

VOLUNTEER ATTORNEY CLINIC
1st Judicial District

Volunteer attorneys can explain estate proceedings, guardianships and conservatorships and other simple probate-related procedures. The clinic will take place over the phone. The attorney is not able to review documents – just answer questions. Your call can last up to 15 minutes. You will be assigned a 30-minute window where the call will take place. If you do not answer the call, the attorney will attempt to call you one additional time during the two-hour clinic. If you do not answer a second time, you will have forfeited your turn.

Volunteer attorneys will not provide a second opinion on your case if you already have an attorney. Volunteer attorneys do not represent you on your case. This service is designed for one telephone conference. If you are not able to resolve the problem you have presented to the volunteer attorney today, you should consider retaining an attorney to represent you or applying for representation through an agency:
