby the jury could find the defendant guilty of committing the crime as a complicitor – in addition to the more typical elemental instruction of the underlying crime – whereby the jury could find the defendant guilty of committing the crime himself or herself (i.e., as a principal); and (2) the evidence supports giving both instructions. When the prosecution requests that the jury be instructed on the two alternative theories of liability with respect to the same crime, the court should determine as a matter of law whether the evidence warrants submitting both theories of liability to the jury on that crime. If the court determines that instructions on both theories of liability are warranted, it should ask the jury to consider the two theories of liability separately. See Instruction J:03.5.SP.

5. In cases where the theory of complicity liability extends to lesser offenses (whether included or nonincluded), the court should modify the instruction to make this clear. See, e.g., Grissom v. People, 115 P.3d 1280, 1288 (Colo. 2005) (defendant, charged as complicitor, was entitled to an instruction, under a complicity theory of liability, on the lesser-included offense).

6. See Instruction H:07 (timely warning as an affirmative defense to complicity liability).
7. + See People v. Jackson, 2018 COA 79, ¶¶ 67–68, 474 P.3d 60, 74–75 (rejecting the defendant’s argument that the court should have provided separate complicity instructions for each offense because “the court instructed the jury that each count charged ‘a separate and distinct offense’ and that ‘the evidence and the law applicable to each count had to be considered separately, uninfluenced by [the jury’s] decision as to any other count’” (alteration in original)), aff’d, 2020 CO 75.
8. Earlier versions of the complicity liability instruction required the court to give an additional instruction defining the elements of the underlying crime. This version does not require a separate instruction defining the elements of the underlying crime because it includes language identifying the elements of the underlying crime.
9. If the court decides to instruct the jury on the theory of complicity liability with respect to multiple crimes, it should provide a separate complicity liability instruction for each crime.
10. Previously, the Committee had developed two different complicity liability instructions, which had appeared in Chapter G1 and were numbered G1:06 and G1:07. In 2018, the Committee consolidated those two instructions into this single instruction, which, pursuant to Childress, extensively modifies the two previous instructions.
11. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 7.

J:03.5.SP COMPLICITY – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (MULTIPLE THEORIES OF CULPABILITY)

The prosecution alleges that the defendant is guilty of the crime of [insert relevant offense] as a principal or as a complicitor. You have received separate instructions regarding these two theories of liability: Instruction ___ describes the principal theory of liability, and Instruction ___ describes the complicity theory of liability. You should consider the two theories separately. Your determination of whether the defendant is guilty of the above-referenced crime as a principal should not affect your determination of whether the defendant is guilty of the above-referenced crime as a complicitor. Similarly, your determination of whether the defendant is guilty of the above-referenced crime as a complicitor should not affect your determination of whether the defendant is guilty of the above-referenced crime as a principal.

You may find the defendant not guilty of the above-referenced crime under both theories of liability – principal liability and complicity liability. Or you may find the defendant guilty of the above-referenced crime as a principal, as a complicitor, or as both a principal and a complicitor.

COMMENT

1. The court should only give this instruction when the prosecution is pursuing multiple theories of liability on the same crime and the court finds that the evidence warrants submitting to the jury both theories of liability on that crime.
2. If the prosecution is pursuing multiple theories of liability on multiple crimes, the court should give a particularized version of this special instruction for each crime. See Instruction J:03, Comment 9.
3. The Committee added this instruction in 2018.

J:04 DEFENSES THAT ARE NOT AVAILABLE WHEN CRIMINAL LIABILITY IS BASED ON THE BEHAVIOR OF ANOTHER

If the defendant's criminal liability is based upon the behavior of another, it is no defense to the crime of [insert name(s) of crime(s) here] that [the other person has not been prosecuted for or convicted of any crime based upon the behavior in question] [the other person has been convicted of a different crime] [the other person was legally incapable of committing the crime in an individual capacity].

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1-605, C.R.S. 2020 (this provision, enumerating unavailable defenses, applies "[i]n any prosecution for an offense in which criminal liability is based upon the behavior of another pursuant to sections 18-1-601 to 18-1-604").
2. In 2018, the Committee moved this instruction here from Chapter G1, where it had been numbered G1:08.

CHAPTER 1.3

CRIME OF VIOLENCE SENTENCE ENHANCEMENT INTERROGATORIES

1.3:01.INT	CRIME OF VIOLENCE – INTERROGATORY (DEADLY WEAPON)
1.3:02.INT	CRIME OF VIOLENCE – INTERROGATORY (SERIOUS BODILY INJURY OR DEATH)
1.3:03.INT	CRIME OF VIOLENCE – INTERROGATORY (AT- RISK ADULT OR JUVENILE)
1.3:04.INT	CRIME OF VIOLENCE – INTERROGATORY (FELONY UNLAWFUL SEXUAL OFFENSE; THREAT, INTIMIDATION, FORCE, OR BODILY INJURY)
1.3:05.INT	CRIME OF VIOLENCE – INTERROGATORY (DANGEROUS WEAPON OR SEMIAUTOMATIC ASSAULT WEAPON)

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The primary crime of violence sentence enhancement provision, § 18-1.3-406(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020, is applicable to a wide array of enumerated offenses, and it is also potentially applicable to numerous other offenses by virtue of the provision pertaining to at-risk victims. See § 18-1.3-406(2)(a)(II)(A), C.R.S. 2020 (any crime involving a deadly weapon or infliction of serious bodily injury or death is a crime of violence if committed against an at-risk adult or at-risk juvenile). Accordingly, rather than include crime of violence interrogatories in multiple chapters of model elemental instructions, the Committee consolidated the model crime of violence interrogatories in this chapter. Further, in light of the statutory pleading requirements that govern the crime of violence sentence enhancement provisions, see § 18-1.3-406(3), (5), (7), C.R.S. 2020, the Committee elected not to include cross-referencing citations to these interrogatories as part of the comments that follow the model elemental instructions for substantive offenses.

2. In cases involving complicity, it may be appropriate to modify one or more crime of violence interrogatory by adding the words “or a complicitor” immediately after “the defendant.” See People v. Swanson, 638 P.2d 45, 50 (Colo. 1981) (“The mandatory sentence for conviction of crime of violence is based on a recognition of the increased potential for harm arising from the manner in which the crime was committed. This heightened danger is present regardless of which robber held the gun. We conclude therefore that an accessory to crime of violence may be charged, tried and punished as a principal.”). However, no such modification should be made to 1.3:03.INT (at-risk adult or juvenile), because that interrogatory is focused exclusively on the status of the victim (and thus does not include the words “the defendant”).

1.3:01.INT CRIME OF VIOLENCE – INTERROGATORY (DEADLY WEAPON)

If you find the defendant not guilty of [insert name of offense from section 18-1.3-406(2)(a)(II)(A)-(K)], you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of [insert name of offense from section 18-1.3-406(2)(a)(II)(A)-(K)], you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant use, or possess and threaten the use of, a deadly weapon? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant used, or possessed and threatened the use of, a deadly weapon only if:

1. the defendant used, or possessed and threatened the use of, a deadly weapon,
2. during the [commission of] [attempted commission of] [conspiracy to commit] [insert name of offense from section 18-1.3-406(2)(a)(II)(A)-(K)], or in the immediate flight therefrom.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1.3-406(2)(a)(I)(A), (4), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:88 (defining “deadly weapon”); Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt); Instruction G2:05 (conspiracy); see, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. In the context of felony murder, the supreme court has held that “the scope of immediate flight is a factual question for a jury to decide because immediate flight differs according to the unique facts and circumstances of each case, such as the time and distance between the felony and the killing.” Auman v. People, 109 P.3d 647, 659 (Colo. 2005). Although the phrase “in the immediate flight therefrom” is not defined by statute, the supreme court has interpreted it as follows:

According to the plain language of the immediate flight provision of the statute, there are four limitations on liability for felony murder when a death occurs during flight from the predicate felony.

First, the flight from the predicate felony must be “immediate,” which requires a close temporal connection between the predicate felony, the flight, and the resulting death. See Webster’s New World College Dictionary 713 (4th ed. 1999) (defining “immediate” as “without delay” or “of the present time”).

Second, the word “flight” limits felony-murder liability in such cases to those circumstances in which death is caused while a participant is escaping or running away from the predicate felony. Id. at 541 (defining “flight” as “a fleeing from . . . to run away”).

Third, the death must occur either “in the course of” or “in furtherance of” immediate flight, so that a defendant commits felony murder only if a death is caused during a participant’s immediate flight or while a person is acting to promote immediate flight from the predicate felony. See id. at 333 (defining “in the course of” as “in the progress or process of; during”); and id. at 575 (defining “furtherance” as “a furthering, or helping forward; advancement; promotion”).

Fourth, the immediate flight must be “therefrom,” indicating that the flight must be from the predicate felony, as opposed to being from some other episode or event.

Auman v. People, 109 P.3d at 656; see also People v. Fuentes, 258 P.3d 320, 327 (Colo. App. 2011) (applying the immediate flight standard of Auman and holding that: “[T]he first degree burglary statute requires that the entry, the assault, and the flight be close in time and that the assault occur while fleeing from the building or occupied structure. A person therefore commits an assault in immediate flight from a building where the assault is part of a continuous integrated attempt to get away from the building.”).

1.3:02.INT CRIME OF VIOLENCE – INTERROGATORY (SERIOUS BODILY INJURY OR DEATH)

If you find the defendant not guilty of [insert name of offense from section 18-1.3-406(2)(a)(II)(A)-(K)], you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of [insert name of offense from section 18-1.3-406(2)(a)(II)(A)-(K)], you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant cause serious bodily injury or death? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant caused serious bodily injury or death only if:

1. the defendant caused serious bodily injury or death to any person except another participant,
2. during the [commission of] [attempted commission of] [conspiracy to commit] [insert name of offense from section 18-1.3-406(2)(a)(II)(A)-(K)], or in the immediate flight therefrom.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

1.3:03.INT CRIME OF VIOLENCE – INTERROGATORY (AT-RISK ADULT OR JUVENILE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of [insert name of crime], you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of [insert name of crime], and you also find that the defendant [used, or possessed and threatened the use of, a deadly weapon] [caused serious bodily injury or death] you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the victim a person with protected status? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The victim was a person with protected status only if:

- [1. the victim was seventy years of age or older.]
- [1. the victim was eighteen years of age or older, and
2. was a person with a disability.]
- [1. the victim was under the age of eighteen years, and
2. was a person with a disability.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove [the] [each] numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of [insert name of felony unlawful sexual offense], you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant use threat, intimidation, or force against the victim, or cause bodily injury to the victim? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant used threat, intimidation, or force against the victim, or caused bodily injury to the victim, only if:

1. the defendant used threat, intimidation, or force against the victim or caused the victim physical pain, illness, or any impairment of physical or mental condition.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

Did the defendant use a dangerous weapon or semiautomatic assault weapon? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant used a dangerous weapon or semiautomatic assault weapon only if:

1. the defendant used a firearm silencer, machine gun, short shotgun, short rifle, ballistic knife, or any semiautomatic center fire firearm that was equipped with a detachable magazine with a capacity of twenty or more rounds of ammunition.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

3-1:01 MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE (AFTER DELIBERATION)

The elements of the crime of murder in the first degree (after deliberation) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. after deliberation, and
4. with the intent,
5. to cause the death of a person other than himself [herself],
6. caused the death of that person or of another person.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree (after deliberation).

2. See Instruction F:10 (defining "after deliberation"); Instruction F:185 (defining "intentionally" and "with intent"); Instruction F:267 (defining "person," when referring to the victim of a homicide).

3. In People v. Lowe, 660 P.2d 1261, 1271 (Colo. 1983), abrogated on other grounds by Callis v. People, 692 P.2d 1045 (Colo. 1984), the supreme court outlined the following procedural steps as being necessary “to insure that the intent of the [first-degree murder] statute is preserved and to make clear the effect of our decision”:

The prosecution should be allowed to charge multiple theories of first-degree murder in separate counts. The prosecution may, but should not be required to, elect among theories after the evidence is closed. If there is sufficient evidence in the record, all theories charged should be submitted to the jury for a special verdict. The jury should be informed that the defendant is charged with one crime, first-degree murder. The jury’s special verdict should indicate which theories of first-degree murder, if any, have been proved by the evidence.

Id. (footnotes omitted). Further, the court provided an example of a special verdict form that would have been “appropriate” for the case at hand (where the defendant was charged with murder after deliberation and felony-murder by reason of sexual assault on a child):

I. We, the jury, find the defendant, [insert name], NOT GUILTY of first-degree murder.

Foreperson

II. We, the jury, find the defendant, [insert name], GUILTY of first-degree murder and further find that

(1) the defendant, [insert name], [ ] committed first-degree murder after deliberation;

(2) the defendant, [insert name], [ ] committed first-degree murder by felony murder.

Foreperson

The foreperson should sign only one of the above (I or II). If the verdict is NOT GUILTY, then I. above should be signed. If the verdict is GUILTY, then II. above should be signed.

If you find the defendant guilty of the crime charged, the foreperson must complete this GUILTY verdict by placing an "X" in the appropriate square(s). Either one or both squares shall be filled in.

Id. at 1271 n.14 (modified to include a colon and bracketed insertion points for the defendant's name).

In People v. Glover, 893 P.2d 1311, 1315 (Colo. 1995), the supreme court stated that, "[u]nder Lowe and [People v. Bartowsheski, 661 P.2d 235 (Colo. 1983)], when a defendant has been convicted on two different counts of first-degree murder for a single homicide, the convictions should be vacated, and the trial court should be directed to enter as many convictions and impose as many sentences as are legally possible to fully effectuate the jury's verdict." However, in Candelaria v. People, 148 P.3d 178 (Colo. 2006), the court explained that the pronouncement in Glover should be understood within the procedural context of that case:

In Glover, where the trial court refused to reach the merits of the defendant's postconviction challenge to a special finding of murder after deliberation, on the ground that his mittimus reflected a generic first degree murder conviction, which was also supported by a special finding of felony murder, we held that the trial court should have amended the mittimus to reflect a conviction for first degree deliberate murder and should have entertained the defendant's postconviction challenge because a third conviction for the underlying felony of robbery required the court to maximize sentences by vacating the defendant's conviction for the greater offense of felony murder, while retaining his convictions for deliberate murder and robbery. We nowhere suggested that entry of a single, generic first degree murder conviction, as prescribed by People v. Lowe, 660 P.2d 1261, 1270–71 (Colo. 1983), would not be proper in the absence of such a merger or, for that matter, that the jury’s special finding of felony murder could not still be relied on in maximizing the defendant’s sentence, if he were to successfully challenge his conviction for deliberate murder.

Id. at 184 n.4 (emphasis added).

4. In the sixth element, insert the name of the person who was killed when submitting more than one count of first degree murder after deliberation.

5. The Committee has not drafted a separate instruction for the offense defined by section 18-3-107(1), C.R.S. 2020 (first degree murder of a peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical service provider engaged in the performance of his or her duties). + To submit an instruction for that offense, add the following element: “the victim was a peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical service provider, engaged in the performance of his or her duties.” See Instruction F:119 (defining “emergency medical service provider”); Instruction F:124 (defining “engaged in the performance of his [her] duties”); F:157 (defining “firefighter”); Instruction F:263 (defining “peace officer”).

6. See Martinez v. People, 2015 CO 16, ¶ 11, 344 P.3d 862, 867 (“The trial court in this case erroneously instructed the jury that ‘after deliberation’ means an interval of time ‘sufficient for one thought to follow another.’ The prosecution culled this language from an 1895 case, Van Houten v. People, that considered how quickly premeditation can occur in the first-degree murder context. More recently, however, this court has rejected the Van Houten language as inconsistent with the element of deliberation that the current first-degree murder statute requires.” (citation omitted)).

7. + See People v. Jackson, 2020 CO 75, ¶¶ 21, 43, 472 P.3d 553, 559, 563 (holding that, because Colorado’s first-degree murder statute “deems the identity of the person harmed immaterial to the issue of intent and holds a perpetrator just as liable when he kills an unintended victim as when he kills his intended victim,” the doctrine of transferred intent is “unnecessary” in first-degree murder cases, as the statute “accomplishes directly that which the doctrine purports to accomplish indirectly via a legal fiction”; further holding that attempted first-degree murder is a lesser included offense of first-degree murder).

8. In 2015, the Committee added Comment 6, citing to Martinez v. People, supra.

9. In 2016, the Committee modified the parenthetical quotation in Comment 5 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 353, sec. 1, § 18-1.3-401(4)(b)(I), 2016 Colo. Sess. Laws 1447, 1447.

10. + In 2020, the Committee revised Comment 5, and it added Comment 7.

3-1:02 MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE (FELONY MURDER)

The elements of the crime of murder in the first degree (felony murder) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. acting alone or with one or more persons,
4. committed or attempted to commit [insert name(s) of qualifying offense(s) enumerated in section 18-3-102(1)(b)], and
5. in the course of or in furtherance of the crime of [insert name(s) of qualifying offense(s) enumerated in § 18-3-102(1)(b)] that he [she] was committing or attempting to commit, or in the immediate flight therefrom,
6. the death of a person, other than one of the participants, was caused by anyone.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree (felony murder).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of murder in the first degree (felony murder).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-102(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:267 (defining “person,” when referring to the victim of a homicide); Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt).
3. Provide the jury with an elemental instruction defining the qualifying offense(s) referenced in the fourth and fifth elements. In addition, if a qualifying crime incorporates the definition of another crime, provide the jury with an elemental instruction that fully defines the subsidiary offense. See Auman v. People, 109 P.3d 647, 671 (Colo. 2005) (reversing felony murder conviction premised on second degree burglary conviction because of error in jury instruction that defined theft for purposes of second degree burglary).
4. See Instruction 3-1:01, Comment 3 (explaining how to instruct the jury when the prosecution charges multiple theories of first-degree murder in separate counts).
5. See Instruction 3-1:01, Comment 5 (discussing first degree murder of a peace officer or firefighter engaged in the performance of his or her duties).
6. See Instruction H:41 (disengagement as an affirmative defense to felony murder).
7. “[T]he scope of immediate flight is a factual question for a jury to decide because immediate flight differs according to the unique facts and circumstances of each case, such as the time and distance between the felony and the killing.” Auman v. People, 109 P.3d 647, 659 (Colo. 2005). Although the phrase “in the immediate flight therefrom” is not defined by statute, the supreme court has interpreted it as follows:

According to the plain language of the immediate flight provision of the statute, there are four limitations on liability for felony murder when a death occurs during flight from the predicate felony.

First, the flight from the predicate felony must be “immediate,” which requires a close temporal connection between the predicate felony, the flight, and the resulting death. See Webster’s New World

College Dictionary 713 (4th ed. 1999) (defining “immediate” as “without delay” or “of the present time”).

Second, the word “flight” limits felony-murder liability in such cases to those circumstances in which death is caused while a participant is escaping or running away from the predicate felony. Id. at 541 (defining “flight” as “a fleeing from . . . to run away”).

Third, the death must occur either “in the course of” or “in furtherance of” immediate flight, so that a defendant commits felony murder only if a death is caused during a participant’s immediate flight or while a person is acting to promote immediate flight from the predicate felony. See id. at 333 (defining “in the course of” as “in the progress or process of; during”); and id. at 575 (defining “furtherance” as “a furthering, or helping forward; advancement; promotion”).

Fourth, the immediate flight must be “therefrom,” indicating that the flight must be from the predicate felony, as opposed to being from some other episode or event.

Auman v. People, 109 P.3d at 656; see also People v. Fuentes, 258 P.3d 320, 327 (Colo. App. 2011) (applying the immediate flight standard of Auman and holding that: “[T]he first degree burglary statute requires that the entry, the assault, and the flight be close in time and that the assault occur while fleeing from the building or occupied structure. A person therefore commits an assault in immediate flight from a building where the assault is part of a continuous integrated attempt to get away from the building.”).

8. See People v. Doubleday, 2016 CO 3, ¶ 26, 364 P.3d 193, 197 (“[T]o establish that a defendant has committed or attempted to commit a predicate offense so as to support a felony murder conviction, the prosecution must prove beyond a reasonable doubt all elements of that predicate offense, including the inapplicability of any properly asserted affirmative defense.”).

9. In 2017, the Committee added Comment 8.

3-1:03 MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE (EXECUTION BASED UPON PERJURY)

The elements of the crime of murder in the first degree (execution based upon perjury) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. procured the conviction and execution,
  4. of any innocent person,
  5. by perjury or subornation of perjury.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree (execution based upon perjury).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of murder in the first degree (execution based upon perjury).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-102(1)(c), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Provide the jury with an instruction defining the offense of perjury. See Instructions 8-5:01, 8-5:03.
3. The term "subornation" is not defined by statute. See Black's Law Dictionary, 1653 (10th ed. 2014) (defining "subornation of perjury" as the “crime of persuading another to commit perjury; the act of procuring a witness to testify falsely”).

4. The term procure is not defined by statute for purposes of this offense. See Webster’s Third New International Dictionary 1809 (2002) (defining “procure” as meaning “to cause to happen or be done: bring about”).

5. See Instruction 3-1:01, Comment 3 (explaining how to instruct the jury when the prosecution charges multiple theories of first-degree murder in separate counts).

6. See Instruction 3-1:01, Comment 5 (discussing first degree murder of a peace officer or firefighter engaged in the performance of his or her duties).

3-1:04 MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE (EXTREME INDIFFERENCE)

The elements of the crime of murder in the first degree (extreme indifference) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. under circumstances evidencing an attitude of universal malice manifesting extreme indifference to the value of human life generally,
  5. engaged in conduct which created a grave risk of death to a person, or persons, other than himself [herself], and
  6. thereby caused the death of another.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree (extreme indifference).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of murder in the first degree (extreme indifference).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-102(1)(d), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:267 (defining “person,” when referring to the victim of a homicide).
3. In the fifth element, the absence of bracketing for the terms “person, or persons,” is deliberate. See Candelaria v. People, 148 P.3d 178, 181-83 (Colo. 2006) (observing that “‘extreme indifference’ murder . . . has a rich history of evolution in statutory and case law,” and tracing those developments to explain why the court has consistently held that the amended version of section 18-3-102(d) now in effect “necessarily comprehends killing acts that put at grave risk a number of individuals not targeted by the defendant, as well as acts putting at risk a single victim, without knowing or caring who that may be”); see also People v. Anderson, 2019 CO 34, ¶¶ 15, 22, 442 P.3d 76, 79, 81 (holding that extreme indifference murder involves “a killing act objectively demonstrating a willingness to take life indiscriminately,” meaning it is not limited to conduct endangering multiple people).
4. See Instruction 3-1:01, Comment 3 (explaining how to instruct the jury when the prosecution charges multiple theories of first-degree murder in separate counts).
5. See Instruction 3-1:01, Comment 5 (discussing first degree murder of a peace officer or firefighter engaged in the performance of his or her duties).
6. “Universal malice” is not defined by statute. See Candelaria v. People, 148 P.3d at 181; People v. Jefferson, 748 P.2d 1223, 1228 (Colo. 1988); Longinotti v. People, 102 P. 165, 168 (Colo. 1909).
7. See Montoya v. People, 2017 CO 40, ¶ 16, 394 P.3d 676, 683 (holding that the mens rea of “knowingly” governs both actions required for extreme indifference murder – i.e., (1) engaging in conduct which created a grave risk of death to a person or persons, and (2) causing the death of another – but that in any event, “knowingly engaging in [conduct which created a grave risk of death] and thereby causing the death of a person or persons is the equivalent of knowingly causing the death of another”).

8. In 2015, the Committee modified the first sentence of Comment 6 by deleting the words “the above definition was developed through case law.”
9. In 2017, the Committee added Comment 7.
10. In 2019, the Committee added the citation to Anderson in Comment 3.

3-1:05 MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE (CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE ON SCHOOL GROUNDS)

The elements of the crime of murder in the first degree (controlled substance on school grounds) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. committed unlawful distribution, dispensation, or sale of a controlled substance,
4. to a person under the age of eighteen years,
5. on school grounds, and
6. the death of such person was caused by the use of such controlled substance.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree (controlled substance on school grounds).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of murder in the first degree (controlled substance on school grounds).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-102(1)(e), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:73 (defining “controlled substance” by referring users to the statutory schedules that are identified in section § 18-18-102(5), C.R.S. 2020); Instruction F:254 (defining “on school grounds”); Instruction F:267 (defining “person,” when referring to the victim of a homicide).
3. In the third element, the absence of bracketing is deliberate. See § 18-18-405(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020 (defining an offense that includes, among other types of conduct that are not incorporated by section 18-3-102(1)(e), unlawful distribution, dispensation, or sale of a controlled substance); People v. Abiodun, 111 P.3d 462, 466 (Colo. 2005) (“The one-sentence proscription [in section 18-18-405(1)(a)] is structured as a series of acts, with reference to the same controlled substance and governed by a common mens rea. The acts chosen for specific inclusion are not themselves mutually exclusive but overlap in various ways and cover a continuum of conduct from the production of a controlled substance to its delivery to another person, under any of a number of circumstances.”).
4. See Instruction 3-1:01, Comment 3 (explaining how to instruct the jury when the prosecution charges multiple theories of first-degree murder in separate counts).

3-1:06 MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE (CHILD UNDER TWELVE; POSITION OF TRUST)

The elements of the crime of murder in the first degree (child under twelve; position of trust) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. caused the death of a child who had not yet attained twelve years of age, and
  5. the defendant was in a position of trust with respect to the child.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree (child under twelve; position of trust).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of murder in the first degree (child under twelve; position of trust).

3-1:07 MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE

The elements of the crime of murder in the second degree are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. caused the death of another person.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of murder in the second degree.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of murder in the second degree.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-103(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:267 (defining “person,” when referring to the victim of a homicide).
3. See People v. Archuleta, 2017 COA 9, ¶¶ 40, 45, 411 P.3d 233, 241 (holding that the trial court did not misstate the law when, in defining “cause” in the context of causing another’s death, it stated that “a defendant must take his victim as he finds him, and it is no defense that the victim was suffering from preexisting physical ailments, illnesses, injuries, conditions or infirmities”).
4. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 3.

3-1:08.INT MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE – INTERROGATORY (PROVOKED AND SUDDEN HEAT OF PASSION)

If you find the defendant not guilty of second degree murder, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of second degree murder, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the defendant acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant was acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion only if:

1. the act causing the death was performed upon a sudden heat of passion,
2. caused by a serious and highly provoking act of the intended victim,
3. affecting the defendant sufficiently to excite an irresistible passion in a reasonable person, and
4. between the provocation and the killing, there was an insufficient interval of time for the voice of reason and humanity to be heard.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant was not acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion. In order to meet this burden, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should find that the defendant was acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion, mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should find that the defendant was not acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion, mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-103(3)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. + See Instruction 3-1:08.5.SP (special instruction – gender identity or expression or sexual orientation).
4. See Cassels v. People, 92 P.3d 951, 956 (Colo. 2004) (“A provocation instruction is warranted whenever a defendant shows some supporting evidence – regardless of how incredible, unreasonable, improbable, or slight it may be – to establish each factor described in subsection (3)(b) of the second-degree murder statute.”); People v. Garcia, 28 P.3d 340, 346 (Colo. 2001) (when a provocation instruction is given, it must make clear that the prosecution bears the burden of proving a lack of provocation).
5. Although the supreme court has held, in People v. Brighi, 755 P.2d 1218, 1221 (Colo. 1988), that a trial court was without authority to enter a judgment of conviction for mitigated second degree assault where the jury was deadlocked with respect to the heat of passion interrogatory, it is unclear if this aspect of the holding in Brighi was dependent on an erroneous characterization of heat of passion as an element of mitigated second degree assault. See Rowe v. People, 856 P.2d 486, 490 (Colo. 1993) (“We disapprove of footnote two in People v. Brighi, 755 P.2d 1218, 1221 (Colo. 1988), to the extent that it suggests that heat of passion is an element of second-degree assault.”). Nevertheless, Brighi is still good authority for the proposition that a trial court has discretion to inquire whether a jury is deadlocked as to the charge, or as to the heat of passion mitigator. See generally Instruction E:18, Comments 1–4 (Supplemental Instruction—When Jurors Fail to Agree).

However, the Committee expresses no opinion concerning what level judgment of conviction a trial court should enter where a jury is unanimous as to guilt and firmly deadlocked as to heat of passion. This remains an unanswered question in Colorado. See People v. Ramirez, 56 P.3d 89, 93 n.7 (Colo. 2002) (upholding a conviction for second degree murder and concluding that, because there was no evidence to support a heat of passion interrogatory, it was unnecessary to decide whether (1) the court of appeals had correctly returned the case to the trial court for resentencing, reasoning that the absence of a jury finding concerning the heat of passion mitigator afforded the defendant the benefit of the assumption that the jury intended the lesser felony; or (2) the prosecution should instead have the option to retry the defendant on the charge of second degree murder); see also People v. Harris, 797 P.2d 816 (Colo. App. 1990) (because the jury found the defendant guilty of first degree assault and neglected to check a box on the verdict form indicating whether he had acted under a heat of passion, the court was required to enter a finding that he had in fact acted under a heat of passion).

6. See People v. Tardif, 2017 COA 136, ¶¶ 24–25, 433 P.3d 60, 66 (holding that, where the defendant testified that he “didn’t really process anything” but “just more or less acted” in shooting the victim, the evidence supported giving the heat of passion instruction).

7. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 6.

8. + In 2020, pursuant to new legislation, the Committee added Comment 3—citing to a newly created special instruction—and renumbered the subsequent comments. See Instruction 3-1:08.5.SP, Comment 3.

+ 3-1:08.5.SP MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE, SUDDEN HEAT OF PASSION – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (GENDER IDENTITY OR EXPRESSION OR SEXUAL ORIENTATION)

If you find the defendant not guilty of second-degree murder, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of second-degree murder, you have been separately instructed to determine whether the defendant was acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion. You are hereby instructed that the defendant’s act did not constitute an act performed upon a sudden heat of passion if it resulted solely from the discovery of, knowledge about, or potential disclosure of the victim’s actual or perceived gender, gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation, including but not limited to under circumstances in which the victim made an unwanted nonforcible romantic or sexual advance toward the defendant.

3-1:09 MANSLAUGHTER (RECKLESS)

The elements of the crime of manslaughter are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. recklessly,
4. caused the death of another person.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of manslaughter.

3-1:10 MANSLAUGHTER (CAUSED OR AIDED SUICIDE)

The elements of the crime of manslaughter are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. intentionally,
4. caused or aided another person to commit suicide.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of manslaughter.

3-1:12 VEHICULAR HOMICIDE (RECKLESS)

The elements of the crime of vehicular homicide are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. operated or drove a motor vehicle,
  4. in a reckless manner, and
  5. such conduct was the proximate cause of the death of another.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of vehicular homicide.

3-1:13 VEHICULAR HOMICIDE (UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF ALCOHOL AND/OR DRUGS)

The elements of the crime of vehicular homicide are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. operated or drove a motor vehicle,
4. while under the influence of alcohol or one or more drugs, or a combination of both alcohol and one or more drugs, and
5. such conduct was the proximate cause of the death of another.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of vehicular homicide.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of vehicular homicide.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-106(1)(b)(I), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:109 (defining "driving under the influence"); Instruction F:236 (defining "motor vehicle"); Instruction F:252 (defining "one or more drugs").
3. Sections 18-3-106(1)(b)(I), (IV) (vehicular homicide) and 18-3-205(1)(b)(I), (IV) (vehicular assault), apply to a person who "operates or drives a motor vehicle while under the influence." (Emphasis added.) By contrast, the traffic offense of driving under the influence (DUI) does not include a reference to operation; rather, the DUI statute specifies that it is unlawful for a person who is under the influence “to drive a motor vehicle or vehicle.” § 42-4-1301(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020 (emphasis added). Because neither “drive” nor “operate” is defined by statute (either in the criminal code, or in the traffic code), a court exercising its discretion to draft a supplemental definitional instruction should refer to precedent:

We have held that “drive” means to exercise “actual physical control” over a motor vehicle. People v. Swain, 959 P.2d 426, 429, 431 (1998) (so holding in context of a DUI case where defendant’s keys were in the ignition and the truck’s radio was playing, but defendant was asleep or passed out in the front seat); Brewer v. Motor Vehicle Div., Dep’t of Revenue, 720 P.2d 564, 566–67 (Colo. 1986) (holding under the express consent statute that driving means being “in actual physical control” of a motor vehicle and is not limited to “placing and controlling a vehicle in motion”). The term “operate” is somewhat broader, connoting the action of causing something “to occur . . . [or] to cause to function usually by direct personal effort.” People v. Gregor, 26 P.3d 530, 532 (Colo. Ct. App. 2000) (quoting Webster’s Third New International Dictionary 1580–81 (1986)).

Further, although the phrase “driving under the influence” is defined identically for purposes of sections 18-3-106(1)(b)(I), (IV)(vehicular homicide) and 18-3-205(1)(b)(I), (IV) (vehicular assault), the wording of that shared definition is slightly different from the definition of “driving under the influence” that appears as part of the traffic code in section 42-4-1301(1)(f), C.R.S. 2020. Compare Instruction F:109 (defining “driving under the influence” (vehicular homicide and vehicular assault)), with Instruction F:110 (defining “driving under the influence” (traffic code)). And there are significant differences between the definition of a “motor vehicle” in section 18-1-901(3)(k), C.R.S. 2020, and the definition of that same term that appears in section 42-1-102(58), C.R.S. 2020. Compare Instruction F:236 (defining “motor vehicle” for Title 18), with Instruction F:239 (defining “motor vehicle” for Title 42).

Finally, there are two internal inconsistencies within the statutory sections that define the criminal offenses of vehicular homicide and vehicular assault.

First, although sections 18-3-106(1)(b)(I) and 18-3-205(1)(b)(I) apply only to motor vehicles, the definitions of “driving under the influence” in sections 18-3-106(1)(b)(IV) and 18-3-205(1)(b)(IV) speak in terms of driving “a vehicle,” with no references to motorization. In cases involving vehicles that are indisputably motorized, this discrepancy will be inconsequential. However, in a case where there is a controversy concerning whether the vehicle in question was motorized, the court should add the word “motor” to the statutory definition that appears in Instruction F:109.

Second, as noted above, sections 18-3-106(1)(b)(I) and 18-3-205(1)(b)(I) both apply to a person who “operates or drives” (emphasis added) a motor vehicle while under the influence. Yet neither “operate” nor “operating” is included as part of the definition of “driving under the influence” in sections 18-3-106(1)(b)(I) and 18-3-205(1)(b)(I). In cases involving only an allegation of “driving,” this discrepancy will be inconsequential. However, in other situations, the statutory definition that appears in Instruction F:109 may need to be modified as follows: (1) in a case involving only an allegation of operation, by substituting “operating” for “driving”; and (2) in a case involving an allegation of operation and/or driving, by adding the word “operating.”

4. In 2015, the Committee corrected two statutory citations in Comment 3.

3-1:14.SP VEHICULAR HOMICIDE – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (BLOOD OR BREATH ALCOHOL LEVEL)

As to the charge of vehicular homicide, the amount of alcohol in the defendant's blood or breath at the time of the alleged offense, or within a reasonable time thereafter, as shown by analysis of the defendant's blood or breath, gives rise to the following:

(a) Presumption:

It shall be presumed that the defendant was not under the influence of alcohol if there was at such time 0.05 or less grams of alcohol per one hundred milliliters of blood, or if there was at such time 0.05 or less grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath.

A presumption requires you to find a fact, as if it had been established by evidence, unless the presumption is rebutted by evidence to the contrary.

(b) Evidentiary Consideration:

If there was at such time more than 0.05 but less than 0.08 grams of alcohol per one hundred milliliters of blood, or if there was at such time more than 0.05 but less than 0.08 grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath, such fact may be considered with other competent evidence in determining whether or not the defendant was under the influence of alcohol.

(c) Permissible inference:

A permissible inference that the defendant was under the influence of alcohol may be drawn if there was at such time 0.08 or more grams of alcohol per one hundred milliliters of blood, or if there was at such time 0.08 or more grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that an evidentiary consideration or a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-106(2)(a)-(c), C.R.S. 2020.

3-1:15.SP VEHICULAR HOMICIDE – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (DELTA 9-TETRAHYDROCANNABINOL LEVEL)

As to the charge of vehicular homicide, a permissible inference that the defendant was under the influence of one or more drugs may be drawn if the amount of delta 9-tetrahydrocannabinol in the defendant's blood at the time of the alleged offense, or within a reasonable time thereafter, as shown by analysis of the defendant's blood, was five nanograms or more per milliliter in whole blood.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

3-1:16.INT VEHICULAR HOMICIDE – INTERROGATORY (IMMEDIATE FLIGHT FROM THE COMMISSION OF ANOTHER FELONY)

If you find the defendant not guilty of vehicular homicide, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of vehicular homicide, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant commit the vehicular homicide while in immediate flight from another crime? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant committed the vehicular homicide while in immediate flight from another crime only if:

1. the defendant committed the vehicular homicide while in immediate flight from the commission of [insert name(s) of felony offense(s)].

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-1.3-401(8)(g), C.R.S. 2020 (“If the defendant is convicted of class 4 or class 3 felony vehicular homicide under section 18-3-106(1)(a) or

(1)(b), and while committing vehicular homicide the defendant was in immediate flight from the commission of another felony, the court shall be required to sentence the defendant to the department of corrections for a term of at least the midpoint in the presumptive range but not more than twice the maximum term authorized in the presumptive range for the punishment of the class of felony vehicular homicide of which the defendant is convicted.”).

The elements of the crime of assault in the first degree (deadly weapon) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent,
4. to cause serious bodily injury to another person,
5. caused serious bodily injury to any person,
6. by means of a deadly weapon.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of assault in the first degree (deadly weapon).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of assault in the first degree (deadly weapon).

COMMENT

3-2:02 ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE (PERMANENT DISFIGUREMENT)

The elements of the crime of assault in the first degree (permanent disfigurement) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. with intent,
  4. to disfigure another person seriously and permanently, or to destroy, amputate, or disable permanently a member or organ of another person's body,
  5. caused such an injury to any person.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of assault in the first degree (permanent disfigurement).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of assault in the first degree (permanent disfigurement).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-202(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent").

3. In People v. Dominguez, 568 P.2d 54, 55 (Colo. 1977), the supreme court declared section 18-3-202(1)(b) unconstitutional because it imposed a higher penalty for essentially the same conduct proscribed in section 18-3-203(1)(a). However, in 1994 the General Assembly cured the infirmity by repealing section 18-3-203(1)(a). See Ch. 287, sec. 8, § 18-3-203(1)(a), 1994 Colo. Sess. Laws 1717.

3-2:03 ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE (EXTREME INDIFFERENCE)

The elements of the crime of assault in the first degree (extreme indifference) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. under circumstances manifesting extreme indifference to the value of human life,
5. engaged in conduct which created a grave risk of death to another person, and
6. thereby caused serious bodily injury to any person.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of assault in the first degree (extreme indifference).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of assault in the first degree (extreme indifference).

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:332 (defining "serious bodily injury").

3. See People v. Esparza-Treto, 282 P.3d 471, 480 (Colo. App. 2011) (trial court did not abuse its discretion by rejecting proffered jury instruction defining the terms “extreme indifference” and “grave risk of death” for purposes of assault in the first degree; both terms are ones which reasonable persons of common intelligence would be familiar with, and the jury indicated no confusion about their meaning).

3-2:04 ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE (PEACE OFFICER, FIREFIGHTER, OR EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICE PROVIDER)

The elements of the crime of assault in the first degree (peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical service provider) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent,
4. to cause serious bodily injury upon the person of a peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical service provider,
5. threatened with a deadly weapon a peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical service provider engaged in the performance of his [her] duties, and
6. the defendant knew, or reasonably should have known, that the victim was a peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical service provider acting in the performance of his [her] duties.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of assault in the first degree (peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical service provider).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of assault in the first degree (peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical service provider).

4. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 3.

3-2:05 ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE (JUDGE OR OFFICER OF COURT)

The elements of the crime of assault in the first degree (judge or officer of court) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. with intent,
  4. to cause serious bodily injury upon the person of a judge or an officer of a court of competent jurisdiction,
  5. threatened with a deadly weapon a judge or an officer of a court of competent jurisdiction, and
  6. the defendant knew, or reasonably should have known, that the victim was a judge or an officer of a court of competent jurisdiction.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of assault in the first degree (judge or officer of court).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of assault in the first degree (judge or officer of court).

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. while lawfully confined or in custody, as a result of being charged with or convicted of a crime or as a result of being charged or adjudicated as a delinquent child, and
4. with intent,
5. to cause serious bodily injury to a person employed by or under contract with a detention facility, or to a person employed by the division in the department of human services responsible for youth services and who is a youth services counselor or is in the youth services worker classification series,
6. threatened such a person with a deadly weapon,
7. while such a person was engaged in the performance of his [her] duties, and
8. the defendant knew, or reasonably should have known, that the person was engaged in the performance of his [her] duties while employed by or under contract with a detention facility or while employed by the division in the department of human services responsible for youth services.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of assault in the first degree (confined or in custody).

3-2:06.5 ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE (RESTRICT BREATHING)

The elements of the crime of assault in the first degree (restrict breathing) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. with intent,
  4. to cause serious bodily injury,
  5. applied sufficient pressure to impede or restrict the breathing or circulation of the blood of another person,
  6. by applying such pressure to the neck or by blocking the nose or mouth of the other person, and
  7. thereby caused serious bodily injury.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of assault in the first degree (restrict breathing).

3-2:07.INT ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE – INTERROGATORY (PROVOKED AND SUDDEN HEAT OF PASSION)

If you find the defendant not guilty of assault in the first degree, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of assault in the first degree, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the defendant acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant was acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion only if:

1. the act causing the injury was performed upon a sudden heat of passion,
2. caused by a serious and highly provoking act of the intended victim,
3. affecting the defendant sufficiently to excite an irresistible passion in a reasonable person, and
4. between the provocation and the assault, there was an insufficient interval of time for the voice of reason and humanity to be heard.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant was not acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion. In order to meet this burden, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should find that the defendant was acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion, mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should find that the defendant was not acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion, mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-202(2)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. + See Instruction 3-2:07.5.SP (special instruction – gender identity or expression or sexual orientation).
4. See Cassels v. People, 92 P.3d 951, 956 (Colo. 2004) (“A provocation instruction is warranted whenever a defendant shows some supporting evidence – regardless of how incredible, unreasonable, improbable, or slight it may be – to establish each factor described in subsection (3)(b) of the second-degree murder statute.”); People v. Garcia, 28 P.3d 340, 346 (Colo. 2001) (when a provocation instruction is given, it must make clear that the prosecution bears the burden of proving a lack of provocation).
5. Although the supreme court has held, in People v. Brighi, 755 P.2d 1218, 1221 (Colo. 1988), that a trial court was without authority to enter a judgment of conviction for mitigated second degree assault where the jury was deadlocked with respect to the heat of passion interrogatory, it is unclear if this aspect of the holding in Brighi was dependent on an erroneous characterization of heat of passion as an element of mitigated second degree assault. See Rowe v. People, 856 P.2d 486, 490 (Colo. 1993) (“We disapprove of footnote two in People v. Brighi, 755 P.2d 1218, 1221 (Colo. 1988), to the extent that it suggests that heat of passion is an element of second-degree assault.”). Nevertheless, Brighi is still good authority for the proposition that a trial court has discretion to inquire whether a jury is deadlocked as to the charge, or as to the heat of passion mitigator. See generally Instruction E:18, Comments 1–4 (Supplemental Instruction—When Jurors Fail to Agree).

However, the Committee expresses no opinion concerning what level judgment of conviction a trial court should enter where a jury is unanimous as to guilt and firmly deadlocked as to heat of passion. This remains an unanswered question in Colorado. See People v. Ramirez, 56 P.3d 89, 93 n.7 (Colo. 2002) (upholding a conviction for second degree murder and concluding that, because there was no evidence to support a heat of passion interrogatory, it was unnecessary to decide whether (1) the court of appeals had correctly returned the case to the trial court for resentencing, reasoning that the absence of a jury finding concerning the heat of passion mitigator afforded the defendant the benefit of the assumption that the jury intended the lesser felony; or (2) the prosecution should instead have the option to retry the defendant on the charge of second degree murder); see also People v. Harris, 797 P.2d 816 (Colo. App. 1990) (because the jury found the defendant guilty of first degree assault and neglected to check a box on the verdict form indicating whether he had acted under a heat of passion, the court was required to enter a finding that he had in fact acted under a heat of passion).

+ 3-2:07.5.SP ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE, SUDDEN HEAT OF PASSION – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (GENDER IDENTITY OR EXPRESSION OR SEXUAL ORIENTATION)

If you find the defendant not guilty of assault in the first degree, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of assault in the first degree, you have been separately instructed to determine whether the defendant was acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion. You are hereby instructed that the defendant’s act did not constitute an act performed upon a sudden heat of passion if it resulted solely from the discovery of, knowledge about, or potential disclosure of the victim’s actual or perceived gender, gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation, including but not limited to under circumstances in which the victim made an unwanted nonforcible romantic or sexual advance toward the defendant.

3-2:08.INT ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE – INTERROGATORY (AT-RISK PERSON)

If you find the defendant not guilty of assault in the first degree, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of assault in the first degree, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the victim an at-risk person? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The victim was an at-risk person only if:

- [1. the victim was an at-risk adult.]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk adult with IDD.]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk elder.]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk juvenile.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

3-2:09 ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE (BODILY INJURY WITH A DEADLY WEAPON)

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly and violently,

6. and the defendant knew, or reasonably should have known, that the victim was a peace officer, firefighter, or emergency medical service provider engaged in the performance of his [her] duties, or a judge or an officer of a court of competent jurisdiction.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of assault in the second degree (lawfully confined or in custody).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-203(1)(f), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:119 (defining “emergency medical service provider”); Instruction F:124 (defining “engaged in the performance of his [her] duties”); Instruction F:157 (defining “firefighter”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:263 (defining “peace officer”).
3. The terms “lawfully confined” and “in custody” are not defined by statute, and the provision that uses these terms to define the above type of second degree assault is not modified by a clause that specifies that the confinement or custody must have been the “result of” a charge, conviction, or adjudication (as is the case for the provision that defines the type of second degree assault described in Instruction 3-2:14, and the type of first degree assault described in Instruction 3-2:06). Accordingly, a court exercising its discretion to draft a supplemental definitional instruction should refer to precedent, which makes clear that the phrase “while lawfully confined or in custody” encompasses confinements that occur in facilities, as well as custodial situations that take place in the field. See People v. Olinger, 566 P.2d 1367, 1368 (Colo. App. 1977) (“the word ‘confined’ in the second degree assault statute connotes detention in an institution”); see, e.g., People v. Armstrong, 720 P.2d 165, 169 (Colo. 1986) (“[W]e hold that an arrest precedes ‘in custody’ for purposes of section 18-3-203(1)(f), when the person subject to an arrest resists that arrest.”); People in Interest of D.S.L., 134 P.3d 522, 525 (Colo. App. 2006) (“To be deemed to be in custody for purposes of [section 18-3-203(1)(f)], a person need not be subject to a formal arrest. All that is required is that the ‘peace officer must have applied a level of physical control over the person being detained so as reasonably to ensure that the person does not leave.’” (quoting People v. Rawson, 97 P.3d 315, 323 (Colo. App. 2004))); People v. Ortega, 899 P.2d 236, 238 (Colo. App. 1994) (“[W]hen, as here, an officer has detained a suspect for purposes of further investigation rather than arrest, but nevertheless has applied a sufficient level of physical control so as reasonably to ensure that the suspect does not leave, then the suspect is in custody for purposes of § 18-3-203(1)(f)”; see also People v. Thornton, 929 P.2d 729, 733 (Colo.

1996) (interpreting the phrase “in custody or confinement,” as used in section 18-8-208(3), C.R.S. 2020 (escape), and explaining: “A teaching of Armstrong is that custody connotes physical control. . . . However, physical control, in a situation not involving resistance to arrest, does not necessarily require physical restraint through application of force. . . . The officer’s presence and the suspect’s submission in concert may be sufficient to establish the assurance, requisite to a determination of physical control, that the suspect will not leave.”).

4. Pursuant to § 18-3-202(1)(f), C.R.S. 2020, where appropriate, the court should consider instructing the jury that a person who participates in a work release program, a furlough, or any other similar authorized supervised or unsupervised absence from a detention facility and who is required to report back to the detention facility at a specified time is deemed to be “in custody” for purposes of this instruction.

3-2:14 ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE (LAWFULLY CONFINED OR IN CUSTODY; CHARGED, CONVICTED, OR ADJUDICATED)

The elements of the crime of assault in the second degree (lawfully confined or in custody; charged, convicted, or adjudicated) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly and violently,
4. while lawfully confined or in custody as a result of being charged with or convicted of a crime or as a result of being charged as a delinquent child or adjudicated as a delinquent child,
5. applied physical force against a person engaged in the performance of his [her] duties while employed by or under contract with a detention facility, or while employed by the division in the department of human services responsible for youth services as a youth services counselor or in the youth services worker classification series, and
6. the defendant knew, or reasonably should have known, that the victim was a person engaged in the performance of his [her] duties while employed by or under contract with a detention facility, or employed by the division in the department of human services responsible for youth services.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

3-2:15 ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE (WHILE CONFINED IN A DETENTION FACILITY; BODILY FLUIDS OR HAZARDOUS MATERIAL)

The elements of the crime of assault in the second degree (while confined in a detention facility; bodily fluids or hazardous material) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. while lawfully confined in a detention facility within this state,
4. with the intent,
5. to infect, injure, harm, harass, annoy, threaten, or alarm,
6. a person in a detention facility whom the defendant knew, or reasonably should have known, to be an employee of a detention facility,
7. caused such employee to come into contact with blood, seminal fluid, urine, feces, saliva, mucus, vomit, or any toxic, caustic, or hazardous material,
8. by any means, including, but not limited to, throwing, tossing, or expelling such fluid or material.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

3-2:16 ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE (INTENT TO CAUSE BODILY INJURY; CAUSING SERIOUS BODILY INJURY)

The elements of the crime of assault in the second degree (intent to cause bodily injury; causing serious bodily injury) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent,
4. to cause bodily injury to another person,

3-2:16.5 ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE (BODILY FLUIDS OR HAZARDOUS MATERIAL; EMERGENCY RESPONDERS ENGAGED IN DUTIES)

The elements of the crime of assault in the second degree (bodily fluids or hazardous material; emergency responders engaged in duties) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent,
4. to infect, injure, or harm another person,
5. whom the defendant knew or reasonably should have known to be engaged in the performance of his or her duties as a peace officer, a firefighter, an emergency medical care provider, or an emergency medical service provider,
6. caused such person to come into contact with blood, seminal fluid, urine, feces, saliva, mucus, vomit, or any toxic, caustic, or hazardous material,
7. by any means, including by throwing, tossing, or expelling such fluid or material.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of assault in the second degree (bodily fluids or hazardous material; emergency responders engaged in duties).

(bodily fluids or hazardous material; emergency responders engaged in duties).

3-2:16.7 ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE (RESTRICT BREATHING)

The elements of the crime of assault in the second degree (restrict breathing) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. with the intent,
  4. to cause bodily injury,
  5. applied sufficient pressure to impede or restrict the breathing or circulation of the blood of another person,
  6. by applying such pressure to the neck or by blocking the nose or mouth of the other person, and
  7. thereby caused bodily injury.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

3-2:17.INT ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE – INTERROGATORY (PROVOKED AND SUDDEN HEAT OF PASSION)

If you find the defendant not guilty of assault in the second degree, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of assault in the second degree, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the defendant acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant was acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion only if:

1. the act causing the injury was performed upon a sudden heat of passion,
2. caused by a serious and highly provoking act of the intended victim,
3. affecting the defendant sufficiently to excite an irresistible passion in a reasonable person, and
4. between the provocation and the assault, there was an insufficient interval of time for the voice of reason and humanity to be heard.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant was not acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion. In order to meet this burden, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should find that the defendant was acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion, mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should find that the defendant was not acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion, mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-203(2)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. + See Instruction 3-2:17.5.SP (special instruction – gender identity or expression or sexual orientation).
4. See Cassels v. People, 92 P.3d 951, 956 (Colo. 2004) (“A provocation instruction is warranted whenever a defendant shows some supporting evidence – regardless of how incredible, unreasonable, improbable, or slight it may be – to establish each factor described in subsection (3)(b) of the second-degree murder statute.”); People v. Garcia, 28 P.3d 340, 346 (Colo. 2001) (when a provocation instruction is given, it must make clear that the prosecution bears the burden of proving a lack of provocation).
5. Although the supreme court has held, in People v. Brighi, 755 P.2d 1218, 1221 (Colo. 1988), that a trial court was without authority to enter a judgment of conviction for mitigated second degree assault where the jury was deadlocked with respect to the heat of passion interrogatory, it is unclear if this aspect of the holding in Brighi was dependent on an erroneous characterization of heat of passion as an element of mitigated second degree assault. See Rowe v. People, 856 P.2d 486, 490 (Colo. 1993) (“We disapprove of footnote two in People v. Brighi, 755 P.2d 1218, 1221 (Colo. 1988), to the extent that it suggests that heat of passion is an element of second-degree assault.”). Nevertheless, Brighi is still good authority for the proposition that a trial court has discretion to inquire whether a jury is deadlocked as to the charge, or as to the heat of passion mitigator. See generally Instruction E:18, Comments 1–4 (Supplemental Instruction—When Jurors Fail to Agree).

However, the Committee expresses no opinion concerning what level judgment of conviction a trial court should enter where a jury is unanimous as to guilt and firmly deadlocked as to heat of passion. This remains an unanswered question in Colorado. See People v. Ramirez, 56 P.3d 89, 93 n.7 (Colo. 2002) (upholding a conviction for second degree murder and concluding that, because there was no evidence to support a heat of passion interrogatory, it was unnecessary to decide whether (1) the court of appeals had correctly returned the case to the trial court for resentencing, reasoning that the absence of a jury finding concerning the heat of passion mitigator afforded the defendant the benefit of the assumption that the jury intended the lesser felony; or (2) the prosecution should instead have the option to retry the defendant on the charge of second degree murder); see also People v. Harris, 797 P.2d 816 (Colo. App. 1990) (because the jury found the defendant guilty of first degree assault and neglected to check a box on the verdict form indicating whether he had acted under a heat of passion, the court was required to enter a finding that he had in fact acted under a heat of passion).

+ 3-2:17.5.SP ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE, SUDDEN HEAT OF PASSION – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (GENDER IDENTITY OR EXPRESSION OR SEXUAL ORIENTATION)

If you find the defendant not guilty of assault in the second degree, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of assault in the second degree, you have been separately instructed to determine whether the defendant was acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion. You are hereby instructed that the defendant’s act did not constitute an act performed upon a sudden heat of passion if it resulted solely from the discovery of, knowledge about, or potential disclosure of the victim’s actual or perceived gender, gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation, including but not limited to under circumstances in which the victim made an unwanted nonforcible romantic or sexual advance toward the defendant.

3-2:18.INT ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE – INTERROGATORY (SERIOUS BODILY INJURY DURING SPECIFIED FELONY)

If you find the defendant not guilty of assault in the second degree [, or if you find the defendant guilty of assault in the second degree but find that he [she] committed the assault under a provoked and sudden heat of passion], you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of assault in the second degree [, and you also find that the defendant did not act upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion], you should sign the verdict form to indicate your guilty verdict and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did a non-participant suffer serious bodily injury? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

A non-participant suffered serious bodily injury only if:

1. [Insert name of victim] suffered serious bodily injury,
2. during the commission or attempted commission or flight from the commission or attempted commission of [insert name of qualifying felony offense(s) from section 18-3-203(2)(b.5)], and
3. he [she] was not a participant in the crime.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

2. See Instruction F:332 (defining “serious bodily injury”); Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt); see, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. Section 18-3-203(2)(b.5) states that this sentence enhancement provision is not applicable where the assault is committed under a sudden and provoked heat of passion. Accordingly, it may be necessary to give the jury both Instruction 3-2:17.INT and Instruction 3-2:18.INT (using the “and you also find that the defendant did not act upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion” language that appears in brackets in the first two paragraphs of 3-2:18.INT).
4. If the defendant is not separately charged with a qualifying felony offense(s), give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense(s) without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. Place the elemental instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the qualifying felony offense(s).

Stewart*, 55 P.3d 107, 116 (Colo. 2002) (discussing the significance of the different definitions of “cause” and “proximate cause” that appeared in COLJI-Crim. (1983)).

3. Sections 18-3-106(1)(b)(I), (IV) (vehicular homicide) and 18-3-205(1)(b)(I), (IV)(vehicular assault), apply to a person who “operates or drives a motor vehicle while under the influence.” (Emphasis added.) By contrast, the traffic offense of driving under the influence (DUI) does not include a reference to operation; rather, the DUI statute specifies that it is unlawful for a person who is under the influence “to drive a motor vehicle or vehicle.” § 42-4-1301(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020 (emphasis added). Because neither “drive” nor “operate” is defined by statute (either in the criminal code, or in the traffic code), a court exercising its discretion to draft a supplemental definitional instruction should refer to precedent:

We have held that “drive” means to exercise “actual physical control” over a motor vehicle. People v. Swain, 959 P.2d 426, 429, 431 (1998) (so holding in context of a DUI case where defendant’s keys were in the ignition and the truck’s radio was playing, but defendant was asleep or passed out in the front seat); Brewer v. Motor Vehicle Div., Dep’t of Revenue, 720 P.2d 564, 566–67 (Colo. 1986) (holding under the express consent statute that driving means being “in actual physical control” of a motor vehicle and is not limited to “placing and controlling a vehicle in motion”). The term “operate” is somewhat broader, connoting the action of causing something “to occur . . . [or] to cause to function usually by direct personal effort.” People v. Gregor, 26 P.3d 530, 532 (Colo. Ct. App. 2000) (quoting Webster’s Third New International Dictionary 1580–81 (1986)).

Further, although the phrase “driving under the influence” is defined identically for purposes of sections 18-3-106(1)(b)(I), (IV) (vehicular homicide) and 18-3-205(1)(b)(I), (IV)(vehicular assault), the wording of that shared definition is slightly different from the definition of “driving under the influence” that appears as part of the traffic code in section 42-4-1301(1)(f), C.R.S. 2020. Compare Instruction F:109 (defining “driving under the influence” (vehicular homicide and vehicular assault)), with Instruction F:110 (defining “driving under the influence” (traffic code)). And there are significant differences between the definition of a “motor vehicle” in section 18-1-901(3)(k), C.R.S. 2020, and the definition of that same term that appears in section 42-1-102(58), C.R.S. 2020. Compare Instruction F:236 (defining “motor vehicle” for Title 18), with Instruction F:239 (defining “motor vehicle” for Title 42).

Finally, there are two internal inconsistencies within the statutory sections that define the criminal offenses of vehicular homicide and vehicular assault.

First, although sections 18-3-106(1)(b)(I) and 18-3-205(1)(b)(I) apply only to motor vehicles, the definitions of “driving under the influence” in sections 18-3-106(1)(b)(IV) and 18-3-205(1)(b)(IV) speak in terms of driving “a vehicle,” with no references to motorization. In cases involving vehicles that are indisputably motorized, this discrepancy will be inconsequential. However, in a case where there is a controversy concerning whether the vehicle in question was motorized, the court should add the word “motor” to the statutory definition that appears in Instruction F:109.

Second, as noted above, sections 18-3-106(1)(b)(I) and 18-3-205(1)(b)(I) both apply to a person who “operates or drives” (emphasis added) a motor vehicle while under the influence. Yet neither “operate” nor “operating” is included as part of the definition of “driving under the influence” in sections 18-3-106(1)(b)(I) and 18-3-205(1)(b)(I). In cases involving only an allegation of “driving,” this discrepancy will be inconsequential. However, in other situations, the statutory definition that appears in Instruction F:109 may need to be modified as follows: (1) in a case involving only an allegation of operation, by substituting “operating” for “driving;” and (2) in a case involving an allegation of operation and/or driving, by adding the word “operating.”

4. In 2015, the Committee corrected two statutory citations in Comment 3.

3-2:28.SP VEHICULAR ASSAULT – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (BLOOD OR BREATH ALCOHOL LEVEL)

As to the charge of vehicular assault, the amount of alcohol in the defendant's blood or breath at the time of the alleged offense, or within a reasonable time thereafter, as shown by analysis of the defendant's blood or breath, gives rise to the following:

(a) Presumption:

It shall be presumed that the defendant was not under the influence of alcohol if there was at such time 0.05 or less grams of alcohol per one hundred milliliters of blood, or if there was at such time 0.05 or less grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath.

A presumption requires you to find a fact, as if it had been established by evidence, unless the presumption is rebutted by evidence to the contrary.

(b) Evidentiary Consideration:

If there was at such time in excess of 0.05 but less than 0.08 grams of alcohol per one hundred milliliters of blood, or if there was at such time in excess of 0.05 but less than 0.08 grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath, such fact may be considered with other competent evidence in determining whether or not the defendant was under the influence of alcohol.

(c) Permissible inference:

A permissible inference that the defendant was under the influence of alcohol may be drawn if there was at such time 0.08 or more grams of alcohol per one hundred milliliters of blood, or if there was at such time 0.08 or more grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that an evidentiary consideration or a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-205(2)(a)-(c), C.R.S. 2020.

3-2:29.SP VEHICULAR ASSAULT – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (DELTA 9-TETRAHYDROCANNABINOL LEVEL)

As to the charge of vehicular assault, a permissible inference that the defendant was under the influence of one or more drugs may be drawn if the amount of delta 9-tetrahydrocannabinol in the defendant's blood at the time of the alleged offense, or within a reasonable time thereafter, as shown by analysis of the defendant's blood, was five nanograms or more per milliliter in whole blood.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-205(2)(d), C.R.S. 2020.

3-2:30 MENACING

The elements of the crime of menacing are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. by any threat or physical action,
5. placed or attempted to place another person in fear of imminent serious bodily injury.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of menacing.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of menacing.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-206(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:332 (defining “serious bodily injury”).
3. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

4. In 2015, the Committee removed the reference to Instruction G2:01 in Comment 2, and it added Comment 3.

3-2:31.INT MENACING – INTERROGATORY (USE, OR SUGGESTED USE, OF A DEADLY WEAPON)

If you find the defendant not guilty of menacing, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of menacing, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the menacing involve the use or suggested use of a deadly weapon? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The menacing involved the use or suggested use of a deadly weapon only if:

1. the defendant committed the menacing by the use of a deadly weapon or any article used or fashioned in a manner to cause a person to reasonably believe that the article was a deadly weapon, or by representing verbally or otherwise that he [she] was armed with a deadly weapon.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:88 (defining “deadly weapon”).

3-2:32 EXTORTION (UNLAWFUL ACT)

The elements of the crime of extortion (unlawful act) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. without legal authority, and
4. with the intent,
5. to induce another person against that other person's will to perform an act or to refrain from performing a lawful act,
6. made a substantial threat to confine or restrain, cause economic hardship or bodily injury to, or damage the property or reputation of, the threatened person or another person, and
7. threatened to cause the result[s] by performing or causing an unlawful act to be performed.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of extortion (unlawful act).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of extortion (unlawful act).

COMMENT

3-2:33 EXTORTION (THIRD PARTY)

The elements of the crime of extortion (third party) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. without legal authority, and
4. with the intent,
5. to induce another person against that other person's will to perform an act or to refrain from performing a lawful act,
6. made a substantial threat to confine or restrain, cause economic hardship or bodily injury to, or damage the property or reputation of, the threatened person or another person, and
7. threatened to cause the result[s] by invoking action by a third party, including but not limited to, the state or any of its political subdivisions, whose interests were not substantially related to the interests pursued by the defendant.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of extortion (third party).

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:36 (defining “bodily injury”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:357 (defining “substantial threat”).

3-2:34 EXTORTION (IMMIGRATION STATUS)

The elements of the crime of extortion (immigration status) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with the intent,
4. to induce another person against that other person's will to give the defendant money or another item of value,
5. threatened to report to law enforcement officials the immigration status of the threatened person or another person.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of extortion (immigration status).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of extortion (immigration status).

COMMENT

4. with the intent,
5. to induce another person against that other person's will to perform an act or refrain from performing a lawful act,
6. made a substantial threat to confine or restrain, cause economic hardship or bodily injury to, or damage the property or reputation of, the threatened person or another person, and
7. threatened to cause the result[s] by means of chemical, biological, or harmful radioactive agents, weapons, or poison.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

The elements of the crime of reckless endangerment are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. recklessly,
4. engaged in conduct which created a substantial risk of serious bodily injury to another person.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of reckless endangerment.

3-2:37.INT RECKLESS ENDANGERMENT – INTERROGATORY (MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL ENGAGED IN DUTIES)

If you find the defendant not guilty of reckless endangerment, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of reckless endangerment, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the victim a mental health professional engaged in the performance of his [her] duties? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The victim was a mental health professional engaged in the performance of his [her] duties only if:

1. he [she] was a “mental health professional,”
2. employed by or under contract with the department of human services,
3. engaged in the performance of his [her] duties.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

3-3:01 FIRST DEGREE KIDNAPPING (FORCIBLY SEIZED AND CARRIED)

The elements of the crime of first degree kidnapping (forcibly seized and carried) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. with the intent,
  4. to force a person to make any concession or give up anything of value in order to secure a release of a person under the defendant's actual or apparent control,
  5. forcibly seized and carried any person from one place to another.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of first degree kidnapping (forcibly seized and carried).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of first degree kidnapping (forcibly seized and carried).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-301(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:21 (defining “anything of value”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction 3-3:05, Comment 4 (discussing decisions addressing the phrase “seized and carried”).

3. The term “concession” is not defined by statute. See People v. San Emerterio, 839 P.2d 1161, 1165–68 (Colo. 1992) (the term “concession,” as used in first degree kidnapping statute is broad enough to include a promise that has sufficient subjective value to the kidnapper that he would hinge release of a victim upon that promise; it is immaterial that the kidnapper might not have control over the victim after release, and might be unable to secure the victim’s performance of the promise on which the kidnapper conditioned release); see also People v. Weare, 155 P.3d 527, 529-30 (Colo. App. 2006) (first degree kidnapping does not require proof that the kidnapper intended to release the victim upon obtaining the concession sought; statutory phrase “in order to secure a release” simply describes the purpose of the concession the offender must intend to force the victim to make, and not to add a separate intent requirement).

4. + See People v. Pratarelli, 2020 COA 33, ¶¶ 17–18, 471 P.3d 1177, 1182 (noting that the statute does not define “forcibly” or “force,” and using dictionary definitions to determine that the prosecution needed to prove that the defendant “used (or threatened to use) power, violence, or pressure against [the victim] to seize and carry her, and that he did so against opposition or resistance”).

5. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 4.

3-3:02 FIRST DEGREE KIDNAPPING (ENTICED OR PERSUADED)

The elements of the crime of first degree kidnapping (enticed or persuaded) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. with the intent,
  4. to force a person to make any concession or give up anything of value in order to secure a release of a person under the defendant's actual or apparent control,
  5. enticed or persuaded any person to go from one place to another.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of first degree kidnapping (enticed or persuaded).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of first degree kidnapping (enticed or persuaded).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-301(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:21 (defining "anything of value"); Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent"); Instruction 3-3:05, Comment 4 (discussing decisions addressing the phrase "seized and carried").

3. See Instruction 3-3:01, Comment 3 (discussing the term “concession”).

3-3:03 FIRST DEGREE KIDNAPPING (IMPRISONED OR FORCIBLY SECRETED)

The elements of the crime of first degree kidnapping (imprisoned or forcibly secreted) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. with the intent,
  4. to force a person to make any concession or give up anything of value in order to secure a release of a person under the defendant's actual or apparent control,
  5. imprisoned or forcibly secreted any person.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of first degree kidnapping (imprisoned or forcibly secreted).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of first degree kidnapping (imprisoned or forcibly secreted).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-301(1)(c), C.R.S. 2020.

3-3:04.INT FIRST DEGREE KIDNAPPING – INTERROGATORY (BODILY INJURY)

If you find the defendant not guilty of first degree kidnapping, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of first degree kidnapping, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the victim harmed during the kidnapping? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The victim was harmed during the kidnapping only if:

1. the person who was kidnapped suffered bodily injury.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-301(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Whoever commits first degree kidnapping is guilty of a class 1 felony if the person kidnapped shall have suffered bodily injury”); § 18-3-301(3), C.R.S. 2020 (“Whoever commits first degree kidnapping commits a class 2 felony if, prior to his conviction, the person kidnapped was liberated unharmed.”).

2. See Instruction F:36 (defining “bodily injury”); see, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

3. Because the definition of “bodily injury” encompasses “physical pain, illness or physical or mental impairment, however slight,” People v. Hines, 572 P.2d 467, 470 (Colo. 1977) (emphasis added), the interrogatory equates the absence of “bodily injury,” under section 18-3-301(2), with the condition of being “unharmed,” under section 18-3-301(3). See Miller v. District Court, 593 P.2d 1379 (Colo. 1979) (“liberated unharmed” means without having suffered bodily injury); see also People v. Hines, 572 P.2d at 470 (“It may be that in some [first degree kidnapping] cases injuries might be so trifling as to be excluded from the category of ‘bodily injury’ the legislature contemplated. Should such a borderline case arise, the question whether bodily injury occurred would be one of statutory construction.”). However, an ambiguity could arise in a case where there is no evidence showing whether the victim suffered bodily injury or was “liberated unharmed” (for example, where the victim’s welfare and whereabouts are unknown at the time of trial).

In COLJI-Crim. (1983), the Committee addressed this possible ambiguity by relying on a non-statutory concept of “presumed . . . harm to the victim” if the victim had not been released by the time of trial. See COLJI-Crim. Ch. 11, Notes on Chapter Use, 197 (1983). Thus, COLJI-Crim. 11:01 (1983), which was based on the same language of section 18-3-301 that remains in effect today, defined a class one felony offense of first degree kidnapping for which no finding of bodily injury was required if the jury made a finding that “the person kidnapped has not been released.” See COLJI-Crim. 11:01, Notes on Use (1983).

Thereafter, in COLJI-Crim. 3-3:03 (2008), the Committee abandoned the presumption that a victim who has not been released has been harmed. That interrogatory simply asked the jury to determine whether the prosecution had proved that the person who was kidnapped had suffered “bodily injury.”

4. This edition of COLJI-Crim. does not include an interrogatory addressing the following provision of section 18-3-301(2): “no person convicted of first degree kidnapping shall suffer the death penalty if the person kidnapped was liberated alive prior to the conviction of the kidnapper.” See Kennedy v. Louisiana, 554 U.S. 407 (2008) (the Eighth Amendment categorically bars death sentences for nonhomicide crimes).

3-3:05 SECOND DEGREE KIDNAPPING (SEIZED AND CARRIED)

The elements of the crime of second degree kidnapping (seized and carried) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. seized and carried any person from one place to another,
  5. without his [her] consent, and
  6. without lawful justification.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of second degree kidnapping (seized and carried).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of second degree kidnapping (seized and carried).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-302(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).
3. The supreme court has held that the term “without lawful justification” is:

such a basic concept that the use of explanatory synonyms add little, if anything, to the central core of meaning inherent in the term itself. In the context of the crime of second degree kidnapping, therefore, the term “without lawful justification” simply means an act not authorized or permitted by law – in other words, an act performed without lawful authority.

People v. Schuett, 833 P.2d 44, 47 (Colo. 1992).

4. It is within a trial court’s discretion to give an instruction defining the term “seized and carried” as meaning “any movement, however short in distance.” People v. Rogers, 220 P.3d 931, 936 (Colo. App. 2008). Further, if a court elects to define this term, it is not obligated to include language addressing the resulting increased risk of harm:

[A]s clarified in [People v. Harlan, 8 P.3d 448, 476 (Colo. 2000)], a substantial increase in the risk of harm is not a material element of the crime upon which a jury must be instructed. It is, instead, only “a factual circumstance reviewing courts consider in some cases to determine whether there is sufficient evidence to prove that the defendant moved the victim from one place to another.”

People v. Owens, 97 P.3d 227, 237 (Colo. App. 2004) (quoting People v. Harlan, 8 P.3d at 476).

5. + See People v. Pratarelli, 2020 COA 33, ¶ 27, 471 P.3d 1177, 1183 (“[A] custodial parent may not be convicted of second degree kidnapping.” (citing Armendariz v. People, 711 P.2d 1268, 1270 (Colo. 1986))).

6. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 5.

3-3:06 SECOND DEGREE KIDNAPPING (TAKING, ENTICING, OR DECOYING A MINOR)

The elements of the crime of second degree kidnapping (taking, enticing, or decoying a minor) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent,
4. to keep or conceal the child from the child's parent or guardian, or to sell, trade, or barter the child for consideration,
5. took, enticed, or decoyed away a child under the age of eighteen,
6. not his [her] own.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of second degree kidnapping (taking, enticing, or decoying a minor).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of second degree kidnapping (taking, enticing, or decoying a minor).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-302(2), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:50 (defining “child”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”).
3. See Instruction H:36 (defining the affirmative defense of “mistake as to age”).
4. The phrase “not his own” is undefined, but the use of the terms “parent” and “guardian” would seem to suggest that the phrase “not his own” was intended to refer to the absence of a custodial relationship. A division of the Court of Appeals has implied as much. See People v. Woodward, 631 P.2d 1188, 1190 (Colo. App. 1981) (“The child kidnapping statute prohibits unauthorized interference with a parent’s custodial right to their [sic] children.” (emphasis added)).
5. The term “consideration” is not defined in section 18-3-302. See, e.g., Black’s Law Dictionary 370 (10th ed. 2014) (defining “consideration” as: “Something (such as an act, a forbearance, or a return promise) bargained for and received by a promisor from a promisee.”). The definition that appears in section 4-3-303(b), C.R.S. 2020, should not be used because it is limited to contracts.

3-3:07.INT SECOND DEGREE KIDNAPPING – INTERROGATORY (VICTIM OF SEXUAL OFFENSE OR ROBBERY)

If you find the defendant not guilty of second degree kidnapping, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of second degree kidnapping, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the person kidnapped also the victim of another specified crime?
(Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The person kidnapped was also the victim of another specified crime only if:

1. the person kidnapped was the victim of the crime of [insert sexual offense(s)] [robbery].

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

3. In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense.

3-3:08.INT SECOND DEGREE KIDNAPPING – INTERROGATORY (CONSIDERATION)

Was the kidnapping committed with the intent to gain something?
(Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The kidnapping was committed with the intent to gain something only if:

1. the kidnapping was accomplished with intent to sell, trade, or barter the victim for consideration.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

3-3:09.INT SECOND DEGREE KIDNAPPING – INTERROGATORY (USE, OR SUGGESTED USE, OF A DEADLY WEAPON)

If you find the defendant not guilty of second degree kidnapping, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of second degree kidnapping, and you answer “No” to the question of whether the person kidnapped also was the victim of another specified crime, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the kidnapping committed by the use or suggested use of a deadly weapon? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The kidnapping was committed by the use or suggested use of a deadly weapon only if:

1. the kidnapping was accomplished by the use of a deadly weapon or any article used or fashioned in a manner to cause a person to reasonably believe that the article was a deadly weapon, or by the kidnapper representing verbally or otherwise that he [she] was armed with a deadly weapon.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

3-3:10 FALSE IMPRISONMENT

The elements of the crime of false imprisonment are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. confined or detained another person,
  5. without the other person's consent, and
  6. without proper legal authority.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of false imprisonment.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of false imprisonment.

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly").
3. See Instruction H:43 (affirmative defense of "peace officer acting in good faith"); Instruction H:47 (affirmative defense of "theft investigation").
4. In People v. Reed, 932 P.2d 842, 844 (Colo. App. 1996), a division of the Court of Appeals observed, in dicta, that "COLJI-Crim. No. 11:08 (1983), the pattern criminal jury instruction for false imprisonment pursuant to § 18-3-303, . . . provides that an element of the prosecution’s case is proof that the defendant is not a peace officer acting in good faith.” Although the division in Reed endorsed that interpretation of the statute, the Committee is now of the view that the final sentence of section 18-3-303(1) establishes an affirmative defense. See Instruction H:43 (affirmative defense of “peace officer acting in good faith”).

3-3:11.INT FALSE IMPRISONMENT – INTERROGATORY (EXTENDED DETENTION)

If you find the defendant not guilty of false imprisonment, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of false imprisonment, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

(Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The false imprisonment involved force and extended detention only if:

1. the defendant used force, or threat of force, to confine or detain the victim, and
2. he [she] confined or detained the victim for twelve hours or longer.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

The false imprisonment involved physical restraints only if:

1. the victim was less than eighteen years of age, and
2. the defendant confined or detained the victim by means of tying, caging, chaining, or otherwise using similar physical restraints to restrict the victim’s freedom of movement,

1. See § 18-3-304(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:50 (defining "child"); Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent").

3. Although a trial court has discretion to provide the jury with an instruction defining the term “custody order,” such an instruction should not include any references to noncustodial aspects of the order. See People v. Sorrendino, 37 P.3d 501, 505-07 (Colo. App. 2001).

4. The placement of the mens rea is consistent with People v. Metcalf, 926 P.2d 133, 137-38 (Colo. App. 1996) (section 18-3-304(2) does not require the prosecution to prove that the defendant knew he was violating a court order; the statutory language requiring intent is limited to the deprivation of custody of the child, and is not extended to the additional elements of the offense).

3-3:14.INT VIOLATION OF CUSTODY – INTERROGATORY

If you find the defendant not guilty of violation of custody, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

4. to commit the crime of sexual assault or unlawful sexual contact upon the child,
5. invited, persuaded, or attempted to invite or persuade a child, under the age of fifteen,
6. to enter any vehicle, building, room, or secluded place.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

4. See § 18-1-503.5(3), C.R.S. 2020 (affirmative defense based on a reasonable misbelief as to the child’s age is unavailable where “the criminality of conduct depends on a child being younger than fifteen years of age”).

5. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

6. In 2015, the Committee removed the reference to Instruction G2:01 in Comment 2, and it added Comment 5.

2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

3. If the defendant is not separately charged with sexual exploitation of a child, give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. See Instructions 6-4:17 to 6-4:21. Place the elemental instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense.

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. See Instruction E:11 (series of acts in a single count).

3-4:01 SEXUAL ASSAULT (SUBMISSION AGAINST WILL)

The elements of the crime of sexual assault (submission against will) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. inflicted sexual intrusion or penetration on a person, and
  5. caused submission of the person by means of sufficient consequence reasonably calculated to cause submission against the person's will.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of sexual assault (submission against will).

After considering all of the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of sexual assault (submission against will).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-402(1)(a) C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:340 (defining "sexual intrusion"); Instruction F:343 (defining "sexual penetration").
3. See Instruction E:01 (bracketed admonition against gender bias).

4. See People v. Smith, 638 P.2d 1, 5 n.7 (Colo. 1981) (“[T]he phrase ‘of sufficient consequence reasonably calculated’ clearly implies that the actor must be aware that his or her conduct is sufficient in character and degree to be likely to cause nonconsensual submission.”).
5. See Schneider v. People, 2016 CO 70, ¶¶ 16–17, 382 P.3d 835, 840 (holding that the eight enumerated alternatives in section 18-3-402(1) represent different means of committing the same crime of “sexual assault,” rather than separately defined crimes of sexual assault).
6. In 2017, the Committee added Comment 5.

3-4:02 SEXUAL ASSAULT (INCAPABLE OF APPRAISING THE NATURE OF CONDUCT)

The elements of the crime of sexual assault (incapable of appraising the nature of conduct) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. inflicted sexual intrusion or penetration on a person,
5. knowing that the person was incapable of appraising the nature of his [her] own conduct.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of sexual assault (incapable of appraising the nature of conduct).

After considering all of the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of sexual assault (incapable of appraising the nature of conduct).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-402(1)(b) C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:340 (defining "sexual intrusion"); Instruction F:343 (defining "sexual penetration").

3. See Instruction E:01 (bracketed admonition against gender bias).
4. In Platt v. People, 201 P.3d 545, 548 (Colo. 2009), the supreme court analyzed two subsections of section 18-3-402(1) and explained: “The fact that [section 18-3-401(3)] lists a sleeping victim as an example of a victim who is physically helpless under subsection (h) [of section 18-3-402(1)] does not mean that same victim cannot be cognitively unable to understand her conduct under subsection (b) [of section 18-3-402(1)].” Reviewing the record, the court held “that there was sufficient evidence to support Platt’s conviction under section 18-3-402(1)(b) because the victim was sleeping and therefore unable to understand the nature of her conduct [at the time defendant inflicted sexual intrusion or penetration].” Id. at 547.
5. See People v. Bertrand, 2014 COA 142, ¶¶ 17–21, 342 P.3d 582, 585–86 (noting that COLJI-Crim. (2014) does not include an instruction quoting from Platt v. People, 201 P.3d 545, 548 (Colo. 2009), and holding that the trial court committed reversible error by misquoting from that opinion).
6. See Schneider v. People, 2016 CO 70, ¶¶ 16–17, 382 P.3d 835, 840 (holding that the eight enumerated alternatives in section 18-3-402(1) represent different means of committing the same crime of “sexual assault,” rather than separately defined crimes of sexual assault).
7. In 2015, the Committee added Comment 5, citing to People v. Bertrand, supra.
8. In 2017, the Committee added Comment 6.

3-4:03 SEXUAL ASSAULT (ERRONEOUS BELIEF OF MARRIAGE)

The elements of the crime of sexual assault (erroneous belief of marriage) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. inflicted sexual intrusion or penetration on a person,
5. knowing that the person submitted erroneously, believing the defendant to be his [her] spouse.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of sexual assault (erroneous belief of marriage).

After considering all of the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of sexual assault (erroneous belief of marriage).

5. In 2017, the Committee added Comment 4.

3-4:04 SEXUAL ASSAULT (UNDER FIFTEEN)

The elements of the crime of sexual assault (under fifteen) are:

6. the defendant was at least four years older than the person, and
7. the defendant was not the spouse of the person.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of sexual assault (under fifteen).

After considering all of the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of sexual assault (under fifteen).

3-4:05.SP SEXUAL ASSAULT (UNDER FIFTEEN) – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (IGNORANCE OF THE CHILD’S AGE IS NOT A DEFENSE)

If a child is younger than fifteen, a person charged with sexual assault (under fifteen) cannot assert a defense based on the fact that the person did not know the child’s age or reasonably believed the child to be fifteen years of age or older.

3-4:06 SEXUAL ASSAULT (AT LEAST FIFTEEN, BUT LESS THAN SEVENTEEN)

3. knowingly,
4. inflicted sexual intrusion or penetration on a person, and

6. In 2017, the Committee added Comment 5.

3-4:07 SEXUAL ASSAULT (IN CUSTODY OR DETAINED)

The elements of the crime of sexual assault (in custody or detained) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. inflicted sexual intrusion or penetration on a person, and
5. the person was in custody of law or detained in a hospital or other institution, and

5. In 2017, the Committee added Comment 4.

3-4:10.INT SEXUAL ASSAULT – INTERROGATORY (FORCE OR VIOLENCE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of sexual assault, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of sexual assault, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your guilty verdict and then answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant cause submission through force or violence?
(Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant caused submission through force or violence only if:

1. the defendant caused submission of the victim through the actual application of physical force or physical violence.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should indicate “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should indicate “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-402(4)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

3. See People v. Powell, 716 P.2d 1096, 1100 (Colo. 1986) (because the word “force” is commonly used, there is no reason to provide the jury with a definitional instruction).

4. See People v. Santana-Medrano, 165 P.3d 804, 807 (Colo. App. 2006) (although the substantive offense of sexual assault requires proof that the defendant acted “knowingly,” this mens rea does not also apply to the aggravating circumstances set forth in section 18-3-402(4)).

3-4:11.INT SEXUAL ASSAULT – INTERROGATORY (THREAT OF HARM)

If you find the defendant not guilty of sexual assault, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of sexual assault, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your guilty verdict and then answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant cause submission through threat of harm?
(Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant caused submission through threat of harm only if:

1. the defendant caused submission of the victim by threat of imminent death, serious bodily injury, extreme pain, or the crime of kidnapping, to be inflicted on anyone, and
2. the victim believed that the defendant had the present ability to execute the threats.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should indicate “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-404(2)(b), C.R.S. 2020. Because section 18-3-404(2)(b) states that “unlawful sexual contact is a class 4 felony if the actor compels the victim to submit by use of such force, intimidation, or threat as specified in section 18-3-402(4)(a), (4)(b), or (4)(c),” the three model interrogatories for the offense of unlawful sexual contact use the same language that appears in the corresponding model interrogatories for the offense of sexual assault in violation of section 18-3-402. See Instructions 3-4:10.INT, 3-4:11.INT, 3-4:12.INT.
2. See Instruction F:323 (defining “retaliate”); see, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

3-4:30.INT UNLAWFUL SEXUAL CONTACT – INTERROGATORY (AT-RISK PERSON)

If you find the defendant not guilty of unlawful sexual contact, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of unlawful sexual contact, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your guilty verdict and then answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the victim an at-risk person? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The victim was an at-risk person only if:

- [1. the victim was an at-risk adult.]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk adult with IDD.]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk elder.]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk juvenile.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should indicate “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

3-4:31 SEXUAL ASSAULT ON A CHILD

The elements of the crime of sexual assault on a child are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. subjected another person who was not his [her] spouse to any sexual contact, and
5. that person was less than fifteen years of age, and
6. the defendant was at least four years older than the person.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all of the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of sexual assault on a child.

After considering all of the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of sexual assault on a child.

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:186 (defining "intimate parts"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:337 (defining "sexual contact").
3. See People v. Vigil, 127 P.3d 916, 931 (Colo. 2006) (sexual assault on a child is a general intent offense, to which the defense of voluntary intoxication does not apply, notwithstanding the fact that the definition of “sexual contact,” in section 18-3-401(4), includes a requirement that the sexual touching be “for the purposes of sexual arousal, gratification, or abuse”).

4. See Woellhaf v. People, 105 P.3d 209, 216 (Colo. 2005) (because the statutes defining sexual assault on a child and sexual assault on a child by one in a position of trust prescribe “any sexual contact” as the unit of prosecution, for purposes of double jeopardy, multiple convictions must be supported by factually distinct offenses).

5. See Quintano v. People, 105 P.3d 585, 592 (Colo. 2005) (applying Woellhaf and holding that “[t]hrough the record does not disclose specifically how long each incident lasted, the facts prove that the defendant’s conduct was separate in temporal proximity and constituted a new volitional departure in his course of conduct”; further, the due process requirement for jury unanimity was satisfied because the court instructed the jury that: “In order to find the defendant guilty of sexual assault on a child, the jury must unanimously agree that the defendant committed the same act of sexual contact for each separate count, or that the defendant committed all of the acts of sexual contact.”).

6. See People v. Sparks, 2018 COA 1, ¶ 9, 434 P.3d 713, 717 (holding that the phrase “subjects another” does not mean “causing another to become subservient or subordinate,” but instead “encompasses an adult defendant allowing a child to touch the defendant’s intimate parts”).

3-4:32.SP SEXUAL ASSAULT ON A CHILD – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (IGNORANCE OF THE CHILD’S AGE IS NOT A DEFENSE)

If a child is younger than fifteen, a person charged with sexual assault on a child cannot assert a defense based on the fact that the person did not know the child’s age or reasonably believed the child to be fifteen years of age or older.

Did the defendant commit the sexual assault on a child as part of a pattern of sexual abuse? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant committed the sexual assault on a child as part of a pattern of sexual abuse only if:

1. he [she] committed one or more incidents of sexual contact upon the same victim in addition to committing the sexual contact forming the basis for your guilty verdict on the charge of sexual assault on a child.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

2. See Instruction F:262 (defining “pattern of sexual abuse”); see, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

3. Although section 18-3-405(2)(d) states that a “specific date or time” need not be alleged, this section does not prohibit a court from using an interrogatory that describes the other incident(s) by referring to the date, location, or other identifying evidence. See, e.g., People v. Melillo, 25 P.3d 769, 779 (Colo. 2001) (other incidents of sexual contact for pattern of abuse count identified by date).

4. Section 18-3-405(2)(d), states that “the acts constituting the pattern of sexual abuse, whether charged in the information or indictment or committed prior to or at any time after the offense charged in the information or indictment, shall be subject to the provisions of section 16-5-401(1)(a).” However, section 16-5-401(1)(a) states that there is no limitations period applicable to “any sex offense against a child,” and section 16-5-401(1)(b)(IV) provides that “[s]ex offense against a child’ means any ‘unlawful sexual offense,’ as defined in section 18-3-411(1), C.R.S., that is a felony.” Thus, it will be the rare case in which there is a dispute concerning the limitations period applicable to the second alleged incident of sexual contact. But if such a case should arise, the court should determine the expiration date of the limitations period and modify the interrogatory in a manner that requires the jury to make a finding indicating whether the other incident of sexual contact occurred on or before that date.

5. See People v. Simon, 266 P.3d 1099, 1101 (Colo. 2011) (“each separately charged incident of sexual assault (i.e., sexual assault on a child, or sexual assault on a child by one in a position of trust) [is] elevated to a class 3 felony, where each incident is committed as part of a pattern of sexual abuse”).

1. the sexual assault on a child committed by the defendant involved sexual intercourse or anal intercourse, and
2. prior to committing the sexual assault on a child, the defendant had notice that he [she] had tested positive for the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) and HIV infection, and
3. the infectious agent of the HIV infection was in fact transmitted.

3-4:40 SEXUAL ASSAULT ON A CHILD BY ONE IN A POSITION OF TRUST

The elements of the crime of sexual assault on a child by one in a position of trust are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. subjected a child, under eighteen years of age, who was not his [her] spouse to any sexual contact, and

- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all of the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of sexual assault on a child by one in a position of trust.

After considering all of the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of sexual assault on a child by one in a position of trust.

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:50 (defining "child"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:280 (defining "position of trust"); Instruction F:337 (defining "sexual contact").

3. Although section 18-3-408 states that the gender bias instruction applies to offenses defined in “sections 18-3-402 to 18-3-405,” it is unclear whether the General Assembly intended for the instruction to be given in prosecutions for the three offenses that are separated from section 18-3-405 by decimal point numeration. See § 18-3-405.3, C.R.S. 2020 (sexual assault on a child by one in a position of trust); § 18-3-405.4, C.R.S. 2020 (internet sexual exploitation of a child); § 18-3-405.5, C.R.S. 2020 (sexual assault on a client by a psychotherapist). It seems unlikely that the General Assembly would have mandated such an instruction in prosecutions for sexual assault on a child and, at the same time, excluded prosecutions for sexual assault on a child by one in a position of trust. Thus, it is reasonable to read section 18-3-408’s reference to “18-3-405” as encompassing the three offenses that are separated by means of decimal point numeration. Irrespective of whether this is a correct construction, because these three offenses proscribe conduct that is so similar to the conduct prohibited by sections 18-3-402 to 18-3-405, the Committee recommends that trial courts give a gender bias instruction as a matter of discretion.

Instead, a defendant may assume a position of trust through an ongoing and continuous supervisory relationship with the victim.”).

6. See People v. Johnson, 2016 COA 15, ¶¶ 18, 23, 381 P.3d 348, 352–53 (holding that, because the crime of unlawful sexual contact requires that the defendant act “knowingly,” such contact cannot occur if the defendant is asleep and unaware of his conduct).

3-4:56.7.INT UNLAWFUL SEXUAL CONDUCT BY A PEACE OFFICER – INTERROGATORY (AGGRAVATED CONDUCT)

If you find the defendant not guilty of unlawful sexual conduct by a peace officer, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of unlawful sexual conduct by a peace officer, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your guilty verdict and then answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was sexual intrusion or penetration inflicted on the victim? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The prosecution has the burden to prove the infliction of sexual intrusion or penetration beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should indicate “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should indicate “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

3-4:57 FAILURE TO REGISTER AS A SEX OFFENDER (GENERAL)

The elements of the crime of failure to register as a sex offender (general) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was required to register as a sex offender, and
4. knowingly,
5. failed to register with [insert relevant provision from Article 22 of Title 16] or comply with the requirement that a registrant [insert relevant provision from Article 22 of Title 16].
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure to register as a sex offender (general).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-412.5(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020; see also People v. Poage, 272 P.3d 1113, 1116 (Colo. App. 2011) (“When the People elected to proceed under section 18-3-412.5(1)(g) and (i), they abandoned their arguments under section 18-3-412.5(1)(a). . . . [W]e reject the People’s contention that subsections (a) through (k) of section 18-3-412.5(1) merely delineate acts that provide examples of a registrant’s failure to register and do not create or define crimes.”).

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).

3. In People v. Lopez, 140 P.3d 106, 113 (Colo. App. 2005), a divided division of the Court of Appeals held that “failure to register as a sex offender is not a strict liability offense but includes the mental state of ‘knowingly.’” The Committee has drafted a model instruction that reflects a narrow reading of Lopez, with the imputed mens rea added only to section 18-3-412.5(1)(a), which is the sole provision that the defendant in Lopez was convicted of violating. See People v. Lopez, 140 P.3d at 114 (Russel, J., concurring in part and dissenting in part) (noting the inclusion of a mens rea in sections 18-3-412.5(1)(c) and (e), and observing that “the legislature chose to require proof of culpability for certain acts and to dispense with this requirement for other types of violations”).

4. The Colorado Sex Offender Registration Act (CSRA) includes definitions for numerous terms. See § 16-22-102, C.R.S. 2020. Because those terms do not appear in section 18-3-412.5, the statutory definitions are not included in Chapter F. Accordingly, when necessary, refer to section 16-22-102 and draft definitional instructions for any terms that are relevant to the particular requirement(s) of the CSRA that the defendant is charged with violating.

5. See Instruction H:45 (affirmative defense of “uncontrollable circumstances”).

6. See People v. Allman, 2012 COA 212, ¶¶ 21–29, 321 P.3d 557, 564–66 (for purposes of the offense of failure to register as a sex offender in violation of section 18-3-412.5(1)(a), a motor vehicle may qualify as “residence,” within the meaning of § 16-22-102(5.7), because that definition does not require that there be an address).

3-4:58 FAILURE TO REGISTER AS A SEX OFFENDER (SUBMISSION OF FORM)

The elements of the crime of failure to register as a sex offender (submission of form) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. was required to register as a sex offender, and
  4. submitted a registration form containing false information or an incomplete registration form.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure to register as a sex offender (submission of form).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure to register as a sex offender (submission of form).

[Further, the defendant was convicted of a “child sex crime” if: [insert a description of the factual issue(s) that the jury is to determine; use numbered enumeration for multiple issues]].

COMMENT

1. Under section 18-3-412.5(1), the question of whether the defendant was required to register may involve issues of law for the court to determine. For example, it seems clear that it is the court’s role to analyze the statutory definition of an offense for which a defendant was previously convicted in order to determine, as a preliminary matter of law, whether, under section 16-22-103(2)(c)(I)(A), C.R.S. 2020, the prior conviction was for “an offense that requires proof of unlawful sexual behavior as an element of the offense.” However, once a court has made that initial determination and concluded that a prior conviction satisfies that statutory definition, the court must submit to the jury the question of whether, in fact, it was the defendant who was convicted as alleged. See also, e.g., People v. Brooks, 2012 COA 52, ¶¶ 10–18, 296 P.3d 216, 217–19 (reversing a conviction for failure to register as a sex offender based on a determination that, as a matter of law, defendant’s prior out-of-state conviction for “indecent with a child by exposure” was not a conviction that triggered a requirement to register as a sex offender pursuant to section 16-22-103(1)(b)).

Likewise, the court may need to determine whether a prior conviction was for a “child sex crime” under the definition in section 16-22-108(2.5)(c), which is incorporated into section 18-3-412.5(1)(k), C.R.S. 2020 (registration of an online identity). But, here again, once the court has determined that a prior conviction so qualifies, the court must have the jury make a factual determination as to whether the defendant was the person who was convicted as alleged.

3-4:69 FAILURE TO VERIFY LOCATION AS A SEX OFFENDER

The elements of the crime of failure to verify location as a sex offender are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. was required to register as a sex offender, and
  4. lacked a fixed residence, and
  5. failed to report the location[s] where he [she] remained without a fixed residence, at least every [three] month[s], to each local law enforcement agency in whose jurisdiction he [she] was registered as a sex offender.
- [6. and that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure to verify location as a sex offender.

2. See Instruction H:45 (affirmative defense of “uncontrollable circumstances”).

3. It is unclear whether the court or the jury is to determine the date on which the defendant first “lacked a fixed residence.” See § 16-22-102(4.3), C.R.S. 2020 (defining “lacks a fixed residence” with reference to the definition of a “residence” in section 16-22-102(5.7)); § 16-22-108(3), C.R.S. 2020 (enumerating events that trigger a requirement to register within five business days).

4. Nor is it apparent whether (or how) the court is to instruct the jury concerning the deadlines for any reporting procedures that had been established by the local jurisdiction(s) to whom the defendant was obligated to report (though it is evident that the initial question of whether the defendant was subject to quarterly or annual reporting is an issue of law for the court to resolve). See § 16-22-109(3.5)(c)(I), (II), C.R.S. 2020 (giving local law enforcement agencies latitude to establish reporting schedules, provided that the schedules are within the parameters of the annual or quarterly reporting requirements). Accordingly, in a case that implicates either or both of these issues, the Committee recommends that the trial court draft a special instruction reflecting its ruling(s).

Similarly, it may be necessary to draft a special instruction specifying what information the defendant was obligated to include in the report. See § 16-22-109(3.5)(c)(I), (II) (“The person shall be required to verify his or her location or locations and verify any and all information required to be reported pursuant to this section.”).

5. In 2016, the Committee modified the second citation to section 16-22-109(3.5)(c) in Comment 4.

3-4:71 UNLAWFUL ELECTRONIC SEXUAL COMMUNICATION (EXPOSE OR TOUCH)

The elements of the crime of unlawful electronic sexual communication (expose or touch) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. importuned, invited, or enticed,
5. through communication via a computer network or system, telephone network, or data network or by a text message or instant message,
6. a person whom the defendant knew or believed to be fifteen years of age or older but less than eighteen years of age and at least four years younger than the defendant, and
7. the defendant was in a position of trust with respect to that person,
8. to expose or touch the person's own or another person's intimate parts while communicating with the defendant via a computer network or system, telephone network, or data network or by a text message or instant message.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful electronic sexual communication (expose or touch).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful electronic sexual communication (expose or touch).

3-4:72 UNLAWFUL ELECTRONIC SEXUAL COMMUNICATION (OBSERVE)

The elements of the crime of unlawful electronic sexual communication (observe) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. importuned, invited, or enticed,

- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

3-4:73 UNLAWFUL ELECTRONIC SEXUAL COMMUNICATION (PERSUADE TO MEET)

The elements of the crime of unlawful electronic sexual communication (persuade to meet) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. communicated over a computer or computer network, telephone network, or data network or by a text message or instant message,
5. to a person the defendant knew or believed to be fifteen years of age or older but less than eighteen years of age and at least four years younger than the defendant, and
6. in that communication or in any subsequent communication by computer or computer network, telephone network, or data network or by text message or instant message,
7. described explicit sexual conduct, and
8. in connection with that description, made a statement persuading or inviting the person to meet the defendant for any purpose, and
9. the defendant was in a position of trust with respect to that person.
- [10. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

(persuade to meet).

3-4:74.INT UNLAWFUL ELECTRONIC SEXUAL COMMUNICATION (PERSUADE TO MEET) – INTERROGATORY (SEXUAL INTENT)

If you find the defendant not guilty of unlawful electronic sexual communication (persuade to meet), you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of unlawful electronic sexual communication (persuade to meet), you should sign the verdict form to indicate your guilty verdict and then answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant act with sexual intent? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant acted with sexual intent only if:

1. the defendant acted with the intent to meet for the purpose of engaging in sexual exploitation or sexual contact.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should indicate “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should indicate “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-418(4)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:337 (defining “sexual contact”); see, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

3. The statute provides for a heightened penalty if the defendant had “the purpose of engaging in sexual exploitation as defined in section 18-6-403 or sexual contact as defined in section 18-3-401.” Although section 18-3-401 defines “sexual contact,” see Instruction F:337, section 18-6-403 does not define “sexual exploitation” as a term; rather, it criminalizes various forms of such exploitation of a child. Accordingly, assuming that the defendant is not separately charged with sexual exploitation of a child, the court should provide a modified instruction defining the crime. See Instructions 6-4:17 to 6-4:21. Specifically, the court should make the following modifications: (1) the first sentence should read, “A person commits the crime of sexual exploitation of a child”; (2) element number 1, “That the defendant,” should be replaced with “The person”; and (3) the two concluding paragraphs explaining the burden of proof should be omitted.

Furthermore, because there are five different forms of sexual exploitation of a child, see id., the court and the parties should determine which modified version(s) to provide to the jury, depending on the facts of the case.

4. The Committee added this instruction in 2019 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 145, sec. 1, § 18-3-418(4)(b), 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 1758, 1759.

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The Committee added this chapter in 2015.

3-5:01 HUMAN TRAFFICKING FOR INVOLUNTARY SERVITUDE

The elements of the crime of human trafficking for involuntary servitude are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. sold, recruited, harbored, transported, transferred, isolated, enticed, provided, received, or obtained by any means,
5. another person,
6. for the purpose of coercing the other person to perform labor or services.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of human trafficking for involuntary servitude.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of human trafficking for involuntary servitude.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-503(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:56.5 (defining “coercing”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).

3-5:02.INT HUMAN TRAFFICKING FOR INVOLUNTARY SERVITUDE – INTERROGATORY (MINOR)

If you find the defendant not guilty of human trafficking for involuntary servitude, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of human trafficking for involuntary servitude, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question:

Was the trafficked person a minor? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The trafficked person was a minor only if:

1. the trafficked person was less than eighteen years of age.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

2. Cf. People v. Cardenas, 2014 COA 35, ¶ 39, 338 P.3d 430, 436 (holding, under a version of the trafficking in children statute that was repealed in 2014, that “[i]f the legislature intended for the trafficking in children statute to apply to services, it would have said so”).

3-5:03 HUMAN TRAFFICKING FOR SEXUAL SERVITUDE

The elements of the crime of human trafficking for sexual servitude are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. sold, recruited, harbored, transported, transferred, isolated, enticed, provided, received, or obtained by any means,
5. another person,
6. for the purpose of coercing the person to engage in commercial sexual activity.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of human trafficking for sexual servitude.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of human trafficking for sexual servitude.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-504(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:57.5 (defining “commercial sexual activity”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).

3-5:04 HUMAN TRAFFICKING OF A MINOR FOR SEXUAL SERVITUDE

The elements of the crime of human trafficking of a minor for sexual servitude are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. sold, recruited, harbored, transported, transferred, isolated, enticed, provided, received, obtained by any means, maintained, or made available,
5. a person less than eighteen years of age,
6. for the purpose of commercial sexual activity.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of human trafficking of a minor for sexual servitude.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of human trafficking of a minor for sexual servitude.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-504(2)(a)(I), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:57.5 (defining “commercial sexual activity”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:203.5 (defining “maintain”); Instruction F:204.5 (defining “makes available”); see also § 18-3-502(8), C.R.S. 2020 (defining “minor,” as incorporated in the fifth element above).

3. In 2017, the Committee modified the citation in Comment 1 pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 250, sec. 2, § 18-3-504(2)(a)(I), 2017 Colo. Sess. Laws 1049, 1049.

3-5:04.5 HUMAN TRAFFICKING OF A MINOR FOR SEXUAL SERVITUDE (TRAVEL SERVICES)

The elements of the crime of human trafficking of a minor for sexual servitude (travel services) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. advertised, offered to sell, or sold,
5. travel services that facilitate human trafficking of a minor for sexual servitude.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of human trafficking of a minor for sexual servitude (travel services).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of human trafficking of a minor for sexual servitude (travel services).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-504(2)(a)(II), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:375.8 (defining “travel services”).

3. Because the statute criminalizes “an activity prohibited pursuant to subsection (2)(a)(I) of this section,” the court should also give Instruction 3-5:04, with the following modifications: (1) the first sentence should read, “A person commits the crime of human trafficking of a minor for sexual servitude if”; (2) the first element should read, “The person”; and (3) the two concluding paragraphs explaining the burden of proof should be omitted.

4. Section 18-3-504(2.5) provides for an affirmative defense if the defendant “can demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that, at the time of the offense, he or she was a victim of human trafficking for sexual servitude who was forced or coerced into engaging in the human trafficking of minors for sexual servitude.” However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction. Furthermore, the Committee expresses no opinion regarding whether the statute unconstitutionally shifts the burden of proof to the defendant to establish the affirmative defense. See People ex rel. Juhan v. Dist. Court, 439 P.2d 741, 745 (Colo. 1968) (“[T]he due process clause of the state constitution includes the doctrine that the state must prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, and that the accused cannot be required by legislative enactment to prove insanity or any other defense by a preponderance of the evidence.”).

5. The Committee added this instruction in 2017 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 250, sec. 2, § 18-3-504(2)(a)(II), 2017 Colo. Sess. Laws 1049, 1050.

3-5:05.SP HUMAN TRAFFICKING OF A MINOR FOR SEXUAL SERVITUDE – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (UNAVAILABLE DEFENSES)

In any prosecution for human trafficking of a minor for sexual servitude, it is not a defense that the person less than eighteen years of age consented to being sold, recruited, harbored, transported, transferred, isolated, enticed, provided, received, obtained, or maintained by the defendant for the purpose of engaging in commercial sexual activity; the minor consented to participating in commercial sexual activity; the defendant did not know the minor's age or reasonably believed the minor to be eighteen years of age or older; or the minor or another person represented the minor to be eighteen years of age or older.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-504(2)(c), C.R.S. 2020.

3-5:06.SP HUMAN TRAFFICKING FOR SEXUAL SERVITUDE (INCLUDING OF A MINOR) – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (RECEIPT OF PROCEEDS UNNECESSARY)

A person does not need to receive any of the proceeds of any commercial sexual activity to commit human trafficking [of a minor] for sexual servitude.

2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. made a credible threat to another person, either directly, or indirectly through a third person, and
5. in connection with the threat, repeatedly followed, approached, contacted, or placed under surveillance that person, a member of that person's immediate family, or someone with whom that person was having or previously had a continuing relationship.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of stalking (credible threat and conduct).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of stalking (credible threat and repeated communication).

3-6:03 STALKING (SERIOUS EMOTIONAL DISTRESS)

The elements of the crime of stalking (serious emotional distress) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly repeatedly followed, approached, contacted, placed under surveillance, or made any form of communication with another person, either directly, or indirectly through a third person,
  4. in a manner that would cause a reasonable person to suffer serious emotional distress, and
  5. which did cause that person, a member of that person's immediate family, or someone with whom that person was having or previously had a continuing relationship to suffer serious emotional distress.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of stalking (serious emotional distress).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3-602(1)(c), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:67 (defining “conduct ‘in connection with’ a credible threat”); Instruction F:77 (defining “credible threat”); Instruction F:178 (defining “immediate family”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:312 (defining “repeated” or “repeatedly”).

3. Section 18-3-602 does not define “serious emotional distress.” See People v. Yascavage, 80 P.3d 899, 901 (Colo. App. 2003) (holding that the provision defining stalking, then codified as section 18-9-111(4)(b)(III), “prohibits contact that inflicts ‘serious emotional distress’ and provides an objective ‘reasonable person’ standard to measure whether the emotional distress inflicted upon the victim was ‘serious’”), aff’d on other grounds, 101 P.3d 1090 (Colo. 2004).

4. See People v. Cross, 127 P.3d 71, 77 (Colo. 2006) (holding that the mens rea of “knowingly” for stalking – then codified as section 18-9-111(4)(a) – does “not apply to require that a perpetrator be aware that his or her acts would cause a reasonable person to suffer serious emotional distress”).

5. Although section 18-3-602(1)(c) twice lists the types of persons to whom the provision applies (once with regard to the defendant’s conduct, and once with regard to the actual effect of that conduct), the Committee is of the view that the meaning of the statute is not altered by using only the term “another person” in the fourth element (because the sixth element makes clear that the infliction of serious emotional distress can be proved either with respect to “that person,” or with respect to any person who has a specified connection to “that person”).

6. See People v. Folsom, 2017 COA 146M, ¶ 55, 431 P.3d 652, 661 (“[I]t is not each individual act of stalking that must cause a reasonable person to suffer emotional distress, but the combined acts of the defendant that would cause such a result.”).

7. In 2015, the Committee combined the third and fourth elements and renumbered the subsequent elements. This corrected format does not reflect a change in the Committee’s thinking. Rather, this is the version that the Committee approved in 2014 based on People v. Cross, supra. However, due to an oversight, the third and fourth elements were not consolidated in COLJI-Crim. 3-6:03 (2014).

8. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 6.

3-6:04.SP STALKING (SERIOUS EMOTIONAL DISTRESS) – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (EVIDENCE OF TREATMENT NOT REQUIRED)

For purposes of the crime of stalking (serious emotional distress), the prosecution need not show that a person received professional treatment or counseling to prove that he [she] suffered serious emotional distress.

COMMENT

3-6:05.INT STALKING – INTERROGATORY (VIOLATION OF ORDER OR CONDITION)

If you find the defendant not guilty of stalking, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of stalking, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question:

Was the stalking in violation of an existing order? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The stalking was in violation of an existing order only if:

1. a temporary or permanent protection order, injunction, or condition of bond, probation, or parole, or any other court order had issued against the defendant, and
2. that temporary or permanent protection order, injunction, or condition of bond, probation, or parole, or any other court order was in effect at the time the defendant committed the stalking offense of which you found him [her] guilty, and
3. that temporary or permanent protection order, injunction, or condition of bond, probation, or parole, or any other court order prohibited [insert description of behavior constituting stalking].

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. Section 18-3.5-110, C.R.S. 2020, provides as follows: “Nothing in this article shall be construed to confer the status of ‘person’ upon a human embryo, fetus, or unborn child at any stage of development prior to live birth.”

2. The Committee added this chapter in 2015.

3.5:01 UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF PREGNANCY IN THE FIRST DEGREE

The elements of the crime of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the first degree are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with the intent,
4. to terminate unlawfully the pregnancy of a woman,
5. unlawfully terminated the woman's pregnancy.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the first degree.

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent"); Instruction F:282.5 (defining "pregnancy"); Instruction F:381.5 (defining "unlawful termination of pregnancy").

3. See Instruction H:45.3 (affirmative defense of “medical care or service”); Instruction H:45.5 (affirmative defense of “defendant’s own pregnancy”).

3.5:02.INT UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF PREGNANCY IN THE FIRST DEGREE – INTERROGATORY (DEATH)

If you find the defendant not guilty of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the first degree, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the first degree, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question:

Did the unlawful termination cause the woman’s death? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The unlawful termination caused the woman’s death only if:

1. the woman died as a result of the defendant’s unlawful termination of her pregnancy.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3.5-103(2), C.R.S. 2020.

3.5:03 UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF PREGNANCY IN THE SECOND DEGREE

The elements of the crime of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the second degree are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. caused the unlawful termination of the pregnancy of a woman.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the second degree.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the second degree.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3.5-104(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:282.5 (defining “pregnancy”); Instruction F:381.5 (defining “unlawful termination of pregnancy”); see also CJI-Civ. 9:18 (2014) (defining “cause”).
3. See Instruction H:45.3 (affirmative defense of “medical care or service”); Instruction H:45.5 (affirmative defense of “defendant’s own pregnancy”).

3.5:04.INT UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF PREGNANCY IN THE SECOND DEGREE – INTERROGATORY (PROVOKED AND SUDDEN HEAT OF PASSION)

If you find the defendant not guilty of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the second degree, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form indicating your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the second degree, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question:

Was the defendant acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant was acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion only if:

1. the act causing the unlawful termination of pregnancy was performed upon a sudden heat of passion,
2. caused by a serious and highly provoking act of the intended victim,
3. affecting the defendant sufficiently to excite an irresistible passion in a reasonable person, and
4. between the provocation and the act causing the unlawful termination of pregnancy, there was an insufficient interval of time for the voice of reason and humanity to be heard.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant was not acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion. In order to meet this burden, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, at least one of the above numbered conditions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should find that the defendant was acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion, mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should find that the defendant was not acting upon a provoked and sudden heat of passion, mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

3.5:05 UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF PREGNANCY IN THE THIRD DEGREE

The elements of the crime of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the third degree are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. under circumstances manifesting extreme indifference to the value of human life,
5. engaged in conduct which created a grave risk of death to another person, and
6. thereby caused the unlawful termination of the pregnancy of a woman.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the third degree.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the third degree.

COMMENT

3.5:06 UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF PREGNANCY IN THE FOURTH DEGREE

The elements of the crime of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the fourth degree are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. recklessly,
4. caused the unlawful termination of the pregnancy of a woman,
5. when the defendant knew, or reasonably should have known, that the woman was pregnant.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the fourth degree.

3.5:07.INT UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF PREGNANCY IN THE FOURTH DEGREE – INTERROGATORY (UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF PREGNANCY DURING SPECIFIED FELONY)

If you find the defendant not guilty of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the fourth degree, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of unlawful termination of pregnancy in the fourth degree, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question:

Was the pregnancy of a non-participant unlawfully terminated?
(Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The pregnancy of a non-participant was unlawfully terminated only if:

1. the pregnancy of [insert name of woman] was unlawfully terminated,
2. during the commission or attempted commission of or flight from the commission or attempted commission of [insert name(s) of qualifying offense(s) enumerated in section 18-3.5-106(2)(b)], and
3. [insert name of woman] was not a participant in [insert name(s) of qualifying offense(s)], and
4. the defendant was a principal in the criminal act or attempted criminal act.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

3. Section 18-3.5-106(2)(b) references section 18-1-603 to “describe[]” the term “principal.” However, section 18-1-603 defines complicitor liability. The model instruction uses the language of section 18-3.5-106(2)(b) even though the term “principal” is not defined in section 18-1-603.

3.5:08 VEHICULAR UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF PREGNANCY

The elements of the crime of vehicular unlawful termination of pregnancy are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. operated or drove a motor vehicle,
4. in a reckless manner, and
5. such conduct was the proximate cause of the unlawful termination of the pregnancy of a woman.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of vehicular unlawful termination of pregnancy.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of vehicular unlawful termination of pregnancy.

COMMENT

3. See Instruction 3-1:13, Comment 3 (discussing how to define the terms "operated" and "drove").

3.5:09 AGGRAVATED VEHICULAR UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF PREGNANCY

The elements of the crime of aggravated vehicular unlawful termination of pregnancy are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. operated or drove a motor vehicle,
4. while under the influence of alcohol or one or more drugs, or a combination of both alcohol and one or more drugs, and
5. such conduct was the proximate cause of the unlawful termination of the pregnancy of a woman.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of aggravated vehicular unlawful termination of pregnancy.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of aggravated vehicular unlawful termination of pregnancy.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3.5-108(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:109 (defining "driving under the influence" (vehicular homicide and vehicular assault)); Instruction F:236 (defining "motor vehicle"); Instruction F:252.5 (defining "one or more drugs");

Ch. 9, § B (Causation) (2012) (“The [Colorado Supreme Court Committee on Civil Jury Instructions] has intentionally eliminated the use of the word ‘proximate’ when instructing the jury on causation issues because the concept of proximate cause is adequately included in the instructions in this Part B and because the word ‘proximate’ tends to be confusing to the jury.”); People v. Stewart, 55 P.3d 107, 116 (Colo. 2002) (discussing the significance of the different definitions of “cause” and “proximate cause” that appeared in COLJI-Crim. (1983)).

3. See Instruction 3-1:13, Comment 3 (discussing “operate”).

4. The third Comment to Instruction 3-1:13 notes that there appears to be an internal inconsistency involving the use of the terms “motor vehicle” and “vehicle” in sections 18-3-106(1)(b)(I) and 18-3-106(1)(b)(IV). That inconsistency is replicated in sections 18-3.5-108(1)(a) and 18-3.5-108(1)(b)(I). See also Instruction 3-2:27 (vehicular assault (under the influence)), Comment 3.

3.5:10.SP AGGRAVATED VEHICULAR UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF PREGNANCY – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (BLOOD OR BREATH ALCOHOL LEVEL)

As to the charge of aggravated vehicular unlawful termination of pregnancy, the amount of alcohol in the defendant's blood or breath at the time of the alleged offense, or within a reasonable time thereafter, as shown by analysis of the defendant's blood or breath, gives rise to the following:

(a) Presumption:

It shall be presumed that the defendant was not under the influence of alcohol if there was at such time 0.05 or less grams of alcohol per one hundred milliliters of blood, or if there was at such time 0.05 or less grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath.

A presumption requires you to find a fact, as if it had been established by evidence, unless the presumption is rebutted by evidence to the contrary.

(b) Evidentiary Consideration:

If there was at such time more than 0.05 but less than 0.08 grams of alcohol per one hundred milliliters of blood, or if there was at such time more than 0.05 but less than 0.08 grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath, such fact may be considered with other competent evidence in determining whether or not the defendant was under the influence of alcohol.

(c) Permissible inference:

A permissible inference that the defendant was under the influence of alcohol may be drawn if there was at such time 0.08 or more grams of alcohol per one hundred milliliters of blood, or if there was at such time 0.08 or more grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that an evidentiary consideration or a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3.5-108(3)(a)–(c), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Although the statute speaks in terms of a presumption, the concept should be explained as a permissible inference. See Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

3.5:11 CARELESS DRIVING RESULTING IN UNLAWFUL TERMINATION OF PREGNANCY

The elements of the crime of careless driving resulting in unlawful termination of pregnancy are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. drove a [motor vehicle] [bicycle] [electrical assisted bicycle] [electric scooter] [low-power scooter],
  4. in a careless and imprudent manner, without due regard for the width, grade, curves, corners, traffic, and use of the streets and highways and all other attendant circumstances, and
  5. caused the unlawful termination of a pregnancy of a woman.
- [6. and that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of careless driving resulting in unlawful termination of pregnancy.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of careless driving resulting in unlawful termination of pregnancy.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-3.5-109(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:32 (defining “bicycle”); Instruction F:114.9 (defining “electric scooter”); Instruction F:115 (defining “electrical assisted bicycle”);

3. See People v. Zwegardt, 2012 COA 119, ¶ 34, 298 P.3d 1018, 1025 (“Criminal negligence requires a gross deviation from the standard of care. § 18-1-501(3). Careless driving requires that the defendant drive without due regard. A person who grossly deviates from the standard of care that a reasonable person would exercise and fails to perceive a substantial and unjustified risk that a result will occur or that a circumstance exists, has necessarily acted without due regard for safety.”).

4. In 2019, the Committee added “electric scooter” to the third element, and it added the cross-reference to Instruction F:114.9 in Comment 2. See Ch. 271, sec. 18, § 18-3.5-109(1), 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 2557, 2566.

4-1:01 FIRST DEGREE ARSON

The elements of the crime of first degree arson are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. set fire to, burned, caused to be burned, or by the use of any explosive damaged or destroyed, or caused to be damaged or destroyed,
5. any building or occupied structure,
6. of another,
7. without that person's consent.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of first degree arson.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of first degree arson.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-102(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:40 (defining "building"); Instruction F:41 (defining "building of another"); Instruction F:248 (defining "occupied structure"); Instruction F:291 (defining property "of another").

3. The term “any explosive” is not defined in Article 4. Previously, a note to COLJI-Crim. 4-1(2) (2008) suggested that the term was synonymous with the term “explosive or incendiary device,” as defined by section 18-12-109(1)(a)(I), C.R.S. 2020. Under that interpretation, a defendant could not be convicted of first degree arson for committing the offense by means of ammunition or ammunition components (e.g., gunpowder, primers, etc.). Cf. § 18-12-109(1)(a)(II), C.R.S. 2020 (excluding such substances from the definition of an “explosive or incendiary device”). However, the Committee is now of the view that the General Assembly may have intended for the term “any explosive” to have a broader meaning. Accordingly, the Committee has concluded that, because the term “any explosive” is one of common understanding, the better practice is not to define it.

4. See People v. LeFebre, 546 P.2d 952 (Colo. 1976) (upholding a conviction for conspiracy to commit first degree arson despite the defendant’s claims of legal impossibility and insufficient evidence, and observing that the terms “burn” or “set fire to,” require an “ignition of or an alteration or destruction of the fiber or texture of the materials composing the ‘building’ or ‘structure,’” and not merely “scorching or discoloration”).

5. See People v. Welborne, 2018 COA 127, ¶ 21, 457 P.3d 71, 76 (holding that criminal mischief is a lesser included offense of first-degree arson).

4-1:02.INT FIRST DEGREE ARSON – INTERROGATORY (EXPLOSIVE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of first degree arson, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of first degree arson, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant commit the offense of first degree arson by the use of an explosive? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant committed the offense of first degree arson by the use of an explosive only if:

1. the defendant committed the offense of first degree arson of which you found him [her] guilty, by using any explosive.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

3. See Instruction 4-1:01, Comment 3 (discussing the meaning of the term “any explosive”).
4. Give this interrogatory only if, in the elemental instruction defining the offense, the jury is instructed in the alternative as to the method.

4-1:03 SECOND DEGREE ARSON

The elements of the crime of second degree arson are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. set fire to, burned, or caused to be burned, or by the use of any explosive damaged or destroyed, or caused to be damaged or destroyed,
  5. any property of another, other than a building or occupied structure,
  6. without that person's consent.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of second degree arson.

4-1:04.INT SECOND DEGREE ARSON – INTERROGATORY (SUBSTANTIAL PROPERTY DAMAGE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of second degree arson, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of second degree arson, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the arson result in substantial property damage? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The arson resulted in substantial property damage only if:

1. the damage caused by the defendant’s commission of the offense of second degree arson of which you found him [her] guilty amounted to one hundred dollars or more.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. intentionally,
4. damaged any property,
5. by means of fire or explosives,
6. with intent to defraud.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of third degree arson.

3. knowingly or recklessly started or maintained a fire or caused an explosion, on his [her] own property or that of another, and
4. by so doing, placed another in danger of death or serious bodily injury or placed any building or occupied structure of another in danger of damage.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of fourth degree arson.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of fourth degree arson.

3. See Copeland v. People, 2 P.3d 1283, 1286–87 (Colo. 2000) (mental state required for fourth-degree arson is that fire be started or maintained knowingly or recklessly, and prosecution need not prove intent to endanger; a firefighter responding to extinguish a fire falls within the meaning of an endangered person).

4. See Instruction H:46 (affirmative defense of “controlled agricultural burn”).

4-1:07.INT FOURTH DEGREE ARSON – INTERROGATORY (ENDANGERMENT OF A PERSON)

If you find the defendant not guilty of fourth degree arson, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of fourth degree arson, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the fourth degree arson committed by endangering a person?
(Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The fourth degree arson was committed by endangering a person only if:

1. the defendant placed another person in danger of death or serious bodily injury in the commission of the fourth degree arson of which you found him [her] guilty.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

3. See Instruction F:332 (defining “serious bodily injury”).
4. Give this interrogatory only if, in the fourth element of the instruction defining the offense, the jury is instructed in the alternative as to the consequences.

4-1:08.INT FOURTH DEGREE ARSON – INTERROGATORY (ENDANGERMENT OF VALUABLE PROPERTY)

If you find the defendant not guilty of fourth degree arson, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of fourth degree arson, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the fourth degree arson committed by endangering valuable property? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The fourth degree arson was committed by endangering valuable property only if:

1. the defendant placed any building or occupied structure of another in danger of damage in the commission of the fourth degree arson of which you have found him [her] guilty, and
2. the value of the property was one hundred dollars or more.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-105(3), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

3. Section 18-4-105 does not include a sentence enhancement provision for placing another person in danger of bodily injury that does not rise to the level of serious bodily injury. It is unclear whether section 18-4-105(3)'s statement that it applies "if only property is thus endangered" should be understood as meaning that it applies if no person was placed in danger of serious bodily injury (or death). Under a contrary construction, a defendant who endangered property worth more than one hundred dollars could avoid application of section 18-4-105(3) by asserting that he or she also placed a person in danger of simple bodily injury.

Likewise, this same issue of statutory construction could arise with respect to section 18-4-105(4), for which no interrogatory is necessary (because the provision describes the base level of the offense, where only property worth less than one hundred dollars was endangered).

4-2:01 FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY

The elements of the crime of first degree burglary are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. entered unlawfully, or remained unlawfully after a lawful or unlawful entry,
5. in a building or occupied structure,
6. with intent,
7. to commit therein the crime[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)], against another person or property, and
8. in effecting entry or while in the building or occupied structure or in immediate flight from the building or occupied structure,
- [9. the defendant or another participant in the crime committed the crime of assault or the crime of menacing against any person.]
- [9. the defendant or another participant in the crime was armed with explosives.]
- [9. the defendant or another participant in the crime used a deadly weapon or possessed and threatened the use of a deadly weapon.]
- [10. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of first degree burglary.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of first degree burglary.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-202(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:40 (defining “building”); Instruction F:88 (defining “deadly weapon”); Instruction F:126 (defining “enters unlawfully” and “remains unlawfully”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:248 (defining “occupied structure”); see also Chapter 3-2 (defining assaults and menacing); see also Instruction 4-1:01, Comment 3 (discussing the meaning of the term “any explosive”).
3. See People v. Palmer, 87 P.3d 137, 140 (Colo. App. 2003) (although a jury must unanimously agree that a defendant charged with first degree burglary intended to commit a specific underlying crime, it need not unanimously agree on the evidence or theory by which a particular element of the underlying crime is established).
4. In 2013, both the provision of the first degree burglary statute relating to deadly weapons and the definition of a “deadly weapon” were amended, following the supreme court’s decision in Montez v. People, 2012 CO 6, ¶¶ 3-22, 269 P.3d 1228, 1229-32 (the General Assembly has not classified firearms as per se deadly weapons for purposes of the first degree burglary statute; the legislature did not intend theft of a firearm from a building to constitute first degree burglary regardless of the manner the burglar used or intended to use the firearm).
5. If the defendant is not separately charged with a referenced offense, give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. Place the elemental instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense.

6. See Instruction 3-1:02, Comment 7 (discussing the supreme court’s interpretation of the term “immediate flight,” for purposes of the felony-murder statute, in Auman v. People, 109 P.3d 647, 650–51 (Colo. 2005)); People v. Fuentes, 258 P.3d 320, 327 (Colo. App. 2011) (applying the immediate flight standard of Auman and holding that “[T]he first degree burglary statute requires that the entry, the assault, and the flight be close in time and that the assault occur while fleeing from the building or occupied structure. A person therefore commits an assault in immediate flight from a building where the assault is part of a continuous integrated attempt to get away from the building.”).

7. See People v. Denhartog, 2019 COA 23, ¶¶ 77–79, 452 P.3d 148, 160 (relying on People v. Garcia, 940 P.2d 357 (Colo. 1997), to hold that first-degree criminal trespass is not a lesser included offense of second-degree burglary). + But see People v. Gillis, 2020 COA 68, ¶ 37, 471 P.3d 1197, 1205 (holding that first-degree criminal trespass is a lesser included offense of first-degree burglary).

8. In 2015, the Committee corrected the seventh element by adding the following statutory language which was inadvertently omitted in COLJI-Crim. 4-2:01 (2014): “against another person or property.”

9. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 7.

10. + In 2020, the Committee added the citation to Gillis in Comment 7.

4-2:02.INT FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY – INTERROGATORY (CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of first degree burglary, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of first degree burglary, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the burglary involve a controlled substance? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The burglary involved a controlled substance only if:

1. the property involved in the [insert name(s) of property offense(s) from element 7] was a controlled substance,
2. within a pharmacy or other place having lawful possession of it.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

4-2:03 SECOND DEGREE BURGLARY

The elements of the crime of second degree burglary are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. broke an entrance into, entered unlawfully in, or remained unlawfully after a lawful or unlawful entry in,
5. a building or occupied structure,
6. with intent to commit therein the crime[s] of [insert name(s) of offense(s)] against another person or property.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of second degree burglary.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of second degree burglary.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-203(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:40 (defining "building"); Instruction F:126 (defining "enters unlawfully" and "remains unlawfully"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:248 (defining "occupied structure").

3. It may be appropriate to draft a special instruction explaining that: “Intent to commit a crime against another person or property while in the dwelling can be formed either before or after [an] unlawful entry.” People v. Oram, 217 P.3d 883, 892 (Colo. App. 2009), aff’d on other grounds, Oram v. People, 255 P.3d 1032 (Colo. 2011). Likewise, it may be appropriate to draft a special instruction explaining that such an intent also can be formed after entering lawfully and remaining unlawfully. See People v. Larkins, 109 P.3d 1003, 1004-05 (Colo. App. 2004 ) (“In Cooper v. People, 973 P.2d 1234, 1240 (Colo. 1999), . . . the supreme court held that ‘the intent to commit a crime must coexist with the initial point of unlawful entry or remaining.’ However, Cooper was decided under the version of § 18-4-203 applicable to offenses committed before July 1, 1999. Soon after the Cooper decision was announced, the General Assembly amended the second degree burglary statute by adding the ‘after a lawful or unlawful entry’ language . . . above, thus removing the requirement that intent to commit a crime exist at the time of entry.”); see also People v. Wartena, 2012 COA 12, ¶¶ 20–24, 296 P.3d 136, 140 (explaining that, although “in People v. Fuentes, 258 P.3d 320, 323 (Colo. App. 2011), a division of [the Court of Appeals] cited Cooper for the proposition that ‘[t]he intent to commit a crime must be present at the very moment that the person trespasses,’ . . . we reject the contention that Fuentes somehow revived the Cooper court’s holding with respect to intent and implicitly disapproved of the more recent interpretations of section 18-4-203 noted in Larkins and [Oram v. People, 255 P.3d 1032, 1033 (Colo. 2011)].”).

4. In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense.

4-2:04.INT SECOND DEGREE BURGLARY – INTERROGATORY (DWELLING)

If you find the defendant not guilty of second degree burglary, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of second degree burglary, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the burglary of a dwelling? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The burglary was of a dwelling only if:

1. the structure burglarized by the defendant was a dwelling.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

3. In COLJI-Crim. (2008), the Committee stated that, because it was unclear whether a mens rea applied to the sentence enhancement factor concerning burglary of a dwelling, it had drafted three alternative instructions. See COLJI-Crim. 4-2:04.1, 4-2:04.2, 4-2:04.3 (2008). However, this question has not yet been resolved through appellate litigation. Cf. People v. Santana-Medrano, 165 P.3d 804, 807 (Colo. App. 2006) (although the substantive offense of sexual assault requires proof that the defendant acted “knowingly,” this mens rea does not also apply to the aggravating circumstances set forth in section 18-3-402(4)).

4-2:05.INT SECOND DEGREE BURGLARY – INTERROGATORY (THEFT OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of second degree burglary, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

Was the objective of the burglary the theft of a controlled substance?
(Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The objective of the burglary was the theft of a controlled substance only if:

1. the objective of the burglary was to commit theft of a controlled substance,
2. that was lawfully kept within any building or occupied structure.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

4-2:05.5.INT SECOND DEGREE BURGLARY – INTERROGATORY (THEFT OF FIREARM)

If you find the defendant not guilty of second degree burglary, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of second degree burglary, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the objective of the burglary the theft of a firearm? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The objective of the burglary was the theft of a firearm only if:

1. the objective of the burglary was to commit theft of one or more firearms or ammunition.

4-2:06 THIRD DEGREE BURGLARY

The elements of the crime of third degree burglary are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent,
4. to commit the crime[s] of [insert name of offense(s)],
5. entered or broke into,
6. any vault, safe, cash register, coin vending machine, product dispenser, money depository, safety deposit box, coin telephone, coin box, or other apparatus or equipment whether or not coin operated.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of third degree burglary.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of third degree burglary.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-204(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent").
3. In People v. Geyer, 942 P.2d 1297, 1300 (Colo. App. 1996), a division of the Court of Appeals accepted the People's concession that an instruction defining third degree burglary should have included the elements of “knowingly” and “unlawful entry” (though the division held that the omissions did not constitute plain error). However, the instruction at issue in Geyer was patterned on COLJI-Crim. 14:05 (1983), which, unlike the above model instruction, did not list “with intent” as a separate element modifying all subsequent elements. See § 18-1-503(3), C.R.S. 2020 (“If acting knowingly suffices to establish an element, that element also is established if a person acts intentionally.”); People v. Rivas, 77 P.3d 882, 889 (Colo. App. 2003) (observing, with respect to a second degree assault instruction, that “the better practice [is] to offset the mens rea requirement [of ‘with intent’] so that it modifies all the conduct elements”).

4. See Winter v. People, 126 P.3d 192, 196 (Colo. 2006) (“We find that an unsecured and unlocked locker which does not have the appearance of being employed for the safekeeping of valuables is not within the class of items contemplated by section 18-4-204(1).”).

4-2:07.INT THIRD DEGREE BURGLARY – INTERROGATORY (THEFT OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of third degree burglary, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of third degree burglary, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the objective of the burglary to commit theft of a controlled substance? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The objective of the burglary was to commit theft of a controlled substance only if:

1. the objective of the burglary was to commit the theft of a controlled substance,
2. that was lawfully kept in or upon the property burglarized.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-204(2), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:73 (defining “controlled substance” by referring users to the statutory schedules referenced in section § 18-18-102(5), C.R.S. 2020); Instruction 4-4:01 (theft); see, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

3. If the defendant is not separately charged with theft, give the jury the elemental instruction defining theft without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. See Instruction 4-4:01. Place the elemental instruction defining theft immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the theft offense.

4-2:08 POSSESSION OF BURGLARY TOOLS

The elements of the crime of possession of burglary tools are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. possessed any explosive, tool, instrument, or other article adapted, designed, or commonly used for committing or facilitating the commission of an offense involving forcible entry into premises or theft by a physical taking, and
  4. intended to use the thing possessed, or knew that some person intended to use the thing possessed, in the commission of such an offense.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of possession of burglary tools.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of possession of burglary tools.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-205(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent"); Instruction F:281 (defining "possession"); see also Instruction 4-1:01, Comment 3 (discussing the meaning of the term "any explosive").
3. See People v. Ridgeway, 2013 COA 17, ¶¶ 16-19, 307 P.3d 126, 129-30 (jury instruction on elements of the crime of possession of burglary tools violated defendant's constitutional right to have the People prove every element of a charged crime beyond a reasonable doubt; as instructed, the jury was only required to find that defendant had the "intent to use" the tools for some purpose, whether it be for the commission of a burglary or for some other, innocent purpose, and nothing in the instruction required the jury to find that defendant possessed a burglary tool with an intent to use it to commit a burglary or theft by a physical taking).

3. knowingly,
4. took anything of value,
5. from the person or presence of another,

4-3:02.INT ROBBERY – INTERROGATORY (AT-RISK PERSON)

If you find the defendant not guilty of robbery, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of robbery, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the victim an at-risk person? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The victim was an at-risk person only if:

- [1. the victim was an at-risk adult.]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk adult with IDD.]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk elder.]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk juvenile.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

4-3:03 AGGRAVATED ROBBERY (KILL, MAIM, OR WOUND)

The elements of the crime of aggravated robbery (kill, maim, or wound) are:

2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of aggravated robbery (kill, maim, or wound).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of aggravated robbery (kill, maim, or wound).

4-3:04 AGGRAVATED ROBBERY (WOUND, STRIKE, OR PUT IN FEAR)

The elements of the crime of aggravated robbery (wound, strike, or put in fear) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. took anything of value,

11. put any person in reasonable fear of death or bodily injury.]
- [___. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of aggravated robbery (wound, strike, or put in fear).

COMMENT

App. 2011) (applying the immediate flight standard of Auman to the first degree burglary statute).

4-3:05 AGGRAVATED ROBBERY (CONFEDERATE)

The elements of the crime of aggravated robbery (confederate) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. took anything of value,
5. from the person or presence of another,
6. by the use of force, threats, or intimidation, and
7. during the act of robbery or immediate flight therefrom,
8. had present a confederate, who was aiding or abetting the perpetration of the robbery, and who was armed with a deadly weapon,
9. with the intent, either on the part of the defendant or the confederate, if resistance was offered, to kill, maim, or wound any person, or by the use of force, threats, or intimidation put any person in reasonable fear of death or bodily injury.
- [10. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of aggravated robbery (confederate).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of aggravated robbery (confederate).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-302(1)(c), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:21 (equating “anything of value” with any “thing of value,” as defined in Instruction F:371); Instruction F:36 (defining “bodily injury”); Instruction F:88 (defining “deadly weapon”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); see also People v. Wilford, 111 P.3d 512, 517 (Colo. App. 2004) (“The term ‘confederate’ is not a highly technical one and is well within the comprehension of the jury.”).
3. See People v. Benton, 829 P.2d 451, 452 (Colo. App. 1991) (noting that the term “presence” is not defined by the robbery statutes and approving an instruction using language from People v. Bartowsheski, 661 P.2d 235, 244 (Colo. 1983)).
4. The Committee perceives an ambiguity in section 18-4-302(1)(c). Specifically, it is unclear whether the final clause (beginning with “or by the use of force”) refers exclusively to the conduct of the armed confederate, or whether it also encompasses the conduct of the defendant. Accordingly, the model instruction quotes the entire statutory provision.

This should not be understood as the Committee’s recommendation. It will be up to the trial court to determine how to best instruct the jury on this aspect of the offense. Users should exercise care when making any modifications.
5. See Instruction 3-1:02, Comment 7 (discussing the supreme court’s interpretation of the term “immediate flight,” for purposes of the felony-murder statute, in Auman v. People, 109 P.3d 647, 650–51 (Colo. 2005)); see also People v. Fuentes, 258 P.3d 320, 327 (Colo. App. 2011) (applying the immediate flight standard of Auman to the first degree burglary statute).
6. In 2019, the Committee revised the eighth element, whose language had previously been split across three separate elements.

4-3:06 AGGRAVATED ROBBERY (SUGGESTION OR REPRESENTATION OF A DEADLY WEAPON)

The elements of the crime of aggravated robbery (suggestion or representation of a deadly weapon) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. took anything of value,
  5. from the person or presence of another,
  6. by the use of force, threats, or intimidation, and
  7. during the act of robbery or immediate flight therefrom,
  8. possessed any article used or fashioned in a manner to lead any person who was present reasonably to believe it was a deadly weapon or represented verbally or otherwise that he [she] was then and there armed with a deadly weapon.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of aggravated robbery (suggestion or representation of a deadly weapon).

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:21 (equating “anything of value” with any “thing of value,” as defined in Instruction F:371); Instruction F:88 (defining “deadly weapon”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).

App. 2011) (applying the immediate flight standard of Auman to the first degree burglary statute).

4-3:07 AGGRAVATED ROBBERY OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES (KILL, MAIM, OR WOUND)

The elements of the crime of aggravated robbery of a controlled substance (kill, maim, or wound) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. took any controlled substance,
5. from the person or presence of any pharmacy, pharmacist, place, or person having lawful possession thereof,
6. by the use of force, threats, or intimidation, and
7. during the act of robbery or immediate flight therefrom,
8. was armed with a deadly weapon,
9. with intent, if resisted, to kill, maim, or wound any person.
- [10. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of aggravated robbery of a controlled substance (kill, maim, or wound).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of aggravated robbery of a controlled substance (kill, maim, or wound).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-303(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:73 (defining “controlled substance” by referring users to the statutory schedules in section § 18-18-102(5), C.R.S. 2020); Instruction F:88 (defining “deadly weapon”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:275 (defining “pharmacy”).
3. See Ramirez v. People, 682 P.2d 1181, 1183 (Colo. 1984) (section 18-4-303 establishes a separate offense; it is not a sentence enhancement provision for aggravated robbery).
4. The supreme court has made clear that the mens rea of “knowingly” applies to this offense. See People v. Mascarenas, 666 P.2d 101, 107 (Colo. 1983) (“because aggravated robbery of drugs [in violation of section 18-4-303] is merely a variant of the common law crime of aggravated robbery, a culpable mental state is a requisite element of the crime”; the trial court committed reversible error by instructing the jury that the defendant must have “knowingly” placed the victim in reasonable fear of death or bodily injury without also making clear that this culpable mental state applied to the “taking element”).

However, the Committee has identified a significant ambiguity in the language of section 18-4-303(1), which provides, in its entirety, as follows:

A person who takes any controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102(5), from any pharmacy or other place having lawful possession thereof or from any pharmacist or other person having lawful possession thereof under the aggravating circumstances defined in section 18-4-302 is guilty of aggravated robbery of controlled substances.

(Emphasis added.) Specifically, it is unclear whether the reference to “the aggravating circumstances defined in section 18-4-302” was intended to incorporate: (1) all elements of aggravated robbery (which would, by extension, incorporate all elements of simple robbery); or (2) only those factors set forth in subsections a through d of section 18-4-302(1). Although the above model instruction utilizes the first approach by including all elements of aggravated robbery (and, thus, all elements of simple robbery), the Committee takes no position concerning the correctness of this construction. The Committee adopted this approach because it is mindful of the rule of lenity, “which requires a narrow construction of ambiguous criminal statutes in favor of the accused.” People v. Dist. Court, 711 P.2d 666, 671 (Colo. 1985). In drafting an elemental jury instruction based on section 18-4-303(1), the trial judge, in consultation with counsel, will have to determine how to proceed.

5. See Instruction 3-1:02, Comment 7 (discussing the supreme court’s interpretation of the term “immediate flight,” for purposes of the felony-murder statute, in Auman v. People, 109 P.3d 647, 650–51 (Colo. 2005)); see also People v. Fuentes, 258 P.3d 320, 327 (Colo. App. 2011) (applying the immediate flight standard of Auman to the first degree burglary statute).

4-3:08 AGGRAVATED ROBBERY OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES (WOUND, STRIKE, OR PUT IN FEAR)

The elements of the crime of aggravated robbery of a controlled substance (wound, strike, or put in fear) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. took any controlled substance,
5. from the person or presence of any pharmacy, pharmacist, place, or person having lawful possession thereof,
6. by the use of force, threats, or intimidation, and
7. during the act of robbery or immediate flight therefrom,
8. knowingly,
- [9. wounded or struck any person,
10. with a deadly weapon.]
- [9. by the use of force, threats, or intimidation,
10. with a deadly weapon,
11. put any person in reasonable fear of death or bodily injury.]
- [___. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of aggravated robbery of a controlled substance (wound, strike, or put in fear).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of aggravated robbery of a controlled substance (wound, strike, or put in fear).

4-3:09 AGGRAVATED ROBBERY OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES (CONFEDERATE)

The elements of the crime of aggravated robbery of a controlled substance (confederate) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. took any controlled substance,
5. from the person or presence of any pharmacy, pharmacist, place, or person having lawful possession thereof,
6. by the use of force, threats, or intimidation, and
7. during the act of robbery or immediate flight therefrom,
8. had present a confederate, who was aiding or abetting the perpetration of the robbery, and who was armed with a deadly weapon,
9. with the intent, either on the part of the defendant or the confederate, if resistance was offered, to kill, maim, or wound any person, or by the use of force, threats, or intimidation put any person in reasonable fear of death or bodily injury.
- [10. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of aggravated robbery of a controlled substance (confederate).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of aggravated robbery of a controlled substance (confederate).

7. In 2019, the Committee revised the eighth element, whose language had previously been split across three separate elements.

4-3:10 AGGRAVATED ROBBERY OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES (SUGGESTION OR REPRESENTATION OF A DEADLY WEAPON)

The elements of the crime of aggravated robbery of a controlled substance (suggestion or representation of a deadly weapon) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. took any controlled substance,
5. from the person or presence of any pharmacy, pharmacist, place, or person having lawful possession thereof,
6. by the use of force, threats, or intimidation, and
7. during the act of robbery or immediate flight therefrom,
8. possessed any article used or fashioned in a manner to lead any person who was present reasonably to believe it was a deadly weapon or represented verbally or otherwise that he [she] was then and there armed with a deadly weapon.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of aggravated robbery of a controlled substance (suggestion or representation of a deadly weapon).

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. If the defendant is charged with more than one count of theft, identify the counts in the elemental instructions, interrogatories, and special verdict forms with descriptive parentheticals (e.g., “theft (count 4)” and “theft (count 6),” or “theft (from 7-11)” and “theft (from Target)”).

4-4:01 THEFT (INTENT TO PERMANENTLY DEPRIVE)

The elements of the crime of theft (intent to permanently deprive) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
- [4. obtained, retained, or exercised control over anything of value of another,
5. without authorization or by threat or deception, and]
- [4. received, loaned money by pawn or pledge on, or disposed of,
5. anything of value or belonging to another that he [she] knew or believed to have been stolen, and]
6. intended to deprive the other person permanently of the use or benefit of the thing of value.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of theft (intent to permanently deprive).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of theft (intent to permanently deprive).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-401(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:18 (defining “another”); Instruction F:30 (defining “benefit”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:371 (defining “thing of value”).
3. See Auman v. People, 109 P.3d 647, 663-64 (Colo. 2005) (theft instruction was erroneous because the culpable mental state of “knowingly” was listed as the third numbered element in a manner that indicated it modified only its lettered sub-elements – “(a) obtained or exercised control over, (b) anything of value, (c) which is the property of another” – and not the fourth numbered element: “without authorization”).
4. See People v. Rojas, 2019 CO 86M, ¶ 3, 450 P.3d 719, 720 (holding that section 26-2-305(1)(a), C.R.S. – which provides that a person who steals food stamps “commits the crime of theft” – did not create a separate crime, meaning the defendant could be prosecuted under the general theft statute).
5. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 4.

4-4:02 THEFT (KNOWING USE, CONCEALMENT, OR ABANDONMENT)

The elements of the crime of theft (knowing use, concealment, or abandonment) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
- [4. obtained, retained, or exercised control over anything of value of another,
5. without authorization or by threat or deception, and]
- [4. received, loaned money by pawn or pledge on, or disposed of,
5. anything of value or belonging to another that he [she] knew or believed to have been stolen, and]
6. knowingly,
7. used, concealed, or abandoned the thing of value,
8. in such manner as to deprive the other person permanently of its use or benefit.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of theft (knowing use, concealment, or abandonment).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of theft (knowing use, concealment, or abandonment).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-401(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:18 (defining “another”); Instruction F:30 (defining “benefit”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:371 (defining “thing of value”).
3. See *Auman v. #### 4-4:03 THEFT (INTENTIONAL USE, CONCEALMENT, OR ABANDONMENT)

The elements of the crime of theft (intentional use, concealment, or abandonment) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
- [4. obtained, retained, or exercised control over anything of value of another,
5. without authorization or by threat or deception, and]
- [4. received, loaned money by pawn or pledge on, or disposed of,
5. anything of value or belonging to another that he [she] knew or believed to have been stolen, and]
6. used, concealed, or abandoned the thing of value,
7. intending that such use, concealment, or abandonment would deprive the other person permanently of its use or benefit.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of theft (intentional use, concealment, or abandonment).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of theft (intentional use, concealment, or abandonment).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-401(1)(c), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:18 (defining “another”); Instruction F:30 (defining “benefit”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:371 (defining “thing of value”).

4-4:04 THEFT (DEMANDING CONSIDERATION)

The elements of the crime of theft (demanding consideration) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
- [4. obtained, retained, or exercised control over anything of value of another,
5. without authorization or by threat or deception, and]
- [4. received, loaned money by pawn or pledge on, or disposed of,
5. anything of value or belonging to another that he [she] knew or believed to have been stolen, and]
6. demanded any consideration to which he [she] was not legally entitled,
7. as a condition of restoring the thing of value to the other person.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of theft (demanding consideration).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of theft (demanding consideration).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-401(1)(d), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:18 (defining “another”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally” and “with intent”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:371 (defining “thing of value”).
3. See Auman v. People, 109 P.3d 647, 663–64 (Colo. 2005) (theft instruction was erroneous because the culpable mental state of “knowingly” was listed as the third numbered element in a manner that indicated it modified only its lettered sub-elements – “(a) obtained or exercised control over, (b) anything of value, (c) which is the property of another” – and not the fourth numbered element: “without authorization”).
4. The term “consideration” is not defined in section 18-4-401. See, e.g., Black’s Law Dictionary 370 (10th ed. 2014) (defining “consideration” as: “Something (such as an act, a forbearance, or a return promise) bargained for and received by a promisor from a promisee.”). The definition that appears in section 4-3-303(b), C.R.S. 2020, should not be used because it is limited to contracts.

4-4:05 THEFT (RETAINING)

The elements of the crime of theft (retaining) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
- [4. obtained, retained, or exercised control over anything of value of another,
5. without authorization or by threat or deception, and]
- [4. received, loaned money by pawn or pledge on, or disposed of,
5. anything of value or belonging to another that he [she] knew or believed to have been stolen, and]
6. knowingly retained the thing of value more than seventy-two hours after the agreed-upon time of return in any lease or hire agreement.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of theft (retaining).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of theft (retaining).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-401(1)(e), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:18 (defining “another”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally” and “with intent”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:371 (defining “thing of value”).

3. See Auman v. People, 109 P.3d 647, 663–64 (Colo. 2005) (theft instruction was erroneous because the culpable mental state of “knowingly” was listed as the third numbered element in a manner that indicated it modified only its lettered sub-elements – “(a) obtained or exercised control over, (b) anything of value, (c) which is the property of another” – and not the fourth numbered element: “without authorization”).

4-4:06.INT THEFT – INTERROGATORY (VALUE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of theft, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of theft, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question[s] on the verdict form. [Although you may answer “No” to more than one question, you may not answer “Yes” to more than one question. Further, if you answer “Yes” to any question, you should not answer the other question[s].]

1. Was the value of the thing involved in the theft [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-401(2) or section 18-6.5-103(5) (at-risk persons)]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)
- [2. Was the value of the thing involved in the theft [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-401(2)]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]
- [3. Was the value of the thing involved in the theft [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-401(2)]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

The prosecution has the burden to prove the value of the thing involved beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-401(2), C.R.S. 2020; § 18-6.5-103(5), C.R.S. 2020 (at-risk persons); see also People v. McKinney, 99 P.3d 1038, 1043 (Colo. 2004) (“Section 18-6.5-103(5) enhances the penalties for general theft when the theft is committed against an at-risk adult; it does not create a separate offense.”); People v. Jamison, 220 P.3d 992, 995 (Colo. App. 2009) (“the value of property taken is . . . a sentence enhancer rather than an element of the crime of theft”).
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. In cases where value is a disputed issue, one or both of the parties may assert that there is an evidentiary basis for submitting more than one valuation question as part of the interrogatory. Accordingly, the above interrogatory includes bracketed examples for two lesser valuation questions. In a case involving more than three questions about valuation, repeat the format of the bracketed questions.
4. Where more than one valuation question is included as part of the interrogatory, use a special verdict form with a corresponding format that repeats the admonition that the jury cannot answer “Yes” to more than one valuation question.

For example, in a case involving an interrogatory with three valuation questions (and no separate interrogatories asking about other sentence enhancement factors), the relevant portion of the special verdict form would read as follows:

- I. We, the jury, find the defendant, [insert name], NOT GUILTY of Count No. [ ], theft.

FOREPERSON*

- II. We, the jury, find the defendant, [insert name], GUILTY of Count No. [    ], theft.

FOREPERSON*

We further find, with respect to the verdict question[s] for this count, as follows:

**1. Was the value of the thing involved [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-401(2)]?

Yes             No

**2. Was the value of the thing involved [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-401(2)]?

Yes             No

**3. Was the value of the thing involved [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-401(2)]?

Yes             No

FOREPERSON*

* The foreperson should use ink to sign on one of the two lines indicating a verdict of "not guilty" or "guilty." If the verdict is "guilty," the foreperson should use ink to mark the appropriate space indicating the answer to the verdict question, and then sign on the line following the verdict question[s].

** Although you may answer "No" to more than one question, you may not answer "Yes" to more than one question. Further, if you answer "Yes" to any question, you should not answer the other question[s].

5. In a case involving a theft from an at-risk person, it may be necessary to use separate interrogatories and special verdict forms for the at-risk valuation provisions of section 18-6.5-103(5) (five hundred dollars or more), and the valuation provision of section 18-4-401(2)(d) (three hundred dollars or more, but less than seven hundred fifty dollars). As noted in the parentheticals, the two sections do not dovetail.

6. In 2016, the Committee modified this instruction pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 172, sec. 3, § 18-6.5-103(5), (5.5), 2016 Colo. Sess. Laws 545, 548.

4-4:07.INT THEFT – INTERROGATORY (FROM THE PERSON OF ANOTHER)

If you find the defendant not guilty of theft, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of theft, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the theft from the person of another? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The theft was from the person of another only if:

1. the theft was from the person of another,
2. by means other than the use of force, threat, or intimidation.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-401(5), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. See People v. Warner, 801 P.2d 1187, 1191 (Colo. 1990) (“Reading the general theft statute together with the robbery statute, we conclude that theft from the person of another is intended to cover those thefts involving an invasion of the victim's person of which the victim is unaware, but which are not accomplished through the use of force, threats, or intimidation."); People v. Smith, 121 P.3d 243, 247-48 (Colo. App. 2005) ("Case law in Colorado and other jurisdictions is consistent in holding that a taking from a shopping cart is a taking from a person if the victim is holding, pushing, or otherwise in control of the cart at the time of the theft. . . . Therefore, because the victim was a substantial distance from her fanny pack, we conclude that defendant's actions do not constitute theft from the person of another as defined in § 18-4-401(5).").

4-4:08.INT THEFT – INTERROGATORY (MORTGAGE LENDING PROCESS)

If you find the defendant not guilty of theft, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of theft, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the theft involve the mortgage lending process? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The theft involved the mortgage lending process only if:

1. the theft was committed by deception, and
2. the underlying factual basis of the case involved the process through which a person seeks or obtains a residential mortgage loan, including, without limitation, solicitation, application, or origination; negotiation of terms; third-party provider services; underwriting; signing and closing; funding of the loan; and perfecting and releasing the mortgage.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-401(9)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:233 (defining “mortgage lending process”); see, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. Section 18-4-401(9)(a), C.R.S. 2020, requires the court to impose a “fine of the amount of pecuniary harm resulting from” a deceptive theft involving the mortgage lending process. Therefore, in cases where the amount of the fine under this provision may exceed the maximum fine that could otherwise be imposed pursuant to section 18-1.3-401(1)(a)(III)(A), C.R.S. 2020, use an interrogatory to have the jury determine whether the theft “involved the mortgage lending process.” See S. Union Co. v. United States, 132 S. Ct. 2344, 2352 (2012) (fines implicate the Sixth Amendment right to a jury trial and are thus subject to the rule of Apprendi v. New Jersey, 530 U.S. 466 (2000)).

4-4:09.INT THEFT – INTERROGATORY (IN THE PRESENCE OF AN AT-RISK PERSON)

If you find the defendant not guilty of theft, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of theft, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant commit the theft in the presence of an at-risk person? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant committed the theft in the presence of an at-risk person only if:

- [1. the victim was an at-risk adult, and]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk adult with IDD, and]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk elder, and]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk juvenile, and]
2. the defendant committed any element or portion of the offense in the presence of the victim.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

4-4:10.INT THEFT – INTERROGATORY (POSITION OF TRUST FOR AN AT-RISK PERSON)

If you find the defendant not guilty of theft, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of theft, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant commit the theft against an at-risk person for whom he [she] was in a position of trust? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant committed the theft against an at-risk person for whom he [she] was in a position of trust only if:

- [1. the victim was an at-risk adult, and]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk adult with IDD, and]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk elder, and]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk juvenile, and]
2. the defendant committed the theft against the victim while acting in a position of trust, whether or not in the presence of the victim.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

- [1. the victim was an at-risk adult with IDD, and]
- [1. the victim was an at-risk elder, and]

4-4:13.SP THEFT – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (CONCEALMENT)

If any person willfully conceals unpurchased goods, wares, or merchandise owned or held by and offered or displayed for sale by any store or other mercantile establishment, whether the concealment be on his [her] own person or otherwise and whether on or off the premises of said store or mercantile establishment, such concealment gives rise to a permissible inference that the person intended to commit the crime of theft.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

People*, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

4-4:14 THEFT (MULTIPLE THEFTS; AGGREGATED AND CHARGED IN THE SAME COUNT)

The elements of the crime of theft (multiple thefts) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the dates and places charged,
3. knowingly,
- [4. obtained, retained, or exercised control over anything of value of another,
5. without authorization or by threat or deception, and]
- [4. received, loaned money by pawn or pledge on, or disposed of,
5. anything of value or belonging to another that he [she] knew or believed to have been stolen, and]
6. intended to deprive the other person permanently of the use or benefit of the thing of value; or knowingly used, concealed, or abandoned the thing of value in such manner as to deprive the other person permanently of its use or benefit; or used, concealed, or abandoned the thing of value intending that such use, concealment, or abandonment would deprive the other person permanently of its use or benefit; or demanded any consideration to which he [she] was not legally entitled as a condition of restoring the thing of value to the other person; or knowingly retained the thing of value more than seventy-two hours after the agreed-upon time of return in any lease or hire agreement, and
7. committed within a period of six months those thefts charged in the same count.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of theft (multiple thefts).

3. In the absence of appellate authority analyzing section 18-4-401(4)(b), the Committee has construed the provision as requiring proof of all thefts aggregated in the same count. 4-4:16.INT THEFT (MULTIPLE THEFTS AGGREGATED AND CHARGED IN THE SAME COUNT; THEFTS FROM THE SAME PERSON PURSUANT TO ONE SCHEME OR COURSE OF CONDUCT AGGREGATED AND CHARGED IN THE SAME COUNT) – INTERROGATORY (AGGREGATE VALUE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of theft ([multiple thefts] [same person; one scheme or course of conduct]), you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of theft ([multiple thefts] [same person; one scheme or course of conduct]), you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question[s] on the verdict form. [Although you may answer “No” to more than one question, you may not answer “Yes” to more than one question. Further, if you answer “Yes” to any question, you should not answer the other question[s].]

1. Was the aggregate value of the things involved in the thefts [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-401(2)]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)
- [2. Was the aggregate value of the things involved in the thefts [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-401(2)]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]
- [3. Was the aggregate value of the things involved in the thefts [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-401(2)]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

The prosecution has the burden to prove the aggregate value of the things involved beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place(s), and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-401(4)(a), (b), C.R.S. 2020; see also People v. Jamison, 220 P.3d 992, 995 (Colo. App. 2009) (“the value of property taken is . . . a sentence enhancer rather than an element of the crime of theft”).
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. In cases where value is a disputed issue, one or both of the parties may assert that there is an evidentiary basis for submitting more than one valuation question as part of the interrogatory. Accordingly, the above interrogatory includes bracketed examples for two lesser valuation questions. In a case involving more than three questions about valuation, repeat the format of the bracketed questions.
4. Where more than one aggregate value question is included as part of the interrogatory, use a special verdict form with a corresponding format that repeats the admonition that the jury cannot answer “Yes” to more than one aggregate value question. For example, in a case involving an interrogatory with three aggregate value questions (and no separate interrogatories asking about other sentence enhancement factors), the relevant portion of the special verdict form would read as follows:

I. We, the jury, find the defendant, [insert name], NOT GUILTY of Count No. [ ], theft ([multiple thefts] [same person; one scheme or course of conduct]).

FOREPERSON*

II. We, the jury, find the defendant, [insert name], GUILTY of Count No. [ ], theft ([multiple thefts] [same person; one scheme or course of conduct]).

FOREPERSON*

We further find, with respect to the verdict questions for this count, as follows:

**1. Was the aggregate value of the things involved in the thefts [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-401(2)]?

Yes       No

**2. Was the aggregate value of the things involved in the thefts [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-401(2)]?

Yes       No

**3. Was the aggregate value of the things involved in the thefts [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-401(2)]?

Yes       No

FOREPERSON*

* The foreperson should use ink to sign on one of the two lines indicating a verdict of "not guilty" or "guilty." If the verdict is "guilty," the foreperson should use ink to mark the appropriate space(s) indicating the answer(s) to the verdict question(s), and then sign on the line following the verdict questions.

** Although you may answer "No" to more than one question asking about the aggregate value, you may not answer "Yes" to more than one such question. Further, if you answer "Yes" to any question, you should not answer the other questions.

4-4:17 OBTAINING CONTROL OVER ANY STOLEN THING OF VALUE

The elements of the crime of obtaining control over any stolen thing of value are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. obtained control over any stolen thing of value,
  4. knowing the thing of value to have been stolen by another.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of obtaining control over any stolen thing of value.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of obtaining control over any stolen thing of value.

COMMENT

1. Section 18-4-404, C.R.S. 2020, provides, in its entirety, as follows: "Every person who obtains control over any stolen thing of value, knowing the thing of value to have been stolen by another, may be tried, convicted, and punished whether or not the principal is charged, tried, or convicted." This section establishes a distinct offense, see, e.g., People v. Boileau, 538 P.2d 484, 488 (Colo. App. 1975), and it predates the 1975 theft by receiving statute (section 18-4-410, which was repealed in 2013 when the general theft statute was amended to include receiving). However, according to one commentator, it is rarely used:

The utility of this statute, from the prosecution's point of view, is that a defendant who purchased items known to be stolen can be convicted of theft (by receiving), without the need for resort to the principles of accomplice liability, which might require proof that the defendant had agreed in advance to purchase stolen goods. . . . Although . . . section 18-4-404 was not repealed by the enactment of section 18-4-410, it appears seldom to be employed now. Of course, in some cases section 18-4-404 cannot be used because the property in question was not actually stolen, but it would seem that if the property were stolen, section 18-4-404 would afford some prosecutorial advantage, in apparently not requiring proof to deprive permanently. Nevertheless, section 18-4-404 has been largely ignored by prosecutors since section 18-4-410 was enacted.

Marianne Wesson, Crimes and Defenses in Colorado, 202 (1989).

Earlier editions of COLJI-Crim. did not include a pattern elemental instruction for the offense defined by section 18-4-404. Although this edition does include such an instruction, the Committee has not drafted an interrogatory asking the jury to determine the value of the stolen property because section 18-4-404 does not specify a penalty based on valuation. Indeed, section 18-4-404 does not contain any penalty provision, and cases decided under the pre-1971 version of the statute are inapposite because the predecessor statute had a penalty provision and was governed by two separate valuation-based penalty provisions that also applied to the general theft statute. Moreover, because the offense is not designated as a felony, it is not subject to section 18-1.3-403, C.R.S. 2020 (penalty for felony not fixed by statute).

One could argue that, because section 18-4-404 appears to establish criminal liability equivalent to the offense of theft, section 18-4-404 impliedly incorporates the valuation-based penalty provisions of 18-4-401. However, the Committee expresses no opinion concerning the correctness of that construction.

4-4:18 THEFT OF TRADE SECRETS

The elements of the crime of theft of trade secrets are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent,
4. to deprive or withhold from the owner thereof the control of a trade secret, or to appropriate a trade secret to his [her] own use or the use of another,
5. stole or disclosed a trade secret to an unauthorized person, or, without authority, made or caused to be made a copy of an article representing a trade secret.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of theft of trade secrets.

4-4:30.SP THEFT – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (ENGAGED IN THE BUSINESS)

If a person obtains control over stolen property knowing or believing the property to have been stolen, and the offense involves two or more separate stolen things of value, each of which is the property of a separate owner, such commission of theft gives rise to a permissible inference that the person was engaged in the business of buying, selling, or otherwise disposing of stolen goods for a profit.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-411, C.R.S. 2020.
2. Although the statute speaks in terms of “prima facie evidence,” the concept should be explained to the jury as a permissible inference. See People in re R.M.D., 829 P.2d 852 (Colo. 1992) (construing the “prima facie” proof provision of section 18-4-406 as establishing a permissible inference); see generally Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).
3. Prior to 2013, section 18-4-411 was limited to the offense of theft by receiving in violation of section 18-4-410. In 2013, section 18-4-410 was repealed and section 18-4-411 was amended to make it applicable to all thefts. However, the effect of this amendment is unclear because section 18-4-410(6) was the only sentence enhancement factor that required a finding that the defendant was “engaged in the business of buying, selling, or otherwise disposing of stolen goods for a profit," and this factor was not relocated to any other theft statute.

4-4:31 THEFT OF MEDICAL RECORDS OR MEDICAL INFORMATION

The elements of the crime of theft of medical records or medical information are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,

5. made or caused to be made a copy of a medical record or medical information.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of theft of medical records or medical information.

3. The statute includes several exemptions from criminal liability. See § 18-4-412(4), (5), C.R.S. 2020 (enumerating purposes related to law enforcement, court proceedings, and the provision of health care services). However, the Committee has not drafted affirmative defense instructions.
4. It is unclear whether it is permissible to replace the word “stole” with the phrase “committed the crime of theft.” See Black’s Law Dictionary 1639 (10th ed. 2014) (defining “steal” as “To take (personal property) illegally with the intent to keep it unlawfully.”). 4. transported an unlawfully obtained motor vehicle or major component motor vehicle part to or from a chop shop, knowing that it was a chop shop.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

4-5:01 CRIMINAL MISCHIEF

The elements of criminal mischief are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. damaged the real or personal property of one or more other persons, including property owned by the defendant jointly with another person or property owned by the defendant in which, at the time of the damage, another person had a possessory or proprietary interest,
5. in the course of a single criminal episode.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proved each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of criminal mischief.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of criminal mischief.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-501(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).
3. In People v. Thoro Products Co., 45 P.3d 737, 745 (Colo. App. 2001), aff'd on other grounds, 70 P.3d 1188 (Colo. 2003), a division of the court of appeals analyzed the “single criminal episode” language of section 18-4-501 as establishing an element of the offense. Further, the division concluded that the trial court was not required to define the phrase for the jury. See id. (“Based upon the textual analysis in these joinder cases and a review of the structure of the criminal mischief statute, we conclude that ‘single criminal episode’ means essentially the same thing as ‘same criminal episode.’ In our view, that phrase is one with which reasonable persons of common intelligence would be familiar and is not so technical as to create confusion in jurors’ minds as to its meaning. Hence, the trial court was not required to define the phrase for the jury.”).

4. See People v. Welborne, 2018 COA 127, ¶ 21, 457 P.3d 71, 76 (holding that criminal mischief is a lesser included offense of first-degree arson).

5. See People v. Coahran, 2019 COA 6, ¶ 27, 436 P.3d 617, 623 (holding that the defendant was entitled to a self-defense instruction “[b]ecause the charged criminal mischief arose out of her use of force upon the [victim] (albeit indirectly)”).

6. In 2019, the Committee added Comments 4 and 5.

4-5:02.INT CRIMINAL MISCHIEF – INTERROGATORY (AGGREGATE DAMAGE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of criminal mischief, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of criminal mischief, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question[s] on the verdict form. [Although you may answer “No” to more than one question, you may not answer “Yes” to more than one question. Further, if you answer “Yes” to any question, you should not answer the other question[s].]

1. Was the aggregate value of damage to real or personal property [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-501(4)]? (Answer “Yes” or No”)
- [2. Was the aggregate value of damage to real or personal property [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-501(4)]? (Answer “Yes” or No”)]
- [3. Was the aggregate value of damage to real or personal property [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-4-501(4)]? (Answer “Yes” or No”)]

The prosecution has the burden to prove the aggregate value of the damaged property beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place[(s)], and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-501(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. In People v. Cisneros, 566 P.2d 703, 705 (Colo. 1977), the supreme court stated that “[v]alue is an essential element of felony criminal mischief. Unless the property damaged has an aggregate value of one hundred dollars or more, there is no felony offense.” Id. (emphasis added). However, the court’s use of the term “element” appears to be at odds with its more recent decisions, in which it has distinguished elements from sentence enhancement provisions. See People v. Leske, 957 P.2d 1030, 1039 (Colo. 1998) (proof of victim’s age was a penalty enhancer, not an element). Accordingly, while it is clear that there is a “damage element in criminal mischief,” People v. Dunoyair, 660 P.2d 890, 894 (Colo. 1983) (emphasis added), the sentence enhancement factors based on valuation should be determined by means of interrogatories.
4. In cases where value is a disputed issue, one or both of the parties may assert that there is an evidentiary basis for submitting more than one aggregate value question as part of the interrogatory. Accordingly, the above interrogatory includes bracketed examples for two lesser valuation questions. In a case involving more than three questions about valuation, repeat the format of the bracketed questions.
5. Where more than one aggregate value question is included as part of the interrogatory, use a special verdict form with a corresponding format that repeats the admonition that the jury cannot answer “Yes” to more than one valuation question. For an example of how to prepare such a verdict form, refer to Instruction 4-4:06.INT, Comment 4.

4-5:03 FIRST DEGREE CRIMINAL TRESPASS

The elements of first degree criminal trespass are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
- [3. knowingly, and
4. unlawfully,
5. entered or remained in a dwelling of another.]
- [3. entered any motor vehicle,
4. with intent to commit the crime of [insert name of offense] therein.]
- [_. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of first degree criminal trespass.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of first degree criminal trespass.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-502, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:114 (defining "dwelling"); Instruction F:126 (defining "enters unlawfully" and "remains unlawfully"); Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:236 (defining "motor vehicle").

3. See People v. Williams, 984 P.2d 56, 59 (Colo. 1999) (holding, in a case involving a charge of first degree criminal trespass of a motor vehicle, that a count charging first degree criminal trespass should allege the crime that the defendant intended to commit).
4. See People v. Rodriguez, 43 P.3d 641, 643 (Colo. App. 2001) (“the ‘intent to commit a crime therein’ language establishes an element of criminal trespass of a motor vehicle and not an element of criminal trespass of a dwelling”); People v. Anderson, 991 P.2d 319, 321 (Colo. App. 1999) (“[T]he ‘knowing and unlawful’ element does not apply to the offense of criminal trespass of a motor vehicle.” (quoting People v. Williams, 961 P.2d 533, 537 (Colo. App. 1997), rev’d on other grounds, 984 P.2d 56 (Colo. 1999))).
5. See People v. Denhartog, 2019 COA 23, ¶¶ 77–79, 452 P.3d 148, 160 (relying on People v. Garcia, 940 P.2d 357 (Colo. 1997), to hold that first-degree criminal trespass is not a lesser included offense of second-degree burglary). + But see People v. Gillis, 2020 COA 68, ¶ 37, 471 P.3d 1197, 1205 (holding that first-degree criminal trespass is a lesser included offense of first-degree burglary).
6. In 2016, the Committee placed the elements of “knowingly and unlawfully” within the first bracketed alternative pursuant to People v. Anderson, supra, and it modified the second parenthetical in Comment 4.
7. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 5.
8. + In 2020, the Committee added the citation to Gillis in Comment 5.

4-5:04 SECOND DEGREE CRIMINAL TRESPASS (ENCLOSED PREMISES)

The elements of second degree criminal trespass (enclosed premises) are:

6. in or upon the premises of another,
7. which were enclosed in a manner designed to exclude intruders or were fenced.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of second degree criminal trespass (enclosed premises).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of second degree criminal trespass (enclosed premises).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-503(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:126 (defining “enters unlawfully” and “remains unlawfully”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:284 (defining “premises”).

4-5:05 SECOND DEGREE CRIMINAL TRESPASS (COMMON AREAS)

The elements of second degree criminal trespass (common areas) are:

1. That the defendant
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly, and
4. unlawfully,
5. entered or remained,
6. in or upon the common areas of a hotel, motel, condominium, or apartment building.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of second degree criminal trespass (common areas).

2. See Instruction F:40 (defining "building"); Instruction F:126 (defining "enters unlawfully" and "remains unlawfully"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly").

4-5:06 SECOND DEGREE CRIMINAL TRESPASS (MOTOR VEHICLE)

1. That the defendant
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly, and
  4. unlawfully,
  5. entered or remained,
  6. in a motor vehicle of another.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

3. Although the statute specifies that the assessor must have classified the land as “agricultural” pursuant to section § 39-1-102(1.6), C.R.S. 2020, it is the existence of the classification, and not its legal correctness, that the jury is to determine. Accordingly, absent evidence that the assessor classified the land as “agricultural” pursuant to some other authority, there is no need to refer to the method of classification.

4-5:11.INT THIRD DEGREE CRIMINAL TRESPASS – INTERROGATORY (AGRICULTURAL LAND; INTENT TO COMMIT A FELONY)

If you find the defendant not guilty of third degree criminal trespass, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of third degree criminal trespass, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant trespass on agricultural land to commit a crime?
(Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant trespassed on agricultural land to commit a crime only if:

1. the premises had been classified as agricultural land by the county assessor for the county in which the land was situated, and
2. the defendant committed the trespass with the intent to commit the crime[s] of [insert name(s) of felony offense(s)].

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-509(2)(a)(I)(B), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:90 (defining “deface”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).
3. In the absence of appellate authority analyzing section 18-4-509(2)(a)(I)(B), the Committee has construed the provision as requiring proof of all acts of defacement aggregated in the same count. This determination is reflected in the seventh element of the model instruction. Further, because the aggregated acts of defacement may be committed in different ways, the model instruction lists all methods of defacement set forth in section 18-4-509(1)(b). Accordingly, it will be incumbent upon counsel to object to the inclusion of any surplusage that is without evidentiary support. See People v. Dunaway, 88 P.3d 619, 631 (Colo. 2004) (“permitting an instruction on an alternative theory of liability for the same charged offense not supported by sufficient evidence does not rise to the level of a constitutional error where the conviction for that offense is otherwise supported by sufficient proof”); see also People v. Dunlap, 124 P.3d 780, 813 (Colo. App. 2004) (relying on Dunaway and rejecting “defendant’s contention that the trial court committed plain error by not requiring the jury to decide unanimously which of the alternative methods of committing [the offense] was proved”).

4-5:26.INT DEFACING PROPERTY (MULTIPLE ACTS OF DEFACEMENT; AGGREGATED AND CHARGED IN THE SAME COUNT) – INTERROGATORY (AGGREGATE VALUE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of defacing property (multiple acts), you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of defacing property (multiple acts), you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Were the aggregate damages five hundred dollars or more? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The prosecution has the burden to prove the aggregate value of the damages beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

3. If the legal authorization for a posted notice is at issue, the court may be able to resolve the issue as a matter of law. Where that is the case, the court should so advise the jury. But if the court determines that the question of whether the notice was authorized depends on the existence of one or more predicate facts, the court should draft a supplemental instruction advising the jury that it should find the notice was authorized by law if, and only if, it finds that the prosecution has carried its burden with respect to the specified fact(s).

2. See Instruction F:197 (defining “litter”); Instruction F:301 (defining “public or private property”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).
3. The statute includes affirmative defenses. See § 18-4-511(2), C.R.S. 2020 (enumerating exceptions for authorized disposal of litter). However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

4. + See People v. Kern, 2020 COA 96, ¶ 35, 474 P.3d 197, 204 (holding that littering is not a lesser included offense of projecting a missile at a vehicle).

5. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 4.

4-5:29.SP LITTERING – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (OPERATOR OF A MOTOR VEHICLE)

If litter is unlawfully thrown, deposited, dropped, or dumped from any motor vehicle, such evidence gives rise to a permissible inference that the operator of the motor vehicle caused or permitted the litter to be so thrown, deposited, dropped, or dumped.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-511(6), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Although the statute speaks in terms of a presumption, the concept should be explained as a permissible inference. See Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

4-5:30 ABANDONMENT OF A MOTOR VEHICLE

The elements of the crime of abandonment of a motor vehicle are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. abandoned any motor vehicle,
4. upon a street, highway, or right-of-way, or any other public property, or upon any private property, without the express consent of the owner or person in lawful charge of that private property.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of abandonment of a motor vehicle.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of abandonment of a motor vehicle.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-512(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:02 (defining "abandon" as including an intentional act); Instruction F:236 (defining "motor vehicle").
3. Be aware the elemental instruction does not expressly contain a mens rea. The court should consider whether one needs to be imputed, see § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020, or whether the definition of "abandon" contains a mens rea. See Instruction F:02 ("Abandon" means to leave a thing with the intention not to retain possession of or assert ownership over it. The intent need not coincide with the act of leaving.”). If the court decides that the definition of “abandon” includes a mens rea, the court should define “intentionally.” See Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”).

4-5:31.SP ABANDONMENT OF A MOTOR VEHICLE – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (INDICIA OF INTENT TO ABANDON)

Evidence of [any of] the following gives rise to a permissible inference of an intention not to retain possession of, or assert ownership over, a motor vehicle:

[The motor vehicle had been left for more than seven days unattended and unmoved.]

[License plates or other identifying marks were removed from the motor vehicle.]

[The motor vehicle had been damaged or was deteriorated so extensively that it had value only for junk or salvage.]

[The owner had been notified by a law enforcement agency to remove the motor vehicle, and had not removed it within three days after notification.]

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-512(3), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Although the statute speaks in terms of “prima facie evidence,” the concept should be explained as a permissible inference. See People in re R.M.D., 829 P.2d 852 (Colo. 1992) (construing a “prima facie” proof provision as establishing a permissible inference); see generally Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

4-5:32 CRIMINAL USE OF A NOXIOUS SUBSTANCE

The elements of criminal use of a noxious substance are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with the intent,
4. to interfere with another's use or enjoyment of land, a building, or a vehicle,
5. deposited on the land, or in the building or vehicle of another,
6. without his [her] consent,
7. any stink bomb or device, irritant, or offensive-smelling substance.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of criminal use of a noxious substance.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of criminal use of a noxious substance.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-513(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:41 (defining "building of another"); Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent").

3. The statute includes an exemption from criminal liability for a peace officer who is performing his or her duties. See § 18-4-513(2), C.R.S. 2020. However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.

4-5:33 CRIMINAL OPERATION OF A DEVICE IN A MOTION PICTURE THEATER

The elements of criminal operation of a device in a motion picture theater are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. while within a motion picture theater,
  5. operated an audiovisual recording function of a device,
  6. for the purpose of recording a motion picture,
  7. while a motion picture was being exhibited,
  8. without the consent of the owner or lessee of the motion picture theater.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of criminal operation of a device in a motion picture theater.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty criminal operation of a device in a motion picture theater.

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:27 (defining “audiovisual recording function”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:235 (defining “motion picture theater”).
3. The statute includes an exemption from criminal liability for lawful investigative activities. See § 18-4-516(4), C.R.S. 2020. However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.
4. In 2015, the Committee corrected Comment 3 by replacing the citation to section 18-4-601(4) with a citation to section 18-4-516(4).

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. Section 18-4-605(1), C.R.S. 2020, provides that the offenses defined in this chapter “shall not apply to”:

(a) Any broadcaster who, in connection with or as part of a radio, television, or cable broadcast transmission or for the purpose of archival preservation, transfers any copyrighted sounds recorded on a sound recording;

(b) Any person who transfers copyrighted sounds in the home for personal use and without compensation for such transfer.

However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

2. The Committee added this chapter in 2016.

4-6:01 UNLAWFUL TRANSFER FOR SALE

The elements of the crime of unlawful transfer for sale are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly, and
4. without the consent of the owner,
5. transferred any copyrighted sounds recorded on a phonograph record, video disc, wire, tape, film, or other article on which sounds are recorded,
6. with the intent,
7. to sell such article on which such sounds are so transferred or to cause the same to be sold for profit or to be used to promote the sale of any product.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful transfer for sale.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful transfer for sale.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-602(1), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:21.8 (defining “article” (theft of sound recordings)); Instruction F:75.2 (defining “copyright”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:255.5 (defining “owner” (theft of sound recordings)).

4-6:02 UNLAWFUL TRAFFICKING IN UNLAWFULLY TRANSFERRED ARTICLES

The elements of the crime of unlawful trafficking in unlawfully transferred articles are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly, or when he [she] reasonably should have had such knowledge,
4. advertised, offered for sale or resale, sold or resold, distributed, or possessed for the purpose of advertising, offering for sale or resale, selling or reselling, or distributing,
5. any article that had been unlawfully transferred for sale, as defined in these instructions.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful trafficking in unlawfully transferred articles.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful trafficking in unlawfully transferred articles.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-603(1), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:21.8 (defining “article” (theft of sound recordings)); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:255.5 (defining “owner” (theft of sound recordings)).

3. The statute requires the article to have been “transferred without consent of the owner as provided in section 18-4-602.” § 18-4-603(1). Section 18-4-602(1), in turn, defines the crime of unlawful transfer for sale, which requires lack of the owner’s consent. See Instruction 4-6:01. Therefore, the Committee has phrased the fifth element of this instruction to involve articles that were “unlawfully transferred for sale.” To assist the jury in making this determination, the court should also give Instruction 4-6:01 with the following modifications: (1) the first sentence, “The elements of the crime of unlawful transfer for sale are,” should be replaced with, “A person commits the crime of unlawful transfer for sale if”; (2) element number 1, “That the defendant,” should be replaced with “The person”; and (3) the two concluding paragraphs explaining the burden of proof should be omitted.

4-6:03 DEALING IN UNLAWFULLY PACKAGED RECORDED ARTICLES

The elements of the crime of dealing in unlawfully packaged recorded articles are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly, and
  4. for commercial advantage or private financial gain,
  5. advertised, offered for sale or resale, sold or resold, transported, or possessed for the purpose of advertising, offering for sale or resale, selling or reselling, or distributing,
  6. any article on which sounds were recorded, and
  7. the cover, box, jacket, or label of the article did not clearly and conspicuously disclose the actual name and address of the manufacturer.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of dealing in unlawfully packaged recorded articles.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of dealing in unlawfully packaged recorded articles.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-604(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:21.8 (defining “article” (theft of sound recordings)); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:207.5 (defining “manufacturer”).

4-6:04.INT DEALING IN UNLAWFULLY PACKAGED RECORDED ARTICLES – INTERROGATORY

If you find the defendant not guilty of dealing in unlawfully packaged recorded articles, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of dealing in unlawfully packaged recorded articles, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your guilty verdict, and answer the following verdict question:

Did the offense involve more than one hundred unlawfully packaged recorded articles? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The prosecution has the burden to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the offense involved more than one hundred unlawfully packaged recorded articles.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place(s), and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place(s), and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-604(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See E:28 (special verdict form).

4-6:05 UNLAWFUL RECORDING OF A LIVE PERFORMANCE

The elements of the crime of unlawful recording of a live performance are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with the intent,
4. to sell a phonograph record, compact disc, video disc, wire, tape, film, or other article on which a live performance was recorded or to cause the same to be sold for profit or to be used to promote the sale of any product,
5. recorded or caused to be recorded the live performance on such an article,
6. without the consent of the owner of the right to record the live performance.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful recording of a live performance.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful recording of a live performance.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-604.3(1), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:21.8 (defining “article” (theft of sound recordings)); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:197.5 (defining “live performance”); Instruction F:255.5 (defining “owner” (theft of sound recordings)).

4-6:06.SP UNLAWFUL RECORDING OF A LIVE PERFORMANCE – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (OWNERSHIP)

In the absence of a written agreement to the contrary, there is a permissible inference that the performer[s] of a live performance own[s] the rights to record the live performance.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is warranted by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-604.3(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Although the statute speaks in terms of a presumption, the concept should be explained as a permissible inference. See Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).
3. The statute refers to “the absence of a written agreement or law to the contrary.” § 18-4-604.3(2) (emphasis added). However, the Committee has omitted the phrase “or law” from its instruction. Should a party argue that a law contradicts the permissible inference, that will raise a question of law for the court to determine; thus, the court need not instruct the jury on the possibility of a contrary law.

4-6:07 TRAFFICKING IN AN UNLAWFULLY RECORDED LIVE PERFORMANCE

The elements of the crime of trafficking in unlawfully recorded live performance are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knew or reasonably should have known,
4. that a live performance had been unlawfully recorded, as defined in these instructions, and
5. advertised, offered for sale or resale, sold or resold, or distributed the article on which the live performance was recorded, or possessed the article for the purpose of advertising, offering for sale or resale, selling or reselling, or distributing.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of trafficking in unlawfully recorded live performance.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of trafficking in unlawfully recorded live performance.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-604.7(1), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:21.8 (defining “article” (theft of sound recordings)); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:197.5 (defining “live performance”).

3. Because the statute requires that the article was recorded “in violation of section 18-4-604.3,” the court should also give Instruction 4-6:05 (outlining the offense of unlawful recording of a live performance, as defined in section 18-4-604.3(1), C.R.S. 2020), with the following modifications: (1) the first sentence, “The elements of the crime of unlawful recording of a live performance are,” should be replaced with, “A person commits the crime of unlawful recording of a live performance if”; (2) element number 1, “That the defendant,” should be replaced with “The person”; and (3) the two concluding paragraphs explaining the burden of proof should be omitted.

4-7:05	THEFT OF CABLE SERVICE (RECEIVE OR PROMOTE)
4-7:06	THEFT OF CABLE SERVICE (FAILURE TO RETURN OR SURRENDER EQUIPMENT)

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. Section 18-4-702(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020, provides that a “licensed or duly permitted cable operator may bring a civil action for damages against any person who commits civil theft of cable service” (emphasis added). The statute then provides a number of rebuttable presumptions regarding violations of section 18-4-701(2), C.R.S. 2020, which involves the crime of theft of cable service. See § 18-4-702(1)(d)–(i). Because these presumptions are located within section 18-4-702 (which is titled “Civil action--damages”) rather than section 18-4-701, the Committee views these presumptions as applicable to civil actions only. Accordingly, the Committee has not drafted special instructions pertaining to these presumptions.
2. The offenses defined in this chapter do not apply to satellite dishes. § 18-4-701(3), C.R.S. 2020. However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.
3. The Committee added this chapter in 2016.

4-7:01 THEFT OF CABLE SERVICE (OBTAINING)

The elements of the crime of theft of cable service (obtaining) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. obtained cable service from a cable operator by trick, artifice, deception, use of an unauthorized device or decoder, or other means,
5. without authorization or with the intent to deprive such cable operator of lawful compensation for the services rendered.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of theft of cable service (obtaining).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of theft of cable service (obtaining).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-4-701(2)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:42.2 (defining “cable operator”); Instruction F:42.5 (defining “cable service”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).

4-7:02 THEFT OF CABLE SERVICE (CONNECTION)

The elements of the crime of theft of cable service (connection) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. made or maintained a connection or connections, whether physical, electrical, mechanical, acoustical, or otherwise,
5. with any cable, wire, component, or other device used for the distribution of cable services,
6. without authority from or payment to a cable operator.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of theft of cable service (connection).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of theft of cable service (connection).

2. See Instruction F:42.2 (defining “cable operator”); Instruction F:42.5 (defining “cable service”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).

3. Section 18-4-701(2)(b)(II), C.R.S. 2020, establishes exemptions from criminal liability for “circumstances where a person has attached a wire or cable to extend service that the person has paid for or that has been authorized to an additional outlet, or where the cable operator has failed to disconnect a previously authorized cable service.” However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

4-7:03 THEFT OF CABLE SERVICE (MODIFICATION OR ALTERATION)

The elements of the crime of theft of cable service (modification or alteration) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. modified, altered, or maintained a modification or alteration to a device installed or capable of being installed with the authorization of a cable operator, and
5. the modification or alteration was for the purpose of intercepting or receiving cable service carried by such cable operator,
6. without authority from or payment to such cable operator.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of theft of cable service (modification or alteration).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of theft of cable service (modification or alteration).

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. possessed without authority,
5. a device or printed circuit board designed in whole or in part to facilitate [the receipt of cable services offered for sale over a cable system] [the performance of [insert a description of the act(s) prohibited by section 18-4-701(2)(a)–(c), C.R.S. 2020]],
6. with the intent,
7. to receive cable operator services without authorization from or payment to a cable operator.
- [8. and that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of theft of cable service (possession).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of theft of cable service (possession).

4-7:05 THEFT OF CABLE SERVICE (RECEIVE OR PROMOTE)

The elements of the crime of theft of cable service (receive or promote) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. manufactured, imported into this state, distributed, sold, leased, or offered or advertised for sale or lease,

6. with the intent to receive cable services or with the intent to promote the reception of cable services without payment or authorization from a cable operator.
- [7. and that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of theft of cable service (receive or promote).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of theft of cable service (receive or promote).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of theft of cable service (failure to return or surrender equipment).

5-1:09.SP FORGERY – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (PEACE OFFICER)

Uttering a forged document to a peace officer gives rise to a permissible inference that that the person intended to defraud the peace officer.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-102(3), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Although the statute speaks in terms of a presumption, the concept should be explained as a permissible inference. See Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).
3. Although the term “forged document” is not defined by statute, section 18-5-101(5), C.R.S. 2020, defines a “forged instrument” as “a written instrument which has been falsely made, completed, or altered.” Accordingly, it appears reasonable to infer that a document which has been “falsely made, completed, or altered,” would, similarly, constitute a “forged document.”
4. The term “defraud” is not defined by statute.

5-1:10 SECOND DEGREE FORGERY

The elements of the crime of second degree forgery are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent,
4. to defraud,
5. falsely made, completed, altered, or uttered a written instrument. +
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of second degree forgery.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of second degree forgery.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-104(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:139 (defining "falsely alter"); Instruction F:141 (defining "falsely complete"); Instruction F:144 (defining "falsely make"); Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent"); Instruction F:385 (defining "utter"); Instruction F:394 (defining "written instrument").
3. The term "defraud" is not defined by statute.

4. + Section 18-5-104(1) provides that “[a] person commits second degree forgery if, with intent to defraud, such person falsely makes, completes, alters, or utters a written instrument of a kind not described in section 18-5-102 or 18-5-104.5” (emphasis added). Section 18-5-102 involves various written instruments whose forgery would constitute a felony, see Instructions 5-1:01 to 5-1:08, while section 18-5-104.5 involves forged academic records, a misdemeanor, see Instruction 5-1:11. Previously, this instruction directed trial courts to add a sixth element, requiring the prosecution to prove that the written instrument “was not a [list those items enumerated in sections 18-5-102 and 18-5-104.5 that bear a resemblance to the written instrument forming the basis for the charge].”

In Hoggard v. People, 2020 CO 54, ¶ 2, 465 P.3d 34, 36–37, the defendant was charged with second-degree forgery, but the trial court erroneously instructed the jury on the elements of felony forgery. Specifically, the instruction required the jury to find that the written instrument “was or purported to be” or “was calculated to become or represent if completed an instrument which does or may evidence, create, or otherwise affect a legal right, interest, obligation, or status: namely, an email.” Id. at ¶ 8; cf. Instruction 5-1:03, element 7 (requiring that the instrument be “a deed, will, codicil, contract, assignment, commercial instrument, promissory note, check, or other instrument which did or might evidence, create, transfer, terminate, or otherwise affect a legal right, interest, obligation, or status”). The supreme court held that no constructive amendment occurred because the instruction “simply placed an additional burden on the prosecution to prove more about that email.” Hoggard, ¶ 30. The court further stated that, because “an email is not one of the written instruments specifically identified in the felony forgery statute,” the instruction did not conflict with the statutory definition of second-degree forgery. Id. at ¶ 32. However, the court explicitly refused to address whether second-degree forgery is a lesser included offense of felony forgery. Id. at ¶ 33 n.7. But see id. at ¶ 51 (Márquez, J., dissenting) (“Although the majority carefully avoids framing its reasoning as [a] lesser-included-offense analysis . . . the logic it employs is indistinguishable.”).

Following Hoggard, the Committee has chosen to remove the sixth element from this instruction. Given the potential complexities identified in Hoggard, the Committee has concluded that simply directing trial courts to “list those items enumerated in sections 18-5-102 and 18-5-104.5 that bear a resemblance to the written instrument forming the basis for the charge” provides insufficient guidance. But because Hoggard declined to address whether second-degree forgery is a lesser included offense of felony forgery, the Committee has further concluded that the prosecution must still prove that the written instrument at issue was not of a type enumerated in those two statutes (i.e., which could sustain a charge for either felony forgery or use of a forged academic record).

Therefore, the Committee has modified Instruction F:394, which defines the term “written instrument.” Specifically, the Committee has added a bracketed paragraph to that instruction, explaining that, for purposes of the crime of second-degree forgery, the “written instrument” cannot be any of the various types of documents found in either of the two statutes. In this manner, trial courts can continue to require the prosecution to prove all elements of the crime of second-degree forgery, without being forced to decide which types of written instruments found in the other two statutes resemble the instrument at issue in the case.

5. + Section 42-7-301.5, C.R.S. 2020, provides that a person violates section 18-5-104 (i.e., commits second-degree forgery) if the person either (1) “presents an altered or counterfeit letter or altered or counterfeit insurance identification card from an insurer or agent for the purpose of proving financial responsibility” for purposes related to the Motor Vehicle Financial Responsibility Law, or (2) “alters or creates a counterfeit letter or insurance identification card for another.” However, the Committee has not drafted model instructions.

6. In 2016, the Committee added a cross-reference to Instruction F:185 in Comment 2.

7. + In 2020, the Committee added Comments 4 and 5, and it removed the sixth element as described in Comment 4.

5-1:11 USE OF A FORGED ACADEMIC RECORD

The elements of the crime of use of a forged academic record are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent,
4. to seek employment, or to seek admission to a public or private institution of higher education in this state, or to secure a scholarship or other form of financial assistance from the institution itself or from other public or private sources of financial assistance,
5. falsely made, completed, altered, or uttered a written instrument which was or purported to be, or was calculated to become or to represent if completed, a bona fide academic record of an institution of secondary or higher education.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of use of a forged academic record.

3. See People v. Miralda, 981 P.2d 676, 679 (Colo. App. 1999) (mere possession is insufficient to sustain a conviction for criminal possession of a forged instrument; a defendant’s intent to defraud must be proven through evidence of his or her status (e.g., as a fugitive, in possession of a false identification document), other circumstances surrounding the possession, or the manner in which the defendant actually used the document).

4. The term “defraud” is not defined by statute.

5-1:13 CRIMINAL POSSESSION OF A SECOND DEGREE FORGED INSTRUMENT

The elements of criminal possession of a second degree forged instrument are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. possessed any forged written instrument,
  4. with knowledge that it was forged, and
  5. with intent to use it to defraud. +
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of criminal possession of a second degree forged instrument.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of criminal possession of a second degree forged instrument.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-107, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:158 (defining “forged instrument”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:281 (defining “possession”); Instruction F:394 (defining “written instrument”).
3. The term “defraud” is not defined by statute.

4. + Section 18-5-107 applies where a person possesses “any forged instrument of a kind covered by section 18-5-104,” i.e., the second-degree forgery statute. In turn, that statute applies to written instruments “of a kind not described in section 18-5-102 or 18-5-104.5” (emphasis added). Section 18-5-102 involves various written instruments whose forgery would constitute a felony, see Instructions 5-1:01 to 5-1:08, while section 18-5-104.5 involves forged academic records, see Instruction 5-1:11. Previously, this instruction directed trial courts to add a sixth element, requiring the prosecution to prove that the written instrument “was not a [list those items enumerated in sections 18-5-102 and 18-5-104.5 that bear a resemblance to the written instrument forming the basis for the charge].”

In 2020, the Committee removed a similar element from the second-degree forgery instruction. See Instruction 5-1:10, Comment 4. Instead, the Committee added a bracketed paragraph to Instruction F:394 (defining “written instrument”), which explains to the jury that, for the purposes of second-degree forgery, the “written instrument” cannot be any of the various types of documents found in either of the two statutes; the Committee explained that courts should only provide that bracketed paragraph in prosecutions for second-degree forgery (or this crime). Because section 18-5-107 incorporates written instruments covered by the second-degree forgery statute, the Committee has made the same change to this instruction; the bracketed paragraph in Instruction F:394 will continue to require the prosecution to prove all elements of the crime (i.e., that the written instrument was not of a certain type), without forcing trial courts to ascertain which items “enumerated in sections 18-5-102 and 18-5-104.5 . . . bear a resemblance to the written instrument forming the basis for the charge.”

5. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 4, and it removed the sixth element as described in that comment.

5-1:14 CRIMINAL POSSESSION OF A FORGERY DEVICE (KNOWLEDGE)

4. with intent to use it, or to aid or permit another to use it, for purposes of forgery or the production of counterfeit marks.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of criminal possession of a forgery device (intent).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of criminal possession of a forgery device (intent).

2. See Instruction F:76 (defining "counterfeit mark"); Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent"); Instruction F:281 (defining "possession"); Instruction F:394 (defining "written instrument").
3. The third element of the instruction includes the word "illegally" because it appears in the statute. However, it is unclear whether the illegality is: (1) possessing a device without proper legal authority; or (2) obtaining a device by commission of a separate criminal act (e.g., theft).

5-1:17 CRIMINAL POSSESSION OF A FORGERY DEVICE (DOCUMENT-MAKING IMPLEMENT)

The elements of criminal possession of a forgery device (document-making implement) are:

3. The third element of the instruction includes the word “unlawfully” because it appears in the statute. However, it is unclear whether this unlawfulness requires that the manufacturing, producing, possessing, or uttering of a document-making implement also constitute a separate criminal act (e.g., theft).

5-1:18 CRIMINAL SIMULATION (INTENT TO DEFRAUD)

The elements of criminal simulation (intent to defraud) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,

- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of criminal simulation (knowledge of true character).

3. Although a 2011 amendment changed the format of section 18-5-113 and added language in 18-5-113(1)(b) distinguishing a “legal” capacity from “other” types of capacities, it does not appear that this amendment disturbed the core of the supreme court’s holding in Alvarado v. People, 132 P.3d 1205, 1208 (Colo. 2006) (interpreting the statute as proscribing a single act of criminal impersonation that involves a requirement for the prosecution to prove two culpable mental states, but rejecting the argument that the statute requires proof of an act of impersonation and a separate act from which the defendant intended to receive a benefit).
4. The term “defraud” is not defined by statute.

5-1:31.SP CRIMINAL IMPERSONATION – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (FALSE OR FICTITIOUS PERSONAL IDENTIFYING INFORMATION)

For purposes of the crime of criminal impersonation, using false or fictitious personal identifying information constitutes the assumption of a false or fictitious identity or capacity.

“Personal identifying information” means information that may be used, alone or in conjunction with any other information, to identify a specific individual, including but not limited to a name; a date of birth; a social security number; a password; a pass code; an official, government-issued driver’s license or identification card number; a government passport number; biometric data; or an employer, student, or military identification number.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-113(3), C.R.S. 2020.
2. The enactment of section 18-5-113(3), in 2011, effectively overruled the supreme court’s decision in Montes-Rodriguez v. People, 241 P.3d 924, 927 (Colo. 2010) (providing a false social security number on an application for car loan did not constitute the assumption of a false or fictitious identity or capacity).
3. See Instruction F:272 (defining “personal identifying information”).

The elements of the crime of offering a false instrument for recording in the first degree are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,

- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of offering a false instrument for recording in the first degree.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of inducing consumption of offering a false instrument for recording in the first degree.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-114(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); see also Instruction F:141 (defining “materially false statement” as part of the definition of “falsely complete” (forgery and impersonation offenses)).
3. See People v. Cohn, 160 P.3d 336 (Colo. App. 2007) (because “the crime of offering a false instrument for recording is completed when the document containing the materially false statement is presented to the public office with intent to defraud and with knowledge or belief it will be recorded,” it is immaterial whether the victim was actually defrauded).
4. The term “defraud” is not defined by statute.

5-1:33 OFFERING A FALSE INSTRUMENT FOR RECORDING IN THE SECOND DEGREE

The elements of the crime of offering a false instrument for recording in the second degree are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,

- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of offering a false instrument for recording in the second degree.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of offering a false instrument for recording in the second degree.

5-1:34 INDUCING CONSUMPTION OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES BY FRAUDULENT MEANS

The elements of the crime of inducing consumption of controlled substances by fraudulent means are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. surreptitiously or by means of fraud, misrepresentation, suppression of truth, deception, or subterfuge,
  4. caused another person to unknowingly consume or receive the direct administration of any controlled substance.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of inducing consumption of controlled substances by fraudulent means.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of inducing consumption of controlled substances by fraudulent means.

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The Committee added this chapter in 2015.

5-2:01 FRAUD BY CHECK (INSUFFICIENT FUNDS)

The elements of the crime of fraud by check (insufficient funds) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowing he [she] had insufficient funds with the drawee,
4. with intent,
5. to defraud,
6. issued one or more checks for the payment of services, wages, salary, commissions, labor, rent, money, property, or other thing of value.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of fraud by check (insufficient funds).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of fraud by check (insufficient funds).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-205(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:48.5 (defining “check”); Instruction F:107.5 (defining “drawee”); Instruction F:183.5 (defining “insufficient funds”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:371 (defining “thing of value”).

3. See People v. Gutierrez, 1 P.3d 241, 242 (Colo. App. 1999) (holding that the issuance of an insufficient funds check in payment, or partial payment, of a pre-existing debt can constitute fraud by check pursuant to section 18-5-205(2)); People v. Kunzelman, 649 P.2d 340 (Colo. App. 1982) (issuance of a check with insufficient funds for the purpose of retaining possession of personal property obtained on credit can form the predicate for a conviction under the statute).

5-2:02.INT FRAUD BY CHECK (INSUFFICIENT FUNDS) – INTERROGATORY (VALUE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of fraud by check (insufficient funds), you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of fraud by check (insufficient funds), you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question[s] on the verdict form. [Although you may answer “No” to more than one question, you may not answer “Yes” to more than one question. Further, if you answer “Yes” to any question, you should not answer the other question[s].]

1. Did you find the defendant guilty of fraud by check (insufficient funds) for issuing either one fraudulent check, or two or more fraudulent checks within a sixty-day period, for a total sum of two thousand dollars or more? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

- [2. Did you find the defendant guilty of fraud by check (insufficient funds) for issuing either one fraudulent check, or two or more fraudulent checks within a sixty-day period, for a total sum of seven hundred fifty dollars or more but less than two thousand dollars? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

- [3. Did you find the defendant guilty of fraud by check (insufficient funds) for issuing either one fraudulent check, or two or more fraudulent checks within a sixty-day period, for a total sum of three hundred dollars or more but less than seven hundred fifty dollars? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

- [4. Did you find the defendant guilty of fraud by check (insufficient funds) for issuing either one fraudulent check, or two or more fraudulent checks within a sixty-day period, for a total sum of fifty dollars or more but less than three hundred dollars? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

The prosecution has the burden to prove beyond a reasonable doubt the total sum of the fraudulent check, or checks issued within a sixty-day period. Your calculation of the total sum of the fraudulent check or checks may include only the monetary amount of checks as to which you unanimously agree the prosecution has proved beyond a reasonable doubt both the defendant's guilt and issuance within sixty days of each other.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark "Yes" in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark "No" in the appropriate place[(s)], and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-205(3)(a.7)-(d), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

5-2:03.INT FRAUD BY CHECK (INSUFFICIENT FUNDS) – INTERROGATORY (NONEXISTENT OR CLOSED ACCOUNT)

If you find the defendant not guilty of fraud by check (insufficient funds), you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of fraud by check (insufficient funds), you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question:

Did the defendant use a nonexistent or closed account? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant used a nonexistent or closed account only if:

1. the fraudulent check was drawn on an account which did not exist or which had been closed for a period of thirty days or more prior to the issuance of the check[s].

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-205(3)(e), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

5-2:04.SP FRAUD BY CHECK (INSUFFICIENT FUNDS) – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (KNOWLEDGE)

Except in the case of a postdated check or order, the following evidence gives rise to a permissible inference that the issuer had knowledge of his [her] insufficient funds:

He [she] had no account upon which the check or order was drawn with the bank or other drawee at the time he [she] issued the check or order; or he [she] had insufficient funds upon deposit with the bank or other drawee to pay the check or order, on presentation within thirty days after issue.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-205(8), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Although the statute speaks in terms of a presumption, the concept should be explained as a permissible inference. See People v. Felgar, 58 P.3d 1122, 1125 (Colo. App. 2002) (construing section 18-5-205(8) as creating a permissible inference, and holding that the trial court committed reversible error by instructing the jury, in the language of the statute, that if certain circumstances existed it could presume that the defendant had knowledge of insufficient funds in his account); see generally Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

5-2:05 FRAUD BY CHECK (OPENING AN ACCOUNT)

The elements of the crime of fraud by check (opening an account) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. opened a checking account, negotiable order of withdrawal account, or share draft account,
4. using false identification or an assumed name,
5. for the purpose of issuing fraudulent checks.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of fraud by check (opening an account).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of fraud by check (opening an account).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-205(5), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:48.5 (defining “check”); Instruction F:241.7 (defining “negotiable order of withdrawal account” and “share draft account”).

5-2:06 DEFRAUDING A SECURED CREDITOR

The elements of the crime of defrauding a secured creditor are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent,
4. to defraud a creditor,
5. by defeating, impairing, or rendering worthless or unenforceable any security interest,
6. sold, assigned, transferred, conveyed, pledged, encumbered, concealed, destroyed, or disposed of any collateral subject to a security interest.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of defrauding a secured creditor.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of defrauding a secured creditor.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-206(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent"); see also Black's Law Dictionary, 318 (10th ed. 2014) (defining "collateral" as "Property that is pledged as security against a debt; the property subject to a security interest or agricultural lien."); § 4-9-102(12), C.R.S. 2020 (defining “collateral,” for purposes of the Uniform Commercial Code, as meaning “the property subject to a security interest or agricultural lien,” including “[p]roceeds to which a security interest attaches,” “[a]ccounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, and promissory notes that have been sold,” and “[g]oods that are the subject of a consignment.”).

3. The term “security interest” is not defined in section 18-5-206. In People v. Armijo, 589 P.2d 935, 938 (Colo. 1979), the supreme court analyzed the meaning of the term, for purposes of section 18-5-206, by referring to the definition in the Uniform Commercial Code. See § 4-1-201(35), C.R.S. 2020 (“‘Security interest’ means an interest in personal property or fixtures that secures payment or performance of an obligation.”).

5-2:07.INT DEFRAUDING A SECURED CREDITOR – INTERROGATORY (VALUE OF COLLATERAL)

If you find the defendant not guilty of defrauding a secured creditor, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of defrauding a secured creditor, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question[s] on the verdict form.

[Although you may answer “No” to more than one question, you may not answer “Yes” to more than one question. Further, if you answer “Yes” to any question, you should not answer the other question[s].]:

1. Was the value of the collateral [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-5-206(1)(c)-(j)]? (Answer “Yes” or No”)

- [2. Was the value of the collateral [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-5-206(1)(c)-(j)]? (Answer “Yes” or No”)]

- [3. Was the value of the collateral [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-5-206(1)(c)-(j)]? (Answer “Yes” or No”)]

The prosecution has the burden to prove the value of the collateral beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-206(1)(c)-(j), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

5-2:08 DEFRAUDING A DEBTOR

The elements of the crime of defrauding a debtor are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a creditor, and
4. with intent,
5. to defraud a debtor,
6. sold, assigned, transferred, conveyed, pledged, bought, or encumbered a promissory note or contract signed by the debtor.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of defrauding a debtor.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of defrauding a debtor.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-206(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent").
3. The terms "promissory note" and "contract" are not defined in section 18-5-206. Although the terms are defined elsewhere, it is unclear whether those definitions should be utilized here. See, e.g., § 4-1-201(11),

C.R.S. 2020 (“‘Contract’ means the total legal obligation that results from the parties’ agreement as determined by this title as supplemented by any other applicable laws.”); § 4-9-102(65), C.R.S. 2020 (“‘Promissory note’ means an instrument that evidences a promise to pay a monetary obligation, does not evidence an order to pay, and does not contain an acknowledgment by a bank that the bank has received for deposit a sum of money or funds.”); § 7-106-202, C.R.S. 2020 (“For the purposes of this subsection (5), [having to do with issuance of shares in a corporation, the term] ‘promissory note’ means a negotiable instrument on which there is an obligation to pay independent of collateral and does not include a nonrecourse note.”); see also § 18-5-501, C.R.S. 2020 (“The definitions set forth in the “Uniform Commercial Code”, title 4, C.R.S., shall apply to sections 18-5-502 to 18-5-511.”).

4. In 2016, the Committee corrected the statutory citation to “promissory note.”

Further, if you answer “Yes” to any question, you should not answer the other question[s].]:

1. Was the amount owing on the note or contract [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-5-206(2)(c)-(j)]? (Answer “Yes” or No”)
- [2. Was the amount owing on the note or contract [insert a description of the amount(s) from section 18-5-206(2)(c)-(j)]? (Answer “Yes” or No”)]

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-209(3), (4), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:153 (defining “financial transaction device”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly” or “willfully”).
3. This model instruction reflects the Committee’s view that section 18-5-209(3) does not fully define an offense without inclusion of the additional element (of usage to obtain property or services or money) that appears in section 18-5-209(4). Significantly, section 18-5-209(3) does not contain a penalty provision, and it does not state that a violation constitutes a “felony,” “misdemeanor,” or “petty offense.” Therefore, none of the sentencing provisions for unclassified offenses can be utilized to ascertain the applicable punishment. See § 18-1.3-403, C.R.S. 2020 (“In all cases where an offense is denominated by statute as being a felony and no penalty is fixed in the statute therefor, the punishment shall be imprisonment for not more than five years in a correctional facility . . . or a fine of not more than fifteen thousand dollars, or both such imprisonment and fine.”); § 18-1.3-504(1), C.R.S. 2020 (“Any misdemeanor or petty offense defined by state statute without specification of its class shall be punishable as provided in the statute defining it.”); § 18-1.3-505(1), C.R.S. 2020 (“In all cases where an offense is denominated a misdemeanor and no penalty is fixed in the statute therefor, the punishment shall be imprisonment for not more than three hundred sixty-four days in the county jail, or a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or both imprisonment and fine.”). Accordingly, the Committee has concluded that the offense is a class 1 misdemeanor, see § 18-5-209(4), which can be elevated to a class 6 felony if the prosecution carries its burden of proof with respect to the sentencing enhancement provision in section 18-5-209(5), C.R.S. 2020. See Instruction

5-2:15.INT (issuing a false financial statement (obtaining a financial transaction device) – interrogatory (use of two or more devices)).

4. In 2019, the Committee updated a quotation in Comment 3 pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 59, sec. 3, § 18-1.3-505(1), 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 201, 202.

