

Chief Judge, Twelfth Judicial District

ORDER REGARDING

Electronic Recording in District
Court

CHIEF JUDGE ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

2003-09
As amended 1-9-17

STANDING ORDER REGARDING
USE OF ELECTRONIC RECORDING DEVICES
IN THE COURTS OF THE TWELFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

RECITALS & ORDER

- A. This standing order is intended to clarify the procedures for use of an electronic record in district court and in domestic and juvenile court matters in the Twelfth Judicial District.
- B. C.R.C.P. 80(a) notwithstanding, Chief Justice Directive (CJD) 2000-02 authorizes the chief judge of each judicial district to waive the requirements of C.R.C.P. 80(a) and permit the use of electronic recording devices as necessary when a court reporter is unavailable.
- C. The Twelfth Judicial District does not currently employ any court reporters.
- D. Until the Twelfth Judicial District is able to hire one or more court reporters, it will be necessary to electronically record proceedings before the district court.

Dated this 9th day of January, 2017.
