DEPENDENCY AND NEGLECT CASES IN GARFIELD COUNTY
CASE MANGEMENT ORDER

The Grand Avenue Bridge in Glenwood Springs is scheduled to be torn down on August 14, 2017. High levels of traffic in and out of Glenwood Springs are anticipated during the bridge construction time frame, which begins on August 14, 2017 and is expected to last ninety-five days.

To accommodate the bridge construction, the Court is shifting the dependency and neglect docket that is currently scheduled for the first and third Wednesday of every month to the first and third Friday of every month. This shift is only effective during the bridge construction time period. The Court will move hearings back to the first and third Wednesday of every month after construction is completed. The shift to the first and third Fridays will begin on August 18, 2017 and continue through the end of December 2017. Below is a table summarizing the shift in dates. The currently scheduled times for the hearings will remain the same.

The Court will allow respondent parents, respondent parent counsel, Guardian ad Litems, the Assistant County Attorney, caseworkers from the Department of Human Services, CASA volunteers, and any other party to the case to appear for court hearing via video in Rifle. Parties may also continue to appear in person at the courthouse in Glenwood Springs during this time frame.

Magistrate Ryan and her clerk will initiate the video conference from the courtroom in Glenwood Springs. Any party wishing to appear in Rifle via video is instructed to report to the Garfield County Courthouse located at 200 E. 18th Street, Rifle, Colorado 81650 at least 15 minutes prior to their scheduled hearing time. Parties needing the assistance of an interpreter must notify the Court in writing 14 days prior to their scheduled hearing date if they plan on attending in Rifle.

The video hearing will still be recorded and transcripts of the hearings will be made available as normal.

So ordered July 18, 2017.