5-2:15.INT ISSUING A FALSE FINANCIAL STATEMENT (OBTAINING A FINANCIAL TRANSACTION DEVICE) – INTERROGATORY (USE OF TWO OR MORE DEVICES)

If you find the defendant not guilty of issuing a false financial statement (obtaining a financial transaction device), you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of issuing a false financial statement (obtaining a financial transaction device), you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question:

Did the defendant use multiple financial transaction devices issued in reliance upon multiple false financial statements to obtain something of value? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant used multiple financial transaction devices issued in reliance upon multiple false financial statements to obtain something of value only if:

1. he [she] committed the offense of false financial statement by obtaining two or more financial transaction devices by making two or more false financial statements and using those financial transaction devices to obtain property or services or money.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you unanimously decide the prosecution has met this burden with regard to the same two or more financial transaction devices, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden with regard to the same two or more financial transaction devices, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

The management of an insolvent state-chartered savings and loan association which is operating (and accepting deposits) under a binding supervisory agreement, entered into with the [Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation (FSLIC)] pursuant to federal law, is also shielded from prosecution by the State under § 18-5-210, due to a conflicting, superseding federal regulatory scheme. However, the management of an insolvent state-chartered savings and loan association which is not operating under a federally authorized supervisory agreement with the FSLIC and continues to accept deposits would be subject to the provisions of § 18-5-210.”).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-302(3), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).
3. Because section 18-5-302(3) specifies that the lien waiver for a construction loan must have been one “under section 38-22-119,” the requirements of section 38-22-119 are reflected in the fourth element.
4. Section 18-5-302(3) includes the following excepting language after the provision establishing the offense as a class one misdemeanor: “unless there is a bona fide dispute as to the existence or amount of the debt.” However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.

5-3:12.SP ALTERING AN IDENTIFICATION NUMBER – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (POSSESSION OF AN ARTICLE WITH AN OBSCURED IDENTIFICATION NUMBER)

Evidence that the defendant possessed an article on which an identification number was obscured gives rise to a permissible inference that the defendant obscured the number with intent to hinder or prevent identification of the article, and that he [she] knew that the identification number was obscured [, unless, prior to his [her] arrest or the issuance of a warrant for a search of the premises where the article was kept, whichever was earlier, he [she] had reported possession of the article to the police or other appropriate law enforcement agency].

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

People*, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

COMMENT

1. This instruction is patterned on 18 U.S.C. § 1037(a)(1), which is incorporated into section 18-5-308(1), C.R.S. 2020 ("A person commits electronic mail fraud if he [she] violates any provision of 18 U.S.C. sec.

1037(a).”). However, users should be aware of one deliberate omission from the model instruction.

Although 18 U.S.C. § 1037(a) requires proof that the fraud “affect[ed] interstate or foreign commerce,” the General Assembly declared “that the intent of . . . section 18-5-308, C.R.S., is to exercise state authority in a manner consistent with, and to the maximum extent permissible under, the federal preemption provisions of 15 U.S.C. sec. 7707(b).” § 6-1-702.5(6)(c), C.R.S. 2020. And 15 U.S.C. § 7707(b) states, in relevant part, that it:

supersedes any statute, regulation, or rule of a State or political subdivision of a State that expressly regulates the use of electronic mail to send commercial messages, except to the extent that any such statute, regulation, or rule prohibits falsity or deception in any portion of a commercial electronic mail message or information attached thereto.

Therefore, because 15 U.S.C. § 7707(b) does not purport to preempt state statutes that criminalize false or deceptive electronic mail messages affecting intrastate commerce, it appears the General Assembly did not intend to incorporate the interstate and foreign commerce language of 15 U.S.C. § 7707(b) into section 18-5-308(1). Accordingly, this language, which relates to the establishment of federal jurisdiction, is not included in the above instruction.

2. See Instruction F:57.3 (defining “commercial electronic mail message”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:239.5 (defining “multiple”); see also 18 U.S.C. § 1037(4) (2014) (“Any other term has the meaning given that term by [Section 3 of the CAN-SPAM Act of 2003, which is codified as 15 U.S.C. § 7702].”).

3. Section 18-5-308(2), C.R.S. 2020, establishes an exemption from criminal liability: “This section shall not apply to a provider of internet access service, as defined in 47 U.S.C. sec. 231, who does not initiate the commercial electronic mail message.” However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.

5-3:22 ELECTRONIC MAIL FRAUD (USING A PROTECTED COMPUTER)

COMMENT

1. This instruction is patterned on 18 U.S.C. § 1037(a)(5), which is incorporated into section 18-5-308(1), C.R.S. 2020 ("A person commits electronic mail fraud if he [she] violates any provision of 18 U.S.C. sec. 1037(a).”). See Instruction 5-3:21, Comment 1 (discussing interstate and intrastate commerce).

2. See Instruction F:57.3 (defining “commercial electronic mail message”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:239.5 (defining “multiple”); see also 18 U.S.C. § 1037(4) (2014) (“Any other term has the meaning given that term by [Section 3 of the CAN-SPAM Act of 2003, which is codified as 15 U.S.C. § 7702].”).

3. Section 18-5-308(2), C.R.S. 2020, establishes an exemption from criminal liability: “This section shall not apply to a provider of internet access service, as defined in 47 U.S.C. sec. 231, who does not initiate the commercial electronic mail message.” However, because the applicability of this exemption will rarely depend on the resolution of a disputed factual issue, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.

5-3:26 MONEY LAUNDERING (CONDUCTING OR ATTEMPTING)

The elements of the crime of money laundering (conducting or attempting) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with the intent to promote the commission of a criminal offense; or with knowledge or a belief that the transaction was designed in whole or in part to conceal or disguise the nature, location, source, ownership, or control of the proceeds of a criminal offense; or with knowledge or a belief that the transaction was designed in whole or in part to avoid a transaction reporting requirement under [insert description of relevant federal law],
4. conducted or attempted to conduct a financial transaction that involved money or any other thing of value that he [she] knew or believed to be the proceeds, in any form, of a criminal offense.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of money laundering (conducting or attempting).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of money laundering (conducting or attempting).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-309(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:67.5 (defining “conducts or attempts to conduct a financial transaction”); Instruction F:152.5 (defining “financial transaction”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”).
3. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The Committee added this chapter in 2015.

The elements of the crime of commercial bribery (breach of a duty of fidelity) are:

4. solicited, accepted, or agreed to accept any benefit as consideration for,
5. violating or agreeing to violate a duty of fidelity to which he [she] was subject,
6. as agent or employee; or trustee, guardian, or other fiduciary; or lawyer, physician, accountant, appraiser, or other professional adviser; or officer, director, partner, manager, or other participant in the direction of the affairs of an incorporated or unincorporated association; or duly elected or appointed representative or trustee of a labor organization or employee welfare trust fund; or arbitrator or other purportedly disinterested adjudicator or referee.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of commercial bribery (breach of a duty of fidelity).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of commercial bribery (breach of a duty of fidelity).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-401(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).
3. The term “consideration” is not defined in section 18-5-401. See, e.g., Black’s Law Dictionary 370 (10th ed. 2014) (defining “consideration” as: “Something (such as an act, a forbearance, or a return promise) bargained for and received by a promisor from a promisee.”).
4. See People v. Lee, 717 P.2d 493, 496 (Colo. 1986) (the commercial bribery statute does not unconstitutionally delegate legislative power to private persons in violation of the distribution of powers doctrine contained in Article III of the Colorado Constitution, notwithstanding the absence of a definition of the term “duty of fidelity”; because the term is synonymous with the term “duty of loyalty,” which has been “defined through years of common law interpretation,” the statute does not “allow the person to whom the duty is owed unfettered discretion in defining the term”).

5-4:02 COMMERCIAL BRIBERY – BREACH OF A DUTY TO ACT DISINTERESTEDLY

The elements of the crime of commercial bribery (breach of a duty to act disinterestedly) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. held himself [herself] out to the public as being engaged in the business of making disinterested selection, appraisal, or criticism of commodities, property, or services, and
5. solicited, accepted, or agreed to accept any benefit to alter, modify, or change his [her] selection, appraisal, or criticism.
- [6. and that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of commercial bribery (breach of a duty to act disinterestedly).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of commercial bribery (breach of a duty to act disinterestedly).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-401(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).

5-4:03 COMMERCIAL BRIBERY – BRIBING ANOTHER AS TO A DUTY OF FIDELITY

The elements of the crime of commercial bribery (bribing another as to a duty of fidelity) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. conferred or offered or agreed to confer any benefit the acceptance of which would have been consideration for another person knowingly violating or agreeing to violate a duty of fidelity to which he [she] was subject,
4. as agent or employee; or trustee, guardian, or other fiduciary; or lawyer, physician, accountant, appraiser, or other professional adviser; or officer, director, partner, manager, or other participant in the direction of the affairs of an incorporated or unincorporated association; or duly elected or appointed representative or trustee of a labor organization or employee welfare trust fund; or arbitrator or other purportedly disinterested adjudicator or referee.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of commercial bribery (bribing another as to a duty of fidelity).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of commercial bribery (bribing another as to a duty of fidelity).

3. The term “consideration” is not defined in section 18-13-125. See, e.g., Black’s Law Dictionary 370 (10th ed. 2014) (defining “consideration” as: “Something (such as an act, a forbearance, or a return promise) bargained for and received by a promisor from a promisee.”).

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. Many of the terms that appear in this chapter have special statutory definitions. See § 18-5-501, C.R.S. 2020 (“The definitions set forth in the ‘Uniform Commercial Code’, title 4, C.R.S., shall apply to sections 18-5-502 to 18-5-511.”). The Committee recommends that users review any relevant official comments when drafting definitional instructions tailored to the evidence at trial. See § 4-9-102, cmts. 2-26, C.R.S. 2020.

2. The Committee added this chapter in 2015.

5-5:01 FAILURE TO PAY OVER ASSIGNED ACCOUNTS

The elements of the crime of failure to pay over assigned accounts are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. willfully and wrongfully,
4. was, under the terms of an assignment of an account, as that term is defined in these instructions, an assignor who was permitted to collect the proceeds from the debtor to pay over any proceeds to the assignee, and
5. after collection of the proceeds,
6. failed to pay over the proceeds to the assignee.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure to pay over assigned accounts.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure to pay over assigned accounts.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-502, C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “willfully”); see also § 4-9-102(a)(2), C.R.S. 2020 (defining “account”); § 4-9-102(a)(3) (defining “account debtor”).

3. The terms “assignor” and “assignee” are not defined by statute. See, e.g., Black’s Law Dictionary, 142, 144 (10th ed. 2014) (defining an “assignee” as “[o]ne to whom property rights or powers are transferred by another,” and an “assignor” as “[s]omeone who transfers property rights or powers to another.”).

5-5:02.INT FAILURE TO PAY OVER ASSIGNED ACCOUNTS – INTERROGATORY (AMOUNT)

If you find the defendant not guilty of failure to pay over assigned accounts, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of failure to pay over assigned accounts, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question:

Was the amount of the proceeds withheld one thousand dollars or more? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The prosecution has the burden to prove the amount of the proceeds beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. gave a security interest in personal property, or had actual knowledge of a security interest in personal property given by another person, and
5. during the existence of the security interest,
6. concealed the encumbered property or removed the encumbered property from Colorado,
7. without written consent of the secured creditor.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of concealment or removal of secured property.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of concealment or removal of secured property.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-504, C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); § 4-1-201(b)(12), (35), (43), C.R.S. 2020 (defining “creditor,” “security interest,” and “writing”).

3. See People v. Armijo, 589 P.2d 935, 938 (Colo. 1979) (the statute does not require that the security interest be perfected and applies to any valid security interest, perfected or not).

5-5:04.INT CONCEALMENT OR REMOVAL OF SECURED PROPERTY – INTERROGATORY (VALUE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of concealment or removal of secured property, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of concealment or removal of secured property, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question:

5. according to the terms creating such security interest, was required to account to the secured creditor for the proceeds of any sale or disposition of the encumbered property, and
6. willfully and wrongfully failed to pay to the secured creditor the amounts due from the sale or disposition.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure to pay over proceeds.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure to pay over proceeds.

- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of issuance of a fraudulent receipt.

- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of false statement in receipt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of false statement in receipt.

COMMENT

The elements of the crime of issuance of a duplicate receipt not marked are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a warehouse, or an officer, agent, or servant of a warehouse, and
4. issued or aided in issuing a duplicate or additional negotiable receipt for goods knowing that a former negotiable receipt for the same goods or any part of them was outstanding and uncanceled,
5. without placing upon the face thereof the word "duplicate."
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of issuance of a duplicate receipt not marked.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of issuance of a duplicate receipt not marked.

COMMENT

2. See Instruction 161.5 (defining "goods"); Instruction F:391.5 (defining "warehouse"); see also § 4-7-501, C.R.S. 2020 ("Form of negotiation and requirements for due negotiation").

3. Section 18-5-508 includes an exception for cases involving “a lost or destroyed receipt after proceedings as provided for in section 4-7-601, C.R.S.” However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.

5-5:10 WAREHOUSE'S GOODS MINGLED

The elements of the crime of warehouse's goods mingled are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a warehouse, or an officer, agent, or servant of a warehouse, and
4. delivered goods out of the possession of such warehouse,
5. knowing that a negotiable receipt, the negotiation of which would transfer the right of the possession of those goods, was outstanding and uncanceled,
6. without obtaining the possession of that receipt at or before the time of the delivery.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of delivery of goods without receipt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of delivery of goods without receipt.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-510, C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction 161.5 (defining “goods”); Instruction F:391.5 (defining “warehouse”); see also § 4-7-501, C.R.S. 2020 (“Form of negotiation and requirements for due negotiation”).

3. Section 18-5-510 includes an exception for “cases provided for in section 4-7-601, C.R.S.” However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.

5-5:12 NEGOTIATING A RECEIPT WITH INTENT TO DECEIVE

The elements of the crime of negotiating a receipt with intent to deceive:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. deposited goods to which he [she] did not have title, or upon which there was a security interest in personal property, and
4. took for such goods a negotiable receipt, and
5. afterwards negotiated that receipt for value,
6. with intent to deceive, and
7. without disclosing his [her] want of title or the existence of such security interest.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of negotiating a receipt with intent to deceive.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of negotiating a receipt with intent to deceive.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-511, C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction 161.5 (defining “goods”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); § 4-1-201(b)(35), C.R.S. 2020 (defining “security interest”); see also § 4-7-501, C.R.S. 2020 (“Form of negotiation and requirements for due negotiation”).

5-5:13 ISSUANCE OF A BAD CHECK

The elements of the crime of issuance of a bad check are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. other than by committing the offense of fraud by check (insufficient funds),
4. issued or passed a check or similar sight order for the payment of money,
5. knowing that [he] [she] [the issuer] did not have sufficient funds in or on deposit with the bank or other drawee for the payment in full of the check or order as well as all other checks or orders outstanding at the time of issuance.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of issuance of a bad check.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of issuance of a bad check.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-512(3), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:183.6 (defining “insufficient funds”).
3. Do not use the definition of “issuer” in Instruction F:189. That definition is derived from section 18-5-701(4), C.R.S. 2020, which applies to financial transaction device crimes. See § 18-5-701(3), C.R.S. 2020 (excluding a “check” from the definition of a “financial transaction device”); see also Instruction F:153 (defining “financial transaction device”).

4. If the defendant is not charged with fraud by check, give the jury the elemental instruction for that offense without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. See Instruction 5-2:01 (fraud by check – insufficient funds). Place the elemental instruction for that offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for fraud by check.

5-5:14.SP ISSUANCE OF A BAD CHECK – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (KNOWLEDGE OF INSUFFICIENT FUNDS)

Except in the case of a postdated check or order, the following evidence gives rise to a permissible inference that the issuer had knowledge of his [her] insufficient funds: he [she] had no account with the bank or other drawee at the time he [she] issued the check or order; or he [she] had insufficient funds upon deposit with the bank or other drawee to pay the check or order, on presentation within thirty days after issue.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. Section 18-5-512(4), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Although the statute speaks in terms of a presumption, the concept should be explained to the jury as a permissible inference. See People v. Felgar, 58 P.3d 1122, 1125 (Colo. App. 2002) (construing a parallel provision, in section 18-5-205(8), as creating a permissible inference, and holding that the trial court committed reversible error by instructing the jury, in the language of the statute, that if certain circumstances existed it could presume that the defendant had knowledge of insufficient funds in his account); see generally Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissive inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

5-7:01 UNAUTHORIZED USE OF A FINANCIAL TRANSACTION DEVICE

The elements of the crime of unauthorized use of a financial transaction device are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent,
4. to defraud,
5. used a financial transaction device for the purpose of obtaining cash, credit, property, or services, or for making financial payment,
6. with notice that the financial transaction device had expired, had been revoked, or had been cancelled, or with notice that his [her] use of the financial transaction device was, for any reason, unauthorized by the issuer thereof or the account holder.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unauthorized use of a financial transaction device.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unauthorized use of a financial transaction device.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-702(1), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:153 (defining “financial transaction device”); Instruction F:242 (defining “notice”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:189 (defining “issuer”).
3. The term “defraud” is not defined by statute.
4. See People v. Novitskiy, 81 P.3d 1070, 1073 (Colo. App. 2003) (“we construe § 18-5-702 to require that a defendant in fact obtain possession or use of cash, credit, property, or services through the unauthorized use of a financial transaction device”); People v. Pipkin, 762 P.2d 736, 737 (Colo. App. 1988) (“the statutory requirement that notice be given in person or in writing applies to the account holder or to one in possession of the card with permission of the account holder and not to one using an allegedly lost or stolen card”); cf. People v. Patton, 2016 COA 187, ¶ 13, 425 P.3d 1152, 1156 (“We conclude that [section 18-5-702(2)] does not require notice only in person or in writing, because the word ‘includes’ is a word that is meant to extend rather than limit.”).
5. In 2019, the Committee added the citation to Patton in Comment 4.

5-7:02.INT UNAUTHORIZED USE OF A FINANCIAL TRANSACTION DEVICE – INTERROGATORY (VALUE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of unauthorized use of a financial transaction device, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of unauthorized use of a financial transaction device, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question[s] on the verdict form. [Although you may answer “No” to more than one question, you may not answer “Yes” to more than one question. Further, if you answer “Yes” to any question, you should not answer the other question[s].]

1. Was the value of the cash, credit, property, or services obtained or of the financial payments made by unauthorized use of a single financial transaction device within a six-month period from the date of the first unauthorized use [insert value(s) from section 18-5-702(3)]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)
- [2. Was the value of the cash, credit, property, or services obtained or of the financial payments made by unauthorized use of a single financial transaction device within a six-month period from the date of the first unauthorized use [insert value(s) from section 18-5-702(3)]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

The prosecution has the burden to prove the value of the thing involved beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-702(3), (4), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. In cases where value is a disputed issue, one or both of the parties may assert that there is an evidentiary basis for submitting more than one valuation question as part of the interrogatory. Accordingly, the above interrogatory includes a bracketed example of a lesser valuation question.
4. Where more than one valuation question is included as part of the interrogatory, use a special verdict form with a corresponding format that repeats the admonition that the jury cannot answer “Yes” to more than one valuation question. See Instruction 4-4:06.INT, Comment 4.

5-7:03.SP UNAUTHORIZED USE OF A FINANCIAL TRANSACTION DEVICE – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (NOTICE)

The sending of a notice in writing by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, duly stamped and addressed to such account holder at his [her] last address known to the issuer, evidenced by a signed returned receipt signed by the account holder, gives rise to a permissible inference that the notice was received.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See Section 18-5-702(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. This concept should be explained as a permissible inference. See People in re R.M.D., 829 P.2d 852 (Colo. 1992) (construing “prima facie” proof provision as establishing a permissible inference); see generally Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

5-7:04 CRIMINAL POSSESSION OR SALE OF A BLANK FINANCIAL TRANSACTION DEVICE

The elements of criminal possession or sale of a blank financial transaction device are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. without the authorization of the issuer or manufacturer,
4. had in his [her] possession or under his [her] control or received from another person, with intent to use, deliver, circulate, or sell it or with intent to cause the use, delivery, circulation, or sale of it, or sold,
5. any financial transaction device which had at least one or more characteristics of a financial transaction device but did not contain all of the characteristics of a completed financial transaction device because it had not been embossed or magnetically encoded with the name of the account holder, personal identification code, expiration date, or other proprietary institutional information.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of criminal possession or sale of a blank financial transaction device.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of criminal possession or sale of a blank financial transaction device.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-5-705(1), (6), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:06 (defining “account holder”); Instruction F:34 (defining “blank financial transaction device,” as incorporated into the fifth element above); Instruction F:153 (defining “financial transaction device”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:189 (defining “issuer”); Instruction F:270 (defining “personal identification code”); Instruction F:281 (defining “possession”).

5-7:05.INT CRIMINAL POSSESSION OR SALE OF A BLANK FINANCIAL TRANSACTION DEVICE – INTERROGATORY (POSSESSION OF MULTIPLE DEVICES)

If you find the defendant not guilty of criminal possession or sale of a blank financial transaction device, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of criminal possession or sale of a blank financial transaction device, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant possess multiple devices? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant possessed multiple devices only if:

1. the defendant possessed two or more blank financial transaction devices.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

1. See § 18-5-902(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:150 (defining "financial device"); Instruction F:151 (defining "financial identifying information"); Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:249

3. See People v. Beck, 187 P.3d 1125, 1128-29 (Colo. App. 2008) (“Section 18-5-902(1) uses the phrase ‘thing of value,’ but does not explicitly incorporate the definition found in section 18-1-901(3)(r). . . . The list of things in the identity theft statute includes items such as cash and things that can be lawfully exchanged for cash, or financial payments. They all have financial or economic value and can be lawfully obtained, or made in the case of a financial payment, through the use of a financial device or personal or financial identifying information. None is a public right, duty, or entitlement that cannot be lawfully obtained in exchange for payment. Accordingly, we reject the People’s contention that, for purposes of the identity theft statute, the phrase ‘to obtain . . . any other thing of value’ includes the nonpecuniary benefits of misleading and influencing the actions of a police officer, such as obtaining the use of another person’s driving record.”).

4. See People v. Perez, 2016 CO 12, ¶¶ 14, 22, 367 P.3d 695, 699, 700 (holding that the term “knowingly” in the identity theft statute “applies to the use of the identifying information of another,” meaning the prosecution “must prove that an offender knowingly used personal identifying information and knew that the information belonged to another person”).

5. In 2017, the Committee added Comment 4.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the amount of the loss, damage, value of services, or thing of value taken, or cost of restoration or repair beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

1. See § 18-5.5-102(3)(a)(I)–(IX), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. In cases where value is a disputed issue, one or both of the parties may assert that there is an evidentiary basis for submitting more than one valuation question as part of the interrogatory. Accordingly, the above interrogatory includes bracketed examples for two lesser valuation questions.
4. Where more than one valuation question is included as part of the interrogatory, use a special verdict form with a corresponding format that repeats the admonition that the jury cannot answer “Yes” to more than one valuation question. See Instruction 4-4:06.INT, Comment 4.
5. In 2018, the Committee changed the term “computer crime” to “cybercrime” throughout this instruction pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 379, sec. 2, § 18-5.5-102(1), 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 2290, 2291.

CHAPTER 6-2

BIGAMY

6-2:01

BIGAMY (MARRIAGE)

6-2:02

BIGAMY (CIVIL UNION)

6-2:03

MARRYING A BIGAMIST

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The Committee added this chapter in 2016.

6-2:01 BIGAMY (MARRIAGE)

The elements of the crime of bigamy (marriage) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a married person and, while still married,
4. married, entered into a civil union, or cohabitated in this state with another person.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of bigamy (marriage).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of bigamy (marriage).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-201(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:56.8 (defining “cohabitation”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).
3. See Instruction H:47.7 (affirmative defense of “reasonable belief or extended absence”).

4. Where the existence of a common law marriage is at issue, the court should draft a supplemental instruction explaining the essential elements of a common law marriage. See People v. Lucero, 747 P.2d 660, 663 (Colo. 1987).
5. The statute does not define the term “civil union.”

6-2:02 BIGAMY (CIVIL UNION)

The elements of the crime of bigamy (civil union) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a partner in a civil union and, while still legally in a civil union,
4. married, entered into another civil union, or cohabitated in this state with another person who was not a current partner in the civil union.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of bigamy (civil union).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of bigamy (civil union).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-201(1.5), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:56.8 (defining “cohabitation”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. See Instruction H:47.7 (affirmative defense of “reasonable belief or extended absence”).
4. The statute does not define the term “civil union.”

6-2:03 MARRYING A BIGAMIST

The elements of the crime of marrying a bigamist are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. was an unmarried person, and
5. married or cohabitated with another in this state under circumstances known to him [her] which would have rendered the other person guilty of bigamy, as that offense is defined in these instructions.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of marrying a bigamist.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of marrying a bigamist.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-202, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:56.8 (defining “cohabitation”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).
3. Because this instruction requires the jury to determine whether another person would be guilty of bigamy, the court should provide the jury with a modified version of either Instruction 6-2:01 or Instruction 6-

2:02 (defining bigamy in the context of marriages and civil unions, respectively). The court should change the first element to read “That a person” rather than “That the defendant,” omit the phrase “at or about the date and place charged” from the second element, and omit the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof.

6-4:01 CHILD ABUSE (KNOWINGLY OR RECKLESSLY)

The elements of the crime of child abuse (knowingly or recklessly) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly or recklessly,
4. caused an injury to a child's life or health, or permitted a child to be unreasonably placed in a situation that posed a threat of injury to the child's life or health, or engaged in a continued pattern of conduct that resulted in malnourishment, lack of proper medical care, cruel punishment, mistreatment, or an accumulation of injuries that ultimately resulted in the death of a child or serious bodily injury to a child.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of child abuse (knowingly or recklessly).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of child abuse (knowingly or recklessly).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-401(1)(a), (7)(a)(I), (III), (V), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:49 (defining "child"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:308 (defining "recklessly"); Instruction F:332 (defining "serious bodily injury").

3. Section 18-6-401(1)(a) uses the phrase “injury to a child’s life or health,” rather than the more familiar term: “bodily injury.” However, a division of the court of appeals has concluded that the type of “injury” required under section 18-6-401(1)(a) is synonymous with “bodily injury,” as defined by section 18-1-901(3)(c), C.R.S. 2020 (“‘Bodily injury’ means physical pain, illness, or any impairment of physical or mental condition.”). See People v. Sherrod, 204 P.3d 472, 475 (Colo. App. 2007) (“Section 18-6-401(1)(a) contains no language that would accord the term ‘health’ something other than its commonly understood meaning. We therefore interpret the term ‘health’ to include both physical and mental well-being.”), rev’d on other grounds, 204 P.3d 466 (Colo. 2009); see also Instruction F:36 (defining “bodily injury”).

4. See Instruction H:10 (affirmative defense of “physical force pursuant to a special relationship”); Instruction H:48 (affirmative defense of “safe surrender of a newborn”).

5. See People v. Casias, 2012 COA 117, ¶ 35, 312 P.3d 208, 215 (“In connection with the child abuse charge, the prosecution had to prove, with respect to the ‘knowing’ mental state, only that defendant was aware of the abusive nature of his conduct in relation to J.C. or of the circumstances in which he committed an act against her well-being; and with respect to the ‘reckless’ element, only that defendant was aware of (and consciously chose to disregard) a substantial and unjustifiable risk that his conduct could result in injury to her life or health.”).

6. See Friend v. People, 2018 CO 90, ¶ 37, 429 P.3d 1191, 1197 (holding that child abuse resulting in death is a lesser included offense of child abuse murder).

7. + See People v. Jones, 2020 CO 45, ¶ 71, 464 P.3d 735, 748 (holding that the term “person” as used in the child abuse statute “does not include a fetus who is later born alive”).

8. + See People v. Dyer, 2019 COA 161, ¶¶ 51-52, 457 P.3d 783, 793-94 (holding that, where medical experts testified that the child was “medically neglected,” the defendant was not entitled to an instruction differentiating medical neglect from child abuse).

9. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 6.
10. + In 2020, the Committee added Comments 7 and 8.

6-4:02 CHILD ABUSE (CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE)

The elements of the crime of child abuse (criminal negligence) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with criminal negligence,
4. caused an injury to a child's life or health, or permitted a child to be unreasonably placed in a situation that posed a threat of injury to the child's life or health, or engaged in a continued pattern of conduct that resulted in malnourishment, lack of proper medical care, cruel punishment, mistreatment, or an accumulation of injuries that ultimately resulted in the death of a child or serious bodily injury to a child.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of child abuse (criminal negligence).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of child abuse (criminal negligence).

COMMENT

6-4:03 CHILD ABUSE (KNOWING OR RECKLESS EXCISION OR INFIBULATION OF FEMALE GENITALIA)

The elements of the crime of child abuse (knowing or reckless excision or infibulation of female genitalia) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
- [3. knowingly or recklessly,
4. excised or infibulated, in whole or in part,
5. the labia majora, labia minora, vulva, or clitoris of a female child.]
- [3. was a parent, guardian, or other person legally responsible for a female child or charged with the care or custody of a female child, and
4. knowingly or recklessly,
5. allowed the excision or infibulation, in whole or in part,
6. of the child's labia majora, labia minora, vulva, or clitoris.]
- [_. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of child abuse (knowing or reckless excision or infibulation of female genitalia).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of child abuse (knowing or reckless excision or infibulation of female genitalia).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-401(1)(b)(I), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:49 (defining “child”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:308 (defining “recklessly”).
3. The statute does not define the terms “clitoris,” “excision,” “infibulation,” “labia majora,” “labia minora,” or “vulva.” See, e.g., Webster’s Third New International Dictionary 425, 792, 1159, 1259, 2567 (2002) (p. 425, defining “clitoris” as “a small erectile organ at the anterior or ventral part of the vulva homologous to the penis in the male”) (p. 792, defining “excise” as “to cut out,” and defining “excision” as “the act or procedure of excising”) (p. 1159, defining “infibulation” as “an act or practice of fastening by ring, clasp, or stitches, the labia majora in girls and the prepuce in boys in order to prevent sexual intercourse”) (p. 1259, defining “labia majora” as “the outer fatty folds bounding the vulva”) (p. 1259, defining “labia minora” as “the inner highly vascular largely connective-tissue folds bounding the vulva”) (p. 2567, defining “vulva” as “the external part of the female genital organs”).
4. Section 18-6-401(b)(II), C.R.S. 2020, provides as follows:

Belief that the conduct described in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b) is required as a matter of custom, ritual, or standard practice or consent to the conduct by the child on whom it is performed or by the child’s parent or legal guardian shall not be an affirmative defense to a charge of child abuse under this paragraph (b).

This provision appears to state a proposition of law that governs the trial court’s rulings concerning the availability of affirmative defense instructions. Accordingly, the Committee has not drafted a special instruction embodying this concept.

5. Section 18-6-401(1)(b)(III), C.R.S. 2020, establishes an exemption from criminal liability for certain types of surgical procedures. However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.

6. In 2015, the Committee corrected Comment 5 by adding a reference to a subsection in the citation to section 18-6-401(1)(b)(III).

6-4:04 CHILD ABUSE (CRIMINALLY NEGLIGENT EXCISION OR INFIBULATION OF FEMALE GENITALIA)

The elements of the crime of child abuse (criminally negligent excision or infibulation of female genitalia) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
- [3. with criminal negligence,
4. excised or infibulated, in whole or in part,
5. the labia majora, labia minora, vulva, or clitoris of a female child.]
- [3. was a parent, guardian, or other person legally responsible for a female child or charged with the care or custody of a female child, and
4. with criminal negligence,
5. allowed the excision or infibulation, in whole or in part,
6. of the child's labia majora, labia minora, vulva, or clitoris.]
- [_. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of child abuse (criminally negligent excision or infibulation of female genitalia).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of child abuse (criminally negligent excision or infibulation of female genitalia).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of child abuse (knowing exposure to controlled substance manufacturing activities or precursor chemicals).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of child abuse (knowing exposure to controlled substance manufacturing activities or precursor chemicals).

(KNOWING EXPOSURE TO CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE
MANUFACTURING ACTIVITIES OR PRECURSOR

6-4:09.INT CHILD ABUSE – INTERROGATORY (DEATH)

If you find the defendant not guilty of child abuse, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of child abuse, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the child abuse result in death? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the child abuse resulted in death.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. It is not necessary to submit a special interrogatory asking the jury to determine whether the child abuse resulted in death if the instruction defining the offense is drafted in such a manner that, in order to find the defendant guilty, the jury necessarily must find that the abuse resulted in death.

6-4:10.INT CHILD ABUSE – INTERROGATORY (SERIOUS BODILY INJURY)

If you find the defendant not guilty of child abuse, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of child abuse, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the child abuse result in serious bodily injury? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the child abuse resulted in serious bodily injury.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

6-4:11.INT CHILD ABUSE – INTERROGATORY (INJURY OTHER THAN SERIOUS BODILY INJURY)

If you find the defendant not guilty of child abuse, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of child abuse, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the abuse cause any injury other than serious bodily injury?
(Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The abuse caused any injury other than serious bodily injury only if:

1. the child abuse resulted in any injury other than injury which, either at the time of the actual injury or at a later time, involved a substantial risk of death, a substantial risk of serious permanent disfigurement, a substantial risk of protracted loss or impairment of the function of any part or organ of the body, or breaks, fractures, or burns of the second or third degree.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-401(7)(a)(V), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. It is not necessary to submit a special interrogatory asking the jury to determine whether the child abuse resulted in any injury other than serious bodily injury if the instruction defining the offense is drafted in such a manner that, in order to find the defendant guilty, the jury necessarily must find that the abuse resulted in bodily injury. For example, a jury could not logically find a defendant guilty of child abuse involving mutilation of female genitalia, as defined in section 18-6-401(b)(I), and then make a finding that the child abuse resulted in “no . . . injury” for purposes of section 18-6-401(7)(b).
4. It appears unlikely that the “injury” defined by section 18-6-401(7)(a)(V) could include an injury that does not meet the definition of a “bodily injury” under section 18-1-901(3)(c), C.R.S. 2020. Nevertheless, out of an abundance of caution, the instruction uses the language of the statute and asks whether the child abuse resulted in an injury other than serious bodily injury.

6-4:12.INT CHILD ABUSE – INTERROGATORY (POSITION OF TRUST)

If you find the defendant not guilty of child abuse, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of child abuse, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant violate a position of trust? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant violated a position of trust only if:

1. the defendant was in a position of trust in relation to the child, and
2. participated in a continued pattern of conduct that resulted in the child’s malnourishment or failed to ensure the child’s access to proper medical care.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

6-4:13.INT CHILD ABUSE – INTERROGATORY

If you find the defendant not guilty of child abuse, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of child abuse, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant participate in a continued pattern? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant participated in a continued pattern only if:

1. the defendant participated in a continued pattern of cruel punishment, or unreasonable isolation, or confinement of the child.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

6-4:14.INT CHILD ABUSE – INTERROGATORY (REPEATED THREATS)

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of child abuse, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant make repeated threats? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant made repeated threats only if:

1. the defendant made repeated threats of harm or death to the child, or to a significant person in the child’s life, and
2. the threats were made in the presence of the child.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

(Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant committed a continued pattern of domestic violence only if:

6-4:17 SEXUAL EXPLOITATION OF A CHILD (EXPLICIT SEXUAL CONDUCT FOR SEXUALLY EXPLOITATIVE MATERIAL)

The elements of the crime of sexual exploitation of a child (explicit sexual conduct for sexually exploitative material) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. for any purpose,
5. caused, induced, enticed, or permitted a child to engage in, or be used for,
6. any explicit sexual conduct for the making of any sexually exploitative material.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of sexual exploitation of a child (explicit sexual conduct for sexually exploitative material).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of sexual exploitation of a child (explicit sexual conduct for sexually exploitative material).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-403(3)(a), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:50 (defining “child”); Instruction F:132 (defining “explicit sexual conduct”); Instruction F:341 (defining “sexually exploitative material”).
3. See Instruction H:36 (affirmative defense of “mistake as to age”).
4. The words “for any purpose” are included as an element because section 18-6-403(3) indicates that this phrase modifies all of the provisions in section 18-6-403(3)(a)–(d). However, four of those statutory subsections identify the prohibited purpose that must be proved, and the only one that does not – section 18-6-403(3)(b.5) – repeats the “for any purpose” language. Accordingly, except in cases involving a charge under section 18-6-403(3)(b.5), it may be appropriate to eliminate the “for any purpose” element.
5. Section 18-6-403(7) provides that a juvenile charged with posting a private image by a juvenile, see Instructions 7-1:08 and 7-1:09, is not subject to prosecution for this offense “for the same electronic or digital photograph, video, or image arising out of the same criminal episode.” Cf. § 18-1-408, C.R.S. 2020 (prosecution of multiple counts for same act).
6. In 2017, the Committee added Comment 5 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 390, sec. 3, § 18-6-403(7), 2017 Colo. Sess. Laws 2012, 2013.

6-4:18 SEXUAL EXPLOITATION OF A CHILD (PUBLICATION)

The elements of the crime of sexual exploitation of a child (publication) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. for any purpose,
  5. prepared, arranged for, published (including but not limited to publishing through digital or electronic means), produced, promoted, made, sold, financed, offered, exhibited, advertised, dealt in, or distributed (including but not limited to distributing through digital or electronic means),
  6. any sexually exploitative material.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of sexual exploitation of a child (publication).

However, four of those statutory subsections identify the prohibited purpose that must be proved, and the only one that does not – section 18-6-403(3)(b.5) – repeats the “for any purpose” language. Accordingly, except in cases involving a charge under section 18-6-403(3)(b.5), it may be appropriate to eliminate the “for any purpose” element.
5. See People v. Mantos, 250 P.3d 586, 590 (Colo. App. 2009) (downloading and saving already-existing material in a share-capable computer file is not proscribed by the terms “prepares” and “arranges for” in section 18-6-403(3)(b)).
6. See People v. Rowe, 2012 COA 90, ¶ 13, 318 P.3d 57, 60 (“Reading the plain language of [section 18-6-403(3)(b)] and construing the term ‘offer’ according to its common usage, we hold that a defendant ‘offers’ sexually exploitative material by making it available or accessible to others. In the context of a peer-to-peer file sharing network, a defendant offers sexually exploitative material by knowingly leaving it in the share folder for other users to download.”).
7. Section 18-6-403(3.5) provides that a juvenile is not subject to prosecution for this offense if his or her conduct is “limited to the elements of the petty offense of possession of a private image by a juvenile,” see Instruction 7-1:11, or is “limited to the elements of the civil infraction of exchange of a private image by a juvenile,” see § 18-7-109(3), C.R.S. 2020. However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.
8. Section 18-6-403(7) provides that a juvenile charged with posting a private image by a juvenile, see Instructions 7-1:08 and 7-1:09, is not subject to prosecution for this offense “for the same electronic or digital photograph, video, or image arising out of the same criminal episode.” Cf. § 18-1-408, C.R.S. 2020 (prosecution of multiple counts for same act).

9. See People v. Robles-Sierra, 2018 COA 28, ¶¶ 39–40, 44–45, ___ P.3d ___ (holding that, because the General Assembly “sought to cut a wide swath” in enacting the statute, the defendant’s activity of downloading sexually exploitative material off a peer-to-peer sharing network and making it accessible to others qualified as both “publishing” and “distributing”).

10. + See People v. Meils, 2019 COA 180, ¶¶ 43–44, 471 P.3d 1130, 1138–39 (holding that, because section 18-6-403(3) is written in the disjunctive, it prescribes alternative ways of committing the same offense, meaning the defendant could not be convicted of “both creating and possessing sexually exploitative material”).

11. In 2017, the Committee added Comments 7 and 8 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 390, sec. 3, § 18-6-403(3.5), (7), 2017 Colo. Sess. Laws 2012, 2013.

13. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 10.

6-4:19 SEXUAL EXPLOITATION OF A CHILD (POSSESSION OR CONTROL)

The elements of the crime of sexual exploitation of a child (possession or control) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. for any purpose,
  5. possessed or controlled,
  6. any sexually exploitative material.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of sexual exploitation of a child (possession or control).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of sexual exploitation of a child (possession or control).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-403(3)(b.5), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:50 (defining "child"); Instruction F:281 (defining "possession"); Instruction F:341 (defining "sexually exploitative material").

3. See Instruction H:36 (affirmative defense of “mistake as to age”).
4. Section 18-6-403(3)(b.5), C.R.S. 2020, states that it:

does not apply to law enforcement personnel, defense counsel personnel, or court personnel in the performance of their official duties, nor does it apply to physicians, psychologists, therapists, or social workers, so long as such persons are licensed in the state of Colorado and the persons possess such materials in the course of a bona fide treatment or evaluation program at the treatment or evaluation site.

See Instruction F:90.5 (defining “defense counsel personnel”); Instruction F:196.35 (defining “law enforcement personnel”). However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction. See also People v. Arapahoe Cty. Court, 74 P.3d 429, 431 (Colo. App. 2003) (“we do not address the argument that the statutory exception in § 18-6-403(3)(b.5) for court personnel does not include defense counsel”).

5. The words “for any purpose” are included as an element because section 18-6-403(3) indicates that this phrase modifies all of the provisions in section 18-6-403(3)(a)-(d). However, four of those statutory subsections identify the prohibited purpose that must be proved, and the only one that does not—section 18-6-403(3)(b.5)—repeats the “for any purpose” language. Accordingly, except in cases involving a charge under section 18-6-403(3)(b.5), it may be appropriate to eliminate the “for any purpose” element.

6. See Fabiano v. Armstrong, 141 P.3d 907, 910 (Colo. App. 2006) (section 18-6-403(3)(b.5) does not contain any requirement that the prohibited material be retained for any minimum period of time).

7. Section 18-6-403(3.5) provides that a juvenile is not subject to prosecution for this offense if his or her conduct is “limited to the elements of the petty offense of possession of a private image by a juvenile,” see Instruction 7-1:11, or is “limited to the elements of the civil infraction of exchange of a private image by a juvenile,” see § 18-7-109(3), C.R.S. 2020.

However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

8. Section 18-6-403(7) provides that a juvenile charged with posting a private image by a juvenile, see Instructions 7-1:08 and 7-1:09, is not subject to prosecution for this offense “for the same electronic or digital photograph, video, or image arising out of the same criminal episode.” Cf. § 18-1-408, C.R.S. 2020 (prosecution of multiple counts for same act).

9. See People in Interest of T.B., 2019 CO 53, ¶ 33, 445 P.3d 1049, 1056 (holding that liability for possessing sexually exploitative material “does not require proof that the material depicts ‘an act or acts of sexual abuse of a child’”).

10. + See People v. Meils, 2019 COA 180, ¶¶ 43–44, 471 P.3d 1130, 1138–39 (holding that, because section 18-6-403(3) is written in the disjunctive, it prescribes alternative ways of committing the same offense, meaning the defendant could not be convicted of “both creating and possessing sexually exploitative material”).

11. In 2017, the Committee added Comments 7 and 8 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 390, sec. 3, § 18-6-403(3.5), (7), 2017 Colo. Sess. Laws 2012, 2013. 13. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 10.

6-4:20 SEXUAL EXPLOITATION OF A CHILD (POSSESSION WITH INTENT)

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. for any purpose,
5. possessed,
6. with the intent to deal in, sell, or distribute (including but not limited to distributing through digital or electronic means),
7. any sexually exploitative material.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of sexual exploitation of a child (possession with intent).

6-4:21 SEXUAL EXPLOITATION OF A CHILD (EXPLICIT SEXUAL CONDUCT FOR A PERFORMANCE)

The elements of the crime of sexual exploitation of a child (explicit sexual conduct for a performance) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. for any purpose,
5. caused, induced, enticed, or permitted a child to engage in, or be used for,
6. any explicit sexual conduct,
7. for the purpose of producing a performance.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of sexual exploitation of a child (explicit sexual conduct for a performance).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of sexual exploitation of a child (explicit sexual conduct for a performance).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-403(3)(d), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:50 (defining “child”); Instruction F:132 (defining “explicit sexual conduct”); Instruction F:281 (defining “possession”); Instruction F:341 (defining “sexually exploitative material”).

4. The words “for any purpose” are included as an element because section 18-6-403(3) indicates that this phrase modifies all of the provisions in section 18-6-403(3)(a)–(d). However, four of those statutory subsections identify the prohibited purpose that must be proved, and the only one that does not – section 18-6-403(3)(b.5) – repeats the “for any purpose” language. ## 6-4:22.INT SEXUAL EXPLOITATION OF A CHILD – INTERROGATORY (MOVING IMAGES)

If you find the defendant not guilty of sexual exploitation of a child, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of sexual exploitation of a child, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant possess moving images? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant possessed moving images only if:

1. the defendant’s possession of sexually exploitative material was of a video, video tape, or motion picture.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-403(5)(b)(II), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:234 (defining “motion picture”); Instruction F:389 (defining “video” and “video tape”); see, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

6-4:23.INT SEXUAL EXPLOITATION OF A CHILD – INTERROGATORY (QUANTITY)

If you find the defendant not guilty of sexual exploitation of a child, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of sexual exploitation of a child, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant possess a large number of items? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant possessed a large number of items only if:

1. the defendant’s possession was of more than twenty different items qualifying as sexually exploitative material.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-403(5)(b)(II), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. + See People v. Bott, 2020 CO 86, ¶¶ 1–4, 477 P.3d 137, 138–39 (holding that section 18-6-403 “makes clear the legislature’s intent that possession pursuant to subsection (3)(b.5) of any number of items exceeding twenty that qualify as sexually exploitative material constitutes a single offense” (emphasis added), meaning the defendant’s possession of 294 images of child pornography could only subject him to a single conviction).

4. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 3.

6-4:24 PROCUREMENT OF A CHILD FOR SEXUAL EXPLOITATION

The elements of the crime of procurement of a child for sexual exploitation are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. intentionally,
4. gave, transported, provided, or made available, or offered to give, transport, provide, or make available,
5. a child,
6. to another person,
7. for the purpose of sexual exploitation of a child.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of procurement of a child for sexual exploitation.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of procurement of a child for sexual exploitation.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-404, C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:50 (defining “child”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”).

3. If the defendant is not separately charged with sexual exploitation of a child, give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. See Instructions 6-4:17 to 6-4:21. Place the elemental instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense.

6-6:02	HARBORING A MINOR (FAILING TO DISCLOSE LOCATION)

6-6:05	HARBORING A MINOR (FAILING TO NOTIFY)

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. Section 18-6-601(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020, provides as follows: “If the shelter provided to the minor is by a licensed child care facility, including a licensed homeless youth shelter, the minor, despite the minor’s status, may reside at such facility or shelter for a period not to exceed two weeks after the time of intake, pursuant to the procedures set forth in article 5.7 of title 26, C.R.S.” However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.
2. Section 18-6-601(1)(c), C.R.S. 2020, creates a defense to the prosecution of every offense in this chapter where “the defendant had custody of the minor or lawful parenting time with the minor pursuant to a court order.” However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.
3. The Committee added this chapter in 2016.

6-6:01 HARBORING A MINOR (FAILING TO RELEASE)

The elements of the crime of harboring a minor (failing to release) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. provided shelter to a minor,
5. without the consent of a parent, guardian, custodian of the minor, or the person with whom the child resided the majority of the time pursuant to a court order allocating parental responsibilities, and
6. intentionally,
7. failed to release the minor to a law enforcement officer after being requested to do so by the officer.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of harboring a minor (failing to release).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of harboring a minor (failing to release).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-601(1)(a)(I), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).

3. Although section 18-6-601 does not define the term “minor,” section 2-4-401, C.R.S. 2020, provides that “[t]he following definitions apply to every statute, unless the context otherwise requires,” and it defines “minor” in subsection (6) as “any person who has not attained the age of twenty-one years.” But see People v. Salazar, 920 P.2d 893, 897-98 (Colo. App. 1996) (holding, under an earlier version of this statute codifying the offense of “harboring a runaway child,” that the trial court did not err “by defining ‘child’ as a person less than 18 years of age,” and observing that a survey of the Children’s Code and “criminal statutes shows that ‘minor’ is consistently defined as a person under the age of 18”).

4. + See People v. Flynn, 2020 COA 54, ¶¶ 16, 18, 463 P.3d 360, 362-63 (“[S]ection 18-6-601(1)(a)(I) criminalizes a person’s conduct when he or she intentionally fails to release a minor to the specific officer who requested the minor’s release. . . . [T]he statute’s use of the word ‘the’ to reference the officer requesting a minor’s release particularizes or defines that officer as the same previously referenced law enforcement officer to whom the minor would be released.”).

5. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 4.

6-6:02 HARBORING A MINOR (FAILING TO DISCLOSE LOCATION)

The elements of the crime of harboring a minor (failing to disclose location) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. provided shelter to a minor,
5. without the consent of a parent, guardian, custodian of the minor, or the person with whom the child resided the majority of the time pursuant to a court order allocating parental responsibilities, and
6. intentionally,
7. failed to disclose the location of the minor to a law enforcement officer when requested to do so, and
8. the defendant knew the location of the minor and had either taken the minor to that location or had assisted the minor in reaching that location.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of harboring a minor (failing to disclose location).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of harboring a minor (failing to disclose location).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-601(1)(a)(II), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).
3. Although section 18-6-601 does not define the term “minor,” section 2-4-401, C.R.S. 2020, provides that “[t]he following definitions apply to every statute, unless the context otherwise requires,” and it defines “minor” in subsection (6) as “any person who has not attained the age of twenty-one years.” But see People v. Salazar, 920 P.2d 893, 897-98 (Colo. App. 1996) (holding, under an earlier version of this statute codifying the offense of “harboring a runaway child,” that the trial court did not err “by defining ‘child’ as a person less than 18 years of age,” and observing that a survey of the Children’s Code and “criminal statutes shows that ‘minor’ is consistently defined as a person under the age of 18”).

6-6:03 HARBORING A MINOR (OBSTRUCTING)

The elements of the crime of harboring a minor (obstructing) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. provided shelter to a minor,
5. without the consent of a parent, guardian, custodian of the minor, or the person with whom the child resided the majority of the time pursuant to a court order allocating parental responsibilities, and
6. intentionally,
7. obstructed a law enforcement officer from taking the minor into custody.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of harboring a minor (obstructing).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of harboring a minor (obstructing).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-601(1)(a)(III), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).

4. The term “obstructed” is not defined by statute. See Black’s Law Dictionary 1246 (10th ed. 2014) (defining “obstruct” as “[t]o make difficult or impossible; to keep from happening; hinder”).

6-6:04 HARBORING A MINOR (ASSISTING)

The elements of the crime of harboring a minor (assisting) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. provided shelter to a minor,
5. without the consent of a parent, guardian, custodian of the minor, or the person with whom the child resided the majority of the time pursuant to a court order allocating parental responsibilities, and
6. intentionally,
7. assisted the minor in avoiding or attempting to avoid the custody of a law enforcement officer.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of harboring a minor (assisting).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of harboring a minor (assisting).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-601(1)(a)(IV), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).

4. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempting” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

6-6:05 HARBORING A MINOR (FAILING TO NOTIFY)

The elements of the crime of harboring a minor (failing to notify) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. provided shelter to a minor,
5. without the consent of a parent, guardian, custodian of the minor, or the person with whom the child resided the majority of the time pursuant to a court order allocating parental responsibilities, and
6. intentionally,
7. failed to notify, within twenty-four hours after shelter had been provided,
8. the parent, guardian, custodian of the minor, the person with whom the child resided the majority of the time pursuant to a court order allocating parental responsibilities, or a law enforcement officer that the minor was being sheltered.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of harboring a minor (failing to notify).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of harboring a minor (failing to notify).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-601(1)(a)(V), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).
3. Although section 18-6-601 does not define the term “minor,” section 2-4-401, C.R.S. 2020, provides that “[t]he following definitions apply to every statute, unless the context otherwise requires,” and it defines “minor” in subsection (6) as “any person who has not attained the age of twenty-one years.” But see People v. Salazar, 920 P.2d 893, 897-98 (Colo. App. 1996) (holding, under an earlier version of this statute codifying the offense of “harboring a runaway child,” that the trial court did not err “by defining ‘child’ as a person less than 18 years of age,” and observing that a survey of the Children’s Code and “criminal statutes shows that ‘minor’ is consistently defined as a person under the age of 18”).

CHAPTER 6-7

CONTRIBUTING TO DELINQUENCY

6-7:01

CONTRIBUTING TO THE DELINQUENCY OF A MINOR

6-7:01 CONTRIBUTING TO THE DELINQUENCY OF A MINOR

The elements of the crime of contributing to the delinquency of a minor are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly induced, aided, or encouraged another to violate [insert a reference to the federal or state law, municipal or county ordinance, or court order], and
4. the person who was induced, aided, or encouraged by the defendant was under the age of eighteen years.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-701(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. If the defendant is not separately charged with violating the referenced law, ordinance, or court order, draft a separate instruction to define it (or include the appropriate elemental instruction for the offense without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof).

Place the instruction defining the referenced law, ordinance, or court order after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining any relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced law, ordinance, or court order.

3. In Gorman v. People, 19 P.3d 662, 665–67 (Colo. 2000), the supreme court concluded “that the culpable mental state of knowingly applies to the act of contributing to the delinquency,” but not to the age element. As the court explained, “[i]n order to be convicted of the offense of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, a person must know that he or she is inducing, aiding or encouraging someone to violate a ‘federal or state law,’ a ‘municipal or county ordinance,’ or a ‘court order.’” Id. at 665 (emphasis added).

4. See § 18-1-503.5(1), C.R.S. 2020 (“If the criminality of conduct depends on a child being younger than eighteen years of age and the child was in fact at least fifteen years of age, it shall be an affirmative defense that the defendant reasonably believed the child to be eighteen years of age or older”); Gorman v. People, 19 P.3d 662, 667–69 (Colo. 2000) (although the culpable mental state of “knowingly” does not apply to the age element of the crime of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, the affirmative defense of section 18-3-406 (now section 18-1-503.5) is applicable to the offense); Instruction H:36 (defining the affirmative defense in section 18-1-503.5(1)).

5. See People v. Miller, 830 P.2d 1092, 1093-94 (Colo. App. 1991) (section 18-6-701(1) “does not require that the minor be charged or convicted of a crime nor does it require the minor to be over the age of ten”).

6-8:01.INT TRIGGERING MISDEMEANOR OFFENSE OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE – INTERROGATORY (HABITUAL DOMESTIC VIOLENCE OFFENDER)

If you find the defendant not guilty of [insert name of misdemeanor offense(s)], you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of [insert name of misdemeanor offense(s)], you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the offense[s] of [insert name of misdemeanor offense(s)], of which you found the defendant guilty, include an act of domestic violence? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The offense[s] of [insert name of misdemeanor offense(s)], of which you found the defendant guilty, included an act of domestic violence only if:

1. you determine, as a matter of fact, that [it] [they] included,
- [2. an act or threatened act of violence,
3. upon a person with whom the actor was or had been involved in an intimate relationship.]
- [2. any other crime or municipal ordinance violation,
3. against a person, or against property, including an animal,
4. when used as a method of coercion, control, punishment, intimidation, or revenge,
5. directed against a person with whom the actor was or had been involved in an intimate relationship.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-801(7), C.R.S. 2020 (habitual domestic violence offender sentence enhancement elevates any qualifying misdemeanor offense to a class five felony).
2. See Instruction F:108 (defining the term “domestic violence” pursuant to section 18-6-800.3(1), with reference to an “intimate relationship” (a term that is defined in section 18-6-800.3(2), C.R.S. 2020, and Instruction F:187)); see, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. Section 18-6-801(7)(a) provides for an escalation from a misdemeanor to a class 5 felony if two factors are present: (1) the present misdemeanor offense “includes an act of domestic violence”; and (2) the defendant “has been previously convicted of three or more prior offenses that included an act of domestic violence and that were separately brought and tried and arising out of separate criminal episodes.” The first factor must be submitted to the jury. See § 18-6-801(7)(c) (“The trier of fact shall determine whether an offense charged includes an act of domestic violence.”). As to the second factor, the court should conduct a bifurcated trial to allow the jury to determine whether the defendant’s prior convictions included an act of domestic violence, unless a jury had already so determined (or the defendant had so admitted) during the prior proceedings. See § 18-6-801(7)(d). In the course of this bifurcated trial, the court should issue a modified version of this interrogatory for each prior offense. See Instruction 6-8:01.5.INT.

Furthermore, the Committee notes that, unlike the general statute for habitual sentencing proceedings, the domestic violence statute does not explicitly state that the judge (rather than the jury) shall determine that the defendant in the present trial is the same defendant who suffered the prior convictions. Compare § 18-1.3-803(4) C.R.S. 2020 (specifying that, if the defendant denies being previously convicted as alleged, “the trial judge . . . shall proceed to try the issues of whether the defendant has been previously convicted” (emphasis added)), with § 18-6-801(7)(d) (simply providing for sentencing determinations pertaining to “any prior conviction” allegedly involving an act of domestic violence). Nevertheless, the Committee concludes that, by implication, the domestic violence statute similarly leaves to the court to determine whether the present defendant has suffered prior convictions. That is, the statute does not require a jury to determine whether the defendant is the same person who was previously convicted; rather, it requires a jury to determine whether those prior convictions included an act of domestic violence. See People v. Jaso, 2014 COA 131, ¶ 21, 347 P.3d 1174, 1178–79 (holding that, where the jury’s guilty verdict on violation of a protection order “did not reflect a finding of ‘coercion, control, punishment, intimidation, or revenge,’ because the necessary elements of the charged crime . . . required the jury to find only that defendant contacted [the victim] knowing there was a protection order in place,” the trial court “engaged in constitutionally impermissible judicial fact-finding” when it found that the defendant’s contact with the victim “was made for the purpose of coercion or control”).

4. In 2016, the Committee modified this instruction and Comment 3 to reflect a legislative amendment, and it deleted the prior Comment 4. See Ch. 106, sec. 1, § 18-6-801(7), 2016 Colo. Sess. Laws 306, 306–07.
5. In 2019, the Committee added the citation to Jaso in Comment 3.

6-8:01.5.INT PRIOR OFFENSES OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE – INTERROGATORY (HABITUAL DOMESTIC VIOLENCE OFFENDER)

In addition to the offenses that you have already considered, the charges in this case allege that the defendant was previously convicted of [insert name of prior offense], and that this offense included an act of domestic violence. The court has already determined that the defendant was in fact convicted of [insert prior offense]. Now, you must decide whether that offense included an act of domestic violence. To do so, you should answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the offense of [insert prior offense], of which the defendant was previously convicted, include an act of domestic violence? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The offense of [insert prior offense], of which the defendant was previously convicted, included an act of domestic violence only if:

1. you determine, as a matter of fact, that it included,
- [2. an act or threatened act of violence,
3. upon a person with whom the actor was or had been involved in an intimate relationship.]
- [2. any other crime or municipal ordinance violation,
3. against a person, or against property, including an animal,
4. when used as a method of coercion, control, punishment, intimidation, or revenge,
5. directed against a person with whom the actor was or had been involved in an intimate relationship.]

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-801(7), C.R.S. 2020 (habitual domestic violence offender sentence enhancement elevates any qualifying misdemeanor offense to a class five felony).
2. See Instruction F:108 (defining the term “domestic violence” pursuant to section 18-6-800.3(1), with reference to an “intimate relationship” (a term that is defined in section 18-6-800.3(2), C.R.S. 2020, and Instruction F:187)); see, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. Section 18-6-801(7)(a) elevates a misdemeanor offense that included an act of domestic violence to a class 5 felony if the defendant had previously been convicted of three or more prior offenses that included acts of domestic violence. Subsection (d) requires the jury to make this determination, absent specific circumstances. See Instruction 6-8:01.INT, Comment 3. Thus, this interrogatory is to be given in the second phase of a bifurcated trial as contemplated in section 18-6-801(7)(d). Additionally, the court should give separate interrogatories for each prior conviction where the existence of an act of domestic violence is in dispute. Furthermore, in the event that the prior convictions involve the same type of offense, the court should be sure to differentiate the prior convictions in the individual interrogatories.
4. In 2016, the Committee added this instruction pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 106, sec. 1, § 18-6-801(7), 2016 Colo. Sess. Laws 306, 306-07.

6-8:02 VIOLATION OF A PROTECTION ORDER (PROHIBITED CONDUCT)

The elements of the crime of violation of a protection order (prohibited conduct) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. after having been personally served with a protection order that identified the defendant as a restrained person, or otherwise having acquired from the court or law enforcement personnel actual knowledge of the contents of a protection order that identified the defendant as a restrained person,
  4. knowingly,
  5. contacted, harassed, injured, intimidated, molested, threatened, or touched the protected person or protected property (including an animal) identified in the protection order; or entered or remained on premises or came within a specified distance of the protected person, protected property (including an animal), or premises; or violated any other provision of the protection order designed to protect the protected person from imminent danger to life or health; and
  6. the defendant's conduct was prohibited by the protection order.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of violation of a protection order (prohibited conduct).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of violation of a protection order (prohibited conduct).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-803.5(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:293.5 (defining “protected person”); Instruction F:294 (defining “protection order”); Instruction F:319 (defining “restrained person”).
3. In People v. Coleby, 34 P.3d 422, 424 (Colo. 2001), the supreme court interpreted an earlier version of the statute and held as follows:

Since the second portion of the statute requires a knowing violation, which is satisfied either implicitly by personal service of the restraining order or explicitly by actual knowledge of the contents of the order, section 18-1-503(4) requires that the mental state of knowingly apply to every element of the crime, “unless an intent to limit its application clearly appears.” An examination of the legislative history underlying section 18-6-803.5 reveals no intent on the part of the General Assembly to limit the application of the culpable mental state of “knowingly” to only one element of the offense. Moreover, the words the General Assembly chose to describe the conduct portion of the offense in section 18-6-803.5 evidence no clear intent to limit the application of the knowledge requirement. Thus, the mental state of “knowingly” applies not only to the second prong of the statute, but also to the first, conduct, prong.

Nothing in the statutory amendments after Coleby suggests that the holding in that case has been legislatively overruled. Accordingly, the above instruction applies the mens rea of “knowingly” to the prohibited conduct.

4. It is not necessary to submit an interrogatory asking the jury to make a finding with regard to the sentence enhancement factors in section 18-6-803.5(2)(a), C.R.S. 2020 (repeat offender; violation of restraining order issued pursuant to section 18-1-1001). These issues are matters of law for the court to determine.

5. See Hotsenpiller v. Morris, 2017 COA 95, ¶ 48, __ P.3d __ (holding that “consent of victim” is not a valid affirmative defense to violation of a protection order because “[a] protected person simply cannot ‘consent,’ under section 18-1-505, to another person’s violation of a court order”).

6. See People in Interest of L.C., 2017 COA 82, ¶ 37, __ P.3d __ (“By using the disjunctive ‘or’ in section 18-6-803.5(1)(a), the General Assembly intended to describe alternative ways of committing the offense of violation of a protective order. Thus, violation of a protective order does not in every instance require proof that the accused contacted the protected person.” (citations omitted)).

7. In 2017, the Committee added Comment 5.

8. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 6.

6-8:03 VIOLATION OF A PROTECTION ORDER (LOCATING)

The elements of the crime of violation of a protection order (locating) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. after having been personally served with a protection order that identified the defendant as a restrained person, or otherwise having acquired from the court or law enforcement personnel actual knowledge of the contents of a protection order that identified the defendant as a restrained person,
4. knowingly,
5. hired, employed, or otherwise contracted with another person to locate or assist in the location of the protected person.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of violation of a protection order (locating).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of violation of a protection order (locating).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-803.5(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:14 (defining “assist”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:293.5 (defining “protected person”); Instruction F:294 (defining “protection order”); Instruction F:319 (defining “restrained person”).

3. Section 18-6-803.5(1)(b) excepts from criminal liability conduct permitted pursuant to section 18-13-126(1)(b). See Instruction H:49 (affirmative defense of “locating a protected person – lawful purpose”).

4. See Instruction 6-8:02, Comment 3 (discussing People v. Coleby, 34 P.3d 422, 424 (Colo. 2001), and the application of the mens rea of “knowingly” to the prohibited conduct).

5. It is not necessary to submit an interrogatory asking the jury to make a finding with regard to the sentence enhancement factors in section 18-6-803.5(2)(a), C.R.S. 2020 (repeat offender; violation of restraining order issued pursuant to section 18-1-1001). These issues are matters of law for the court to determine.

6-8:04 VIOLATION OF A PROTECTION ORDER (FIREARMS OR AMMUNITION)

The elements of the crime of violation of a protection order (firearms or ammunition) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. after having been personally served with a protection order that identified the defendant as a restrained person, or otherwise having acquired from the court or law enforcement personnel actual knowledge of the contents of a protection order that identified the defendant as a restrained person,
  4. knowingly,
  5. violated a civil protection order,
  6. by possessing or attempting to purchase or receive a firearm or ammunition while the protection order was in effect; or failing to timely file a receipt or written statement with the court as required by law.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of violation of a protection order (firearms or ammunition).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of violation of a protection order (firearms or ammunition).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-6-803.5(1)(c), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:281 (defining “possession”); Instruction F:294 (defining “protection order”); Instruction F:319 (defining “restrained person”).
3. See Instruction 6-8:02, Comment 3 (discussing People v. Coleby, 34 P.3d 422, 424 (Colo. 2001), and the application of the mens rea of “knowingly” to the prohibited conduct).
4. The question of whether a civil protection order was issued “pursuant to section 13-14-105.5, C.R.S., or pursuant to section 18-1-1001(9)” is a matter of law for the court to determine.
5. In cases under section 18-6-803.5(1)(c)(II), the court should draft a special instruction, tailored to the evidence, explaining the relevant filing requirement(s) of section 13-14-105.5(9), section 18-1-1001(9)(i), or section 18-6-801(8)(i).
6. It is not necessary to submit an interrogatory asking the jury to make a finding with regard to the sentence enhancement factors in section 18-6-803.5(2)(a), C.R.S. 2020 (repeat offender; violation of restraining order issued pursuant to section 18-1-1001). These issues are matters of law for the court to determine.
7. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempting” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).
8. In 2015, the Committee added Comment 7.

6.5:01 CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE RESULTING IN THE DEATH OF AN AT-RISK PERSON

The elements of criminal negligence resulting in the death of an at-risk person are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. engaged in conduct amounting to criminal negligence,
  4. that resulted in the death,
  5. of an at-risk person.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of criminal negligence resulting in the death of an at-risk person.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of criminal negligence resulting in the death of an at-risk person.

COMMENT

The relevant statutes contain no mens rea element. Nor do they provide a defense for those defendants who might make a reasonable mistake as to their victims’ ages.”).

6.5:02 CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE RESULTING IN SERIOUS BODILY INJURY TO AN AT-RISK PERSON

The elements of criminal negligence resulting in serious bodily injury to an at-risk person are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. engaged in conduct amounting to criminal negligence,
  4. that resulted in serious bodily injury,
  5. to an at-risk person.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of criminal negligence resulting in serious bodily injury to an at-risk person.

7-1:05.SP PROMOTION OF OBSCENITY – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (SIX OR MORE ITEMS)

Evidence that a person possessed six or more identical obscene materials gives rise to a permissible inference that the person possessed them with intent to promote them.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is warranted by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

Colfax, Inc.*, 697 P.2d 348, 362 (Colo. 1985) (“[I]t is clear that the presumption [in section 18-7-102(4)] must be classified as permissive to comply with constitutional requirements. It must be construed to allow, but not to require, the trier of fact to infer the presumed fact (intent to promote) from the proven fact (possession of six or more identical obscene materials) and, of course, the jury must be properly instructed as to this effect.”).
3. The Committee takes no position on whether this instruction applies to the crimes of wholesale promotion of obscenity. See Instructions 7-1:01 and 7-1:02.

7-1:06 POSTING A PRIVATE IMAGE FOR HARASSMENT

The elements of the crime of posting a private image for harassment are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was eighteen years of age or older, and
4. with the intent,
  - [5. to harass, intimidate, or coerce an identified or identifiable person eighteen years of age or older,
  6. posted or distributed through the use of social media or any website any photograph, video, or other image displaying the private intimate parts of the depicted person,]
  - [5. to harass, intimidate, or coerce an identified or identifiable person,
  6. posted or distributed through the use of social media or any website an image displaying sexual acts of the depicted person,]
  - [7. without the depicted person's consent, and]
  - [7. when the defendant knew or should have known that the depicted person had a reasonable expectation that the image would remain private, and]
8. the conduct resulted in serious emotional distress of the depicted person.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of posting a private image for harassment.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of posting a private image for harassment.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-107(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:101.5 (defining “displaying sexual acts”); Instruction F:176.5 (defining “image”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:285.6 (defining “private intimate parts”); Instruction F:336.2 (defining “sexual acts”); Instruction F:346.5 (defining “social media”).
3. See Instruction H:49.5 (affirmative defense of “newsworthy event”).
4. The statute does not define “serious emotional distress.” Cf. People v. Carey, 198 P.3d 1223, 1236 (Colo. App. 2008) (holding, in the context of a stalking case, that “[b]ecause the phrase ‘serious emotional distress’ is understandable to persons of common intelligence, it was within the trial court’s discretion to refuse to instruct the jury on the definition of ‘severe emotional distress’ found in the civil jury instructions”).
5. Section 18-7-107(5), C.R.S. 2020, creates exemptions for interactive computer services, information services, and telecommunications services, as defined in Title 47 of the United States Code. However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.
6. For the fifth and sixth elements, the Committee has created bracketed alternatives because it appears from the statute that (1) if the defendant posted a “photograph, video, or other image displaying the private intimate parts” of a person, such a posting is criminalized only if the depicted person is eighteen years of age or older, but (2) if the defendant posted “an image displaying sexual acts” of a person, such a posting is criminalized regardless of the age of the depicted person.

7. In 2018, pursuant to a legislative amendment, the Committee modified the first alternative of the fifth element; added the second bracketed alternative for the fifth and sixth elements; added cross-references to Instructions F:101.5, F:176.5, and F:336.2 in Comment 2; and added Comment 6. See Ch. 192, sec. 1, § 18-7-107(1)(a), 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 1276, 1276.

7-1:07 POSTING A PRIVATE IMAGE FOR PECUNIARY GAIN

The elements of the crime of posting a private image for pecuniary gain are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was eighteen years of age or older, and
- [4. posted or distributed through social media or any website any photograph, video, or other image displaying the private intimate parts of an identified or identifiable person eighteen years of age or older,]
- [4. posted or distributed through social media or any website an image displaying sexual acts of an identified or identifiable person,]
5. with the intent,
6. to obtain a pecuniary benefit from any person as a result of the posting, viewing, or removal of the private image, and
- [7. the defendant had not obtained the depicted person's consent.]
- [7. the defendant knew or should have known that the depicted person had a reasonable expectation that the image would remain private.]
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of posting a private image for pecuniary gain.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of posting a private image for pecuniary gain.

