ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER ON BOND SCHEDULE FOR COUNTIES WITH PRETRIAL SERVICES PROGRAM

This administrative order establishes a bond procedure and schedule for all counties in the 9th Judicial District that have a pretrial services program. In Rio Blanco County, Administrative Order 13-10, entered September 23, 2010, continues to apply. In Pitkin County, Judge Ely’s Administrative Orders that address bond also apply.

The pretrial services program applies only to persons being held on new charges. Persons being held on Failure to Appear, Failure to Comply, Probation Violation and Parole Violation warrants may be released by posting the bond required by the warrant. The Pretrial Services Report procedure does not apply to these types of warrants.

NEW CHARGES--ELIGIBILITY FOR RELEASE: In counties with a pretrial services program established by the 9th Judicial District’s Pretrial Services Board, for persons being held for new charges, to be eligible for release on bond without first seeing a judge or magistrate, the defendant must provide the information necessary for the pretrial services supervisor, or his or her designee, to complete the Pretrial Services Report (including the CPAT (the Colorado Pretrial Assessment Tool)), and a CPAT Risk Category designation must be available.

GARFIELD COUNTY EXCEPTION for PART OF WEEKEND: Due to budget constraints, the Garfield County Pretrial Services Program is currently unable to perform CPAT risk assessments on Saturdays. For so long as this constraint continues, any individuals booked into the Garfield County Jail on a Friday after the time when no more CPAT risk assessments are being performed or individuals booked into the Garfield County Jail on a Saturday are eligible for release without first providing the information necessary to complete a CPAT. For such individuals, the person may be released by posting the bond set forth below for a person in CPAT Risk Category 2. If a CPAT risk assessment becomes available for such an individual before the bond is posted, then the eligibility for release requirement shall apply in the same manner as for arrests and bookings at any other time.

For new charges, all bonds posted without first seeing a judge or magistrate shall include the following condition:

AT YOUR FIRST APPEARANCE BEFORE A JUDGE OR MAGISTRATE, YOUR CASE WILL BE REVIEWED FOR PRETRIAL SERVICES. IF YOU ARE ORDERED TO PARTICIPATE IN ANY PRETRIAL SERVICES, THE JUDGE OR MAGISTRATE MAY MAKE COMPLIANCE WITH THOSE PRETRIAL SERVICES A CONDITION OF YOUR BOND.

This condition is mandatory whether the bond amount and type are established by an arrest warrant or, for warrantless arrests, by the schedule below. Unless superseded by a court order, the following bond schedule shall be applied by the Sheriff of counties with a pretrial services program with respect to releasing on bond any person arrested in that county.

When a judicial officer sets bond in an individual case on a warrant or upon an appearance, the judicial officer may use this bond schedule as a guide. However, the judicial officer is not bound by this schedule and shall exercise his or her independent judgment to set the amount, type and conditions of bond in the manner determined to be appropriate by that judicial officer under the law. Whether or not a bond previously has been posted under the provisions of this schedule, whenever the issue of bond is considered or reconsidered at an appearance of a defendant before a court of record, the Court shall determine the type of bond and conditions of release according to the standards and appropriate factors required by § 16-4-101, C.R.S., et seq.
