To: Twentieth Judicial District Judicial Officers, Clerk of the Court, Probate Registrar, Court Staff and Attorneys

From: Roxanne Bailin

DATE: March 22, 2004

C.R.S. 15-11-515 states that a will may be deposited by the testator or the testator's agent with any court for safekeeping, under the rules of the court. Per order the Supreme Court of Colorado concerning deposit of wills, dated October 22, 2003, the chief judge of a judicial district may direct that no will or codicil will be accepted for deposit with the court in that district due to the scarcity of resources and personnel to conduct the public's business in the courts.

As of the date of this order, no will or codicil will be accepted for deposit in the 20th Judicial District until further order of this court.