4. Section 18-7-108(5), C.R.S. 2020, creates exemptions for interactive computer services, information services, and telecommunications services, as defined in Title 47 of the United States Code. However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.
5. For the fourth element, the Committee has created bracketed alternatives because it appears from the statute that (1) if the defendant posted a “photograph, video, or other image displaying the private intimate parts” of a person, such a posting is criminalized only if the depicted person is eighteen years of age or older, but (2) if the defendant posted “an image displaying sexual acts” of a person, such a posting is criminalized regardless of the age of the depicted person.
6. In 2018, pursuant to a legislative amendment, the Committee added the second bracketed alternative for the fourth element; added cross-references to Instructions F:101.5, F:176.5, and F:336.2 in Comment 2; and added Comment 5. See Ch. 192, sec. 2, § 18-7-108(1)(a), 2018 Colo. ## 7-1:08 POSTING A PRIVATE IMAGE BY A JUVENILE (IMAGE OF ANOTHER)

The elements of the [crime] [offense] of posting a private image by a juvenile (image of another) are:

1. That the [defendant] [juvenile],
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. while under eighteen years of age,
4. knowingly,
5. through digital or electronic means,
6. distributed, displayed, or published to the view of another person,
7. a sexually explicit image of a person other than [himself] [herself] who is at least fourteen years of age or is less than four years younger than the [defendant] [juvenile],
- [8. without the depicted person's permission.]
- [8. when the recipient did not solicit or request to be supplied with the image and suffered emotional distress.]
- [8. when he [she] knew or should have known that the depicted person had a reasonable expectation that the image would remain private.]
- [9. and that the [defendant's] [juvenile's] conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find [the defendant guilty] [that the juvenile committed the offense] of posting a private image by a juvenile (image of another).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find [the defendant not guilty] [that the juvenile did not commit the offense] of posting a private image by a juvenile (image of another).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-109(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:340.5 (defining “sexually explicit image”).
3. See Instruction H:49.8 (affirmative defense of “coerced, threatened, or intimidated”).
4. Because this offense only applies to juveniles, the Committee has added the third element, which stems from the statutory definition of “juvenile” as it applies to this offense. See § 18-7-109(8)(a).

Furthermore, the Committee recognizes that juveniles are not entitled to a trial by jury for misdemeanors or petty offenses. See § 19-2-107(2), C.R.S. 2020. Nevertheless, the Committee has created this instruction in the event that a juvenile would ever face a jury trial, either in criminal court or in juvenile court. Furthermore, the Committee has provided bracketed language throughout the instruction to match the appropriate venue. If the proceeding takes places in criminal court, the court should use the first set of brackets. If the proceeding takes place in juvenile court, the court should use the second set of brackets, which replaces several terms (i.e., “crime,” “defendant,” “guilty”) with their appropriate counterpart (i.e., “offense,” “juvenile,” “committed the offense”).

5. The Committee added this instruction in 2017 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 390, sec. 4, § 18-7-109(1)(a), 2017 Colo. Sess. Laws 2012, 2013-14.

7-1:09 POSTING A PRIVATE IMAGE BY A JUVENILE (IMAGE OF SELF)

1. That the [defendant] [juvenile],
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. while under eighteen years of age,
4. knowingly,
5. through digital or electronic means,
6. distributed, displayed, or published,
7. to the view of another person who is at least fourteen years of age or is less than four years younger than the [defendant] [juvenile],
8. a sexually explicit image of [himself] [herself],
9. when the recipient did not solicit or request to be supplied with the image and suffered emotional distress.
- [10. and that the [defendant's] [juvenile's] conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find [the defendant guilty] [that the juvenile committed the offense] of posting a private image by a juvenile (image of self).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find [the defendant not guilty] [that the juvenile did not commit the offense] of posting a private image by a juvenile (image of self).

7-2:01 PROSTITUTION

The elements of the crime of prostitution are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. performed or offered or agreed to perform,
4. any act of sexual intercourse, fellatio, cunnilingus, masturbation, or anal intercourse,
5. with any person who was not his [her] spouse,
6. in exchange for money or other thing of value.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of prostitution.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of prostitution.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-201(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:16 (defining "anal intercourse"); Instruction F:81 (defining "cunnilingus"); Instruction F:147 (defining "fellatio"); Instruction F:217 (defining "masturbation"); Instruction F:371 (defining "thing of value").
3. The term "sexual intercourse" is not defined in section 18-7-201.

4. Section 18-7-201.3(1), C.R.S. 2020, establishes an affirmative defense where the offense “was committed as a direct result of being a victim of human trafficking.”

5. Section 18-7-209, C.R.S. 2020, provides for immunity from criminal liability for minors who are charged with this crime and were victims of human trafficking. The Committee expresses no opinion regarding whether this provision allows for the determination of immunity prior to trial. Cf. People v. Guenther, 740 P.2d 971, 975 (Colo. 1987) (“We conclude that section 18-1-704.5(3) was intended to and indeed does authorize a court to dismiss a criminal prosecution at the pretrial stage of the case when the conditions of the statute have been satisfied. . . . [T]he phrase ‘shall be immune from criminal prosecution’ can only be construed to mean that the statute was intended to bar criminal proceedings against a person for the use of force under the circumstances set forth in subsection (2) of section 18-1-704.5.”). In addition, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether this statute could authorize affirmative defense instructions. Cf. id. at 981 (“[I]f the pretrial motion to dismiss on grounds of statutory immunity is denied, the defendant may nonetheless raise at trial, as an affirmative defense to criminal charges arising out of the defendant’s use of physical force against an intruder into his home, the statutory conditions set forth in section 18-1-704.5(2).”); see also Instruction H:32.7 (affirmative defense of victim of human trafficking of a minor).

6. In 2015, the Committee added Comment 4. See Ch. 107, sec. 1, § 18-7-201.3(1), 2015 Colo. Sess. Laws 311, 311.

7. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 5 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 147, sec. 3, § 18-7-209, 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 1764, 1766.

7-2:02 PROSTITUTION WITH KNOWLEDGE OF BEING INFECTED WITH HIV

The elements of the crime of prostitution with knowledge of being infected with HIV are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. performed or offered or agreed to perform,
  4. any act of sexual intercourse, fellatio, cunnilingus, masturbation, or anal intercourse,
  5. with a person who was not his [her] spouse,
  6. in exchange for money or any other thing of value, and
  7. the defendant had been tested for acquired immune deficiency syndrome, and the results of such test indicated the presence of the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) which causes acquired immune deficiency syndrome.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of prostitution with knowledge of being infected with HIV.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of prostitution with knowledge of being infected with HIV.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-201.7(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:16 (defining “anal intercourse”); Instruction F:81 (defining “cunnilingus”); Instruction F:147 (defining “fellatio”); Instruction F:217 (defining “masturbation”); Instruction F:371 (defining “thing of value”).
3. In 2016, the General Assembly repealed the crime of prostitution with knowledge of being infected with acquired immune deficiency syndrome, effective July 1, 2016. Therefore, the court should not provide this instruction if the alleged offense occurred after the effective date. See Ch. 230, sec. 3, § 18-7-201.7, 2016 Colo. Sess. Laws 895, 914.
4. Although the title of the offense includes the word “knowledge,” the provision defining the offense does not include a requirement that the defendant have known of the test results. See also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).
5. In 2016, the Committee added Comment 3 and renumbered the subsequent comment.

7-2:03 SOLICITING ANOTHER FOR PROSTITUTION

The elements of the crime of soliciting another for prostitution are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. solicited another for the purpose of prostitution.
- [4. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of soliciting another for prostitution.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of soliciting another for prostitution.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-202(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. If the defendant is not separately charged with prostitution, give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. Place the elemental instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense. See Instruction 7-2:01 (prostitution).
3. Section 18-7-209, C.R.S. 2020, provides for immunity from criminal liability for minors who are charged with this crime and were victims of human trafficking. The Committee expresses no opinion regarding whether this provision allows for the determination of immunity prior to trial. Cf. People v. Guenther, 740 P.2d 971, 975 (Colo. 1987) (“We conclude that section 18-1-704.5(3) was intended to and indeed does authorize a court to dismiss a criminal prosecution at the pretrial stage of the case when the conditions of the statute have been satisfied. . . . [T]he phrase ‘shall be immune from criminal prosecution’ can only be construed to mean that the statute was intended to bar criminal proceedings against a person for the use of force under the circumstances set forth in subsection (2) of section 18-1-704.5.”). In addition, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether this statute could authorize affirmative defense instructions. Cf. id. at 981 (“[I]f the pretrial motion to dismiss on grounds of statutory immunity is denied, the defendant may nonetheless raise at trial, as an affirmative defense to criminal charges arising out of the defendant’s use of physical force against an intruder into his home, the statutory conditions set forth in section 18-1-704.5(2).”); see also Instruction H:32.7 (affirmative defense of victim of human trafficking of a minor).

4. + In People v. Ross, 2019 COA 79, ¶ 8, __ P.3d __, a division of the court of appeals interpreted the crime of soliciting another or arranging a meeting for child prostitution, see Instructions 7-4:01 and 7-4:02, and held that the phrase “for the purpose of” “means that a defendant must have had the specific intent to solicit another for child prostitution.” On certiorari review, the supreme court “express[ed] no opinion on the soundness of the division’s conclusion that the phrase ‘for the purpose of’ . . . describes the culpable mental state of with intent.” People v. Ross, 2021 CO 9, ¶ 6 n.2, 479 P.3d 910, 913 n.2. Nevertheless, the court held that the crime of soliciting another or arranging a meeting for child prostitution features a culpable mental state, and that this mental state – regardless of whether it’s “with intent” or “knowingly” – applies to all of the elements of the crime, “including that the purpose of the defendant’s conduct was the prostitution of or by a child.” Id. at ¶ 4.

5. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 3 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 147, sec. 3, § 18-7-209, 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 1764, 1766.

6. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 4.

7-2:04 SOLICITING FOR PROSTITUTION (ARRANGING)

The elements of the crime of soliciting for prostitution (arranging) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. arranged or offered to arrange a meeting of persons for the purpose of prostitution.
- [4. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of soliciting for prostitution (arranging).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of soliciting for prostitution (arranging).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-202(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. If the defendant is not separately charged with prostitution, give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. Place the elemental instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense. See Instruction 7-2:01 (prostitution).
3. Section 18-7-209, C.R.S. 2020, provides for immunity from criminal liability for minors who are charged with this crime and were victims of human trafficking. The Committee expresses no opinion regarding whether this provision allows for the determination of immunity prior to trial. Cf. People v. Guenther, 740 P.2d 971, 975 (Colo. 1987) (“We conclude that section 18-1-704.5(3) was intended to and indeed does authorize a court to dismiss a criminal prosecution at the pretrial stage of the case when the conditions of the statute have been satisfied. . . . [T]he phrase ‘shall be immune from criminal prosecution’ can only be construed to mean that the statute was intended to bar criminal proceedings against a person for the use of force under the circumstances set forth in subsection (2) of section 18-1-704.5.”). In addition, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether this statute could authorize affirmative defense instructions. Cf. id. at 981 (“[I]f the pretrial motion to dismiss on grounds of statutory immunity is denied, the defendant may nonetheless raise at trial, as an affirmative defense to criminal charges arising out of the defendant’s use of physical force against an intruder into his home, the statutory conditions set forth in section 18-1-704.5(2).”); see also Instruction H:32.7 (affirmative defense of victim of human trafficking of a minor).

4. + In People v. Ross, 2019 COA 79, ¶ 8, __ P.3d __, a division of the court of appeals interpreted the crime of soliciting another or arranging a meeting for child prostitution, see Instructions 7-4:01 and 7-4:02, and held that the phrase “for the purpose of” “means that a defendant must have had the specific intent to solicit another for child prostitution.” On certiorari review, the supreme court “express[ed] no opinion on the soundness of the division’s conclusion that the phrase ‘for the purpose of’ . . . describes the culpable mental state of with intent.” People v. Ross, 2021 CO 9, ¶ 6 n.2, 479 P.3d 910, 913 n.2. Nevertheless, the court held that the crime of soliciting another or arranging a meeting for child prostitution features a culpable mental state, and that this mental state – regardless of whether it’s “with intent” or “knowingly” – applies to all of the elements of the crime, “including that the purpose of the defendant’s conduct was the prostitution of or by a child.” Id. at ¶ 4.

5. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 3 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 147, sec. 3, § 18-7-209, 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 1764, 1766.

6. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 4.

7-2:05 SOLICITING FOR PROSTITUTION (DIRECTING)

The elements of the crime of soliciting for prostitution (directing) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  - + 3. knowingly,
  4. directed another to a place,
  5. for the purpose of prostitution.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of soliciting for prostitution (directing).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of soliciting for prostitution (directing).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-202(1)(c), C.R.S. 2020.
2. If the defendant is not separately charged with prostitution, give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. Place the elemental instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense. See Instruction 7-2:01 (prostitution).

3. Section 18-7-209, C.R.S. 2020, provides for immunity from criminal liability for minors who are charged with this crime and were victims of human trafficking. The Committee expresses no opinion regarding whether this provision allows for the determination of immunity prior to trial. Cf. People v. Guenther, 740 P.2d 971, 975 (Colo. 1987) (“We conclude that section 18-1-704.5(3) was intended to and indeed does authorize a court to dismiss a criminal prosecution at the pretrial stage of the case when the conditions of the statute have been satisfied. . . . [T]he phrase ‘shall be immune from criminal prosecution’ can only be construed to mean that the statute was intended to bar criminal proceedings against a person for the use of force under the circumstances set forth in subsection (2) of section 18-1-704.5.”). In addition, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether this statute could authorize affirmative defense instructions. Cf. id. at 981 (“[I]f the pretrial motion to dismiss on grounds of statutory immunity is denied, the defendant may nonetheless raise at trial, as an affirmative defense to criminal charges arising out of the defendant’s use of physical force against an intruder into his home, the statutory conditions set forth in section 18-1-704.5(2).”); see also Instruction H:32.7 (affirmative defense of victim of human trafficking of a minor).

4. + Section 18-7-202(1)(c) applies to one who “[d]irects another to a place knowing such direction is for the purpose of prostitution” (emphasis added). Previously, this instruction tracked that language directly. But in 2020, in accordance with its longstanding protocols, the Committee changed the word “knowing” to “knowingly” and repositioned it such that it applies to all subsequent elements. In People v. Ross, 2019 COA 79, ¶ 8, ___ P.3d ___, a division of the court of appeals interpreted the crime of soliciting another or arranging a meeting for child prostitution, see Instructions 7-4:01 and 7-4:02, and held that the phrase “for the purpose of” “means that a defendant must have had the specific intent to solicit another for child prostitution.” On certiorari review, the supreme court “express[ed] no opinion on the soundness of the division’s conclusion that the phrase ‘for the purpose of’ . . . describes the culpable mental state of with intent.” People v. Ross, 2021 CO 9, ¶ 6 n.2, 479 P.3d 910, 913 n.2. Nevertheless, the court held that the crime of soliciting another or arranging a meeting for child prostitution features a culpable mental state, and that this mental state – regardless of whether it’s “with intent” or “knowingly” – applies to all of the elements of the crime, “including that the purpose of the defendant’s conduct was the prostitution of or by a child.” Id. at ¶ 4.

5. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 3 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 147, sec. 3, § 18-7-209, 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 1764, 1766.

6. + In 2020, the Committee modified this instruction, as explained in the new Comment 4.

7-2:06 PANDERING (INDUCING)

The elements of the crime of pandering (inducing) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. for money or other thing of value,
4. induced a person by [menacing] [criminal intimidation] to commit prostitution.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of pandering (inducing).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of pandering (inducing).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-203(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:371 (defining “thing of value”).
3. It is unclear how the term “criminal intimidation” should be defined because there is no offense with that name. The term may be similar to the offense of “criminal extortion.” See Whimbush v. People, 869 P.2d 1245, 1249 (Colo. 1994) (“The former version of [section 18-3-207] did not expressly prohibit threats to the ‘economic well-being’ of the threatened person, and the crime was categorized as a class 1 misdemeanor entitled ‘criminal intimidation.’ Ch. 121, sec. 1, § 40-3-207, 1971 Colo. Sess. Laws 388, 421. In 1975, the statute was amended to include threats to cause economic harm, and the crime was elevated to a class 4 felony entitled 'criminal extortion.' Ch. 167, sec. 8, § 18-3-207, 1975 Colo. Sess. Laws 616, 618.").

4. If the defendant is not separately charged with prostitution or menacing, give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense(s) without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. Place the elemental instruction(s) for the referenced offense(s) immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense(s). See Instruction 3-2:30 (menacing); Instruction 7-2:01 (prostitution).

7-2:07 PANDERING (ARRANGING)

The elements of the crime of pandering (arranging) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. for money or other thing of value,
  5. arranged or offered to arrange a situation in which a person may practice prostitution.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of pandering (arranging).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of pandering (arranging).

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:371 (defining “thing of value”).
3. If the defendant is not separately charged with prostitution, give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. Place the elemental instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense. See Instruction 7-2:01 (prostitution).

7-2:08 KEEPING A PLACE OF PROSTITUTION (USE)

The elements of the crime of keeping a place of prostitution (use) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. had or exercised control over the use of any place which offered seclusion or shelter for the practice of prostitution, and
4. knowingly,
5. granted or permitted the use of the place for the purpose of prostitution.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of keeping a place of prostitution (use).

instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense. See Instruction 7-2:01 (prostitution).

4. Section 18-7-209, C.R.S. 2020, provides for immunity from criminal liability for minors who are charged with this crime and were victims of human trafficking. The Committee expresses no opinion regarding whether this provision allows for the determination of immunity prior to trial. Cf. People v. Guenther, 740 P.2d 971, 975 (Colo. 1987) (“We conclude that section 18-1-704.5(3) was intended to and indeed does authorize a court to dismiss a criminal prosecution at the pretrial stage of the case when the conditions of the statute have been satisfied. . . . In addition, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether this statute could authorize affirmative defense instructions. Cf. id. at 981 (“[I]f the pretrial motion to dismiss on grounds of statutory immunity is denied, the defendant may nonetheless raise at trial, as an affirmative defense to criminal charges arising out of the defendant’s use of physical force against an intruder into his home, the statutory conditions set forth in section 18-1-704.5(2).”); see also Instruction H:32.7 (affirmative defense of victim of human trafficking of a minor).

7-2:09 KEEPING A PLACE OF PROSTITUTION (CONTINUED USE)

The elements of the crime of keeping a place of prostitution (continued use) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. had or exercised control over the use of any place which offered seclusion or shelter for the practice of prostitution, and
4. permitted the continued use of the place for the purpose of prostitution,
5. after becoming aware of facts or circumstances from which he [she] should reasonably have known that the place was being used for purposes of prostitution.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of keeping a place of prostitution (continued use).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of keeping a place of prostitution (continued use).

COMMENT

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. engaged in an act of sexual intercourse or deviate sexual conduct,
4. with a prostitute,

- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of patronizing a prostitute (act).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-205(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. The terms “sexual intercourse” and “deviate sexual conduct” are not defined for purposes of section 18-7-205.
3. Although the term “prostitute” is not defined by statute, a supplemental instruction defining the offense of “prostitution” (without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof) should provide sufficient guidance. See Instruction 7-2:01 (prostitution).

7-2:11 PATRONIZING A PROSTITUTE (PLACE)

1. That the defendant,

3. entered or remained in a place of prostitution,
4. with intent to engage in an act of sexual intercourse or deviate sexual conduct,
5. with a person who was not his [her] spouse.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of patronizing a prostitute (place).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of patronizing a prostitute (place).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-205(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”).
3. The terms “sexual intercourse” and “deviate sexual conduct” are not defined for purposes of section 18-7-205.
4. Give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense of prostitution and omit the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. Place the elemental instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense. See Instruction 7-2:01 (prostitution).

7-2:12 PATRONIZING A PROSTITUTE WITH KNOWLEDGE OF BEING INFECTED

The elements of the crime of patronizing a prostitute with knowledge of being infected are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. had been tested for acquired immune deficiency syndrome, and the results of such test indicated the presence of the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) which causes acquired immune deficiency syndrome, and

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-205.7(1), C.R.S. 2020 (incorporating section 18-7-205(1)).

2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”).
3. In 2016, the General Assembly repealed the crime of patronizing a prostitute with knowledge of being infected with acquired immune deficiency syndrome, effective July 1, 2016. Therefore, the court should not provide this instruction if the alleged offense occurred after the effective date. See Ch. 230, sec. 3, § 18-7-205.7, 2016 Colo. Sess. Laws 895, 914.
4. The term “deviate sexual conduct” is not defined by statute.
5. Although the title of the offense includes the word “knowledge,” the provision defining the offense does not include a requirement that the defendant have known of the test results. See also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).
6. Give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense of prostitution and omit the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. Place the elemental instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense. See Instruction 7-2:01 (prostitution).
7. Although the term “prostitute” is not defined by statute, the supplemental instruction recommended in Comment 6 should provide sufficient guidance.
8. In 2016, the Committee added Comment 3 and renumbered the subsequent comments.

The elements of the crime of pimping are:

1. That the defendant,

5. earned, received, procured, or realized by any other person,
6. through prostitution.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of pimping.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of pimping.

COMMENT

5. in any public place or within public view.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of prostitute making display.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of prostitute making display.

7-3:01 PUBLIC INDECENCY (SEXUAL INTERCOURSE)

The elements of the crime of public indecency (sexual intercourse) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,

4. in a public place or where the conduct may reasonably have been expected to be viewed by members of the public.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of public indecency (sexual intercourse).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of public indecency (sexual intercourse).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-301(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:303 (defining “public place”).
3. See People v. Hoskay, 87 P.3d 194, 198 (Colo. App. 2003) (trial court did not err by refusing to instruct the jury that, in order to commit the offense of public indecency, a person must know that he is in a public place; “superimposing a requirement that an offender must know that he or she is in a ‘public place’ within the meaning of § 18-1-901(3)(n) would frustrate the clear intent of the General Assembly”).

7-3:02 PUBLIC INDECENCY (LEWD EXPOSURE)

The elements of the crime of public indecency (lewd exposure) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. in a public place or where the conduct may reasonably have been expected to be viewed by members of the public,
4. performed a lewd exposure of an intimate part of the body, other than the genitals,
5. with intent to arouse or to satisfy the sexual desire of any person.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of public indecency (lewd exposure).

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:186 (defining “intimate parts”); Instruction F:303 (defining “public place”).

3. The term “lewd” is not defined by statute. See Webster’s Third New International Dictionary 1301 (2002) (defining “lewd,” in relevant part, as: “inciting to sensual desire or imagination”).

4. See People v. Hoskay, 87 P.3d 194, 198 (Colo. 2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. in a public place or where the conduct may reasonably have been expected to be viewed by members of the public,
4. performed a lewd fondling or caress of the body of another person.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of public indecency (lewd fondling or caress).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of public indecency (lewd fondling or caress).

7-3:04 PUBLIC INDECENCY (KNOWING EXPOSURE)

The elements of the crime of public indecency (knowing exposure) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. in a public place or where the conduct might reasonably have been expected to be viewed by members of the public,
4. knowingly,
5. exposed his [her] genitals to the view of a person,
6. under circumstances in which such conduct was likely to cause affront or alarm to the other person.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of public indecency (knowing exposure).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of public indecency (knowing exposure).

3. knowingly,
4. exposed his [her] genitals to the view of any person,
5. under circumstances in which such conduct was likely to cause affront or alarm to the other person,
6. with the intent to arouse or satisfy the sexual desire of any person.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of indecent exposure (knowing exposure).

7-3:06 INDECENT EXPOSURE (MASTURBATION)

The elements of the crime of indecent exposure (masturbation) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. performed an act of masturbation in a manner which exposed the act to the view of any person,
5. under circumstances in which such conduct was likely to cause affront or alarm to the other person.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of indecent exposure (masturbation).

7-4:01 SOLICITING FOR CHILD PROSTITUTION (ANOTHER)

The elements of the crime of soliciting for child prostitution (another) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. + solicited another for the purpose of prostitution of a child or by a child.
- [4. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of soliciting for child prostitution (another).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of soliciting for child prostitution (another).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-402(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:50 (defining "child"); Instruction F:292 (defining "prostitution by a child"); Instruction F:293 (defining "prostitution of a child").
3. + Section 18-7-402(1)(a) provides that the solicitation must be "for the purpose of prostitution of a child or by a child." In People v. Ross, 2019 COA 79, ¶ 8, __ P.3d __, a division of the court of appeals held that the phrase "for the purpose of" "means that a defendant must have had the specific intent to solicit another for child prostitution.” See also id. at ¶ 30 (concluding that “the phrase ‘for the purpose of’ is the equivalent of ‘intentionally’”). On certiorari review, the supreme court declined to opine on this ruling. See People v. Ross, 2021 CO 9, ¶ 6 n.2, 479 P.3d 910, 913 n.2 (“We express no opinion on the soundness of the division’s conclusion that the phrase ‘for the purpose of’ in subsections (a) and (b) describes the culpable mental state of with intent.”). But the supreme court did hold that the crime of solicitation for child prostitution requires a culpable mental state, and that this mental state – regardless of whether it’s “with intent” or “knowingly” – applies to all of the elements of the crime, “including that the purpose of the defendant’s conduct was the prostitution of or by a child.” Id. at ¶ 4.

Previously, this instruction contained two substantive elements; the third element read “solicited another,” while the fourth read “for the purpose of prostitution of a child or by a child.” In 2020, in light of the Ross decisions, the Committee combined this language into a single element.

4. See People v. Jacobs, 91 P.3d 438, 441 (Colo. App. 2003) (“the statutory elements of the general inchoate offense of solicitation do not apply to the separate substantive offense of soliciting for child prostitution”; abandonment and renunciation is not an affirmative defense to soliciting for child prostitution).

5. + See People v. Ross, 2021 CO 9, ¶¶ 4, 33, 479 P.3d 910, 912, 917 (“[N]either the victim’s age nor the defendant’s knowledge of, or belief concerning, the victim’s age is an element of soliciting for child prostitution. . . . [I]f a defendant solicits another for the purpose of prostitution of a child, the defendant violates subsection (a). It doesn’t matter whether anyone is ultimately prostituted and, if so, whether that person turns out to be a child. By the same token, if a defendant solicits another for the purpose of prostitution of an adult, the defendant does not violate subsection (a). That’s true regardless of whether anyone is ultimately prostituted and, if so, whether that person turns out to be a child.” (emphasis added)); see also Instruction 7-4:13.SP (ignorance or reasonable belief of age not a defense – special instruction).

6. + In 2020, the Committee modified this instruction in light of the Ross cases, as explained in the revised Comment 3; it also added Comment 5.

7-4:02 SOLICITING FOR CHILD PROSTITUTION (ARRANGING)

The elements of the crime of soliciting for child prostitution (arranging) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. + arranged or offered to arrange a meeting of persons for the purpose of prostitution of a child or by a child.
- [4. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of soliciting for child prostitution (arranging).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of soliciting for child prostitution (arranging).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-402(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:50 (defining "child"); Instruction F:292 (defining "prostitution by a child"); Instruction F:293 (defining "prostitution of a child").
3. + Section 18-7-402(1)(b) provides that the arrangement must be "for the purpose of prostitution of a child or by a child." In People v. Ross, 2019 COA 79, ¶ 8, __ P.3d __, a division of the court of appeals held that the phrase "for the purpose of" "means that a defendant must have had the specific intent to solicit another for child prostitution.” See also id. at ¶ 30 (concluding that “the phrase ‘for the purpose of’ is the equivalent of ‘intentionally’”). On certiorari review, the supreme court declined to opine on this ruling. *See People v. But the supreme court did hold that the crime of arranging for child prostitution requires a culpable mental state, and that this mental state – regardless of whether it’s “with intent” or “knowingly” – applies to all of the elements of the crime, “including that the purpose of the defendant’s conduct was the prostitution of or by a child.” Id. at ¶ 4.

Previously, this instruction contained two substantive elements; the third element read “arranged or offered to arrange a meeting of persons,” while the fourth read “for the purpose of prostitution of a child or by a child.” In 2020, in light of the Ross decisions, the Committee combined this language into a single element.

4. See People v. Jacobs, 91 P.3d 438, 441 (Colo. [I]f a defendant [arranges a meeting] for the purpose of prostitution of a child, the defendant violates subsection [(b)]. It doesn’t matter whether anyone is ultimately prostituted and, if so, whether that person turns out to be a child. By the same token, if a defendant [arranges a meeting] for the purpose of prostitution of an adult, the defendant does not violate subsection [(b)]. 6. + In 2020, the Committee modified this instruction in light of the Ross cases, as explained in the revised Comment 3; it also added Comment 5.

7-4:03 SOLICITING FOR CHILD PROSTITUTION (DIRECTING)

The elements of the crime of soliciting for child prostitution (directing) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  - + 3. knowingly,
  4. directed another to a place,
  5. for the purpose of prostitution of a child or by a child.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of soliciting for child prostitution (directing).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of soliciting for child prostitution (directing).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-402(1)(c), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:50 (defining "child"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:292 (defining "prostitution by a child"); Instruction F:293 (defining "prostitution of a child").
3. See People v. Jacobs, 91 P.3d 438, 441 (Colo. App. 2003) ("the statutory elements of the general inchoate offense of solicitation do not apply to the separate substantive offense of soliciting for child prostitution”; abandonment and renunciation is not an affirmative defense to soliciting for child prostitution).

4. + Section 18-7-402(1)(c) applies to one who “[d]irects another to a place knowing such direction is for the purpose of prostitution of a child or by a child” (emphasis added). Previously, this instruction tracked that language directly. But in 2020, in accordance with its longstanding protocols, the Committee changed the word “knowing” to “knowingly” and repositioned it such that it applies to all subsequent elements. In People v. Ross, 2019 COA 79, ¶ 8, __ P.3d __, a division of the court of appeals interpreted the crime of soliciting another or arranging a meeting for child prostitution, see Instructions 7-4:01 and 7-4:02, and held that the phrase “for the purpose of” “means that a defendant must have had the specific intent to solicit another for child prostitution.” On certiorari review, the supreme court “express[ed] no opinion on the soundness of the division’s conclusion that the phrase ‘for the purpose of’ . . . describes the culpable mental state of with intent.” People v. Ross, 2021 CO 9, ¶ 6 n.2, 479 P.3d 910, 913 n.2. Nevertheless, the court held that the crime of soliciting another or arranging a meeting for child prostitution features a culpable mental state, and that this mental state – regardless of whether it’s “with intent” or “knowingly” – applies to all of the elements of the crime, “including that the purpose of the defendant’s conduct was the prostitution of or by a child.” Id. at ¶ 4.

5. + In 2020, the Committee modified this instruction, as explained in the new Comment 4.

7-4:04 PANDERING OF A CHILD (INDUCING)

The elements of the crime of pandering of a child (inducing) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. for money or other thing of value,
  4. induced a child by menacing or criminal intimidation,
  5. to commit prostitution.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of pandering of a child (inducing).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of pandering of a child (inducing).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-403(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:50 (defining "child"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:371 (defining "thing of value"); see also Instruction F:292 (defining "prostitution by a child"); Instruction F:293 (defining "prostitution of a child").
3. Section 18-7-403(1)(a) refers to "prostitution" rather than "prostitution by a child" or "prostitution by a child" (phrases which are defined, for purposes of Part 4 of Article 7, in section 18-7-401(6), (7)).

Thus, it is unclear whether “prostitution” should be defined based on sections 18-7-401(6), (7), or on the general definition in section 18-7-201(1).

4. It is unclear how the term “criminal intimidation” should be defined because there is no offense with that name. The term may be synonymous with the offense of “criminal extortion.” See Whimbush v. People, 869 P.2d 1245, 1249 (Colo. 1994) (“The former version of [section 18-3-207] did not expressly prohibit threats to the ‘economic well-being’ of the threatened person, and the crime was categorized as a class 1 misdemeanor entitled ‘criminal intimidation.’ Ch. 121, sec. 1, § 40-3-207, 1971 Colo. Sess. Laws 388, 421. In 1975, the statute was amended to include threats to cause economic harm, and the crime was elevated to a class 4 felony entitled ‘criminal extortion.’ Ch. 167, sec. 8, § 18-3-207, 1975 Colo. Sess. Laws 616, 618.”).

5. If the defendant is not separately charged with menacing, give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. Place the elemental instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense. See Instruction 3-2:30 (menacing).

7-4:05 PANDERING OF A CHILD (ARRANGING)

The elements of the crime of pandering of a child (arranging) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. for money or other thing of value,
  4. knowingly,
  5. arranged or offered to arrange a situation in which a child may practice prostitution.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of pandering of a child (arranging).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of pandering of a child (arranging).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-403(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:50 (defining "child"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:371 (defining "thing of value"); see also Instruction F:292 (defining "prostitution by a child"); Instruction F:293 (defining "prostitution of a child").
3. Section 18-7-403(1)(b) refers to "prostitution" rather than "prostitution by a child" or "prostitution by a child" (phrases which are defined, for purposes of Part 4 of Article 7, in section 18-7-401(6), (7)). Thus, it is unclear whether “prostitution” should be defined based on sections 18-7-401(6), (7), or on the general definition in section 18-7-201(1).

7-4:06 PROCUREMENT OF A CHILD

The elements of the crime of procurement of a child are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. intentionally,
4. gave, transported, provided, or made available, or offered to give, transport, provide, or make available,
5. a child,
6. to another person,
7. for the purpose of prostitution of the child.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of procurement of a child.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of procurement of a child.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-403.5, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:50 (defining "child"); Instruction F:185 (defining "intentionally"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:293 (defining "prostitution of a child").

7-4:07 KEEPING A PLACE OF CHILD PROSTITUTION (USE)

The elements of the crime of keeping a place of child prostitution (use) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. had or exercised control over the use of any place which offered seclusion or shelter for the practice of prostitution, and
4. knowingly,
5. granted or permitted the use of the place for the purpose of prostitution of a child or by a child.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of keeping a place of child prostitution (use).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of keeping a place of child prostitution (use).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-404(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:50 (defining "child"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:292 (defining "prostitution by a child"); Instruction F:293 (defining "prostitution of a child").

7-4:08 KEEPING A PLACE OF CHILD PROSTITUTION (CONTINUED USE)

The elements of the crime of keeping a place of child prostitution (continued use) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. had or exercised control over the use of any place which offered seclusion or shelter for the practice of prostitution, and
4. permitted the continued use of the place for the purpose of prostitution of a child or by a child,
5. after becoming aware of facts or circumstances from which he [she] should reasonably have known that the place was being used for purposes of such prostitution.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of keeping a place of child prostitution (continued use).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of keeping a place of child prostitution (continued use).

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:50 (defining “child”); Instruction F:292 (defining “prostitution by a child”); Instruction F:293 (defining “prostitution of a child”).

7-4:09 PIMPING OF A CHILD

The elements of the crime of pimping of a child are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. lived on or was supported or maintained in whole or in part by money or other thing of value,
5. earned, received, procured, or realized by a child,
6. through prostitution.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of pimping of a child.

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:50 (defining "child"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:371 (defining "thing of value"); see also Instruction F:292 (defining "prostitution by a child"); Instruction F:293 (defining "prostitution of a child").

7-4:10 INDUCEMENT OF CHILD PROSTITUTION

The elements of the crime of inducement of child prostitution are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. by word or action, other than by menacing or criminal intimidation,
4. induced a child,
5. to engage in an act of prostitution by a child.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of inducement of child prostitution.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of inducement of child prostitution.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-405.5, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:50 (defining "child"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:292 (defining "prostitution by a child").
3. If the defendant is not separately charged with menacing, provide the jury with a supplemental instruction that defines "menacing" without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. See Instruction 3-2:30 (menacing). Place the elemental instruction for menacing immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for menacing.

4. It is unclear how the term “criminal intimidation” should be defined because there is no offense with that name. The term may be synonymous with the offense of “criminal extortion.” See Whimbush v. People, 869 P.2d 1245, 1249 n.5 (Colo. 1994) (“The former version of [section 18-3-207] did not expressly prohibit threats to the ‘economic well-being’ of the threatened person, and the crime was categorized as a class 1 misdemeanor entitled ‘criminal intimidation.’ Ch. 121, sec. 1, § 40-3-207, 1971 Colo. Sess. Laws 388, 421. In 1975, the statute was amended to include threats to cause economic harm, and the crime was elevated to a class 4 felony entitled ‘criminal extortion.’ Ch. 167, sec. 8, § 18-3-207, 1975 Colo. Sess. Laws 616, 618.”).

5. See People v. Hansen, 708 P.2d 468, 470 (Colo. App. 1985) (“if a defendant’s attempts at persuasion do not induce the child to perform, or to agree to perform, a sexual act in exchange for money or other thing of value, he is not guilty of inducement of child prostitution”; “[h]owever, the crime of attempt to induce child prostitution requires neither that a sexual act be performed nor that an agreement to perform be made”).

7-4:11 PATRONIZING A PROSTITUTED CHILD (ACT)

The elements of the crime of patronizing a prostituted child (act) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. engaged in an act of prostitution of a child or by a child,
4. with a child who was not his [her] spouse.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of patronizing a prostituted child (act).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of patronizing a prostituted child (act).

COMMENT

Such a commercial transaction must occur between the patron – i.e., the person having the sexual contact with the child – or between the patron and the one inducing the child to participate in the sexual act, the pimp. It is precisely this exchange of something of value between the patron and either the pimp or the child that distinguishes this crime from that of sexual assault.”).

Maloy*, 2020 COA 71, ¶ 22, 465 P.3d 146, 154 (holding that the defendant’s conviction for patronizing a prostituted child violated equal protection because the crimes of pandering of a child, § 18-7-403(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020, and inducement of child prostitution, § 18-7-405.5, C.R.S. 2020, “penalize the same or more culpable conduct with lighter sentences”).

7-4:12 PATRONIZING A PROSTITUTED CHILD (PLACE)

The elements of the crime of patronizing a prostituted child (place) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. entered or remained in a place of prostitution,
  4. with intent,
  5. to engage in an act of prostitution of a child or by a child,
  6. with a child who was not his [her] spouse.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of patronizing a prostituted child (place).

7-4:13.SP CHILD PROSTITUTION CRIMES – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (IGNORANCE OR REASONABLE BELIEF IS NOT A DEFENSE)

It is no defense to a charge of [insert name(s) of offense(s) from Article 7, Part 4] that the defendant did not know the child’s age, or that he [she] reasonably believed the child to be eighteen years of age or older.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-407, C.R.S. 2020 (applicable to “any criminal prosecution under sections 18-7-402 to 18-7-407”).
2. + See People v. Maloy, 2020 COA 71, ¶¶ 38–43, 465 P.3d 146, 156–57 (holding that this language in section 18-7-407 trumps the general affirmative defense of “mistake of age,” see Instruction H:36, meaning the defendant could not raise mistake of age as an affirmative defense to his child prostitution charges).
3. + See People v. Ross, 2021 CO 9, ¶ 5, 479 P.3d 910, 912 (“[W]hile section 18-7-407 . . . precludes a defendant from raising a defense based on either his lack of knowledge of the child’s age or his reasonable belief that the child was an adult, it does not relieve the People of their burden of proof under subsections (a) and (b) [of section 18-7-402(1)]. Thus, section 18-7-407 does not give the People a pass on their obligation to prove that, in soliciting another or arranging (or offering to arrange) a meeting, the defendant’s purpose was child prostitution.”).

COMMENT

1. In Tattered Cover, Inc. v. Tooley, 696 P.2d 780, 782 (Colo. 1985), the supreme court ruled that sections 18-7-501 to 18-7-504, C.R.S., were unconstitutional because no portion of the statutes could be severed from the offending provisions. Because the General Assembly has not amended the statutes, the Committee has not drafted model instructions.

DISPENSING VIOLENT FILMS TO MINORS

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The Committee added this chapter in 2016.

7-6:01 DISPENSING VIOLENT FILMS TO MINORS

The elements of the crime of dispensing violent films to minors are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. sold, rented, or otherwise furnished to a minor any video tape, video disc, film representation, or other form of motion picture, and
  4. the average person, applying contemporary community standards, would find that the work, taken as a whole, predominantly appealed to the interest in violence, and
  5. the work depicted or described, in a patently offensive way, repeated acts of actual, not simulated, violence resulting in serious bodily injury or death, and
  6. the work, taken as a whole, lacked serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of dispensing violent films to minors.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of dispensing violent films to minors.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-601(1), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:229.2 (defining “minor” (dispensing violent films)); Instruction F:332 (defining “serious bodily injury”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. See Instruction H:36 (affirmative defense of “mistake as to age”).

4. In Gorman v. People, 19 P.3d 662, 665–67 (Colo. 2000), the supreme court considered the crime of contributing to the delinquency of a minor and concluded that “the culpable mental state of knowingly applies to the act of contributing to the delinquency,” but not to the age element. Although the statute here involves furnishing minors with inappropriate material – a crime that bears some similarity to contributing to the delinquency of a minor, see Instruction 6-7:01 – the statute itself does not include a culpable mental state, and no appellate case has considered the issue. Therefore, the Committee has not included the mental state of “knowingly” in this instruction.

5. The term “patently offensive” is not defined for purposes of this section. Cf. Instruction F:258.7 (defining “patently offensive” for offenses involving obscenity).

7-7:03.INT	SEXUAL CONDUCT IN A CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION – INTERROGATORY (WORK STATUS)

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The Committee added this chapter in 2015.

7-7:01 SEXUAL CONDUCT IN A CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION

The elements of the crime of sexual conduct in a correctional institution are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. was an employee, contract employee, or volunteer of a correctional institution or an individual who performed work or volunteer functions in a correctional institution, and
  4. engaged in sexual conduct,
  5. with a person who was in lawful custody in a correctional institution.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of sexual conduct in a correctional institution.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of sexual conduct in a correctional institution.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-701(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:75.5 (defining "correctional institution"); Instruction F:336.5 (defining "sexual conduct"); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 ("Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. The statute provides for different classifications of offense depending on two separate criteria. The first is the type of sexual conduct, i.e., whether it involved (a) either sexual intrusion or sexual penetration, or (b) solely sexual contact. See § 18-7-701(3)–(5), C.R.S. 2020. The second is the defendant’s work status, i.e., whether the defendant was an employee of the correctional institution or was instead a volunteer. See id. The Committee has drafted separate interrogatories to address these issues. See Instruction 7-7:02.INT; Instruction 7-7:03.INT. The court, however, should only issue one or both of these interrogatories if the respective issues are subject to dispute. Additionally, the statute provides for the most severe form of punishment if both (a) the sexual conduct involved sexual intrusion and/or penetration, and (b) the defendant was an employee. § 18-7-701(3). It provides for an intermediate level of punishment if either (a) the sexual conduct involved solely sexual contact, but the defendant was an employee, § 18-7-701(4)(a), or (b) the sexual conduct involved sexual intrusion and/or penetration, but the defendant was a volunteer, § 18-7-701(4)(b). Finally, it provides for the least severe form of punishment if the sexual conduct involved solely sexual contact and the defendant was a volunteer. § 18-7-701(5).

4. The statute does not define “lawful custody.” If there is a dispute whether the alleged victim was “in lawful custody,” the court should consider whether the issue is a legal or factual matter. If the latter, the court should draft a supplemental instruction to guide the jury. Cf. People v. Lanzieri, 25 P.3d 1170, 1173 (Colo. 2001) (“Informalities or irregularities in a defendant’s confinement do not by themselves make custody unlawful for the purposes of” Colorado’s escape statute.); People v. West, 603 P.2d 967, 968 (Colo. App. 1979) (rejecting the defendant’s argument that the trial court erred “in not instructing the jury on the lawfulness of his confinement at a detention facility” because there was “no express requirement that persons convicted under [the statute at issue] be lawfully confined”).

7-7:02.INT SEXUAL CONDUCT IN A CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION – INTERROGATORY (TYPE OF CONDUCT)

If you find the defendant not guilty of sexual conduct in a correctional institution, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of sexual conduct in a correctional institution, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the sexual conduct involve more than simply sexual contact?
(Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The sexual conduct involved more than simply sexual contact only if:

1. the sexual conduct included sexual intrusion or sexual penetration.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-701(3)–(5), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:336.5 (defining “sexual conduct”); Instruction F:337 (defining “sexual contact”); Instruction F:340 (defining “sexual intrusion”); Instruction F:343 (defining “sexual penetration”).

3. If there is no dispute regarding the type of sexual conduct at issue, the court should not issue this interrogatory. See Instruction 7-7:01, Comment 3.

7-7:03.INT SEXUAL CONDUCT IN A CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION – INTERROGATORY (WORK STATUS)

If you find the defendant not guilty of sexual conduct in a correctional institution, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of sexual conduct in a correctional institution, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant work in a correctional institution, other than as a volunteer? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant worked in a correctional institution, other than as a volunteer, only if:

1. the defendant was an employee or contract employee of a correctional institution or was an employee, contract employee, or individual who performed work functions in a correctional institution.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-701(3)–(5), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:75.5 (defining “correctional institution”).
3. If there is no dispute regarding the defendant’s work status, the court should not issue this interrogatory. See Instruction 7-7:01, Comment 3.
4. The statutory subsections prompting this interrogatory provide for a more severe classification of offense if the sexual conduct “is committed by an employee or contract employee of a correctional institution or by an employee, contract employee, or individual who performs work functions in a correctional institution or for the department of corrections, the department of human services, or a community corrections program.” § 18-7-701(3), (4)(a) (emphasis added). Although the majority of this language appears in the statutory subsection that defines the actual crime of “sexual conduct in a correctional institution,” see § 18-7-701(1), that subsection makes no reference to an individual who performs work functions “for the department of corrections, the department of human services, or a community corrections program.” For this reason, the Committee has not included such language in its model interrogatory.

CRIMINAL INVASION OF PRIVACY

7-8:01

CRIMINAL INVASION OF PRIVACY

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The Committee added this chapter in 2015.

7-8:01 CRIMINAL INVASION OF PRIVACY

The elements of the crime of criminal invasion of privacy are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. observed or took a photograph of another person's intimate parts, in a situation where the person observed or photographed had a reasonable expectation of privacy,
  5. without that person's consent.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of criminal invasion of privacy.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of criminal invasion of privacy.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-801(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:186 (defining "intimate parts"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:276.5 (defining "photograph" (criminal invasion of privacy)).

POSTING AN IMAGE OF SUICIDE OF A MINOR

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The Committee added this chapter in 2019 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 388, sec. 1, § 18-7-901, 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 3455, 3455-56.

7-9:01 POSTING AN IMAGE OF SUICIDE OF A MINOR

The elements of the crime of posting an image of suicide of a minor are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. intentionally,
4. posted or distributed through the use of social media or any website, or disseminated through other means,
5. an image of a minor attempting suicide, dying by suicide, or having died by suicide,
6. with the intent,
7. to harass, intimidate, or coerce any person, and
8. the posting or distribution resulted in serious emotional distress to any person, and
9. the defendant was the first or original person to post, distribute, or disseminate the image.
- [10. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of posting an image of suicide of a minor.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of posting an image of suicide of a minor.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-7-901(1), (2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:176.5 (defining “image”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally” or “with intent”); Instruction F:346.5 (defining “social media”); see also Instruction F:229.3 (defining “minor” for purposes of obscenity, which is also housed within article 7 of the Criminal Code (Offenses Relating to Morals)).
3. See Instruction H:49.9 (affirmative defense of “valid purpose”).
4. The statute provides that this offense is a civil infraction except when “the person was the first or original person to post, distribute, or disseminate the image,” in which case the offense becomes a class 3 misdemeanor. § 18-7-901(2). Because civil infractions do not require jury instructions, rather than creating a separate interrogatory, the Committee has simply incorporated this language into the elements of the crime.

8-1:01 OBSTRUCTING GOVERNMENTAL OPERATIONS

The elements of the crime of obstructing governmental operations are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. intentionally,
4. obstructed, impaired, or hindered,
5. the performance of a governmental function by a public servant,
6. by using or threatening to use violence, force, or physical interference or obstacle.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of obstructing governmental operations.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of obstructing governmental operations.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-102(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:165 (defining “governmental function”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:306 (defining “public servant”).

3. See Instruction H:50 (affirmative defenses of “public servant,” “arrest,” and “labor dispute”).

8-1:02 RESISTING ARREST (FORCE OR VIOLENCE)

The elements of the crime of resisting arrest (force or violence) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. prevented or attempted to prevent a peace officer, acting under color of his [her] official authority, from effecting an arrest of the defendant or another,
5. by using or threatening to use physical force or violence against the peace officer or another.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of resisting arrest (force or violence).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of resisting arrest (force or violence).

Section 18-8-103(2), concerning resisting arrest, simply establishes that this same rule applies when an arrest is unlawful, thus rejecting the common law tradition that a person could resist an unlawful arrest even when excessive force was not used.” (footnote omitted)).

4. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. ## 8-1:03 RESISTING ARREST (ANY MEANS)

The elements of the crime of resisting arrest are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. prevented or attempted to prevent a peace officer, acting under color of his [her] official authority, from effecting an arrest of the defendant or another,
5. using any means, other than using or threatening to use physical force or violence against the peace officer or another, which created a substantial risk of causing bodily injury to the peace officer or another.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of resisting arrest.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of resisting arrest.

5. In 2015, the Committee removed the reference to Instruction G2:01 in Comment 2, and it added Comment 4.

8-1:04.SP RESISTING ARREST – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (UNLAWFUL ARREST NOT A DEFENSE)

It is no defense to a charge of resisting arrest that the peace officer was attempting to make an arrest which in fact was unlawful, if he [she] was acting under color of his [her] official authority, and in attempting to make the arrest he [she] was not resorting to unreasonable or excessive force giving rise to the right of self-defense.

A peace officer acts “under color of his [her] official authority” when, in the regular course of assigned duties, he [she] is called upon to make, and does make, a judgment in good faith based upon surrounding facts and circumstances that an arrest should be made by him [her].

The elements of the crime of obstructing a [peace officer] [firefighter] [emergency medical services provider] [rescue specialist] [volunteer] are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. by using or threatening to use violence, force, physical interference, or an obstacle,
5. obstructed, impaired, or hindered,
6. the enforcement of the penal law or the preservation of the peace by a peace officer, acting under color of his [her] official authority; the prevention, control, or abatement of fire by a firefighter, acting under color of his [her] official authority; the administration of medical treatment or emergency assistance by an emergency medical service provider or rescue specialist, acting under color of his [her] official authority; or the administration of emergency care or emergency assistance by a volunteer, acting in good faith to render such care or assistance without compensation at the place of an emergency or accident.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of obstructing a [peace officer] [firefighter] [emergency medical services provider] [rescue specialist] [volunteer].

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has

(ANIMAL USED IN LAW ENFORCEMENT OR FIRE

3. knowingly,
4. by using or threatening to use violence, force, physical interference, or an obstacle,
5. obstructed, impaired, or hindered,
6. any animal being used in law enforcement or fire prevention activities.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

8-1:07.SP OBSTRUCTING A PEACE OFFICER – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (OFFICER’S ILLEGAL ACTION NOT A DEFENSE)

It is not a defense to a charge of obstructing a peace officer that the peace officer was acting in an illegal manner, if he [she] was acting under color of his [her] official authority.

A peace officer acts “under color of his or her official authority” if, in the regular course of assigned duties, he [she] makes a judgment in good faith based on surrounding facts and circumstances that he [she] must act to enforce the law or preserve the peace.

2. See People v. Barrus, 232 P.3d 264, 269 (Colo. Fuller*, 781 P.2d 647, 650 (Colo. 1989) (“The general self-defense provision in section 18-1-704 therefore permits a person to defend himself when he reasonably believes that unreasonable or excessive force, as proscribed by section 18-1-707(1)(a), is being used by law enforcement officers or that its use is imminent. ## 8-1:08 ACCESSORY TO CRIME

The elements of the crime of accessory to crime are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. with intent,
  4. to hinder, delay, or prevent the discovery, detection, apprehension, prosecution, conviction, or punishment of another for the commission of a crime,
  5. rendered assistance to the other person.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of accessory to crime.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of accessory to crime.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-105(5), C.R.S. 2020 (being an accessory to any felony other than a class one or two felony is a class five felony, except that being an accessory to a class six felony is a class six felony).

3. This interrogatory is suitable for use with any charge of being an accessory to crime in violation of section 18-8-105(5). However, because the offense level for being an accessory to a class three, class four, or class five felony is different from the offense level for being an accessory to a class six felony, use a separate interrogatory for the determination with respect to a class six felony in any case where the defendant is charged with being an accessory both to a class six felony and to a class three, class four, or class five felony.

2. See Instruction F:69 (defining "contraband"); Instruction F:96 (defining "detention facility"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:281 (defining "possession").
3. Although section 18-8-204.1 incorporates the definition of contraband in section 18-8-203(1)(a), the definition based on that section that appears in Instruction F:69 must be modified when it is used for this offense because the definition includes a “controlled substance,” whereas section 18-8-204.1 specifically excludes “contraband specified in section 18-18-405” (unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing or sale of a controlled substance).

4. See People v. Jamison, 2018 COA 121, ¶ 49, 436 P.3d 569, 578 (holding that first-degree possession of contraband is a lesser included offense of first-degree introducing contraband by making).

5. + See People v. Oliver, 2020 COA 97, ¶ 63, 474 P.3d 207, 222 (holding that second-degree possession of contraband is a lesser included offense of first-degree possession of contraband).

8-2:10.INT POSSESSION OF CONTRABAND IN THE FIRST DEGREE – INTERROGATORY (DANGEROUS INSTRUMENT)

If you find the defendant not guilty of possession of contraband in the first degree (dangerous instrument), you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of possession of contraband in the first degree (dangerous instrument), you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the contraband a dangerous instrument? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The contraband was a dangerous instrument only if:

1. the contraband was a firearm, explosive device or substance (including ammunition), knife or sharpened instrument, poison, acid, bludgeon, or projective device, or any other device, instrument, material, or substance which was readily capable of causing or inducing fear of death or bodily injury, the use of which was not specifically authorized.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

8-2:11 POSSESSION OF CONTRABAND IN THE SECOND DEGREE

The elements of the crime of possession of contraband in the second degree are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. while confined in a detention facility,
  4. knowingly,
  5. obtained or possessed contraband.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of possession of contraband in the second degree.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of possession of contraband in the second degree.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-204.2(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:70 (defining "contraband"); Instruction F:96 (defining "detention facility"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:281 (defining "possession").
3. Section 18-8-204.2(1) excludes possession that "is authorized by rule or regulation promulgated by the administrative head of the detention facility.” However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction. In a case where there is a dispute concerning whether the possession was “authorized,” the court may be able to resolve this issue as a matter of law and provide the jury with a supplemental instruction explaining its determination. However, if the issue of law turns on a factual issue, the factual question must be submitted to the jury by means of an interrogatory.

4. + See People v. Oliver, 2020 COA 97, ¶ 63, 474 P.3d 207, 222 (holding that second-degree possession of contraband is a lesser included offense of first-degree possession of contraband).

8-2:12 AIDING ESCAPE FROM CIVIL PROCESS

The elements of the crime of aiding escape from civil process are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. aided, abetted, or assisted,
  4. the escape of a person,
  5. who was in legal custody under civil process.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of aiding escape from civil process.

COMMENT

2. See also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

8-2:13 ASSAULT DURING ESCAPE

The elements of the crime of assault during escape are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was confined in any lawful place of confinement within the state, and
4. while escaping or attempting to escape,
5. committed an assault,
6. with intent,
7. to commit bodily injury upon the person of another,
8. with a deadly weapon, or by any means of force likely to produce serious bodily injury.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of assault during escape.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of assault during escape.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-206(1), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:36 (defining “bodily injury”); Instruction F:88 (defining “deadly weapon”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:332 (defining “serious bodily injury”); Instruction 8-2:15 (escape).
3. The felony classification levels for this offense are based on the classification level of the underlying offense for which the defendant was being held. See § 18-8-206(1)(a)–(d), C.R.S. 2020; see also § 18-8-210, C.R.S. 2020 (persons in custody or confinement for unclassified offenses). This determination is a matter of law for the court to resolve. See Massey v. People, 649 P.2d 1070 (Colo. 1982) (“The classification of the defendant’s past offense was a question of law, and the court is justified in taking judicial notice when the facts upon which the legal conclusion is based are unchallenged.”). However, “[e]vidence of a prior conviction is an essential element of the offense of escape.” People v. McKnight, 626 P.2d 678, 683 (Colo. 1981).
4. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempting” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).
5. In 2015, the Committee removed the reference to Instruction G2:01 in Comment 2, and it added Comment 4.

8-2:14 HOLDING HOSTAGES

The elements of the crime of holding hostages are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was in lawful custody or confinement within the state, and
4. while escaping or attempting to escape,
5. held any person hostage or by force or threat of force held any person against his [her] will.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of holding hostages.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of holding hostages.

COMMENT

2. See People v. Williams, 611 P.2d 973, 975 (Colo. 1980) (“The crime of ‘holding hostages’ includes as an essential element the general intent crime of ‘escape.’ No additional mental state is specified for the crime of ‘holding hostages.’ That crime, as well as the crime of ‘escape,’ is one of general rather than specific intent.”).
3. In a case where there is a dispute concerning whether the “custody or confinement” was “lawful,” the court should resolve this question of law and provide the jury with a supplemental instruction explaining its determination. However, if the issue of law turns on a factual question, the factual determination must be submitted to the jury by means of an interrogatory.

4. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempting” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

5. In 2015, the Committee removed Comment 2 (which had cited to Instruction G2:01), renumbered the subsequent comments, and added Comment 4.

8-2:15 ESCAPE (FOLLOWING CONVICTION)

The elements of the crime of escape (following conviction) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was in custody or confinement,
4. following conviction for the crime of [insert name of offense(s)],
and
5. knowingly,
6. escaped from custody or confinement.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of escape (following conviction).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of escape (following conviction).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-208(1), (2), (4), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).
3. The felony classification levels for this offense are based on the classification level of the underlying offense for which the defendant was being held. 5. Section 18-8-208(11), C.R.S. 2020, which was enacted in 2013, provides as follows:

+ If a person is serving a direct sentence to a community corrections program pursuant to section 18-1.3-301, or is transitioning from the department of corrections to a community corrections program, or is placed in an intensive supervision program pursuant to section 17-27.5-101, or is participating in a work release or home detention program pursuant to section 18-1.3-106(1.1), intensive supervision program or any other similar authorized supervised or unsupervised absence from a detention facility as defined in section 18-8-203(3), is housed in a staff secure facility as defined in section 19-1-103(101.5), or is placed in a community corrections program for purposes of obtaining residential treatment as a condition of probation pursuant to section 18-1.3-204(2.2) or 18-1.3-301(4)(b), then the person is not in custody or confinement for purposes of this section.

It appears that the question of whether this section applies to a particular defendant is a matter of law for the court to resolve. Therefore, the Committee has not drafted a special instruction to explain the concept to the jury.

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was in custody or confinement,
4. while being held for or charged with, but not convicted of [insert name(s) of offense(s)], and
5. knowingly,
6. escaped from custody or confinement.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of escape (held or charged).

6. Section 18-8-208(11), C.R.S. 2020, which was enacted in 2013, provides as follows:

+ If a person is serving a direct sentence to a community corrections program pursuant to section 18-1.3-301, or is transitioning from the department of corrections to a community corrections program, or is placed in an intensive supervision program pursuant to section 17-27.5-101, or is participating in a work release or home detention program pursuant to section 18-1.3-106(1.1), intensive supervision program or any other similar authorized supervised or unsupervised absence from a detention facility as defined in section 18-8-203(3), is housed in a staff secure facility as defined in section 19-1-103(101.5), or is placed in a community corrections program for purposes of obtaining residential treatment as a condition of probation pursuant to section 18-1.3-204(2.2) or 18-1.3-301(4)(b), then the person is not in custody or confinement for purposes of this section.

  5. escaped from a staff secure facility, other than a state-operated locked facility.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of escape (staff secure facility).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of escape (staff secure facility).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-208(4.5), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:352 (defining "staff secure facility").
3. Section 18-8-208(4.5), enacted in 2013, is the only provision of the escape statute that does not include as an element the mens rea of "knowingly." See generally People v. Lanzieri, 25 P.3d 1170, 1172 (Colo. 2001) ("Thus, the crime of escape consists of the following essential elements: (1) a voluntary act; (2) which constitutes a departure from one of the forms of lawful custody or confinement specified in the escape statute; (3) by a prisoner; and (4) committed ‘knowingly,’ i.e., with an awareness on the part of the prisoner that his or her conduct is of the nature proscribed.”). Although the model instruction tracks the language of the statute, it may be appropriate to impute a mens rea. See § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

4. knowingly,
5. escaped from confinement.

8-2:19.INT ESCAPE (COMMITMENT) – INTERROGATORY (LEAVING COLORADO)

If you find the defendant not guilty of escape (commitment), you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of escape (commitment), you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant leave Colorado? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant left Colorado only if:

1. in the escape the defendant traveled outside of Colorado.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of attempt to escape (following conviction).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of attempt to escape (following conviction).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-208.1(1), (3), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt).
3. See also People v. Benzor, 100 P.3d 542, 543 (Colo. App. 2004) (“the placement of the mental state ‘knowingly’ after the element of ‘following a conviction of a felony’ and before the element of ‘escapes from custody or confinement’ evidences the General Assembly’s intent to limit the culpable mental state only to the conduct element of the offense”).

4. + Section 18-8-208.1(1.5) provides as follows:

If a person is serving a direct sentence to a community corrections program pursuant to section 18-1.3-301, or is transitioning from the department of corrections to a community corrections program, or is placed in an intensive supervision program pursuant to section 17-27.5-101, or is participating in a work release or home detention program pursuant to section 18-1.3-106(1.1), intensive supervision program or any other similar authorized supervised or unsupervised absence from a detention facility as defined in section 18-8-203(3), is housed in a staff secure facility as defined in section 19-1-103(101.5), or is placed in a community corrections program for purposes of obtaining residential treatment as a condition of probation pursuant to section 18-1.3-204(2.2) or 18-1.3-301(4)(b), then the person is not in custody or confinement for purposes of this section.

It appears that the question of whether this section applies to a particular defendant is a matter of law for the court to resolve. Therefore, the Committee has not drafted a special instruction to explain the concept to the jury.

5. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 4 pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 9, sec. 9, § 18-8-208.1(1.5), 2020 Colo. Sess. Laws 23, 27.

8-2:22 ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE (FOLLOWING CONVICTION; COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS OR INTENSIVE SUPERVISION PAROLE)

COMMENT

1. + This instruction had been based on section 18-8-208.1(1.5), C.R.S., which previously created a separate attempt to escape crime for defendants in supervision programs. In 2020, the legislature amended subsection (1.5), which no longer creates a separate crime; instead, it provides that persons do not qualify as “in custody” for the crime of attempt to escape in certain situations. See Ch. 9, sec. 9, § 18-8-208.1(1.5), 2020 Colo. Sess. Laws 23, 27. Accordingly, in 2020, the Committee deleted this instruction and addressed subsection (1.5) in Comment 4 of Instruction 8-2:21.

Furthermore, the Committee notes that this legislation became effective on March 6, 2020. See Ch. 9, sec. 16, at 43. Therefore, if the charges involve conduct allegedly committed before that date, the court should use the 2019 version of this instruction.

8-2:23 ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE (HELD OR CHARGED)

The elements of the crime of attempt to escape (held or charged) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was in custody or confinement,
4. while being held for or charged with, but not convicted of [insert name(s) of offense(s)], and
5. knowingly,
6. attempted to escape from custody or confinement.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of attempt to escape (held or charged).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of attempt to escape (held or charged).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-208.1(2), (4), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt).

conviction of a felony' and before the element of 'escapes from custody or confinement' evidences the General Assembly's intent to limit the culpable mental state only to the conduct element of the offense").

8-2:24.SP ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (+ STAFF SECURE FACILITY)

+ A person held in a staff secure facility is deemed to be in custody or confinement.

COMMENT

1. See + § 18-8-208.1(7), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See + Instruction F:352 (defining “staff secure facility”).
3. + In 2020, pursuant to a legislative repeal, the Committee removed language in this instruction referring to conditional release. See Ch. 9, sec. 9, § 18-8-208.1(6), 2020 Colo. Sess. Laws 23, 27. The Committee also removed the prior Comment 3.

+ 8-2:24.2 UNAUTHORIZED ABSENCE (LEAVING WITHOUT PERMISSION)

The elements of the crime of unauthorized absence (leaving without permission) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,

- [3. was transitioning from the department of corrections to a community corrections program or placed in an intensive supervision program, and]

- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unauthorized absence (leaving without permission).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unauthorized absence (leaving without permission).

- [3. was participating in a work release or home detention program, intensive supervision program, or any other similar authorized supervised or unsupervised absence from a detention facility, and]
- [3. was housed in a staff secure facility, and]
4. knowingly,

6. with the intent,
7. to avoid arrest, prosecution, monitoring, or other legal process.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unauthorized absence (tampering with monitoring device).

- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of compensation for past official behavior (soliciting or accepting a pecuniary benefit).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of compensation for past official behavior (soliciting or accepting a pecuniary benefit).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-303(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:265.7 (defining “pecuniary benefit” (bribery and corrupt influences)); Instruction F:306.5 (defining “public servant” (bribery and corrupt influences)); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. The Committee has included the fifth element because its language appears in the statute. See § 18-8-303(1)(a). The Committee notes, however, that this “whether or not” language is arguably superfluous, as the prosecution will never need to introduce evidence to prove this element. Rather, this language presumably clarifies that a defendant may not claim that he did not violate any of his duties as an affirmative defense.

2. See Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent"); Instruction F:306.5 (defining "public servant" (bribery and corrupt influences)).

3. See People v. Riley, 2015 COA 152, ¶ 29, 380 P.3d 157, 164 (holding that, because there is no criminal offense in Colorado of actually influencing a public servant, courts should not define “attempt” pursuant to section 18-2-101(1), C.R.S. 2020, for the crime of attempting to influence a public servant).
4. See People v. Janousek, 871 P.2d 1189, 1196 (Colo. 1994) (“[N]either ‘deceit’ nor ‘economic reprisal’ is defined in [section 18-8-306]. Both words, however, are terms of common usage, and people of ordinary intelligence need not guess at their meaning.”); People v. Beck, 187 P.3d 1125, 1128 (Colo. App. 2008) (“Actual influence is not required. Rather, [section 18-8-306] is aimed at attempts to influence public servants in their official capacities to improperly alter or affect the performance of their official duties.”); People v. Stanley, 170 P.3d 782, 786-87 (Colo. App. 2007) (Pursuant to First Amendment jurisprudence, section 18-8-306 “must be interpreted to limit criminal culpability to statements constituting ‘true threats.’”).
5. + See Hoggard v. People, 2020 CO 54, ¶¶ 17-18, 20 n.6, 465 P.3d 34, 39-40 (holding that, where the trial court’s instruction tracked the language of the statute but did not apply the mental state of “with the intent” to every element of the crime, any error was not plain because the instruction comported with both the 1983 model instructions in effect at the time of trial and the holding of People v. Norman, 703 P.2d 1261 (Colo. 1985); declining to address “whether the General Assembly intended to limit the application of the mental state of ‘with the intent’ to only certain elements of the crime”).
6. In 2017, the Committee replaced the prior Comment 3 with the existing comment citing to People v. Riley.
7. + Although Hoggard declined to decide whether the mental state of “with the intent” applies to all elements of the crime, in 2020, the Committee chose to revise this instruction such that the element of “with the intent” appears first. See Chapter A, Culpable Mental States. The Committee also added Comment 5.

5. arbitrarily and capriciously,
6. refrained from performing a duty imposed upon him [her] by law.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of second degree official misconduct (refrain from duty).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of second degree official misconduct (refrain from duty).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-405(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195(defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:306.5 (defining “public servant” (abuse of public office)).

3. The court should draft a special instruction explaining the relevant legal duty. Further, where the existence of the legal duty turns on a factual issue, the factual question must be submitted to the jury for determination.

4. Section 42-4-1304(8), C.R.S. 2020, which discusses the Department of Public Health and Environment's rules regarding blood samples obtained from vehicle operators, provides that "[f]ailure to perform the required duties as prescribed by this section and by the administrative regulations and procedures resulting therefrom shall be deemed punishable under section 18-8-405." However, the Committee has not drafted model instructions.

5. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 4.

8-4:10 SECOND DEGREE OFFICIAL MISCONDUCT (VIOLATE STATUTE)

The elements of the crime of second degree official misconduct (violate statute) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a public servant, and
4. knowingly, and
5. arbitrarily and capriciously,
6. violated [insert description of statute, or lawfully adopted rule or regulation] relating to his [her] office.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of second degree official misconduct (violate statute).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of second degree official misconduct (violate statute).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-405(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:306.5 (defining “public servant” (abuse of public office)).

8-4:11 ISSUING A FALSE CERTIFICATE

The elements of the crime of issuing a false certificate are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a public servant authorized by law to make and issue official certificates or other official written instruments, and
4. made and issued such an instrument containing a statement which he [she] knew to be false.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of issuing a false certificate.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of issuing a false certificate.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-406, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:306.5 (defining “public servant” (abuse of public office)).
3. See People v. Buckallew, 848 P.2d 904, 908 (Colo. 1993) (“It is clear that a sheriff cannot fully perform his functions without the implied power to make official certificates. As such, he is ‘authorized by law to make and issue official certificates,’ and falls within the ambit of the statute.”).

