

How to Change or Restrict Parenting Time

1. Basic Information

- You must have an existing court order concerning parenting time.
- For Motions to Restrict Parenting time, check with the clerk's office for special procedures.
- Generally, you must wait two years to file another request to change who the child is with the majority of the time.
- See JDF 1407 i to request a change in the child's residence (big moves).
- Consider if your request change will modify child support. See JDF 1403 i for more info.
- If you file a motion the Court finds frivolous, groundless, or vexatious, you may have to pay the other parent's attorney fees and costs.
- The law that directs this process is C.R.S. § 14-10-129.
