ORDER APPOINTING MEMBERS TO THE 19TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT DRUG OFFENDER TREATMENT BOARD

Pursuant to House Bill 12-1310 and C.R.S. § 18-19-104(1), each judicial district is required to create a Drug Offender Treatment Board, whose membership is knowledgeable about criminal and juvenile justice matters. The Board shall give priority to drug court funding if the jurisdiction operates a drug court and the drug court operates with best evidence-based or promising practices. The Drug Offender Treatment Board shall annually make recommendations to the Colorado Correctional Treatment Board for funding assessed treatment needs in the 19th Judicial District.

House Bill 12-1310 and C.R.S. § 18-19-104(1) establishes membership of the Board, which includes the District Attorney of the 19th Judicial District or his designee, the Chief Public Defender or his designee, the Chair of the 19th Judicial District Community Corrections Board or his designee, and a parole officer working in the judicial district as chosen by the director of the Colorado Department of Corrections. Additionally, certain members of the Board are to be appointed by the Chief Judge of the judicial district and pursuant to this authority the following persons have been selected to serve on the Board:

1. The Weld County Sheriff or his designee;
2. Ryan Kamada, Esq., who is a person with expertise in juvenile matters;
3. Kevin Nelan, the Chief Probation Officer of the 19th Judicial District;
4. Linda Jeffers, who is the Program Director of Intensive Addiction Services at North Range Behavioral Health, as the representative of the 19th Judicial District Drug Treatment Court;

Dated: July 31, 2012