8-4:12 EMBEZZLEMENT OF PUBLIC PROPERTY

The elements of the crime of embezzlement of public property are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a public servant, and
4. lawfully or unlawfully,
5. came into possession of any public moneys or public property of whatever description, being the property of the state or of any political subdivision of the state, and
6. knowingly,
7. converted any of such public moneys or property to his [her] own use or to any use other than the public use authorized by law.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of embezzlement of public property.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of embezzlement of public property.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-407(1), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:306.5 (defining “public servant” (abuse of public office)).
3. See People v. Gallegos, 260 P.3d 15, 23 (Colo. App. 2010) (holding that evidence of the sheriff-defendant’s use of county vehicles and personnel to transport inmates to his home, where they performed work on the sheriff’s home, satisfied the “public moneys or public property” element of the embezzlement charge in the indictment).
4. The court may need to draft a special instruction to identify the “public use authorized by law.” See People v. Morise, 859 P.2d 247, 249 (Colo. App. 1993) (“[E]ven if defendant’s implied explanation for his use of the credit card, that he obtained cash advances to attempt to buy musical equipment, was accepted, such use would nevertheless be one not authorized by the district’s policy and would, therefore, be a use ‘other than the public use authorized by law’ within the meaning of § 18-8-407.”).
5. The Committee has included the fourth element because its language appears in the statute. See § 18-8-407(1). The Committee notes, however, that this “lawfully or unlawfully” language is arguably superfluous, as the prosecution will never need to introduce evidence to prove this element. Rather, this language presumably clarifies that a defendant may not claim that he came into possession of money or property lawfully as an affirmative defense.
6. + See People v. Berry, 2020 CO 14, ¶ 18, 457 P.3d 597, 601 (holding that this crime only applies to property owned by the state or a political subdivision).
7. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 6.

8-4:13 DESIGNATION OF INSURER

The elements of the crime of designation of insurer are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a public servant, and
4. directly or indirectly,
5. required or directed a bidder on any public building or construction contract which was about to be or had been competitively bid to obtain from a particular insurer, agent, or broker any surety bond or contract of insurance required in such bid or contract or required by any law, ordinance, or regulation.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of designation of insurer.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of designation of insurer.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-408(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:306.5 (defining “public servant” (abuse of public office)); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. Section 18-8-408(4), C.R.S. 2020, provides: “Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent any such public servant acting on behalf of the government from exercising the right to approve or reject a surety bond or contract of insurance as to its form or sufficiency or the lack of financial capability of an insurer selected by a bidder.” It is unclear whether this provision establishes an affirmative defense.

4. The crime of designation of insurer only applies to contracts entered into on or after July 1, 1977. § 18-8-408(5), C.R.S. 2020.

5. The Committee has included the fourth element because its language appears in the statute. See § 18-8-408(1). The Committee notes, however, that this “directly or indirectly” language is arguably superfluous, as the prosecution will never need to introduce evidence to prove this element. Rather, this language presumably clarifies that a defendant may not claim that he acted indirectly as an affirmative defense.

8-5:01 PERJURY IN THE FIRST DEGREE

The elements of the crime of perjury in the first degree are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. in any official proceeding,
5. made a materially false statement,
6. which he [she] did not believe to be true,
7. under an oath required or authorized by law.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of perjury in the first degree.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of perjury in the first degree.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-502(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:220 (defining “materially false statement”); Instruction F:245 (defining “oath” and “required or authorized by law”); Instruction F:250 (defining “official proceeding”).

3. See Instruction H:53 (affirmative defense of retraction).
4. See People v. Ellsworth, 15 P.3d 1111, 1116 (Colo. App. 2000) (defendant charged with perjury in the first degree was not entitled to a jury instruction explaining the “two-witness” rule established by section 18-8-506, C.R.S. 2020; the applicability of the rule is a question of law to be decided by the trial court upon a motion for acquittal or for a directed verdict, or by an appellate court upon review for sufficiency of the evidence).

8-5:02.SP PERJURY IN THE FIRST DEGREE – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (KNOWLEDGE OF MATERIALITY NOT AN ELEMENT; MISTAKEN BELIEF NOT A DEFENSE)

Knowledge of the materiality of the statement is not an element of perjury in the first degree, and a mistaken belief that the statement was not material is not a defense.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-502(2), C.R.S. 2020.

8-5:03 PERJURY IN THE SECOND DEGREE

The elements of the crime of perjury in the second degree are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. other than in an official proceeding,
4. with an intent,
5. to mislead a public servant in the performance of his [her] duty,
6. made a materially false statement,
7. which he [she] did not believe to be true,
8. under an oath required or authorized by law.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of perjury in the second degree.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of perjury in the second degree.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-503(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:220 (defining “materially false statement”); Instruction F:245 (defining “oath” and “required or authorized by law”); Instruction F:250 (defining “official proceeding”); Instruction F:306 (defining “public servant”).

3. + Section 42-6-144, C.R.S. 2020, provides that a person applying for a certificate of title (or similar document) who “swears or affirms willfully and falsely in a matter material to any issue, point, or subject matter in question . . . is guilty of perjury in the second degree.” However, the Committee has not drafted model instructions.

4. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 3.

8-5:04 FALSE SWEARING

The elements of the crime of false swearing are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. made a materially false statement,
5. which he [she] did not believe to be true,
6. under an oath required or authorized by law.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of false swearing.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of false swearing.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-504(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:220 (defining “materially false statement”); Instruction F:245 (defining “oath” and “required or authorized by law”).

8-5:05.SP PERJURY AND FALSE SWEARING – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (INCONSISTENT STATEMENTS)

Where a person charged with perjury or false swearing has made inconsistent material statements under oath, it is not necessary for the prosecution to prove which statement was false provided that it proves that one or the other statement was false, and not believed by the defendant to be true.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-505(1), C.R.S. 2020 (specifying that both statements must have “been made within the period of statute of limitations”).
2. The question of whether a statement was made within the statute of limitations will, in most cases, be an issue of law for the court to resolve. However, it may be necessary to draft an interrogatory if the applicability of the statute of limitations depends on the resolution of a factual dispute concerning the date on which a statement was allegedly made.

8-5:06.SP PERJURY AND FALSE SWEARING – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (IRREGULARITIES NO DEFENSE)

It is no defense to the charge of [perjury in the first degree] [perjury in the second degree] [false swearing] that:

[the defendant was not competent, for reasons other than mental disability or immaturity, to make the false statement alleged.]

[the statement was inadmissible under the law of evidence.]

[the oath was administered or taken in an irregular manner.]

[the person administering the oath lacked authority to do so, if the taking of the oath was required by law.]

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-509(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. If necessary, the court should draft a supplemental instruction explaining its resolution of any threshold legal issue(s) related to the above factors.

8-6:01 BRIBE-RECEIVING BY A WITNESS (FALSE OR WITHHELD TESTIMONY)

The elements of the crime of witness bribery (false or withheld testimony) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a witness or believed that he [she] was to be called as a witness in any official proceeding, and
4. intentionally,
5. solicited, accepted, agreed to accept,
6. any benefit,
7. upon an agreement or understanding that he [she] would testify falsely or unlawfully withhold testimony.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of witness bribery (false or withheld testimony).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of witness bribery (false or withheld testimony).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-603(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:31 (defining “benefit”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:250 (defining “official proceeding”); Instruction F:365 (defining “testimony”).

3. Although the caption of the statutory section labels the offense “bribe-receiving by a witness,” this is a misnomer because receipt of a bribe is not an element of the offense when the charge is based on the solicitation of a bribe, or an agreement to accept a bribe. Accordingly, the instruction refers to the offense as “witness bribery.”

8-6:02 BRIBE-RECEIVING BY A WITNESS (ATTEMPT TO AVOID LEGAL PROCESS)

The elements of the crime of witness bribery (attempt to avoid legal process) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a witness or believed that he [she] was to be called as a witness in any official proceeding, and
4. intentionally,
5. solicited, accepted, agreed to accept,
6. any benefit,
7. upon an agreement or understanding that he [she] would attempt to avoid legal process summoning him [her] to testify.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of witness bribery (attempt to avoid legal process).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of witness bribery (attempt to avoid legal process).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-603(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:31 (defining “benefit”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:250 (defining “official proceeding”); Instruction F:365 (defining “testimony”).
3. Although the caption of the statutory section labels the offense “bribe-receiving by a witness,” this is a misnomer because receipt of a bribe is not an element of the offense when the charge is based on the solicitation of a bribe, or an agreement to accept a bribe. Accordingly, the instruction refers to the offense as “witness bribery.”
4. The term “legal process” is not defined by statute. See Black’s Law Dictionary 1399 (10th ed. 2014) (defining “process” as “A summons or writ, esp. to appear or respond in court.”).
5. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempt” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).
6. In 2015, the Committee removed the reference to Instruction G2:01 in Comment 2, and it added Comment 5.

8-6:03 BRIBE-RECEIVING BY A WITNESS (ABSENTING)

The elements of the crime of witness bribery (absenting) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a witness or believed that he [she] was to be called as a witness in any official proceeding, and
4. intentionally,
5. solicited, accepted, agreed to accept,
6. any benefit,
7. upon an agreement or understanding that he [she] would attempt to absent himself [herself] from an official proceeding to which he [she] had been legally summoned.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of witness bribery (absenting).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of witness bribery (absenting).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-603(1)(c), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:31 (defining "benefit"); Instruction F:185 (defining "intentionally"); Instruction F:250 (defining "official proceeding").

3. Although the caption of the statutory section labels the offense “bribe-receiving by a witness,” this is a misnomer because receipt of a bribe is not an element of the offense when the charge is based on the solicitation of a bribe, or an agreement to accept a bribe. Accordingly, the instruction refers to the offense as “witness bribery.”
4. 5. In 2015, the Committee added Comment 4.

8-6:04 BRIBING A JUROR

The elements of the crime of bribing a juror are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent,
4. to influence a juror's vote, opinion, decision, or other action as a juror,
5. offered, conferred, or agreed to confer,
6. any benefit,
7. upon a juror.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of bribing a juror.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of bribing a juror.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-606(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:31 (defining "benefit"); Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent"); Instruction F:192 (defining "juror").

8-6:05 BRIBE-RECEIVING BY A JUROR

The elements of the crime of juror bribery are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. intentionally,
4. solicited, accepted, or agreed to accept,
5. any benefit,
6. upon an agreement or understanding that his [her] vote, opinion, decision, or other action as a juror would thereby be influenced.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of juror bribery.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of juror bribery.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-607(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:30 (defining "benefit"); Instruction F:185 (defining "intentionally"); Instruction F:192 (defining "juror").
3. Although the caption of the statutory section labels the offense "bribe-receiving by a juror," this is a misnomer because receipt of a bribe is not an element of the offense when the charge is based on the solicitation of a bribe, or an agreement to accept a bribe. Accordingly, the instruction refers to the offense as “juror bribery.”

8-6:06 INTIMIDATING A JUROR

The elements of the crime of intimidating a juror are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. intentionally,
4. attempted,
5. by use of a threat of harm or injury to any person or property,
6. to influence a juror's vote, opinion, decision, or other action as a juror.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of intimidating a juror.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of intimidating a juror.

COMMENT

attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

4. In 2015, the Committee removed the reference to Instruction G2:01 in Comment 2, and it added Comment 3.

8-6:07 JURY-TAMPERING (INFLUENCE)

The elements of the crime of jury-tampering (influence) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent,
4. to influence a juror's vote, opinion, decision, or other action in a case,
5. attempted, directly or indirectly, to communicate with a juror,
6. other than as a part of the proceedings in the trial of the case.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of jury-tampering (influence).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of jury-tampering (influence).

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent"); Instruction F:192 (defining "juror").
3. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word "attempted" in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

4. See People v. Iannicelli, 2019 CO 80, ¶¶ 36, 50, 449 P.3d 387, 394, 396 (holding that the definition of “juror” in section 18-8-601(1), C.R.S. 2020, applies to the crime of jury tampering; further holding that the crime “extends only to attempts to communicate with jurors about a specifically identifiable case”).

5. In 2015, the Committee removed the reference to Instruction G2:01 in Comment 2, and it added Comment 3.

2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:388 (defining “victim”); Instruction F:393 (defining “witness”); Instructions 9-1:33, 9-1:34, 9-1:35, 9-1:36 (harassment).
3. In People v. Rester, 36 P.3d 98, 101 (Colo. App. 2001), a division of the court of appeals held that the trial court acted within its discretion, and in accordance with the supreme court’s holding in People v. Proctor, 570 P.2d 540 (Colo. 1977), by providing the jury with a supplemental instruction explaining that, for purposes of section 18-8-704(1)(a), the term “unlawfully” referred only to: “the time when the testimony is to be actually withheld, not to the time of the contact. That is, there is no requirement under the law that the victim is under legal summons or subpoena at the time the contact is made.”
4. The reference to the “crime of harassment” is included to comply with People v. Hickman, 988 P.2d 628, 643 (Colo. 1999) (holding that the phrase “act of harassment,” as it appeared in section 18-8-706 before that statute was amended to include an explicit reference to the offense of harassment, was unconstitutionally overbroad).

See Instructions 9-1:33, 9-1:34, 9-1:35, 9-1:36 (harassment). Place the elemental instruction for harassment immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for harassment.

6. The term “legal process” is not defined by statute. See Black’s Law Dictionary 1399 (10th ed. 2014) (defining “process” as “[a] summons or writ, esp. to appear or respond in court.”).

7. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

8. In 2015, the Committee removed the reference to Instruction G2:01 in Comment 2, and it added Comment 7.

9. In 2018, the Committee modified the fourth element pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 162, sec. 1, § 18-8-704(1), 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 1127, 1127.

8-7:05 AGGRAVATED INTIMIDATION OF A WITNESS OR VICTIM (ARMED WITH A DEADLY WEAPON)

The elements of the crime of aggravated intimidation of a witness or victim (armed with a deadly weapon) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. by use of a threat, or by committing the crime of harassment, or by committing an act of harm or injury to any person or property,
4. directed to or committed upon a witness or a victim to any crime, a person the defendant believed had been or was to be called or who would have been called to testify as a witness or a victim, a member of the witness' family, a member of the victim's family, a person in close relationship to the witness or victim, a person residing in the same household with the witness or victim, or any person who had reported a crime or who might have been called to testify as a witness to or victim of any crime,
5. intentionally,
6. attempted to, or did: influence the witness or victim to testify falsely or unlawfully withhold any testimony; induce the witness or victim to avoid legal process summoning him [her] to testify; induce the witness or victim to absent himself [herself] from an official proceeding; or inflict such harm or injury prior to such testimony or expected testimony, and
7. during the act of intimidating, he [she] was armed with a deadly weapon with the intent, if resisted, to kill, maim, or wound the person being intimidated or any other person.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of aggravated intimidation of a witness or victim (armed with a deadly weapon).

8-7:07.SP AGGRAVATED INTIMIDATION OF A WITNESS OR VICTIM – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (DEADLY WEAPON)

Possession of any article used or fashioned in a manner to lead any person reasonably to believe it to be a deadly weapon, or any verbal or other representation by the person that he [she] was so armed, gives rise to a permissible inference that the person was armed with a deadly weapon.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-705(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:88 (defining “deadly weapon”).
3. Although the statute speaks in terms of “prima facie evidence,” the concept should be explained as a permissible inference. See People in re R.M.D., 829 P.2d 852 (Colo. 1992) (construing a “prima facie” proof provision as establishing a permissible inference); see generally Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

8-7:08 RETALIATION AGAINST A WITNESS OR VICTIM

The elements of the crime of retaliation against a witness or victim are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. used a threat, an act constituting the crime of harassment, or an act of harm or injury upon any person or property,
  4. directed to, or committed upon, a witness in any criminal or civil proceeding, a victim of any crime, an individual whom the defendant believed had been or would be called to testify as a witness in any criminal or civil proceeding or a victim of any crime, a member of the witness's family, a member of the victim's family, an individual in close relationship to the witness or victim, or an individual residing in the same household with the witness or victim,
  5. as retaliation or retribution against the witness or victim.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

8-7:09 RETALIATION AGAINST A JUROR

The elements of the crime of retaliation against a juror are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. used a threat, an act constituting the crime of harassment, or an act of harm or injury upon any person or property,
  4. directed to, or committed upon, a juror who had served for a criminal or civil trial involving the defendant or a person or persons on whose behalf the defendant was acting, a member of the juror's family, an individual in close relationship to the juror, or an individual residing in the same household with the juror,
  5. as retaliation or retribution against the juror.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

8-7:10 TAMPERING WITH A WITNESS OR VICTIM (TESTIMONY)

2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. intentionally,
4. attempted,
5. without bribery or threats,

CHAPTER 8-8

OFFENSES RELATING TO USE OF FORCE BY PEACE OFFICERS

8-8:01	FAILURE TO REPORT EXCESSIVE FORCE
8-8:01.5+	FAILURE TO INTERVENE
8-8:01.6.SP+	FAILURE TO INTERVENE – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (CHAIN OF COMMAND)
8-8:02	FALSE REPORTING TO AUTHORITIES (EXCESSIVE FORCE)
8-8:03.SP	FAILURE TO REPORT EXCESSIVE FORCE AND FALSE REPORTING TO AUTHORITIES (EXCESSIVE FORCE) – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (EXCESSIVE FORCE; INCAPABLE OF RESISTING)

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. Section 18-8-803(1), C.R.S. 2020, provides as follows:

Subject to the provisions of section 18-1-707, a peace officer who uses excessive force in pursuance of such officer's law enforcement duties shall be subject to the criminal laws of this state to the same degree as any other citizen, including the provisions of part 1 of article 3 of this title concerning homicide and related offenses and the provisions of part 2 of said article 3 concerning assaults.

The Committee views this provision as stating a principle of law for the court to apply. Accordingly, the Committee has not drafted a model instruction embodying it.

8-8:01 FAILURE TO REPORT EXCESSIVE FORCE

The elements of the crime of failure to report excessive force are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a peace officer, and
4. in pursuance of his [her] law enforcement duties,
5. witnessed another peace officer, in pursuance of the other peace officer's law enforcement duties in carrying out an arrest of any person, placing any person under detention, taking any person into custody, booking any person, or in the process of crowd control or riot control,
6. use physical force which exceeded the degree of physical force permitted, and
7. the defendant did not, within ten days of the occurrence of the use of such force, submit a written report, to his [her] immediate supervisor, that included the date, time, and place of the occurrence, the identity (if known) and description of the participants, and a description of the events and the force used.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure to report excessive force.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure to report excessive force.

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:263 (defining “peace officer”).
3. The court should draft a supplemental instruction, tailored to the facts of the case, explaining the relevant principles by which the jury is to make its determination concerning “the degree of physical force permitted.” See Instructions H:19, H:20, H:25, H:26, + H:29.SP (affirmative defense instructions, pursuant to section 18-1-707, C.R.S. 2020, that explain when it is lawful for a peace officer to use physical force, including deadly physical force).
4. It may be necessary to draft a supplemental instruction explaining what other types of written reports satisfy the requirements of this statute. See § 18-8-802(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020 (“A copy of an arrest report or other similar report required as a part of a peace officer’s duties can be substituted for the report required by this section, so long as it includes such information.”).
5. + In 2020, pursuant to new legislation, the Committee deleted cross-references to Instructions H:27.SP and H:28.SP in Comment 3. See Instruction H:27.SP, Comment 1 (explaining that the Committee eliminated that instruction pursuant to new legislation); Instruction H:28.SP, Comment 1 (same).

+ 8-8:01.5 FAILURE TO INTERVENE

The elements of the crime of failure to intervene are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a peace officer, and
4. did not intervene to prevent or stop another peace officer from using physical force, and
5. such force exceeded the degree of force permitted, if any, by law, in pursuance of the other peace officer's law enforcement duties in carrying out an arrest of any person, placing any person under detention, taking any person into custody, booking any person, or in the process of crowd control or riot control.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure to intervene.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure to intervene.

3. See Instruction 8-8:01.6.SP (chain of command – special instruction).

4. The court should draft a supplemental instruction, tailored to the facts of the case, explaining the relevant principles by which the jury is to make its determination concerning “the degree of force permitted.” See Instructions H:19, H:20, H:25, H:26, H:29.SP (affirmative defense instructions, pursuant to section 18-1-707, C.R.S. 2020, that explain when it is lawful for a peace officer to use physical force, including deadly physical force).

5. Subsection (1.5)(b) provides that a peace officer who does intervene must report the intervention to his or her supervisor. However, subsection (1.5)(d) makes clear that the crime at issue in subsection (1.5) is failure to intervene, rather than failure to report such intervention. Therefore, the Committee has not included this reporting language in its instruction.

6. + The Committee added this instruction in 2020 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 110, sec. 6, § 18-8-802(1.5)(a), (d), 2020 Colo. Sess. Laws 445, 455.

+ 8-8:01.6.SP FAILURE TO INTERVENE – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (CHAIN OF COMMAND)

A peace officer cannot raise as a defense to the crime of failure to intervene that he or she did not intervene because of chain of command.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-802(1.5)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:263 (defining “peace officer”).
3. Section 18-8-802(1.5)(a) provides as follows:

A peace officer shall intervene to prevent or stop another peace officer from using physical force that exceeds the degree of force permitted . . . in pursuance of the other peace officer's law enforcement duties in carrying out an arrest of any person, placing any person under detention, taking any person into custody, booking any person, or in the process of crowd control or riot control, without regard for chain of command.

(Emphasis added.) The Committee has interpreted the “without regard for chain of command” language to mean that a peace officer’s duty to intervene applies regardless of whether the other peace officer outranks him or her. The court should only give this instruction where chain of command is at issue in the case.

4. + The Committee added this instruction in 2020 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 110, sec. 6, § 18-8-802(1.5)(a), 2020 Colo. Sess. Laws 445, 455.

8-8:02 FALSE REPORTING TO AUTHORITIES (EXCESSIVE FORCE)

The elements of the crime of false reporting to authorities (excessive force) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a peace officer, and
4. knowingly,
5. in pursuance of his [her] law enforcement duties,
6. witnessed another peace officer, in pursuance of the other peace officer's law enforcement duties in carrying out an arrest of any person, placing any person under detention, taking any person into custody, booking any person, or in the process of crowd control or riot control,
7. use physical force which exceeded the degree of physical force permitted, and
8. the defendant made a materially false statement when describing the occurrence in a written report to his [her] immediate supervisor, or in an arrest report or other similar report required as part of his [her] duties.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of false reporting to authorities (excessive force).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of false reporting to authorities (excessive force).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-802(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:220 (defining “materially false statement”); Instruction F:263 (defining “peace officer”).
3. The court should draft a supplemental instruction, tailored to the facts of the case, explaining the relevant principles by which the jury is to make its determination concerning “the degree of physical force permitted.” See Instructions H:19, H:20, H:25, H:26, + H:29.SP (affirmative defense instructions, pursuant to section 18-1-707, C.R.S. 2020, that explain when it is lawful for a peace officer to use physical force, including deadly physical force).
4. + In 2020, pursuant to new legislation, the Committee deleted cross-references to Instructions H:27.SP and H:28.SP in Comment 3. See Instruction H:27.SP, Comment 1 (explaining that the Committee eliminated that instruction pursuant to new legislation); Instruction H:28.SP, Comment 1 (same).

8-8:03.SP FAILURE TO REPORT EXCESSIVE FORCE AND FALSE REPORTING TO AUTHORITIES (EXCESSIVE FORCE) – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (EXCESSIVE FORCE; INCAPABLE OF RESISTING)

“Excessive force” means physical force which exceeds the degree of physical force permitted pursuant to these instructions.

Evidence that a peace officer continued to apply physical force in excess of the force permitted by these instructions to a person who had been rendered incapable of resisting arrest gives rise to a permissible inference of excessive force.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-8-803(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. The Committee has not drafted a model instruction defining “excessive force.” The court should draft a supplemental instruction, tailored to the facts of the case, explaining the relevant provisions of section 18-1-707, C.R.S. 2020. See Instructions H:19, H:20, H:25, H:26, + H:29.SP (affirmative defense instructions, pursuant to section 18-1-707, that explain when it is lawful for a peace officer to use reasonable physical force, including deadly physical force). See also Instructions 8-1:02 and 8-1:03 (resisting arrest).
3. + In 2020, pursuant to new legislation, the Committee deleted cross-references to Instructions H:27.SP and H:28.SP in Comment 2. See

9-1:12.INT DISORDERLY CONDUCT (COARSE AND OBVIOUSLY OFFENSIVE; UNREASONABLE NOISE) – INTERROGATORY (FUNERAL)

If you find the defendant not guilty of disorderly conduct ([coarse and obviously offensive] [unreasonable noise]), you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of ([coarse and obviously offensive] [unreasonable noise]), you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the defendant disorderly at a funeral? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant was disorderly at a funeral only if:

1. he [she] committed the offense with intent to disrupt, impair, or interfere with a funeral, or with intent to cause severe emotional distress to a person attending a funeral.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-108.5(3)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:316 (defining “residence”); Instruction F:362 (defining “targeted picketing”).
3. Section 18-9-108.5(4), C.R.S. 2020, provides as follows:

Vehicles or trailers used in targeted picketing shall not park within three residences or three hundred feet of a residence that is the subject of targeted picketing. There is a presumption that a vehicle or trailer is used in targeted picketing when signage is affixed to the vehicle containing content related to the targeted picketing.

It appears that, rather than establishing an independent basis for criminal liability, this provision was enacted to provide a basis for a police officer to require that a protestor move his [her] vehicle. Accordingly, the Committee has not drafted a model instruction embodying this provision.

4. Cf. Snyder v. Phelps, 131 S.   7. failed to promptly comply with the warning.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of targeted residential picketing (sign or placard).

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “willfully”).
3. See Instruction H:55 (affirmative defense of “lawful assembly”).
4. The fifth element uses a conjunction in order to be consistent with the language of the statute (i.e., “students, school officials, employees, and invitees”). However, this may be a legislative drafting error since the name of the offense is a disjunctive list.
5. Likewise, the sixth element uses a conjunction in order to be consistent with the language of the statute (i.e., “ingress and egress”). However, it is unclear whether the General Assembly intended to require proof that the defendant’s conduct resulted in a denial of both ingress and egress (or it may be the case that the General Assembly was of the view that the denial of either necessarily results in a denial of both).
6. See People v. Moore, 2013 COA 86, ¶ 13, 338 P.3d 348, 350 (“we interpret the phrase ‘public official or employee’ in section 18-9-110(2) to apply only to a victim who is either an official or an employee of a public entity. Contrary to the trial court’s reading, the adjective ‘public’ modifies both ‘official[’] and [’]employee.’”).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of projecting a missile at a vehicle.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of projecting a missile at a vehicle.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-116(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:230 (defining “missile”).
3. If the defendant is charged with projecting missiles at both a vehicle and a bicyclist, use a separate instruction for each count (with corresponding separate verdict forms). This is necessary because the offenses have different penalty classifications.

4. + See People v. Kern, 2020 COA 96, ¶ 35, 474 P.3d 197, 204 (holding that littering is not a lesser included offense of projecting a missile at a vehicle).

5. + In 2020, the Committee added Comment 4.

9-1:53 PROJECTING MISSILES AT A BICYCLIST

The elements of the crime of projecting a missile at a bicyclist are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. projected any missile,

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of projecting a missile at a bicyclist.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of projecting a missile at a bicyclist.

COMMENT

7. the defendant knew, or reasonably should have known, that he [she] was being pursued by the peace officer, and
8. operated his [her] vehicle in a reckless manner.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of vehicular eluding.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of vehicular eluding.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-116.5(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:236 (defining “motor vehicle”); Instruction F:308 (defining “recklessly”).

3. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

4. See People v. Dominguez, 2019 COA 78, ¶ 64, 454 P.3d 364, 374 (holding that reckless driving is a lesser included offense of vehicular eluding).

5. In 2015, the Committee removed the reference to Instruction G2:01 in Comment 2, and it added Comment 3.

6. In 2019, the Committee added Comment 4.

9-1:55.INT VEHICULAR ELUDING – INTERROGATORY (BODILY INJURY OR DEATH)

If you find the defendant not guilty of vehicular eluding, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of vehicular eluding, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the eluding result in [bodily injury] [death]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The eluding resulted in [bodily injury] [death] only if:

1. the vehicular eluding resulted in [bodily injury] [death] to another person.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-116.5(2)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:36 (defining “bodily injury”); see, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

3. If the defendant is charged with causing the death of one person and causing injury to another, use separate copies of this interrogatory (with separate places to answer on the verdict form). Similarly, use separate copies of this interrogatory in cases where there is a dispute concerning whether the eluding caused death, or merely bodily injury.

9-1:56 UNLAWFUL CONDUCT ON PUBLIC PROPERTY

The elements of the crime of unlawful conduct on public property are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. entered or remained in any public building or on any public property, or conducted himself [herself] in or on any public building or on any public property,
4. in violation of any order, rule, or regulation concerning [insert a description of subject matter from section 18-9-117(1)(a)-(g), or “any authority granted by any other law”], limiting or prohibiting the use or activities or conduct in such public building or on such public property,
5. that was issued by an officer or agency having the power of control, management, or supervision of the building or property, and
6. notice of the limitation or prohibition was prominently posted at all public entrances to the building or property, or defendant was actually first given notice of the limitation or prohibition by the person by the officer or agency, including any agent thereof, or by any law enforcement officer who had jurisdiction or authority for enforcement.
- [7. and that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful conduct on public property.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful conduct on public property.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-117(1), (2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:298 (defining “public building”).
3. Section 18-9-117(1) contains a non-exhaustive list of the relevant types of orders, rules, and regulations. In a case in which there is a dispute concerning whether an officer or agency had authority to promulgate a particular order, rule, or regulation, the court should resolve the issue as a matter of law. Accordingly, the current version of the model instruction does not include the “under authority granted by law” language that previously appeared as an element in COLJI-Crim. 30:29 (1983).

9-1:57.INT UNLAWFUL CONDUCT ON PUBLIC PROPERTY – INTERROGATORY

If you find the defendant not guilty of unlawful conduct on public property, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of unlawful conduct on public property, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant violate an order, rule, or regulation concerning a funeral or funeral procession? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant violated an order, rule, or regulation concerning a funeral or funeral procession only if:

1. the defendant violated an order, rule, or regulation prohibiting activities or conduct within public buildings or on public property which might interfere with, impair, or disrupt a funeral or funeral procession.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

2. See Instruction F:159 (defining “funeral”); see, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

9-1:58 FIREARMS, EXPLOSIVES, OR INCENDIARY DEVICES IN FACILITIES OF PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

The elements of the crime of [firearm] [explosive or incendiary device] in a facility of public transportation are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. without legal authority,
4. had any loaded firearm or explosive or incendiary device in his [her] possession in any facility of public transportation, or carried or brought any loaded firearm or explosive or incendiary device into, or caused any loaded firearm or explosive or incendiary device to be carried or brought into, any facility of public transportation.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of [firearm] [explosive or incendiary device] in a facility of public transportation.

9-1:59 FAILURE OR REFUSAL TO LEAVE PREMISES OR PROPERTY UPON REQUEST OF A PEACE OFFICER
(NONCOMPLIANCE)

The elements of the crime of failure or refusal to leave premises or property upon request of a peace officer (noncompliance) are:

1. That the defendant,

- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure or refusal to leave premises or property upon request of a peace officer (noncompliance).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure or refusal to leave premises or property upon request of a peace officer (noncompliance).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-119(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:263 (defining “peace officer”).
3. Because the statute requires a two-part determination of probable cause, in most cases it will be necessary to draft a supplemental instruction explaining that the prosecution must prove that the facts known to the officer were sufficient to induce a person of ordinary prudence and caution reasonably to believe that: (1) a crime was occurring; and (2) the defendant constituted a danger to himself [herself] or others. See generally Wigger v. McKee, 809 P.2d 999, 1005 (Colo. 1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. barricaded or refused police entry to any premises or property through use of, or threatened use of, force, and
5. refused or failed to leave any premises or property upon being requested to do so by a peace officer,
6. who had probable cause to believe a crime was occurring and that defendant constituted a danger to himself [herself] or others, and
7. in the same criminal episode,
8. knowingly,
9. held another person hostage or confined or detained another person without his [her] consent,
10. without proper legal authority, and
11. without the use of a deadly weapon.
- [12. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

3. Although section 18-9-119(4) contains a single element that is to be added to the elements in either section 18-9-119(2) or section 18-9-119(3), section 18-9-119(3), in turn, incorporates and builds on section 18-9-119(2). Therefore, because it would be illogical for a prosecutor charging a violation of section 18-9-119(4) to needlessly assume the burden of proving the three additional elements which section 18-9-119(3) engrafts to section 18-9-119(2), the above model instruction does not include the three additional elements from section 18-9-119(3).

7. in the same criminal episode,

9. held another person hostage or confined or detained another person,
10. by knowingly causing the other person to reasonably believe that he [she] possessed a deadly weapon.
- [11. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure or refusal to leave premises or property upon request of a peace officer (another person; belief as to deadly weapon).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure or refusal to leave premises or property upon request of a peace officer (another person; belief as to deadly weapon).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-119(7), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:88 (defining “deadly weapon”); Instruction F:172 (defining “hold hostage”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:263 (defining “peace officer”); Instruction F:281 (defining “possession”); Instruction F:308 (defining “recklessly”).
3. Because the statute requires a two-part determination of probable cause, in most cases it will be necessary to draft a supplemental instruction explaining that the prosecution must prove that the facts known to the officer were sufficient to induce a person of ordinary prudence and caution reasonably to believe that: (1) a crime was occurring; and (2) defendant constituted a danger to himself [herself] or others. See generally Wigger v. McKee, 809 P.2d 999, 1005 (Colo. App. 1990) (“In a § 1983 damage suit, the existence of probable cause, when dependent on the resolution of factual questions, is for the determination of the jury. However, if no genuine issue as to any material fact exists and if credibility conflicts are absent, the determination may be made on summary judgment as a matter of law.”).

- [4. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of terrorist training activities.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of terrorist training activities.

1. Section 18-9-201.5, C.R.S. 2020, states that the offenses within Article 9, Part 2, do not apply to a variety of circumstances (e.g., accepted animal husbandry practices, conduct permitted by wildlife statutes, legally authorized animal care, and facilities licensed under the federal Animal Welfare Act). However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of cruelty to animals (prohibited acts).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of cruelty to animals (prohibited acts).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-202(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:03 (defining “abandon”); Instruction F:17 (defining “animal”); Instruction F:79 (defining “criminal negligence”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:231 (defining “mistreatment”); Instruction F:240 (defining “neglect”); Instruction F:308 (defining “recklessly”); Instruction F:333 (defining “serious physical harm”); Instruction F:336 (defining “sexual act with an animal”).

3. See Instruction H:57 (affirmative defense of “dog found running, worrying, or injuring sheep, cattle, or other livestock”).

4. It appears that knowing or reckless abandonment, as defined by the final clause of section 18-9-202(1)(a), is applicable only to persons who have “charge or custody” of an animal. This is the interpretation that was embodied in COLJI-Crim. 35:12 (1983), and it is maintained in the above model instruction.

2. See Instruction F:03 (defining “abandon”); Instruction F:48.2 (defining “certified police working dog”); Instruction F:48.25 (defining “police working horse”); Instruction F:79 (defining “criminal negligence”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:231 (defining “mistreatment”); Instruction F:240 (defining “neglect”); Instruction F:308 (defining “recklessly”); Instruction F:333 (defining “serious physical harm”); Instruction F:334 (defining “service animal”); Instruction F:336 (defining “sexual act with an animal”).
3. Although it seems highly improbable that a cat would ever qualify as a “service animal” for purposes of section 18-9-201(2.3), C.R.S. 2020, the model instruction nevertheless includes language contemplating that possibility because section 18-9-202(1.5)(c) explicitly incorporates all of section 18-9-202(1), and section 18-9-202(1)(b) specifically includes cats.

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. Section 18-9-305, C.R.S. 2020, lists several “exceptions” to the prohibitions of sections 18-9-302 to 18-9-304 which, pursuant to section 18-9-305(5), “shall be affirmative defenses.” The Committee, however, has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions. See § 18-9-305(1) (specified conduct by a “news agency” or conduct on one’s “own premises for security or business purposes”); § 18-9-305(2) (listed acts by a “provider of wire or electronic communication service”); § 18-9-305(3) (providing information to an investigative or law enforcement officer who is authorized to intercept communications); § 18-9-305(4) (stating that a “good faith reliance” on a court order or a specified statutory provision “shall constitute a complete defense to any criminal action” involving communications); § 18-9-305(4.3) (excepting the interception of communications that are “readily accessible to the general public,” certain “radio” communications, and various other types of communications); § 18-9-305(4.5) (exempting pen registers, trap and trace devices, and certain acts conducted for the purpose of preventing “fraudulent, unlawful, or abusive use” of an electronic communication service); § 18-9-305(4.7) (allowing electronic communication service providers to divulge the contents of a communication pursuant to statutory authority; or with the lawful consent of a party to the communication; or to a forwarding entity; or, if inadvertently obtained and pertinent to the commission of a crime, to a law enforcement agency); § 18-9-305(4.9) (allowing a district attorney or law enforcement officer to listen to recordings or read transcriptions of communications involving a cordless telephone that were provided by a third party); see also § 18-9-312, C.R.S. 2020 (hostage, endangered person, or armed person in geographical area – telephone, electronic, cellular, or digital communications).

2. The Committee added this chapter in 2016.

9-3:01 MISUSING A WIRETAPPING OR EAVESDROPPING DEVICE

The elements of the crime of misusing a wiretapping or eavesdropping device are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
- [3. manufactured, bought, sold, or knowingly had in his [her] possession an instrument, device, contrivance, machine, or apparatus designed or commonly used for the crime of wiretapping or eavesdropping,
4. with the intent,
5. to unlawfully use or employ or allow the same to be so used or employed.]
- [3. knowingly,
4. aided, authorized, agreed with, employed, permitted, or conspired with any person to unlawfully manufacture, buy, sell, or have in his [her] possession,
5. an instrument, device, contrivance, machine, or apparatus designed or commonly used for wiretapping or eavesdropping.]
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of misusing a wiretapping or eavesdropping device.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of misusing a wiretapping or eavesdropping device.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-302, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).
3. Because this instruction refers to “the crime of wiretapping or eavesdropping,” the court should also give a modified instruction for the appropriate wiretapping or eavesdropping crime. See Instructions 9-3:02 to 9-3:11. The court should change the first element to read “That the defendant or another person,” and it should omit the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof.

9-3:02 WIRETAPPING (KNOWINGLY OVERHEARING, READING, TAKING, COPYING, OR RECORDING AN ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION)

The elements of the crime of wiretapping by knowingly overhearing, reading, taking, copying, or recording are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. overheard, read, took, copied, or recorded a telephone, telegraph, or electronic communication, or attempted to do so,
5. without the consent of either a sender or a receiver thereof.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of wiretapping by knowingly overhearing, reading, taking, copying, or recording.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of wiretapping by knowingly overhearing, reading, taking, copying, or recording.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-303(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:115.2 (defining “electronic communication”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).

3. The introductory portion of the wiretapping statute indicates that it applies to a person who was “not a sender or intended receiver of a telephone or telegraph communication.” § 18-9-303(1). Subsection (1)(a), however, applies to telephone, telegraph, or electronic communications. Presumably, this disconnect arises from a 1988 amendment in which the General Assembly added the phrase “or electronic” to subsection (1)(a) but did not modify the introductory portion of subsection (1). See Ch. 118, sec. 6, § 18-9-303(1), 1988 Colo. Sess. Laws 684, 693. Thus, the statute is arguably overbroad in the context of electronic communications, as it is not limited to persons who were not senders or intended recipients of such communications. For the purposes of this particular crime, however, this appears to be irrelevant, as the crime also requires that the defendant acted “without the consent of either a sender or a receiver thereof.” Because this phrase is logically synonymous with the phrase “was not a sender or intended recipient” – that is, any person who is a sender or intended recipient necessarily operates with consent – the “without consent” language of the fifth element serves to limit the breadth of this crime, regardless of the type of communication at issue. For this reason, the Committee has omitted the statute’s “not a sender or intended receiver” language from this instruction.

4. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

9-3:03 WIRETAPPING (INTENTIONALLY, FOR THE PURPOSE OF COMMITTING, AIDING, OR ABETTING AN UNLAWFUL ACT)

The elements of the crime of wiretapping (intentionally, for the purpose of committing, aiding, or abetting an unlawful act) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was not a sender or intended receiver of a telephone or telegraph communication, and
4. intentionally,
5. overheard, read, took, copied, or recorded a telephone, telegraph, or electronic communication for the purpose of committing or aiding or abetting the commission of the unlawful act of [insert language identifying the “unlawful act[s]”].
- [6. and that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of wiretapping, (intentionally, for the purpose of committing, aiding, or abetting an unlawful act).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of wiretapping (intentionally, for the purpose of intentionally committing, aiding, or abetting an unlawful act).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-303(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:115.2 (defining “electronic communication”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction G2:05 (conspiracy).
3. The introductory portion of the wiretapping statute indicates that it applies to a person who was “not a sender or intended receiver of a telephone or telegraph communication.” § 18-9-303(1). Subsection (1)(b), however, applies to telephone, telegraph, or electronic communications. Presumably, this disconnect arises from a 1988 amendment in which the General Assembly added the phrase “or electronic” to subsection (1)(b) but did not modify the introductory portion of subsection (1). See Ch. 118, sec. 6, § 18-9-303(1), 1988 Colo. Sess. Laws 684, 693. Thus, the statute is arguably overbroad in the context of electronic communications, as it is not limited to persons who were not senders or intended recipients of such communications. Therefore, if it is undisputed that only electronic communications are at issue, the court should omit the third element. Conversely, if only telephonic or telegraphic communications are at issue, the court should replace “a telephone, telegraph, or electronic communication” with “such communication” in the fifth element.
4. For the fifth element, if the defendant is not separately charged with a referenced offense, give the jury the elemental instruction for that offense without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. Place the elemental instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense.

9-3:04 WIRETAPPING (KNOWINGLY USING OR DISCLOSING)

The elements of the crime of wiretapping (knowingly using or disclosing) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was not a sender or intended receiver of a telephone or telegraph communication, and
4. knowingly,
5. used for any purpose or disclosed to any person the contents of any such communication, or attempted to do so,
6. while knowing or having reason to know that such information was obtained in violation of [insert the relevant wiretapping crime].
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of wiretapping (knowingly using or disclosing).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of wiretapping (knowingly using or disclosing).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-303(1)(c), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:68.5 (defining “contents”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).
3. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).
4. This crime requires that either the defendant or another person committed a separate wiretapping crime. See § 18-9-303(1)(c) (discussing information obtained “in violation of this section”); Instructions 9-3:02 to 9-3:06. Therefore, if the defendant is not separately charged with the pertinent wiretapping crime, the court should provide the jury with the elemental instruction for that offense, replacing the phrase “That the defendant” with “That the defendant or another person,” and omitting the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. The court should place the elemental instruction for that wiretapping crime immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable), and it should provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense.

9-3:05 WIRETAPPING (TAPPING OR INTERCEPTING DEVICE)

The elements of the crime of wiretapping (tapping or intercepting device) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was not a sender or intended receiver of a telephone or telegraph communication, and
4. knowingly,
5. tapped or made a connection with any telephone or telegraph line, wire, cable, or instrument belonging to another or with any electronic, mechanical, or other device belonging to another or installed any device whether connected or not which permits the interception of messages.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of wiretapping (tapping or intercepting device).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of wiretapping (tapping or intercepting device).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-303(1)(d), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:116.5 (defining “electronic, mechanical, or other device”); Instruction F:185.3 (defining “intercept”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).

3. The Committee has included the third element because its language appears in the statute. See § 18-9-303(1). However, the Committee questions whether this exempting language regarding a sender or intended receiver of a particular communication should apply to this offense. This particular wiretapping crime prohibits tapping phone lines generally – it does not apply to specific communications. Thus, it is difficult to see how someone who lawfully sends or receives specific messages would be exempt.

9-3:06 WIRETAPPING (APPARATUS)

The elements of the crime of wiretapping (apparatus) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was not a sender or intended receiver of a telephone or telegraph communication, and
4. knowingly,
- [5. used any apparatus to unlawfully do, or cause to be done, [insert the relevant wiretapping crime].]
- [5. aided, authorized, agreed with, employed, permitted, or intentionally conspired with any person to commit [insert the relevant wiretapping crime].]
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of wiretapping (apparatus).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of wiretapping (apparatus).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-303(1)(f), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction G2:05 (conspiracy).

3. This crime requires that either the defendant or another person committed a separate wiretapping crime. See § 18-9-303(1)(f); Instructions 9-3:02 to 9-3:06. Therefore, if the defendant is not separately charged with the pertinent wiretapping crime, the court should provide the jury with the elemental instruction for that offense, replacing the phrase “That the defendant” with “That the defendant or another person,” and omitting the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. The court should place the elemental instruction for that wiretapping crime immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable), and it should provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense.

9-3:07.INT WIRETAPPING – INTERROGATORY

If you find the defendant not guilty of wiretapping, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of wiretapping, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt and answer the following verdict question:

Did the wiretapping involve a cordless telephone?
(Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The wiretapping involved a cordless telephone only if:

1. the [communication] [line, wire, cable, instrument, or device] [apparatus] at issue in the wiretapping offense that the defendant committed involved a cordless telephone.

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the wiretapping did not involve a cordless telephone. In order to meet this burden, the prosecution must disprove, beyond a reasonable doubt, the above numbered condition.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should find that the wiretapping solely involved a cordless telephone, mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should find that the wiretapping did not solely involve a cordless telephone, mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-303(2), C.R.S. 2020.

2. This interrogatory is drafted in the same format used for other sentence mitigating factors. See, e.g., Instruction 3-2:07.INT (First Degree Assault – Interrogatory (Provoked And Sudden Heat Of Passion)).
3. The term “cordless telephone” is not defined by statute.
4. See People v. Richardson, 983 P.2d 5, 8 (Colo. 1999) (“Because the plain language of [the wiretapping statute] demonstrates a general purpose of protecting the privacy of telephone or telegraph communications, we hold that the statutory classification distinguishing between corded and cordless phones is based on differences that are real in fact and that are reasonably related to the relative ease of intercepting cordless telephone calls.” (citation omitted)).

9-3:08 EAVESDROPPING (KNOWINGLY OVERHEARING OR RECORDING)

The elements of the crime of eavesdropping (knowingly overhearing or recording) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was not visibly present during a conversation or discussion, and
4. knowingly,
5. overheard or recorded such conversation or discussion without the consent of at least one of the principal parties thereto, or attempted to do so.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of eavesdropping (knowingly overhearing or recording).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of eavesdropping (knowingly overhearing or recording).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-304(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:254.7 (defining “oral communication,” which, as explained in the next comment, has been held to be synonymous with the terms “conversation or discussion”).

3. Although the terms “conversation or discussion” are not defined by statute, in People v. Blehm, 623 P.2d 411, 417 (Colo. App. 1980), a division of the court of appeals held that “the terms ‘conversation or discussion’ in § 18-9-304 . . . are synonymous with the term ‘oral communication’ as defined in § 18-9-301(8)” ; see also People v. Lesslie, 939 P.2d 443, 449 (Colo. App. 1996) (holding that in a criminal eavesdropping prosecution, the defendant’s proposed instructions concerning the definition of “oral communication” were properly rejected as misleading to extent that they would have enabled the jury to reconsider the trial court’s legal determination that occupants of a restroom had an objectively reasonable expectation of privacy).

4. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

9-3:09 EAVESDROPPING (INTENTIONALLY OVERHEARING OR RECORDING)

The elements of the crime of eavesdropping (intentionally overhearing or recording) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was not visibly present during a conversation or discussion, and
4. intentionally,
5. overheard or recorded such conversation or discussion for the purpose of committing, aiding, or abetting the commission of [insert description of the unlawful act(s)].
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of eavesdropping (intentionally overhearing or recording).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of eavesdropping (intentionally overhearing or recording).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-304(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining "intentionally"); Instruction F:254.7 (defining "oral communication," which, as explained in Comment 3 to Instruction 9-3:08, has been held to be synonymous with the terms “conversation or discussion”).

3. If the defendant is not separately charged with a referenced offense for the purpose of element 5, the court should give a modified version of the elemental instruction for the offense. The court should replace the phrase “That the defendant” with “That the defendant or another person” in the first element, it should remove the phrase “at or about the date and place charged” from the second element, and it should omit the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. Place this modified instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense.

9-3:10 EAVESDROPPING (KNOWING USE OR DISCLOSURE)

The elements of the crime of eavesdropping (use or disclosure) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged.
3. was not visibly present during a conversation or discussion,
and
4. knowingly,
5. used for any purpose, disclosed, or attempted to use or disclose to any other person the contents of such conversation or discussion,
6. while knowing or having reason to know the information was obtained by eavesdropping.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of eavesdropping (use or disclosure).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of eavesdropping (use or disclosure).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-304(1)(c), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:254.7 (defining “oral communication,” which, as explained in Comment 3 to Instruction 9-3:08, has been held to be synonymous with the terms “conversation or discussion”).

3. This crime requires that either the defendant or another person committed a separate eavesdropping crime. See § 18-9-304(1)(c) (discussing information obtained “in violation of this section”); Instructions 9-3:08 to 9-3:11. Therefore, if the defendant is not separately charged with the pertinent eavesdropping crime, the court should provide the jury with the elemental instruction for that offense, replacing the phrase “That the defendant” with “That the defendant or another person,” and omitting the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. The court should place the elemental instruction for that wiretapping crime immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable), and it should provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense.

4. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

9-3:11 EAVESDROPPING (CONSPIRACY)

The elements of the crime of eavesdropping (conspiracy) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was not visibly present during a conversation or discussion,
and
4. knowingly,
5. aided, authorized, agreed with, employed, permitted, or intentionally conspired with any person to commit eavesdropping.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of eavesdropping (with any person).

COMMENT

3. This crime requires that either the defendant or another person committed a separate eavesdropping crime. See § 18-9-304(1)(d); Instructions 9-3:08 to 9-3:10. Therefore, if the defendant is not separately charged with the pertinent eavesdropping crime, the court should provide the jury with the elemental instruction for that offense, replacing the phrase “That the defendant” with “That the defendant or another person,” and omitting the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. The court should place the elemental instruction for that wiretapping crime immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable), and it should provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense.

9-3:12 ABUSE OF TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH SERVICE (DIVULGING MESSAGE)

The elements of the crime of abuse of telephone and telegraph service (divulging message) are:

1. That the defendant
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. was an employee of a telegraph or telephone company, and
  4. knowingly,
  5. divulged the contents or the purport of any message or part thereof sent or intended to be sent to any person other than one to whom said message was sent or person authorized to receive the same.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of abuse of telephone and telegraph service (divulging message).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of abuse of telephone and telegraph service (divulging message).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-306(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).

3. Because jurors may not be aware that “purport” can be used as a noun, it may be appropriate to define the term. See, e.g., Webster's Third New International Dictionary 1847 (2002) (defining “purport” as the “meaning conveyed, professed, or implied”).

2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction G2:05 (conspiracy).

3. It may be appropriate to modify the fourth element by adding either “telephone or “telegraph” as an adjective to modify the word “operator,” or by adding either “telephonic” or “telegraphic” as an adjective to modify the word “message.”

9-3:14 ABUSE OF TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH SERVICE (OPENING A SEALED ENVELOPE)

The elements of the crime of abuse of telephone and telegraph service (opening a sealed envelope) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,

2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,

4. to use, destroy, or detain a message directed to another person,
5. impersonated such person, and thereby procured the delivery to himself [herself] of the message directed to such person.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of abuse of telephone and telegraph service (impersonating another).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of abuse of telephone and telegraph service (impersonating another).

COMMENT

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of abuse of telephone and telegraph service (reading a message).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-306(1)(e), C.R.S. 2020.

The elements of the crime of abuse of telephone and telegraph service (bribery) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. bribed a telegraph or telephone operator or employee of a telegraph or telephone company to disclose any private message or the purport of the same received by him [her] by reason of his [her] trust as agent of the company or used such information when thus obtained.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of abuse of telephone and telegraph service (bribery).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of abuse of telephone and telegraph service (bribery).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-306(1)(f), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).
3. The term “bribe” is not defined in this chapter, but the meaning should be evident from the context. Do not define the term based on section 18-8-302, C.R.S. 2020, as the bribery offense defined in that section relates only to the bribery of a “public servant.”

4. Because jurors may not be aware that “purport” can be used as a noun, it may be appropriate to define the term. See, e.g., Webster's Third New International Dictionary 1847 (2002) (defining “purport” as the “meaning conveyed, professed, or implied”).

9-3:18 OBSTRUCTION OF TELEPHONE OR TELEGRAPH SERVICE

The elements of the crime of obstruction of telephone or telegraph service are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,

9-3:23 TELECOMMUNICATIONS CRIME (ILLEGAL EQUIPMENT)

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. made, possessed, or used illegal telecommunications equipment, and

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of telecommunications crime (illegal equipment).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-309(2)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:55 (defining "cloned cellular phone"); Instruction F:55.5 (defining "cloning equipment"); Instruction F:175.7 (defining "illegal telecommunications equipment"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly").

3. Regarding the fifth element, the statute provides that a person commits a class 3 misdemeanor if he “[m]akes, possesses, or uses illegal telecommunications equipment; except that a person who knowingly uses cloning equipment to create a cloned cellular phone commits a class 4 felony as provided in subsection (4) of this section” (emphasis added). § 18-9-309(2)(b), C.R.S. 2020. Because subsection (2)(b) uses the word “except” in the same sentence as the conduct defining the misdemeanor, the Committee has concluded that this language constitutes a negative element of the misdemeanor that the prosecution must disprove. See People v. Reed, 932 P.2d 842, 844 (Colo. App. 1996) (“When an exception is included in a statutory section defining the elements of the offense, it is generally the burden of the prosecution to prove that the exception does not apply.”).

The Committee notes that the misdemeanor under subsection (2)(b) makes reference to the separate felony of improper use of cloning equipment, as criminalized in subsection (4). See Instruction 9-3:30. However, the misdemeanor is not a lesser included offense of the felony; rather, the “except” clause demonstrates that the two offenses are mutually exclusive. Cf. People v. Shields, 822 P.2d 15, 19 (Colo. 1991) (“[S]econd-degree sexual assault is not a lesser included offense of first-degree sexual assault. . . . Second-degree sexual assault requires some means of causing, or contributing to causing, the victim’s submission that is different in kind from the means specified in the first-degree sexual assault statute but essential to causing the submission of the victim. Establishment of the elements of first-degree sexual assault, therefore, can never establish all of the elements required to prove second-degree sexual assault. We therefore hold that under this statutory scheme the offenses of first- and second-degree sexual assault are mutually exclusive.” (emphasis added)).

4. The statute includes exemptions from criminal liability for authorized work by telecommunications providers, law enforcement activities in penal and correctional facilities, and authorized governmental monitoring or interception of cellular telephone service. See § 18-9-309(5), C.R.S. 2020. However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

9-3:34.5 UNLAWFULLY MAKING AVAILABLE ON THE INTERNET PERSONAL INFORMATION ABOUT A + HUMAN SERVICES WORKER

The elements of unlawfully making available, on the internet, personal information about a caseworker are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. made available on the internet personal information about a + human services worker or the human services worker's immediate family, and
5. the dissemination of personal information posed an imminent and serious threat to the + human services worker's safety or the safety of the human services worker's immediate family, and
6. the defendant knew or reasonably should have known of the imminent and serious threat.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawfully making available on the internet personal information about a caseworker.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawfully making available on the internet personal information about a caseworker.

9-3:35 INTERFERENCE WITH LAWFUL DISTRIBUTION OF NEWSPAPERS

The elements of the crime of interference with lawful distribution of newspapers are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. obtained or exerted control over more than five copies of an edition of a newspaper from a newspaper distribution container owned or leased by the newspaper publisher,
  4. with the intent,
  5. to prevent other individuals from reading that edition of the newspaper, and
  6. there was a notice on the newspaper or on the newspaper distribution container that possession of more than five copies with intent to prevent other individuals from reading that edition of the newspaper was illegal.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of interference with lawful distribution of newspapers.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of interference with lawful distribution of newspapers.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-9-314(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:114.5 (defining “edition of a newspaper”); Instruction F:241.8 (defining “newspaper”); Instruction F:266.8 (defining “periodical”).
3. The third element of the model instruction does not include the word “unauthorized” as an adjective modifying “control” because the definition of “unauthorized control,” from section 18-9-314(1), is set forth in the sixth element.
4. The statute includes an exemption from criminal liability. See § 18-9-314(5), C.R.S. 2020 (“This section shall not apply to a person who, with the authority or permission of the person who possesses real or personal property, removes or disposes of newspapers that have been deposited in or left on that property without the authority or permission of the person who possesses the real or personal property.”). However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.

9-3:36.INT INTERFERENCE WITH LAWFUL DISTRIBUTION OF NEWSPAPERS – INTERROGATORY (NUMBER OF NEWSPAPERS)

If you find the defendant not guilty of interference with lawful distribution of newspapers, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of interference with lawful distribution of newspapers, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form. [Although you may answer “No” to more than one question, you may not answer “Yes” to more than one question. Further, if you answer “Yes” to any question, you should not answer the other question[s].]

[. Did the interference with lawful distribution of newspapers involve five hundred or more newspapers?]

[. Did the interference with lawful distribution of newspapers involve more than one hundred and fewer than five hundred newspapers?]

The prosecution has the burden to prove the number of newspapers beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. Section 18-10-108, C.R.S. 2020, which is titled “Exceptions,” provides as follows: “Nothing contained in this article 10 shall be construed to modify, amend, or otherwise affect the validity of any provisions contained in part 6 of article 21 of title 24 [(Bingo and Raffles Law)] and articles 30 [(Colorado Limited Gaming Act)] and 32 [(Racing)] of title 44.” See also § 18-10-102(2)(c), C.R.S. 2020 (providing that “gambling” does not include “[o]ther acts or transactions now or hereafter expressly authorized by law”). However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

2. The court should not ask the jury to make a finding regarding whether a defendant is a “repeating gambling offender” as defined in section 18-10-102(9), C.R.S. 2020. Although COLJI-Crim. 27:13, 27:14, and 27:15 (1983) defined three separate offenses of “repeating gambling offender” based on section 18-10-102(9), the Committee is now of the view that the trial court should make this determination at sentencing. See People v. Nunn, 148 P.3d 222, 228 (Colo. App. 2006) (holding that, under the prior conviction exception to the rule of Apprendi v. New Jersey, 530 U.S. 466 (2000), and Blakely v. Washington, 542 U.S. 296 (2004), the defendant in habitual criminal proceedings “had no right to have a jury determine whether he was the person convicted in the prior cases”).

3. The Committee added this chapter in 2016.

4. In 2018, the Committee modified the quotation in Comment 1 pursuant to legislative amendments. See Ch. 26, sec. 13, § 18-10-108, 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 285, 322; Ch. 274, sec. 94, § 18-10-108, 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 1694, 1726.

- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

2. See Instruction F:160.3 (defining "gambling device"); Instruction F:160.7 (defining "gambling record"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:287.2 (defining "professional gambling").

3. Section 18-10-105(1), C.R.S. 2020, incorporates exceptions for conduct authorized by section 18-10-105(1.5), which provides as follows:

The sale, transportation, manufacture, and remanufacture of gambling devices, including the acquisition of essential parts therefor and the assembly of such parts, is permitted if such devices are sold, transported, manufactured, and remanufactured only for transportation in interstate or foreign commerce when such transportation is not prohibited by any applicable foreign, state, or federal law. Storage of gambling devices is also permitted but only for purposes of manufacturing, remanufacturing, and transporting such devices in interstate or foreign commerce when their transportation is not prohibited. Such activities may be conducted only by persons who have registered with the United States government pursuant to the provisions of chapter 24 of Title XV of the United States Code, as amended.

However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

10:04 GAMBLING DEVICE (PROHIBITED ACTS)

The elements of the crime of gambling device (prohibited acts) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,

4. to someone other than a legal buyer.]
- [3. sold a gambling device for use in Colorado regardless of where it was purchased.]
- [3. manufactured, remanufactured, or stored for purposes of manufacture, remanufacture, and transportation,
4. a gambling device,
5. in violation of [insert a description of the “applicable state or federal law”].]
- [_. and that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of gambling device (prohibited acts).

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:160.3 (defining “gambling device”); Instruction F:196.55 (defining “legal buyer”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

10:05 TRANSMITTING OR RECEIVING GAMBLING INFORMATION

The elements of the crime of transmitting or receiving gambling information are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
- [4. transmitted or received gambling information by telephone, telegraph, radio, semaphore, or other means.]
- [4. installed or maintained equipment for the transmission or receipt of gambling information.]
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of transmitting or receiving gambling information.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of transmitting or receiving gambling information.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-10-106(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:160.4 (defining "gambling information"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly").

3. The term “semaphore” is not defined by statute. See Webster's Third New International Dictionary 2062 (2002) (defining “semaphore” as “an apparatus for visual signaling”).

10:06 MAINTAINING GAMBLING PREMISES

The elements of the crime of maintaining gambling premises are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. as an owner, lessee, agent, employee, operator, or occupant,

CHAPTER 10.5

SIMULATED GAMBLING DEVICES

10.5:01

UNLAWFUL OFFERING OF A SIMULATED GAMBLING DEVICE

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The Committee added this chapter in 2016.

10.5:01 UNLAWFUL OFFERING OF A SIMULATED GAMBLING DEVICE

The elements of the crime of unlawful offering of a simulated gambling device are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. offered, facilitated, contracted for, or otherwise made available to or for members of the public or members of an organization or club,
4. any simulated gambling device, where
5. the defendant received, directly or indirectly,
6. a payment or transfer of consideration in connection with an entrant's use of the simulated gambling device, admission to premises on which the simulated gambling device was located, or the purchase of any product or service associated with access to or use of the simulated gambling device,
7. regardless of whether consideration in connection with such use, admission, or purchase was monetary or nonmonetary and regardless of whether it was paid or transferred before the simulated gambling device was used by an entrant, and
8. as a consequence of, in connection with, or after the play of the simulated gambling device, an award of a prize was expressly or implicitly made to a person using the device.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful offering of a simulated gambling device.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful offering of a simulated gambling device.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-10.5-103(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:126.5 (defining “entrant”); Instruction F:285.7 (defining “prize”); Instruction F:345.3 (defining “simulated gambling device”); see also Black’s Law Dictionary 370 (10th ed. 2014) (defining “consideration” as “[s]omething (such as an act, a forbearance, or a return promise) bargained for and received by a promisor from a promisee”); § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).
3. Section 18-10.5-103(8), C.R.S. 2020, provides as follows: “Conducting or assisting in the conduct of gaming wagering activities and live or simulcast racing and parimutuel wagering activities otherwise authorized by Colorado law is not a violation of this section.” Additionally, section 18-10.5-103(9) provides that the statute does not limit activities related to the stock market or lawfully established sweepstakes. Moreover, section 18-10.5-103(10) provides that telecommunications providers are not liable if customers use their services to conduct prohibited games. Finally, section 18-10.5-103(11) provides that the crime does not apply to persons who ceased participating in simulated gambling activity on or before July, 1, 2018, and who provide corroborating documentation to the district attorney. However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.
4. The Committee has included the seventh element because its language appears in the statute. The Committee notes, however, that this “monetary or nonmonetary” language – as well as the language stating that it is irrelevant whether consideration was paid before an entrant used the device – is arguably superfluous, as the prosecution will never need to introduce evidence to prove this element. Rather, this language presumably clarifies that receiving nonmonetary consideration does not constitute a defense, nor does the timing of receipt of the consideration.

5. In 2018, pursuant to a legislative amendment, the Committee modified this instruction, added the cross-reference to Instruction F:126.5 in Comment 2, added the fourth sentence to Comment 3, and added Comment 4. See Ch. 381, sec. 4, § 18-10.5-103(1)(a), 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 2297, 2300-01.

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The Committee added this chapter in 2016.

11:01 TREASON

The elements of the crime of treason are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. levied war against the state of Colorado or adhered to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort.
- [4. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of treason.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of treason.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-11-101(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

11:02.SP TREASON – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION

No person shall be convicted of treason unless upon the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act or upon confession in open court.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-11-101(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. In most cases, this legal principle will be a matter for the court's determination about which the jury need not be advised. However, the Committee has drafted a special instruction because there may be instances where it is necessary to advise the jurors that this rule governs their determination of whether the evidence is sufficient (e.g., to inform a jury that it cannot convict based entirely on circumstantial evidence if it rejects the testimony of all, or all but one, of the witnesses).
3. See Instruction G2:05 (conspiracy), Comment 7 (explaining the non-statutory origins of the definition of an "overt act" for purposes of conspiracy).

11:03 INSURRECTION

The elements of the crime of insurrection are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with the intent,
4. by force of arms to obstruct, retard, or resist the execution of any law of this state,
5. engaged, cooperated, or participated with any armed force; or with an armed force invaded any portion of this state.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of insurrection.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of insurrection.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-11-102, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent").
3. The statute does not define the term "armed force."

11:04 ADVOCATING OVERTHROW OF GOVERNMENT (SEDITION)

The elements of the crime of sedition are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. either orally or by writing, printing, exhibiting, or circulating written or printed words or pictures, or otherwise,
4. advocated, taught, incited, proposed, aided, abetted, encouraged, or advised resistance by physical force to, or the destruction or overthrow by physical force of, constituted government in general, or of the government or laws of the United States, or of this state,
5. under circumstances constituting a clear and present danger that violent action would result therefrom.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of sedition.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of sedition.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-11-201(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. The term “clear and present danger” is not defined by statute. The Committee notes that, in other contexts, the requirement of a “clear and present danger” implicates constitutional considerations. See In re Jameson, 340 P.2d 423, 428 (Colo. 1959) (noting, in the context of a newspaper’s First Amendment challenge to a contempt citation, that “[w]hat finally emerges from the ‘clear and present danger’ cases is a working principle that the substantive evil must be extremely serious and the degree of imminence extremely high before utterances can be punished as a constructive contempt”).

11:05 INCITING DESTRUCTION OF LIFE OR PROPERTY

The elements of the crime of inciting destruction of life or property are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. either orally or by writing, printing, exhibiting, or circulating written or printed words or pictures,
  4. advocated, taught, incited, proposed, aided, abetted, encouraged, or advised the unlawful injury or destruction of private or public property by the use of physical force, violence, or bodily injury, or the unlawful injury by the use of physical force or violence of any person, or the unlawful taking of human life, as a policy or course of conduct,
  5. under circumstances constituting a clear and present danger that violent action would result therefrom.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of inciting destruction of life or property.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of inciting destruction of life or property.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-11-202, C.R.S. 2020.

2. See also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. The term “clear and present danger” is not defined by statute. ## 11:06 MEMBERSHIP IN AN ANARCHISTIC AND SEDITIOUS ASSOCIATION

The elements of the crime of membership in an anarchistic and seditious association are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. acted or professed to act as an officer of any anarchistic and seditious association, or spoke, wrote, or published as a representative or professed representative of any such association, or, knowing the purpose, teachings, and doctrine of such association, became or continued to be a member thereof or contributed dues, money, or other things of value to it or to anyone for it.
- [4. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of membership in an anarchistic and seditious association.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of membership in an anarchistic and seditious association.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-11-203(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:16.5 (defining “anarchistic and seditious association”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

11:07 MUTILATION OR CONTEMPT OF FLAG

The elements of the crime of mutilation or contempt of flag are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,

4. mutilated, defaced, defiled, trampled upon, burned, cut, or tore any flag in public.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of mutilation or contempt of flag.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of mutilation or contempt of flag.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-11-204(1)(b)–(d), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:157.3 (defining “flag” (mutilation or contempt)); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”).

3. The Committee has not included model language for section 18-11-204(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020, because that provision was declared unconstitutional in People v. Vaughan, 514 P.2d 1318, 1323 (Colo. 1973). Although the Committee has included model language for the remaining provisions of the statute, there are indications that these provisions may be unconstitutional. See United States v. Eichman, 496 U.S. 310, 318–19 (1990) (striking down, as unconstitutional, the Flag Protection Act of 1989); Texas v. Johnson, 491 U.S. 397 (1989) (holding that the defendant’s act of burning the American flag during a protest rally was expressive conduct within the protection of the First Amendment, and that the state could not justify prosecution of the defendant based on an interest in preventing breaches of peace or to preserve the flag as a symbol of nationhood and national unity); see also Vaughan, 514 P.2d at 1322–23 (“It is well settled that the state has an overriding interest in prohibiting conduct or speech which incites others to unlawful conduct or provokes retaliatory actions amounting to a breach of the peace. Thus, a statute narrowly drawn to implement such compelling state interests would withstand constitutional scrutiny even though it has the effect of proscribing some limited forms of expression.” (citation omitted)); id. at 1323 (“Not only must a statute infringing upon expression be justified by an overriding state interest, but such a statute may be applied only where there is a clear and present danger to such interest.”).

11:08 UNLAWFUL FLAG DISPLAY

The elements of the crime of unlawful flag display are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. displayed any flag other than the flag of the United States of America or the state of Colorado or any of its subdivisions, agencies, or institutions,
4. on a permanent flagstaff located on a state, county, municipal, or other public building or on its grounds within this state.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful flag display.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful flag display.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-11-205(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:157.7 (defining “flag” (unlawful display)).
3. Section 18-11-205(4)(a), C.R.S. 2020, establishes a variety of exceptions for the display of flags that are ceremonial, educational, commemorative, etc. Section 18-11-205(4)(b) states that such exceptions shall qualify as affirmative defenses; however, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of prohibited use of a weapon (throwing star or nunchaku).

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:244 (defining “nunchaku”); Instruction F:281 (defining “possession”); Instruction F:372 (defining “throwing star”).
3. In a case involving transportation of throwing stars or nunchaku, draft a special instruction explaining the following limitation: “When transporting throwing stars or nunchaku for a public demonstration or exhibition or for a school or class, they shall be transported in a closed, nonaccessible container.” § 18-12-106(1)(e), C.R.S. 2020.

12-1:13.SP PROHIBITED USE OF WEAPONS – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (POSSESSION OF A PERMIT IS NOT A DEFENSE)

Possession of a concealed weapon permit, handgun permit, or temporary emergency concealed handgun permit is no defense to a charge of prohibited use of a weapon.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-12-106(1)(d), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Although this limitation is set forth as part of the subsection criminalizing possession of a firearm while under the influence of an intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, see § 18-12-106(1)(d), it is, by its terms, applicable to any “violation of this subsection (1).” Accordingly, the Committee has placed this special instruction after the last instruction that defines an offense in violation of section 18-12-106(1).

12-1:14 PROHIBITED USE OF A STUN GUN

The elements of the crime of prohibited use of a stun gun are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly and unlawfully,
4. used a stun gun in the commission of the crime of [insert name(s) of offense(s)].
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of prohibited use of a stun gun.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of prohibited use of a stun gun.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-12-106.5, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:354 (defining “stun gun”).
3. If the defendant is not separately charged with a referenced offense, give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. Place the elemental instruction for the referenced offense immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for the referenced offense.

12-1:15 ILLEGAL DISCHARGE OF A FIREARM

The elements of the crime of illegal discharge of a firearm are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly or recklessly,
4. discharged a firearm into any dwelling or any other building or occupied structure, or into any motor vehicle occupied by any person.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of illegal discharge of a firearm.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of illegal discharge of a firearm.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-12-107.5, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:114 (defining "dwelling"); Instruction F:154 (defining "firearm"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction F:236 (defining "motor vehicle"); Instruction F:308 (defining "recklessly"); see also Instruction F:40 (defining "building" for purposes of Article 4 offenses); Instruction F:248 (defining "occupied structure" for purposes of Article 4 offenses).
3. Section 18-12-107.5(2) provides "[i]t shall not be an offense under this section if the person who discharges a firearm in violation of subsection (1) of this section is a peace officer . . . acting within the scope of such officer's authority and in the performance of such officer's duties." This language is slightly different from the language in section 18-12-101(2), C.R.S. 2020 ("It shall be an affirmative defense to any provision of this article that the act was committed by a peace officer in the lawful discharge of his duties."). Accordingly, it may be appropriate to modify Instruction H:60 (affirmative defense of "peace officer"), which, as noted in an introductory comment to this chapter, is based on section 18-12-101(2).

12-1:16 POSSESSION OF A WEAPON BY A PREVIOUS OFFENDER

The elements of the crime of possession of a weapon by a previous offender are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
- [3. subsequent to being convicted of [insert the name(s) of the qualifying felony offense(s)],]
- [3. subsequent to being convicted of attempt or conspiracy to commit [insert the name(s) of the qualifying felony offense(s)],]
- [3. subsequent to being adjudicated for [insert the name(s) of the qualifying act(s)],]
- [3. subsequent to being adjudicated for attempt or conspiracy to commit [insert the name(s) of the qualifying felony offense(s)],]
4. knowingly,
5. possessed, used, or carried upon his [her] person a [firearm] [insert name(s) of “any other weapon that is subject to the provisions of this article”].
- [6. and that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of possession of a weapon by a previous offender.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of possession of a weapon by a previous offender.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-12-108(1), (3), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:154 (defining “firearm”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:281 (defining “possession”).
3. See People v. DeWitt, 275 P.3d 728, 735 (Colo. App. 2011) (“We conclude that the plain language of the amended POWPO statute evinces the General Assembly’s clear intent for the ‘knowingly’ mental state to apply only to the possession element of the offense, and not to the prior felony conviction element.”).

12-1:17.INT POSSESSION OF A WEAPON BY A PREVIOUS OFFENDER – INTERROGATORY (DANGEROUS WEAPON)

If you find the defendant not guilty of possession of a weapon by a previous offender, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of possession of a weapon by a previous offender, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant possess a dangerous weapon? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant possessed a dangerous weapon only if:

1. he [she] possessed a firearm silencer, machine gun, short shotgun, short rifle, or ballistic knife.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See §18-12-108(2)(b), (4)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:29 (defining “ballistic knife”); Instruction F:86 (defining “dangerous weapon”); Instruction F:154 (defining “firearm”);

12-1:18.INT POSSESSION OF A WEAPON BY A PREVIOUS OFFENDER – INTERROGATORY (PREVIOUS CONVICTION FOR BURGLARY, ARSON, OR ANY FELONY INVOLVING THE USE OF FORCE OR A DEADLY WEAPON)

If you find the defendant not guilty of possession of a weapon by a previous offender, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of possession of a weapon by a previous offender, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the defendant previously convicted of [burglary] [arson] [an offense involving the use of [force] [a deadly weapon]]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant was previously convicted of [burglary] [arson] [an offense involving the use of [force] [a deadly weapon]] only if:

1. the defendant’s previous [conviction] [adjudication] was for [burglary] [arson] [[insert name of other felony offense(s) for which the defendant was convicted or adjudicated delinquent] involving the use of force or a deadly weapon], and
2. the date on which the defendant committed the possession of a weapon by a previous offender occurred within ten years after the date of conviction, if the defendant was not incarcerated; or within ten years after the date the defendant was released from confinement, if the defendant was incarcerated; or, within ten years after the date of release from supervision, if the defendant was subject to supervision imposed as a result of conviction.

The prosecution has the burden to prove each numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-12-108(2)(c), (4)(c), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. See People v. Blue, 544 P.2d 385, 387 (Colo. 1975) (the words “involving” and “use of force or violence” are comprehensible and readily understood).
4. Sections 18-12-108(2)(c) and 18-12-108(4)(c) apply to prior convictions for burglary or arson (or acts committed by a juvenile which would, if committed by an adult, constitute either such offense) without requiring proof that the prior conviction was one “involving the use of force or the use of a deadly weapon.” Accordingly, while it is the jury’s role to determine whether the defendant was previously convicted as alleged, it appears that, for prior convictions based on offenses other than burglary or arson, it is the trial court’s function to determine whether the prior conviction was for a felony. Further, in some cases it may not be necessary to ask the jury whether a prior conviction was one “involving the use of force or the use of a deadly weapon” because the court will be able to answer that question, as a matter of law, by examining the statutory elements of the prior offense for which the defendant was convicted. See, e.g., People v. Allaire, 843 P.2d 38, 40 (Colo. App. 1992) (it was not error for the trial court to instruct the jury that second degree assault involves force or violence as a matter of law; all of the relevant means by which second degree assault, as a class four felony, can be committed involve the use of force); see also People v. Gallegos, 563 P.2d 937, 938 (Colo. 1977) (holding, under the previous version of the POWPO statute, that attempted robbery by threat is a felony involving the use of force).

5. It may be necessary to draft supplemental instructions to help guide the jury's determination of the date that the defendant was "convicted" or "released." See generally People v. Larson, 782 P.2d 840, 843 (Colo. App. 1989) (trial court erred by failing to instruct the jury that, in order for defendant to be found guilty of possession of a weapon by a previous offender, he must have possessed a firearm within ten years after his discharge from incarceration; however, no plain error because the issue was not contested at trial).

12-1:19 POSSESSION OF A HANDGUN BY A JUVENILE

The elements of the [crime] [offense] of possession of a handgun by a juvenile are:

1. That the [defendant] [juvenile],
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. had not attained the age of eighteen years, and
4. knowingly,
5. possessed a handgun.
- [6. and that the [defendant's] [juvenile's] conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find [the defendant guilty] [that the juvenile committed the offense] of possession of a handgun by a juvenile.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find [the defendant not guilty] [that the juvenile did not commit the offense] of possession of a handgun by a juvenile.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-12-108.5(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:167 (defining “handgun”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:281 (defining “possession”).
3. See Instruction H:65 (affirmative defense of “permissible purpose”).

4. The Committee recognizes that juveniles are not entitled to a trial by jury for misdemeanors or petty offenses. See § 19-2-107(2), C.R.S. 2020. Nevertheless, the Committee has created this instruction in the event that a juvenile would ever face a jury trial, either in criminal court or in juvenile court. Furthermore, the Committee has provided bracketed language throughout the instruction to match the appropriate venue. If the proceeding takes place in criminal court, the court should use the first set of brackets. If the proceeding takes place in juvenile court, the court should use the second set of brackets, which replaces several terms (i.e., “crime,” “defendant,” “guilty”) with their appropriate counterpart (i.e., “offense,” “juvenile,” “committed the offense”).

5. In 2017, the Committee added the bracketed alternatives to this instruction, for the reasons described in Comment 4.

12-1:20 UNLAWFULLY PROVIDING A HANDGUN TO A JUVENILE (PROHIBITED POSSESSION)

The elements of the crime of providing a handgun to a juvenile (prohibited possession) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly,
4. provided a handgun,
5. with or without remuneration,
6. to any person under the age of eighteen years,
7. in violation of the statute that prohibits possession of a handgun by a juvenile.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of providing a handgun to a juvenile (prohibited possession).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of providing a handgun to a juvenile (prohibited possession).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-12-108.7(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:167 (defining “handgun”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:308 (defining “recklessly”); Instruction F:310 (defining “remuneration”).
3. Because section 18-12-108.7(1)(a) requires proof that the juvenile’s possession violated section 18-12-108.5, an adult charged with violating section 18-12-108.7(1)(a) may be entitled to an instruction explaining the affirmative defense that applies to section 18-12-108.5. See Instruction H:65 (affirmative defense of “permissible purpose”).
4. See Instruction H:66 (affirmative defense of “physical harm from attempt to disarm”).
5. If the defendant is not charged with possession of a handgun by a juvenile, give the jury the elemental instruction for the offense without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof. See Instruction 12-1:19 (possession of a handgun by a juvenile). Place the elemental instruction immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms and theories of criminal liability for possession of a handgun by a juvenile.

12-1:21 UNLAWFULLY PERMITTING A JUVENILE TO POSSESS A HANDGUN (PROHIBITED POSSESSION)

The elements of the crime of permitting a juvenile to possess a handgun (prohibited possession) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knew of a juvenile's conduct which violated the statute that prohibits possession of a handgun by a juvenile, and
  4. failed to make reasonable efforts to prevent such violation.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of permitting a juvenile to possess a handgun (prohibited possession).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of permitting a juvenile to possess a handgun (prohibited possession).

2. See Instruction F:167 (defining "handgun"); Instruction F:193 (defining "juvenile").
3. Because section 18-12-108.7(1)(a) requires proof that the juvenile's possession violated section 18-12-108.5, an adult charged with violating section 18-12-108.7(1)(a) may be entitled to an instruction explaining the affirmative defense that applies to section 18-12-108.5. See Instruction H:65 (affirmative defense of “permissible purpose”).

12-1:22 UNLAWFULLY PROVIDING A HANDGUN TO A JUVENILE OR PERMITTING A JUVENILE TO POSSESS A HANDGUN (SUBSTANTIAL RISK)

The elements of the crime of unlawfully providing a handgun to a juvenile or permitting a juvenile to possess a handgun (substantial risk) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly,
4. provided a handgun to a juvenile or permitted a juvenile to possess a handgun,
5. even though the defendant was aware of a substantial risk that the juvenile would use a handgun to commit [insert name(s) of felony offense(s)].
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawfully providing a handgun to a juvenile or permitting a juvenile to possess a handgun (substantial risk).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawfully providing a handgun to a juvenile or permitting a juvenile to possess a handgun (substantial risk).

3. See Instruction H:66 (affirmative defense of “physical harm from attempt to disarm”).

12-1:23 UNLAWFULLY PERMITTING A JUVENILE TO POSSESS A HANDGUN (FAILURE TO ACT BASED ON A SUBSTANTIAL RISK)

The elements of the crime of unlawfully permitting a juvenile to possess a handgun (failure to act based on a substantial risk) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. was aware of a substantial risk that a juvenile would use a handgun to commit [insert name(s) of felony offense(s)], and
  4. failed to make reasonable efforts to prevent the commission of the offense.
- [5. and that the defendant’s conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawfully permitting a juvenile to possess a handgun (failure to act based on a substantial risk).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawfully permitting a juvenile to possess a handgun (failure to act based on a substantial risk).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-12-108.7(2)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:167 (defining “handgun”); Instruction F:193 (defining “juvenile”).
3. Section 18-12-108.7(2)(a) provides as follows:

A person shall be deemed to have violated this paragraph (a) if such person provides a handgun to or permits the possession of a handgun by any juvenile who has been convicted of a crime of violence, as defined in section 18-1.3-406, or any juvenile who has been adjudicated a juvenile delinquent for an offense which would constitute a crime of violence, as defined in section 18-1.3-406, if such juvenile were an adult.

This provision could be interpreted as establishing either: (1) a permissible inference that should be explained to the jury by means of a special instruction, see generally Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process); or (2) a substantive offense with an imputed mens rea of “knowingly.” See § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”). The Committee takes no position concerning which interpretation is correct.

4. See Instruction H:66 (affirmative defense of “physical harm from attempt to disarm”).

12-1:24 UNLAWFULLY PERMITTING A JUVENILE TO POSSESS A FIREARM OTHER THAN A HANDGUN

The elements of the crime of unlawfully permitting a juvenile to possess a firearm other than a handgun are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. sold, rented, transferred ownership of, or allowed unsupervised possession of,
4. a firearm other than a handgun,
5. with or without remuneration,
6. to any juvenile,
7. without the consent of the juvenile's parent or legal guardian.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawfully permitting a juvenile to possess a firearm other than a handgun.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawfully permitting a juvenile to possess a firearm other than a handgun.

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. possessed, controlled, manufactured, gave, mailed, sent, or caused to be sent,
5. an explosive or incendiary device.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of possession or control of an explosive or incendiary device.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of possession or control of an explosive or incendiary device.

3. Section 18-12-109(3), C.R.S. 2020, enumerates several exemptions from criminal liability (e.g., peace officers, National Guard servicepersons, etc.). However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

12-1:26 POSSESSION OR CONTROL OF A CHEMICAL, BIOLOGICAL, OR RADIOLOGICAL WEAPON

12-1:27 USE OF AN EXPLOSIVE OR INCENDIARY DEVICE OR A CHEMICAL, BIOLOGICAL, OR RADIOLOGICAL
WEAPON IN THE COMMISSION, OR ATTEMPTED COMMISSION, OF A FELONY

The elements of the crime of use of a[n] [explosive or incendiary device] [chemical, biological, or radiological weapon or materials] in the [attempted] commission of a felony are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. used, caused to be used, or gave, mailed, sent, or caused to be sent,
5. a[n] [explosive or incendiary device] [chemical, biological, or radiological weapon or materials],
6. in [the commission of, or in an attempt to commit, [insert name of felony offense(s)].

4. without including a permanent stamp or marking, legibly and conspicuously engraved or cast upon the outer surface of the large-capacity magazine, indicating that it was manufactured or assembled after July 1, 2013.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of manufacture of a large-capacity magazine without a date stamp or marking.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of manufacture of a large-capacity magazine without a date stamp or marking.

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. Section 18-12-505, C.R.S. 2020, provides that these offenses do not apply to transfers of antique firearms, see Instruction F:19, or transfers of curios or relics, see Instruction F:82. However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.
2. The Committee added this chapter in 2018 pursuant to a legislative reorganization. See Ch. 8, sec. 5, §§ 18-12-501 to -508, 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 145, 151-53.

12-5:01 IMPROPER BACKGROUND CHECK (FAILURE TO CONDUCT)

The elements of the crime of improper background check (failure to conduct) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a gun show vendor, and
4. transferred or attempted to transfer a firearm at a gun show, and
5. before such transfer or attempted transfer occurred, he [she] failed to require that a background check, in accordance with the national instant criminal background check system, was conducted of the prospective transferee.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of improper background check (failure to conduct).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of improper background check (failure to conduct).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-12-501(1)(a), (4), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:154.5 (defining "firearm" (background checks – gun shows)); Instruction F:166.2 (defining "gun show"); Instruction F:166.8

(defining “gun show vendor”); Instruction F:375 (defining “transferee”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. If necessary, draft a supplemental instruction detailing the relevant provisions of the national instant criminal background check system. See § 24-33.5-424, C.R.S. 2020.

4. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

12-5:02 IMPROPER BACKGROUND CHECK (FAILURE TO OBTAIN APPROVAL)

The elements of the crime of improper background check (failure to obtain approval) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a gun show vendor, and
4. transferred or attempted to transfer a firearm at a gun show, and
5. before such transfer or attempted transfer occurred, he [she] failed to obtain approval of the transfer from the Colorado bureau of investigation after a background check had been requested by a licensed gun dealer, in accordance with the national instant criminal background check system.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of improper background check (failure to obtain approval).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of improper background check (failure to obtain approval).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-12-501(1)(b), (4), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:154.5 (defining “firearm” (background checks – gun shows)); Instruction F:166.2 (defining “gun show”); Instruction F:166.8 (defining “gun show vendor”); Instruction F:196.65 (defining “licensed gun dealer”); Instruction F:375 (defining “transferee”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. If necessary, draft a supplemental instruction detailing the relevant provisions of the national instant criminal background check system. See § 24-33.5-424, C.R.S. 2020.

4. Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

12-5:03 IMPROPER BACKGROUND CHECK (PROMOTER'S FAILURE TO ARRANGE)

The elements of the crime of improper background check (promoter's failure to arrange) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a gun show promoter, and
4. failed to arrange for the services of a licensed gun dealer on the premises of the gun show to obtain a background check as required by law.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of improper background check (promoter's failure to arrange).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of improper background check (promoter's failure to arrange).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-12-501(2), (4), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:166.2 (defining "gun show"); Instruction F:166.5 (defining "gun show promoter"); Instruction F:196.65 (defining "licensed gun dealer"); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 ("Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. If necessary, draft a supplemental instruction detailing the relevant background check requirements. See § 24-33.5-424, C.R.S. 2020.

12-5:04 IMPROPER BACKGROUND CHECK (TRANSFER WITHOUT CHECK)

The elements of the crime of improper background check (transfer without check) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was any part of a firearm transaction that took place at a gun show,
4. a firearm was transferred, and
5. no background check relating to that transfer had been obtained by a licensed gun dealer.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of improper background check (transfer without check).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of improper background check (transfer without check).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-12-501(3), (4), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:154.5 (defining "firearm" (background checks – gun shows)); Instruction F:166.2 (defining "gun show"); Instruction F:196.65 (defining "licensed gun dealer"); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020

(“ Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. Unlike subsections (1) and (2) – which apply to gun show vendors and gun show promoters, respectively – subsection (3) of section 18-12-501 does not specify a class of individuals. Instead, it simply provides that “[i]f any part of a firearm transaction takes place at a gun show, no firearm shall be transferred unless a background check has been obtained by a licensed gun dealer.” The Committee takes no position on whether the General Assembly intended for subsection (3) to apply to anyone or only to gun show vendors, dealers, or promoters.

4. If necessary, draft a supplemental instruction detailing the relevant background check requirements. See § 24-33.5-424, C.R.S. 2020.

12-5:05 FALSE INFORMATION REGARDING GUN RECORD

The elements of the crime of false information regarding gun record are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. gave false information,
4. in connection with the making of a record kept by a licensed gun dealer who obtained a background check on a prospective transferee and recorded the transfer as required by law.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of false information regarding gun record.

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:196.65 (defining “licensed gun dealer”); Instruction F:375 (defining “transferee”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. If necessary, draft a supplemental instruction detailing the information that must be kept in records. See § 18-12-402, C.R.S. 2020; Instruction 12-4:01 (improper firearms record (failure to keep record)).

12-5:06 FAILURE TO POST BACKGROUND CHECK NOTICE

The elements of the crime of failure to post background check notice are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a gun show promoter, and
4. failed to post prominently a notice, in a form prescribed by the executive director of the department of public safety or his or her designee,
5. setting forth the requirement for a background check as provided by law.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure to post background check notice.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure to post background check notice.

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The Committee added this chapter in 2016.

13:01 ABUSE OF A CORPSE (REMOVAL)

The elements of the crime of abuse of a corpse (removal) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. without statutory or court-ordered authority,
4. removed the body or remains of any person from a grave or other place of sepulcher,
5. without the consent of the person who had the right to dispose of the remains.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of abuse of a corpse (removal).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of abuse of a corpse (removal).

2. See Instruction F:88 (defining “deadly weapon”); Instruction F:303 (defining “public place”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. The Committee has included the fifth element because its language appears in the statute. See § 18-13-104(2). The Committee notes, however, that this “public or private place” language is arguably superfluous, as the prosecution will never need to introduce evidence to prove this element. Rather, this language presumably clarifies that – unlike with the crime of fighting by agreement, see Instruction 13:03 – the act of fighting by agreement with deadly weapons in private is not a defense to dueling.

13:05 DISCARDING OR ABANDONING AN ARTICLE WITH A COMPARTMENT

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,

13:07.3 INTENTIONAL MISREPRESENTATION OF ENTITLEMENT TO AN ASSISTANCE ANIMAL

The elements of the crime of intentional misrepresentation of entitlement to an assistance animal are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. intentionally,

2. See Instruction F:23.5 (defining “assistance animal”); Instruction F:185 (defining “intentionally”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).
3. Section 18-13-107.3(5)(b) defines “disability” as follows: “‘Disability’ has the same meaning as set forth in the federal ‘Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990’, 42 U.S.C. sec. 12101 et seq., and its related amendments and implementing regulations and includes a handicap as that term is defined in the federal ‘Fair Housing Act’, 42 U.S.C. sec. 3601 et seq., as amended, and 24 CFR 100.201.” Because other statutory definitions of “disability” explicitly decline to incorporate the federal definition, see Instruction F:184, the Committee has not defined this term. The court should craft an appropriate definitional instruction that incorporates the relevant language from the federal statutes and regulations.
4. Regarding the fifth element, the court should provide a supplemental instruction defining the relevant privileges set forth in state or federal law. See § 18-13-107.3(5)(d) (“‘State and federal law’ includes section 24-34-803, C.R.S., the federal laws specified in [section 18-13-107.3(5)(a)], and rules and regulations implementing those laws.”).

Therefore, rather than providing Instruction F:334, the court should draft a separate definitional instruction that derives from the federal regulations.

13:18.SP UNLAWFUL PURCHASE OR SALE OF COMMODITY METALS – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION

Evidence that metal purchased by a dealer for the purpose of recycling had a value of fifty cents per pound or greater for purposes of recycling gives rise to a permissible inference that the metal was a commodity metal.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is warranted by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-13-111(6), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:57.8 (defining “commodity metal”).
3. Although the statute speaks in terms of a rebuttable presumption, the concept should be explained as a permissible inference. See Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

13:19.INT UNLAWFUL PURCHASE OR SALE OF COMMODITY METALS – INTERROGATORY (VALUE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of unlawful purchase or sale of commodity metals, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of unlawful purchase or sale of commodity metals, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the value of the commodity metal involved five hundred dollars or more? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The prosecution has the burden to prove the value of the commodity metal involved beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

13:21.SP HAZARDOUS WASTE VIOLATIONS – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (INDICIA OF INTENT TO ABANDON A VEHICLE)

Evidence of the following gives rise to a permissible inference of an intention not to retain possession of, or assert ownership or control over, a vehicle:

The vehicle had been left for more than three days unattended and unmoved; or license plates or other identifying marks had been removed from the vehicle; or the vehicle had been damaged or was deteriorated so extensively that it had value only for junk or salvage; or the owner had been notified by a law enforcement agency to remove the vehicle and it had not been removed within twenty-four hours after notification.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

13:33.5.SP FAILURE TO RECORD CREDIT PURCHASE – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (REGISTER REQUIREMENTS)

One of the elements of the crime of failure to record credit purchase is that the defendant failed to record the purchase of a store credit, gift card, or merchandise card for resale in a lawful register that is accessible to law enforcement.

In order to qualify as lawful, the register must have been kept in a permanent, well-bound book, and it must have included the following information for each purchase: the signature of the seller; the name, address, and date of birth of the seller and his [her] driver's license number or other I.D. number from [insert other allowed form of identification pursuant to section 18-16-103, C.R.S. 2020]; the date, time, and place of the purchase; and an accurate and detailed account and description of each valuable article being purchased, including any trademark, identification number, serial number, model number, brand name, or other identifying marks on such articles and a description by weight and design of such articles.

3. The court should only give this instruction when there is a dispute regarding whether the defendant's register qualified as lawful. See § 18-13-117(1)(b) (requiring the dealer to record the purchase in a register “as described in section 18-16-105”). Additionally, if there is no dispute that the defendant's register satisfied certain requirements enumerated in the second paragraph, the court may remove the language highlighting those requirements from its instruction.

4. The Committee added this instruction in 2019 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 87, sec. 1, § 18-13-117(1)(b), 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 322, 322.

13:33.6.INT FAILURE TO RECORD CREDIT PURCHASE – INTERROGATORY (VALUE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of failure to record credit purchase, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of failure to record credit purchase, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question:

[Was the value of the store credit, gift card, or merchandise card thirty dollars or greater? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

[Was the value of store credits, gift cards, or merchandise cards purchased in one transaction thirty dollars or greater? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

The prosecution has the burden to prove the value beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

13:36.SP ABUSE OF HEALTH INSURANCE – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (REGULAR BUSINESS PRACTICE)

Evidence of the following gives rise to a permissible inference that a person was engaged in waiving the deductible or copayment as a regular business practice:

[A person provided health care and waived the deductible or copayment for more than one-fourth of his [her] patients during any calendar year [, excluding patients covered by [insert a description of the relevant exclusion from section 18-13-119(5)]]].]

[A person provided health care and advertised through newspapers, magazines, circulars, direct mail, directories, radio, television, or otherwise that he [she] would accept from any third-party payor, as payment in full for services rendered, the amount the third-party payor covers.]

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-13-119(6)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Although the statute speaks in terms of a presumption, the concept should be explained as a permissible inference. See Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

  6. the effect was to provide the insured a rebate or something of value to attract the insured to do business with the defendant and the cost of providing the rebate or thing of value was passed on to the insurer as a part of the higher fee.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of abuse of property insurance (fee inflation).

- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of illegal possession or consumption of marijuana paraphernalia by an underage person.

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:209 (defining “marijuana accessories,” which, pursuant to section 18-13-122(2)(d), C.R.S. 2020, is synonymous with “marijuana paraphernalia”); Instruction F:281.3 (defining “possession of marijuana”).
3. See Instruction H:67.4 (affirmative defense of “reporting an emergency” (illegal possession of marijuana paraphernalia by an underage person)); Instruction H:68 (affirmative defense of “medical marijuana”); see also Instruction H:32 (affirmative defense of “reporting an emergency drug or alcohol overdose event,” based on section 18-1-711(3)(h), C.R.S. 2020).
4. Although section 18-13-122(3)(c) provides that this is a strict liability offense, it also requires that the defendant “knows or reasonably should know that the drug paraphernalia could be used in circumstances in violation of the laws of this state.” The Committee expresses no opinion on how to reconcile this knowledge requirement with the provision that this is a strict liability offense.
5. Section 18-13-122(6), C.R.S. 2020, establishes an exemption for possession or consumption of marijuana in conjunction with constitutionally protected “religious purposes.” However, the provision is not explicitly applicable to the offense of possession of marijuana paraphernalia by an underage person.

ETHYL ALCOHOL OR MARIJUANA, OR ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF MARIJUANA PARAPHERNALIA, BY AN UNDERAGE PERSON – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (INFERENCES AS TO POSSESSION, CONSUMPTION, AND CONTENTS)

[Evidence that the defendant was under the age of twenty-one years and possessed or consumed ethyl alcohol or marijuana or possessed marijuana paraphernalia anywhere in this state gives rise to a permissible inference of possession or consumption.]

[Evidence that the defendant was under the age of twenty-one years and manifested any of the characteristics commonly associated with [ethyl alcohol intoxication or impairment] [marijuana impairment] while present anywhere in this state gives rise to a permissible inference of consumption.]

[Evidence of a label which identifies the contents of any bottle, can, or other container as “beer”, “ale”, “malt beverage”, “fermented malt beverage”, “malt liquor”, “wine”, “champagne”, “whiskey” or “whisky”, “gin”, “vodka”, “tequila”, “schnapps”, “brandy”, “cognac”, “liqueur”, “cordial”, “alcohol”, or “liquor” gives rise to a permissible inference that the contents of the bottle, can, or other container was composed in whole or in part of ethyl alcohol.]

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. In Fuentes-Espinoza v. People, 2017 CO 98, 408 P.3d 445, the Colorado Supreme Court deemed this statute unconstitutional because it is preempted by federal law. Therefore, the Committee removed this instruction in 2018.

3. The statute does not define the term “licensee’s principal.” In the Committee’s view, however, this term likely refers to the person for whom the defendant surety posted the bond. See People v. Joss, 534 P.2d 358, 360–61 (Colo. App. 1975) (“A bail bond surety owes the court a duty to make some effort to see that its principal complies with orders of the court . . . but the fact that a surety has made substantial efforts to locate a principal does not compel the granting of any relief.” (omission in original) (emphases added) (quoting United States v. Kelley, 38 F.R.D. 320, 322 (D. Colo. 1965))); see also Tassian v. People, 731 P.2d 672, 673 n.2 (Colo. 1987) (describing an earlier version of the statute as criminalizing the behavior of “a bail bonds licensee” (emphasis added)). 3. Section 18-13-130(1)(e)(I)–(IV), C.R.S. 2020, establishes an exception for a producer or agent where collateral security or other indemnity is pledged under specified circumstances. Because the four criteria that constitute this exception appear in subsections that are separated from the definition of the offense, the Committee has not included these criteria as negative elements required to be disproved by the prosecution. See People v. Reed, 932 P.2d 842, 844 (Colo. App. 1996) (“When an exception is included in a statutory section defining the elements of the offense, it is generally the burden of the prosecution to prove that the exception does not apply. 4. The statute also provides for culpability where, “if the [person for whom the bond was posted] fails to appear and the [defendant] surety is exonerated, [the defendant surety] fails to return the collateral to the indemnitor upon request within fourteen days after the three-year period.” § 18-13-130(1)(h), C.R.S. 2020 (emphasis added). The statute, however, does not define “the three-year period.” Arguably, this time period refers to section 16-4-110(1)(e), C.R.S. 2020, which provides that a surety shall be exonerated if “three years have elapsed from the posting of the bond.” But it is unclear how this could be reconciled with section 18-13-130(1)(h)(II), which provides that a surety is not culpable if “[t]he later of three years or, if the court grants an extension, six years[,] have elapsed from the date the bond was posted.” In essence, the statute appears to both (1) provide for culpability following the expiration of a three-year period, and (2) provide for an exemption from culpability following the expiration of that same three-year period. Accordingly, the Committee has not drafted a model instruction for this aspect of the offense.

13:65 PROHIBITED BAIL BOND ACTIVITIES (ACCEPTING ANYTHING OF VALUE AS INDEMNITOR)

The elements of the crime of prohibited bail bond activity (accepting anything of value as indemnitor) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was engaged in the business of writing bail bonds, and
4. accepted anything of value, other than the premium,
5. from a person on whose bond the defendant was indemnitor or from another on behalf of the principal,
6. and accepting the thing of value was not authorized by [insert relevant provision from title 10, C.R.S.].
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of prohibited bail bond activity (accepting anything of value as indemnitor).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of prohibited bail bond activity (accepting anything of value as indemnitor).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-13-130(1)(i), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:371 (defining “thing of value”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. The statute does not define the term “principal.” In the Committee’s view, however, this term appears to refer to the person on whose bond the defendant was indemnitor. See People v. Joss, 534 P.2d 358, 360–61 (Colo. App. 1975) (“A bail bond surety owes the court a duty to make some effort to see that its principal complies with orders of the court . . . but the fact that a surety has made substantial efforts to locate a principal does not compel the granting of any relief.” (omission in original) (emphases added) (quoting United States v. Kelley, 38 F.R.D. 320, 322 (D. Colo. 1965))). The court may wish to define the term for the jury.

13:66 PROHIBITED BAIL BOND ACTIVITIES (BLANK BAIL BONDS)

The elements of the crime of prohibited bail bond activity (blank bail bonds) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was engaged in the business of writing bail bonds, and
4. signed or countersigned blank bail bonds.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of prohibited bail bond activity (blank bail bonds).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of prohibited bail bond activity (blank bail bonds).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-13-130(1)(j), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

13:67 PROHIBITED BAIL BOND ACTIVITIES (MULTIPLE BONDS)

The elements of the crime of prohibited bail bond activity (multiple bonds) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. was engaged in the business of writing bail bonds, and
  4. had more than one bond posted at one time in one case on behalf of one person.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of prohibited bail bond activity (multiple bonds).

COMMENT

2. See also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

13:68 PROHIBITED BAIL BOND ACTIVITIES (NO RECEIPT)

The elements of the crime of prohibited bail bond activity (no receipt) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was engaged in the business of writing bail bonds, and
4. failed to issue to the person from whom collateral or security was taken a receipt that included a description of the collateral or security when it was taken into custody.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of prohibited bail bond activity (no receipt).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of prohibited bail bond activity (no receipt).

COMMENT

+ 13:69 MISUSE OF GAMETES

The elements of the crime of misuse of gametes are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a health care provider, and
4. knowingly,
5. treated or assisted in the treatment of a patient through assisted reproduction by using gametes from a donor, and
6. the patient did not expressly consent to the use of that donor's gametes.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of misuse of gametes.

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. Section 18-14-104, C.R.S. 2020, provides for liability for an owner who “violates, or causes to be violated, any of the provisions of this article.” Because the statutes in this chapter speak primarily in affirmative language, see, e.g., § 18-14-102(1), C.R.S. 2020 (providing that “[t]here shall be displayed at each hotel facility” certain signage), the Committee has crafted instructions that pertain to a defendant who “fails” to comply with – or “causes to fail” to comply with – such required conduct.
2. The Committee added this chapter in 2016.

14:01 UNLAWFUL NOTICE AT A HOTEL FACILITY (FAILURE TO DISPLAY)

The elements of the crime of unlawful notice at a hotel facility (failure to display) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was an owner, agent, lessee, or manager of a hotel facility, and
4. failed to display, or caused a failure to display,
5. in a conspicuous place,
6. at the hotel facility in its office or place of guest registration,
7. a sign which included, in letters and figures of the same size and prominence, the following information: the number of apartments, rooms, or units in the hotel facility and the rates charged for each; whether the rates quoted were for single or multiple occupancy where such fact affected the rates charged; and the dates during which rates were in effect.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

14:02 UNLAWFUL NOTICE AT A HOTEL FACILITY (FAILURE TO POST)

The elements of the crime of unlawful notice at a hotel facility (failure to post) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was an owner, agent, lessee, or manager of a hotel facility, and
4. failed to post, or caused a failure to post,
5. in a plainly legible fashion,
6. in a conspicuous place,
7. in, or at, each room, unit, and apartment of the hotel facility,
8. a sign showing: the maximum amount charged for occupancy and the maximum amount per person if the rate varied with the number of occupants; the amount charged for extra conveniences, more complete accommodations, or additional furnishings; and the dates during the year when such charges prevailed.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful notice at a hotel facility (failure to post).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful notice at a hotel facility (failure to post).

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was an owner, agent, lessee, or manager of a hotel facility, and
4. displayed or caused to be displayed,
5. a sign which could have been seen from a public highway or street, and which included in dollars and cents a statement relating to the rates charged at a hotel facility, and
6. accommodations were not available at the rates quoted at all times such sign was posted.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful notice at a hotel facility (signage with unavailable rate).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful notice at a hotel facility (signage with unavailable rate).

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. was an owner, agent, lessee, or manager of a hotel facility, and
  4. published or caused to be published,
  5. an advertisement which included in dollars and cents a statement relating to rates charged at a hotel facility, and
  6. such advertisement did not include in letters or figures of similar size and prominence: the number of apartments or rooms in said hotel facility at the published rates; whether the rates quoted were for single or multiple occupancy where such fact affected the rates charged; the dates during which such rates were in effect; and an indication as to whether there were other rates in effect in said hotel facility, and
  7. the advertisement was not an advertisement or listing in a guide or directory which was published by a nonprofit hotel, motel, motor court, or apartment organization or similar association.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. The Committee added this chapter in 2016.

15:01 EXTORTIONATE EXTENSION OF CREDIT

The elements of the crime of extortionate extension of credit are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. made an extension of credit in any amount regardless of the loan finance charge, and
  4. it was the understanding of the defendant and the debtor at the time the extension of credit was made that delay in making repayment or failure to make repayment would result in the use of extortionate means of collection.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of extortionate extension of credit.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of extortionate extension of credit.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-15-102, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:57.2 (defining "collect"); Instruction F:89.7 (defining "debtor"); Instruction F:135.5 (defining "extend credit"); Instruction F:136.5 (defining "extortionate means"); Instruction F:199.2 (defining "loan finance charge"); Instruction F:311.7 (defining "repayment"); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 ("Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. For the third element, the Committee has included the language that reads “in any amount regardless of the loan finance charge” because it appears in the statute. See § 18-15-102. The Committee notes, however, that this language is arguably superfluous, as to prove this element, the prosecution need only prove that the defendant “made an extension of credit.” Rather, this language presumably clarifies that a defendant may not claim as an affirmative defense that the extension of credit was de minimis.

15:02.SP EXTORTIONATE EXTENSION OF CREDIT – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (INFERENCE THAT CREDIT IS EXTORTIONATE)

Evidence of all of the following gives rise to a permissible inference that an extension of credit was extortionate:

1. the extension of credit was made with a loan finance charge in excess of that established for criminal usury,
2. at the time credit was extended, the debtor reasonably believed that one or more extensions of credit by the defendant had been collected or attempted to be collected by extortionate means or the nonrepayment thereof had been punished by extortionate means, and
3. upon the making of the extension of credit, the total of the extensions of credit by the defendant to the debtor then outstanding, including any unpaid interest or similar charges, exceeded one hundred dollars.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is warranted by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-15-103(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:57.2 (defining “collect”); Instruction F:78.5 (defining “creditor”); Instruction F:89.7 (defining “debtor”); Instruction F:135.5 (defining “extend credit”); Instruction F:136.5 (defining “extortionate means"); Instruction F:199.2 (defining "loan finance charge"); Instruction 15:03 (criminal usury).

3. Although the statute speaks in terms of a presumption, the concept should be explained as a permissible inference. See Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

4. See also § 18-15-103(4), C.R.S. 2020 ("Whether evidence introduced under [section 18-15-103(2)] giving rise to the presumption that the extension of credit was extortionate is sufficient to establish the guilt of the defendant beyond a reasonable doubt, if such evidence is not disputed, is a question to be determined by the jury under proper instructions or by the court if no jury trial is had. Where there is evidence tending to show the innocence of the transaction, the issue of whether the extension of credit was extortionate shall be submitted to the jury, if trial is to a jury, unless the court is satisfied that the evidence as a whole clearly negates the presumed offense.").

15:03 CRIMINAL USURY

The elements of the crime of usury are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. charged, took, or received any money or other property as a loan finance charge,
5. where the charge exceeded an annual percentage rate of forty-five percent or the equivalent for a longer or shorter period.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of usury.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of usury.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-15-104(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:199.2 (defining “loan finance charge”).
3. See Instruction H:67.6 (affirmative defense of “rate not excessive”).

4. Section 18-15-104(4), C.R.S. 2020, includes exemptions for several types of lending practices. However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

15:04 FINANCING EXTORTIONATE EXTENSIONS OF CREDIT

The elements of the crime of financing an extortionate extension of credit are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. advanced money or property, whether as a gift, a loan, or an investment,
5. pursuant to a partnership or profit-sharing agreement, or otherwise,
6. to any person, with reasonable grounds to believe that it was the intention of the person to whom the advance was made to use the money or property, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of making an extortionate extension of credit.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of financing an extortionate extension of credit.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of financing an extortionate extension of credit.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-15-105, C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction 15:01 (extortionate extension of credit); see also Instruction 15:02.SP (extortionate extension of credit – special instruction (inference that credit is extortionate)).

3. The Committee has included the fifth element because its language appears in the statute. See § 18-15-105. The Committee notes, however, that the phrase “or otherwise” arguably renders the entire element superfluous, as the prosecution will never need to introduce evidence to prove this element. Similarly, the phrase “directly or indirectly” in the sixth element is arguably superfluous. Rather, these phrases presumably prevent a defendant from raising certain arguments as affirmative defenses (i.e., that the defendant was not acting pursuant to a profit-sharing agreement, or that the recipient of the advance intended to use the money only indirectly).

15:05 FINANCING CRIMINAL USURY

The elements of the crime of financing usury are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. advanced money or property, whether as a gift, a loan, or an investment,
5. pursuant to a partnership or profit-sharing agreement, or otherwise,
6. to any person, with reasonable grounds to believe that it was the intention of the person to whom the advance was made to use the money or property, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of engaging in criminal usury.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of financing usury.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of financing usury.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-15-106, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction 15:03 (criminal usury).

3. The Committee has included the fifth element because its language appears in the statute. See § 18-15-106. The Committee notes, however, that the phrase “or otherwise” arguably renders the entire element superfluous, as the prosecution will never need to introduce evidence to prove this element. Rather, these phrases presumably prevent a defendant from raising certain arguments as affirmative defenses (i.e., that the defendant was not acting pursuant to a profit-sharing agreement, or that the recipient of the advance intended to use the money only indirectly).

15:06 COLLECTION OF EXTENSIONS OF CREDIT BY EXTORTIONATE MEANS

The elements of the crime of collection of extensions of credit by extortionate means are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. participated in any way, or conspired to do so,
5. in the use of any extortionate means to collect or to attempt to collect any extension of credit or to punish any person for the nonrepayment of any extension of credit.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of collection of extensions of credit by extortionate means.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of collection of extensions of credit by extortionate means.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-15-107(1), (2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:57.2 (defining "collect"); Instruction F:135.5 (defining "extend credit"); Instruction F:136.5 (defining "extortionate means"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); Instruction G2:05 (conspiracy).

3. It may be appropriate for the court to draft a limiting instruction where evidence is admitted pursuant to section 18-15-107(3), C.R.S. 2020 ("In any prosecution under this section for the purpose of showing an implicit threat as a means of collection, evidence may be introduced tending to show that one or more extensions of credit by the creditor were, to the knowledge of the person against whom the implicit threat was alleged to have been made, collected or attempted to be collected by extortionate means or that the nonrepayment of an extension of credit was punished by extortionate means."); see also Instruction D:02 (evidence limited as to purpose).

4. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word "attempt" in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

- [4. possessed or concealed such instruments with intent to aid, assist, or facilitate criminal usury.]
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction 15:03 (criminal usury).

3. The statute includes an exemption from criminal liability for possession of documents in conjunction with legal representation or judicial proceedings. See § 18-15-108(2), C.R.S. 2020. However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of collection of a prohibited fee by a loan finder.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of collection of a prohibited fee by a loan finder.

- 16:10 GIVING FALSE INFORMATION WITH RESPECT TO THE PURCHASE OF A VALUABLE ARTICLE

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. Each of the offenses in this chapter derives its criminal character from section 18-16-108, C.R.S. 2020, which provides as follows: "Any person who violates any of the provisions of [Article 16] commits a class 6 felony. Any person who knowingly gives false information with respect to the information required by sections 18-16-103 and 18-16-105 commits a class 6 felony." In Exotic Coins, Inc. v. Beacom, 699 P.2d 930, 947-48 (Colo. 1985), the supreme court held that the mens rea of "knowingly" applies to both sentences of section 18-16-108 (i.e., to every offense defined in Article 16). Therefore, the Committee has used a mens rea of “knowingly” for every instruction in this chapter.

2. Section 18-16-109, C.R.S. 2020, provides for exemptions from criminal liability for certain transactions by private collectors and certain purchases made exclusively in interstate commerce. However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

3. The Committee added this chapter in 2016.

16:01 FAILURE TO IDENTIFY SELLER OF A VALUABLE ARTICLE

The elements of the crime of failure to identify seller of a valuable article are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. was a purchaser, and
5. purchased a valuable article,
6. without first securing at least one of the following types of identification from the seller: a valid Colorado driver's license; an identification card issued by the Colorado Department of Revenue; a valid driver's license, containing a picture, issued by another state; a military identification card; a valid passport; an alien registration card; or a nonpicture identification document issued by a state or federal government entity where the defendant also obtained a clear imprint of the seller's right index finger.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure to identify seller of a valuable article.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure to identify seller of a valuable article.

  5. purchased a valuable article from a person under the age of eighteen years.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find

- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

3. In Exotic Coins, Inc. v. Beacom, 699 P.2d 930, 946 (Colo. 1985), the supreme court held that the word “bullion” was not unconstitutionally vague based on the following dictionary definition: “Gold or silver, considered merely as so much metal without regard to any value imparted by its form . . . specif., uncoined gold or silver, in the shape of bars, ingots, or the like” (alteration in original) (quoting Merriam Webster’s New International Dictionary (2d ed. 1959)). Likewise, the court held that the term “assayed” was sufficiently definite, citing the same dictionary: “To assay is to examine to determine the metal’s weight, measure, quality or other properties.” Id.

16:07 IMPROPER TRANSFER OF BULLION OR COINS

The elements of the crime of improper transfer of bullion or coins are:

- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

16:08 FAILURE TO FILE REQUIRED REPORT OF PURCHASES OF VALUABLE ARTICLES (LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY)

16:09 FAILURE TO FILE REQUIRED REPORT OF PURCHASES OF VALUABLE ARTICLES (SELLER'S LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY)

The elements of the crime of failure to file required report of purchases of valuable articles (seller's law enforcement agency) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. was a purchaser of valuable articles, and
- [5. failed to forward to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction in the area where the seller resides, on a weekly basis, two records, on a form provided by the purchaser's local law enforcement agency, of all valuable articles purchased during the preceding week.]
- [5. forwarded to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction in the area where the seller resides a form that failed to include [insert information required to be recorded in the purchaser's register pursuant to section 18-16-105, C.R.S. 2020], a physical description of the seller, or the dollar amount of the purchase.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure to file required report of purchases of valuable articles (seller's law enforcement agency).

COMMENT

1. See §§ 18-16-107(2), 18-16-108, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:199.7 (defining “local law enforcement agency” (purchases of valuable articles)); Instruction F:306.7 (defining “purchase”); Instruction F:306.8 (defining “purchaser”); Instruction F:330.5 (defining “seller”); Instruction F:385.3 (defining “valuable article”).
3. Section 18-16-107(1) details certain reporting requirements for purchasers to their “local law enforcement agency.” See Instruction 16:08. That local law enforcement agency is defined by statute as “any marshal’s office, police department, or sheriff’s office with jurisdiction in the locality in which the purchaser makes the purchase” (emphasis added). In addition, section 18-16-107(2) provides that “[a] copy of such record and the seller’s declaration of ownership shall also be forwarded to the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction in the area where the seller resides” (emphasis added). Thus, where subsection (1) requires the purchaser to file a particular form with his own (i.e., local) law enforcement agency, subsection (2) requires him to forward that form to the seller’s agency. Therefore, this instruction mirrors the prior instruction, except that it removes the word “local” before the phrase “law enforcement agency,” as this crime involves failure to properly report to the seller’s agency. Note, however, that the first bracketed alternative in the fifth element still contains the phrase “local law enforcement agency” because the purchaser obtains the form from his own agency rather than the seller’s.

16:10 GIVING FALSE INFORMATION WITH RESPECT TO THE PURCHASE OF A VALUABLE ARTICLE

The elements of the crime of giving false information with respect to the purchase of a valuable article are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. gave false information with respect to [insert description of the relevant information required by section 18-16-103 or section 18-16-105, C.R.S. 2020].
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of giving false information with respect to the purchase of a valuable article.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure to file required reports giving false information with respect to the purchase of a valuable article.

ENTERPRISE)
- 17:04.INT COLORADO ORGANIZED CRIME CONTROL ACT –
INTERROGATORY (TREBLE FINE)

17:01 COLORADO ORGANIZED CRIME CONTROL ACT (USE OF PROCEEDS)

The elements of the crime of use of proceeds derived from a pattern of racketeering activity or the collection of an unlawful debt are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. received any proceeds derived, directly or indirectly, from a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt, and
  5. used or invested, whether directly or indirectly, any part of such proceeds or the proceeds derived from the investment or use thereof in the acquisition of any title to, or any right, interest, or equity in, real property or in the establishment or operation of any enterprise.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of use of proceeds from derived from a pattern of racketeering activity or the collection of an unlawful debt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of use of proceeds derived from a pattern of racketeering activity or the collection of an unlawful debt.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-17-104(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:125 (defining “enterprise”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:261 (defining “pattern of racketeering activity”); Instruction F:307 (defining “racketeering activity”); Instruction F:380 (defining “unlawful debt”).
3. Section 18-17-104(4) makes it unlawful to “conspire” to violate section 18-17-104(1). See Instruction G2:05 (conspiracy). Section 18-17-104(4) also makes it unlawful to “endeavor” to violate section 18-17-104(1), and a division of the court of appeals has equated an “endeavor” with an “attempt.” See New Crawford Valley, Ltd. v. Benedict, 877 P.2d 1363, 1373 (Colo. App. 1993); see also Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt).

Thus, there may be cases in which a defendant who is charged with conspiring to violate, conspiring to attempt to violate, or attempting to violate section 18-17-104(1) is not also separately charged with conspiracy, in violation of section 18-2-201, or attempt, in violation of section 18-2-101. In such circumstances, give the jury the elemental instruction for conspiracy and/or attempt (but without the two concluding paragraphs that explain the burden of proof). Place the elemental instruction(s) for conspiracy and/or attempt immediately after the above instruction (or as close to it as practicable). In addition, provide the jury with instructions defining the relevant terms for conspiracy and/or attempt.

4. Section 18-17-104(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020, includes an exemption from criminal liability for certain types of securities purchases. However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.

17:02 COLORADO ORGANIZED CRIME CONTROL ACT (ACQUIRING AN INTEREST)

The elements of the crime of acquiring an interest through a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. through a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt,
5. acquired or maintained, directly or indirectly, any interest in or control of any enterprise or real property.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of acquiring an interest through a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of acquiring an interest through a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-17-104(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:125 (defining “enterprise”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:261 (defining “pattern of racketeering activity”); Instruction F:307 (defining “racketeering activity”); Instruction F:380 (defining “unlawful debt”).

3. Section 18-17-104(4) makes it unlawful to “conspire” to violate section 18-17-104(2). See Instruction G2:05 (conspiracy). Section 18-17-104(4) also makes it unlawful to “endeavor” to violate section 18-17-104(2), and a division of the court of appeals has equated an “endeavor” with an “attempt.” See New Crawford Valley, Ltd. v. Benedict, 877 P.2d 1363, 1373 (Colo. App. 1993); see also Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt).

17:03 COLORADO ORGANIZED CRIME CONTROL ACT (EMPLOYED BY, OR ASSOCIATED WITH, AN ENTERPRISE)

The elements of the crime of a pattern of racketeering activity or collection of an unlawful debt (employed by, or associated with, an enterprise) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. knowingly,
  4. was employed by, or associated with, any enterprise, and
  5. conducted or participated, directly or indirectly, in such enterprise through a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of a pattern of racketeering activity or the collection of an unlawful debt (employed by, or associated with, an enterprise).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt (employed by, or associated with, an enterprise).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-17-104(3), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:125 (defining “enterprise”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:261 (defining “pattern of racketeering activity”); Instruction F:307 (defining “racketeering activity”); Instruction F:380 (defining “unlawful debt”).

3. Section 18-17-104(4) makes it unlawful to “conspire” to violate section 18-17-104(3). See Instruction G2:05 (conspiracy). Section 18-17-104(4) also makes it unlawful to “endeavor” to violate section 18-17-104(3), and a division of the court of appeals has equated an “endeavor” with an “attempt.” See New Crawford Valley, Ltd. v. Benedict, 877 P.2d 1363, 1373 (Colo. App. 1993); see also Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt).

17:04.INT COLORADO ORGANIZED CRIME CONTROL ACT – INTERROGATORY (TREBLE FINE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of [use of proceeds derived from a pattern of racketeering activity or the collection of an unlawful debt] [acquiring an interest through a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt] [pattern of racketeering activity or the collection of an unlawful debt (employed by, or associated with, an enterprise)], you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of [use of proceeds derived from a pattern of racketeering activity or the collection of an unlawful debt] [acquiring an interest through a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt] [pattern of racketeering activity or the collection of an unlawful debt (employed by, or associated with, an enterprise)], you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question:

Was the gain or loss extraordinarily large? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The gain or loss was extraordinarily large only if:

1. the defendant, through commission of [use of proceeds derived from a pattern of racketeering activity or the collection of an unlawful debt] [acquiring an interest through a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt] [pattern of racketeering activity or the collection of an unlawful debt (employed by, or associated with, an enterprise)], derived pecuniary value, or caused personal injury or property damage or other loss, with a gross value gained, or a gross value of loss caused, that was [equal to] [at least] [insert an amount that is greater than $333,333].

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-17-105(2), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:266 (defining “pecuniary value”); see, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. Section 18-17-105(2), C.R.S. 2020, authorizes a court to impose a fine equal to three times the gross amount of the gain or loss that the defendant caused (plus court costs, and the costs of investigation and prosecution), and section 18-17-105(3), states that the court “shall hold a hearing to determine the amount of the fine.” However, in cases where there is the potential for the trebled amount to exceed the maximum authorized fine, see § 18-1.3-401(1)(a)(III)(A), C.R.S. 2020 (the maximum fine for a class two felony conviction is one million dollars), the issue should be submitted to the jury. See S. Union Co. v. United States, 567 U.S. 132 (2012) (fines implicate the Sixth Amendment right to a jury trial and are thus subject to the rule of Apprendi v. New Jersey, 530 U.S. 466 (2000)).

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. See § 18-18-431, C.R.S. 2020 (“The common law defense known as the ‘procuring agent defense’ is not a defense to any crime in this title.”); see also People v. Farris, 812 P.2d 654, 656 (Colo. App. 1991) (tracing the demise of the “procuring agent defense” prior to the enactment, in 1992, of section 18-18-431).

2. Section 18-18-302(2), (3)(a)-(c), C.R.S. 2020, exempts from criminal liability persons who are “registered by the board” as manufacturers or distributors of controlled substances, and it identifies other persons who are exempt from criminal liability without being subject to the registration requirement (such as persons possessing a controlled substance pursuant to a lawful order of a practitioner). However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions for these exemptions.

18:01 UNLAWFUL POSSESSION OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE

The elements of the crime of unlawful possession of a controlled substance are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. possessed a controlled substance.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful possession of a controlled substance.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful possession of a controlled substance.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-18-403.5(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:73 (defining “controlled substance” by referring users to the statutory schedules referenced in section § 18-18-102(5), C.R.S. 2020); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:281 (defining “possession”).
3. See Instruction H:32 (affirmative defense of “reporting an emergency drug or alcohol overdose event”).

4. Section 18-18-428(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020, establishes an exemption from criminal liability for “any minuscule, residual controlled substance that may be present in a used hypodermic needle or syringe” if the location of the needle or syringe is disclosed in specified circumstances.

5. In 2015, the Committee added Comment 4. See Ch. 76, sec. 1, § 18-18-428(1)(b), 2015 Colo. Sess. Laws 200, 200-01.

6. In 2019, the Committee corrected the statutory citation in Comment 1.

18:02.INT UNLAWFUL POSSESSION OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE – INTERROGATORY (SPECIFIED SUBSTANCE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of unlawful possession of a controlled substance, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of unlawful possession of a controlled substance, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant unlawfully possess [insert “flunitrazepam,” “ketamine,” “gamma hydroxybutyrate, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers,” “cathinones,” or “more than four grams of a controlled substance listed in schedule I or II”]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant unlawfully possessed [insert “flunitrazepam,” “gamma hydroxybutyrate, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers,” “ketamine,” “cathinones,” or “more than four grams of a controlled substance listed in schedule I or II”] only if:

1. the controlled substance unlawfully possessed by the defendant was any material, compound, mixture, or preparation that contained any quantity of [insert “flunitrazepam,” “ketamine,” “gamma hydroxybutyrate, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers,” “cathinones,” or “more than four grams of a controlled substance listed in schedule I or II”].

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-18-403.5(2)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. In 2019, pursuant to a legislative amendment, the Committee added the phrase “gamma hydroxybutyrate, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers,” throughout this instruction; it also changed the phrase “a controlled substance listed in schedule I or II” to “more than four grams of a controlled substance listed in schedule I or II” throughout the instruction. See Ch. 291, sec. 1, § 18-18-403.5(2)(a), 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 2676, 2676.

Additionally, the Committee notes that these changes go into effect on March 1, 2020. See id.

18:03.INT UNLAWFUL POSSESSION OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE – INTERROGATORY (OTHER SPECIFIED SUBSTANCES)

If you find the defendant not guilty of unlawful possession of a controlled substance, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of unlawful possession of a controlled substance, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Did the defendant unlawfully possess [not more than four grams of a controlled substance listed in schedule I or II] [a controlled substance listed in schedule III, IV, or V, except flunitrazepam, gamma hydroxybutyrate, or ketamine]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant unlawfully possessed [not more than four grams of a controlled substance listed in schedule I or II] [a controlled substance listed in schedule III, IV, or V, except flunitrazepam, gamma hydroxybutyrate, or ketamine] only if:

1. the controlled substance unlawfully possessed by the defendant was any material, compound, mixture, or preparation that contained [not more than four grams of a controlled substance listed in schedule I or II] [any quantity of a controlled substance listed in schedule III, IV, or V, except flunitrazepam, gamma hydroxybutyrate, or ketamine].

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-18-403.5(2)(c), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. In 2019, pursuant to a legislative amendment, the Committee added the first bracketed alternative throughout this instruction, and it added “gamma hydroxybutyrate” to the excepting language in the second bracketed alternative. See Ch. 291, sec. 1, § 18-18-403.5(2)(c), 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 2676, 2676.

Additionally, the Committee notes that these changes go into effect on March 1, 2020. See id.

18:04 UNLAWFUL USE OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE

The elements of the crime of unlawful use of a controlled substance are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. used any controlled substance, and
4. the controlled substance was not dispensed by or under the direction of a person licensed or authorized by law to prescribe, administer, or dispense the controlled substance for bona fide medical needs.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful use of a controlled substance.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful use of a controlled substance.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-18-404(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:09 (defining "administer"); Instruction F:73 (defining "controlled substance" by referring users to the statutory schedules referenced in section § 18-18-102(5), C.R.S. 2020); Instruction F:100 (defining "dispense"); Instruction F:268 (defining "person").

3. See Instruction H:32 (affirmative defense of “reporting an emergency drug or alcohol overdose event”).

18:05 UNLAWFUL DISTRIBUTION, MANUFACTURING, DISPENSING, OR SALE

The elements of the crime of unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale are:

1. That the defendant,

The acts chosen for specific inclusion are not themselves mutually exclusive but overlap in various ways and cover a continuum of conduct from the production of a controlled substance to its delivery to another person, under any of a number of circumstances.”).
4. Section 18-18-405(1) excepts from criminal liability acts “authorized by part 1 of article 280 of title 12 [(pharmacists, pharmacy businesses, and pharmaceuticals)], part 2 of article 80 of title 27 [(alcohol and drug abuse treatment programs)], or part 2 or 3 of this article 18 [(standards, schedules, and regulation)].” However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.
5. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

18:06.INT UNLAWFUL DISTRIBUTION, MANUFACTURING, DISPENSING, OR SALE – INTERROGATORY (QUANTITY OF A SCHEDULE I OR II CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE)

If you find the defendant not guilty of unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form. [Although you may answer “No” to more than one question, you may not answer “Yes” to more than one question. Further, if you answer “Yes” to any question, you should not answer the other question[s].]

- [_ . Did the unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale involve any material, compound, mixture, or preparation that weighed more than two hundred twenty-five grams and contained a schedule I or schedule II controlled substance? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

- [_ . Did the unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale involve any material, compound, mixture, or preparation that weighed more than fourteen grams, but not more than two hundred twenty-five grams, and contained a schedule I or schedule II controlled substance? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

- [_ . Did the unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale involve any material, compound, mixture, or preparation that weighed not more than fourteen grams and contained a schedule I or schedule II controlled substance? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

The prosecution has the burden to prove the amount of the schedule I or schedule II controlled substance beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-18-405(2)(a)(I)(A), (b)(I)(A), (c)(I), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. It may be necessary to modify the model interrogatory in light of the rule of aggregation established by section 18-18-405(5), C.R.S. 2020 (“When a person commits unlawful distribution, manufacture, dispensing, sale, or possession with intent to manufacture, dispense, sell, or distribute any schedule I or schedule II controlled substance, as listed in section 18-18-203 or 18-18-204, flunitrazepam, ketamine, or cathinones, or conspires with one or more persons to commit the offense, pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, twice or more within a period of six months, without having been placed in jeopardy for the prior offense or offenses, the aggregate amount of the schedule I or schedule II controlled substance, flunitrazepam, ketamine, or cathinones involved may be used to determine the level of drug offense.”). However, note that this rule of aggregation relates only to sentence enhancement; it does not authorize, or require, the aggregation of multiple acts in a single count. See, e.g., § 18-4-401(4)(a), (b), C.R.S. 2020 (aggregation and charging of multiple thefts “in a single count”); Instructions 4-4:14, 4-4:15. Therefore, do not modify the model elemental instruction defining the substantive offense.
4. In cases where the amount of the controlled substance is a disputed issue, one or both of the parties may assert that there is an evidentiary basis for submitting more than one quantity question as part of the interrogatory. Accordingly, the above interrogatory includes bracketed examples for lesser quantity questions.

5. Where more than one quantity question is included as part of the interrogatory, use a special verdict form with a corresponding format that repeats the admonition that the jury cannot answer “Yes” to more than one quantity question.

For example, in a case involving an interrogatory with three quantity questions (and no separate interrogatories asking about other sentence enhancement factors), the relevant portion of the special verdict form would read as follows:

I. We, the jury, find the defendant, [insert name], NOT GUILTY of Count No. [ ], unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale.

FOREPERSON*

II. We, the jury, find the defendant, [insert name], GUILTY of Count No. [ ], unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale.

FOREPERSON*

We further find, with respect to the verdict question[s] for this count, as follows:

**1. Did the distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale involve any material, compound, mixture, or preparation that weighed more than two hundred twenty-five grams and contained a schedule I or schedule II controlled substance?

Yes       No

**2. Did the distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale involve any material, compound, mixture, or preparation that weighed more than fourteen grams, but not more than two hundred twenty-five grams, and contained a schedule I or schedule II controlled substance]?

Yes             No

- **3. Did the distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale involve any material, compound, mixture, or preparation that weighed fourteen grams or less and contained a schedule I or schedule II controlled substance]?

Yes             No

FOREPERSON*

* The foreperson should use ink to sign on one of the two lines indicating a verdict of "not guilty" or "guilty." If the verdict is "guilty," the foreperson should use ink to mark the appropriate space(s) indicating the answer(s) to the verdict question(s), and then sign on the line following the verdict question[s].

** Although you may answer "No" to more than one question, you may not answer "Yes" to more than one question. Further, if you answer "Yes" to any question, you should not answer the other question[s].

6. In 2015, the Committee appended "Answer 'Yes' or 'No'" parentheticals to each interrogatory.

18:07.INT UNLAWFUL DISTRIBUTION, MANUFACTURING, DISPENSING, OR SALE – INTERROGATORY (QUANTITY OF METHAMPHETAMINE, HEROIN, KETAMINE, OR CATHINONES)

If you find the defendant not guilty of unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form. [Although you may answer “No” to more than one question, you may not answer “Yes” to more than one question. Further, if you answer “Yes” to any question, you should not answer the other question[s].]

- [_]. Did the unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale involve any material, compound, mixture, or preparation that weighed more than one hundred twelve grams and contained [methamphetamine] [heroin] [ketamine] [cathinones]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

- [_]. Did the unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale involve any material, compound, mixture, or preparation that weighed more than seven grams, but not more than one hundred twelve grams, and contained [methamphetamine] [heroin] [ketamine] [cathinones]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

- [_]. Did the unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale involve any material, compound, mixture, or preparation that weighed not more than seven grams and contained [methamphetamine] [heroin] [ketamine] [cathinones]? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

The prosecution has the burden to prove the amount of the [methamphetamine] [heroin] [ketamine] [cathinones] beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

3. It may be necessary to modify the model interrogatory in light of the rule of aggregation established by section 18-18-405(5), C.R.S. 2020 (“When a person commits unlawful distribution, manufacture, dispensing, sale, or possession with intent to manufacture, dispense, sell, or distribute any schedule I or schedule II controlled substance, as listed in section 18-18-203 or 18-18-204, flunitrazepam, ketamine, or cathinones, or conspires with one or more persons to commit the offense, pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, twice or more within a period of six months, without having been placed in jeopardy for the prior offense or offenses, the aggregate amount of the schedule I or schedule II controlled substance, flunitrazepam, ketamine, or cathinones involved may be used to determine the level of drug offense.”). However, note that this rule of aggregation relates only to sentence enhancement; it does not authorize, or require, the aggregation of multiple acts in a single count. See, e.g., § 18-4-401(4)(a), (b), C.R.S. 2020 (aggregation and charging of multiple thefts “in a single count”); Instructions 4-4:14, 4-4:15. question as part of the interrogatory. Accordingly, the above interrogatory includes bracketed examples for lesser quantity questions.

5. Where more than one quantity question is included as part of the interrogatory, use a special verdict form with a corresponding format that repeats the admonition that the jury cannot answer “Yes” to more than one quantity question. See Instruction 18:06.INT, Comment 5.

6. The Committee has not drafted a model instruction defining “cathinones” because the statutory definition is lengthy. See § 18-18-102(3.5), C.R.S. 2020. The court should draft a special instruction based on the relevant portion(s) of the statutory definition.

18:08.INT UNLAWFUL DISTRIBUTION, MANUFACTURING,
DISPENSING, OR SALE – INTERROGATORY
(CONTEMPORANEOUS CONSUMPTION)

If you find the defendant not guilty of unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of unlawful distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale, and you further find that the distribution, manufacturing, dispensing, or sale was of any material, compound, mixture, or preparation that weighed [not more than fourteen grams and contained a schedule I or schedule II controlled substance] [not more than seven grams and contained [methamphetamine] [heroin] [ketamine] [cathinones]] you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form.

- [_]. Did the defendant distribute or transfer not more than four grams of a schedule I or II controlled substance for the purpose of consuming all of the controlled substance with another person or persons at a time substantially contemporaneous with the transfer? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

- [_]. Did the defendant distribute or transfer not more than two grams of [methamphetamine] [heroin] [ketamine] [cathinones] for the purpose of consuming all of the [methamphetamine] [heroin] [ketamine] [cathinones] with another person or persons at a time substantially contemporaneous with the transfer? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

The prosecution has the burden to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, either that the transfer was of [more than four grams of a schedule I or II controlled substance] [more than two grams of [methamphetamine] [heroin] [ketamine] [cathinones]], or that the transfer was not for the purpose of consuming all of the controlled substance with another person or persons at a time substantially contemporaneous with the transfer.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

  5. to a minor who was at least two years younger than the defendant.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of selling, transferring, or dispensing marijuana to a minor (more than six ounces, but not more than two and one-half pounds of marijuana, or more than three ounces, but not more than one pound of marijuana concentrate).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of selling, transferring, or dispensing marijuana to a minor (more than six ounces, but not more than two and one-half pounds of marijuana, or more than three ounces, but not more than one pound of marijuana concentrate).

18:20.INT DISPENSING, SELLING, DISTRIBUTING, OR MANUFACTURING MARIJUANA OR MARIJUANA CONCENTRATE – INTERROGATORY (SPECIFIED QUANTITY)

If you find the defendant not guilty of dispensing, selling, distributing, or manufacturing marijuana or marijuana concentrate, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of dispensing, selling, distributing, or manufacturing marijuana or marijuana concentrate, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form. [Although you may answer “No” to more than one question, you may not answer “Yes” to more than one question. Further, if you answer “Yes” to any question, you should not answer the other question[s].]

- [_ . Did the unlawful dispensing, selling, distributing, or manufacturing involve more than fifty pounds of marijuana or more than twenty-five pounds of marijuana concentrate? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

- [_ . Did the unlawful dispensing, selling, distributing, or manufacturing involve more than five pounds but not more than fifty pounds of marijuana or more than two and one-half pounds but not more than twenty-five pounds of marijuana concentrate? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

- [_ . Did the unlawful dispensing, selling, distributing, or manufacturing involve more than twelve ounces but not more than five pounds of marijuana or more than six ounces but not more than two and one-half pounds of marijuana concentrate? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

- [_ . Did the unlawful dispensing, selling, distributing, or manufacturing involve more than four ounces but not more than twelve ounces of marijuana, or more than two ounces but not more than six ounces of marijuana concentrate?

(Answer “Yes” or “No”)]

The prosecution has the burden to prove the amount of the marijuana or marijuana concentrate beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

1. See § 18-18-406(2)(b)(III)(A)-(D), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).
3. In cases where the amount of marijuana or marijuana concentrate is a disputed issue, one or both of the parties may assert that there is an evidentiary basis for submitting more than one quantity question as part of the interrogatory. Accordingly, the above interrogatory includes bracketed examples for lesser quantity questions.
4. Where more than one quantity question is included as part of the interrogatory, use a special verdict form with a corresponding format that repeats the admonition that the jury cannot answer “Yes” to more than one quantity question.

For example, in a case involving an interrogatory with three quantity questions (and no separate interrogatories asking about other sentence enhancement factors), the relevant portion of the special verdict form would read as follows:

I. We, the jury, find the defendant, [insert name], NOT GUILTY of Count No. [ ], dispensing, selling, distributing, or manufacturing marijuana or marijuana concentrate.

FOREPERSON*

II. We, the jury, find the defendant, [insert name], GUILTY of Count No. [ ], dispensing, selling, distributing, or manufacturing marijuana or marijuana concentrate.

FOREPERSON*

We further find, with respect to the verdict question[s] for this count, as follows:

**1. Did the dispensing, selling, distributing, or manufacturing involve more than fifty pounds of marijuana or more than twenty-five pounds of marijuana concentrate?

Yes       No

**2. Did the dispensing, selling, distributing, or manufacturing involve more than five pounds but not more than fifty pounds of marijuana, or more than two and one-half pounds but not more than twenty-five pounds of marijuana concentrate?

Yes       No

**3. Did the dispensing, selling, distributing, or manufacturing involve more than twelve ounces but not more than five pounds of marijuana or more than six ounces but not more than two and one-half pounds of marijuana concentrate?

Yes       No

FOREPERSON*

* The foreperson should use ink to sign on one of the two lines indicating a verdict of “not guilty” or “guilty.” If the verdict is “guilty,” the foreperson should use ink to mark the appropriate space indicating the answer to the verdict question, and then sign on the line following the verdict question[s].

** Although you may answer “No” to more than one question, you may not answer “Yes” to more than one question. Further, if you answer “Yes” to any question, you should not answer the other question[s].

5. In 2015, the Committee appended “Answer ‘Yes’ or ‘No’” parentheticals to each interrogatory.

18:21 CULTIVATING OR GROWING MARIJUANA

The elements of the crime of cultivating or growing marijuana are:

3. knowingly,
4. cultivated, grew, or produced a marijuana plant or allowed a marijuana plant to be cultivated, grown, or produced on land that he [she] owned, occupied, or controlled.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of cultivating or growing marijuana.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of cultivating or growing marijuana.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of cultivating or growing marijuana (more than twelve plants).

Regarding these affirmative defenses, section 18-18-406(3)(a)(II)(A) provides that the behavior proscribed by this statute is unlawful “[r]egardless of whether the plants are for medical or recreational use.” The Committee expresses no opinion on any potential conflict between this statute and the affirmative defenses authorized under the state constitution.

4. Section 18-18-406(3)(a)(II)(B) provides an exemption where “a county, municipality, or city and county law expressly permits” such cultivation “in an enclosed and locked space and within the limit set by the county, municipality, or city and county where the plants are located.” However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of cultivating or growing marijuana (more than twelve plants), you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form.

1. Did the unlawful cultivating or growing of marijuana involve more than twenty-four plants? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The prosecution has the burden to prove the number of plants beyond a reasonable doubt.

3. The statute only provides for sentence enhancement for “a second or subsequent offense.” Therefore, the court should only provide this interrogatory if it finds, as a matter of fact, that the defendant was previously convicted of this offense. Cf. People v. Nunn, 148 P.3d 222, 228 (Colo. App. 2006) (holding that, under the prior conviction exception to the rule of *Apprendi v. 2. See Instruction F:208 (defining "marijuana"); Instruction F:210 (defining "marijuana concentrate"); Instruction F:281 (defining "possession"); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 ("Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. See Instruction H:32 (affirmative defense of “reporting an emergency drug or alcohol overdose event”); Instruction H:68 (affirmative defense of “medical marijuana”); Instruction H:69 (affirmative defense of “recreational marijuana”).

4. Sections 18-18-406(6), (7), C.R.S. 2020, establish exemptions based on “group C guidelines of the national cancer institute” and “dronabinol (synthetic) in sesame oil and encapsulated in a soft gelatin capsule in a federal food and drug administration approved drug product.” However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

5. Previously, this instruction applied to possession of more than six ounces but not more than twelve ounces of marijuana, or to possession of not more than three ounces of marijuana concentrate. In 2019, the General Assembly deleted the “but not more than twelve ounces” language, and it changed “not more than three ounces of marijuana concentrate” to “more than three ounces of marijuana concentrate.” See Ch. 291, sec. 2, § 18-18-406(4)(b), 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 2676, 2677 (emphasis added). Therefore, in 2019, the Committee modified this instruction accordingly.

Additionally, the Committee notes that these modifications take effect on or after March 1, 2020. See id.

18:25 POSSESSION OF MORE THAN TWO OUNCES BUT NOT MORE THAN SIX OUNCES OF MARIJUANA OR NOT MORE THAN THREE OUNCES OF MARIJUANA CONCENTRATE

The elements of the crime of possession of more than two ounces but not more than six ounces of marijuana or not more than three ounces of marijuana concentrate are:

- [4. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of possession of more than two ounces but not more than six ounces of marijuana or not more than three ounces of marijuana concentrate.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of possession of more than two ounces but not more than six ounces of marijuana or not more than three ounces of marijuana concentrate.

4. In cases where both the defendant and the recipient were at least twenty-one years old at the time of the transfer or dispensing, the court should modify the third element as follows: “more than ounce but not more than two ounces of marijuana to another person.” See Colo. Const. Art. XVIII, § 16(3)(c) (“Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the following acts are not unlawful and shall not be an offense under Colorado law or the law of any locality within Colorado or be a basis for seizure or forfeiture of assets under Colorado law for persons twenty-one years of age or older: . . . 3. The statute includes exceptions from criminal liability. See § 18-18-406.3(7), C.R.S. 2020 (“except that the owner, officer, or employee shall release the records or information upon request by the state or local medical marijuana licensing authority. 2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); F:208 (defining “marijuana”); Instruction F:210 (defining “marijuana concentrate”).

3. Regarding the fourth element, the statute does not apply to persons who are licensed to sell marijuana either in Colorado, see Title 44, Article 10 (Colorado Marijuana Code), or in another state.
4. The statute exempts from liability primary caregivers who advertise that they are available to be primary caregivers to patients. See § 18-18-406.4(2), C.R.S.; Instruction F:259 (defining “patient”); Instruction F:285 (defining “primary care-giver”). 6. In 2019, pursuant to a legislative amendment, the Committee changed the phrase “marijuana-infused product” in the sixth element to “marijuana product,” and it modified the statutory cross-reference in Comment 3. See Ch. 315, sec. 18, § 18-18-406.4(1), 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 2823, 2938. However, the Committee notes that these legislative changes did not take affect until January 1, 2020; therefore, if the charges involve conduct occurring prior to that date, the court should use the 2018 version of this instruction, which uses the phrase “marijuana-infused product” rather than “marijuana product.”

4. to a package or receptacle containing a controlled substance.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

AN IMITATION CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE WITH INTENT TO DISTRIBUTE

The elements of the crime of manufacturing or distributing an imitation controlled substance, or possessing an imitation controlled substance with intent to distribute are:

COMMENT

1. See § 18-18-422(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:103 (defining "distribute"); Instruction F:177 (defining "imitation controlled substance," and incorporating the considerations enumerated in section 18-18-421(1)); Instruction F:207 (defining “manufacture”); Instruction F:281 (defining “possession”); Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”).

3. Section 18-18-424, C.R.S. 2020, establishes exemptions from criminal liability for persons who are licensed, registered, or otherwise authorized. However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

4. Section 18-18-421(1), C.R.S. 2020, lists five factors that the trier of fact may consider, in addition to all other relevant factors, in determining whether a substance is an imitation controlled substance. Rather than include these factors in a special instruction, the Committee has included them in Instruction F:177 (defining “imitation controlled substance”).

5. In People v. Moore, 674 P.2d 354, 358 (Colo. 1984), and People v. Pharr, 696 P.2d 235, 236 (Colo. 1984), the supreme court held, under an earlier version of the imitation controlled substances statute, that a mens rea of “knowingly” was implied. However, in People v. Taylor, 131 P.3d 1158, 1163 (Colo. App. 2005), a division of the court of appeals held that, because “the General Assembly amended the statute to eliminate any reference to express or implied representations concerning the nature of the imitation controlled substance,” there no longer is a “requirement that a defendant knowingly purport that a substance is a controlled substance.”

18:83 DISTRIBUTING AN IMITATION CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE TO A MINOR

The elements of the crime of distributing an imitation controlled substance to a minor are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was an adult, and
4. distributed an imitation controlled substance to a minor who was at least two years younger than the defendant.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of distributing an imitation controlled substance to a minor.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of distributing an imitation controlled substance to a minor.

2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. placed in a newspaper, magazine, handbill, or other publication or posted or distributed in any public place,
4. an advertisement or solicitation which he [she] knew would promote the distribution of imitation controlled substances.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of advertising an imitation controlled substance.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of advertising an imitation controlled substance.

- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. Many offenses in this chapter revolve around conduct required or prohibited by the Limited Gaming Act of 1991, §§ 44-30-101 to -1515, C.R.S. 2020 (“the Act”). Where appropriate, the court should review the pertinent provisions of the Act. It should then provide the jury with a special instruction explaining the relevant law and allowing the jury to apply that law to the facts of the case.

For example, the third element of Instruction 20:02 requires the jury to determine whether the defendant “failed to pay tax due under the Limited Gaming Act of 1991 within thirty days after the date the tax became due.” This raises a question of how tax becomes due under the Act. Therefore, the court should provide a special instruction explaining this process for the jury. See §§ 44-30-601 to -605, C.R.S. 2020. Armed with this instruction, the jury can then determine (1) whether a tax was due, and (2) whether the defendant in fact failed to pay it within the thirty-day timeframe.

2. Several offenses within this chapter provide for increased sentences where the defendant is a “repeating gambling offender,” as defined in section 18-20-102(2), C.R.S. 2020. The court should not ask the jury to make a finding regarding whether a defendant is a “repeating gambling offender.” Although COLJI-Crim. 27:13, 27:14, and 27:15 (1983) defined three separate offenses of “repeating gambling offender” based on section 18-10-102(9), C.R.S. 2020, the Committee is now of the view that the trial court should make this determination at sentencing. See People v. Nunn, 148 P.3d 222, 228 (Colo. App. 2006) (holding that, under the prior conviction exception to the rule of Apprendi v. New Jersey, 530 U.S. 466 (2000), and Blakely v. Washington, 542 U.S. 296 (2004), the defendant in habitual criminal proceedings “had no right to have a jury determine whether he was the person convicted in the prior cases”).

3. Section 18-20-115, C.R.S. 2020, provides as follows: “Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to modify, amend, or otherwise affect the validity of any provisions contained in” Chapter 10, Gambling Offenses. To the extent that this provision gives rise to any affirmative defenses, the Committee has not drafted model instructions for such defenses.

4. The Committee added this chapter in 2016.

5. In 2018, the Committee modified the statutory citations in Comment 1 to conform with a legislative reorganization. See Ch. 14, secs. 2, 4, §§ 44-30-101 to -1407, 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 167, 168, 237 (repealing and relocating the Act).

6. In 2019, the Committee modified the statutory citation in Comment 1 pursuant to new legislation. See Ch. 347, sec. 12, §§ 44-30-1501 to -1515, 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 3209, 3216–31.

20:01 FAILURE TO PAY GAMING TAX (EVASION)

The elements of the crime of failure to pay gaming tax (evasion) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. in attempting to defeat or evade a tax imposed by the Limited Gaming Act of 1991,
  4. made a false or fraudulent return.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure to pay gaming tax (evasion).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure to pay gaming tax (evasion).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-20-103(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).
3. Regarding whether a tax was imposed by the Limited Gaming Act of 1991, the court should draft a special instruction that explains the law on this point, allowing the jury to apply this law to the facts of the case. See Introductory Comment 1 to this chapter.

4. By its terms, this crime applies to “any person.” § 18-20-103(1). For the purposes of this offense, subsection (2) defines “person” as including “corporate officers having control or supervision of, or responsibility for, completing tax returns or making payments pursuant to” the Limited Gaming Act of 1991. Because that definition is inclusive rather than exclusive, the Committee has not included an element requiring that the defendant is a “person.” If the parties dispute whether the defendant qualifies as a “person” for the purposes of this crime, the court may give Instruction F:268.5 (defining “person” (limited gaming offenses)).

5. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempting” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

20:02 FAILURE TO PAY GAMING TAX (PAY)

The elements of the crime of failure to pay gaming tax (pay) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. failed to pay tax due under the Limited Gaming Act of 1991 within thirty days after the date the tax became due.
- [4. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure to pay gaming tax (pay).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure to pay gaming tax (pay).

2. See also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).
3. Regarding whether a tax payment was due under the Limited Gaming Act of 1991, the court should draft a special instruction that explains the law on this point, allowing the jury to apply this law to the facts of the case. See Introductory Comment 1 to this chapter.

4. The statute provides for a sentence enhancer when a person commits this crime “two or more times in any twelve-month period.” § 18-20-103(1)(d) (citing § 44-30-603(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020, which features the same language proscribed by this instruction). Because the court can constitutionally make this determination rather than the jury, and because the General Assembly has not specifically required a jury determination, the Committee has not drafted a model interrogatory. See People v. Nunn, 148 P.3d 222, 228 (Colo. App. 2006) (holding that, under the prior conviction exception to the rule of Apprendi v. New Jersey, 530 U.S. 466 (2000), and Blakely v. Washington, 542 U.S. 296 (2004), the defendant in habitual criminal proceedings “had no right to have a jury determine whether he was the person convicted in the prior cases”).

5. By its terms, this crime applies to “any person.” § 18-20-103(1). For the purposes of this offense, subsection (2) defines “person” as including “corporate officers having control or supervision of, or responsibility for, completing tax returns or making payments pursuant to” the Limited Gaming Act of 1991. Because that definition is inclusive rather than exclusive, the Committee has not included an element requiring that the defendant is a “person.” If the parties dispute whether the defendant qualifies as a “person” for the purposes of this crime, the court may give Instruction F:268.5 (defining “person” (limited gaming offenses)).

6. In 2018, the Committee modified the parenthetical citation in Comment 4 pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 14, sec. 16, § 18-20-103(1)(d), 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 167, 241.

20:03 FAILURE TO PAY GAMING TAX (FILE RETURN)

The elements of the crime of failure to pay gaming tax (file return) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. failed to file a return required by the Limited Gaming Act of 1991 within thirty days after the date the return was due.
- [4. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure to pay gaming tax (file return).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure to pay gaming tax (file return).

20:04 FALSE PRESENTATION TO COMMISSION

The elements of the crime of false presentation to commission are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. willfully,
4. aided or assisted in, or procured, counseled, or advised,
5. the preparation or presentation under or in connection with any matter arising under any title administered by the Colorado limited gaming control commission or a return, affidavit, claim, or other document,
6. which was fraudulent or was false as to any material fact,
7. whether or not such falsity or fraud was with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present such return, affidavit, claim, or document.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of false presentation to commission.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of false presentation to commission.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-20-103(1)(e), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “willfully”).
3. The Committee has included the seventh element because its language appears in the statute. See § 18-20-103(1)(e). The Committee notes, however, that this “whether or not” language is arguably superfluous, as the prosecution will never need to introduce evidence to prove this element. Rather, this language presumably clarifies that a defendant may not claim that he received consent from an authorized person as an affirmative defense.
4. The statute does not define the terms “falsity,” “fraudulent,” or “material fact.”
5. By its terms, this crime applies to “any person.” § 18-20-103(1). For the purposes of this offense, subsection (2) defines “person” as including “corporate officers having control or supervision of, or responsibility for, completing tax returns or making payments pursuant to” the Limited Gaming Act of 1991. Because that definition is inclusive rather than exclusive, the Committee has not included an element requiring that the defendant is a “person.” If the parties dispute whether the defendant qualifies as a “person” for the purposes of this crime, the court may give Instruction F:268.5 (defining “person” (limited gaming offenses)).

20:05 FALSE STATEMENT ON GAMING LICENSE APPLICATION

The elements of the crime of false statement on gaming license application are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
- [4. made a false statement in any application for a license issued by the Colorado limited gaming control commission or in any statement attached to the application, or provided any false or misleading information to the Colorado limited gaming control commission or the division of gaming.]
- [4. failed to keep books and records to substantiate the receipts, expenses, or uses resulting from limited gaming conducted under the Limited Gaming Act of 1991, as prescribed in [insert the relevant rule promulgated by the Colorado limited gaming control commission].]
- [4. falsified any books or records which related to any transaction connected with the holding, operating, and conducting of any limited card games or slot machines.]
- [4. violated [insert the relevant provision of the Limited Gaming Act of 1991, the relevant rule adopted by the Colorado limited gaming control commission, or the relevant term of a license granted under the Act].]
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of false statement on gaming license application.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of false statement on gaming license application.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-20-104, C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:196.9 (defining “limited card games and slot machines” and “limited gaming”).
3. For the first bracketed alternative in the fourth element, the statute does not specify that the license is one issued by the Colorado limited gaming control commission. However, the Committee has concluded from context that this language pertains to a limited gaming license under the Limited Gaming Act of 1991. See § 44-30-501, C.R.S. 2020. Where appropriate, the court should draft an instruction discussing the application process.
4. For the bracketed alternatives that pertain to the Limited Gaming Act of 1991, the court should draft a special instruction that explains the law on the relevant point, allowing the jury to apply this law to the facts of the case. See Introductory Comment 1 to this chapter.
5. See People v. Luke, 948 P.2d 87, 90 (Colo. App. 1997) (holding that “the trial court erred in imposing a materiality requirement” on the statute); id. at 91 (holding that the statute is neither constitutionally overbroad nor constitutionally vague).

20:06 IMPROPER USE OF SLOT MACHINE (FAILURE TO PROVIDE SHIPPING INVOICE)

The elements of the crime of improper use of slot machine (failure to provide invoice) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. was a slot machine manufacturer or distributor shipping or importing a slot machine into the state of Colorado, and
  4. provided to the Colorado limited gaming control commission at the time of shipment a shipping invoice that failed to include the destination, the serial number of each machine, or a description of each machine.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of improper use of slot machine (failure to provide shipping invoice).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of improper use of slot machine (failure to provide shipping invoice).

20:07 IMPROPER USE OF SLOT MACHINE (FAILURE TO PROVIDE REPORT)

The elements of the crime of improper use of slot machine (failure to provide report) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. received a slot machine, and
  4. upon receipt of the machine,
  5. failed to provide to the Colorado limited gaming control commission upon a form available from the commission information that included the location of the machine, the machine's serial number, and the machine's description,
  6. regardless of whether the machine was received from a manufacturer or any other person.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of improper use of slot machine (failure to provide report).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of improper use of slot machine (failure to provide report).

COMMENT

1. See §§ 18-20-105(1), 44-30-803(1)(a)(II), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:345.6 (defining “slot machine”); Instruction F:345.8 (defining “slot machine manufacturer”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. The Committee has included the sixth element because its language appears in the statute. See § 44-30-803(1)(a)(II). The Committee notes, however, that this “regardless of whether” language is arguably superfluous, as the prosecution will never need to introduce evidence to prove this element. Rather, this language presumably clarifies that a defendant may not claim that he received the slot machine from a person other than a manufacturer as an affirmative defense.

4. In 2018, the Committee modified the statutory citations in Comments 1 and 3 pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 14, sec. 18, § 18-20-105(1), 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 167, 241–42.

20:08 IMPROPER USE OF SLOT MACHINE (UNREPORTED MOVEMENT)

The elements of the crime of improper use of slot machine (unreported movement) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. moved a slot machine from the specific location for which it was licensed, and
4. failed to report such movement to the Colorado limited gaming control commission in accordance with rules adopted by the commission.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of improper use of slot machine (unreported movement).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of improper use of slot machine (unreported movement).

required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. Regarding whether a report complied with rules promulgated by the commission, the court should draft a special instruction that explains the law on this point, allowing the jury to apply this law to the facts of the case. See Introductory Comment 1 to this chapter.

4. In 2018, the Committee modified the statutory citations in Comment 1 pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 14, sec. 18, § 18-20-105(1), 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 167, 241-42.

20:09 CHEATING

The elements of the crime of cheating are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. was an owner or employee of, or a player in, an establishment, and
  4. cheated at a limited gaming activity.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of cheating.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of cheating.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-20-106(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:48.3 (defining “cheating”); Instruction F:196.6 (defining “licensed gaming establishment”); Instruction F:196.9 (defining “limited gaming”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

20:10.SP CHEATING – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (DEVICE)

Evidence that the defendant possessed more than one of [insert the relevant devices, equipment, products, or materials described in section 18-20-109, C.R.S. 2020] gives rise to a permissible inference that the defendant intended to use them for cheating.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-20-109(6), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Although the statute speaks in terms of a presumption, the concept should be explained as a permissible inference. See Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

20:11.INT CHEATING – INTERROGATORY (LICENSED)

If you find the defendant not guilty of cheating, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of cheating, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the defendant licensed? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant was licensed only if:

1. the Colorado limited gaming control commission had issued him one of the following licenses: a slot machine manufacturer or distributor license, an operator license, a retail gaming license, a support license, a key employee license, or an associated equipment supplier license.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-20-106(3), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

3. The court should draft a supplemental instruction discussing the relevant licenses. See § 44-30-501(1), C.R.S. 2020.

4. In 2018, the Committee modified the statutory citation in Comment 3 pursuant to a legislative reorganization. See Ch. 14, sec. 2, § 44-30-501(1), 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 167, 184–86.

20:12 GAMING FRAUD (ALTER OUTCOME)

The elements of the crime of gaming fraud (alter outcome) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. altered or misrepresented the outcome of a game or other event on which wagers had been made,
4. after the outcome was made sure but before it was revealed to the players.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of gaming fraud (alter outcome).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of gaming fraud (alter outcome).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-20-107(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

4. after acquiring knowledge, not available to all players, of the outcome of the game or any event that affected the outcome of the game or which was the subject of the bet.]
- [3. aided anyone in acquiring knowledge, not available to all players, of the outcome of a game or any event that affected the outcome of the game or which was the subject of a bet,
4. for the purpose of placing, increasing, or decreasing a bet or determining the course of play contingent upon that event or outcome.]
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of gaming fraud (use of knowledge).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of gaming fraud (use of knowledge).

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:31.2 (defining “bet”); Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”).

20:14 GAMING FRAUD (IMPROPER CLAIM)

The elements of the crime of gaming fraud (improper claim) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. with intent,
4. to defraud,
- [5. claimed, collected, or took, or attempted to claim, collect, or take,
6. money or anything of value in or from a limited gaming activity,
7. without having made a wager contingent thereon.]
- [5. claimed, collected, or took,
6. an amount greater than the amount won in or from a limited gaming activity.]
- [_. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of gaming fraud (improper claim).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of gaming fraud (improper claim).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-20-107(1)(c), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining “with intent”); Instruction F:371 (defining “thing of value”).
3. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).
4. The term “defraud” is not defined by statute.

20:15 GAMING FRAUD (ENTICE OR INDUCE)

The elements of the crime of gaming fraud (entice or induce) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. enticed or induced another,
5. to go to any place where limited gaming was being conducted or operated in violation of the Limited Gaming Act of 1991,
6. with the intent,
7. that the other person play or participate in that limited gaming activity.
- [8. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of gaming fraud (entice or induce).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of gaming fraud (entice or induce).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-20-107(1)(d), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:185 (defining "with intent"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly").

3. Regarding whether the gaming at issue violated the Limited Gaming Act of 1991, the court should draft a special instruction that explains the law on this point, allowing the jury to apply this law to the facts of the case. See Introductory Comment 1 to this chapter.

20:16 GAMING FRAUD (IMPROPER BET)

The elements of the crime of gaming fraud (improper bet) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. placed or increased a bet, including a past-posting or pressing bet,
4. after acquiring knowledge of the outcome of the game or other event which was the subject of the bet.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of gaming fraud (improper bet increase).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of gaming fraud (improper bet).

COMMENT

1. See § 18-20-107(1)(e), C.R.S. 2020.

3. The statute does not define the terms "past-posting bet" or "pressing bet."

20:17 GAMING FRAUD (IMPROPER BET REDUCTION)

The elements of the crime of gaming fraud (improper bet reduction) are:

1. That the defendant,

2. See Instruction F:196.9 (defining “limited gaming”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. The Committee has included the fourth element because its language appears in the statute. See § 18-20-107(1)(h). The Committee notes, however, that this language is arguably superfluous, as the prosecution will never need to introduce evidence to prove this element. Rather, this language presumably clarifies that a defendant may not claim that he acted on behalf of another as an affirmative defense.

4. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

5. The statute does not define the term “sleight of hand performance.”

The elements of the crime of prohibited gaming behavior (instruct in cheating) are:

1. That the defendant,

20:45.INT PROHIBITED GAMING BEHAVIOR – INTERROGATORY (LICENSED)

If you find the defendant not guilty of prohibited gaming behavior, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of prohibited gaming behavior, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question on the verdict form:

Was the defendant licensed? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The defendant was licensed only if:

1. the Colorado limited gaming control commission had issued him one of the following licenses: a slot machine manufacturer or distributor license, an operator license, a retail gaming license, a support license, a key employee license, or an associated equipment supplier license.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-20-111(4), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See, e.g., Instruction E:28 (special verdict form).

3. The court should draft a supplemental instruction discussing the relevant licenses. See § § 44-30-501(1), C.R.S. 2020.

4. In 2018, the Committee modified the statutory citation in Comment 3 pursuant to a legislative reorganization. See Ch. 14, sec. 2, § 44-30-501(1), 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 167, 184–86.

  4. entered the licensed premises of a limited gaming licensee.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful entry into gaming establishment.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful entry into gaming establishment.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-20-112(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:196.6 (defining “licensed gaming establishment”); Instruction F:196.7 (defining “licensed premises”); Instruction F:196.8 (defining “licensee”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).

3. If necessary, the court should draft a supplemental instruction explaining the list of excluded or ejected persons. See §§ 44-30-1001(2), 1002(1), C.R.S. 2020.

4. In 2018, the Committee modified the statutory citations in Comment 3 pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 14, sec. 24, § 18-20-112(1), 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 167, 244.

20:47 UNLAWFUL INTEREST IN GAMING ESTABLISHMENT

The elements of the crime of unlawful interest in gaming establishment are:

- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful interest in gaming establishment.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful interest in gaming establishment.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-20-112(2), C.R.S. 2020.

2. See Instruction F:196.6 (defining “licensed gaming establishment”); Instruction F:196.7 (defining “licensed premises”); Instruction F:196.8 (defining “licensee”); Instruction F:196.9 (defining “limited gaming”); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 (“Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.”).
3. If necessary, the court should draft a supplemental instruction explaining the list of excluded or ejected persons. See §§ 44-30-1001(2), 1002(1), C.R.S. 2020.
4. Regarding whether a corporation was licensed pursuant to the Limited Gaming Act of 1991, the court should draft a special instruction that explains the law on this point, allowing the jury to apply this law to the facts of the case. See Introductory Comment 1 to this chapter.
5. The statute does not define the term “pecuniary interest.” Cf. Instruction F:265.5 (defining “pecuniary benefit”).
6. The Committee has included the “direct or indirect” language in the fourth element because it appears in the statute. See § 18-20-112(2). The Committee notes, however, that this language is arguably superfluous, as the prosecution will never need to introduce evidence to prove it. Rather, this language presumably clarifies that a defendant may not claim that his pecuniary interest was indirect as an affirmative defense.
7. In 2018, the Committee modified the statutory citations in Comment 3 pursuant to a legislative amendment. See Ch. 14, sec. 24, § 18-20-112(1), 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 167, 244.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of acting on license for pecuniary gain.

2. See Instruction F:371 (defining "thing of value"); see also § 18-1-503(2), C.R.S. 2020 ("Although no culpable mental state is expressly designated in a statute defining an offense, a culpable mental state may nevertheless be required for the commission of that offense, or with respect to some or all of the material elements thereof, if the proscribed conduct necessarily involves such a culpable mental state.").
3. Regarding whether action was taken pursuant to the Limited Gaming Act of 1991, the court should draft a special instruction that explains the law on this point, allowing the jury to apply this law to the facts of the case. See Introductory Comment 1 to this chapter.

4. The statute does not define the term “personal pecuniary gain.” Cf. Instruction F:265.5 (defining “pecuniary benefit”).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of conflict of interest (license).

20:50 CONFLICT OF INTEREST (PROPERTY)

The elements of the crime of conflict of interest (property) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a member of the Colorado limited gaming control commission or employee of the division of gaming, including the director; or a member of the immediate family of a member or employee of the division, and
- [4. had an interest, direct or indirect, in any licensee, licensed premises, establishment, or business involved in or with limited gaming.]
- [4. owned, in whole or in part, property in the cities of Central, Black Hawk, or Cripple Creek, and
5. was not an employee of the division assigned to work regularly in Gilpin or Teller county who owned private property therein for residential purposes, with commission approval.]
- [_. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of conflict of interest (property).

2. 3. The statute provides that certain division employees “may live with their families” in Gilpin County or Teller County. § 44-30-401(1)(b). Because the criminalizing portion of the statute is unconcerned with where an employee lives, and because this language could confuse the jury, the Committee has omitted this language from the fifth bracketed element.

4. The statute recognizes that “the commission may, by rule, determine that an ownership interest of no more than five percent held by or through an institutional investor fund does not constitute an interest” in violation of this section. § 44-30-401(2). However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.

5. The Committee has included the “direct or indirect” language in the fourth element because it appears in the statute. See § 44-30-401(1)(b). The Committee notes, however, that this language is arguably superfluous, as the prosecution will never need to introduce evidence to prove it. Rather, this language presumably clarifies that a defendant may not claim that his interest was indirect as an affirmative defense.

6. In 2018, the Committee modified the statutory citations in the Comments pursuant to a legislative amendment and reorganization. See Ch. 14, sec. 25, §§ 44-30-401, 18-20-113(1), 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 167, 183-84, 244.

20:51 CONFLICT OF INTEREST (GIFT)

The elements of the crime of conflict of interest (gift) are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,

  4. received a gift, gratuity, employment, or other thing of value,
  5. from any person, corporation, association, or firm that contracted with or that offered services, supplies, materials, or equipment used by the division in the normal course of its operations, or that was licensed by the division or the commission, and
  6. the defendant's acceptance was not on an infrequent basis in the normal course of business of nonpecuniary items of insignificant value that were allowed by the director and that were specified by the commission by rule and regulation.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of conflict of interest (gift).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of conflict of interest (gift).

3. If necessary, the court should draft a supplemental instruction detailing nonpecuniary items of insignificant value that were permitted by the director and commission.
4. The statute provides that this offense “shall not apply to an employee of the division acting in his or her official capacity while on duty.” § 44-30-401(3). However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.
5. In 2018, the Committee modified the fifth element, the statutory citations in Comments 1 and 4, and the quoted language in Comment 4 pursuant to a legislative amendment and reorganization. See Ch. 14, sec. 25, §§ 44-30-401, 18-20-113(1), 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 167, 183–84, 244.

20:52 CONFLICT OF INTEREST (PARTICIPATION)

The elements of the crime of conflict of interest (participation) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a member of the Colorado limited gaming control commission or employee of the division of gaming, including the director; or a member of the immediate family of a member of the commission or employee of the division, and
4. participated in limited gaming or sports betting.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of conflict of interest (participation).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of conflict of interest (participation).

COMMENT

3. The statute provides that this offense “shall not apply to an employee of the division acting in his or her official capacity while on duty.” § 44-30-401(3). However, the Committee has not drafted a model affirmative defense instruction.

6. In 2019, the Committee added the phrase “or sports betting” to the fourth element pursuant to a legislative amendment; the Committee also added Comment 4. See Ch. 347, sec. 9, § 44-30-401(1)(d), 2019 Colo. Sess. Laws 3209, 3215.

20:53 CONFLICT OF INTEREST (CONVICTION)

The elements of the crime of conflict of interest (conviction) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. served as a member of the Colorado limited gaming control commission or employee of the division of gaming, including the director,
4. after having been convicted of a felony or any gambling-related offense.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of conflict of interest (conviction).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of conflict of interest (conviction).

3. If necessary, the court should draft a supplemental instruction discussing the felony or gambling-related offense at issue.

4. In 2018, the Committee modified the statutory citations in Comment 1 pursuant to a legislative amendment and reorganization. See Ch. 14, sec. 25, §§ 44-30-401, 18-20-113(1), 2018 Colo. Sess. Laws 167, 183-84, 244.

20:54 PROVIDING FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

The elements of the crime of providing false or misleading information are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. provided false or misleading information under the Limited Gaming Act of 1991.
- [4. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of providing false or misleading information.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of providing false or misleading information.

COMMENT

1. See § 18-20-114, C.R.S. 2020.

3. Regarding whether the information at issue was provided under the Limited Gaming Act of 1991, the court should draft a special instruction that explains the law on this point, allowing the jury to apply this law to the facts of the case. See Introductory Comment 1 to this chapter.

CHAPTER COMMENTS

1. Determining what culpable mental state, if any, applies to a traffic offense that does not expressly designate a culpable mental state element can be complicated. See People v. Manzo, 144 P.3d 551, 559 (Colo. 2006) (“Leaving the Scene of an Accident with Serious Injury [in violation of section 42-4-1601] is a strict liability offense because the plain language of the statute does not require or imply a culpable mental state.”); People v. Caddy, 540 P.2d 1089, 1091 (Colo. 1975) (“speeding is an offense of strict liability”). Accordingly, unlike the chapters of elemental instructions that define offenses from Title 18, see Chapter A, “Culpable Mental States,” this chapter does not raise the question of whether it may be appropriate to impute a culpable mental state of “knowingly” to an offense that does not expressly designate a culpable mental state. Even when a traffic offense expressly designates a culpable mental state, instructing the jury on that element may require caution. See, e.g., People v. Zwegardt, 2012 COA 119, ¶ 34, 298 P.3d 1018, 1025 (“Criminal negligence requires a gross deviation from the standard of care. § 18-1-501(3). Careless driving requires that the defendant drive without due regard. A person who grossly deviates from the standard of care that a reasonable person would exercise and fails to perceive a substantial and unjustified risk that a result will occur or that a circumstance exists, has necessarily acted without due regard for safety.”); People v. Pena, 962 P.2d 285, 289 (Colo. App. 1997) (the type of recklessness in 42-4-1401(1) is indistinguishable from the definition of “recklessly” in section 18-1-501(8), C.R.S. 2020).

2. + Chapter F already contains instructions defining many terms used in this chapter. See, e.g., Instruction F:239 (defining “motor vehicle”). The Committee cautions, however, that in most cases, those instructions derive from section 42-1-102, C.R.S. 2020, which only applies to articles 1–4 of Title 42. Therefore, where a crime featuring such a term is located outside of those articles, the Committee has not cross-referenced the definitions appearing in Chapter F; instead, the Committee has cited the specific statutory definition for that article, where applicable. See, e.g., Instruction 42:31, Comment 2 (citing § 42-5-101(5), C.R.S. 2020, which defines “motor vehicle” as used in Part 1 of Article 5).

3. + Previously, Chapter 42 only included instructions for select offenses within Title 42. In 2020, the Committee determined to create model instructions for all offenses within Title 42 that carry a potential penalty of six months or more of incarceration. As a result, in 2020, the Committee deleted the prior Comment 1 to this chapter (which had explained that the chapter only contained instructions for select offenses); the Committee also renumbered the prior Comment 2 to Comment 1, and it added the new Comment 2.

+ 42:00 USING SUPPLIES FOR PRIVATE PURPOSES

The elements of the crime of using supplies for private purposes are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was an officer or employee, and
4. used for private or pleasure purposes,
5. any of the equipment or supplies furnished for the discharge of [his] [her] duties.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of using supplies for private purposes.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of using supplies for private purposes.

COMMENT

1. See § 42-1-207, C.R.S. 2020.
2. The statute does not define the terms “officer” or “employee.”
3. + The Committee added this instruction in 2020.

42:01 DRIVING WITHOUT A VALID LICENSE

The elements of the crime of driving without a valid license are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. drove a motor vehicle,
  4. upon a highway in this state, and
  5. had not been issued a currently valid driver's license, minor driver's license, or an instruction permit by the Department of Revenue.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of driving without a valid license.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of driving without a valid license.

COMMENT

1. See § 42-2-101(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:171 (defining "highway"); Instruction F:239 (defining "motor vehicle").
3. See Instruction H:73 (affirmative defense of "emergency or exemption").

4. The introductory clause of section 42-2-101(1) provides as follows: "Except as otherwise provided in part 4 of this article for commercial drivers." Accordingly, in a case where the validity of the defendant's license or conduct as a commercial driver is at issue, refer to Part 4 of Article 2.

5. Subsections two through five of section 42-2-101 define other ways of committing this offense. However, as in COLJI-Crim. (2008), the Committee has not drafted model instructions for these variants.

+ 42:01.3 OPERATING VEHICLE AFTER CIRCUMVENTING INTERLOCK DEVICE

The elements of the crime of operating vehicle after circumventing interlock device are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a person whose privilege to drive was restricted to the operation of a motor vehicle equipped with an approved ignition interlock device, and
- [4. operated a motor vehicle other than a motor vehicle equipped with an approved ignition interlock device.]
- [4. circumvented or attempted to circumvent the proper use of an approved ignition interlock device.]
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of operating vehicle after circumventing interlock device.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of operating vehicle after circumventing interlock device.

COMMENT

1. See § 42-2-132.5(10)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:239 (defining "motor vehicle").

3. In the absence of case law on point, the Committee takes no position on whether the word “attempted” in this instruction implicates the inchoate offense of criminal attempt. See Instruction G2:01 (criminal attempt). Accordingly, the Committee expresses no opinion on whether the court should provide the jury with the criminal attempt elemental instruction (Instruction G2:01).

4. + The Committee added this instruction in 2020.

+ 42:01.7 TAMPERING WITH AN APPROVED IGNITION INTERLOCK DEVICE (INTERFERING)

The elements of the crime of tampering with an approved ignition interlock device (interfering) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
- [3. intercepted, bypassed, or interfered with,]
- [3. aided any other person in intercepting, bypassing, or interfering with,]
4. an approved ignition interlock device,
5. for the purpose of preventing or hindering the lawful operation or purpose of the approved ignition interlock device.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of tampering with an approved ignition interlock device (interfering).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of tampering with an approved ignition interlock device (interfering).

COMMENT

1. See § 42-2-132.5(11)(a), (c), C.R.S. 2020.
2. + The Committee added this instruction in 2020.

+ 42:01.8 TAMPERING WITH AN APPROVED IGNITION INTERLOCK DEVICE (RESTRICTED)

The elements of the crime of tampering with an approved ignition interlock device (restricted) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. was a person whose privilege to drive was restricted to the operation of a motor vehicle equipped with an approved ignition interlock device, and
4. drove a motor vehicle in which an approved ignition interlock device was installed, and
5. knew that any person had intercepted, bypassed, or interfered with the approved ignition interlock device.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of tampering with an approved ignition interlock device (restricted).

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of tampering with an approved ignition interlock device (restricted).

COMMENT

1. See § 42-2-132.5(11)(b), (c), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:239 (defining "motor vehicle").

3. + The Committee added this instruction in 2020.

+ 42:01.9 UNLAWFUL REPRODUCTION OF DRIVER'S LICENSE

The elements of the crime of unlawful reproduction of driver's license are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. photographed, photostatted, duplicated, or in any way reproduced,
4. any driver's license or facsimile thereof,
5. for the purpose of distribution, resale, reuse, or manipulation of the data or images contained in such driver's license, and
6. was not so authorized by the Department of Revenue or otherwise authorized by law.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of unlawful reproduction of driver's license.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of unlawful reproduction of driver's license.

COMMENT

42:03 DRIVING UNDER RESTRAINT (RESTRAINT BASED ON A CONVICTION OR ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION RELATED TO ALCOHOL OR DRUGS)

The elements of the crime of driving under restraint (restraint based on a conviction or administrative action related to alcohol or drugs) are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. drove a motor vehicle or off-highway vehicle,
4. upon any highway of this state,
5. with knowledge that his [her] license or privilege to drive, either as a resident or a nonresident, was under restraint,
- [6. because of [insert description of restraint(s) from section 42-2-126(3)].]
- [6. solely or partially because of a conviction of driving under the influence, driving with excessive alcohol content, driving while ability impaired, or underage drinking and driving.]
- [6. in another state, solely or partially because of an alcohol-related driving offense.]
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

42:04.SP DRIVING UNDER RESTRAINT – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (NOTICE)

The following circumstances give rise to a permissible inference that the defendant received personal notice that his [her] license or privilege to drive was under restraint:

1. certification that a notice was mailed, postpaid, by first-class mail to the last-known address of the defendant shown by the records of the Department of Revenue; or
2. delivery of such notice to the last-known address of the defendant shown by the records of the Department of Revenue; or
3. personal service of such notice upon the defendant, or upon any attorney appearing on the defendant's behalf; or
4. certification that notice was given in another state in compliance with such state's law.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See §§ 42-2-119(2), 42-2-138(2)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Unlike COLJI-Crim. 42:02 (2008) ("proof of knowledge"), the above model instruction does not authorize the jury to draw a permissible inference that the defendant had knowledge of the revocation. Rather, the instruction now describes how proof of a specified circumstance can give rise to a permissible inference that the defendant had notice of the restraint.

It appears that COLJI-Crim. 42:02 (2008) was based on Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987), in which the supreme court relied on the relevant provision for establishing the fact of revocation (then-codified as section 42-2-130(2)) as a basis for holding that: (1) knowledge of the fact of a license revocation was an essential element of the crime of driving while license revoked (then-codified as section 42-2-130(1)); and (2) the giving of notice by registered mail in accordance with section 42-2-130(2) gave rise to a permissible inference that the defendant had knowledge of the revocation. However, Jolly was decided under the pre-1994 driving under restraint statute, section 42-2-130(1), which, unlike the current section 42-2-138(1)(a), (d)(I), did not explicitly include knowledge of the restraint as an element of the offense. See Jolly, 742 P.2d at 894 (quoting 42-2-130(1)(a)); see also Ch. 337, sec. 1, § 42-2-138(1)(a), (d)(I), 1994 Colo. Sess. Laws 2155 (enacting section 42-2-138 to replace section 42-2-130, as part of a complete recodification of Title 42). Accordingly, the Committee has revised the model instruction so that it is in accord with the definition of “knowledge” in section 42-2-138(4)(a), C.R.S. 2020 (“‘Knowledge’ means actual knowledge of any restraint from whatever source or knowledge of circumstances sufficient to cause a reasonable person to be aware that such person’s license or privilege to drive was under restraint. ‘Knowledge’ does not mean knowledge of a particular restraint or knowledge of the duration of restraint.”), and the supreme court’s explanation of that definition:

The second part of this definition involves in part the use of an objective reasonable person standard. However, this definition requires that the particular defendant possess knowledge of those circumstances that would trigger a reasonable person to believe his license was under restraint. Under this definition, a defendant could not be punished for acting without actual subjective knowledge of these circumstances. Thus, knowledge, as defined, combines both a subjective and an objective component. It requires the defendant to be actually aware of specific circumstances. These specific circumstances are defined by using an objective reasonable person standard. For example, if, after being convicted of numerous traffic offenses, a defendant sees mail from the Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV) and then refuses to open the letter, he might be found to have been aware of circumstances that would lead a reasonable person to believe his license to drive was under restraint and his claim that he drove without knowledge of the restraint might fail. In contrast, if we were to accept as true that a defendant unwittingly threw out the DMV letter with his junk mail and that he never saw the DMV letter addressed to him, then he might be found not to have possessed the subjective knowledge of the circumstances that would lead a reasonable person to believe his license was under restraint.<sup>FN5</sup> This defendant, although perhaps negligent in sorting his mail, might not have driven with the required “knowledge” of the restraint.

FN5. This example assumes that the hypothetical defendant did not act deliberately to disregard the DMV letter and, further, that awareness of having been convicted of numerous traffic offenses would not alone lead a reasonable person to believe his license was under restraint.

People v. Ellison, 14 P.3d 1034, 1037 n.5 (Colo. 2000); see also Griego v. People, 19 P.3d 1, 5 (Colo. 2001) (“After our decision in [Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987)] held the culpable mental state of ‘knowingly’ applicable to the misdemeanor driving under restraint statute, the legislature amended that statute to require a degree of mental culpability less than ‘knowingly.’”).

In summary, under the current statutory scheme: (1) it is permissible for the jury to draw an inference that the defendant had notice of a restraint based on evidence satisfying section 42-2-119(2) or section 42-2-138(2)(a); and (2) an inference that the defendant had such notice may, depending on the surrounding circumstances, support a finding that the defendant also had knowledge, within the meaning of section 42-2-138(4)(a).

42:05 DRIVING AFTER REVOCATION PROHIBITED

The elements of the crime of driving after revocation prohibited are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. having had his [her] license to drive revoked by the Department of Revenue based on a finding that he [she] was an habitual offender,
5. operated a motor vehicle in this state,
6. while the revocation prohibiting such operation was in effect.
- [7. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of driving after revocation prohibited.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of driving after revocation prohibited.

COMMENT

2. See Instruction F:195 (defining “knowingly”); Instruction F:239 (defining “motor vehicle”).

3. See Griego v. People, 19 P.3d 1, 5 (Colo. 2001) (“When the General Assembly amended the culpable mental state requirement for driving under restraint but did not amend the culpable mental state for driving after revocation prohibited, we must presume that it did so with awareness of our decisions in [People v. Lesh, 668 P.2d 1362, 1365 (Colo. 1983), Ault v. Department of Revenue, 697 P.2d 24, 27 (Colo. 1985), and Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 896 (Colo. 1987)], and therefore chose to retain ‘knowingly’ as the culpable mental state for driving after revocation prohibited.”).

4. The term “operate” is not defined in section 42-2-206. See People v. Stewart, 55 P.3d 107, 115 (Colo. 2002) (“The term ‘operate’ is somewhat broader [than the term ‘drive’], connoting the action of causing something ‘to occur . . . [or] to cause to function usually by direct personal effort.’ People v. Gregor, 26 P.3d 530, 532 (Colo. App. 2000) (quoting Webster’s Third New International Dictionary 1580–81 (1986)).”); People v. Gregor, 26 P.3d 530, 532 (Colo. App. 2000) (“the trial court did not err in failing to define ‘operate’ as requiring actual movement of the vehicle”).

In People v. VanMatre, 190 P.3d 770, 772 (Colo. App. 2008), a division of the Court of Appeals analyzed an instruction that defined the term “operate,” for purposes of the offense of aggravated driving with a revoked license in violation of section 42-2-206(1)(b), as “exercising actual physical control of a vehicle, which was to be determined by considering the totality of the circumstances.”

The instruction further provided a nonexclusive list of factors for the jury to consider in determining the issue of actual physical control. The factors included the vehicle’s operability, the vehicle’s location, defendant’s location in the vehicle, the location of the ignition keys, whether the motor was running, whether defendant had the apparent ability to start the vehicle, whether defendant was conscious, whether the heater or air conditioner was running, whether the windows were up or down, and any other factor which tended to indicate that defendant exercised bodily influence or direction over the vehicle based on the jury’s everyday experience.

Id. Although the division held that this instruction was adequate based on the facts of the case, it endorsed the “reasonably capable of being rendered operable” standard:

[W]hen considering whether a defendant exercised actual physical control over a vehicle or caused it to function, that is, drove or operated a vehicle, a jury may consider the totality of the circumstances, including the factors listed in the jury instruction here. Furthermore, when there is evidence indicating that the vehicle may not have been reasonably capable of being rendered operable, the jury must be instructed that it must find the vehicle was either operable, reasonably capable of being rendered operable, in motion (whether by coasting or pushing), or at risk of being put in motion before finding the defendant guilty of driving or operating a vehicle under the DUI and [driving after revocation prohibited] statutes.

Valdez*, 2014 COA 125, ¶ 23, 411 P.3d 94, 100 (“[T]he instruction set forth in VanMatre involves an element-negating traverse because, if a defendant establishes that a ‘vehicle may not have been reasonably capable of being operable,’ such evidence would necessarily negate the required elements of ‘driving’ and ‘operating’ a vehicle.”).

+ 42:06.85.SP CARELESS DRIVING – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (DUE CARE AND CAUTION)

On a highway with at least two adjacent lanes proceeding in the same direction on the same side of the highway where [a stationary authorized emergency vehicle, stationary towing carrier vehicle, or stationary public utility service vehicle is located] [a stationary or slow-moving maintenance, repair, or construction vehicle is located] [chains are being applied to the tires of a motor vehicle], the driver of an approaching or passing vehicle shall proceed with due care and caution and yield the right-of-way by moving into a lane at least one moving lane apart from [the stationary authorized emergency vehicle, stationary towing carrier vehicle, or stationary public utility service vehicle] [the vehicle], unless directed otherwise by a peace officer or other authorized emergency personnel. If movement to an adjacent moving lane is not possible due to weather, road conditions, or the immediate presence of vehicular or pedestrian traffic, the driver of the approaching vehicle shall proceed in the manner described below.

On a highway that does not have at least two adjacent lanes proceeding in the same direction on the same side of the highway where [a stationary authorized emergency vehicle, stationary towing carrier vehicle, or stationary public utility service vehicle is located] [a stationary or slow-moving maintenance, repair, or construction vehicle is located] [chains are being applied to the tires of a motor vehicle], or if movement by the driver of the approaching vehicle into an adjacent moving lane, as described above, is not possible, the driver of an approaching vehicle shall reduce and maintain a safe speed with regard to the location of [the stationary authorized emergency vehicle, stationary towing carrier vehicle, or stationary public utility service vehicle] [the stationary or slow-moving maintenance, repair, or construction vehicle] [the motor vehicle where chains are being applied to the tires], weather conditions, road conditions, and vehicular or pedestrian traffic, and shall proceed with due care and caution, or as directed by a peace officer or other authorized emergency personnel.

[The following speeds are presumed to be safe unless the speeds are unsafe for the conditions:

- a. if the speed limit is less than forty-five miles per hour, twenty-five miles per hour or less.
- b. if the speed limit is forty-five miles per hour or more, twenty miles per hour less than the speed limit.]

COMMENT

1. See § 42-4-705(2)(b-c), (2.5)(b-c), (2.6)(b-c), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:171 (defining “highway”).
3. The three bracketed alternatives that appear throughout the instruction correspond to the three alternative methods of committing careless driving by passing, depending on the type of vehicle being passed. See Instruction 42:06.7 (stationary vehicle); Instruction 42:06.75 (slow-moving vehicle); Instruction 42:06.8 (tires with chains). Also, the final bracketed paragraph regarding presumptively safe speeds only applies to the crime of approaching or passing a stationary vehicle. See § 42-4-705(2)(c)(II).

Additionally, the first paragraph applies to a highway with at least two adjacent lanes proceeding in the same direction, while the second paragraph applies to a highway that does not have at least two adjacent lanes proceeding in the same direction. If the type of highway at issue is undisputed, then the court should only include one of the two paragraphs in its instruction.

+ 42:06.9 CARELESS DRIVING (CROWDING BICYCLIST)

The elements of the crime of careless driving (crowding bicyclist) are:

  5. drove the vehicle unnecessarily close to, toward, or near a bicyclist.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of careless driving (crowding bicyclist).

42:07 SPEEDING

The elements of the crime of speeding are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. drove a motor vehicle,
  4. on a highway,
  5. at a speed greater than was reasonable and prudent under the conditions then existing.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of speeding.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of speeding.

COMMENT

4. See Instruction H:74 (affirmative defense of "emergency").

42:08.SP SPEEDING – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (SPEED IN EXCESS OF DESIGNATED SPEED LIMIT)

Evidence that the defendant was driving at any speed in excess of [insert the lawful designated speed pursuant to section 42-4-1101(2)] gives rise to a presumption that such speed was not reasonable or prudent under the conditions then existing.

A presumption requires you to find a fact as if it had been established by evidence, unless the presumption is rebutted by evidence to the contrary.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt.

COMMENT

1. See § 42-4-1101(4), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Unlike most criminal statutes, section 42-4-1101(4) creates a mandatory rebuttable presumption rather than a permissible inference. See People v. Hoskin, 2016 CO 63, ¶¶ 11, 17, 380 P.3d 130, 134, 136 (“[T]he plain language of the speeding statute creates a mandatory rebuttable presumption. . . . [C]ivil traffic infraction defendants are not entitled to the same due process protections afforded to defendants in criminal proceedings. Rather, due process rights afforded to defendants in criminal proceedings, specifically, as they relate to the burden of proof, are not implicated here.”).
3. In 2016, the Committee modified this instruction and Comment 2 in light of People v. Hoskin, supra.

+ 42:08.5 SPEED CONTEST

The elements of the crime of speed contest are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. knowingly,
4. engaged in a speed contest on a highway.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of speed contest.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of speed contest.

COMMENT

1. See § 42-4-1105(1), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:171 (defining "highway"); Instruction F:195 (defining "knowingly"); see also § 42-4-1105(1)(b) (defining "speed contest" as "the operation of one or more motor vehicles to conduct a race or a time trial, including but not limited to rapid acceleration, exceeding reasonable and prudent speeds for highways and existing traffic conditions, vying for position, or performing one or more lane changes in an attempt to gain advantage over one or more of the other race participants").
3. Section 42-4-1105(4) provides that this section "shall not apply to the operation of a motor vehicle in an organized competition according to accepted rules on a designated and duly authorized race track, race course, or drag strip.” However, the Committee has not drafted model affirmative defense instructions.

42:09 DRIVING UNDER THE INFLUENCE

The elements of the crime of driving under the influence are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. drove a motor vehicle or vehicle,
  4. while under the influence of alcohol or one or more drugs, or a combination of both alcohol and one or more drugs, and
- + [5. the defendant had three or more prior convictions, arising out of separate and distinct criminal episodes, for DUI, DUI per se, or DWAI; vehicular homicide; vehicular assault; or any combination thereof.]
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of driving under the influence.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of driving under the influence.

COMMENT

1. See § 42-4-1301(1)(a), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:110 (defining "driving under the influence"); Instruction F:239 (defining "motor vehicle"); Instruction F:252 (defining "one or more drugs"); Instruction F:386 (defining "vehicle").

3. In People v. Swain, 959 P.2d 426, 431 (Colo. 1998), the supreme court held that, for purposes of section 42-4-1301, the term “drive” means “actual physical control of a vehicle.” In so holding, the court extended the definition it had developed in the license revocation context, see Brewer v. Motor Vehicle Division, Department of Revenue, 720 P.2d 564 (Colo. 1986), without endorsing the trial court’s instruction that enumerated five factors for the jury to “consider in deciding whether or not a person was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle.” People v. Swain, 959 P.2d at 428; see also People v. VanMatre, 190 P.3d 770, 773 (Colo. App. 2008) (“a vehicle must be reasonably capable of being rendered operable before a person can be convicted of ‘driving’ . . . the vehicle while intoxicated”); People v. Valdez, 2014 COA 125, ¶ 23, 411 P.3d 94, 100 (“[T]he instruction set forth in VanMatre involves an element-negating traverse because, if a defendant establishes that a ‘vehicle may not have been reasonably capable of being operable,’ such evidence would necessarily negate the required elements of ‘driving’ and ‘operating’ a vehicle.”).

4. See Reyna-Abarca v. People, 2017 CO 15, ¶ 69, 390 P.3d 816, 827 (concluding that DUI is a lesser-included offense of vehicular assault-DUI and vehicular homicide-DUI).

5. + In Linnebur v. People, 2020 CO 79M, ¶ 2, 476 P.3d 734, 735, the court held that “the statutory provisions that define and provide penalties for felony DUI treat the fact of prior convictions as an element of the crime, which must be proved to the jury beyond a reasonable doubt.” Therefore, in 2020, the Committee added the bracketed fifth element; the court should only include this element if the prosecution is seeking a felony conviction. Additionally, the court may need to issue supplemental instructions defining the relevant crimes (e.g., DUI, DUI per se, or DWAI; vehicular homicide; or vehicular assault).

The Committee notes that, after Linnebur, it remains unclear whether the prosecution may introduce evidence of the defendant’s prior convictions during the same trial where it’s seeking a new conviction, or whether the court may conduct a bifurcated trial and allow the jury to hear evidence of prior convictions only after it has returned a guilty verdict in the current case. See id. at ¶ 54 (Márquez, J., dissenting) (“To the extent defendants anticipate that these prior convictions can be somehow bifurcated from the remaining elements of the felony offense, that may be wishful thinking.”). The Committee expresses no opinion on whether bifurcation is permissible or required.

6. In 2017, the Committee added the citation to People v. Valdez in Comment 3, and it also added Comment 4.

7. In 2018, the Committee added Comment 5 and renumbered the subsequent comment.

8. + In 2020, the Committee added the fifth bracketed element in light of Linnebur; it also modified Comment 5.

42:10 DRIVING WHILE ABILITY IMPAIRED

The elements of the crime driving while ability impaired are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. drove a motor vehicle or vehicle,
  4. while impaired by alcohol or by one or more drugs, or by a combination of alcohol and one or more drugs, and
- + [5. the defendant had three or more prior convictions, arising out of separate and distinct criminal episodes, for DUI, DUI per se, or DWAI; vehicular homicide; vehicular assault; or any combination thereof.]
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of driving while ability impaired.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of driving while ability impaired.

COMMENT

1. See § 42-4-1301(1)(b), C.R.S. 2020.
2. See Instruction F:111 (defining "driving while ability impaired"); Instruction F:239 (defining "motor vehicle"); Instruction F:252 (defining "one or more drugs"); Instruction F:386 (defining "vehicle").

3. See Instruction 42:09, Comment 3 (discussing the meaning of the term “drive”).

4. + In Linnebur v. People, 2020 CO 79M, ¶ 2, 476 P.3d 734, 735, the court held that “the statutory provisions that define and provide penalties for felony DUI treat the fact of prior convictions as an element of the crime, which must be proved to the jury beyond a reasonable doubt.” The felony DWAI statute is identical in this regard. See id. at ¶ 5 n.1. Therefore, in 2020, the Committee added the bracketed fifth element; the court should only include this element if the prosecution is seeking a felony conviction. Additionally, the court may need to issue supplemental instructions defining the relevant crimes (e.g., DUI, DUI per se, or DWAI; vehicular homicide; or vehicular assault).

The Committee notes that, after Linnebur, it remains unclear whether the prosecution may introduce evidence of the defendant’s prior convictions during the same trial where it’s seeking a new conviction, or whether the court may conduct a bifurcated trial and allow the jury to hear evidence of prior convictions only after it has returned a guilty verdict in the current case. See id. at ¶ 54 (Márquez, J., dissenting) (“To the extent defendants anticipate that these prior convictions can be somehow bifurcated from the remaining elements of the felony offense, that may be wishful thinking.”). The Committee expresses no opinion on whether bifurcation is permissible or required.

5. + In 2020, the Committee added the fifth bracketed element in light of Linnebur; it also added Comment 4.

42:11.SP DRIVING UNDER THE INFLUENCE OR WHILE ABILITY IMPAIRED – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (BLOOD OR BREATH ALCOHOL LEVEL)

As to the charge of [driving under the influence] [driving while ability impaired], the amount of alcohol in the defendant's blood or breath at the time of the alleged offense, or within a reasonable time thereafter, as shown by analysis of the defendant's blood or breath, gives rise to the following:

(a) Presumption:

It shall be presumed that the defendant was not under the influence of alcohol if there was at such time 0.05 or less grams of alcohol per one hundred milliliters of blood, or if there was at such time 0.05 or less grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath.

A presumption requires you to find a fact, as if it had been established by evidence, unless the presumption is rebutted by evidence to the contrary.

(b) Permissible inferences:

A permissible inference that the defendant's ability to operate a motor vehicle or vehicle was impaired by the consumption of alcohol may be drawn if there was at such time in excess of 0.05 but less than 0.08 grams of alcohol per one hundred milliliters of blood, or if there was at such time in excess of 0.05 but less than 0.08 grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath, and such fact may also be considered with other competent evidence in determining whether or not the defendant was under the influence of alcohol.

A permissible inference that the defendant was under the influence of alcohol may be drawn if there was at such time 0.08 or more grams of alcohol per one hundred milliliters of blood, or if there was at such time 0.08 or more grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 42-4-1301(6)(a)(I)-(III), C.R.S. 2020.
2. The similar provisions relating to vehicular homicide and vehicular assault do not establish a permissible inference for a B.A.C. in excess of .05, but less than .08. This is because those offenses require proof that the defendant was “under the influence,” and not merely “impaired.” See § 18-3-106(2)(b), C.R.S. 2020 (stating that the B.A.C. “may be considered with other competent evidence”); § 18-3-205(2)(b), C.R.S. 2020 (same). Accordingly, where a charge of DUI is submitted as a lesser-included offense of one of these felonies, it may be necessary to use separate special instructions to guide the jury’s consideration of the B.A.C. evidence.

42:12.SP DRIVING UNDER THE INFLUENCE OR WHILE ABILITY IMPAIRED – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (DELTA 9-TETRAHYDROCANNABINOL LEVEL)

As to the charge of [driving under the influence] [driving while ability impaired], a permissible inference that the defendant was under the influence of one or more drugs may be drawn if the amount of delta 9-tetrahydrocannabinol in the defendant’s blood at the time of the alleged offense, or within a reasonable time thereafter, as shown by analysis of the defendant’s blood, was five nanograms or more per milliliter in whole blood.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 42-4-1301(6)(a)(IV), C.R.S. 2020.

42:13 DRIVING WITH EXCESSIVE ALCOHOL CONTENT

The elements of the crime of driving with excessive alcohol content are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. drove a motor vehicle or vehicle, and
4. at the time of driving, or within two hours after driving,
5. he [she] had a blood alcohol content of 0.08 or more grams of alcohol per one hundred milliliters of blood, or a breath alcohol content of 0.08 or more grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of driving with excessive alcohol content.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of driving with excessive alcohol content.

42:14 RECKLESS DRIVING

The elements of the crime of reckless driving are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. drove a [motor vehicle] [bicycle] [electrical assisted bicycle] [electric scooter] [low-power scooter],
4. in such a manner as to indicate either a wanton or a willful disregard for the safety of persons or property.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of reckless driving.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of reckless driving.

42:15 CARELESS DRIVING

The elements of the crime of careless driving are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. drove a [motor vehicle] [bicycle] [electrical assisted bicycle] [electric scooter] [low-power scooter],
4. in a careless and imprudent manner, without due regard for the width, grade, curves, corners, traffic, and use of the streets and highways and all other attendant circumstances.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of careless driving.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of careless driving.

42:16.INT CARELESS DRIVING – INTERROGATORY (BODILY INJURY)

If you find the defendant not guilty of careless driving, you should disregard this instruction and sign the verdict form to indicate your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of careless driving, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question:

Did the careless driving result in bodily injury? (Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The careless driving resulted in bodily injury only if:

1. the defendant’s actions were the proximate cause of bodily injury to another.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. threw, dropped, or otherwise expelled,
4. a lighted cigarette, cigar, match, or other burning material,
5. from a motor vehicle upon any highway.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of throwing cigarette onto highway.

2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. operated a [motor vehicle] [low-power scooter],
4. on a public highway of this state,
5. without a complying policy or certificate of self-insurance in full force and effect as required by law.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

42:19.SP OPERATION WITHOUT INSURANCE – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (FAILURE TO PRESENT)

As to the charge of operation without insurance, testimony that an operator of a [motor vehicle] [low-power scooter] failed to immediately present evidence of a complying policy or certificate of self-insurance in full force and effect as required by law, when requested to do so by a peace officer, gives rise to a permissible inference that the defendant did not have such a policy or certificate.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

COMMENT

1. See § 42-4-1409(5), C.R.S. 2020.
2. Although the statute speaks in terms of “prima facie evidence,” the concept should be explained to the jury as a permissible inference. See People in re R.M.D., 829 P.2d 852 (Colo. 1992) (construing the “prima facie” proof provision of section 18-4-406 as establishing a permissible inference); see generally Jolly v. People, 742 P.2d 891, 897 (Colo. 1987) (unlike a mandatory presumption, the use of a permissible inference in a criminal case does not violate due process).

42:20 ELUDING OR ATTEMPTING TO ELUDE A POLICE OFFICER

The elements of the crime of eluding or attempting to elude a police officer are:

1. That the defendant,
2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
3. operated a motor vehicle, and
4. received from a police officer a visual or audible signal directing him [her] to bring the vehicle to a stop (such as a red light or a siren from a police officer driving a marked vehicle showing the same to be an official police, sheriff, or Colorado State Patrol car),
5. when the officer had reasonable grounds to believe that defendant had violated a state law or municipal ordinance, and
6. after receiving such signal, defendant
7. willfully,
8. increased his [her] speed or extinguished his [her] lights in an attempt to elude the police officer, or attempted in any other manner to elude the police officer, or did in fact elude the police officer.
- [9. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of eluding or attempting to elude a police officer.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of eluding or attempting to elude a police officer.

4. An unnumbered comment to COLJI-Crim. 42:20 (2008) stated as follows: “The ‘probable cause’ [sic] issue in this statute is a question for the court on a motion for judgment of acquittal. It is not a jury question.” However, the Committee is now of the view that the question of whether the officer had “reasonable grounds” to make a stop is, at least in part, subject to jury determination. Therefore, the court should identify any factual questions relevant to the “reasonable grounds” inquiry and draft a special instruction advising the jury that it can find that the officer had reasonable grounds to make the stop only if it first finds that the prosecution has proven, beyond a reasonable doubt, certain threshold facts (as identified by the court).

42:21 FAILURE TO FULFILL DUTIES AFTER INVOLVEMENT IN AN ACCIDENT INVOLVING INJURY, SERIOUS BODILY INJURY, OR DEATH

The elements of the crime of failure to fulfill duties after involvement in an accident involving injury, serious bodily injury, or death are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. drove a vehicle that was directly involved in an accident,
  4. resulting in injury to, serious bodily injury to, or the death of any person, and
  5. failed to do the following, without obstructing traffic more than was necessary: immediately stop his [her] vehicle at the scene of the accident, or as close to the accident scene as possible, and immediately return to the scene of the accident and remain at the scene of the accident until he [she] had fulfilled the legal requirements of giving notice, information, and aid.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure to fulfill duties after involvement in an accident involving injury, serious bodily injury, or death.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of failure to fulfill duties after involvement in an accident involving injury, serious bodily injury, or death.

INVOLVEMENT IN AN ACCIDENT INVOLVING INJURY, SERIOUS BODILY INJURY, OR DEATH – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (LEGAL REQUIREMENTS OF GIVING

The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury to, serious bodily injury to, or death of any person or damage to any vehicle which was driven or attended by any person shall give the driver's name, the driver's address, and the registration number of the vehicle he [she] was driving and shall upon request exhibit his [her] driver's license to the person struck or the driver or occupant of or person attending any vehicle collided with and where practical shall render to any person injured in such accident reasonable assistance, including the carrying, or the making of arrangements for the carrying, of such person to a physician, surgeon, or hospital for medical or surgical treatment if it is apparent that such treatment is necessary or if the carrying is requested by the injured person.

A driver does not commit the crime of failure to fulfill duties after involvement in an accident involving injury or death if, after fulfilling the requirements set forth above, he [she] leaves the scene of the accident for the purpose of reporting the accident to a duly authorized police authority.

In the event that none of the persons specified above are in condition to receive the information to which they otherwise would be entitled and no police officer is present, the driver of any vehicle involved in such accident after fulfilling all other requirements, insofar as possible on the driver's part to be performed, shall immediately report the accident to the nearest office of a duly authorized police authority and give that authority notice of the location of the accident, as well as all information specified above.

42:23.INT FAILURE TO FULFILL DUTIES AFTER INVOLVEMENT IN AN ACCIDENT INVOLVING INJURY, SERIOUS BODILY INJURY, OR DEATH – INTERROGATORY

If you find the defendant not guilty of failure to fulfill duties after involvement in an accident involving injury, serious bodily injury, or death, you should disregard this instruction and fill out the verdict form reflecting your not guilty verdict.

If, however, you find the defendant guilty of failure to fulfill duties after involvement in an accident involving injury, serious bodily injury, or death, you should sign the verdict form to indicate your finding of guilt, and answer the following verdict question:

Did the accident result in [injury] [serious bodily injury] [death]?
(Answer “Yes” or “No”)

The accident resulted in [injury] [serious bodily injury] [death] only if:

1. The accident resulted in [[injury] [serious bodily injury] to] [the death of] any person.

The prosecution has the burden to prove the numbered condition beyond a reasonable doubt.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has met this burden, you should mark “Yes” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to meet this burden, you should mark “No” in the appropriate place, and have the foreperson sign the designated line of the verdict form.

3. Regarding the bracketed language in the sixth element (“and was not permitted to do so by law”), the statute applies to any person who meets the other elements and who “drives any motor vehicle upon any highway in Colorado except as permitted under this article.” § 42-7-422 (emphasis added). Therefore, if there is any evidence suggesting that the defendant was driving based on permission granted in Title 42, Article 7, the court should craft a supplemental instruction explaining the relevant law. Conversely, if there is no suggestion that the defendant’s driving was permitted under Article 7, the court should omit the bracketed language.
4. The statute provides for a mandatory jail sentence, “except in a case where the defendant has established that the defendant had to drive the motor vehicle in violation of this section because of an emergency.” § 42-7-422. The Committee has not drafted model instructions.

The elements of the crime of failure to give notice of spill are:

1. That the defendant,
  2. in the State of Colorado, at or about the date and place charged,
  3. was the driver of a motor vehicle transporting hazardous materials as cargo, and
  4. the vehicle was involved in a hazardous materials spill, whether intentional or unintentional, and
  5. the defendant failed to give immediate notice of the location of such spill and such other information as necessary to the nearest law enforcement agency.
- [6. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of failure to give notice of spill.

3. The Committee has included the "whether intentional or unintentional" language in the fourth element because it appears in the statute. See § 42-20-113(3). The Committee notes, however, that this language is arguably superfluous, as the prosecution will never need to introduce evidence to prove it. Rather, this language presumably clarifies that a defendant may not claim that a spill was unintentional as an affirmative defense.

+ 42:49 TRANSPORTING HAZARDOUS MATERIALS WITHOUT PERMIT

The elements of the crime of transporting hazardous materials without permit are:

1. That the defendant,

3. intentionally,
4. transported hazardous materials without a permit in violation of law.

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has failed to prove any one or more of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant not guilty of transporting hazardous materials without permit.

3. See Instruction 42:50.SP (prior violation – special instruction).

4. This crime applies to anyone who transported materials without a permit “in violation of any of the provisions of section 42-20-201,” C.R.S. 2020. In turn, that statute provides in relevant part as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in this part 2, no transportation of hazardous materials by motor vehicle which requires placarding under 49 CFR part 172 or 173 shall take place in, to, from, or through this state until the department of transportation issues a permit, in accordance with the provisions of this part 2, authorizing the applicant to operate or move upon the public roads of this state a motor vehicle or a combination of motor vehicles which carries hazardous materials.

§ 42-20-201. Therefore, the court should craft a supplemental instruction explaining the permit requirement at issue.

5. + The Committee added this instruction in 2020.

+ 42:50.SP TRANSPORTING HAZARDOUS MATERIALS WITHOUT PERMIT – SPECIAL INSTRUCTION (PRIOR VIOLATION)

If the defendant previously acknowledged guilt or was convicted of transporting hazardous materials without a permit, and the defendant subsequently transported hazardous materials without a permit, a permissible inference is created that such subsequent transportation without a permit was intentional.

A permissible inference allows, but does not require, you to find a fact from proof of another fact or facts, if that conclusion is justified by the evidence as a whole. It is entirely your decision to determine what weight shall be given the evidence.

You must bear in mind that the prosecution always has the burden of proving each element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt, and that a permissible inference does not shift that burden to the defendant.

3. knowingly,
4. violated any of the terms and conditions of an annual or single trip hazardous materials transportation permit.
- [5. and that the defendant's conduct was not legally authorized by the affirmative defense[s] in Instruction[s] ____.]

After considering all the evidence, if you decide the prosecution has proven each of the elements beyond a reasonable doubt, you should find the defendant guilty of trip permit violation.
